TCC Golf Awards Presented

Wednesday, August 31, was awards day for ladies of Tecumseh Country Club.

Stan Brion, club pro, presented the trophies to the following club match finalists:

Maurine Hannibal won the championship flight over Ginger Burrington; T.C. Roekle over Myrna Downing in the first flight.

Gloria Jahner won over Joan Beal in the second flight which Bobbie Smith defeated Jo Zumstein in the third flight.

Because of the number of teams, the Old Pal Tournament was divided into two groups by draw. Carol Davis presented prizes to those winners.

First Group: Marty Owen and Ruth Temple, first; Harriet LaVoy and Carol Davis, second; Joan Tucker and Barb Palmer, third; T.C. Roekle and Nancy Griffin, fourth.

Second Group: Edna Smith and Maurine Hannibal, first; Esther Claude and Annabelle Bock, second; Irene Feldman and Ann Dodd, third; Joyce Manwaring and Fran Kuthe, fourth.

Safety Course Set

The Tecumseh Recreation Department, in cooperation with the Tecumseh Rifle and Pistol Club, will sponsor a seven week youth hunter safety course for all area youths aged 12-16 years old.

Registration is $4.

The class will be held one night only on Monday, Sept. 19 at 6 p.m. in the basement of the Community Center on the highway side.

THS Golfers Are 4th

Tecumseh's golf squad took fourth at its own second-annual Tecumseh Invitational high school golf tourney held at Center-View Golf Course on Wednesday of last week.

The Indians scored 327 behind winner Jackson Lumen Christi with a 304, Adrian with a 308, and Jackson Parma Western at 314.

A total of 13 schools participated with Carlson occupying the cellar at 371.

For Tecumseh, Dave Graf shot rounds of 38-39-77, Keith Bauman hit 39-39-78, John Paxton shot 44-40-84 and Kevin Koszka carded a 43-45-88.

The golfers opened their regular season on Wednesday of this week against Adrian. This Friday, they travel to Bedford and next Monday to Lumen Christi. Next Wednesday they travel to Ann Arbor Huron.

CHS Runners Begin

Clinton cross-country kicks off its season this Thursday against East Jackson.

Coach Ozzie Hashley is welcoming back seven returning lettermen from last year's edition which compiled a 10-2 record and finished second in the LCAA.

The team would like to move up a notch this season and capture the league title.

Leading the Redskins will be senior All-LCAA members Mike Risner and Wally Pike. Risner was seventh in the state in the two mile run while Pike is a four-year letterman along with senior Chris Wojtowicz.

Hashley says of the LCAA, "The league looks fairly well balanced with Manchester, Addison, Blissfield and ourselves all fielding veteran teams."

Historic District Ordinance Hearing Set for Monday Night

Opponents and proponents of the Tecumseh Historic District Ordinance took their cause to the homeowners in the proposed historic district this past week in an 11th hour attempt to rally property owners behind their causes.

They are interested in a public turnout at a special public hearing, scheduled by City Council at 8 p.m. at Tecumseh City Hall Monday night.

Council meeting begins promptly at 7:30 p.m. Meeting is public and during the public hearing, city officials will hear audience opinions on the proposed historic district ordinance.

There are about 90 properties in the historic district, which would be affected, W. Chicago Blvd. from 206 to 710 and Union St. from 207 S. Union to Evans Creek Bridge on N. Union St.

At the last Council meeting on Sept. 6, Mayor Harold Easton and Council members Aden Mead and Jay Tressler questioned the proposed powers of the Historic District Commission to be created by the ordinance. They said it should be an advisory council only. They also questioned whether the city charter enabled Council to appoint such a commission.

Attorney Greg Forsthoefel was asked to report to Council on these questions at Monday's meeting.

According to the proposed historic district ordinance the seven-member commission appointed by Tecumseh City Council would be required to review any exterior improvement that in any way changes the original architectural design or appearance of the building, including garages and accessory buildings.

Public Act 169 is the legislation that enables Michigan communities to establish a historic district commission.

The commission would have to reach a decision within 30 days or automatic approval would be granted. Appeals could be made to Council, which would have the final say.

Terrance Beland, 111 N. Union St., a 30-year resident of Tecumseh who opposes the ordinance was circulating an open letter, gathering signatures. While Beland said he approves the concept of a historic district, he said that the ordinance is "discriminating" against property owners in the historic district. He added that the request and appeal procedure takes too long and is "aggravating" to property owners.

"We're definitely encroaching on a right that somebody has," he said, referring to the proposed role of the historic district commission. He believes that the commission should be advisory only.

Meanwhile, members of the historic district study commission, appointed by Council in 1973 to propose a historic district and protective ordinance, were surprised by the last minute opposition.

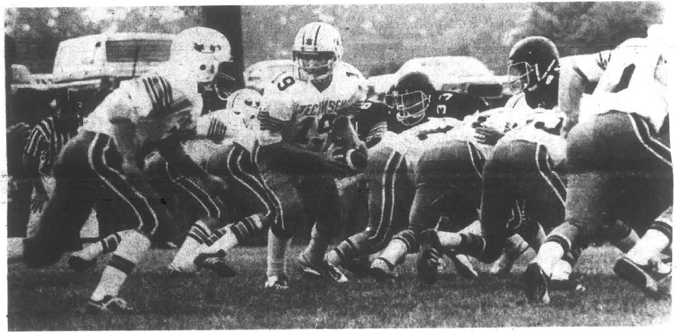
Neighborhood block meetings were publicized and held in the homes of historic district property owners in January and February to explain the purpose of the ordinance and to accept comments.

"Where were these opponents then?" asked Teresa Powers, one of the study committee members.

Public hearing was also held by the study committee in July. Monday's public hearing precedes the final reading of the ordinance, providing no further changes are made.

Members of the historic district study committee were circulating copies of the proposed ordinance among new homeowners in the historic district.

SIDELINE SUPPORT — Between the fans and the cheerleaders, Tecumseh's football squad should have ample sideline support this year. As the Indians begin Huron League play Friday at New Boston Huron, fans will see these six ladies cheering. They include, (l-r) Paula Knisely, Kim Kruger, Karen Wisner, Wendy Moore, Angie Spagnoli, and Lisa Sprague. (PHOTO BY KENT DOWNING)



TECUMSEH IMPRESSIVE — Indians started the season right Friday night, walloping Chelsea 32-6 for Tecumseh's second straight win over the Bulldogs. Photo above illustrates the reason why Tecumseh was so impressive. Hard charging linemen frequently opened gaps for backs to scamper, and here quarterback Jeff Hans prepares to hand off to Jeff Robideau.

Indians Outclass Chelsea, 32-6, in Grid Opener

Tecumseh opened the '77 season with an easy 32-6 win over Chelsea last Friday night in what has to be rated the Indians' most impressive opener in years.

Although Coach Pat Connors' team trimmed Chelsea here a year ago, Friday's triumph was even more impressive.

This Friday night, the Indians travel to New Boston Huron and are heavily favored to mark up their league victory of the season. Huron also opened last week against a non-league opponent and came out on the short end of a 26-13 score against Milan.

If last week's scores are an indication, Tecumseh may not encounter any "real" opposition until it meets Flat Rock next week and when Gibraltor-Carlson comes here for homecoming on Oct. 21.

Five of eight Huron League teams lost openers. Only the Indians, Carlson and Flat Rock were winners with FR just edging Dundee, 14-12.

Police Chase, Finally Nab Driver on W. Russell Rd.

According to police reports, two Tecumseh officers were nearly struck last Wednesday when they tried to stop a Jeep that led them on a wild chase through much of the city's southwest side.

The driver of the suspect Jeep, Donald C. Nichols, was apprehended after his Jeep overturned on westbound Russell. Nichols was charged with driving under the influence (DUIL) and with driving with a suspended license.

According to police, they first tried to stop the Nichols auto on Chicago Blvd., but the Jeep did not stop until after the driver lost control and the vehicle slid sideways on Patterson St. As the officers approached, the Jeep took off and stopped again when Nichols lost control.

According to reports, Officer Young was then nearly hit as he approached the Jeep as it took off. The auto stopped again when it got tangled in guy wires. Officer Laninga then approached the car and was nearly hit by the vehicle as it left still another time.

The Jeep finally came to rest after a number of turns and after running a number of traffic signs. Nichols apparently lost contol as he went into the ditch on Russell, hit a couple mail boxes , ran into a tree, bounced off and flipped over.

Nichols was transported to Herrick Hospital and kept overnight for observation.

A resume of other police action includes:

Sept. 9—Fred W. Kraft, 21, of Toledo, was pulled over by police on M-50, near Rodgers, and cited for DUIL. A warrant was also issued for driving with a suspended license.

William Schmidt, of 4651 Macon Rd., reported the theft of two tires and wheels from his auto Friday. Schmidt had parked the vehicle in his front yard to sell it.

Sept. 10—Gregory H. Sturtevant, 25, of 212 S. Democrat was arrested on DUIL charges after police first stopped him on W. Chicago for equipment violations. Sturtevant was also reportedly driving erratically left of center, and off the road.

Sept. 11—Police arrested Gregory W. Brighton, 26, of 7128 Centennial, for DUIL after they stopped him on W. Chicago. Brighton was reportedly driving at an excessive speed and erratically. A warrant was also issued for driving with a suspended license.

Also on Sunday, Francis Opel, 208 N. Union, reported her car window smashed with a beer bottle.

THS Student Dies from May 15th Bike-Car Mishap

Services are 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Purse Funeral Home for Douglas Jeffrey Barron, 15, of 8981 Tipton Hwy., Tipton, who died at 3 a.m. Sept. 14 at University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

He was in critical condition after a bicycle-car accident on M-50 in Tipton on May 15.

He was born Feb. 24, 1962 in Tecumseh, the son of Donald and Gertrude (Bordine) Barron. He was a life-long resident of the Tipton-Tecumseh area. He would have been a 10th grader this fall at Tecumseh High School. He was a member of the Berean Baptist Church, Adrian.

Survivors are his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. James (Gertrude) Stuart of Tipton; his father, Donald, Sr. of Harrison; four sisters, Beth Ann Barron at home, Kathy Stuart at home, Diane Stuart of Tecumseh and Brenda Stuart of Adrian; three brothers, Donald Barron Jr. at home, Duane Stuart of Sioux Falls, S.D., Bruce Stuart of Adrian; his grandmothers, Helen Bordine of Tecumseh and Myrtle Barron of Hudson.

He was preceded in death by his grandfathers, one sister, Becky (Barron) Allen in 1976.

The Rev. David R. Mills will officiate and burial will be in Brookside Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Purse Funeral Home after 2 p.m. Thursday.

New Book on Schools Available

A book entitled, "Lenawee Schools," is available at the Lenawee Vocational Technical Center and the Intermediate School District office in Birdsall.

The book, a companion book to "The Little Red School - Foundation of Lenawee County," numbers 173 pages and was edited by Harriet Fields and Cindy Mowrey of the Intermediate School District.

Besides all public schools in the county, articles and pictures of Adrian College, Siena Heights College and private schools also are included.

Background information about the schools, past enrollment figures, administrators and school board members are listed.

The book in hard cover form is $5, and in soft cover, $4.

4 Petitions Out for City Council

Two incumbents for Council, Mayor Harold Easton and Aden Mead, will seek re-election in November. The Herald was not able to contact Len DeMoss about his intentions to seek re-election.

Mead is circulating a petition, and Easton said Tuesday that he intends to do likewise. Two other petitions have been taken out, but city hall officials do not know for whom.

Next Monday, Sept. 19 at 5 p.m. is the deadline for filing at city hall. Three seats on Council are to be filled.

Elementary Enrollment Tops 2,400

Enrollment in the Tecumseh Public Schools is about as projected, Supt. Robert Duhan reports.

There are over 2,400 students in kindergarten through the eighth grade. High school enrollment figures will not be available until next week.

Breakdown per grade is:
Kindergarten — 259
First grade — 312
Second grade — 276
Third grade — 276
Fourth grade — 228
Fifth grade — 239
Sixth grade — 248
Seventh grade — 267
Eighth grade — 310

In retrospect, total enrollment for the schools here in 1941 was just 614, about one-fourth of the elementary grades.

Damages Minor

Firemen were summoned late Wednesday morning to the Clark Station on W. Chicago Blvd. after acid, used in washing down walls, got into the electrical system and flared up.

Damages were minor.

Seven Accidents, 5 Drivers Cited

Tecumseh police investigated seven accidents this week, including one, three car accident. Five drivers were cited in all.

On Tuesday, Robert L. Eding, 40, of North Adams, stopped in his traffic lane on S. Evans at the Patterson intersection when Stanley E. Clark, 35, of North Adams stopped behind him.

John J. Wieck, 27, of Toledo then approached and hit the Clark auto from behind, pushing it into the Eding auto. Wieck was cited for failing to stop within an assured clear distance and for having no operator's license.

A resume of other accidents includes:

Readers Express Views

To the Editor:

I attended the City Council meeting last week and expressed the view that making the Historic District Commission an advisory body would seriously weaken the proposed Ordinance.

On further reflection, however, this seems like a good idea.

If the Commission rejects a homeowner's plan for alteration, the final decision would be made by Council; the homeowner would not have to appeal or go through any red tape.

I support the proposed change, and hope that all interested persons will attend the Public Hearing that follows the Council meeting next Monday.

Sincerely,
Richard N. Lewis
President, Tecumseh Area Historical Society

Dear Mayor Easton,

We are writing you concerning recent remarks made by you regarding the Tecumseh Historical District Ordinance in the "Adrian Telegram."

We were shocked to learn that the one person who should really be aware of the concerns of the citizens in the historical district could make such remarks? Apparently you could care less about the future of the historic homes and of the community.

We are entirely in favor of the Historical Ordinance even with its restrictions. We own one of the homes that is to be included in the historic district. We have worked very hard for the past two years restoring our home, trying to make it attractive and a credit to the community. We want the assurance that our property will be protected from the decay that has struck so many homes in the older districts of many other communities.

We have talked to people from all over the country that have visited Tecumseh and they always remark that they remember the beautiful old homes and the small town atmosphere.

Come on Mr. Mayor, let's work to keep it that way?

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Powers, Jr.

301 N. Union St.
Tecumseh, Michigan

Dear Herald Readers and Councilmen,

I would like to encourage any of you to see an active Historic District near Tecumseh. The Old West Side District of Ann Arbor has been following Historic District guidelines since 1972 when it was placed on the National Register of Historic Sites.

You may simply drive through this south west side of Ann Arbor which includes multi-family, commercial and single family properties or you can take the tour of open homes which starts at the Church of Jesus Christ at 520 W. Jefferson. Free babysitting for children under 12 is provided.

In spite of its closeness to the city, it is a desirable place to live because the residents have worked together using historic district guidelines.

The tour is Sunday, Sept. 18 from noon to 5 p.m. for $2.50 includes shuttle bus service five homes and the Ann Arbor Ashley St. Railway Depot (417 S. Ashley).

Founded the same year as Tecumseh, 1824, Ann Arbor has many homes of the same vintage as Tecumseh. Home maintenance is something we all face so you may also want to take in the Home improvement exhibit this week starting Thursday, Sept. 15 at 6 p.m. and continuing until 6 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is free to this exhibit and instructional clinics to be held at the Artillary Armory W. Eight Mile Rd. A special section will deal with energy saving projects.

Sincerely,
Lynn Cook
Historic District Study Committee Chairman

To the Editor:

On Monday, September 19th, our city council will be holding a hearing on a proposed historical ordinance for our city. I have done a fair amount of research on what this ordinance says and what some people think it means. Some seem to think that it will skyrocket the values of their non-historic homes while others have hopes that money will be available for their historic homes. To this I must say "BUNK." In fairness, it is written in the proposed ordinance that money could be available if. . if. . if. . donations are received or federal or state funding is procured. Not a will be available but a maybe. And if we can increase property values by passing a law, let's pass a lot of them so that everyone in Tecumseh can sell and get rich.

What I find in reading the ordinance is the very real fact of a great deal of aggravation for residents of the proposed district and the real possibility for a loss of freedom for homeowners. In the ordinance is a chart for what you will have to ask permission of the advisory board to do. You can repair your steps if you want, but you cannot remove or replace them without permission and so on and so on and so on. I urge all residents to go to the library and see for themselves.

One of the freedoms in this country that I enjoy the most is the right to own property. I am sure many others feel the same, and I cannot help but wonder what the reaction would be if instead of a historical ordinance, we were proposing an exclusive home ordinance for homes all over Tecumseh worth $80,000.00 or more. I do not feel that people in these houses would like to have recommendations on shingle color, door sizes, or any of the other nonsense this ordinance is proposing any more than I want it. For the record, I am not proposing such an ordinance and would be glad to help fight it if one were proposed.

In conclusion, I urge all citizens of Tecumseh to come to council and oppose this proposed ordinance. At its best I feel it presents a great deal of aggravation for the residents of the proposed district, and at its worst, it could deny us rights so that a man's home will be the historical board's castle and his aggravation to care for.

Dear Editor and Council Committee,

To the fine people of Tecumseh, the family of Jerry, Claudia, Lynnette and Tracy would like to say "hello" and that we are very happy to be living in your town.

To us the town represents vitality, beauty, stability and a geniune friendliness and concern for its citizenry.

Since we have moved to 408 N. Union two months ago, we have enjoyed riding our bicycles through the very pleasant cemetery and around most of the streets within the city. We have found very few small towns that could compare to Tecumseh's well kept appearance.

Thus, it is with sincere concern and growing affection for your town that our family would like to support a historical posture.

To maintain and restore the beauty and stateliness of yesterday affords each and everyone of us visible roots.

Let each of us search our hearts and decide whether in this rapid world of change, impersonalization, greed and indifference we should hold on to the fine and respected aspects of our past.

Sincerely,
Claudia Daugherty
408 N. Union

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

Residents Have Responsibility

The decision facing Tecumseh Council on the proposed historic district ordinance is a tough one, the impact of which could permanently alter the character of the city.

In its decisions, Council generally must decide what is in the best interest of the city at large. But, in this case, the rights of the individual property owners within the district are also in question.

While the Tecumseh Herald supports the concept of the historic district, it agrees with city officials that the commission to be appointed should be an advisory board, similar to the Planning Commission. Unless it is an advisory board, we would oppose the ordinance and believe most residents would also.

A public hearing for the proposed historic district ordinance will be held next Monday evening at 8 p.m. at city hall. It is an opportunity for residents and property owners, particularly those residing within the historic district, to express their views and opinions to Council.

It is not only fair for elected officials to hear from the residents, but it is also the duty and responsibility of the residents to state their opinions.

Questions that arise are:

Do we preserve our older, charming homes?

Do we, the city of Tecumseh, pass an ordinance to assure preservation?

Do we place a statute on the books that will take away some of the freedoms of private ownership?

Everyone, we believe, wants our historic buildings preserved. The obvious problem is how and with what restraints or restrictions, and do we have the right to regulate private ownership.

This is the problem facing Council.

Perhaps, by your attendance and by stating your views, you can help our elected officials reach a just proper decision.

Talking It Out

ROGER PROCTOR

What should I wear to the funeral?

Black is no longer the only color appropriately worn for a visitation, wake, or funeral.

Today a visitor may wear colorful clothing which expresses good taste. Gloves and hats may be worn, if desired; but are being worn less and less.

The widow or widower will usually wear something basic or conservative in color and style.

All persons attending the visitation of funeral should wear clothing which will contribute to the atmosphere of dignity and respect for the family and other mourners.

Your attendance at the funeral or visitation is a simple, but meaningful way to let the family know that you share their loss, that you wish to be considered as one of those who care and will be around to help in the future. It's a one-time opportunity and postponed condolences become awkward for both parties.

If you have any further questions, please feel free to call us.

MR. and MRS. RAYMOND BOCK

Diane A. Kotlarczyk, Raymond Bock Marry

Immaculate Conception Church, Milan, was the setting for the Aug. 6 ceremony uniting Diane Agnes Kotlarczyk and Raymond Frank Bock. The Rev. Fr. Joseph Strzelewicz officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Kotlarczyk, Clinton-Macon Rd., Tecumseh. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Bock, Milan.

The bride wore a white organza gown styled with a bodice of Venice lace with a high neckline and capelet sleeves that formed a ruffle to the back. A ruffled hem of Venice lace accented the skirt and ended in a chapel train. She wore her mother's cross necklace.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Derral Prater, sister of the bride, of Tecumseh.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jerry Kotlarczyk, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Gary Bennett, Cathy Kopka, Donna Douglas, cousin of the groom; and Brenda Memering, cousin of the bride.

Flower girl was Trina Bell, cousin of the groom.

Kara Prater, niece of the bride was the miniature bride, wearing a white gown designed as the bride's, made by her mother, Mrs. Darral Prater.

Ricky Bennett, friend of the couple, served as the miniature groom in a white suit like that of the groom.

Best man was Gary Bennett, of Ypsilanti.

Ushers were Joe Lathers, Jerry, Felix Jr. and Dennis Kotlarczyk, all brothers of the bride and Tim Bock, brother of the groom.

A reception at United Products Workers Union Hall was attended by 450 guests.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riggs, aunt and uncle of the groom and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Memering, aunt and uncle of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Britton-Macon High School and is employed in the Personnel Dept. at Sycor, Inc. of Ann Arbor.

The groom is a Milan High School graduate and is employed as a truck driver with Binieki Bros. of Maybee.

Following a wedding trip through Canada and Niagara Falls, the newlyweds are residing at 1702 Mooreville Rd., Milan.

Richardson, Vogel Wedding Set at UCC

Nuptial vows were recited by Joyce Richardson and Robert Vogel, Sept. 3, in the United Church of Christ, Clinton, before the Rev. Roy Wagner.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Richardson, 1960 Service Rd.

The groom's parents are Mrs. Henry Louwerens of Pensacola, Fla., and Douglas Vogel, Chelsea.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight Qiana gown with a sheer lace bodice accented with appliques and hand beaded seed pearls, mandarin collar and sheer lace inserts in the fitted sleeves. Skirt ended in a chapel train.

Appliques and seed pearls decorated the caplet headpiece which held the chapel length veil. Red roses and baby's breath formed the bridal bouquet.

Maid of honor Sherry Alcock of Tecumseh, sister of the bride, wore a sea spray Qiana gown with applique of white lace on the V-neckline and cap sleeves. A matching picture hat was trimmed with forest green velvet ribbon and held at the back with yellow silk flowers. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Susanna Hively, sister of the bride, Tipton; Terry Dobson, Dearborn Heights and Jan Hunt, Tecumseh. Their gowns were identical to the maid of honor.

Flower girl, Kristen Shelley, niece of the bride, wore a candlelight gown with matching pinafore of nylon eyelet and a picture hat of ivory trimmed with green ribbon and held with a yellow silk flower. She carried a basket of yellow sweetheart roses.

Ring bearer was Gabe Parr, nephew of the groom.

James Hunt, Tecumseh, was best man. Ushers were John Kennedy, Tecumseh; Timothy Merritt, brother-in-law of the groom, Mt. Clemens, and Kenneth Pieh, Adrian.

Reception at Peerless Gear Union Hall was attended by 250 guests.

The bride is a graduate of Clinton High School and is a senior at Eastern Michigan University, studying physical education and elementary education. The groom is a graduate of Clinton High School and is a senior at Western Michigan University studying physical education and industrial arts.

They spent a weekend in Niagara Falls, Ont. and are residing in Chelsea.

1 can (15 ounce) tomato sauce
1 package (10 ounce) frozen peas, thawed
4 teaspoons basil leaves, crumbled
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper
¼ cup margarine
6 cups thinly sliced peeled potatoes

Rehydrate minced onion and garlic in water for 10 minutes. In a large skillet heat oil. Add rehydrated onion and garlic; saute for three minutes. Add ground beef; cook and stir until browned. Add tomato sauce, peas, 3 teaspoons of the basil, 1 teaspoon of the salt, and the black pepper. Bring to boiling point, then reduce heat and simmer uncovered for 5 minutes. Pour into a 12x8x2 inch casserole; set aside.

In small saucepan melt margarine, stir in remaining 1 teaspoon basil and ½ teaspoon salt, set aside. Top meat in casserole with a layer of 1-3 of the potatoes; brush with one third of margerine mixture. Repeat layering with potatoes and margarine twice more. Bake uncovered, in 350 degree oven until potatoes are tender and golden, about one hour.

Consumer Education

Registration is now being held at the Vo-Tech Center for this fall's Consumer Education program.

Different courses are being offered at no charge, but participants must meet the requirements of low-income families living in Lenawee County.

This includes recipients of Aid to Dependent Children, unskilled and semi-skilled persons, unemployed individuals, senior citizens and those who do not have a high school diploma.

Most sessions are from 7 to 9 p.m. and begin Sept. 12. Free child care is provided.

For more information, call the Vo-Tech Center 263-2108 or come out to the Center at 2345 North Adrian Hwy., Adrian.

Third Organ Recital Planned

Michele Johns and Donald Renz, doctoral student and masters degree candidate respectively, studying with Marilyn Mason of the University of Michigan, will perform in concert during the third in a series of organ recitals at St. Peter's Church at 7 p.m. Sept. 18.

Johns is organist at Bethlehem United Church of Christ, Ann Arbor and co-founder and first dean of the Ann Arbor Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

She received her bachelor of music education degree from Northwestern University and a master of music degree in organ performance from the University of Michigan.

She held various church positions, taught public school and directed civic groups in Wisconsin, New Mexico and Illinois. She organized and directed two five-day multi-media festivals of religion and art at Bethlehem Church.

Donald Renz, a native of Ann Arbor, received his bachelor of music and master degree in choral music education from the University of Michigan.

He has taught public school in Dearborn Heights and Northville and sings professionally with the Kenneth Jewell Chorale in Detroit. He is organist-choirmaster at All Saints' Episcopal Church in Pontiac.

Five Teachers Added to Staff

CLINTON — School board voted approval to hire five additional faculty members at Monday's meeting.

New faculty members hired are: Diane Boggs, high school and middle school, elementary vocal music; Dennis Bowman, fifth grade; Dennis DeVerna, social studies high school; Nancy Schwab, special education middle school; Karl Beach, second grade.

Board resolved to borrow $400,000 against state aid at 3.75 percent interest.

Board agreed to abide by the rules of the Michigan High School Athletic Association for Interscholastic Athletics.

Board went on record as opposing Senate Bill 714 concerning unemployment compensation for hourly employees.

Superintendent Richard Wegner reported enrollment on Sept. 9 was 1273 students.

An additional crossing guard has been added at US-12 and Currier St. A crossing guard has been hired to work at E. Franklin St. to replace Evelyn Hathaway, who resigned.

Millage was set at 29.49 total.

Secretarial contract will be retroactive to July 1, 1977. A 5.5 percent increase is being recommended for all hourly employees, bus drivers, custodians, secretaries and cafeteria workers, due to the fact that they do not have the benefit of a 10-year increment. Contract was ratified.

Bus drivers contract was ratified. An attempt will be made to hire a person to act as both mechanic and transportation supervisor.

Teacher negotiations are still at an impasse. A mediation hearing is being considered.

Since other schools have paid police at their games, Supt. Wegner will check into possibility of hiring police for Clinton games.

Slides Shown

CLINTON — Slides about United Methodist Women and what the organization stands for, were shown by Linda Waltz and Sharon Scott at the opening meeting of the season, Monday night.

Leaders of each woman's group related their activities.

Doris Reiser told of where the UMW funds go.

Global Missions Chairman Sharon Scott reported on the knitted stockings, knee sox, elbow sox and scarves that the church women have made. She'll continue sending them to the leprosy colony as long as women keep making them.

Used eyeglasses are still being collected for mission use.

Carolyn VanGaasbeck read Marjorie Holmes' "Psalm for Women Who Serve the Lord."

Next meeting on Oct. 3 will feature Carol Goodrich speaking on Southern African Women.

A home products demonstration will be held Sept. 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the church, sponsored by UMW.

Sept. 28 and 29, the women will be collecting and marking rummage for the sale during Fall Festival.

Quilting bee is being held every Wednesday from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the nursery at the education building.

Bible Study, each Wednesday at 1 p.m. is open to all at home of Mrs. Donald Coward, 309 Donna Dr.

Book Fair date is Dec. 1-6.

Friendly class meets at 2 p.m. Sept. 15. Dorcas Class meets Wednesday Sept. 21 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ruth Ward.

Faith Circle will meet Sept. 22 at 7:30 p.m. at home of Marjean Satterla.

Group Inspired

CLINTON—Mary Martha Class members were treated to an inspirational recording of the Pre-Easter Alleluia Concert, composed by Bill Gaither and presented by 140 voices in the Rosedale Church of the Nazarene.

Mrs. Aurelia Sweeney hosted the meeting Tuesday, attended by ten members and a guest, Mrs. John Fox.

Plans were made for the progressive gourmet dinner on Oct. 22. Limited to Mary Martha members and their husbands, the dinner will be hosted at the homes of Mrs. Glen Bihlmeyer, Mrs. Paul McKenna and Mrs. Mervyn Witherell. Proceeds will benefit the organ repair fund.

A card shower was planned for Doris Weidmeyer, who will observe her birthday, Sept. 16 at Provincial House, Adrian.

Hostesses were named for coffee hours during the Sundays of October.

Mrs. Bihlmeyer will be hostess for the Oct. 11 meeting. Mrs. James Heimerdinger will have the program and Mrs. Harold Moon will present the devotions.

Officers Elected

CLINTON — New officers were elected at a business meeting following a potluck supper by members of the Clinton Baptist Church, Saturday night.

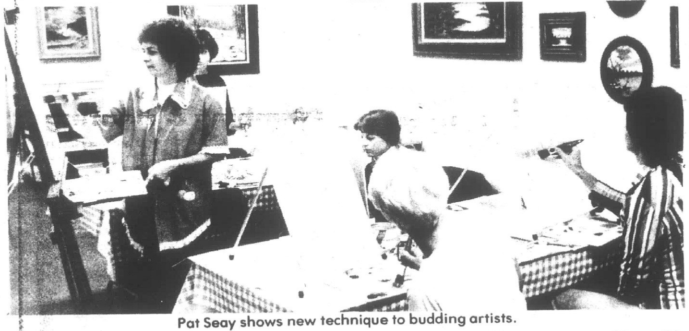
Volunteers would have to work just one evening a month.

Anyone interested is asked to call Clinton athletic director Fred McCrate at the high school.

Board Meets

CLINTON — Clinton Township Library Board held a lenghty discussion on the possibility of installing air-conditioning in the library. No conclusion was reached at Monday's meeting.

Project for the Fall Festivel will be discard book sale. Individuals may also donate discard books to the sale.



Pat Seay shows new technique to budding artists.

Pat's Craft Studio Is Expanded

Pat's Craft Studio at 108 E. Chicago Blvd., has expanded again—for the second time since it was opened by Pat Seay, in April 1973. An upstairs apartment has been redecorated for studio art classes and her office.

Although she isn't scheduling a formal open house, Pat would like to have folks stop in anytime to see the new studio area. Entrance is through the shop area.

Located at first in a small room in the Abner building on N. Evans St., the studio featured mostly paper crafts, decoupage, paper tole, shadow box and novelty art classes and supplies.

Pat Seay is a quick-study, largely self-taught creative craftswoman, who had no business experience, but who has learned by doing as she progresses through the ups and downs of managing a toddling new business.

By first year's end, the craft studio, and students had outgrown that location and it was moved to the present site on New Year's Day, 1974. There was a larger studio area for craft classes, then, but it has become crowded as classes continue to grow in size.

Mrs. Seay has received her accredidation from the Priscilla Hauser technique of tole painting, and has attended other craft seminars, where she has perfected her creative talents in canvas painting, macrame, and other art.

There's a staff of four assistants, Maryann Smith, Bonnie Thomas, Donna Milbauer and Mary Feight.

Maryann and Donna are becoming creative artists in their own right and this fall will begin teaching rose maling classes. Sally Kennedy of Adrian, who recently completed Priscilla Hauser training, will teach beginning tole and decorative painting this fall at the studio.

Bonnie specializes in miniatures and will teach making of miniature room scenes.

It is the popularity of the canvas painting classes, which necessitated the latest expansion.

Wide brush, oil painting on canvas permits the novice painter to complete a large landscape scene—in three hours or less—and take it home—framed if she likes, that day.

So enthusiastic an artist is Pat Seay that she took along her canvases and brushes on some long camping weekends this summer and returned with several finished paintings.

Visit Chapel

CLINTON — Historical Society of Clinton held its meeting Sept. 6, in the newly restored chapel in Riverside Cemetery with 28 members.

The chapel with its beamed wooden ceiling and leaded glass windows was enhanced by donations from some of the local churches such as the old pulpit and railings from the Methodist Church, and a large pulpit Bible from the United Church of Christ.

Sexton Joe O'Donnell is interested in learning if the Bible was donated to the UCC Church by the family of the chapel's architect, the Rolands.

Area craftsmen also assisted with the project as the altar and frames for the chapel donors list were made by Olin Swaney of Tecumseh; the windows were repaired by Don Meyers' son-in-law, Gordon Pische; altar lettering and a plaque of the 23rd Psalm made by Bob Decker; carpeting from Hartungs to cover stained floors, and Alton Hoelzer, general contractor.

There are still many things which would make the chapel the kind of place Mr. O'Donnell envisions for the community and which would make fine memorials for a loved one.

Contact Joe, cemetery sexton, if interested in such a memorial gift opportunity.

After the meeting at the cemetery members returned to the Community Center for the business meeting. The marker for the Clinton Inn site was ordered and paid for and is scheduled to arrive the week before Fall Festival, but is doubtful that it could be installed by that weekend.

If anyone has pictures of dancers or fiddlers or related activities taken before 1900, the Michigan Fiddlers Association is interested in their preservation, contact Shirley Fraley.

Three local members, Shirley Fraley, Sharon Scott, and Genevieve Reilly, will take part in the State Historical Society meetings at Holland, Mich. Sept. 15, 16, 17.

Next meeting is a special joint meeting with the Lenawee County Historical Society on Sept. 22. A potluck supper will be held at the Clinton United Methodist Church. Coffee will be provided. Bring a dish to pass and own table service. Dinner begins at 6:30 p.m., program features Shirley Fraley's Clinton Homes Program.

The Society will have a booth at the Fall Festival on the lawn of the Community Center. Call Ruth Davis to volunteer your time. Three boards on local history will be displayed with copies of antique postcards for sale.

The Society will travel to the Monroe Historical Museum for its Oct. 4 meeting. Rides will pool at the Community Center at 7 p.m. Contact a member if you need or can offer a ride.

Pfc. Rodifer Is Promoted

CLINTON — Marine Pfc Edward L. Rodifer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rodifer of Clinton, has been meritoriously promoted to his present rank upon graduation from recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C.

He received the early promotion for his performance during all phases of the 11-week training cycle, which emphasized physical conditioning, self-discipline and teamwork.

Fireman Given 120 Day Suspension

CLINTON — Clinton Township Board voted to accept the Fire Board's recommendation for the 120 day suspension of Jim Schuler, fireman. Action is retroactive.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Tschirhard were present to inquire on a property matter and were referred to the Zoning Board of Appeals.

Dan Goodman was present to request approval for resumption of a beauty shop by Mrs. Goodman, in the former Kirkland house, where a previous beauty shop was in operation. Board approved.

A meeting of the Riverside Cemetery Board was announced for Sept. 15 at 7 p.m. in the township office.

Auditor's report for 1976-77 was approved.

A Federal Revenue Sharing budget of $19,440 was approved for 1977-78. This sum is budgeted for road work in the township.

An increase from $45 month to $75 was voted for the constable, who is patrolling the cemetery.

Grant Is Sought

CLINTON — Village Council resolved to accept the Step 3 Federal Grant for the Wastewater plant.

Extensive dicsussion concerned the rules and regulations of the fire department. Matter will be referred to committee to determine procedure for promotions.

Question arose concerning residents who seek to build a driveway across village property. Matter was referred to village property committee for action.

Council approved preliminary plans for Pleasant Valley Estates Plat 4.

Next regular meeting is Wednesday, Sept. 21.

George Underwood Ford-Lincoln-Mercury

In this day and age when every car maker offers such a wide selection of models to choose from it is really difficult for you to decide where to go for a new car. All the companies advertise that their cars are the best, but who is to say which car really is. Obviously all the cars on the market today must have their good points or they wouldn't have survived the ups and downs of the business. We, therefore, can conclude that the real difference in buying a car is the dealer from which you make your purchase.

The ideal dealer to buy a car from offers a fair price on the new unit as well as an honest dollar for the car you trade in. However, the most important factor is the service that you receive on your new car year after year.

We would like to point out a dealer that considers the most important part of selling a car the quality service he can offer you after the sale. We are talking about George Underwood Ford-Lincoln-Mercury, at Tecumseh and Macon Rd. in Clinton, phone 456-7414, dealers for the famous Ford-Lincoln-Mercury automobiles. They are now announcing their newly completed $150,000 new service facility, featuring the latest in modern service equipment. See them today for a new or quality used car, and you'll see why we say "Customer Consideration" is their byword.

Scholarship Received by Tecumsehite

Julia L. Quigley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Quigley of 606 W. Pottawatamie in Tecumseh, was awarded a Board of Regents Scholarship at Eastern Michigan University for the 1977-78 academic year.

A graduate of Tecumseh High School, Julia is studying social work at Eastern.

The Regents Scholarship, the most prestigious offered at Eastern, is awarded to incoming freshmen, transfer students and undergraduate students at Eastern who have maintained a minimum 3.75 grade point average.

Recipients of the scholarship are afforded an extensive relationship with the faculty and staff of Eastern through honors courses, seminars and tutorials.

Rally Day Celebrated

Rally Day was observed at the Tecumseh United Church with giving the new third and fourth graders the Young Readers Bible.

The following children received them:

4 Are Named Semi-Finalists

Four Tecumseh High School seniors were named semi-finalists in the 23rd annual National Merit Scholarship program and will compete for scholarships in the finals.

Selected among the 15,000 national student semi-finalists were James Harris, James Phelan, Deborah Randolph, Lawrence Webber.

70 PARTICIPATED — The Indians' "war drums" were heard Aug. 29-Sept. 1 as the Shawnee Marchers held band camp at THS this year. At left, Andy Neilson and right, Dennis Fin, Debbie Patten and Lynn Smith drill in spirited marching style. They will perform at home game halftimes.

3 Area Youths Are 4-H Citizens

School may be in progress, but three Tecumseh area 4-H youth won't forget their recent trip to Washington, D.C.

Debra Sue Johnson of Ridgeway, Mike Boring of Tecumseh and Darlene Whelan of Tipton were part of a 35 member delegation from Lenawee, Monroe, Washtenaw and Oakland counties that participated in the annual 4-H Citizenship Shortcourse.

Besides a week-long living experience with 4-H youth from six other states, they took part in an intensive program designed to help young people understand the structure and function of the government, the country's development and role of individuals in the nation's future. The program theme was "Historic Preservation."

Using the capital as a "classroom" the program included a day on Capitol Hill. The Lenawee group toured the Capitol, the Supreme Court, and the Library of Congress. Since Congress was not in session, the 4-H'ers met with staff aides, asked questions about the legislator's roles and how youth could become involved in government process.

At seminar sessions, at the National 4-H Center, the young people discussed contemporary issues and concerns and explored ways to use new skills in 4-H programs back home.

Besides heritage programs including a film on Anna Costa, the youth took part in sessions on consumerism and used voting machines to indicate their views on contemporary issues.

Field trips to historical and cultural sites were among the most exciting events of the week. The group toured The National Cathedral, Mount Vernon, The Lincoln Monument, The National Archives, The Bureau of Printing and Engraving, and Ford's Theatre.

The group also visited a wax museum, The Beltsville Agricultural Experiment Station, The National Zoo, and saw a play - "Do You Turn Summersaults" with Mary Martin and Anthony Quinn at the Kennedy Center. Many of them took their first ride on a subway.

High points of the trip were the never-ending displays of the Smithsonian Institute, going up the Washington Monument at night, the Old Guard presentation at the Jefferson Memorial and the changing of the guard at Arlington Cemetery.

Citizenship '77 was conducted for nearly three months by the National 4-H Foundation on behalf of the Cooperative Extension Services of the state land-grant universities and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

In addition, the 4-H facility is open all during the year to families and organized groups interested in visiting the Washington area. (Pre-registration is required.)

4-H members were sponsored in part by donations from the 4-H Council, the 4-H Project Parents, and the Lenawee County Bankers' Association.

The Lenawee 4-H group prepared for its trip with several special programs, including: Discussion of local and state government, attendance at a County Board of Commissioners meeting, a visit to the county paper and a tour of many Lenawee County government offices and services.

A general pre-trip orientation meeting was also held with delegates from Monroe and Washtenaw counties. After the trip, they met in Adrian with U.S. Representative David Stockman and Dick Lackie, Lenawee Commissioner.

During the school year, the 4-H'ers will be encouraged to participate in a tri-county citizenship program as well as a new Lenawee County community understanding and action program, Action Through Citizenship by Teens (ACT). Other Lenawee youth interested in this program should contact the 4-H Youth Programs Office (263-8831, ext. 333).

Program will prepare youth to better understand and participate in the American democratic system through local government.

Yearbooks Available

The 1977 Tecumseh High School yearbooks are available for pickup at Room 118 at the high school from 12:25 to 2:20 p.m.

Jaycees, Auxilary Planning M Night

"M" get acquainted night Oct. 1 is just one of the many projects that the Tecumseh Jaycees and Auxiliary are enthusiastically planning for the 1977-78 year.

About 850 invitations have gone out to young men and women 18-35 who are eligible for membership in the Tecumseh Jaycees and Auxiliary.

"Hear, See, Do" safety lesson records that teach 35 safety rules to kindergarteners and preschoolers were presented by the Tecumseh Jaycee Auxiliary to the five kindergarten classes of Tecumseh Public Schools and the two pre-schools in the community.

Mrs. Janet Dotson of Lenawee Engaged Against Drugs, LEAD, presented the story of the volunteer group at the summer potluck held at the home of Mrs. Frank Myers. LEAD uses the Christian approach to rehabilitate drug users. A check for $294 was presented to Mrs. Dotson for LEAD from the Jaycee Auxiliary.

Sarah Russell was given a standing ovation for her Auxiliary member work at the Michigan International Speedway concession project.

A film on alcohol awareness will be shown at the Sept. 27 meeting at the Occidental Branch of the United Savings Bank at 7:30 p.m. Anyone interested in the topic is invited to attend the entertaining and informative 40-minute film which relates to the Auxiliary's national project, Operation Threshold on alcohol awareness.

"Make Today Count," a program to help clinically and terminally ill children with home and hospital care is one of the new programs organizing for the new business year.

Helping hands are emergency assistants for neighborhood children indicated by blue hand window posters in individual homes. The program is being initiated by the Tecumseh Jaycee Auxiliary.

Cancer Awareness is another program being considered for the community.

A total of 40 jobs were offered to Tecumseh teenagers through the Jaycee Auxiliary supported Job for Teens summer program. The Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation paid for the answering service and advertising.

Any young woman between the ages of 18-35 who is interested in joining the Jaycee Auxiliary of Tecumseh may call Patsy Bush, 423-2566.

Sue Palmer received the Jaycee Auxiliary Scholarship for $250.

'Yesterday' Show Plans Underway

The women of the First United Presbyterian Church of Tecumseh are busy searching through their attics, basements, and closets for dresses and accessories to be presented at a style show of yesterday's gowns.

Prior to the show there will be a salad luncheon with dessert. Proceeds from the affair will go toward purchasing and installing an elevator in the church.

A limited number of tickets will be sold. Two hundred will be seated downstairs in the fellowship center, and 50 upstairs in the church lounge for those who cannot use the stairs.

The same program will be shown to all. Tickets are available at the church office, 423-3470.

Arlene Ousterhout and Jean Henning are co-organizers of the luncheon and style show to be held at the church, Oct. 1 at 1 p.m.

Wood Carvings Are Featured

Many hours of labor that go into the wood carvings of Maurice McIntosh were appreciated by members of the Abi Evans Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at a Sept. 9 meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh.

Mr. McIntosh displayed his art pieces and showed the many colors of various woods he uses in his work.

Mrs. McIntosh hosted a potluck dinner that preceded the meeting.

Irene Wisner, vice-recent conducted the meeting in absence of the regent Mrs. Frank Vanderlinden. A prospective member, Mrs. John Hermandez presently of the Plymouth Chapter was introduced.

Mrs. Neil Pearson delivered a short paper entitled "If We Loose Endangered Plants, We May Loose Ouselves."

Next meeting will be Oct. 14 with Mrs. Edwin McClain.

Ladies Aerobic Dance Class Set

The Tecumseh Recreation Department will sponsor a Ladies Aerobic Dance Class beginning Sept. 29.

The class will meet at the Community Center on Tuesday evenings from 7-8 p.m. and at Patterson Elementary School Gym on Thursday evenings from 7-8 p.m.

Pre-registration for this 10-week class is required at the Community Center. Enrollment is limited.

For further information, contact the Recreation Department at 423-5602.

A LOOK INSIDE
Herrick Hospital

BY

KATHY BAILEY, R.N.

RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

Now that you have been admitted, you will leave the admitting office, accompanied by a nurse's aide or auxiliary volunteer during the day, or an admitting clerk during the evening.

All patient rooms are currently on the second floor, where you will find clean surroundings, bright colors, and bathrooms in each room.

The West wing has showers in each room, and although you might have to walk to a shower on the South wing, the South wing boasts color-coordinated curtains in each room.

Your room is chosen for you on the basis of your sex, your diagnosis, and whether or not you smoke. In compliance with Michigan Health laws, every attempt is made to separate smokers from non-smokers.

All rooms are equipped with electric beds, with the exception of Intensive Coronary Care Unit, where as a safety requirement, the beds are operated by hand.

Each room also features the "Executone". This is an intercom system or call light system that makes it possible for patients to converse with the nursing staff at the desk. This is a valuable time saver for both the nurse and the patient. Televisions are available through the hospital auxiliary volunteer service for $1.50 per day, and telephones are provided in each room for our patients convenience. If you wish to call a patient at Herrick Hospital, please dial 423-7436 and ask for his or her room number.

Especially for those employees who have been here many years and remember the "old part" or the "old wing", we are all proud to be able to offer to our patients a clean, well-equipped, esthetically appealing hospital room and facility. All patients rooms at HMH have been attractively remodeled and modernized.

Next week we'll move into II East and meet some of the nursing staff there.

Macon Montage

By Sharon Connors

An opening game victory is always good! It was especially good sharing the news with Mike early last Saturday morning when he called from Ft. Hood, Texas and asked "How did we do dad?"

Pat Jr. was already at home for the weekend and it was fun hearing sons and their dad former players and their coach discussing Chelsea games gone by.

Tim was able to put his two cents worth in from the ballboy's view over the years.

A big family project took place in Macon last Sunday. Sons and daughters of Don and Clara Davis along with their spouses and children converged on the family home to finish painting the house.

The paint "bee" was suggested some time ago by Wayne Davis and the group picked a day.

A potluck dinner and supper were enjoyed as much work was accomplished by Linda and Jerry Stern and Scott, Ralph and Nancy Fraley, Wayne and Sharon Davis, Judy and Jack Crittenden, Steve and Mark and Donnie Davis.

While the crew worked dad was the supervisor and mom worked in the kitchen. Mom's pies and a homemade German chocolate cake were on the menu.

The Macon Women's Club met last Thursday at the home of Rose Kollar with 11 members and four guests present. Following a potluck luncheon Dr. Charles Lindquist narrated a slide program. Happy birthday was sung to Charlotte Rohn.

Special guest was Mrs. Melvin (Bessie) Travis a past member of the group who is visiting in Macon.

Members are reminded to bring something for the Goodwill Bazaar to the next meeting at Kay Golema's home on Oct. 13.

The following children received certificates of merit from the Lenawee County Bookmobile at the end of the summer:

Kris Connors, Ricky and Shelly Dapprich, Bradley, Greg and Wendy Helm and Vicki L. Hover.

Each child either read or had read to them eight or more books. A poster with their names along with other county children can be found in the bookmobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills Swick and Mrs. Herbert Gilmore enjoyed the historic home tour in Marshall, Michigan last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jordan have returned from a wonderful two week trip thru the Canadian Rockies.

A picnic was held on Labor Day at the home of Richard Gagneur on Ford Hwy. Attending were John and Debbie Gagneur of Westland, Roland and Joyce Gagneur and family of Westland, Don and Diane Volmich and sons of Detroit, Harry and Sue Gagneur and family of Saline, Chuck Mende of Clinton and Janet Rundell of Tecumseh. The day ended with a hayride and a family ballgame.

Oil and gas drilling has begun in the Macon area this past week. Much activity can be found behind the Charles Gorton home. The CEDCO Drilling Co. is doing the work and reports they will go down 3,800 ft. before moving to another site in our area.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Osborne enjoyed a two week vacation through the Upper Penninsula. They especially enjoyed the Algoma Train Trip through Canada. Their big news is not the vacation however, but the birth of a new grandchild, Nicole Haines born last Wednesday. Her proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Haines of Deerfield. A carnation was placed on the altar at the Macon Methodist Church last Sunday morning for little Nicole.

Mrs. Herbert Morden and daughter, Meredyth Short, drove to Anna, Ohio last Wednesday and accompanied former Maconite, Mrs. Melvin Travis back to Macon. Mrs. Travis will be a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards while enjoying a two week stay in the area.

On Sept. 20, the Women's Fellowship will play bingo with residents at Hillhaven Convalsecent Home in Adrian. The group will meet at the Church at 6 p.m. Please bring gifts for the games, for men and women.

The choir will practice on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

The Confirmation Class meets on Thursday at 7 p.m. The Gospel Lanterns will sing on Sept. 25 during the 11 a.m. Church Service.

A potluck supper will be held at the Tipton Grange at 7:30 p.m. Members should take a dish to pass, dessert and table service.

The Grandmothers Club met at the home of Mrs. Raymond Platt on Thursday for dessert. After playing pepper, the group spent the afternoon with Mrs. Rosella Vollmer, at the Lenawee Medical Care Facility.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cook spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cook in Chesapeake, Va.

Overnight guests on Friday of Mr. and Mrs. Cook were Mr. and Mrs. Dorman Rockwell of Largo, Fla.

Pythian Sisters will meet on Sept. 19 at 8 p.m. in the hall.

The following persons won prizes at the public card party at the Grange Hall last Saturday night. Woodrow Hunt, Harold Radant, Tommi Watson, Mary VanValkenburg, Ruth VanVleet, Martha Anglemeyre, Vera Driffill, Arlene Hunt and Hubert VanCamp. Ten tables were filled for euchre.

NFO Purchases Walper Elevator

BRITTON — NFO Members Commodity Cooperative Inc., a local corporation comprising of members of the National Farmers Organization from Lenawee, Monroe, Washtenaw, Jackson, Ingham, and Livingston counties, has purchased the former J.J. Walper and Son Elevator in Britton.

An open house was held Sunday in celebration of the purchase of the grain marketing facility by the new owners. Over 300 attended.

George Anton of Tecumseh is the new NFOMCCI president and manager of the elevator has been with the NFO for seven years.

According to Anton, the purchase is an additional link in a nationwide collection, dispatch, and delivery system for grain coordinated by the NFO.

The Britton site was chosen by the NFO because it is in the center of a prime grain production area and near the Norfolk and Western.

The NFO facilities does not purchase grain from non-NFO members, but they may use the facility for drying and storage, but farmers must join NFO or make other arrangements to sell their grain. Fertilizer and chemical sales and services are available to both members and non-members.

Walpers have been part owners since 1915. In 1939 John J. Walper and son, Dalton, took over the business until the middle forties. After Dalton passed away a family corporation was formed with son J.J. Walper in charge.

Many additions and alterations and up-to-date services were made over the years to meet the demands of farmers.

Children's Theme Is 'Sing it Out'

RIDGEWAY — "Sing It Out, Jesus Loves You" will be theme for the Children's Meetings to be conducted by Uncle Les and Aunt Nancy at The Ridgeway Church of the Nazarene Sept. 19-25, at 5886 Ridge Hwy. from 7 p.m. to 8:15 p.m. each evening except Saturday and Sunday evening.

With them will be their puppet friends: Puppens, Corky, Faygo, Grandpa and Grandma Willoughby, Obadiah and Randy. (Pictured above with the Wheelers.)

The Wheelers are from Swartz Creek, and travel extensively in the summer months conducting the Children's Meetings. They will use stories, songs, "scene-o-felts," and scripture verses to help children discover ways that the Lord shows His love and ways to praise God for His love.

A feature of the meetings is the way Uncle Les and Aunt Nancy award prizes.

The Rev. James Stephenson, pastor, invites everyone to attend these meetings especially the children.

PUPPETEER MINISTRY — Les and Nancy Wheeler and friends, present "Sing It Out, Jesus Loves You," at Ridgeway Church of the Nazarene, Sept. 19-25.

Barbecue, Pull Set

BRITTON — The Britton-Macon FFA will hold its annual tractor pull and chicken barbecue on Saturday, Sept. 17.

The Pulling will begin at 9 a.m., beginning with the 2,000-5,000 lbs. class, and the barbecue will be held at noon.

All entries must weigh in at Sohigro Service Co. at 300 Maple St., Britton, prior to pulling. Scales will open at 7 a.m.

Other weight classes will range from 5,001-7,000; 7,001-9,000; 9,001-12,000; 12,001-15,000.

Tractor must have stock engine block, but internal modification is legal.

No dual wheels or steel wheels are allowed.

Prize money will be proportional to the amount of entries in each class. Trophies will be awarded to the top winners.

Entries may pull in as many weight classes as desired but must pay the entry fee in each class.

All pulling will stop at noon time for a chicken barbecue lunch.

Camp Girls Tour Farrells

BRITTON — Mrs. Allen Bower accompanied her fourth grade Camp Fire Girls on a tour of Farrells Ice Cream Parlor in Toledo, Ohio, Sept. 6.

After the tour everyone enjoyed a big sundae and soft drinks.

Girls who went were Andrea Bower, Cindy Boike, Sarah Bush, Nickie Cook, Mitchelle Jordan, Deanna Osborne, Trisia Rohrs, Colleen Spence and Patty Willaert.

Others going were Mrs. John Osborne and Dena, Mrs. Dennis Rohrs, Missy, Amy and Robin Rohrs, Susie Oswald, Todd and Scott Bower.

Mrs. Charles Spreeman, 211 E. Shawnee and children, Guy, 13, Anna, 12 and Mary, 8 returned Aug. 26 after a two month vacation in Okinawa, Japan where they visited with Mrs. Spreeman's parents.

The family was joined on the return trip by husband and dad, Charles, and together the family vacationed the last six days of the trip in Hawaii. Upon return home they were greeted by a welcome home banner designed by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Spreeman, 9631 Murphy Rd.

That Saturday, the Charles Spreeman family left for seven-day visit in the Manistee where Charles competed in the salmon fishing contest.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Keller, her parents, returned from a trip to Iowa and Missouri last week. They visited Dr. and Mrs. Howard Hunt and daughters, Heather and Jennifer, the new baby in Fairfield, Iowa. While there, they also attended the Midwest Old Settlers and Threshers meet at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

A daughter, Amy Marie, was born Aug. 30 to Sgt. and Mrs. Raymond Adams of Erlangin, Germany. She weighed 6 lbs. 5 oz. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Withrow Jr. of Green Hwy.

Beth Dobrowsky returned home from Shriners Children's Hospital in Oak Park, Ill. and enjoyed the cards sent by many friends.

Ruth Kuder, 6400 Clinton Macon Rd., answered the mystery question: What ever happened to hometown baseball player Ed Miller? He was born in 1860 the son of Henry Miller and Neddie Crittenden and resided in Macon. A grandniece, Velna Crittenden, resides at 13975 Saline-Macon Rd., Saline. Miller is buried in Macon Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Cliff of Applegate and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spavin of Columbiaville were Wednesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Kempf. All but Mr. Spaven were classmates of Mrs. Kempf.

S. Sgt. and Mrs. Gene Halberstadt, Christopher, 3½ and Jennifer 1½, were visitors Aug. 30 to Sept. 10 at his mother's and grandmother's home, Evalyn Halberstadt and Ethel Wright. This was the first time the women saw their granddaughter and great-granddaughter.

WINNING LOGO — William J. Polk, plant manager, reviewed and congratulated Peggy Aebersold on her winning entry of the logo design contest held recently at the Tecumseh Plant. Peggy, a resident of Tecumseh, is a second shift sewing machine operator.

Aebersold Wins Design Contest

William J. Polk, plant manager, on behalf of the Logo Committee announced the winners of the 1977 Tecumseh Plant Logo Contest.

Top-place winners include Peggy Aebersold, first; Bill Zietlow, second; Chuck Day, third; Joe Pickney, fourth; and Robert Broadbridge, fifth.

Those entries receiving an honorable mention designated were submitted by Amanda Thomas, James Waigle, Bill Menges, Bill Zietlow and Joe Pickney.

Prizes for the top five winning logos include, first place - microwave oven; second place - color TV; third place - CB radio; fourth place - cooker kettle; fifth place - AM-FM clock radio.

The top 10 entries, selected from nearly 100, submitted by hourly and salaried employes were subject to several judging steps. The first, by the Logo Committee, selected the top 25 entries; next, an independent panel of plant and community representatives selected the top 10 finalists (first-place through honorable mention).

Guest judges for this panel were Lynn Cook, Tecumseh; Sister Jeanine Klemm, Siena Heights College; Edward Leahy, The Daily Telegram; and Earl Mason, United Savings Bank of Tecumseh.

The final logo selection was then reviewed and approved by the Logo Committee and plant management staff.

Polk explained, "The new logo for the Tecumseh Plant will be put into finished form and adapted for use in behalf of the plant and employes to represent us as the definition of 'logo' implies. . .'a sign, standard or symbol uniquely designed to represent the level of performance of a company, their people and their product'."

Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

A record was broken this Labor Day weekend—unfortunately. For many years the last holiday of the summer brought a family of young, fresh-out-of-the-nest cardinals to the feeders. This year we waited and waited, watched and watched but saw not the slightest trace of any youngsters. How disappointing.

This is not to say that the feeders hosted no young birds over the holiday weekend They were, in fact, quite busy. The trio of little tufted titmice continue to be daily visitors.

Over Labor Day they took another step into the world of adults. They found new voices — instead of kid talk they started experimenting with the tufted titmouse's "peter, peter, peter". It didn't come out too well on the first tries but they keep at it and hopefully, practice will make perfect.

There were also chickadees at the feeders. Young chickadees. Gertie T has had them for quite some time but we are not often lucky enough to entertain these characters at this time of year. But with their squeaky little "chickadee-dee-dee-dees" they come bounding down out of the trees and had no trouble at all on the food trays.

Actually they were on the food trays, under them, and all over the bushes. Happy-go-lucky sprites, every bit as full of high spirits and the joy of life as they are on a cold blustery day.

If the chickadees did not act young they certainly looked it. Their feathers were smooth and slick but the brownish cast on their backs was an unmistakable sign of youth. The soft fluffy feathers on their fronts was also a dead giveaway. But those silky black caps were gorgeously adult as was the white on their faces.

Their little black eyes were shiney bright and oh, how sharp and pointed were their tiny bills. And yet, how well these bills managed the feeders' bill-of-fare.

Thus went our Labor Day weekend, interesting because of the birds we did have but disappointing because of the cardinals that did not come. But wait, the reds were not a 100 percent disappointment after all.

Late Tuesday afternoon an absolutely charming young female cardinal discovered my near-the-window feeders. she was on her own and all by herself.

A beautiful gal — she was a soft fawn colored brown with a cinnamon red tail and slightly redder markings on her wings. Her face showed not the faintest hint of a black mask, her bill dull and brown,and her topknot nothing but a little ridge of feathers.

As I dictate this the pretty kid is back again. She is coming quite faithfully — how nice! Her appearance is still that of a young cardinal but gradually she is picking up adult ways.

A minute ago a juvenile upside down nuthatch joined her on the feeder and ventured too close. She lost no time in fanning out her tail, opening her dark bill, and inviting him to leave.

But my, eating is still quite hard work. It takes so long to grind through the tough shell of the sunflower seeds. She works and works. Today her tail is flicking up and down. Is it for balance?

She just hopped to the plank between the two feeding trays and settled down for a few minutes of rest. The tail is quiet and she is half crouched. Truly, this is nothing more than a short break in the middle of a hard morning.

If this type of cardinal action continues I shall not complain that the timing was a bit off and the Labor Day weekend record was broken. And really, it was not broken by much.

BUILD BEFORE YOU FLY

We know an airline pilot who used to make model planes. Yes, and we know a doctor who was "first aid man" in his scout troop. And we know an engineer who used to build the best bridges ever built with damp sand at the seashore.

There isn't any important role in life that doesn't have to be rehearsed before the curtain goes up!

Now in every field there are men and women whose Christian character is admired, respected and relied upon by all who know them. You can be sure they didn't suddenly wake up one morning with that kind of personal "nobility." Where then did it come from? How did they acquire it?

Through experience — just as the engineer, the doctor and the pilot acquired their "feeling" for the vocation they would one day pursue!

The church at the corner can't manufacture noble Christian souls. But it can go a long way toward developing in you and me — and in our youngsters — a sense of the potential with which God has endowed us.

A disc sander is a disc covered with a sheet of abrasive paper. A drum sander is a drum or cylinder covered with an abrasive. A belt sander is a belt of abrasive rotated by two motor driven drums. The belt sander is perhaps the most versatile of all since, because of the drums, it can be used as a drum sander as well as straight surfaces. The abrasive paper discs for disc sanders are available in various types and grits.

If you are planning to start a new project for the fall and it includes tools other than what you own, come on in to TECUMSEH RENTAL CENTER, 112 S. Pearl, 423-4470 and let us rent those tools to you. Why buy when it's cheaper to rent is what we say, and in the long run you will be saving money and storage space. Come on in soon and look around, you may not need anything right now but at least you will know what we have to offer. Open: Mon-Sat 9-8, Sun 9-3.

HANDY HINT:
A disc or drum sander can be installed in either a lathe or a drill press.

Bill Wright Scores Ace

Bill Wright scored a hole-in-one at the Tecumseh Country Club this past week when he used a five wood on number 15 and his ball dropped in on the third bounce.

The 19 handicapper shot a 40 for the round. He was playing with Mrs. Teddy Schindler and Gordie and Vera Clark.

37 In TCC Tourney

Thirty-seven ladies took part in the low net, low putts tournament at Tecumseh Country Club on Wednesday, Sept. 7.

Ann Dodd, Joyce Manwaring and Carol Davis were on the committee and presented prizes to the following winners:

First flight - Kathryn Champanois, first low net; Ruth Hanna, second low net; Gloria Schwartz and Ruth Temple tied for low putts.

Second flight - Marty Owen, first low net; June Macbeth, second low net; Nicki Snook and Mary Hanna tied for low putts.

Third flight - Mary Lou Sunderland, first low net; Marge Rohweder, second low net; Millie Butler, low putts.

Jean Merz and Marty Owen had chip-ins.

Indian Golfers Lose 3

Tecumseh's golf squad began its season by suffering three disappointing dual meet losses.

Unlike the past two or three years, the Indians don't have the benefit of experience this season counting only two returning lettermen on their roster.

Keith Bauman and Dave Graf are the returning lettermen. Both are seniors. Filling out the roster are seniors Barry Barnhart, and John Paxton; juniors Kevin Koszka and John Faulkner and sophomore Larry LaVoy.

The Indians fell to Adrian 155-165 while the junior varsity lost 173-184 last Wednesday.

The team traveled to Bedford on Friday and were defeated 162-171. Graf had a 42 with Paxton, Bauman and Faulkner all at 43. The junior varsity won 177-190 with LaVoy leading the way at 39.

Tecumseh went to the 16-team Bowling Green Invitational on Saturday. The Indians placed seventh with a 337. The winning team shot 317. Keith Bauman was co-medalist at 75.

On Monday of this week, the orange and black lost to Jackson Lumen Christi 154-180. Bauman carded a 44, Faulkner and Barnhart a 45 and Graf a 46.

The junior varsity also lost 186-189. Koszka was JV medalist however at 43.

On Wednesday of this week they went to Ann Arbor Huron. They travel to Sylvania next Monday. On Wednesday of next week they host New Boston Huron.

CHS Girls Open Sept. 15

The 1977 girls basketball season opens for the Clinton Redskins on Thursday, Sept. 15 when the girls travel to Saline.

Coach Bob King will be relying on experience with six lettermen returning, including four players who were on the all-league team last year. Clinton has good depth and size with three girls at 5'11" or larger.

Back from last years league and district championship team are senior tri-captains Cathy Gibson, Karen Busch and JoAnn Grossman; juniors Sue Richter and Judy Zimmerman.

Junior Lisa Cark and Kris Pratt, a sophomore are the top replacements. Rounding out this year's team are Lori Pike, Fran Corwin, Karen Coward and Eunice Ball.

All home games will be played in the high school gym with the junior varsity game starting at 6 p.m.

Clinton Thin Clads Upset

Clinton cross country team was upset in its opener last Thursday by East Jackson.

The score was 23-32.

Dwight Sargeant of East Jackson won the meet touring the three-mile Clinton course in 16:03. Matt Peter was Clinton's top runner finishing second in a time of 16:20. He was Clinton's only runner to break into the top five as East Jackson captured the next three places to sew up the meet.

Chris Wojtowicz was sixth, Wally Pike seventh, Tom Nighswander eighth, Mark Prichard ninth, Devin Schindler twelfth, Matt McNeil fourteenth, Dave D'Agostino seventeenth, and Gary Houghton twenth-fourth.

Next Thursday Addison comes to Clinton in a key LCAA match-up.

High School Grads Play College Ball

Several area high school graduates are involved in college grid action.

Kevin Eggleston and Dan Tilton are both freshmen on the Adrian College team. Eggleston is a middle guard while Tilton is a linebacker.

Bill Lutz of Britton is a freshman linebacker at Valparaiso.

Dave Cannon, son of Ret. Lt. Col. Bill Cannon and wife Shirley, is a sophomore tight end at Ferris State College. Dave attended Tecumseh schools in eighth grade but soon moved and ended up graduating from Oscoda.

Indians Pound Chelsea, 32-6

Tecumseh's grid squad proved that it is a team to be reckoned with this season by trouncing an experienced Chelsea team 32-6 last Friday.

Chelsea had no less than 17 returning lettermen but that didn't stop the Indians.

Tecumseh scored twice in the first quarter after Chelsea had fumbled the ball away. Butch Harvey ran in the first score after a 19-yard drive while Jeff Anderson came up with the second score on a 10 yard run.

Neither team mounted a successful scoring drive in the second period.

In the third stanza, Wendell Withrow grabbed a Chelsea handoff and went 38 yards for the score. Dick Cangley came up with a Chelsea pass which set up another score for the Indians. Butch Harvey went seven yards for the touchdown.

John Egbert ran six yards in the fourth frame for Tecumseh's final score.

Jeff Anderson was the leading rusher for Tecumseh with 130 yards in 16 carries. Jeff Robideau had 18 tackles while Dan DeHaan had 14.

The Indians had 218 total yards rushing adding 99 through the air. Tecumseh had 14 first downs to eight for Chelsea.

In other Huron League games, Flat Rock beat Dundee 14-12 while Carlson defeated River Rouge 13-8. All the other Huron teams lost.

The Indians open their league season traveling to New Boston Huron this Friday.

Score By Quarters

Tecumseh	14 0 13 6—32
Chelsea	0 0 0 6— 6

CHS Gridders Beat Madison

Clinton's grid squad opened its season by pounding Adrian Madison 34-0 Friday night at Madison.

The Redskins came up with 14 points each in the first and second quarters adding the final six in the fourth frame.

The first score came when tailback Casey Thilo went 63 yards for the touchdown. Jeff Porterfield added another score in the first frame going four yards.

Thilo and Porterfield both scored again in the second quarter giving the Skins a 28-0 advantage at the half. Quarterback Terry Carlton went 32 yards in the fourth stanza for the final score of the game.

Clinton had 309 yards rushing to 112 for Madison while both teams had 16 yards passing. The Redskins had 21 first downs while Madison had just nine.

This Friday, Clinton hosts Addison.

Score By Quarters

Clinton	14 14 0 6

Tories Crushed

Britton was crushed in its season-opener by the Northwood, Ohio Rangers 54-6 last Friday night.

The Tories only touchdown came in the third quarter when Jeff Osterhout ran 53 yards.

Northwood scored 27 points in the first frame, 14 in the second, seven in the third and six in the fourth for the win.

The Rangers rushed for 183 yards adding 187 yards through the air.

Britton had 213 yards in total offense, all on the ground. Osterhout led Britton with 108 yards while Randy Smith added 62 yards. Osterhout had 13 tackles on defense while Tom Bluntschley had 10.

Britton hosts Whitmore Lake this Friday night to start its league schedule.

Flag Football

Registration for boys' fifth and sixth grade flag football is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 24.

Boys may register between 9 and 12 in the morning and between 1 and 4 p.m. at the Community Center. Fee is $3.50.

Indian Runners Defeat Saline

The Indian cross country squad defeated Saline last Thursday 24-31, but fell to Jackson Lumen Christi 17-42 and Chelsea 27-28 on Tuesday of this week.

Christi is rated second in the state.

Tecumseh's Jesse Castorena captured the top spot against Saline with a time of 16:29. Kirk Oliver was third at 17:13, Brian Banda was fourth at 17:29, Scott Betzoldt was seventh at 17:39 and Doug Bohannon was ninth at 18:07.

Against Lumen Christi, Castorena was fifth at 17:14 while Oliver was sixth, Bohannon eighth, Betzoldt 11th and Jim Harris 12th.

And, in the same match, the finishers against Chelsea from Tecumseh were, Castorena second at 17:14, Oliver third at 17:19, Bohannon fifth at 17:53, Betzoldt eighth and Harris, 10th.

This Saturday the Indians participate in the New Boston Huron Invitational while next Tuesday they again go to Huron for the regular dual meet.

Clinton Golfers Are 1-2

Clinton's golf squad began its season last week losing to Hudson and Grass Lake but beating Blissfield.

The Redskins fell to Hudson 155-178 on Tuesday of last week.

Clinton defeated Blissfield on Thursday 176-190 but fell to Grass Lake in sudden death after tying at 176.

Blake Clark of Clinton was the meet medalist at 40 while other Redskins Bernie Hough shot 43, Mark Dettling 46 and Tom Eddy 47.

Clinton is 1-1 in the LCAA and 1-2 overall.

City Receives $152,000 Grant for Park Work

Tecumseh City Council was elated Monday night when City manager Cal Zorn announced the city's latest receipt of a federal public works grant for $152,000 for completion of the industrial park drive and utilities.

City and Herald office were notified late Friday afternoon by Sen. Donald Reigle's office.

A $312,000 grant for completion of Russell Rd. east to Rogers Hwy. and construction of a bridge over River Raisin was also approved by the Economic Development Administration two weeks ago. The Russell Rd. project extends from Green Hwy. to Rogers. The section from Green to Mill was completed this past summer.

Both the industrial park construction and the completion of Russell Road project were prime objectives in the city's plans for development of the city's industrial park.

The latest grant raises total amount of federal monies on these two projects to $754,000.

Open McDonald's

McDonald's, Tecumseh's newest restaurant, will officially open next Monday morning with a ribbon cutting ceremony scheduled to take place at 9:30.

It will mark the latest in a chain of McDonald restaurants owned by Bill Sigmund of Jackson. He also owns two in Adrian besides several others in this area.

A number of Tecumseh officials have been invited to participate in the ribbon cutting ceremony which is open to the public.

Youngsters will receive gifts for the occasion.

Construction for the new restaurant started here last spring after the property was purchased from John Underwood, Clinton auto dealer and local resident.

Award Contracts

As of Monday, there were 3,650 students enrolled in the Tecumseh schools, board officials learned at Monday night's meeting.

The official count, used for state aid purposes, will be taken Friday, Sept. 30. The above figure does not include adult education students, since that figure is still uncertain.

Officials expect that there are roughly 30 adult ed students.

Last week, Supt. Robert Duhan reported an elementary enrollment of over 2,400.

3,650 Enrolled

At the regular monthly meeting of Tecumseh's Board of Education, board members approved bids for high school carpeting and for furniture replacement in the elementary schools.

Classroom Incorporated of Lansing and Beckley-Cardy were the low bidders to replace certain desks, chairs and other furniture items at the elementary schools. The two bids combined amount to $5689.25.

Merkel-Seidel of Tecumseh was the lowest bidder on carpet for the high school, who met specifications according to school officials.

Work will proceed over the next 30 days to carpet the reading lab and special education classroom. Hopefully, over the Christmas break, workmen will carpet the media center at the high school.

The bid was $7,473.51.

Police Catch 15-year-old after Chase

Tecumseh police and Lenawee Sheriffs chased a 15-year-old Adrian youth by auto and on foot Saturday and arrested the youth for unlawfully driving away an auto.

Tecumseh police reportedly attempted to stop the suspect at Occidental and Russell for having a loud exhaust. The driver, however, sped up, then stopped in the middle of the road and fled on foot in a nearby cornfield.

Police then ran a file on the car and found it to be stolen out of Adrian. Lenawee Sheriffs were then called to help locate the youth.

Two cars patrolled the area while two officers followed the suspect on foot with tracking dogs. The dogs carried the officers to Occidental, at Shady Lane. At that time, a second auto traveled from Shady Lane and turned onto Occidental with the suspect in the car.

The driver stopped in a drive at 2964 Gady Road and fled on foot, leaving the suspect and another youth in the car. When confronted with the incident, the 15-year-old reportedly admitted stealing the car.

In other police reports:

Sept. 14 - James B. McGinness of Grand Rapids reported his auto broken into while parked at the Harvey House Motel. A coat hanger was apparently used to open the auto and steal bags and a leather jacket valued at $450.

Sept. 16 - Mike Mobley of 110 Murray reported malicious destruction to two auto tires. Both were punctured.

Sept. 19 - Rita Blake, 104 W. Pottawatamie, reported a missing person, Albert S. Blake, 20. The young Blake left for Jackson Community College on Sept. 1, but never registered.

Also on Monday, the sexton at Brookside Cemetery reported seven headstones and one urn were turned over.

REFLECT PROUD HISTORY — Pastor Allan Gray of the Tecumseh United Methodist Church and Bertha LaPointe, 62-year member, review the church's 150-year history which will be celebrated this weekend. Oldest members are Wilfred Waldron, 73 years, and Rose Service, 71 years. Miss LaPointe taught Sunday School for 59 years.

Methodists Plan 150th Observance

The 150th anniversary of the Tecumseh United Methodist Church will be observed this weekend, Sept. 23-25. The church was organized Jan. 26, 1828 but due to a possible energy crisis and bad weather, the observation is earlier.

Friday night is a banquet in the First Baptist Church. Greetings will be brought by former ministers: Donald Porteous, Alan Wittrup, Horace James and Ronald Brunger.

Dr. Douglas MacNaughton of Adrian College, whose father was a minister of the church during the 1940's will speak. Aden Mead will act as master of ceremonies. All persons who have been members of the church 35 Years or more will receive special recognition. A vocal octet, directed by Mrs. Donald Bush, will provide special music.

Sunday morning will be a special anniversary worship service with Dr. Robert Paul Ward, superintendent of the Ann Arbor district, as preacher. Following the service there will be a potluck dinner.

At 2 p.m. is a community service to which surrounding congregations were invited. Greetings from civic and religious organizations and special music by the choir is planned.

The Rev. Ronald Brunger, former minister will speak on "Tecumseh Methodism's First Hundred Years." While minister here, the Rev. Brunger wrote a history for the church's 125th anniversary.

Committee members planning these events are Carol Legenc, Genevieve Rodehaver, Joyce Jubenville, Kenneth Wright, Gerald Johnstone and Allan Gray.

Newcomer Joins Race for Council

Five candidates filed petitions at Tecumseh city hall Monday to run for the three vacancies to be filled in the November election.

Newcomers are Michele Worley, 710 W. Chicago Blvd. and Jeffrey Ely, 311 W. Chicago Blvd. Ely, however, withdrew his petition on Tuesday afternoon.

Incumbents seeking reelection are Aden Mead, 128 Brown St., Harold Easton, 701 Center Ct. and Leonard H. DeMoss, 802 W. Pottawatamie.

Hospital Rates Up

William Groover, Herrick Memorial Hospital administrator announced that new room rates were effective Sept. 1 at the hospital and wages of all non-bargaining unit employees were increased.

Semi-private rooms are $85 per day compared to previous charges of $74. Other increases and past charges are private rooms $90, previously $79; ward, $80, previously $69; ICC $241, previously $210.

Groover said that these increases are comparable to charges in other area hospitals.

Emergency room charges are now $13, previously $8. Groover said that the hospital did analyze costs and compared them to charges at other hospitals. "We found we were behind in emergency room rates."

Wages of all nonbargaining unit employees were increased seven percent.

Officers, 2 Trustees Are Elected

Robert Robinson, president for the past year of the Tecumseh Community Foundation, was re-elected president last week at the Foundation's annual meeting.

Two trustees also were elected to the board, Rudy Clum and Wayne "Jim" Gillespie. They replace Kenneth Crause and George DiCarlo.

Other officers are Dr. George Burkhard, who was re-elected vice president, and Marten Vegter, who will continue as secretary-treasurer.

Others serving on the board are James Anderson, Wilma Higgins, Wayne Kaiser and Janet Robinson.

OK Change in Lighting

Tecumseh City Council Monday night approved changes in the lighting layout of the plans for the four tennis courts at Satterthwaite Park.

Change approved was to bring more light to the center of the courts. City manager Cal Zorn said that it would require 12 ft. more of fence, asphalt at a cost of about a $1,000, but would save the city $5,600 on the low bid of Courtesy Electric Corp. for $23,300.

Winterize School

School Board voted Monday night to accept the administration's suggestion that the Macon School be winterized in order to eliminate fuel oil costs. The district paid several thousand dollars in fuel oil costs last year.

The building has not been used in four years, Cooley said.

15,000 Leaf Bags Are Purchased

Tecumseh City Council Monday night accepted the low bid of Union Camp of Tomah, Wisc. for the purchase of 15,000 leaf bags for fall leaf pickup. Cost per bag to city was roughly 9 cents.

Delivery is expected in three weeks. City manager Cal Zorn said that city still has some left over. Bags are the same weight and size as last year.

Highest bid was from Poly Tech of Minneapolis, Minn. for 11.9 cents per bag. Second low bid was Power Plastics Corp. of Brooklyn, N.Y. for 9.6 cents per bag.

Residents Praise, Object to Historic Ordinance at Public Hearing Monday

Are the majority of the residents in the proposed historic district in favor of or opposed to the ordinance that Tecumseh City Council is considering?

The answer was not easily determined during the city's public hearing Monday night. It served more as an airing of public opinion and gave residents a chance to ask questions.

The hearing lasted one hour and twenty minutes and was attended by about 80 citizens, who filled the council meeting room and hall. It was one of the largest and longest hearings in recent memory.

Council did not vote on the ordinance after the hearing. The ordinance was accepted by Council with some changes for the third reading by title only.

Councilwoman Mary Bowers was absent and excused while attending a banking seminar in Southfield.

Mayor Harold Easton said that Council could vote on the ordinance at the next meeting. Council has no time limit to decide, said attorney Greg Forsthoefel.

The most significant changes in the ordinance limited the Historic District Commission, a seven member body appointed by Council, as an advisory body. Revised ordinance states that City Council will receive individual case reports from the commission and in cases of disapproved plans by the commission, Council shall give notice and have a hearing with the applicant and Council shall decide whether or not to issue approval or affirm the disapproved plans.

Therefore the commission would be advisory with Council, the elected officials having the final say.

During the public hearing approximately 17 different persons spoke in favor of aspects of a historic district and ordinance and 10 different people either questioned parts of it or spoke against all or part of it. Some of these 10 spoke more than once. Some speaking on either side lived outside the district. Council did not take a straw vote of the audience. Council members appeared to be noncommital but all seemed comfortable with changes in the ordinance that made the commission an advisory body with final power in elected officials' hands.

The audience erupted into applause seven times during the hearing. Proponents of the historic district and ordinance were applauded five times. One man who asked people to discuss without malice was applauded. An opponent of the ordinance was applauded when he scored a debate point after poking a hole in one proponent's argument.

No one lost his temper during the hearing. Two individuals said that the ordinance did not go far enough. Some said it came too late and was taking too long. All were interested in historic preservation of Tecumseh and expressed pride in the community.

Most of the opposers insisted the historic district should be purely voluntary. Each opponent seemed most concerned about exactly how the ordinance would affect their property, if he decided he wanted to "alter or repair" a home as stated in ordinance.

"Why does it have to be so complicated?" asked Mrs. Duane Francisco, 406 N. Union.

"People don't understand the extent of changes covered in the ordinance," said Council member Jay Tressler. "I suggest you get a copy of the historic district study committee's checklist of guidelines and see if you can live with it. People have a right to know how deeply they are affected."

Council members pointed out, however, that these guidelines are not part of the ordinance. They were submitted to Council in the report of the historic study. The guidelines are suggested working guidelines for the historic district commission that were compiled by the historic district study committee from other guides.

When Mayor Easton kicked off the hearing, asking for those agrieved to speak, Terrance Beland, 111 N. Union, read a prepared statement.

"On this issue, I'm trying to stand squarely in the way," Beland said in part. "Left alone, I'm sure that they (historic homes) will remain that way. I started walking along streets in Tecumseh 22 years ago and find them to be in good or better shape today."

Bob Kline, 511 W. Chicago Blvd., said "I find it very difficult to explain to you if you don't like old houses, what it is like to see one gone. You're lucky you can see what you saw 22 years ago. I hope if it is not passed, you can be as lucky to see it the next 22 years. I will give up property rights because I care."

George Sommermeyer, 305 W. Chicago Blvd., said he helped Beland collect 50 signatures opposing the historic district ordinance. "Nothing in the study proves that an ordinance with teeth is the only way to make a historic district work. Are we sure that this is the final way? I don't need anyone to pass a law to tell me I should maintain my house. If we have a public nuisance, then let's deal with it by another means."

Harvey Schmidt, of 311 W. Shawnee, said "At what point do we decide a voluntary district does not work? At the point we have torn them to the ground and replaced them with gas stations?"

"Twenty five years ago, I fought in World War II so people wouldn't tell us what to do. I think it's time now for it to be stopped," said Buck Maynard, 211 N. Union, who asked for a straw vote.

Lee Worley, 710 W. Chicago Blvd., stated "I fought in the Vietnamese War for rights under the Constitution of the United States. All rights we have come from laws and ordinances. I have probably a bigger investment than any three of you put together. I can either continue to keep up my home the way it is, or I can tear it down, build 16 apartments and bring in 16 families from the inner city to rent it. I'm emotionally uptight over this thing."

Regarding a statement signed by local realtors questioning the ordinance's effect on values of non-historic properties, Worley said: "I'll bet there's not one year experience among those real estate dealers.

Rita Blake of Pottawatamie St. said "I've been listening to the patriots and anarchists and all the others. We live in a police state. We live under ordinances, and all of those who live under zoning ordinances recognize it.

"There is no voluntary program, said Blake "You work out the kinks as you go along. Justice Douglas stated that a city has the right to be beautiful. The majority rules."

"I don't think there's any question we all love the historic aspects," said Council member Aden Mead. "I'm just wondering if this type of ordinance wouldn't preserve it. I don't read all the harshness that some of you people presented. The only difference I see is the permit issue, and we have to do this anyway."

The ordinance requires a certificate of approval to be issued by Council or the commission in case of alteration, moving, demolition, repair or construction.

Beland asked: "Where does the money come from when what you want to do is cheaper than what someone else wants you to do?

"If you say you can't afford it, Terry, I'd say tell us what you can afford," said Mead.

"I'd like to know where in this ordinance it says that this ordinance can make you do anything. It just limits what people want to do," said Beland.

"Therefore," interjected Worley, "you're not giving up any rights. Other ordinances require certain people to do certain things other people do not do."

"I really resent people who say 'they're not going to tell us'. We were selected by Council to do this (study). This was a grass roots effort, not outsiders. We volunteered," said Lynn Cook, chairman of the historic district study commiitee.

Lorraine Gove, 404 N. Union, stated that she did not live in a historic house but still lives in the district and is "extremely interested" "That neighborhood directly affects the value of my house."

Board Opposes Including Office within District

School Board drafted a resolution Monday night, objecting to the inclusion of the Board of Education building in the proposed historic ordinance now before Council.

Members are concerned about the long term effects if the building was included in the district.

Board member Dick Heglin said, "I am supportive of the historical society and the goals of the ordinance. But, I am concerned about subjugating this public body to another public body."

Heglin went on to say that he was concerned that someday the building might become financially unfeasible, but the School Board at that time would have to abide by this historic ordinance.

"A Helpful Guide to Funeral Planning"

That's the title of a free booklet which may answer a lot of questions you may have.

Many residents of our community have used this guide in deciding NOW (when there is no stress or emergency) about making arrangements for funerals IN ADVANCE OF NEED.

Why pre-plan a funeral? First, you can make decisions and choices, Yourself, with full composure instead of under the unfortunate circumstances of grieving and emotional stress.

Second, you need not "overspend." You should select only that service and that casket, and those touches which you feel are important.

That beloved and meaningfully significant Scripture passage, that special hymn, the minister whose understanding and compassion you so admire -- all can be part of your service, if you make your wishes known and arranged-for in advance.

The "Planning Guide" covers a great deal more. Call or write for a free copy.

Backing Car Hits Two Others, Tree

Police investigated an unusual accident Monday when Jan Snyder Hunt's auto malfunctioned and crashed into a tree and two parked cars on River Acres.

According to reports, Hunt, 26, of 4208 Comfort Rd., was backing out of a drive at 1020 River Acres when her auto malfunctioned and sped up. Hunt lost control of the auto and ran into a pine tree across the road at 1019 River Acres.

The Hunt auto then crashed into a car parked in the drive there and pushed that car into a third. Both parked autos, belonging to Milton Meyer, were pushed into the Meyer garage.

Thomas C. Tuckerman, 27, of 418 Adrian, was cited this week for failing to have his vehicle under control after he overturned his car on Rogers, near Blood Rd.

According to police, Tuckerman swerved to miss a dog on Rogers Saturday and ran down a gully. His auto hit a couple trees there and then overturned. Tuckerman sought his own treatment.

Sunday, Beverly J. Knickerbocker of Manchester backed out of a parking space at Kroger's and hit a parked car belonging to John Bartram of Adrian.

Last Thursday, both Sharon M. Hill, 19, of Clinton and Opel Houghton, 48, of 109½ W. Chicago were turning onto W. Chicago when they collided. The two drivers were approaching from different directions on Pearl Street.

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

Apple season is here again. Time to enjoy fresh crisp apples, apple cider and baked apple desserts. Here are two new ways to enjoy your fresh apples.

This fresh apple bar recipe from Mrs. Arlene Whetstone of Willard, Ohio is a prize winning recipe in a contest sponsored by the Ohio State Grange. Delicious!!

FRESH APPLE BARS

3 eggs
1¾ cup white sugar
1 cup cooking oil
2 cups flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon cinnamon
2 cups sliced apples
1 cup chopped nuts

Combine eggs, sugar and oil and beat well. Sift flour, salt, soda, and cinnamon and add to egg mixture and beat well. Fold in slice apples and chopped nuts. Pour into greased and floured pan approximately 15½ x 10½ x 1 inch. Bake 40-45 minutes at 350 degrees. Remove from oven and cover with sifted powdered sugar. Cut into 2½ x 1½ inch bars.

My family enjoys apple butter but I have never tried making it myself. Mrs. Opal Weekley of Wilbur, W.Va., gave me this quick version for cinnamon apple butter. I've sampled it and it is delicious.

APPLE BUTTER

9 cups prepared apple sauce
5 cups sugar
2 tablespoons vinegar
2-2½ ounce cinnamon drops

Combine ingredients in large pan. Cook 20-30 minutes until thick, stirring frequently to prevent sticking. Pour hot into hot pint jars. Adjust caps. Process in boiling water bath at simmering temperature (180-185 degrees) for 10 minutes.

Final Organ Recital Sunday

The fourth in a series of organ recitals at St. Peter's Episcopal church will be Sept. 25 at 7 p.m. featuring Tong Soon Chang and Dennis Schmidt, organists and students of Dr. Marilyn Mason of the University of Michigan.

The works of J.S. Bach (1685-1750), Nicholas DeGrigny (1672-1703) and Jan Pieter Sweelinck (1562-1621) will be performed on the Von Beckerath organ.

Tong Soon Chang attended the College of Music, Yonsei University in Seoul, Korea and was graduated with a bachelor of music degree in organ in 1972.

She studied organ with Dr. Mason and received her master of music degree in 1974. As a pianist, harpsichordist and organist, she is near completion of an A. Mus. D. degree.

Dennis Schmidt received his bachelor of arts degree in 1971 from Dana College, Nebraska and his master of divinity degree in 1975 from Wartburg Theological Seminary in Dubuque, Iowa.

He received his master of music degree in 1976 in organ performance from the University of Michigan and is a candidate for the A. Mus. D. degree in organ performance as a student of Dr. Mason.

He is a teaching assistant in organ at the U of M and is assistant organist-choirmaster at Christ Church, Grosse Pointe Farms.

Program Includes Business History

Linda Seyfried of Northville, as August high hostess, was the guest of Judy Elwartowski of Tecumseh, a beauty consultant for Mary Kay cosmetics, at the company's 14th anniversary party.

The program was held at the Raleigh House in Southfield with Mary Kay Ash, founder and chairman of the board of the company as guest of honor.

From a small closet as a warehouse and 10 consultants to its present $90 million retail sales business, Mary Kay Ash built a business with the philosophy of God first, family second, and your business third.

Lawson, DeHaan Recite Vows

St. Elizabeth Catholic Church was the setting for the exchange of marriage vows by Cathy Lawson and Andrew DeHaan, Jr. on Sept. 10 at 2 p.m. with Msgr. Vincent Howard officiating the double ring, candlelight ceremony.

The altar was decorated with white and blue tipped carnations, greenery and bows.

Pat Patten was the organist and Jamie McWilliams was the soloist.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lawson, 7221 Hendershot Hwy. are the bride's parents and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew DeHaan, Sr. of Adrian are the groom's parents.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white polyester gown with V neckline accented by Venice lace and pearls. It was designed with bishop sleeves and A-line ruffled skirt with chapel train that flowed softly from an empire waistline. She wore a pearl necklace and a finger tip length veil trimmed with Venice lace.

She carried a cascade of white and blue tipped carnations with white roses and stephanotis.

MR. and MRS. ANDREW DeHAAN

Lauri Righter the bride's cousin of Tecumseh was the maid of honor wearing a sky blue batiste halter dress with full skirt accented with white appliques at the waist. The matching cape was trimmed with appliques and the white picture hat was trimmed with blue ribbon and white lace.

Bridesmaids were Jeannie DeHaan, the groom's sister of Adrian, Beverly White, the bride's cousin of Adrian, Sandy Schneider, of Lansing and Debbie Folts of Mt. Pleasant.

They were attired as the honor attendent and all carried white and blue tipped carnations and stephanotis bouquets accented by royal blue strawflowers.

Brenda Lawson, the bride's sister of Tecumseh, was flower girl.

Terry Scott of Grand Rapids was the best man. Ushers were Dan DeHaan, the groom's brother of Adrian, Tim Lawson, the bride's brother, Steve Kampmueller of Tecumseh and Tim Meyers of Onsted. Scott Lawson, the bride's cousin, was ring bearer.

A reception for 350 guests was held at the United Products Workers Union Hall. Flowers and candelabra decorated the bride's table in the wedding colors.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Lawson presided at the guest book. Leslie Giesen and Joann Hoag cut the cake and Peggy Smith served the punch.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hamm, the groom's aunt and uncle from Broken Arrow, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Lee Norcross, Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lawson, the bride's cousin from Martens Ferry, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Al Foster of Grand Rapids.

Following a wedding trip to Key West, Fla., the couple resides at 200 W. Henry, Saline.

The new Mrs. DeHaan is a 1975 Tecumseh High School graduate, 1977 Jackson Community College graduate and employed at Ford Motor Co. Saline as a secretary.

Her husband was graduated from Kelloggsville in 1973, attended Grand Rapids Junior College and now attends Jackson Community College. He is employed at Hoover Ball Bearing, Ann Arbor.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Country House restaurant.

Church Finalizes Beef Dinner Plans

Tickets can be purchased from any parishioner, at the rectory or on the day of the dinner. Drawing will be at 5 p.m. Need not be present to win.

MR. and MRS. DANIEL TAYLOR

Ronda A. Cheever, Daniel Taylor Wed

BRITTON — Bouquets of pink gladoli, yellow snapdragons, carnations and baby's breath enhanced the setting for the wedding of Ronda Ann Cheever and Daniel L. Taylor, Sept. 4 at Kingdom Hall in Belleville, with Mitchell Ulbick officiating.

The bride's parents are Mrs. Ronald Cheever of Britton, and the late Ronald Cheever. The groom's parent's are Mr. and Mrs. William F. Taylor of Belleville.

The bride wore an organza and nylon gown trimmed with white Venice lace, and a deep flounce at the bottom with band of lace at top. The long, full sheer sleeves were gathered at the wrist. Her cathedral train veil was edged with bands of Venice lace, fitted to the head by clip band of lace and nylon.

Her colonial bouquet was formed of white roses, pink and white carnations, baby's breath and white streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Dennis Marshall of Alma, sister of the bride. She wore a blue floor length gown. Her colonial bouquet was of multicolored daisies. Mrs. Robert Bourke, friend from Belleville, was bridesmaid, in a light green floor length gown. Her bouquet was similiar to the matron-of-honor.

Shelly Taylor of Belleville, daughter of the groom, was the junior bridesmaid. She wore a pink, dotted Swiss gown, and carried flowers same as the matron-of-honor.

Robert Burke, friend of groom, from Belleville, was best man. Groomsmen were Chris Taylor, Belleville, son of groom, and James Bourke, Belleville, friend of groom.

The reception was held at the Plymouth Community Center, Plymouth with a buffet supper for 185 guests.

Wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Cal Rohrback and Mrs. Fred McCrate, cousins of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Britton-Macon High School and of Eastern Michigan University. She is employed as a sixth grade teacher at the Summerfield Schools.

The groom is a computer operator at Cyphernetics in Ann Arbor.

The rehearsal buffet supper was hosted by the groom's parents at the new home of the bride and groom at 790 Princess Dr., Canton, Mi. 48188.

HISTORICALLY interesting, the Merkel-Seidel store encompasses the old John D. Shull house which was built between 1850 and 1860. Originally next door stood Tecumseh's oldest house which was built in 1826 by Lenawee's first settler. For years, the structure was the residence of Edythe Shull and her sister, Mrs. F.S. Anderson. The stately old rooms with their gracious concepts of space and marble fireplaces provide dramatic backgrounds for both contemporary and traditional furnishings. Just browsing is interesting at Merkel-Seidel.

Foundation Here Supports Center

Construction began this week for St. Joseph Mercy Hospital's $1.1 million Continuing Education Center. The entire cost of the project will be funded with private donations, said Hospital Executive Director Robert E. Laverty.

Four major gifts have been given to the hospital specifically for this project including $500,000 from the Herrick Foundation, Tecumseh.

The two-story educational facility will include a 200-seat auditorium, nine classrooms, and audio-visual facilities. Construction will be completed next summer. The center will be connected by corridors to the eastern portion of the main hospital.

The Herrick Foundation was founded by Ray W. Herrick, founder of Tecumseh Products, manufacturer of refrigeration units. He made an original gift of $120,000 to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in 1973 for heart disease diagnostic facilities.

Recent subsequent gifts, totaling $700,000 for the new Herrick Heart Unit at St. Joseph's, have been made in his memory by his son, Foundation President Kenneth Herrick.

Enjoy your home more with a Bilco Basement Door

Whether you're going to build a new home or stay in your present one, a Bilco Door will help you to enjoy it more. It makes your basement just as convenient and useful as the rest of your house — easy to furnish and safe for your family's enjoyment.

If your home was built without an outside basement door, adding one now will open up a whole extra floor of valuable space. Space for recreation, hobbies and storage. Bulky articles move directly in and out; no tracking through upstairs rooms.

As a replacement for a wooden door, the rugged all-steel Bilco Door will add beauty and value to your home — while paying for itself by saving repair costs.

Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

Last spring when the trees should have been full of tiny warblers flying north, it simply did not happen. It used to be that the Warblers are the bane of the bird watcher's life — they are so fast, so small, four or five inches on the average and most of them haunt the tops of trees.

For the poor bird watcher who is trying to pin name tags on the little guy it is an impossible situation. This was the type of action we enjoyed for many years but gradually the number of warblers seemed to decrease and the spring of '77 was an absolute disaster.

Well, I can now report that the warbler population has not plummeted to zero. There are not as many as we used to have but there is a good number heading south this fall.

For several weeks Mom, Gerti T., and I have all had the same kind of trouble. A little movement in the trees or bushes sends one or all of us off on another warbler hunt. They flit from one place to another and take diabolical delight in attracting one's attention, then zipping into a clump of leaves, and disappearing. Our eyes are tired, the binoculars practically worn out and the bird books automatically flop open to warblers.

Roger Tory Peterson is, of course, the renowned author of super field guides. His bird books are basic. And oh, the things he says about warblers are so true.

Like many others he calls them the butterflies of the bird world. In the spring many of them are brilliantly colored, bright yellows, brilliant oranges, satiny blacks, et cetera.

Even with these bright colors, however, the birds are difficult to identify. Once the mating plumage is molted most of the clan dons nondescript and dull grays, olives, and faded-out yellows. Peterson says that in the fall "there is a preponderance of olive-yellow...". He also says that after 10 years of intense field work if a person can say that he knows fall warblers he is doing well indeed.

To underscore the problems afforded by these birds at this time of year, he has gone so far as to label his color plates "Confusing fall warblers."

Well, mine has not been an intensive field study and I certainly been puzzling over these birds for more than 10 years — no way do I presume to claim that I know my warblers but, this fall, Mom, Gertie T., and I have struggled together and have 'for sure and positive' identified three of the little guys. One I must admit was rather easy, the second really belongs to Mom and Gertie T., but the third is mine and mine alone.

Oops, Gertie T. just upped this year's warbler count to four. A flash of color and movement caught her eye and it took neither binoculars nor bird book to let her know she was looking at a black and white warbler.

This striped warbler likes to pretend he is a brown creeper or an upside-down nuthatch but as he creeps along tree trunks and branches in a seemingly endless search for bugs his black and white markings are unmistakable.

The Myrtle warbler is relatively easy. The bright yellow rump patch is a good field mark in any season. Mom's warbler was not in the trees but was instead playing its game of hide and seek in the yews beneath the west window. She finally decided this nondescript yellowish-green character was an immature yellow warbler.

My warbler was an obliging little bird who did the unwarbler like thing of landing on the plank between the two food trays of the near-my-window feeder. He could not have given me a better look. Darkish olive gray back, light front with even lighter throat and under the tail patches, dark eye stripe.

Two pages of warbler heads in Birds of North America" gave me the first clue and two other books confirmed it. Mine was a Tennessee warbler. Wow!

Prepares for Business Year

"Politics and Food" is just one of the study topics that will be featured during programs for the 1977-78 business year of the American Association of University Women (AAUW).

"Redifining the Goals of Education" and "Women - Agents of Change" will also be studied.

First season's meeting was held Sept. 12 at the home of Jane Davis.

Judy Moss of Adrian is chairperson of "Politics and Food" study, a two-year project that will focus on six issues: environmental impact on food productions, adequate nutrition, production and distribution of food, multinational corporations and food, United States foreign policy and food and domestic rights to food.

The issue holding strongest interest is that of adequate nutrition with regard to the grade school lunch program. After the group's year of study, the findings will be put into action.

Jan Robinson of Tecumseh is heading the committee about "Redefining the Goals of Education." The study will approach education as an end of achieving goals and teaching as the means to achieve the goal. The theory is goal evaluation for education. The group will be featured at the Oct. 10 meeting.

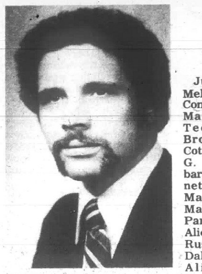
Bev Widegren of Onsted is the chairperson of Women-Agents of Change. This group will study the risk factor with regard to the changing roles of women. It will try to help an individual prepare to confront risk situations in all facets of life.

Senior Citizens To Be Honored

Catholics of the Lenawee County area will honor senior citizens during the week of Sept. 25 with parish and area wide celebrations.

Plans for the celebration include the area wide celebration at St. Elizabeth Church, Tecumseh, at 11 a.m. on Sept. 30. Bishop James S. Sullivan will be joined by priests of the area for the celebration which will be followed by a luncheon and program.

The second annual observance of Senior Citizen Week is being promoted by the Office for Senior Citizens of the ten county diocese.



William M. Holmes, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Holmes of 410 Seminole Drive, was recently appointed to assistant actuary by the Board of Directors of Covenant Life Insurance Company in Hartford, Conn. Holmes, an associate of the Society of Actuaries, joined the Covenant in 1976 as an actuarial assistant. He resides with his wife, Jo-Ann, in Glastonbury, Conn.

Valkenburg Tells of Ministry Work

The September meeting of the Francis DeVol, Willing Workers Missionary Union of the Friends Church, met in the church library with the President Naomi Sallows.

Mrs. Steve Van Valkenburg told of their work in Campus Crusade, Ministry. They will serve this year, in Maryland, at Salisbury State University.

The District Women's Missionary Retreat will be at the Raisin Center Friends Church, on Sept. 24. The guest speakers are Ashley Primes and Margaret Mosher.

A Women's Retreat will be held Oct 7-9 at Camp Neosa, Ohio. Theme is "Life Can Be Beautiful." This is planned for the women of the Yearly Mts. Betty Robinson will be the special speaker. Workshops will be held.

Annual Christmas for Mexico, will be celebrated by the Sunday School members on Oct. 9.

Macon Montage

By Sharon Connors

The Clinton-Macon Rd., is still the main topic of conversation in our area as the past week's rain has turned it into a nightmare.

Many people called the County Road Commission this past week and received no satisfaction. Not only is the road full of holes but the mud is so bad one's car looks like it has driven through a field as it comes off the road.

A funeral procession this past week had to take a long detour to get to the Macon Cemetery. Attendance at the Macon Church is at an all time low and the church ladies rummage sale will be held an extra day Sept. 22 from 9-5 because last week's sale was hurt.

In view of all this I called the road commission Monday. George Hillard assured me that by the time this paper was on the newsstands the road would be graded and a strip of sand put down in the center, as a temporary measure. The big hold up remains to be the culvert they are waiting for. It was expected last Friday.

A bridal shower was held Sept. 13 at the Macon Methodist Church for Tamara Farr, bride-to-be of James Thomas II. Mary Lou Moore, daughters, Meg and Deb and Wilma Clark hosted the event. Imogene Morden, Hallie Jane Mehler, Myrtle Clark and Luella Rhoades helped with refreshments. Jim and Tamara will be married Oct. 15.

Fred and Judy Ross, Christopher, Randy and Ben moved into their dream home on the Ford Rd. the end of August. They had the plans for some six years before they became a reality. The home is a reproduction of an old saltbox in Maine. Fred and Judy are busy doing all the inside finishing work themselves.

Dean and Josie Jones celebrated their 18th wedding anniversary with a small family dinner Sunday hosted by Josie's mom, Mrs. Joseph Fojtik of Dundee. Josie's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Fojtik, from Holland, Mich., also were present. The families then visited Josie's dad, Joseph Fojtik, a patient in Flower Hospital, Sylvania, Ohio. He has been in Flower Hospital since Sept. 9, transferred from Monroe Memorial following an accident Aug. 30.

Kristin Connors had her appendix out last week at Herrick Memorial. She got along well thanks to all the wonderful care she received. "Rocky" Connors, her new teddy bear, was the only one to suffer a mishap as he took a trip down the hospital laundry chute with dirty bedding while Kris was out of the room. Kris and "Rocky" are recovering this week at home.

Two B&E's Investigated

CLINTON—Two B and E's were reported to Clinton State Police which occurred the night of Sept. 13.

Forced entry was made at a garage owned by David Perry at 3318 Post Oak Estates, Clinton. A quantity of lighting fixtures, and silver coins were stolen, for a value of about $500.

The Perrys had stored many items in the garage in preparation to move into their newly constructed house.

Shamrock Egg Co. was also entered and a quantity of cigarettes and lighters, earrings and other items valued at about $100 were taken.

Chamber Plans Auction Sale

CLINTON — Clinton Chamber of Commerce will sponsor an auction, Oct. 1 at the old barn beside First Federal Savings, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., during the Fall Festival.

Anyone having good used furniture and household articles may have them picked up on Sept. 25 by calling 456-7408, Bob Camburn, chairman of the auction.

No used clothing is needed.

Cribbage Results

CLINTON — Brother Albin Kuzminski was the winner in the Pre-Fall Festival Cribbage Tournament, Sunday, at Smith-Kimball Community Center.

Second place was won by Frank Fitzpatrick and third place by Gary Gibbard. All three received trophies.

Seven games were played with the 20 contestants facing different opponents each game.

Proceeds will benefit the Fall Festival. Chairman of the project was Mrs. Edward Blom.

Clinton Calling

Doug Hauser of St. Louis, Mo., visited last week with his sister, Mrs. Roy Wagner and family.

Tommy Grossman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Grossman, received a severe injury to his left wrist in the football game with Addison, Friday night. He'll be unable to play for a while.

Features Are Added to Festival

CLINTON — Each day the list grows longer of groups which will participate in the continuous stage shows and the big parade of Clinton's Fall Festival, Sept. 30, Oct. 1 and 2.

Golden Agers Kitchen Band of Adrian, a hit last year, will entertain again during Saturday's all-day stage show.

There will be choral groups, magic shows, the Four Wards of Harmony and other barber shop groups, Sally Covell Dancers of Tecumseh and more. All entertainment is free on stage in front of the Middle School, Tecumseh St.

Coming for the big parade of some 100 units are the Baton Twirlers of Adrian; the Cascadian Drill Team of Jackson and the Lenawee County Fair Queen.

Besides appearing in the parade, the Michigan Fifth Regiment Band, and a bagpipe group and Highland Fling dancers of Ontario will each entertain at a concert Sunday afternoon.

Return Unsold Tickets

CLINTON — Anyone who has unsold tickets for the car raffle at Clinton's Fall Festival, is requested to turn them in immediately to the person who distributed them, Gary Couture, ticket co-chairman asks.

Since there are about 16,000 tickets distributed, it is important that all monies and stubs be turned in now.

Organizations or individuals who wish to work at the two ticket booths uptown during the Festival are to call Gary Couture 456-4164 or 456-4386 no later than Saturday, Sept. 26. Schedules will be set up at this time.

CF Facts Are Told

CLINTON — September is Cystic Fibrosis month across the United States, and the Clinton Area Jaycee Auxiliary would like to share some facts concerning this disease as a community service.

Cystic Fibrosis is an inherited disease that affects the lungs and digestive system. One baby in every 1,500 is born with cystic fibrosis. Both parents must be carriers of the gene for cystic fibrosis. One in 20 persons or 10 million Americans are carriers.

There is no cure for C-F but early diagnosis and specialized treatment is lengthening lives. Today 50 percent of C-F patients are living longer than 18 years of age.

Other lung-damaging diseases affecting children are severe asthma, chronic bronchitis, bronchiectasis, "childhood emphysema" and others.

Signs of lung-damaging diseases? recurrent wheezing, persistent coughing, excessive muscus, pneumonia more than once, clubbing (enlargement of fingertips).

Signs of Cystic Fibrosis are salty taste of the skin, persistent bulky diahrhea and nasal polyps.

The Clinton Area Jaycettes urge you to take time to give your child the Cystic Fibrosis Test — kiss your baby — what better thing do you have to do today?

For further information contact your family physician or the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Greater Michigan Chapter, P.O. Box 2012, 971 Midland Road, Saginaw 48605, phone 517-793-8383.

Shower Planned

CLINTON — A shower of household or personal items is planned for Walter and Helen Johnston on Sept. 23 at 7:30 p.m. in Peerless Gear Union Hall.

Event will be hosted by Mrs. Edward Blom and Mrs. William Stout Jr.

Since the Johnstons lost all their possessions and their house in a fire several weeks ago, almost any household or personal items will be appreciated.

Card games are planned.

Folks who have already connributed to the Johnston family are invited by the hostesses to come along for the fellowship evening.

Guys and Dolls Bowling Team will donate salads.

CLINTON — Clinton Area Jaycee Auxiliary is offering a photography program for the family and individual portraits, as well as large groups and organizations.

Photographs will be taken Oct. 11, 12, 13 in Clinton. Each family or group is scheduled to pose at a specific time and day so there is no waiting.

Proceeds of sale of photography coupons, at a nominal cost, goes directly to the Jaycees Auxiliary for its community service projects. Each coupon purchaser will receive an 8x10 color portrait, and others may be ordered.

For further information call Pam Hunt, 456-7888 or Sharon McGill at 456-7507.

Tips for Halloween

CLINTON — Halloween safety tips will be presented in a special program at the elementary school by the Jaycee Auxiliary, members decided at the Sept. 12 meeting.

Dates for the photo project are Oct. 11, 12, 13, With Pam Hunt in charge.

Members decided to have extra informal work sessions beginning Sept. 21 at 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Hugh McGill. Members will be working on the Sunshine and Lollypop project for the hospital.

Auxiliary Fall Festival booth will feature the Hear, See and Do Safety Records.

Thrity household windows will be marked with the Helping Hands symbol, indicating it as an investigated home offering assistance to a child who is sick or in trouble.

Next board meeting will be a joint session with Jaycees, Oct. 3 at 730 p.m. in Pizza Pit.

Baptism, Music Is Featured

CLINTON — Katherine Amanda Dicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dicks, was baptised Sunday by the Rev. Roy Wagner at the United Church of Christ. Godparents are Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kinney.

Guest soloist was LuAnne Knowles of Euless, Texas. Mrs. Knowles, a sister of Mrs. Edward Day, conducted a children's choir workshop Friday and Saturday at the church.

She was assisted by 10 mothers of the 18 youngsters in grades two through eight.

The children's choir sang their first song for the congregation, Sunday, "Blessings", composed by LuAnne Knowles.

The children's choir will rehearse each Thursday immediately after school until 4:30 p.m. directed by Irene Steffens and Carolyn Dicks.

Women's Fellowship will resume meetings Sept. 22 at 8 p.m.

The Rev. Wagner is attending a Clinical Pastoral Education Course at the University of Michigan Hospital, mornings daily Monday through Friday.

Festival Benefit Raises $398

CLINTON — Fall Festival benefit luncheon, last Friday, at the United Church of Christ, was attended by about 200 persons, with proceeds of $398.

Members of the Festival Committee wish to thank all who contributed and attended the event.

100 Booths Offer Festival Variety

CLINTON — Nearly 100 booths have been reserved for Clinton's Fall Festival, Sept. 30, Oct. 1,2, and they will line the main business block as well as extend south on Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., to the Community Center.

A partial listing of those signed up early will indicate the vast variety of things to be displayed by craftspersons, artists, and vendors of merchandise.

There will be Mexican imports, macrame, jewelry, seed art pillows, candles, wire jewelry, stained glass, wood carving, lapidary jewelry, wooden doll cradles, chests, canvas painting, flea market, candle holders, photography, woodburning, glass insulators, antiques, pottery, porcelain, T-shirt monograming, baby quilts, afghans, pine cone wreaths, ceramics, and drawings and much more.

Another feature will be oil painted portraits, on the spot, on the Community Center lawn at a nominal sum.

There will be hot pretzels, hot dogs, tacos, and snacks of all kinds to keep folks going between the Friday Fish Fry at the United Church of Christ, the Saturday pork sandwich and beer tent of the Clinton Jaycees, Friday and Saturday beef luncheon at St. John's Episcopal Church and the Sunday Chicken Barbecue by the Clinton Rotary Club.

Uninjured

CLINTON—Albert J. Kime, 19, 202 Locust St., and Mark Dean Brennan, 19, of Saline escaped injury, when their automobile overturned.

Kime was driving northbound on Newburg Rd., just south of Staib Road, at 2 a.m. Sunday, when he lost control, ran off the road and rolled over one and a half times, skidding 330 feet.

Clinton State Police cited Kime for excessive speeding.

Apple Tree Goodies

CLINTON—Third annual Apple Tree Booth will be sponsored by the St. Dominic's Altar Society during the Clinton Fall Festival.

Located on the lawn at the Smith-Kimball Community Center, the Apple Tree features apple pie, candy apples, apple Tree Cookbook and other foods.

Mrs. Mark Bauer and Mrs. Anthony Bandurski will prepare the candy apples.

White elephant items and plants will also be sold at a booth managed by Mrs. Edward Kehoe and Mrs. Doris Dubbs.

Hostesses for the recent meeting at the Community Center were Mrs. Carlos Knisely, Mrs. Jacob Bauer and Mrs. Alfred Cowhy.

Mrs. Edward Blom and Mrs. George Bowman will hostess the Oct. 10 meeting at the center.

Andrea Ocamb Honored

Andrea Ocamb, a recent winner of a Rotary International Foundation Scholarship, was the special guest of the Tecumseh Rotary Club Aug. 30.

Andrea is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Ocamb of Tecumseh and is the first representative of the local Rotary Club to ever win the scholarship.

The award entitles Andrea to study in a foreign country of her choice for one school year with all educational expenses paid. She will begin a full year study in Italy in the fall of 1978.

Each award recipient is an unofficial ''ambassador of good will.'' Andrea will be welcomed by Rotarians in Italy or any Rotary Club in the world and especially the Rotary Clubs in District 640 when she returns.

Lester D. Proctor, chairman for the Tecumseh Rotary Educational Award said that Susan Baaske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baaske was selected an alternate.

Two new members of Rotary Club were welcomed to the meeting. Newly inducted were Al Beatty, president of Meyers Industries of Tecumseh and Henry S. Newlin, president of Tri-State Wash Equipment, Inc. of Tecumseh.

Gene Cooley, past club president, was selected to the club's representative to the advisory committee of the Rotary Foundation.

Howard Oesterling, principal of Clinton High School and a Clinton Rotarian gave the weekly program. Oesterling spoke about the Rotary sponsored youth leadership conference, held each year at Camp Emery on Big Blue Lake.

Oesterling reported that over 3,000 youths have attended this week-long leadership conference since its inception. The basic purpose of the conference, reported Oesterling, is to communicate ideas and values to young people who are felt to be potential leaders for the future.

Oesterling also invited the Tecumseh club to select a 1978 high school graduate to participate in the conference during the summer of 1978.

Newlin To Teach Wills and Probate

Tecumseh attorney Henry Newlin will discuss the importance of well-drawn wills and related matters in Wills, Estate and Probate, a course to be offered through Adrian College Continuing Education Programs starting Sept. 21.

Simple and complex wills, trusts, methods of property ownership and the 1977 estate and gift tax laws will be studied under the guidance of Mr. Newlin who illuminates the subject with humor.

For more information contact Adrian College Office of Continuing Education, 263-5161, ext. 201.

Pfc Campbell Is Assigned

Army Pfc. Jeffery A. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond H. Campbell of Britton recently was assigned as a wire guided missile systems repairman with the 1st Cavalry Division at Ft. Hood, Tex.

Pfc. Campbell entered the Army in Oct. 1976.

He is a 1976 graduate of Britton-Macon High School.

Hunting, Fishing Day at the Mall

Now you can acquire a taste for classical music at your A&P

Classical music has always been a treat to listen to. But it hasn't always been a treat to buy. After all, there are literally thousands of pieces and many have been recorded hundreds of times.

So if you'd like to sample some,the question naturally arises: "Where do you start?"

Well, starting now, the answer is in any one of our supermarkets. Because we're introducing Funk & Wagnalls Family Library of Great Music.

For your listening pleasure: Each stereo recording is manufactured by RCA Custom Records.

It's a library of 22 albums complete with 60 of the classic selections of classical music by the world's most popular composers, including Bach, Beethoven,Chopin, Mozart, Tchaikovsky, Wagner and many more.

And to insure the classic quality of the selections, the music was selected by a board of renowned experts in the world of classical music. Including world famous English conductor Sir John Barbirolli, legendary concert violinist Yehudi Menuhin and Sir William Walton, the eminent composer.

A different album, or two, will be on sale each week, with Album 1—Beethoven's Sixth Symphony—being sold at the record low price of just 69¢.* Albums 2 through 22 will be available for just $2.69 each.

For your reading pleasure: "The Great Composers" collection plus a free binder for it in Album 2.

Album 1
Family Library of Great Music
Beethoven

Each album contains a chapter of "The Great Composers" with some words about the music you'll hear, the composer, his family and friends, and the places he lived and worked.

So the next time you're at A&P, you'll find Beethoven, Tchaikovsky, and Mozart, etc., are as easy to buy as bread, turkey, and mozzarella, etc.

Reader Demonstrated

Historical society funds supplied the library with a microfilm reader for films of The Tecumseh Herald. The reader will be demonstrated during the open house.

A bronze marker from the state was ordered by the Tecumseh Historical Society for the Musgrove Evans House, 411 E. Logan St. It will read "Founder and surveyor of Tecumseh in 1824. Built this home and Inn in 1826, the oldest frame house in continuous use in Michigan. Located at 411 E. Logan. Moved from its original site at 201 W. Chicago Blvd. in 1883. Only site in Tecumseh on the National Register."

Promenade the Past 1978, a public tour of the historic district, is being planned for May 20 and 21. Volunteer hosts and hostesses are needed as are committee members. Contact the historical society.

Last year's Promenade merited statewide recognition by media for Tecumseh. Over 3,000 people attended the two-day tour. Net donations amounted to $3,112.

First United Presbyterian Church cosponsored the tour with hostesses and refreshments. Approximately $1,500 will be theirs to help finance a church elevator for handicapped persons.

The balance will be put in a savings account for the benefit of the historic district and future Promenades.

Elected VP

Sue Pogarch, president of the Michigan Jaycettes, announced that Laurie Foust of Tecumseh has been elected to serve as state vice-president for District 27 during the upcoming year.

Laurie will be responsible for eight chapters in the Tecumseh area.

Laurie and husband, Eugene, have two children — Amy and Kathy. Previously she served as president of the Tecumseh Jaycettes.

A LOOK INSIDE
Herrick Hospital

BY
KATHY BAILEY, R.N.
RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

For those of you who don't know, II East is our obstetrical department. Our OB department has moved twice in the last year and is permanently occupying the newly modernized II East wing.

We boast a blue labor room with two beds, two delivery rooms, seven post partal or post delivery beds and two nurseries, one of which, as shown in the picture, is located directly adjacent to the nurse's desk.

With the glass windows, the nursing staff can maintain constant observation of the newborns, as well as look directly across into the labor room and observe our mothers-to-be.

Our obstetrical department offers OB classes for expectant parents with emphasis on labor and delivery, methods of infant care and feeding.

Fathers who have attended these classes are encouraged to share the labor and delivery experience in the delivery room.

Classes are held every other month for four weeks through the coordinated efforts of Wanda Cavin, RN Head nurse and Dr. Gordon Guild. If you are interested in attending these free classes, call Mrs. Cavin or the OB department at the hospital or ask your attending physician for information.

We have several physicians on staff who practice obstetrics and provide pre-natal care. They are Dr. J.C. Rhee, whose specialty is obstetrics and gynecology, and family practitioners Carlton Cook, M.D., M.R. Blanden, M.D. and Gordon Guild, D.O.

Something new to our community, through combined efforts of our physicians, public interest; and the efforts of our nursing staff, is that HMH will offer Lamaz classes.

Lamaz classes are scheduled to begin in October and will be conducted under the auspices of the Lenawee County Prepared Childbirth Service, an organization which has been active in Lenawee county for four years.

Two women from Tecumseh will conduct the first class at Herrick Hospital. They are Sue Nielson and Pam Staub, LPN. Sue and Pam are two of the original four women in Lenawee County to teach these classes and received their training in Ann Arbor.

"Lamaz" emphasizes the importance of prepared childbirth, controlled breathing and relaxation to make the labor and delivery process easier and the presence of a coach to assist with breathing and relaxation.

Mrs. Nielson emphasizes that though usually the coach is the husband, it may also be a mother or friend of the mother-to-be. These classes are open to anyone in the area, regardless of the hospital you choose to deliver.

Lamaz classes run for six weeks. Pre-register as early as possible. Brochures are available from your physicial or call Sue Nielson at 423-4548 or Pam Staub at 423-7619.

FETAL MONITOR — Mrs. Cavin, RN is shown with a fetal monitor, a piece of equipment purchased for our OB department by the Herrick Hospital Auxiliary. This monitor records infant heart rate, the strength and frequency of contractions or labor pains, and is particularly helpful in alerting the physician and nursing staff to an infant in utero who may be in distress.

Honored on 25th

TIPTON — Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Whelan celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Sunday with a family dinner at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Whelan.

Their daughter, Darlene, daughter-in-law, Laurie and Shanon Kelley assisted with the dinner. A special guest was her mother, Mrs. Helen Bibbins of Brooklyn.

A decorated cake and ice cream was served to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fox, Terry, Greg and Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Bibbins and Bonney, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Whelan, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Osborn, Sarah and Nathan, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kahle, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Faling and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kelley.

Wesley Whelan and Shirley Bibbins were married Sept. 18, 1952 at the Brooklyn Baptist Church by the Rev. Paul J. Knaak. They are the parents of three children, David, Gordon, and Darlene and have one granddaughter, Brandi Whelan.

Historical Society Meets

Tecumseh Area Historical Society will present a round table discussion "How To Restore a Historic House or One not so Historic" at the Sept. 27 meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the Tecumseh Public Library Clara Waldron room.

Public is welcome to the informal question and answer session that will be chaired by Cecil Eby with Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Powers, Michele Worley and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Saksewski.

"Picture Tecumseh" is the theme for a public exhibit of historic photographs at the Tecumseh Public Library Oct. 23.

For The Record

A statement in last week's page one story about the historic district ordinance was in error. The ordinance as stated did not refer to garages and accessory buildings as the story reported.

Mark A. Jackowski, 16, of 1633 E. Munger was cited by Tecumseh Police after he failed to yield at Pottawatamie and Park to Mary E. Redmond, 58, of 213 Pine. He struck Redmond's auto. Names were reversed in last week's page one accident report. The Herald regrets any inconvenience.

$400,000 Is Borrowed

Gene Cooley assistant superintendent, informed the board Monday evening that the district was borrowing $400,000 to meet expenses until state aid is received.

Cooley told the board that this figure is lower than in past years. Last year, the district borrowed $700,000, and $880,000 the year before.

The reason for this is that the district will receive more state aid in the early part of the year and less later on, Cooley said.

Board members voted to allow officials to make application for the loan.

Votes Yes

Tecumseh's Board of Education voted Monday night to join the Michigan High School Athletic Association, Inc.

School boards are now required to vote to join the association.

Gospel Group to Perform

TIPTON — The Gospel Lanterns Quartet from Adrian will present a gospel music program at Tipton Community Church on Sept. 25.

This special music program will be part of the 11 a.m. worship service.

The pastor, the Rev. Raymond E. Scribner, will preach on the subject: "Equal to the Task."

Sunday School teachers will hold their monthly meeting on Sept. 29 at 8 p.m.

The Annual Church Fair will be held on Oct. 5.

Tipton Topics

TIPTON — The Addie Kemp Past Chief Club will meet on Sept. 28. Hostess is Mrs. Garett Linger with Mrs. Richard Platt, co-hostess. Mrs. Walter Bale will furnish the mystery gift.

The annual Florida Reunion was held in Tipton at the Tipton Community Church on Saturday. A turkey dinner was served and prepared by members of the Womens Fellowship, to 65 persons.

During the business meeting all the officers were re-elected as follows: President Clayton Greenwald; vice president Clinton Greenwald; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Lester Munger. Guests were present from Onsted, Tecumseh, Manitou Beach, Brooklyn, Morenci, Adrian and Tipton.

The Gospel Lanterns - Alvin Dickerson, Wayne Carpenter and Keith Hodge and Charles Emery furnished a one-hour program.

Next reunion will be held at the same place.

The Michigan State Grange camping patrons met at the Six Lakes campground Sept. 9-11. Seven family campers from Lenawee County attended, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nesbitt of Gorman Grange, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Mattis, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hoag, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Carnahan and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brittain all of Rome Grange and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Whelan of Tipton Grange.

On Saturday morning a pancake breakfast was served and a potluck dinner was held Saturday night.

The dates and places for next year's campouts were announced.

Officers elected were: Harold Miller, wagonmaster; Bill Stevens assistant wagonmaster; Beatrice Long, secretary; Lewis Hodges, treasurer; Ruby Evans, chaplain; Ruth Ely, corresponding secretary; Bill Swainson, youth activities and Al Wheaton, Board of Directors.

The camping Patrons Club will next meet at the KOA Campground in Gaylord, Oct. 20-22.

Leaving the Six Lakes campground on Sunday were the Hoags, Carnahans, Mattises, Brittains, and Whelans, who spent the night at Holland State Park, returning home Monday.

REGISTRATION NOTICE
FOR CITY ELECTION
NOVEMBER 8, 1977

To the Qualified Electors of First Ward
(Precinct No. 1-2-3-4)
City of Tecumseh, County of Lenawee

STATE OF MICHIGAN

Notice is hereby given that in conformity with the "Michigan Election Law", I, the undersigned Clerk, will upon any day, except Sunday and a legal holiday, the day of any regular or special election or primary election, receive for registration the name of any legal voter in said Township, City or Village not already registered who may APPLY TO ME PERSONALLY for such registration.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT I WILL BE AT MY OFFICE
October 10, 1977 — Last Day
From 8 o'clock a.m. until 8 o'clock p.m.
The 30th day preceding said Election
As provided by Section 498, Act No. 116,
Public Acts of 1954 As Amended.

For the purpose of REVIEWING the REGISTRATION and REGISTERING such of the qualified electors in said TOWNSHIP, CITY or VILLAGE as SHALL PROPERLY apply therefor.

The name of no person but an ACTUAL RESIDENT of the precinct at the time of registration, and entitled under the Constitution, if remaining such resident, to vote at the next election, shall be entered in the registration book.

ELECTOR UNABLE TO MAKE PERSONAL APPLICATION, PROCEDURE

SEC. 504. Any elector who is unable to make personal application for registration because of physical disability or absence from the Township, City or Village in which his legal residence is located, may be registered prior to the close of registration before any election or primary election by securing from the Clerk of the Township, City or Village in which is located his legal residence, duplicate registration cards and executing in duplicate the registration affidavit before a notary public or other officer legally authorized to administer oaths and returning such registration cards to the Clerk of the Township, City or Village before the close of office hours on the last day of registration prior to any election or primary election. The notary public or other officer administering the oath shall sign his name on the line for the signature of the registration officer and designate his title.

UNREGISTERED PERSONS NOT ENTITLED TO VOTE

SEC. 491. The inspectors of election at any election or primary election in this State, or in any District, County, Township, City or Village thereof, shall not receive the vote of any person whose name is not registered in the registration book of the Township, Ward or Precinct in which he offers to vote. (As provided under Act 116, P.A. 1954.)

TRANSFER OF REGISTRATION, APPLICATION, TIME

SEC. 506. A registered elector may upon change of residence within the Township, City or Village cause his registration to be transferred to his new address by sending to the Clerk a signed request, stating his present address, the date he moved thereto, and the address from which he was last registered, or by applying in person for a transfer. The Clerk shall strike through the last address, ward and precinct number and record the new address, ward and precinct number on the original and duplicate registration cards, and shall place the original registration card in proper precinct file. Transfers shall not be made after the 30th day next preceding a regular or special election or primary election, unless the 30th day shall fall on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in which event registration transfers shall be accepted during the following day.

TRANSFER OF REGISTRATION ON ELECTION DAY

SEC. 507. Any registered elector who has removed from one election precinct of a Township, City or Village to another election precinct of the same Township, City or Village and had not recorded such removal with the local Clerk shall execute a transfer of registration request, listing the new residence address thereon over his signature, with the election board in the precinct in which he is registered at the next ensuing primary or election. The inspector of election in charge of the registration records shall compare the signature thereon with the signature upon the applicant's registration record and, if the signatures correspond, then the inspector shall certify such fact by affixing his initials upon said request. The applicant for transfer, after having signed an application to vote as provided in Section 523 of this act, shall then be permitted to vote in such precinct for that primary or election only. The application for transfer shall be filed with the Township, City or Village Clerk who shall transfer such voter's registration in accordance with the application. When the name of any street in a Township, City or Village has been changed, it shall be the duty of the Township, City or Village Clerk to make the change to show the proper name of street in the registration records, and it shall not be necessary for the elector to change his registration with respect thereto in order to be eligible to vote.

Homecoming Game, Parade Friday

BRITTON — Homecoming will be observed Friday at Britton-Macon High School beginning with a parade at 4:30 p.m, through the downtown area and back to school.

Activities leading to the event are well underway with grades seventh through 12 busily constructing floats this week.

"Our Little Town" was chosen as the main theme for the floats this year. Class selections and class king and queen are as follows:

Seventh grade — Theme, "Wash 'em Up." Class King - Jim Schroeder; Queen - Jamie Smith.

Eighth grade — Theme, "Run 'em Through The Mill." King - Walter Armstrong; Queen - Jodi Smith.

Tenth grade — Theme "L&I Leasing". King - Mark Crittenden; Queen - Julie DeJonghe.

Eleventh grade — Theme, "Tory 'Cannonball' ". King - Jeff Osterhout; Queen - Sue Vallie.

Twelfth grade — Theme "Cop A Victory." Queen candidates are Patty Childs, Kim Cottrell and Pam Dusseau. King candidates are Jeff Bearinger, John Marks, Mike Squires.

FHA princess is Genene Bruce and FFA Prince is Richie Bruce.

A colorful king-queen crowning ceremony will take place following the float parade. The 1977 homecoming queen and king will be announced after the three candidates have been escorted across the field to a position in front of the grandstand at halftime of the football game.

The queen and king will be selected by a vote of the student body prior to the football game Friday.

The marching band will entertain at halftime along with their musical support of the queen and king crowning ceremony.

A homecoming dance will be held in the gymnasium following the game until midnight. Alumni of Britton-Macon are invited to attend also.

With all the pre-game festivities planned, first priority is still to "Bead the Sand Creek 'Aggies'," at the homecoming game which will begin at 7:30 p.m. Friday night.

Officials Enjoy Harvest Festival

BRITTON — Mayor and Mrs. Kermit Pickell and Councilwoman Phyllis Below and husband Dwight, traveled to Scottville in their campers last Thursday and stayed until Sunday for the Scottville's 42nd annual Harvest Festival (Sept. 15-19).

The Britton folks accepted the invitation from Scottyille officials extended to them last May when the two villages exchanged mayors.

According to Mrs. Below they had a most enjoyable time watching the parade which lasted for two hours with 16 floats and eight bands. They joined the 1,043 people that were feted to free ox roast sandwiches, served to all attending the festivities.

Cemetary Plans Fall Clean-Up

BRITTON — The Ridgeway Cemetery Association has announced its plans for a fall clean-up at the cemetery.

They have requested that artificial floral arrangements and potted plants or other decorations be removed by Oct. 1. After that date the caretaker will remove any items that remain.

Evenings & Weekends

Booster Meeting

BRITTON — The Britton-Macon Tory Athletic Booster (TAB) held a "Meet The Team" night Sept. 8 in the high school gym.

Coaches Randy Salisbury, Mark Lewis, James Swiegart, Diane Matuszak and Peggy Raeburn reported on their respective teams and previewed the upcoming season.

The junior varsity, varsity cheerleaders, girls basketball teams and football teams were introduced by their coaches.

During the business meeting, following officers were elected for the coming school year:

Robert Bluntschly, president; Marvin Stotler, vice-president; Marie Judkins,secretary; and Katie Spence, treasurer.

Boosters will sell tickets for Tory Booster membership at all home games or prospective members can call any officer to sign up.

A drawing will be held for a ham, donated by the Bruce Farm, during halftime of the Homecoming game Sept. 23.

A pump shot gun is also scheduled to be raffled off by the Boosters at the Oct. 15 JV Britton-Madison game. Tickets will be sold at the game.

Debbie Wevher won the game ball at last Friday's football game with Whitemore Lake. Ball was donated by the Gentner Trucking Co.

Next TAB meeting is Oct. 5 at 7:30 p.m. in the school library.

Bicycle Contest

BRITTON — A "Beautiful Bicycle" contest will be held in the homecoming parade Friday for the best decorated bikes. Winners will win prizes.

Entry fee is 10 cents and all entries must be made between 3:30-4 p.m. Friday by the stairs in front of the school.

Ridgeway PTO

RIDGEWAY — The Ridgeway PTO will hold its annual Pancake Supper on Oct. 6 from 5-7 p.m.

Children will have tickets for sale or they may be purchased at the door.

Committees are as follows: co-chairman - Ardyth Schroeder and Judy Governo; tickets, Valarie Yerbeck; purchasing chairman, Sharon Connors; dining room co-chairmen, Brenda Rebottaro, JoAnne Rebottaro; student helpers, Lois Fleming; burn trash, Larry DeJonghe; publicity - co-chairmen, Brenda Andrews and Sandee MacGeorge; decorations - co-chairmen, Yvonne Cadmus, Mary Foster; prizes - co-chairmen, Judy Governo, Linda Moody; kitchen, Betty DeJonghe.

A meeting of these committees will be Sept. 29 at 1 p.m. at the school.

United Fund Drive Set for Oct. 3-17

BRITTON — The Britton-Macon Community Fund Foundation Drive gets underway Oct. 3, and continues through Oct. 17, announced David Stiles, local United Fund president, at a recent committee meeting.

A meeting for the committee will be held Sept. 26 at 7:30 p.m. with Fund secretary Mary Swain to discuss plans for the campaign, hand out materials and pick solicitors.

The annual drive supports a large percentage of local organizations which includes the Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds, the recreational fund and citizens for youths.

No goal has been set, but the committee hopes to top last year's total of approximately $3,900 collected.

Other officers on the local fund board besides Stiles and Swain are: Gary Judkins, vice president; Janet Pickell, treasurer. Trustees include Delila Newlin, Ruth Gubbe, Norm Spence, Dick Handley and Rosemary Dick.

Terms of several of these officers will expire this year and volunteers to replace them are asked to call Stiles or Swain.

Horse Dents Vacation and Family Van

BRITTON — A black unbranded runaway horse from a Navajo-Hopi reservation in Arizona put more than a few dents in the vacation of Pastor and Mrs. Gerald Booth and family.

The couple with son, Timothy, 7, and daughter, Sharron, 6, were on their way home from a visit to her mother's in Tuscon and the Grand Canyon when their family van hit the horse.

The children's bicycles were the first to suffer damage as well as the van's front end. Fortunately no one was injured. Booths did not have to reimburse the owner for the horse.

The van was towed 100 miles to Flagstaff where emergency repairs were made in one day so that the family could return Sept. 5 to Michigan.

During Mark Twain's days as a newspaperman, he was editor of a small Missouri paper. One day he received a letter from a subscriber, stating that he had found a spider in his paper, and asked if this was an omen of good or bad luck.

Twain replied: "Finding a spider in your paper is neither good nor bad luck. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant was not advertising so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door, and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

INDIAN JEFF ANDERSON WAS THE LEADING RUSHER AGAINST HURON

Indians Rally to Beat Huron, 13-9

By Jim Lincoln

A fourth quarter rally provided all of Tecumseh's scoring last Friday night when the Indians escaped with a 13-9 win at New Boston Huron.

The Indians were lucky to win their second straight contest of the '77 season as their performance was hardly respectable.

Eight fumbles in one game and you ordinarly don't win — but Tecumseh did.

After giving up three points in the first quarter — Huron took the opening kickoff and marched downfield to within field goal distance — and a TD in the second period, Tecumseh showed little life until early in the final quarter.

Behind the running of Jeff Anderson, Tecumseh put points on the score board with quarterback Jeff Hans plunging over from the one. Less than eight minutes remained in the game.

On the ensuing kickoff, Tecumseh's Bob Warner smeared a Huron back, the ball flew out and Kim Cantrell recovered for the Indians on Huron's 40. Then with a third and two situation, the Indians were nailed with a five-yard penalty for delay of game.

Hans then hit Anderson coming out of the backfield and the speedy 195-pound senior made it a first down at Huron's 27-yard line. Tecumseh continued pushing for the winning score with Hans sneaking over from just inside the two-yard line.

Jim Egbert, good on his first extra point kick, was wide, but the extra point mattered little.

Huron had two series of downs before the game ended with the Indians intercepting a pass and knocking at the door for another score. Tecumseh was inside the 10 and let the time run out.

Although the Indians won, their overall game was disappointing. Fumbles plagued their ground game, and one fumble set up Huron's only touchdown. It was not until the fourth period that Tecumseh displayed the football that carried them to an easy 32-9 victory over Chelsea in the opener.

A first half drive that carried to the nine-yard line was the only sparkle to the Indian attack for over three quarters. And that drive, before it fizzled out, was not exactly precision football.

Jeff Anderson was the leading rusher for Tecumseh with 124 yards in 26 carries. Mike Creswell had 11 tackles.

Tecumseh came up with 19 first downs to eight for Huron. The Indians had 197 yards rushing to 82 for the Chiefs while Tecumseh completed two of five passes for 36 yards and one interception.

The Chiefs completed five of 20 passes with two interceptions for 99 yards.

Tecumseh lost 20 yards in penalties while Huron lost 80 yards.

The Indians travel to Flat Rock this Friday.

Redskins Victorious in Opener

Clinton's girls basketball team beat Saline 59-57 last Thursday to open season play.

The score was tied 57-57 with one minute left in the contest. Sue Richter fired a pass to Lisa Cark under the basket for the winning score.

Richter led in scoring with 32 points. Karen Busch had 11.

The junior varsity lost 45-25.

THS Girls Start with 43-35 Win

Tecumseh's girls basketball team started its 1977 season by defeating Class A Ann Arbor Huron on Tuesday of this week 43-35.

The Indians jumped to a quick 8-3 lead after the first quarter and went to the locker room at the half with an 18-14 margin.

Tecumseh could muster just five points in the third frame to 13 for the opposition. In the final frame, Tecumseh put a press on Huron and held them to seven points grabbing 20 for themselves.

Tecumseh dumped 18 of 43 shots for 42 percent to 29 percent for Huron. From the line, the orange and black hit 7 of 11 while Huron succeeded on just five of 19 tries.

Tecumseh outrebounded Huron 28-22 but suffered 26 turnovers to 20 for Huron.

Grace Burns led in scoring with six field goals for 12 points.

Turnovers were high for both teams with the Indians losing the ball 26 times and Huron 20 times.

Coach Diane Nelson was encouraged by the squad's performance, "For the first game, I thought we did well. Defensively we did a real good job in the fourth quarter outscoring them 20-7. The team is more experienced having worked together. You can tell that they are more confident with the experience."

Last year the team finished with a 13-6 record losing the second game of district competition.

Team members include seniors Grace Burns, Robin Isom, Debbie Steadley Janice Jahner, Jill Greenfield, Ginger Turner; juniors Sandy McGeorge, Gloria Fosbender, Carrie Hamilton, Vickie Broderick and sophomore Kelly Kruger.

The team lost Tori Iffland and Kris Underwood to graduation.

This Thursday, the team hosts Detroit Dominican and Adrian next Monday.

Scoring for Tecumseh: Burns 12, McGeorge 5, Fosbender 6, Isom 6, Steadley 8, Jahner 4, Hamilton 2.

20 Teams in Tourney

Twenty teams took part in the Best Ball Twosome tournament at Tecumseh Country Club on Wednesday, Sept. 14.

June Macbeth, Harriet LaVoy and Connie Sack served on the committee and presented prizes to the following winners:

Myrna Downing and Mary Lou Sunderland, first; Pat Holmes and Ann Dodd, second; Edna Smith and Maurine Hannibal, third; Joy Dalton and Anne Gillespie, fourth.

June Macbeth, Pat Holmes and Millie Butler had chip-ins.

Stickmen Defeated

Indian golfers are having trouble getting the season underway losing their fourth straight to Ann Arbor Huron last Wednesday 165-169.

Dave Graf shot a 41 for the Indians followed by John Faulkner with a 42. Keith Bauman and Barry Barnhart each had a 43.

Tecumseh's record is now 0-4. The junior varsity also lost to Huron 176-181.

CHS Golfers Beat Addison

The Clinton varsity golf team got back on the winning tract Friday night by defeating Addison 179 to 185.

Clinton is now two and one in the league and two and three overall.

Scoring for Clinton were Blake Clark and Tom Eddy with 43's, Brad Eversole with a 45 and Gary Gibbard with a 48.

Tories Beat League Foe

Britton's Tories opened Tri-County grid action Friday night with an 18-0 win over Whitmore Lake.

Phil Loesch scored first for the Tories taking a pass from Greg Sears and racing 18 yards for the touchdown. That was in the second quarter and was the only score in the first half.

In the fourth frame, Jim Bluntschly trapped a fumble by Whitmore Lake in the end zone for an automatic score. The final touchdown came when Randy Smith intercepted a pass and went 26 yards. Jeff Osterhout ran the final 14 yards for the touchdown.

Osterhout was the leading rusher for the Tories with 52 yards in 11 tries. Terry Daykin had 12 tackles while Tom Bluntschly had 11.

Britton had a total of 125 yards on the ground and 23 through the air while the Trojans came up with 109 in rushing and 20 in passing.

Britton celebrates Homecoming this Friday night hosting Sand Creek.

Skins Fall to Addison

Clinton lost a close battle with Addison Friday night to open LCAA play for the Redskins.

Final tally was 12-8.

Both teams fought hard and the score was tied 6-6 with 3:16 left in the fourth quarter.

Addison then ended a 60-yard drive going three yards for the touchdown.

The Redskins picked up a safety with six seconds left for the final score.

Clinton scored first in the game going 66 yards in 12 plays with tailback Casey Thilo running three yards for the score. Addison scored in the second quarter on a pass play.

Clinton outrushed their opponents 150-133 while Addison picked up 68 yards through the air to 23 for the Skins. The Panthers had 16 first downs to 13 for Clinton.

The Redskins travel to Onsted this Friday with a 1-1 season record.

Thin Clads Squeak by Huron Chiefs

Tecumseh's cross country squad finished fourth out of 15 teams in the New Boston Huron Invitational Saturday. They returned to Huron on Tuesday of this week to narrowly defeat the Chiefs 27-28.

Huron is the defending league champ with three top runners returning.

Against the Chiefs, Jesse Castorena was third at 16:55, Kirk Oliver was fourth at 17:05, Brian Banda was fifth at 17:07, Doug Bohannon was seventh at 17:37 and Scott Betzoldt was eighth at 17:49.

The junior varsity romped over Huron winning 15-50. Kent Norris was first at 18:04, Jim Harris was second at 18:22, Russ Parrish was third at 18:38, Scott Winstead was fourth at 18:41 and Phil Conklin was fifth 19:21.

In the New Boston Huron Invitational Saturday, the Indians finished fourth out of 15 teams with 164 points.

Airport won it with 78 points.

Brian Banda was the top Tecumseh runner with a 16:54 clocking capturing the 18th spot. Kirk Oliver was 20th, Jesse Castorena 22nd, Doug Bohannon 51st and Scott Betzoldt 53rd.

7th and 8th Graders Beaten

The Clinton seventh and eighth grade football teams opened their seasons last Thursday against Addison.

The seventh grade was shutout 14-0 while the eighth grade was crushed 46-0.

Costly penalties were a factor in the eighth grade's loss.

SERVING TECUMSEH AND AREA SINCE 1850

LITTLE INFORMATION — These workmen, drilling on Pennington Rd. at Ford Hwy., were somewhat reluctant to discuss their drilling in this area for gas or oil. This drilling equipment will be moved to other locations between Clinton and Macon. (PHOTO BY FRANK WEIR)

Drill for Gas, Oil

There has been a sudden interest in oil and natural gas drilling in the Clinton and Macon areas.

A group of companies intends to spend $2 million in the area for exploration. Premium prices were paid to property owners compared to previous lease agreements.

Several companies including the Weaver Oil Co., Gulf Oil Co. and CDE Company well drillers are working on the project.

Many leases expired on these properties without drilling activity. Several years ago drilling was to 3,000 feet in the area north of Clinton. Now they are drilling to 5,000 feet.

One should hardly expect gushing if they strike anything. The rigs now have a series of gauges and meters that warn the drillers if they are near oil or gas. One of the crew said that the wells would be capped if anything was found.

The rigs which carry their own power for around the clock operation, have fascinated area residents, especially at night when they are lighted.

Rainfall Is Twice Normal

Rainfall during the month of September has been about twice normal average, city records show.

Heaviest rain occurred here Sunday night and early Monday morning when a recording of 1.53 inches was made at the wastewater plant. Most of the rain fell during thunder storms after midnight.

For the month, the city has received 5.53 inches in nine days that rainfall was recorded.

Seeking Bids in October

City will advertise for bids in October for the Russell Rd. extension project, which includes a new bridge over River Raisin.

Cal Zorn, city manager, says the bids will be opened in November and contracts let in December.

The street extension runs east from Mill to Rogers Hwy. The street has already been improved from Mill to Green Hwy.

Start Work Next Monday

Work is scheduled to start Monday on construction of tennis courts at Satterthwaite Park, next to the Community Center.

Brady Sand & Gravel is in charge of tree removal and grading for the courts.

12 Bands in Festival on Oct. 4

The Tecumseh High School Shawnee Marchers will participate with 11 other county high school bands in the 31st annual Lenawee County Band Festival at the Tecumseh Indians' football field Oct. 4 at 8 p.m.

Performances by the Shawnee Marchers and flag corps will feature "I Write the Songs" "America" and a version of "Yankee Doodle. They rehearsed each night this week for as long as three hours.

Ticket sale proceeds will be shared by the performing bands and count band fund.

Mass bands will perform "Orange Bowl," "Amazing Grace" and the "National Anthem."

Also coming for the Shawnee Marchers in a band competition in Bridgeport on Oct. 22, the day after Tecumseh homecoming.

Collision Injures 2

Two 20-year-old Tecumseh men suffered injuries late Saturday night when their motorcycle collided with a car in a downtown alley running between S. Pearl and S. Evans Sts.

In St. Joseph's Hospital at Ann Arbor are Michael D. Hayford, of 716 Seneca St. and driver of the motorcycle and his passenger Frederick M. Bartlett, 233 Maple St.

Bartlett suffered a broken leg, broken in three places below the knee. Hayford received a dislocated hip and reportedly will be in traction for three weeks.

According to the police, the Hayford bike was westbound in the alley and collided with a car driven by Paul W. Palmer, 23, of 2799 Munger Rd., at a blind corner in the alley near Lenawee Glass.

The injured were first taken to Herrick Hospital and then transferred.

In eight other accidents the past week, four drivers were cited. A resume is:

Sept. 23 - A drivers training car, owned by Les Dallas, Inc., was damaged by unknown at Tecumseh High School.

Sept. 23 - Steven P. Cramer, 27, of 1065 Valley Rd., was turning his truck out of a Tecumseh Products lot and struck a Consumers Power pole, knocking several cables to the ground.

Sept. 24 - Milton C. Appel, 18, of 808 River Acres Dr., was cited for improper lane usage after a mishap with Steven C. Ahrens, 17, of 1005 Willow, on W. Chicago Blvd.

Sept. 24 - Tracey L. Richardson, 17, Clinton was charged with unsafe backing after leaving a drive way on W. Pottawatamie St. and hitting a passing vehicle driven by Clinton E. Watkins, 44, Clinton.

Sept. 25 - Timothy L. Lapham, 17, of 902 Murray Dr., was charged with failure to have his vehicle under control after he attempted to turn off Russell Rd. at Occidental and struck a pole. Lapham suffered minor injuries and sought his own treatment.

Sept. 25 - Larry D. Hollis, 20, of 706 Brook St., was northbound on N. Union and struck a parked vehicle owned by Duane Francisco, 406 N. Union.

Sept. 27 - Tracey L. Righter, 17, Adrian was cited for leaving an unattended vehicle at the intersection of E. Chicago and Maumee St. The Righter car was turning when the passenger door opened and four-year-old Dale Fuller of Adrian tumbled out.

Driver jumped out of the moving car to get the child. Vehicle then hit the car operated by Lois Tuberville, 48, Britton, and continued on over a curb and hit a tree.

The young boy suffered minor injuries.

Council Voting Monday on Historic Ordinance

A vote by Council on the Tecumseh Historical Ordinance will probably be held Monday night at the regular meeting. Cal Zorn, city manager, stated Monday.

Third and final reading of the ordinance was given at the Sept. 19th meeting.

If remarks from a majority of Council are an indication of the final vote, the ordinance will be approved, paving the way for appointment of a commission to control or assist in the control of the historic district.

Unless there are more changes, the commission will serve in an advisory capacity, working mainly with the city building inspector, Robert Hamden. In case of disputes, Council will make the final decision relative to construction and preservation.

The district extends along W. Chicago Blvd. from 206 to 710 and from 207 S. Union St. north to the Evans Creek Bridge. Area includes about 90 properties.

Residents in the area are split, some favoring the ordinance, others opposing. Council chambers were filled on Sept. 19 when the city held a public hearing.

Last minute efforts are being made to influence Council members with their votes. Those against the ordinance claim that most of the property owners in the district are against it, including some who presently live in historically-marked homes. Infringement of government in private ownership is cited.

Residents for the ordinance's passage point out the importance of preservation, restoration and the heritage of Tecumseh. Supporters have studied and investigated historic districts in other communities for the past few years.

Smoking Clinic Set for Oct. 16th

Dr. Gordon Guild of Tecumseh and his associated Richard Broome will conduct another quit smoking clinic in Tecumseh at Herrick Memorial Hospital conference room Oct. 16 through 20 from 7-8:30 p.m.

The clinic is the third Guild has conducted in Tecumseh in two years. Other clinics were held in Adrian, Onsted, Chelsea and Monroe.

A nominal fee will be charged to cover course materials.

The clinic is a community service of the Herrick Memorial Hospital.

To register weekdays except Thursday, call 423-7458. Call 423-4586 evening.

Plan Fund Drive for $84,000 Goal

Two important dates for the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation have been scheduled, both directly related to the community's annual Fund drive.

The kickoff meeting, final organizational meeting held prior to the drive, will be held Oct. 11. The drive itself will start Monday, Oct. 17th.

Harry Hans is general drive chairman this year. The goal is $84,000, an increase of about $4,000. Last year's drive was most successful, easily topping the $79,950 goal.

In addition to the budgeted allocations to the various agencies for 1976-77, the Community Fund Foundation was able to contribute following sums:

$5,300 — historic documentation preservation, Tecumseh Public Library.

$1,000—overhead door openers, Tecumseh Fire Department.

$2,500—public address system, Tecumseh High School gym.

$8,432—bleachers, lighted softball field.

$1,000—summer youth dances for A Place for Teens.

Contributions are obviously put to work and beneficial. Operating expenses are less than five percent of the total budget.

McDonald's opened here Monday, completing a construction program that started last spring. The restaurant will not only seat approximately 130 but has a drive-up facility for motorists. There are 59 employees. Interior decor revolves around an Indian theme, and the restaurant's new owners, Bill and Vi Sigmund, right, are pictured here before a painting by Jackson artist, Lee Beaman. The Sigmunds, also from Jackson, own seven other McDonald restaurants.

Open 8th Restaurant

Almost 5,000 sandwiches were sold Monday during the grand opening day of Tecumseh's McDonald's restaurant on W. Chicago Blvd. and Occidental Rd. or approximately half of Tecumseh 7,500 population was served.

Manager Jim Abbs stated that the opening was "above average." He was confident that Tecumseh could support the new restaurant.

Abbs worked for eight and one half years for the Bill Sigmunds of Jackson, now owners of eight McDonald's stores. Most recently Abbs was manager of the N. Main St. store in Adrian.

Abbs and his wife, Vickie, reside in Raisin Township with their three children who attend Tecumseh schools: Angela, 6, Andrew, 5 and Amber 11 months.

The Tecumseh store employs 59. Fifty-one are teenagers, two are co-op students and a few others are on abbreviated schedules.

Methodists Celebrate 150 Years

At the 150th anniversary service Sept. 25, the Trustees of the Tecumseh United Methodist Church announced the creation of a scholarship fund to benefit youth members of the congregation attending church-related colleges with preference given to United Methodist Institutions.

The Burnett-Lowery Scholarship Fund is in honor of the Rev. William Quarton Burnett, minister of the church over 100 years ago whose family gave a memorial to the church in his name and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lowery, who left a bequest to the church. Donald Bush is chairperson and will appoint a committee to work out details.

Dr. Robert P. Wark, superintendent of the Ann Arbor district delivered the anniversary sermon. Following the service a potluck dinner was held. During the afternoon service, Mayor Harold Easton brought the greetings of the city and the Rev. Edmund Watkins represented the Tecumseh Ministerial Association.

The Rev. Ronald Brunger, former minister, delivered a condensed history of the church he had written while pastor here.

Special music was furnished by a Brass ensemble composed of: Paul Bush, Pete Vavrinek, Bonnie Greene, Pat Mannino, director Wilnella Bush.

Friday night a banquet, served by the ladies of the First Baptist Church, was held. Former ministers: Allen Wittrup, Donald Porteous, Horace James, and Ronald Brunger spoke. Aden Mead acted as mastor of ceremonies.

Harry Stanifer, lay leader, presented certificates of recognition to those who had been members over 35 years.

Those receiving awards were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron, Bertha LaPointe, Rose Service, Edith Leighton, Vira Bancroft, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beal, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Curth, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Watkins, Mrs. Clarence Beach, Mrs. William Powell, Mrs. Carrie Green, Mrs. Russell Scott, Mrs. Julius Vincze, Clyde Smith and Mrs. Aden Mead.

Dr. Douglas MacNaughton of Adrian College was the feature speaker. His father had been minister of the church for 10 years during the 1940's and he spoke of the importance of such celebrations not only to help us remember the past but to dedicate ourselves to a better future.

Special music was rendered by a vocal ensemble composed of Robert Wood, Warren Peck, Carol Goodrich, Virginia Meikle, Jeannine Wikle, Helen Stanifer, Lee Vavrinek, and William E. Davis.

Special programs were designed by Carol L. Goodrich and decorations were made by Carol Legenc, Martha Reppert, Eva Work, Nancy Baillergeon, and Carol Goodrich.

Nancy Vavrinek and Genevieve Rodehaver were in charge of the church social hour. Arlene Buss was in charge of ticket sales.

150 YEARS - Rev. Allan Gray (above) officiated at the anniversary of the United Methodist Church Sunday. The service, attended by 230 members, followed a Friday night banquet that recognized past ministers and those members who had been with the church over 35 years.

ZONING

In the last article I outlined the goals that are contained in the "Land Use Plan" and the tools that could be used to reach those goals. One of the most important tools is the zoning ordinance. It ensures that the city's development will be in line with the goals contained in the "Comprehensive" and "Land Use" plans through the regulation and control of the development and use of property.

Through the use of zoning ordinances a city can establish area in which certain types of construction can occur while others can not.

For example, in an industrial district only certain types of industry can be built while re-

ROGER PROCTOR

"How do I Give Comfort to the Terminally Ill?"

It is usually best to maintain the same closeness you have shared in the past. Your contacts with the person should be of the same type as they were in the past - a phone call, short visit over coffee, a personal note - whichever was your manner of contact before you heard of the illness.

If making a personal call seems too difficult, perhaps a short note indicating "Word has come to me that you are ill. Please be comforted that you are in my thoughts and prayers."

Silence can often be interpreted to mean indifference to one who is ill. A simple note of concern and love makes an opening for a personal call at a time convenient to the sick person. That personal visit will surely prove a comfort to both parties!

And finally, that personal visit should be made just as you ordinarily might make. Don't change your personality or behavior - rather "Be your self." Bring news or items of interest into the conversation all in a way to show you care.

Tecumseh Center Honors Volunteers

Arlie LeBarron and Katherine Wright each with a minimum of 500 hours service were honored as the top two volunteers at the Tecumseh senior citizen center at a special tea for volunteers Sept. 21 at the Piotter Center in Adrian.

Over 700 invitations were sent out to countywide volunteers who contribute their time as volunteers in the operation of senior citizen services through the Lenawee Council on Aging.

Volunteers work delivering meals to shut-ins, assisting at the local centers, offering friendly visiting, transportation and other services to senior citizens in the area.

In Tecumseh over 50 volunteers were recognized including several individuals, some of the churches and city officials.

Diann Anschuetz, Tecumseh Center director, said "Each Lenawee Council on Aging senior citizens center was asked to pick its top two volunteers. This was a difficult decision to make. Each center encourages and continues to need volunteers. We realize an hour is all some people can give so that hour is as important as several hundred hours. We can always use volunteers and their ideas at the center."

Other activities are:

Oct. 5 is a mystery trip. Sept. 26 the Jackson Community College will begin offering classes. Contact the center for information.

Oct. 9 is a walk-a-thon for CROP. Of all money raised, 25 percent will stay in Lenawee County with 10 percent going to the LCOA for its homebound meal program.

John Lamse of the Social Security office will speak Oct. 6 at 1 p.m. at the Tecumseh Center.

College Exams Set for THS Students

PSAT-NMSQT exams are set for Oct. 18 at Tecumseh High School, the guidance department announced. Sophomores, juniors, and some seniors will be able to join over one million others around the world in taking the Preliminary Scholastic Apptitude Test-National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT-NMSQT) this fall.

The test is cosponsored by the College Board and National Merit Scholarship Corp. and is an important step in college plans. They measure verbal and math aptitude—two important college learning abilities.

By taking the tests, students can enter scholarship competition by the National Merit Scholarship Corp.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Historic Ordinance

Certain questions were recurrent during the Sept. 19 public hearing on the historic district ordinance. Lynn Cook, historic district study committee chairman responded to these questions:

Q: Why will volunteerism not work?

A: Volunteerism will not work because as this area of southeastern Michigan between Detroit and Toledo, Ohio reaches expected growth, it will take longer and be more difficult for individuals to achieve preservation. It should be part of the governmental process so that property owners get help and have time to consider alternatives.

Tecumseh's voluntary efforts for preservation among homeowners has been on an individual basis with no cohesive homeowners association channeling neighborhood efforts.

Although communities such as Grand Rapids, Ann Arbor, Marshall and Toledo, Ohio started preservation efforts through voluntary participation in homeowners associations, these communities worked first to have their districts registered on the National Register of Historic Sites.

In contrast, Tecumseh's historic District Study committee deliberately wanted grass roots participation and decided to start with a local ordinance and district before applying for national registration and working from the federal level down to the local level.

Historic district ordinances give communities more input into neighborhoods and help them compete for preservation monies.

Q: Why is historic district ordinance needed to get preservation funds?

A: When seeking preservation funds, a historic district ordinance would give Tecumseh a competitive advantage over communities without one. No funds are granted directly to individual property owners. Instead they are administered through historic district commission as Tecumseh's proposed ordinance would provide.

For example, to receive funds from the National Trust, the site or sites must be first registered on the National Register of Historic Sites. This work could be done by the Tecumseh Historic District Commission.

The community must also have a legislated historic commission to provide time to review plans and advise residents and city officials of alternatives.

Therefore the historic district commission serves as a voluntary advisory board.

If Tecumseh does not have a local historic district commission to complete the review process, the federal agency assumes review process. The wait is longer and citizens do not have local control.

Because so many National Register historic sites were destroyed, including St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Tecumseh, the historic district ordinance may be required in the future for national register and grants.

The planning commissions of Toledo, Ohio, Ann Arbor and Marshall are approving historic district ordinances Grand Rapids already has a historic district ordinance.

Q: Why was a historic district selected instead of individual historic homes?

A: Environment has a direct influence on property values. A district was designated because together these homes create a streetscape or setting for the older homes.

The historic district ordinance protects historic district residents from the use of federal or state monies on projects that may have a detrimental effect on the streets or trees.

On the local level, tax deductible contributions may be made to the city, a non-profit group, for use in the historic district just as the Tecumseh Area Historical Society donated its share of the receipts from Promenade the Past home tour for planting trees on Chicago Blvd. and N. Union.

Early settlers in Tecumseh built on or near the main trunkline, M-50, because it was considered the most desirable place to live. Today because of traffic, all homes on M-50 need to be protected.

Q: Are there monies available for historic preservation?

A: Yes. The National Trust for Historic Preservation chartered by Congress in Oct. 1949 provides loans and matching funds or grants. It administers federal monies and public donations.

The State of Michigan Department of State Michigan History Division makes monies available for historic district surveys and street improvements.

Federal revenue sharing funds may also be designated by cities for historic district projects.

These are examples of these monies at work in the historic districts in Michigan.

The Heritage Hill district in Grand Rapids was listed on the National Register of Historic Sites in 1971. It has 1,300 homes in 350 acres. An ordinance was passed in 1974. In 1974, Heritage Hill received $15,000 and in 1975 it received $10,000 for the purpose of tree plantings and street lighting from the State of Michigan.

The city of Grand Rapids contributed $6,700 for the historic district study. Public donations paid the rest. The Grand Rapids study was conducted by professional architects.

In contrast, Tecumseh's historic district survey was conducted at the grass roots level by members of the historical society and other community volunteers. The city saved the cost of professionals and paid only for film and printing.

The city of Ann Arbor has the Old West Side historic district listed on the National Register with 2,500 dwellings in 250 acres. In 1971, it received $7,000 from the National Trust for an environmental survey

Herald Readers Write

To the Editor:

As Tecumseh's controversial historical ordinance rapidly approaches a vote, it is important to note the success of related voluntary civic groups.

One of the most successful civic preservation organizations anywhere is the Old West End Association of Toledo. This area of the city represents the highest concentration of turn of the century Victorian style homes in all of Northwestern Ohio.

Residents of this area, concerned with the creeping rise of blight and decay in their neighborhood, voluntarily joined together to form the Old West End Association. Primary objectives of the Association are to collectively help homeowners rehabilitate homes in poor condition, preserve the unique and historic structural significance of Old West End homes, and to generally protect the neighborhood from losing any of its aesthetic or real property value.

Today a stroll or drive through Toledo's Old West End is a pleasant experience. The streets are lined with charming well maintained homes reminiscent of a time when such a tour would be enjoyed from a horse-drawn carriage.

The Association composed, incidentally, of residents of the Old West End from all walks of life, remains the strengthened backbone of the district's civic pride. In other words, after 37 years, it's here to stay.

In addition to the Old West End Association, the Birmingham Neighborhood Coalition from Toledo's east side has been successful, as a voluntary organization, in rehabilitating that area's homes, securing federal home improvement grants through the Dept. of Housing and Urban Development and the National Endowment for the Arts, re-routing annoying truck traffic, exposing and ending bank red lining practices and accomplishing other tasks of significant benefit to the residents.

The important point here is that the Association and the Birmingham Coalition are voluntary groups whose work and achievements are nothing short of remarkable.

Ten brief years ago, the Old West End, once the city's finest residential area, was teetering on the brink of oblivion, destined to be swallowed up quickly by the "inner city." Today the district's elegance and charm have been firmly cemented with a strong feeling of community spirit and pride. The accomplishments were not legislated. We feel that the preservation of Tecumseh's historical district likewise need not be legislated.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas
309 W. Chicago Blvd.

Dear Tecumseh City Council and Citizens,

It is important to remember the intent of the law when interrupting the proposed local ordinance. Briefly from the National, State and proposed ordinance they are:

1. To safeguard the heritage of the City.
2. Stabilize and improve property values.
3. Foster civic beauty
4. Strength local economy
5. Promote the use of Historic Districts for education pleasure and welfare of the citizens.

For these reasons after a four-year survey and study to verify the results of Cities with ordinances, the Historic District Study committee of 24 representative citizens, the City Planning Commission, concerned residents at neighborhood meetings, two public hearings and three City Council readings have recommended the city adopt a local Historic District Ordinance.

Don't get lost in the mechanics and lose the protection other communities receive under this ordinance which are briefly:

1. Direct and representative citizen input into the decisions on state, national and local spending in their cities. Council and Historic Commission has the volunteer support of neighborhoods and the Historical society.
2. Gives recognition of local historic sites of significance.
3. Gives incentives for improvement by allowing zoning variences.
4. Gives funds for those in the district from tax free donations.
5. Gives free design and economic alternatives that are possible for every citizen in the city who owns an old building.
6. Gives time for citizens to find alternatives and money sometimes needed to save our worthwhile heritage.

I believe our local governmental process is the best way for citizen control of our environment. Petitioning to keep the median on Chicago Blvd. in the winter of 1975 and neighborhood meetings in the winter of 1976 to try to inform citizens of the Historic Ordinance reinforces this belief.

Cities through out Michigan and the nation have tried this ordinance and it works. With as many interested pro and con in Tecumseh I know it will work here also. A fact sheet with names and phone numbers of the study committee's sources of information is available at the City Hall, the public library and the Chamber of Commerce for anyone who would like to see for themselves.

I realize everyone in town does not understand this law but am glad they care enough to try to find out. To avoid misinformation and continued education a Historic Commission would help the Council. The Council has the responsibility of deciding for us if this can begin here so citizens can begin to reap the benefits soon.

Sincerely,
Lynn Cook
Historic District Study Committee Chairman

To the Editor:

In the Historic Study Committee report to the City Council, the statement is made that 63 residents of the proposed Historic District favored the Ordinance, and only 2 were opposed. At the last Council meeting, twice as many people spoke in favor of the ordinance as those who spoke against it.

This creates an impression of an overwhelming majority of residents in favor of the proposed law.

Several of us who live in the district have now helped Terry Beland complete a petition of property owners opposed to the ordinance. We counted 89 residential properties, excluding the churches, funeral parlor, and Board of Education building. More than 90 owners representing 55 residential properties signed against the ordinance.

We were unable to contact some residents, several others were opposed but did not want to sign for fear of offending a neighbor, and we did not ask the Council members who own property in the district to commit themselves.

A generous estimate would be that owners of 30 some residential properties are in favor of the ordinance, compared to more than 50 against.

Some people who are pushing the ordinance said to me: "Where were you when we studied this? What do you mean by voluntary cooperation? What alternatives do you suggest?"

But I am not trying to change their property rights—they want to change mine. Before they do that, I think they have an obligation to look at more examples than Marshall and Ann Arbor, and find out what other alternatives there may be.

The people who signed against the ordinance are not radicals or anarchists, they just don't want their property rights restricted.

Speaking only for myself, I am also strongly opposed to Section 2612 of the ordinance, which provides in part that "public funds...or the proceeds from revenue bonds" (in other words, tax money) may be used "to acquire historic structures."

I happen to like old buildings, but I realize that is a special interest which some other citizens of Tecumseh may not share. If they don't care about such buildings, I am not going to call them names, or insist that their tax dollars be used to buy them.

George Sommermeyer
305 W. Chicago Blvd.

To the Editor:

During the last couple of weeks I have discovered something more special about the proposed historic district than the beautiful old buildings, and that is the people that reside in those old and new buildings. They include young families struggling to get started, older people living on fixed incomes and many conditions in between.

The majority of these people are proud of the area in which they live and have a very honest respect for the powers of government. At the same time they are frustrated.

They do not like the proposed ordinance because they are afraid of what it has the power to do to them and yet do not quite know how to say so. They do not want to appear selfish and uncivic minded so many have done nothing.

I feel a little differently. I think that their signatures against the proposed ordinance are very civic minded. They are saying that yes, history and historical buildings are important, but so are the freedoms and rights that made these buildings possible.

This area is peaceful and now only aroused because some people are trying to take other people's rights away. When we start trying to legislate people's tastes, hadn't we better stop and ask what the word "FREEDOM" really means.

Civic mindedness is not just to be found in this district however. Six of our leading real estate firms were civic minded enough to warn us of possible consequences of this ordinance. These people had nothing to gain by taking this action, and yet they did it anyway. Thank you people for caring. You have been listened to.

Terrance Beland
111 N. Union Street

To the Editor:

We've been some time in coming to grips with the matter of protecting and maintaining the historic appearance of the many fine old homes in Tecumseh.

The City, the Historical Society and owners most recently have been engaged in discussions on this topic productive of some heat but very little light.

Restriction of commercial development of these residential properties and continuance of their traditional appearance are the items of concern in the case.

Zoning is the most valuable tool in control of utilization, and the common bond of pride in what we have, raised to the organizational level, is the rest of the answer.

A non-profit corporation in which voting shares are held only by the owners of these properties, is the logical means to joint, willingly cooperative action in keeping this valuable attribute of our city as we would have it.

It makes sense to keep control of this matter in the hands of the people who have made an investment, for their families, in these homes of which they can be proud.

Sincerely,
Jerry Keyzer-Andre

To the editor:

Dear Friends,

This past summer, I spent serveral weeks with my son, David and family in Milford. I spent one day in Tecumseh calling on several of our old friends. It was a delightful day and it took me through several sections of the city.

I was delighted to see the well kept appearance of the city. Every where were houses with fresh coats of glistening paint. So many of the homes that were so familiar to me had been renovated and were greatly improved. The lawns were well kept. The downtown area, for the most part, looked so fresh and appealing.

Of course I would like to see the Bidwell Building after it is renovated. To me it was the Fred Rosacrans and Sons store. It was there may years, probably the longest occupancy. My Aunt Laura Gray from Clinton used to come down to shop there often. The train made three stops in Tecumseh, one was on that corner.

I am very proud to say that Tecumseh was my home town for more than 40 years. My day was short there. I wished I could have seen more friends. Tecumseh, may you continue to look beautiful. Best wishes to all!

To the Editor:

Candy sales to raise money for what? I have bought candy from six children. I don't mind buying the candy which is really a rip-off but I do mind very little children on the streets alone, unsupervised, going into strangers' homes.

We are lucky in the community that we haven't had a tragedy like Oakland County, but we are pushing for such incidents by sending our loved ones in homes of God knows whom.

I know of two instances involving candy sales in the Clinton area. One a child was not looking where he was going and ran into a car. In the second case, a little girl got lost and got into a car with strangers to take her home.

Is money so important that the school system will risk our children?

'Aggies' Dampen Homecoming

BRITTON — After a full afternoon and evening of Homecoming activities, the Sand Creek "Aggies" put a damper on festivities by defeating the Britton-Macon "Tories" 48-14 in their Homecoming football game last Friday.

Prior to the game, however, much excitement was provided by the annual Homecoming parade traveling from the school, through the village and back.

This year Supt. William Saxton was the grand marshal of the parade. A professional clown and a couple of high school students dressed as clowns provided the fun and laughter. A banner with the theme of the parade "Our Little Town" led off the parade.

For the first time, the seventh graders entered a float.

Winning queen and king were Patty Childs and Jeff Bearinger, crowned by last year's queen, Kim Dick and king, Steve Crittenden.

Homecoming queens since 1973 returned to take part in the halftime crowning ceremonies.

Winners in float competition were: first, junior class, $25 for their float, "The Tory Locomotive"; second, eighth grade, $10, "Haul 'Em Away" and third, sophomore class, $5, "Keep On Truckin".

Homecoming dance was held in the gym following the game. The "Diamond Head" band from Adrain provided the music. Chaperones wer Mr.uand Mrs. James Swiegart, Mrs. Cottrell and Mr. and Mrs. John DeLine.

A throne was made available for the reigning king and queen at the Homecoming dance.

Band Prepares for New Season

BRITTON — The Britton-Macon High School and Junior High bands are busy preparing and presenting many events for this coming school year.

High School band began its season playing at the first football game Sept. 16, and added color and entertainment to the Homecoming parade and at halftime activities last Friday.

On Oct. 4, Britton will be represented at the All County Marching Bands Festival at Tecumseh's Indian Stadium, playing popular hits of recent years.

Massed bands will perform "Star Spangled Banner", "Amazing Grace," by Leonard and "Orange Bowl" by Fillmore.

Tickets will be sold at the gate with family rates available. Rain date is Oct. 5.

The Junior High band is busy preparing for its annual Solo and Ensemble Festival scheduled for Dec. 3, and they will be wearing their new red band sweaters with white turtleneck dickies and black slacks.

The high school band members were measured on Sept. 9 for their new uniforms. Material has been pre-ordered and the uniforms will arrive in time for the Christmas concert Dec. 13.

The fifth grade is now playing song flutes and will start on instruments during the first of November.

If anyone has an instrument for sale, please contact Meri Schoof, instrumental music teacher at the Britton-Macon High School (451-4581).

The Band Boosters will again be in charge of the concession stands at all home games, with all profits channeled back into the band fund to buy equipment and instruments. Pizza will be included on the menu by the Boosters again this year.

Band members and Mrs. Schoof thanked boosters of the band for both donations and time spent to help raise money for their new uniforms.

Ladies' Guild Holds First Fall Metting

BRITTON — The first fall meeting of the Ladies' Guild of Emmanuel Lutheran Church, was held Sept. 20 at the church.

The new President, Eileen Gilmore, presided. Meetings will be on the third Tuesday of each month.

Madelyn Schafer, Christian Growth chairwoman, read the minutes from the Lutheran Women's Missionary League, Monroe zone board meeting.

New chairwomen gave committee reports. The bazaar and mission supper will be held Nov. 5. Committees reported plans are underway. Joyce Brey, Christian Growth Chairwoman and Joann Rinne, president of the LWML Monroe zone, were the guest speakers for the program.

Mrs. Brey reported briefly on the International LWML convention at Laramie, Wyo.

Mrs. Rinne gave a Bible study object lesson entitled "We Are the Fragrance of Christ" using 2 Cor. 2:14, along with several small Avon bottles

Both related their experience with weekly Bible study groups that they have participated in the past 12 years. The Britton ladies will begin studying a new Bible study course entitled "Grow-Up Christian," beginning next month, which will be held Oct. 18 at 7:30 p.m. at the church. All ladies are urged to attend.

Hostesses for the evening and lunch were Clara Furgason and Diana Tucker.

Mothers of Twins Meet

BRITTON — Mrs. Paul Cook was elected president at the Tri-County Mothers of Twins Club Sept. 22. The club met at the home of Mrs. Rick Dilyard in Hudson.

Other officers serving with Mrs. Cook are: Mrs. Dick Upell, vice-president; Mrs. Rick Dilyard, secretary; Mrs. Henry Smith, treasurer; and Mrs. Danny Bush, club hostess.

After the meeting Mrs. Dilyard, assisted by Mrs. Jerry Showler, served refreshments to the mothers.

Next meeting will be Oct. 19 at 8 p.m. with Mrs. Danny Bush in Tecumseh, and with Mrs. Paul Cook as her co-hostess.

Pancake Supper

Oct. 6 is the day of the Ridgeway PTO Pancake Supper. Dinner will be served between 5 and 7 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

SYLVIA HEMPHILL OPENS VILLAGE GREENERY

'Village Greenery' Open for Business

BRITTON — Sylvia Hemphill has opened the Village Greenery in her home at 174 College Ave., Britton.

For the past three years, Mrs. Hemphill has been growing a great variety of plants in her home.

She says she's had to move husband, Joe, right out of his den to make room for them, so they decided to go into business with the plants.

Son, Troy, 10, has a specialty of cactus growing, and there is a daughter, Joneene, six.

Village Greenery will feature plant classes to teach basic knack of propigation, watering, care and lighting needs of plants.

She'll also conduct plant parties, bringing a quantity of plants to the home of hostess who will receive free plants.

Mrs. Hemphill's specialty is African Violets and she also has century plants, and an umbrella tree, which has to be constantly submerged in water. She'll be open weekdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to noon.

Fun Night Set

BRITTON — Britton-Macon Annual PTO Fun Night will be held Oct. 8 in the high school gymnasium. Tickets for prizes went on sale last Friday by students in grades fourth through sixth, or they may be purchased at the door on Fun Night.

Door prizes are a 10-speed bicycle, a skateboard, an electric ice cream maker, a tennis racquet and many other items.

Children participation in ticket sales are eligible for awards. There will be three winners from each grade. First place is $1, second, 50 cents and third, 25 cents.

Classroom selling the most tickets will receive candy bars.

Any organization interested in sponsoring a booth or reserving space for Fun Night should call 451-8143 before Oct. 1.

Enrollment Down Ten

BRITTON — According to Supt. William Saxton, the enrollment for this year at Britton-Macon Area School is 10 down from last year. Last year's enrollment on the fourth Friday count was 612. On Sept. 13 of this year it was 602.

Field Day, Barbecue Is Big FFA Success

BRITTON — The FFA annual Tractor Field Day was a big success for the FFA, and an excellent turnout for the chicken barbecue dinner held Sept. 17 at the village park.

Winners in the following classes were:

Class No. 1 —2,000-5,000 weight class: first, Dan Schable; second, Steve Eldred; and third, Tom Korican.

Class No. 2 — 5,000-7,000 weight class: first, Ron McLennan; second, Dan Schaeble, third, Lee Miller.

Class No. 3 — 7,000-9,000 weight class: first, Dick Bruce; second, Brian Long; third, Buck Naebuck.

Class No. 5 — 12,000-15,000 weight class: first and second place, Don Korican; third, Douglas Treftin.

The pull brought farmers from all over Southern Michigan to compete. Those in first place in each category received a trophy as well as money; second and third place winners received money also.

GARY WILLIAMS

Gary Williams Is Ordained

BRITTON—Gary Williams, former pastor of the Dover Baptist Church, Clare, was ordained Sept. 17 at the Britton Bethel Baptist Church. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams of Tecumseh.

An examination council of 14 men met at 1 p.m. to hear his testimony of conversion, call and preparation for the ministry and doctrinal beliefs. The examination council, moderated by the Rev. Charles Lester, recommended the ordination.

The church women served a roast beef dinner to those attending. Committee was Mrs. Lauren Gall, Mrs. Bill Bartenslager and Mrs. Calvin Grounds.

In the evening, the Rev. Donald E. Herweyer gave the Bible message. The Rev. Gerald Booth, Jr., pastor of the Britton church, gave a charge to the church.

The Rev. Glenn Williams, brother of Gary Williams, gave the charge to the candidate and the service climaxed with the laying on of hands and prayer.

Class Views Trip Pictures

BRITTON — Fourteen members of the Dorcas Class of the Britton Congregational Christian Church viewed pictures of Holland, Belgium and Germany visited by Beverly Fournia.

Class president Helen Osterhout, conducted the business meeting and opened by reading a poem "The Little House" from a booklet "Bless This House," by Edgar A. Guest.

A communication was read from Mrs. Mandana Frakes and a "thank you" from Mrs. Marion Auten for gift received at the time of her hospitalization.

Beverly Fournia and Irene Fournia were hostesses for the potluck dinner at the church.

B-M Menu

OCT. 3-7

MONDAY — Barbecue beef on bun or choice, buttered green beans, relishes, apple crisp and milk.

TUESDAY — Pig in blanket, pork and beans, sauerkraut, fruit cocktail and milk.

WEDNESDAY — Lasagna or beef and noodle, tossed salad, bread and butter, peaches, and chocolate milk.

THURSDAY — Hamburg gravy or mashed potatoes, carrot sticks, hot rolls with butter, pineapple tidbits and milk.

FRIDAY — Beef salad sandwich or peanut butter sandwich, buttered peas, relish sticks, fruit gelatin and milk.

Trash Pick-Up

BRITTON — The village office announced a general pickup of trash will be Oct. 10 and 11.

All trash should be placed by the curb for pickup on these days.

PTO Holds First Meeting

BRITTON — The Britton-Macon PTO met Sept. 19 in the high school for the first meeting of the school year. Business meeting was followed by the introduction of teachers and reports from American Legion Auxiliary Girls' State and Wolverine Boys' State representatives Joann Schroeder, Beth Kopka, Scott Niblack and Phil Loesch.

Fun Night was set for Oct 7 from 5-9 p.m. at the Britton-Macon High School gymnasium.

Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford are co-chairmen of the Ways and Means committee for the Fun Night activities. Any organization interested in reserving space for Fun Night booths should contact them before Oct. 1.

Discussion was held on the annual "Trick-or-Treat" for UNICEF with Karen Tiede and Nancy Gibbs as co-chairmen. Date was set for Oct. 31 (Halloween). The children will do their usual door-to-door "tick or treat", but will not collect money for UNICEF as has been the practice the past years. This year the PTO will send $50 to UNICEF. Last year's collection amounted to $60.

Children will go to the high school following their "trick or treating" for judging of costumes and refreshments, sponsored by the PTO.

The Parent Teacher Program (PTO) booklets will be sent to parents of school children along with the next "Principal's Letter."

Next PTO meeting is Nov. 21 with guest speaker Bonnie Beecham, educator-counselor at the Adrian Crisis Walk-In Center.

One shot at an insulator can drop a city in its tracks.

I know, because I'm a Consumers Power lineman, and it's my job to search for the cause of a power failure.

People who shoot out insulators forget that a single shot can bring down a house, a factory, a hospital or even an entire city.

That's why Consumers Power offers substantial rewards for information resulting in either the arrest and arraignment, or the apprehension of persons responsible for damage to our property.

MACON — The temporary work on the road is a big improvement — Congratulations Tecumseh's new McDonalds — The Tecumseh Indian Football team lost a heartbreaker — Those Ridgeway kids are sure busy selling pancake supper tickets in the area, and its beginning to look like fall.

Bill and Rose Ann Hatchett and family are new residents of Macon. They purchased and moved into their new home, formerly the Fred Ross's, over Labor Day. Coming from Saline where they lived in town, the family is enjoying the country. The Hatchetts have three children, Billy, 7, who is a second grader at Ridgeway, Jani, 5, a kindergartener and Amy, 3.

Jani celebrated a birthday already in her new home when she was five on Sept. 14. Amy looks forward to many tea parties in Macon while big brother, Billy, said his bus ride is "kinda rough." The children were happy to report a family addition, "Butchie" a new puppie. Bill works at Ford in Ypsilanti and Rose Ann is a occupational therapist at Yorkwood Center, York Township, a center for emotionally disturbed children.

I had a call this week from Paul Neitman, assistant supervisor at treatment specialists at Boysville. Paul is in charge of all counselors who oversee all after school, evenings and weekend activities. Paul tells me Boysville is interested in reaching out into the community.

Some suggestions for doing this are community service project - for the people in need i.e. the elderly any type job, this would be strictly volunteer.

Volunteers from the community who might have a special hobby or skill are invited to come out and share it with the boys, possibly introducing things they could get involved in in their leisure time.

Groups of boys are always looking for money making projects as they can make use of the money for trips, etc.

Neitman stressed that individuals or groups in the Tecumseh Herald area are invited to visit the campus or get involved in any of the above simply by calling him at 423-7451.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kollar and Emma Kisgyorgy enjoyed a trip to the Upper Peninsula last week. Emma was so impressed with the Mackinaw Bridge and the Soo Locks and Michigan's many lakes. Emma, Mrs. Kollar's cousin from Romania, has been a guest in Macon since mid-August and returned to Romania Sept. 21.

Mrs. Melvin Travis has returned to her home near Anna, Ohio after two week stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards. Using the Edwards as a home base, Bessie enjoyed visiting with all her old friends either in person or by phone, and her time was filled.

Bessie even treated herself to a new car while she was here and last Wednesday, Imogene Morden and Meredyth Short accompanied her home. A visit again next year is promised and Maconites will certainly look forward to it.

Mrs. Greg Dohm, the former Teri Ries, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ries will leave on Friday for Key West, Fla. where her husband is stationed with the Navy.

Tim Ries is a first year student at North Texas State, Denton, Texas. He is in No. 7 Lab Band. It is not often that a freshman makes these bands.

A few other college students are Kirk Hamilton in his third year of technical drafting at Ferris State and Marty Gagneur is starting his first year at Adrian College.

Cameron Heads Element Division

Gary J. Cameron was appointed head of Tennessee Plastics Inc.'s new element division. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cameron, 205 N. Democrat.

Cameron lives with his wife, Eileen and their children, David, 10, Richard, 8 and Susan, 3 at Rt. 1, Johnson City, Tenn.

He was formerly employed by Truheat Corp. Of Allegan where the family lived until this spring. He was an engineering manager responsible for manufacturing and application engineering, quality control and inspection.

He was a Tecumseh High School graduate and received his bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

Machines Help Teach Reading

By Kathy Brown

Reading at Tecumseh High School is now taught to the tune of clicking tachistoscopes, whirling cassettes and humming scanning machines.

Come on now, you scoff, teach reading? In high school? With machines?

Yet national literacy tests showed graduates can't read job applications. Suddenly a developmental reading program seems necessary.

"Outside of elementary school, no attention is paid to reading," said Kathy Shroyer, THS reading teacher. "Students are simply led along by the time they're in high school. At the junior high level, teachers didn't know how to teach reading until a few years ago," she explained. Poor students were believed to be lazy.

The THS program targeted high school freshmen. Students were pretested. Results were surprising.

"Usually you find reading level two grades lower. Most students are at the ninth grade level in the two general classes this semester. In the two basic classes, the reading levels vary from second to seventh grade with a fifth or sixth grade average," said Shroyer. Advanced classes begin next semester.

Emphasis is not remedial as in the early 1970's but on developmental skills. Thus the stigma that "reading class is for dummies" is removed. Students enjoy using the machines.

"No matter what level they are reading, we can help them read better. They're never too old. They can still learn to read." Shroyer told.

Adults were offered an evening class through adult ed classes at THS. Readers may call Tom Muncie, director at the school, 423-2167 for information.

How does a tachistoscope which one can barely pronounce, teach people to read?

The word is derived from the Greek root which means "swift sight." The machine projects vocabulary words from a blur to sharp focus in a matter of seconds then shuts off. Purpose is to teach word comprehension at a comfortable but increasingly challenging rate.

Students write the word, use the projector to check spelling and use the word in other exercises. Learning is reinforced immediately and correlated in other lessons.

Skimming and scanning is another technique taught with a reading light that moves down the page. Another machine is the controlled reader that skims the story, from 10 to 910 words a minute.

"It takes practice to be good at them. But every one does skimming and scanning every day whether or not he realizes it," said Shroyer.

After the initial pretest, students in the ninth grade English classes were divided into two groups with each taking a five week turn in the reading lab. Each group of 15 was then divided into five learning groups with up to five students of approximately the same reading level. In an average day, each group progresses to two of the six reading stations at its own pace. A post test will be given.

Students don't learn to read 1,000 words a minute as other dynamics courses boast. "Above 650 words a minute, it is questionable whether you're reading or ignoring the material," said Shroyer. Instead students learn to read faster, understand more, read differently for different purposes and study better.

"I feel that this is a growing program," said Principal Clarence Lacny. "The only drawback is that the kids aren't getting enough time. But this is a scheduling problem. I feel something is better than nothing at all because reading affects a student's ability to learn every subject."

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

Who says a casserole is too simple to win a cooking contest? Not Mrs. Barbara Estes of Taylor, Mich., who just won the 1977 Michigan Beef Cook-off with her Beef-Corn Augratin.

The flavorful combination of ground beef, corn, tomato and green pepper with a tasty cheese and crouton topping makes an inexpensive and easy main dish.

BEEF AND CORN AUGRATIN

2 lbs. ground beef
1 medium onion
½ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. pepper
1 tsp. sage
1 tsp. seasoning salt
⅛ tsp. nutmeg
1 (7 ounce) can whole kernel corn, drained
1 (8 ounce) can tomato sauce
1 medium tomato, chopped
2 green peppers, sliced thin
Topping:
1½ cups bread crumbs or crushed seasoned croutons
1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
1 tsp. parsley flakes
1 tsp. onion flakes

Mix ground beef, onion and spices in electric skillet. Cook at 250 degrees, stirring occasionally until meat is almost done. Drain. Stir in corn, tomato sauce, chopped tomato and green pepper. Cover and cook 10 minutes. Pour mixture into 2½ quart casserole. Sprinkle with topping.

Bake 350 degrees until topping is browned (approximately 20 minutes). Garnish with green pepper rings and cherry tomatoes. Makes 6-8 servings. Approx. 80 cents a serving.

Gary Marx from Lansing entered his favorite meat ball recipe in the Michigan Beef Cook-off. The apples and cider make is unusual, and although it won no state prizes, it sounds delicious.

MEATBALLS

2 lbs. ground beef
4 finely chopped apples
2 eggs, slightly beaten
½ tsp. tarragon
salt and pepper
½ cup onion
4 cans (8 ounce each) tomato sauce
1½ cups dry red wine
½ cup apple cider
1 tsp. basil
1 tsp. rosemary

Combine ground beef, apples, eggs, tarragon salt and pepper. Shape mixture into one inch meatballs and brown in eight tablespoons of oil and the chopped onion. Combine the tomato sauce, wine, apple cider, and season with the basil and rosemary.

Pour the sauce over the meatballs, cover and simmer for one hour. The meatballs and sauce can be served over noodles and rice.

Parade, Concerts, Food, Fun at 4th Festival

CLINTON — Charlie Steffens, major-domo of Clinton's Fall Festival '77 parade on Sunday, Oct. 2, reports that it will be one of the best ever with about 100 units expected to participate.

Parade will form in the Underwood Lincoln-Mercury-Ford lot on east side of Tecumseh Clinton Road. Other units will line up on Gibson, Tyrell and Locust Streets and join the parade as it passes.

For visitors arriving from the south as the parade starts and blocks the Tecumseh Road, the detour routes are: east on Clinton-Macon Rd. one block then north on Sunset Drive. Other detour route is west off Tecumseh Rd. on Bartlett to Joseph Kies St.

Parade units will be announced from the reviewing stand in front of Clintonian Inn by Charles and Charlotte Parker.

Assisting Charlie Steffens with parade arrangements have been Dorothy Wetter, Mrs. Jon Sweet, Mrs. Larry Sanborn, Jim Pittman, Steve Bowman and Dave Allen.

A partial list of the featured parade units is:

Michigan Fifth Regiment Band of Howell; Border City Bagpipe and Highland Fling dancers of Windsor, Ontario; Fife and Drum Junior Division of Plymouth; Drum and Bugle Corps of the Zal Grotto, and their clown unit of Ann Arbor,

Clinton High School and Junior High bands, Adrian High School Band, Shawnee Marchers of Tecumseh; Senior Citizen's Kitchen Band; Square Dancers on a truck; some Jacksonaires barbershoppers;

Sally Covell Dancers will provide ten costumed characters including Poo Bear and Big Bird, Harold Tesch and his dwarf ox; Lenawee County Fair Queen Kathy Clement; Norvell's Bicentennial horse drawn stage coach and covered wagon; a harnessed hog team on a cart; American Legion 40 et 8 unit; Adrian Shirner's antique fire engine; Lenawee County Sheriff's posse and other assorted horse units;

Manchester Fair Queen; Clinton's Senior Citizen King and Queen Roy and Mary Williams; Clinton High School Homecoming King and Queen; class floats;

Mary Miller and the 4-H clowns; Buck Maynard's miniature 8-wheeler; Jackson County mounted unit; antique cars and much more.

Concerts on stage in front of the Middle School will be the Border City Bagpipe and High Fling Dancers of Windsor before the parade. Michigan Fifth Regiment Band concert will be after the parade.

FIRE BOARD

Rules Invalid Council Decides

CLINTON—Village Council was concerned at the Sept. 21 meeting with fire board rules and regulations.

Minutes of the Council for Feb. 20, 1974 show that a resolution was made and accepted that rules and regulations drawn by the Fire Board be accepted by the Council. Fire Board is a joint board of the Clinton Township and Village of Clinton.

Fact is that rules and regulations were not listed in the minutes, which makes them invalid for the council to abide by.

Poll of Council showed all in agreement that council members of the Fire Board notify other fire board members that those rules cannot be used by the council.

The Fire Board will have to come up with another set of regulations for the council to adopt before any action can be taken.

The matter of suspensions and promotions in the Fire Department was tabled until adoption of new rules and regulations.

Regarding the matter of residents seeking to cross village property, they are to procede on a limited basis until adoption of easements.

The fire siren will be moved from the Tyrrell St. location to Water Wheel Estates when permission is obtained.

Building permit applications must now have the license number and the signature of the contractor.

Stage Show All Day on Saturday

CLINTON — Free stage shows from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday on the lawn in front of Clinton Middle School, Tecumseh Rd., will be a big feature of the Clinton Fall Festival '77 this weekend. There will also be concerts at 12:30 and 4 p.m. Sunday.

There will be chairs provided and visitors to all the downtown booths may welcome a chance to rest a bit and see the shows.

Donald Geiger is chairman of the stage show.

Schedule of stage events are:

11 — Sally Covell Dancers
12 — Harold Tesch and Co., trained animal and magic show
1 — Clinton elementary talent show
2 — "The Creeper" rock group
3:30 — Sally Covell Dancers
4:30 — Adrian Senior Citizen Kitchen Band
5:30 — Harold Tesch and Co., trained animal and magic show
7 — The Jazz Syndicate from Adrian College
8:15 — Clinton Fall Festival Ensemble
9 — Fireworks Display at Hartman Field behind Middle School.

Oct. 2

12:30 — Border City Piper Band and Highland Dancers
2 — Parade
4 — Michigan Fifth Regiment Band

Grand prize drawing follows Fifth Regiment Band Performance.

Help Needed for Auction

CLINTON — If there is anyone in the community who is not already involved in the Fall Festival, Bob Camburn, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Auction on Saturday afternoon, needs some helping hands with this project.

Call him at First Federal Savings, 456-7408.

Road Grant Awarded

CLINTON — Congressman David Stockman announced Saturday that the Village of Clinton has been awarded a $213,000 federal grant from the Economic Development Administration to expand Tecumseh Road with the village.

The road will be expanded from two to four lanes in the vicinity of the Budd Co. and Peerless Gear Division plants.

No Parking Areas Named

CLINTON—Due to the parade route, parking will be forbidden on Sunday on these streets in Clinton: Washington, Litchfield, Edgar, River, Gibson, Tyrrell, Clark, Bartlette, E. and W. Church St., Locust, Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., to Underwood Motor Sales.

McDermott Promoted

CLINTON—The U.S. Air Force has promoted Mark J. McDermott, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McDermott of Clinton to the rank of senior airman.

Airman McDermott is serving at Incirlik Common Defense Installation, Turkey, as a munitions maintenance specialist.

The airman is a 1973 graduate of Clinton High School.

Lightning Strikes Warehouse

CLINTON—Clinton Fire Department was called to assist Saline Fire Department with a fire in a furniture warehouse at Harry's Furniture midway between Clinton and Saline early Monday morning.

Mark Brennan, who resides nearby, looked out of a kitchen window during the severe electrical storm at 3 a.m. and saw the blaze coming out of the metal roofed warehouse. The building had apparently been struck by lightning.

Building and entire stock of furniture inside was destroyed. No estimate of the damage was immediately available.

Main showroom remains open for business as usual.

Firemen were at the scene for more than two hours.

The Brennans plan to rebuild immediately.

Pig Roast for Housewarming

CLINTON — Sam and Terry Lewis hosted a housewarming celebration at their home 3353 Clinton-Macon Rd., Saturday.

The Lewises spent a year in a major remodeling of the house, raising it and installing a basement, adding a kitchen and dining area, and a huge brick fireplace in the basement.

Most of the work was done by Sam with the assistance of several members of his family and friends.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Lewis delivered a baby daughter, Melody.

Saturday's celebration was highlighted by the roasting of full-sized hog, filled with 20 lbs. of bread stuffing.

Roasting over hot coals began at 2 a.m. and continued for 13 hours. When the rain started around 7 a.m. a metal cover was constructed and roasting went right on.

More than 75 friends and relatives spent the afternoon and evening enjoying the pork and picnic supper. Horseshoe pitching, dart and card games were an added diversion.

News from Vogels

CLINTON — Former Clintonian Tracy Vogel was promoted to Senior Airman E4 at Nellis Air Force Base at Las Vegas, Nev. The promotion for Vogel, who enlisted in the Air Force in May, 1976, came 10 months earlier than expected.

Vogel, the son of Robert Vogel of Grosse Pointe Woods, and the late Dorothy Vogel, is a 1970 graduate of Clinton High School. His wife is the former Debbie Stockinger, the daughter of the Ray Stockingers of Tipton.

The couple and their daughter, Jenny, 4, have been Las Vegas residents since February.

Recent guests of the Vogels have been his brothers, Russ and Ed.

Russ himself is contemplating a career in the Air Force, while Ed has joined the staff of the Las Vegas Review-Journal as a reporter.

Las Vegas also is the home of the Vogels' uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hines, formerly of Clinton. Mrs. Hines is the former Muriel Vogel, daughter of Mrs. E.J. Hoezler of Clinton.

Mrs. Hines has recovered from a recent heart attack. Her husband is a retired Air Force colonel now serving with the Veterans Administration in Las Vegas.

The Hines' daughter, Terri, works as a keno girl at Del Webbs' Mint Casino.

Dorcas Circle Holds Meeting

CLINTON—"A Shepherd Takes a Look at Psalm 23" from the book by Philip Keller, was reviewed by Mrs. Charles Thompson at the meeting of the Methodist Dorcas Circle, Sept. 21.

Mrs. Lawson Ward hosted the meeting, with three guests attending, Mrs. Leota Schrader, Mrs. Charles Knight Sr., of Florida; and Mrs. Thomas Kruchkow.

Members were reminded of the church rummage sale to be held during the Fall Festival. Articles may be left at the church Thursday morning after 9 a.m.

Mrs. Ward gave the devotion on the subject, "Worship".

Oct. 19 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Thompson.

Program Presented

CLINTON — Mrs. William Goodrich of Tecumseh United Methodist Church will present a program "Crisis in Southern Africa" to the Clinton UMW Oct. 3 at 8 p.m. at the Clinton United Methodist Church.

The business meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. All interested women are invited.

Mrs. Goodrich was sent by her church to the "U.N. and Washington Seminar on South Africa" this spring. She will speak about countries in Southern Africa including; Zaire, Zimbabwe, Angola, Mozambique, and South Africa.

Carol is eager to share her information about Southern Africa so that members may understand the people and their issues, read news about this area critically, and think about what part the church and U.S. citizens may want to take in this crisis.

Tole Painting

CLINTON — Mrs. Sam Robison exhibited tole painted, wooden pieces made by her daughter, Judith, at the meeting of the Clinton Hobby Club in her home, last Wednesday.

Fourteen members and a guest Mrs. Leo Smith attended the dessert luncheon meeting. Mrs. Frank Stuwe was cohostess.

The afternoon was spent recounting travel and summer experiences.

Next meeting is Oct. 19 at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Miller.

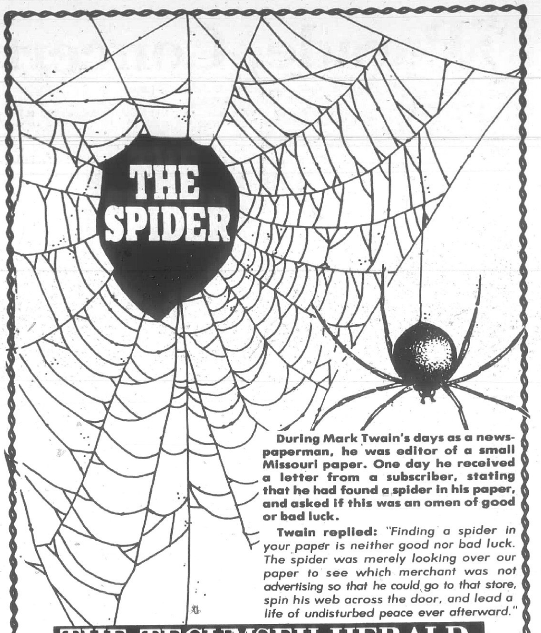
Use The Herald



During Mark Twain's days as a newspaperman, he was editor of a small Missouri paper. One day he received a letter from a subscriber, stating that he had found a spider in his paper, and asked if this was an omen of good or bad luck.

Twain replied: "Finding a spider in your paper is neither good nor bad luck. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant was not advertising so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door, and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

FOCUS on City Government

sidential structures can not. This restriction will guarantee that there will be no conflict between the two different uses.

The zoning ordinance does not tell John Doe that he must put an office building on the corner of Chicago and Evans or that his building must be five stories high.

It does tell him however that if he wants to build on that corner the structure may not be a factory building and it must not be more than five stories high.

The zoning ordinance should not be looked upon as just being regulatory but also as a protection. If you build a lovely new home in an area you want to know that someone can't place a factory right next to you.

The City of Tecumseh has been divided into different area called zoning districts or zones. The permitted uses in these districts range from RA-1 (Single Family Residential) to P-1 (Parking Districts).

Each district has certain regulations and requirements that pertains to that district. For example, the front set back for a single family house is 30 feet while for an industrial building it is 50 ft. The height of a single family residential can not exceed 25 feet, while an office building can not exceed 30 feet in height.

How does the mechanics of zoning work? Let's assume someone wants to build a new single family house. They must first apply to the city building inspector for a building permit. Robert Hamden is Tecumseh's building inspector. The inspector will check the plans to make sure that the house is being built in a single family residential area.

He will then check the plans to make sure the building is not too high, that there is sufficient set back from the property line and that the plans conform to all applicable building codes. If all the requirements are met then a building permit will be issued.

Let's assume however that the topography of the lot on which you want to build is such that it makes it nearly impossible to comply with the normal front and side yard setback requirements. What recourse do you have? It is possible to apply for a variance.

The building inspector has no authority to grant a variance, this is the responsibility of the Board of Appeals. The zoning ordinance allows the Board to grant relief where there are practical difficulties or unnecessary hardships in the way of carrying out the strict letter of the ordinance.

The Board must always keep in mind when granting a variance that they are granting relief for a particular circumstance and not changing the intent or substance of the ordinance.

If any major changes are made in an ordinance, such as changing a district from residential to industrial, the proposed change must first be studied by the planning commission and then approved by the city council.

The part of the ordinance that is violated probably more than any other is the sign ordinance. It is illegal to have a sign located in or overhanging all public right-of-way and dedicated public easements. This means for example, that it is illegal to put a "garage sale" sign in the area between the curb and the sidewalk, as this is considered public right-of-way.

If you ever have any question about whether or not the changes you want to make to your house or your property are permissable under the codes, it is always best to check with the building inspector first.

Do you have an artistic flair you have been meaning to develop? Sculpting in steel and other metals is a method full of creative potential. You need only master the simple process of welding in order to begin this sculpting. In welding, a hot flame is used to melt the hard edges of the pieces of metal you wish to connect. After they have been melted, the pieces are joined together. Once they have cooled down, they are permanently bonded. Separate gas tanks, one containing oxygen, the other acetylene, produce a mixture of gas which, when ignited, produces the high heat required for the welding process.

Why buy when it's cheaper to rent is what we say at TECUMSEH RENTAL CENTER, 112 S. Pearl, 423-4470 and that's the truth. It cost money to buy new tools for a one time project and afterwards you have to worry about storage space, well that's one thing you don't have to worry about is where to store the item, just bring it right back to us. Stop in soon and rent from us. Open: Mon.-Sat. 9-8, Sun. 9-3.

THS Girls Trounce Adrian Maples 57-26

Tecumseh's girls basketball squad stretched its record to 2-1 for the season after a convincing 57-26 win over Adrian Monday night.

Last Thursday, the Indians lost to Detroit Dominican 57-44.

After the first frame, the Indians led by just 9-6 but a 19 point second quarter effort compared to six for the Maples opened the game up.

The Indians went on to outscore the Maples 29-14 in the second half.

Tecumseh's Debbie Steadly outscored all players coming up with 27 points. As a team, the Indians dumped 23 of 54 attempts for 42 percent. The Maples made 27 percent of their shots.

Sandy MacGeorge followed Steadly with 10 points while Grace Burns had seven markers. Tecumseh made 13 of 18 foul shot attempts.

Against Detroit Dominican, the Indians trailed 27-16 at the end of the first half.

By the end of the third frame, Tecumseh's opposition stretched the margin to 43-25. The Indians came up with 19 points in the final frame to 14 for Dominican.

Grace Burns and Debbie Steadly led the way in scoring for the Indians with 12 points each.

The Indians traveled to Ann Arbor Pioneer on Wednesday and go to new Boston Huron next Tuesday.

CHS Girls Post 3-0 Record

Clinton's girls basketball team ran their season record to 3-0 with victories over Addison and Dundee last week.

Sue Richter and JoAnn Grossman paced the girls in their 61-51 win over Addison. The game was very close during the 1st half with Clinton on top 30-28. Clinton scored the first eight points of the third quarter and maintained an eight to 10 point lead.

Sue Richter scored 28 points and held Addison's leading scorer to seven points.

Clinton made it three straight wins with an easy win over a young Dundee team 59-29. Starting the game with a press the girls exploded to a 35-15 halftime lead.

Sue Richter had another outstanding game scoring 13 points and handing out 10 assists.

Clinton Harriers Crush Hudson

Clinton's thin clads finished fourth out of 19 teams at the Springport Invitational last Thursday. Three Redskins picked up medals including Wally Pike 23rd, Mark Prichard 24th and Matt Peters 25th.

Matt McNeil finished third out of over 100 runners in the junior varsity segment.

The Skins were on the road again Saturday taking second place out of nine teams in the Class C division of the Jackson Invitational.

Manchester won the meet with 71 points followed by Clinton with 96.

Medal winners for Clinton included Pike 12th and Prichard 15th.

The team then upset Hudson Tuesday night, beating them 23-36.

Mike Risner finished first with a time of 16:13. Matt Peters and Mark Pritchard tied at 4th. Wally Pike and Chris Wojtowicz finished 6th and 7th.

With an overall record of 3-1 and 3-0 in the league, Clinton travels to the Hillsdale College Invitational Saturday.

JEFF OSTERHOUT, #42 with ball, scored one of Britton's two touchdowns against Sand Creek Friday. Osterhout scored in the first period to bring the Tories within one but the Aggies went on to win 48-14. The loss droped Britton's league record to 1-1.

Indians Lose to Flat Rock

The Flat Rock Rams pulled out a squeaker against Tecumseh Friday night in football action.

The Rams defeated the Indians 14-13.

Tecumseh was first on the scoreboard after Jeff Anderson went four yards for the touchdown. Jeff Robideau kicked the extra point.

In the second frame, Anderson again took the ball into the end zone for the score but the Rams blocked the point-after attempt.

Flat Rock then came alive scoring 14 points before the end of the first half on pass plays of 22 yards and 30 yards.

Neither team was to score in the second half.

The Indians outrushed Flat Rock 179-142 with Jeff Anderson the leading rusher for Tecumseh. He picked up 115 yards in 19 carries.

On the other hand, the Rams had 84 yards through the air to 31 for Tecumseh. Miscues still trouble the Indians. They fumbled the ball six times losing it three times but recovered one of two Flat Rock fumbles.

Tecumseh is tied with Flat Rock, Jefferson and New Boston Huron, all with 1-1 league records. Airport and Monroe C.C. each have a 2-0 record in the Huron League.

This Friday, the Indians host Monroe C.C.

Aggies Spoil Tory Homecoming

Sand Creek spoiled Britton's homecoming celebration last Friday by winning 48-14.

Jeff Osterhout scored the first touchdown for the Tories but Britton missed the extra point try. The Aggies came up with seven points in the first frame.

Sand Creek came up with 21 points in the second period, 13 in the third and seven in the final quarter.

Britton's second and final score came in the third period. Phil Loesch picked up a fumbled Aggie punt and raced 30 yards for the score. Osterhout ran in the extra points.

Britton had 99 yards total offense on 77 yards rushing and 22 yards passing. Osterhout led the Tory rushers with 50 yards. He also led the defense with 13 tackles. Tom Bluntschly and Jon Hintz each had nine tackles.

Britton is now 1-1 in the league and 1-2 overall. They travel to Ida this Friday for a non-league encounter.

Redskins Beat Onsted, 34-0

Clinton picked up its first LCAA win crushing Onsted 34-0 in grid action last Friday.

The first Redskin to score was back Barry Yocum who took a pass from Terry Carlton and went 37 yards for the score. In the second frame, Jeff Porterfield went eight yards and Casey Thilo six yards for two more touchdowns.

A three-yard run by Eric Pratt in the final frame and a 10-yarder by Porterfield wrapped things up for the Skins.

As might be expected, Clinton dominated the statistics rolling up 287 yards on the ground to 92 for Onsted. Thilo was the leading rusher accounting for 94 yards in 20 carries. Porterfield had 87 yards and Pratt, 71 yards.

The Skins picked up 74 more yards through the air while Onsted managed only one.

Clinton celebrates homecoming this Friday hosting Hudson. The Skins post a 1-1 record in the league.

Indian Thin Clads Are 2-0

The Indian cross country squad participated in the Jackson Invitational last Saturday placing 12th in the Class B division with 274 points. Saginaw Eisenhower won the division with 63 points.

Brian Banda was tops for the orange and black finishing 12th in 16:15. Scott Betzoldt was 50th, Doug Bohannon was 54th, Kent Norris 63rd and Jim Harris 91st.

Then on Tuesday night, the Indians slipped by Flat Rock, 28-29, and raised their record to 2-0 in the league.

Brian Banda led the way for the Indians, taking second overall and running just two seconds off the school record with a time of 15:49.

Doug Bohannon finished fourth at 16:33, Jesse Castorena fifth at 16:34. Scott Betzoldt, Jim Harris, Kent Norris and Scott Winstead then finished in the eighth and 11th places respectively.

The girls' cross country squad traveled to Jackson Northwest this week and won the first meet the girls have ever participated in.

Janel Mumme finished on top with a time of 20:55. Karen Egli finished second at 21:19. Leslie Oliver finished sixth, Monica Mumme seventh and Kathy Craig 10th.

The cross country team travels to Hillsdale Saturday.

THS Golfers Win Two

Tecumseh's golf squad appears to have turned the season around scoring two victories in the last week after suffering four straight defeats.

The Indians defeated Huron League foe New Boston Huron last Wednesday 159-163.

Tecumseh's Dave Graf was meet medalist with a 37. Kevin Koszka had a 39, Keith Bauman 40 and John Paxton 43.

The junior varsity also won 171-211.

The orange and black took on Ann Arbor Pioneer last Thursday picking up a 165-167 non-league victory.

Bauman, Graf and John Faulkner each had a 41, Paxton had a 42.

Tecumseh now posts an overall record of 2-4. The Indians were at Monroe CC on Wednesday of this week. They host Jackson Northwest this Friday, travel to Airport next Monday and host Bedford next Tuesday.

The Indians participated in the Manchester Invitational last Saturday placing first out of 10 teams. Manchester was second and Saline defeated Hudson for the third spot.

Keith Bauman was medalist carding a 77, Graf and Paxton each shot 80, Larry Lavoy 83, Faulkner 84, and Barry Barnhart 87.

CHS Stickmen Are 3-4

Clinton's golf squad fell to Hudson 170-194 on Monday of this week, also losing to Addison 172-182 last Wednesday. On Friday they beat Onsted.

For Clinton, Blake Clark fired a 46 against Hudson, Bernie Hough had a 48, Tom Eddy and Brad Eversole each had 50.

Against Addison last Wednesday, the Skins lost 172-182. Brad Eversole had a 44, Bernie Hough a 45, Steve Porterfield 46, and Blake Clark a 47.

Clinton slipped by Onsted 171-177 on Friday. Hough shot a 39 to lead the way followed by Clark with a 44, and Brian Eversole with a 45.

Clinton is 3-4 in the LCAA and 3-6 overall.

Jr. High Teams Win

Clinton's junior high football teams traveled to Onsted last Thursday with the seventh grade winning 24-0 and the eighth grade, 14-8.

Bob Zimmerman scored 14 of Clinton's 24 points in the seventh grade contest.

Chuck Kilgore scored both touchdowns for the eighth grade, one a run and the other a pass play.

Jim Abbs, former manager of the McDonald's N. Main St., Adrian, has been appointed the new McDonald's here.

McDonald's ribbon cutting ceremony Monday morning probably was the most elaborate and unusual ever seen in Tecumseh.

Prior to the ribbon ceremony, the Tecumseh High School band performed the "Star Spangled Banner" and other selections and the Boy Scouts of Troop 272 raised the colors.

No ribbon was cut. To carry out the Indian decor theme, a leather cord with feathers was entwined with a ribbon of money. The two were untangled and the ribbon of bills presented to Herrick Memorial Nursing Home.

Over 20 participated in the actual ribbon cutting ceremony with Mayor Harold Easton and James Palmer, city councilman and a friend of the restaurant's owners, Bill and Vi Sigmund, unwinding the ribbon to officially open McDonald's.

Other local officials participating included:

Robert Duhan, superintendent of schools.

Robert Hamden, city building inspector and assessor.

Paul Dangler, local jewelry store owner and friend of the Sigmunds.

Jim and Dick Erb, owners of Erb Chevrolet-Buick and donors of two Chevettes for store prizes.

Cal Zorn, city manager.

Wallace MacGeorge, of Moore Lumber and fire chief.

Merlin Mowery, police chief.

The ceremony also included sealing of mementos into a cornerstone box and affixing a commemorative plaque to a wall.

Sigmunds Are Hosts

Between 400 and 500 people, many friends, operators of other McDonald restaurants and Tecumseh officials joined in festivities Saturday evening at the new Tecumseh McDonald restaurant.

Hosts for the event were Bill and Vi Sigmund, of Jackson, and owners of the new restaurant.

Visitors were given an opportunity to inspect completely the new restaurant and its facilities which are located on W. Chicago Blvd., next to the United Savings Bank branch office at W. Chicago and Occidental.

Hors d'oeuvres and refreshments were served in large tent, erected at the rear of the property on the restaurant's parking lot, and where dancing and a brief program recognized those responsible in building and locating a McDonald's restaurant in Tecumseh.

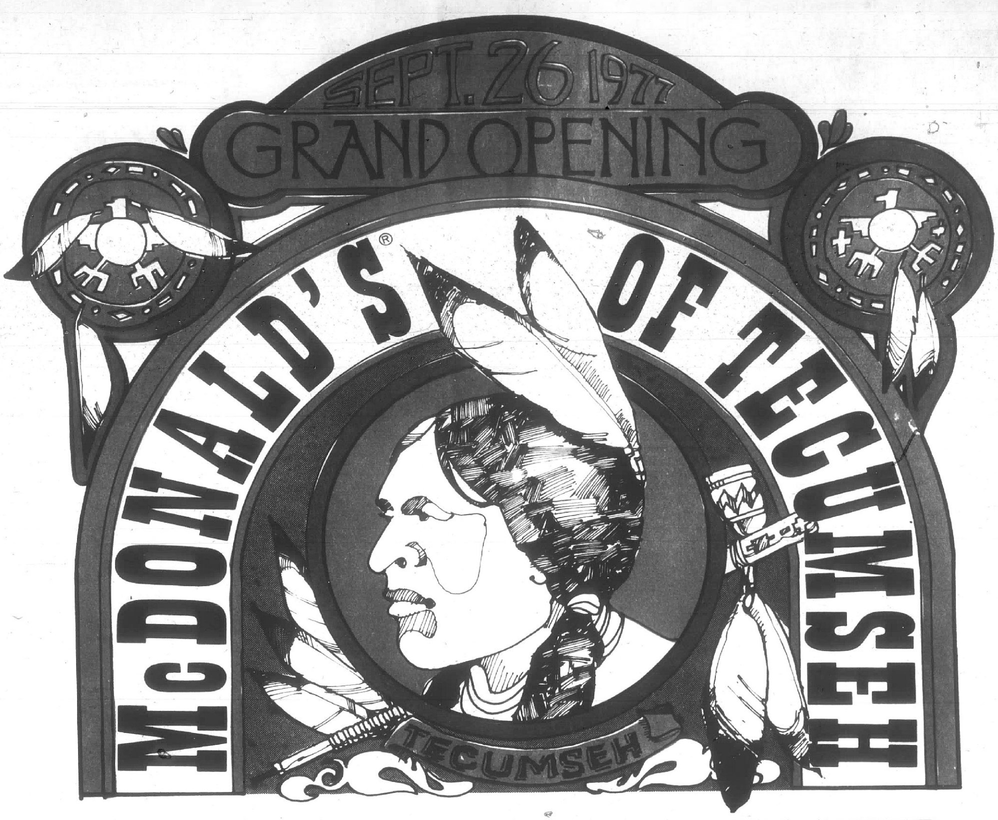
Mr. Sigmund introduced a number of friends that had a hand in the McDonald organization here, including Lee Beaman Jackson artist who painted large Indian scenes depicting the life of Tecumseh that now hang in the restaurant.

A limited number of copies of one of the paintings was reproduced and given to visitors as a memento of the occasion.

Many of those attending came from as far away as Grand Rapids, Battle Creek, Lansing and other distant communities.

The Tecumseh restaurant marks the eighth McDonald's owned by the Sigmunds.

Sunday, the young employees who will be working at the local restaurant, hosted and served their parents there for dinner.



A HERITAGE OF EXCELLENCE, JOINED BY A PROUD TRADITION OF SERVICE.

Tecumseh, Michigan. One town, one people, that just won't settle for second best. A legacy of pride begun by the great Shawnee Chief, Tecumseh, is still building, thanks to you, the citizens of the Tecumseh area.

And that, folks, is the main reason why McDonald's® is pleased to become a part of Tecumseh.

After all, our entire philosophy is based on that same type of pride. We're proud of our food, our people and our service.

Stop in during the Grand Opening Celebration. You'll find yourself in a relaxed atmosphere, with friendly people, plenty of good food, and an opportunity to win some superb prizes.

McDonald's Planned Elaborate Opening

Opening festivities for Tecumseh's new McDonald's restaurant started here Saturday night with an open house, that included dancing and a brief program for hundreds of friends of Bill and Vi Sigmund. Officials from the local city government, schools, bank and a few businesses represented Tecumseh. Festivities were concluded Monday morning with the ribbon cutting and dedication of the restaurant, the eighth owned by the Sigmunds from Jackson. Monday's program included the Tecumseh High School band, raising of the flag by the Boy Scouts, donation of the "ribbon" to Herrick Nursing Home, placing mementous in the cornerstone and a lesson to local officials on cooking a "Big Mac."

Tributes to the new owners are given here by Bob Craig, center, officer of Ross-Roy Advertising Agency of Detroit, during Saturday night's program. Practically the entire theme of the program was the Indian and Chief Tecumseh, a theme that included decor and costumes of the Tecumseh McDonald employees. Vi and Bill Sigmund here were generous hosts and recognized a number of friends for their contributions to Tecumseh's new McDonald's.

City manager Cal Zorn receives a lesson in fixing a "Big Mac" from Jim Abbs, manager. After Monday's ribbon cutting ceremony, officials were guests of McDonald's and cooked their own hamburger.

Attending Saturday evening's festivities were Joan Kelley, Lois and Jim Erb, and Dick and Lynn Erb. Jim and Dick, owners of Erb Chevrolet-Buick agency here, donated use of two automobiles as prizes for the McDonald opening celebration.

Our energy-conscious world can learn an important lesson from the candle that flickers out. The problem is not that its fuel is all gone. The fuel has been dissipated so it is no longer in a usable state.

The flickering candle conveys a religious lesson, too. Some of us burn out spiritually. Not because we lack God-given resources. Because we let those resources dissolve in a hodgepodge of confusion and doubt.

The ancient Psalmist called God's Word a lamp for his feet and a light for his path.

Keep close to your church and its teaching. The spiritual resources we constantly renew cannot melt away.

CROP Director To Speak

David C. Bower, CROP director of Michigan, will be the guest speaker at the Tecumseh United Methodist Church on Oct. 2.

Bower will tell about CROP projects around the world and encourage participation in the churches Blanket Sunday and the county-wide CROP Walk-Bike-a-Thon both to be held on Oct. 9.

CROP is the Community Hunger Appeal of Church World Service.

On Blanket Sunday a special offering is collected to enable Church World Service to purchase new blankets in bulk for use in emergencies in the U.S. and around the world.

The fourth annual Lenawee County CROP Walk-a-Thon will be held on Oct. 9 beginning at 1:30 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church, Adrian.

This year families are encouraged to participate together and a 20 mile bike route has been added in addition to the walking routes.

Twenty-five percent of the proceeds from the walk will stay in Lenawee County to be shared by the Homebound Meals program and the Community Action Center. More information on the walk may be obtained by calling Joan Miller at 423-4526.

REGISTRATION NOTICE

FOR

CITY ELECTION

NOVEMBER 8, 1977

To the Qualified Electors of First Ward
(Precinct No. 1-2-3-4)
City of Tecumseh, County of Lenawee
STATE OF MICHIGAN

Notice is hereby given that in conformity with the "Michigan Election Law", I, the undersigned Clerk, will upon any day, except Sunday and a legal holiday, the day of any regular or special election or primary election, receive for registration the name of any legal voter in said Township, City or Village not already registered who may APPLY TO ME PERSONALLY for such registration.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT I WILL BE AT MY OFFICE
October 10, 1977 — Last Day
From 8 o'clock a.m. until 8 o'clock p.m.
The 30th day preceding said Election
As provided by Section 498, Act No. 116,
Public Acts of 1954 As Amended.

For the purpose of REVIEWING the REGISTRATION and REGISTERING such of the qualified electors in said TOWNSHIP, CITY or VILLAGE as SHALL PROPERLY apply therefor.

The name of no person but an ACTUAL RESIDENT of the precinct at the time of registration, and entitled under the Constitution, if remaining such resident, to vote at the next election, shall be entered in the registration book.

ELECTOR UNABLE TO MAKE PERSONAL APPLICATION, PROCEDURE

SEC. 504. Any elector who is unable to make personal application for registration because of physical disability or absence from the Township, City or Village in which his legal residence is located, may be registered prior to the close of registration before any election or primary election by securing from the Clerk of the Township, City or Village in which is located his legal residence, duplicate registration cards and executing in duplicate the registration affidavit before a notary public or other officer legally authorized to administer oaths and returning such registration cards to the Clerk of the Township, City or Village before the close of office hours on the last day of registration prior to any election or primary election. The notary public or other officer administering the oath shall sign his name on the line for the signature of the registration officer and designate his title.

UNREGISTERED PERSONS NOT ENTITLED TO VOTE

SEC. 491. The inspectors of election at any election or primary election in this State, or in any District, County, Township, City or Village thereof, shall not receive the vote of any person whose name is not registered in the registration book of the Township, Ward or Precinct in which he offers to vote. (As provided under Act 116, P.A. 1954.)

TRANSFER OF REGISTRATION, APPLICATION, TIME

SEC. 506. A registered elector may upon change of residence within the Township, City or Village cause his registration to be transferred to his new address by sending to the Clerk a signed request, stating his present address, the date he moved thereto, and the address from which he was last registered, or by applying in person for a transfer. The Clerk shall strike through the last address, ward and precinct number and record the new address, ward and precinct number on the original and duplicate registration cards, and shall place the original registration card in proper precinct file. Transfers shall not be made after the 30th day next preceding a regular or special election or primary election, unless the 30th day shall fall on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in which event registration transfers shall be accepted during the following day.

TRANSFER OF REGISTRATION ON ELECTION DAY

SEC. 507. Any registered elector who has removed from one election precinct of a Township, City or Village to another election precinct of the same Township, City or Village and had not recorded such removal with the local Clerk shall execute a transfer of registration request, listing the new residence address thereon over his signature, with the election board in the precinct in which he is registered at the next ensuing primary or election. The inspector of election in charge of the registration records shall compare the signature thereon with the signature upon the applicant's registration record and, if the signatures correspond, then the inspector shall certify such fact by affixing his initials upon said request. The applicant for transfer, after having signed an application to vote as provided in Section 523 of this act, shall then be permitted to vote in such precinct for that primary or election only. The application for transfer shall be filed with the Township, City or Village Clerk who shall transfer such voter's registration in accordance with the application. When the name of any street in a Township, City or Village has been changed, it shall be the duty of the Township, City or Village Clerk to make the change to show the proper name of street in the registration records, and it shall not be necessary for the elector to change his registration with respect thereto in order to be eligible to vote.

Vera Gardner, City Clerk

TARI WILL

Granddaughters Visit Here

Mrs. Leland Randall of 213 N. Maumee has had two of her granddaughters, Tamara and Tari Will, as guests for the summer. Both recently left to attend college. Tamara has returned to Alma College as a sophomore and Tari entered Central Michigan University at Mt. Pleasant as a freshman.

Tari graduated cum laude from The Kaiserslauteru American High School in West Germany in June. She received scholarships from the Kaiserslauteru American High School combined Scholarship Association and the Michigan Competitive Scholarship program.

She was a member of the National Honor Society for three years as well as a member of the Girl's Varsity volleyball team and associate editor of the school's yearbook.

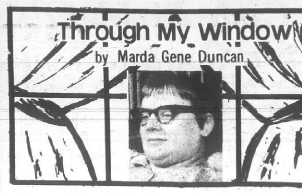
Parents of Tamara and Tari are Lt. Col. and Mrs. Thomas S. Will, nee Nancy Lee Randall, who have recently moved to San Antonio, Texas, from Sewbach Air Base, West Germany. Lt. Col. Will is now assigned to Kelly AFB.

Solar Heating, Cooling Seminar

An introductory seminar on solar heating and cooling systems will be held at Jackson Community College, Oct. 5, from 6-9:45 p.m.

The seminar will introduce the fundamentals of solar heating and cooling systems, and will be followed by an optional eight-week course for those interested in continued study.

For further information, contact Robert D. Hanlin, SEMTAP Technical Activities Coordinator at JCC, 787-0800, ext. 267; or Joanne H. Snell, ext. 234.



Just about a year ago we put out our first feeder full of thistle seeds. The object, of course, was to attract goldfinches. Supposedly these charming little birds are irresistably drawn to banquets of the tiny black seeds. Well, it took several months but oh my, when finally the finches found the feeder there was 'supposedly' about it. They mobbed it from then on. Most exciting.

We supplied our ever-growing flock of goldfinches with thistle seeds until about the time of the first blooming of dandelions. By then the males had completely shed their dull greenish winter feathers and donned their bright yellow courting outfits.

During the mating season it is easy to see why goldfinches are often called "wild canaries." But we knew when the dandelions turned our yard into a carpet of yellow that the birds would soon be off fending for themselves.

Besides, we were having all sorts of trouble with a mourning dove who was practically camping out on the small shelf at the base of the thistle feeder. Hour after hour the large bird monopolized the feeder and the poor little goldfinches stood not a chance in the world of sneaking in for a quick snack.

It reached the point where the brazen dove could hardly be frightened away. Mom had to practically shake the feeder itself before he would move. Then we decided that the finches could shift for themselves.

Hopefully our large flock of wild canaries has had a good summer and will soon think about eating thistle seeds at the Duncans.

If all has gone according to schedule these happy little characters have had a different summer than most birds. They follow their own timetable and only a short while ago wound up the business of family rearing.

Notoriously late nesters, a 16 year study made here in Michigan showed that the latest known date for egg laying was Sept. 25 and the earliest was July 6.

But, as is so often true in Mother Nature's wonderfully coordinated world, there is a good reason for the goldfinches to put off settling down.

Their third name is thistlebirds and, as with the other names, it is well earned. They wait for the thistles to go to seed because they form the mainstay of the kid's diet. Also thistledown is used to line the nest and make a soft cushion for the four to six light blue eggs.

This nest is interesting. The cup is about two and three-fourths inches deep and three inches wide. The female spends slightly under a week constructing it and so good is her work, most of the nests are water tight. In fact, there are many instances on record of baby goldfinches drowning in their nests when a quick storm finds the parents away.

Two weeks is the average incubation for these eggs and the female does this chore too. However, her mate is most attentive and it is his job to be the food provider. He dines on thistle seed as well as dandelion seed and feeds her with regurgitated matter. "A milky cereal" is what one author calls it.

Once the eggs hatch the kids are fed this same substance. And what a busy fellow, not only does he feed the young hatchlings but he continues to feed his mate as well.

Soon it will be time to activate the thistle feeder. It will be interesting to see what happens. We might be in for trouble. Yesterday there was not one but two mourning doves looking at the empty feeder. I hope the one who was such a nuisance last year has not found a friend!

Preschool Story Time

Tecumseh Public Library's Preschool Story Time begins Oct. 5 at 1:30 p.m.

Preschoolers and morning kindergarteners can enjoy a half-hour of stories, songs, and poetry with Mary Beth Reasoner, children's librarian.

Story Time meets every Wednesday afternoon at the same time until June. Call 423-2238 for further information.

Association To Meet

The annual meeting of the Croswell Opera House and Fine Arts Association will be held on Oct. 17, 7:30 p.m. at the Croswell House (DAR) at 228 N. Broad St., Adrian.

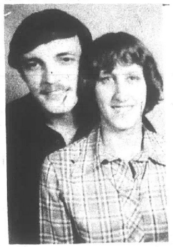
Election of members of the board of directors of the organization will be held, and members of the Association are invited.

Conference

The Episcopal women of the Southwest Convocation invite area women to participate in a retreat Oct. 15 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Christ Episcopal Church, Adrian.

Sister Loretta of Sienna Heights Mission, Adrian will speak about "Strength to Live." Annette Atherton will provide music.

Reservations may be made by Oct. 6 by calling or writing to Phyllis Bramer, 9899 Sand Lake, Rt. 1, Onsted 49265, 467-7597 or 764-0245.



The engagement of Kathleen Marie McGee to Dennis C. McClure is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis McGee of Plymouth. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McClure, 1150 W. Monroe Rd. Miss McGee was graduated from Plymouth High School and is employed at St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor. Her fiance is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and Eastern Michigan University. He is a junior high school teacher at Milford. A December wedding is being planned.

Club Learns Dried Flowers

Carol Reynard led members of the Tecumseh Town and Country garden club in a program on dried flower arrangements at the Sept. 6 meeting at the Occidental Branch of the United Savings Bank.

Everyone went home with her own arrangement encased in a frame.

Summer weeding and constant care of the rock garden at Hidden Lake Gardens, the club's major project, really paid off, members reported. The garden is flourishing and plans are being made to add more flowers and dwarf shrubs this fall along with the scheduling of this fall's maintenance.

Judy Marcotte and Barb Feldman were hostesses for the evening with Carol Nelson contributing the monthly arrangement of flowers, the theme was asters.

Next meeting is Oct. 6 at the Good Earth of Tecumseh Greenhouses. The program will be a lecture on pest control proceeded by a tour of the greenhouse. Afterward all members and guests will adjourn to the home of Linda Glenn.

A LOOK INSIDE
Herrick Hospital

BY
KATHY BAILEY, R.N.
RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

The uniformed nurses and aides are highly visible to patients and visitors alike, but there are a host of other people whose work keeps them away from the public eye. These people seldom are recognized for their contribution to the care of our patients.

People seldom wonder how the clean sheets get up to the nursing units before they are put on beds. It is not the elves who come out at midnight; instead it is six hard-working people during days who keep the supply of clean linens coming.

In fact the laundry department at Herrick Memorial processes an average of 6,500 pounds of laundry each week.

The laundry department is located in the basement in the southwest corner of the building. Soiled and used laundry arrives there via laundry chute and cart from the other hospital service areas.

All laundry is first sorted before loading into one of the two washer-extrators. In combination these machines are able to wash up to 500 pounds at a time.

After washing for up to 55 minutes at high temperature, the linens are loaded into two gas-fired dryers. When dry, the linen is ready for sorting by department and folding. Sheets, pillow cases, bed spreads, and surgical drapes are run through flatwork ironer. All finished linen is loaded neatly on carts for return to the areas of the hospital where they will be used.

Hospital laundering poses some special problems. Linen and cloth materials must be of high quality to withstand repeated laundering. The actual washing must be thorough to kill bacteria, yet gentle so that linens will last several years. Rinsing must be thorough to remove detergent residues.

Many departments depend on the laundry crew besides nursing. Surgery, the emergency room, X-ray, physical therapy, housekeeping, and dietary departments all require clean linen, towels and materials each day. In addition the drapes and curtains throughout the hospital must be washed and ironed periodically.

Hospital Linen requires mending and repair from time to time. Seamstress Charlene Bartenslager keeps the hospital in stitches on Monday through Fridays.

Dried linen is folded and stacked by Mary Outman and Felice Sanchez. Not pictured are Shirley Elletson and Evelynne Barren.

Jaycee 'M' Night Is October 1

What do the Jaycees do anyway?

That ho hum attitude toward the Tecumseh Jaycees chapter changed positively last May after the small but stalwart group of 27, including the exhausted members aged 35+, staged one of the most successful dawn patrols in several years at Al Meyers Airport. The club broke even.

This year's president Tom Thayer said the club is making an all effort to recruit more members with fresh ideas.

The club sent out several hundred invitations to young adults 18-35 years old in preparation for "M" night, membership night, Oct. 1 at the Tecumseh Community Center. Mayor Harold Easton will be a guest. "M" night is a joint project with the Tecumseh women's auxiliary.

The purpose of the Jaycees is to build leadership among young adults in the community through community service projects. Friendship is an important incentive and fringe benefit. Many young men join after marriage, a family and buying a home [illegible] community to become acquainted with it. But single men are welcome to join the Jaycees.

"This is about the smallest the club has been, but last year was probably the most active. We don't have any paper members," said Thayer.

"We're not one to make a lot of money and return it to the community. It is awful hard to be noticed," Thayer commented.

One handicap was the club's three year debt of $2,800 from a rodeo. "We learn as we go along," he stated.

How does the club plan to keep members interested?

"Jaycees have to be concerned about the new members. You've got to keep people involved. You've also got to turn the wheel and not push them to run projects, even the willing.

"I can see where every single one of them has grown through the Jaycees," said Thayer.

Harold Petee, last year's top new Jaycee in the local chapter, said he was a case in point: I'm more confident in things I do and meeting people." Petee said.

"You learn how to plan, get people together, delegate work and bring it all together at one time. No one says you made a mistake. There's someone to back you."

Petee said he and his wife, Jane, of the Auxiliary, have more time together with friends and for themselves, too.

"It's up to you, you can do as much as you want. The more you do, the more you get," said Petee.

The women also find a sense of accomplishment and pride in working with the Jaycees in the Auxiliary.

"I'm involved, learning to run projects, how to organize, how to work with people and become a better person on my job," said Margie Ball, a past chapter president.

Jaycette Terry Pinter, whose husband, Paul, is a Jaycee, said community service projects make her proud. The couple have more time for people now, too, she said.

While the Auxiliary has 17 members, including exhausted members over 35, "I feel we are doing as much as we can for the membership we have," said Vicki Bush, Tecumseh Jaycette President. "Our goals could be much higher and much longer if we only had the membership."

Single women are welcome to join, too.

The Jaycees and Auxiliary invite those looking for more in life to join them on "M" night.

Flies to Europe

Army Specialist Four Ronald A. Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philips D. Richards, 8692 Pentecost Hwy. is among the more than 12,000 U.S. troops who flew to Europe to participate in Reforger 77.

Troops were airlifted to Germany, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg for the 10th annual Reforger field training exercise.

Cash Dividends Up for Commerical Bank

Board of directors of Commercial Bankshares Corp. increased again the quarterly cash dividend that is paid to stockholders.

The next dividend which is payable October 17, to stockholders of record September 30, 1977, will be 27 cents per share, an increase of two cents per share over payments made during the first two quarters of 1977.

This is the second increase in the dividend paid in 1977 and will be 30 percent greater than the amount paid in 1976 at the current indicated rate.

The cash dividend return on the stock is about 4.5 percent based on the current average price quoted for the stock.

Jack Germond, president of the firm, pointed out that this further increase in dividend is in line with the policy change announced last February. Instead of year end extra dividends being paid, quarterly cash dividends will be revised periodically in relation to the profitability of the business.

He indicated that operating profits for this year to date are some 20 percent greater than in 1976 when earnings for the entire year were 28 percent more than during the previous twelve months.

Commercial Bankshares Corp. is the only locally based bank holding company. It controls Commercial Savings Bank which is one of the 75 largest banks in Michigan.

It has nearly 240,000 shares of common stock outstanding owned by over 600 stockholders. The stock is quoted at 22 bid and 24 asked. It is traded through a local brokerage office.

Information of the stock can be obtained from any officer of Commercial Savings Bank or Commercial Bankshares Corp.

Need People

The Department of Social Services needs a few good individuals who could spare and share one hour a week to visit shut-ins residing in the numerous adult foster homes throughout the county.

Many of the home residents have little or no contact with people other than those who also reside in the home, and are in need of someone to talk to, someone to assist them in writing a letter, someone to read to them, or someone to just listen to them and show an interest in their well-being.

An informational meeting for volunteers will be held at the Department of Social Services, 1301 N. Main St., Adrian, on Oct. 5, at 1:30 p.m. For information call 263-6761 and ask for Mr. Lynn Schultz, Coordinator of Volunteer Services.

New Manager for PPI Plant

Tim Gigelyou has assumed responsibility as plant manager of Polymeric Process, Inc. of Tecumseh.

Gibelyou has several years of experience in thermoplastic injection molding. He has an associate degree from Washtenaw Community College.

He has a private pilot license and is active in sports. He resides with his wife, Rena and their two children, Steve and Carrie in Saline.

New County Health Office

The Lenawee County Health Department will move to new headquarters at the former Zody building, 1301 N. Main in Adrian Oct. 3.

Clinic will be closed Oct. 3-6 and open for emergency service Oct. 7 only. Normal schedule resumes Oct. 11.

Family Planning clinic scheduled for Oct. 4 will be held at the new location on Oct. 11 and Oct. 18.

Medicaid Screening Clinic will be Oct. 4 at old address, 216 N. Broad St. and at the new location, 1301 N. Main on Oct. 7.

Environmental Health section will suspend office and field activities Oct. 3-7.

Schedule Announced

Lenawee Reading Council of the International Reading Association announces its 1977-78 program schedule. A workshop will be sponsored on Oct. 6 at Adrian College for area teachers, paraprofessionals and interested parents.

According to Alice Staples, president, of Tecumseh, participants may attend two of the seven workshops being offered.

A publisher's book exhibit and teaching aids display will be held on Nov. 15 at the Lenawee Vo-Tec Center.

On Feb. 4 a reading day will be held at the Adrian Mall. An interesting day of reading activities is planned for county youngsters.

The year's activities will conclude on March 14 with a dinner meeting at Adrian College, featuring Mimi Chenfeld, author, dancer and choreographer. Her topic for the evening will be "Put Your Whole Self In".

Further information about the Council is available by calling membership chairperson Cindy Corner at 547-7405.

80 Attend 1st Supper

TIPTON — Over 80 persons attended the first parish family supper of the fall at Tipton Community Church on Sept. 12.

At the event, players on this year's men's and women's softball teams were honored.

The 6:30 p.m. meal was followed by an old-time sing-a-long, accompanied by Frances Munger at the piano.

The team members were introduced by the Rev. Raymond E. Scribner. The women's team was June Aument, Dawn Brooks, Shirley Daniels, Corlene Evans, Cindy Every, Laurie and Sherrie Griffin, Jan Little, Debbie Rodgers, Connie Ruttkofsky, Amy and Beth Tuckerman, Darlene Wolf and coach Richard Graham.

The men's team was Dale Allen, Kim Beard, Dan Brooks, Scott Church, Steve Daniels, Mark and Mike Feight, Bob and Dave Fritz, Ray Jackson, Greg Lewis, Bill Mukensturm, Chuck Munger, Bob Platt, Duane Radant, Dave and Ray Scribner, and player-coach Bernie Wilson.

Also recognized were umpires Steve Covell, Jim Evans, Ed Lewis and Hal Tuckerman. Among the fans honored were John and Dorothy Wisner, who received the 1977 Super Fan Award.

The dining room and kitchen were managed by Wanda Hardy and Dorothy Wisner respectively, assisted by ladies of the women's fellowship.

A second parish family supper will be held on Oct. 19, when a missionary speaker is scheduled.

America's future.
Dairy Farmers want to be a part of it...
and we hope the feeling is mutual.

Mutual effort is what makes Michigan Milk Producers Association work. For the dairy farmers who make up MMPA. For you, the consumer.

For sixty-one years, we have been a cooperative owned and controlled by the dairy farmers we serve. And we're still working together to keep our farms and marketing system productive and efficient.

Though there are now only about one-third as many Michigan dairy farms as there were twenty years ago, our cooperative efforts and advancements in dairy farming technology continue to assure you an adequate supply of quality milk, delivered where and when it's needed. We at MMPA believe the dairy farmer is important to America's future, just as you are important to the future of the dairy farmer.

But preserving the American dairy farming industry requires a mutual, united effort. That's why dairy farmers of MMPA work to stay together.

Enrollment in Schools Drops Again

For the second straight year, enrollment in the Tecumseh schools has dropped slightly.

Official enrollment, taken last Friday for state aid purposes, is 3,647 for the 1977-78 school year. Last year, official enrollment was 3,691, and the year before, 3,698.

There's a small increase in the kindergarten through sixth grade enrollment, 1,820 compared to 1,815 a year ago. Junior High is down, 597 to 575, as is Tecumseh High School, 1,168 to 1,157 this year.

Breakdown by grade is:

	1977-78	1976-77
Kindergarten	248	304
First Grade	311	272
Second Grade	276	273
Third Grade	280	231
Fourth Grade	223	228
Fifth Grade	238	246
Sixth Grade	244	261
Seventh Grade	267	302
Eighth Grade	308	295
Freshmen	305	317
Sophomores	319	301
Juniors	277	292
Seniors	256	258

There are 85 special education students and 17 in the adult ed program.

Supt. Robert Duhan reports the schools used an enrollment of 3,680 this year for their budget.

Appoint Chairmen for Fund Drive

Nine division chairmen for the annual Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation drive have been appointed by Harry Hans, drive chairman, who announced Monday that the annual kickoff meeting will be held Friday, rather than next Tuesday as originally scheduled.

The meeting will be held at 10 a.m. in the second floor conference room at Tecumseh Products International Division building, corner of E. Patterson and S. Ottawa.

The actual drive will start Monday, Oct. 17th., with hopes of reaching the $84,000 goal.

Roger Proctor is serving as co-chairman for the '77 drive. Coordinator is Marten Vegter.

Recently appointed division chairmen are:

Industrial — Rudy Clum of Tecumseh Corrugated Box.

Commercial — Tim Neill, retired from Tecumseh Products.

Special Gifts — Ken McElroy, board chairman, United Savings Bank.

Schools — Gene Cooley, assistant superintendent.

Professional — Dr. Robert Murray, dentist.

Residential — Lilly Robinson, wife of Foundation's president, Robert Robinson.

City — Paul Preston, assistant city manager.

Hospital — William Groover, administrator.

Post Office — Lewis Potts, assistant postmaster.

6 Drivers Cited

Although local police investigated only eight accidents the past week and none involved serious personal injury, six motorists were cited for traffic violations.

Wednesday of last week, Nicholas Herrera, 17, 4087 Comfort Rd., zig-zagged on E. Logan St., jumped the curb, hit a city sign and then a Consumers Power pole. He was cited for careless driving and no operator's license.

The same day William B. Newman, 17, of 5957 E. Monroe Rd., was cited for failure to yield after a mishap with Timme L. Rodgers, 28, of 303 Maple, on W. Pottawatamie at Adrian St.

Amanda G. Castorena, 16, of 1019 Sutton Rd., was charged with violation of the basic speed law Friday. She was headed north on N. Maumee, lost control of her car and hit a parked vehicle.

Saturday, Mary Caterina, 8800 N. Union, reported her car damaged while parked in the hospital parking lot.

Ray G. Williams, 61, of 322 N. Pearl, was cited Sunday for failure to yield after turning in front of Lee A. Kent, 20, of 3160 Academy Rd., on W. Chicago at Union St.

Sandra R. Smith, 16, of 207 N. Pearl, was charged Monday with failure to yield in an accident involving two other vehicles. She turned left on E. Chicago Blvd. at N. Maumee when her car was struck by a westbound auto driven by June L. Day, 41, of 809 Adrian St.

The Smith car was then knocked into the third vehicle, operated by Michael D. Withrow, 32, of 503 Nokomis.

Mary R. Dana, 17, of 704 W. Chicago Blvd., was cited for failure to yield Sunday after colliding with Steven C. Ely, 20, of 1211 Russell Rd. on W. Pottawatamie at Cairns St.

In the city parking lot behind Gambles Monday, Pearl L. Taylor, 72, of 6794 Ridge Rd., backed into a car belonging to Gregg Aranda, 106 Muscody St.

TOADS, SNAKES — Brad Bruce, taxidermist, mounts just about everything. Toads, snakes, pheasants plus deer and fish are included among his tasks. (PHOTO BY FRANK WEIR)

Mounts Include about Everything

By FRANK WEIR

The life [illegible] commercial taxidermist is never dull.

Especially when you get requests to mount horned toads and lively black pigeons take up roost on top of your shop.

But its all in a day's work for Brad Bruce, 2665 W. Russell Rd.

Bruce works full time at the Budd Company but has found time to put in another 40 hours on taxidermy. And the work has proved so profitable that two years ago he added an addition to his home accommodating a work area.

Bruce has been a commercial taxidermist for the past four years following up a life-long interest in hunting and fishing.

Most requests involve game birds and fish along with deer. But once, an area resident asked that her pet horned toad be mounted. Bruce prides himself on the fact that he'll tackle anything, so the request was granted.

He has also mounted snakes and sparrows, fish and even a goldfish. He has also done life size mounts of raccoons and mink.

And another strange thing happened recently when two black pigeons chose the roof of his shop, of all places, to roost. The pair, which fly off for short periods only to return, are inseparable. Bruce has surmised that they may be racing pigeons from a Detroit club but has no verification. One bird appears to be banded on one leg, but Bruce has been unable to get close enough to tell for sure.

He admits he's never seen a black pigeon before and neither have most of the families' neighbors.

But Bruce has more than pigeons on his mind with the taxidermy business.

Most of his work involves the mounting of deer heads. A hunter brings his prize in and Bruce starts by removing the horns and completely skinning the head. The fur is put through a three phase wash and a powder preservative is rubbed into the hide. When completely skinned, the hide is called a "cape" and is put on a form or mannequin made of clay or papier-mache.

The form is built up with clay to show muscle structure of the animal and facial expressions. Glass eyes, made in W. Germany, are set in clay and positioned.

Plastic ear liners are used to hold the ears in any position desired since natural cartilage has been removed.

Bruce is quick to add that the eyes and ears can make the difference in a mount.

After the cape has been positioned, it is made permanent through sewing, pinning and gluing. The pins are removed after three weeks.

Bruce charges around $100 for a deer head and the job requires 8-10 hours of labor. Horns are cleaned with pumice stone for the final touch.

Fish require air brush painting after preservative treatments since colors are lost as the fish dries. Bruce uses automotive acrylic lacquer using an instant color snapshot he takes before starting the process.

Two of the hardest subjects for a taxidermist are snakes and pheasants. Pheasant feathers often have to be replaced one by one with a pair of tweezers. Stretching a snakeskin over a form is delicate work.

Bruce is one of 29 registered taxidermists in the state. There are only two in Lenawee County, Bruce says. He has state and federal liense and is subject to periodic searches required by the Department of Natural Resources to assure that all game have been legally killed.

Bruce obviously enjoys this hobby which turned into "a second full time job."

But he still doesn't know what to do about those two black pigeons. And its doubtful they would want to move from the roof to the inside of the shop to join their stuffed brothers for the winter.

City Premium Nearly Triples

City's general liability insurance has tripled. It was the second blow of bad news for Council in the month.

City's umbrella insurance coverage has also skyrocketed, it was announced at a previous meeting.

City's premium for general liability jumped from $5,848 to $15,394. City will continue with present insurer until it can get another quote.

New Member

Tecumseh City Council approved the appointment of Roger Proctor to the Housing Commission, replacing Dick Eggleston. Term is for five years.

COUNCIL ACTION SURPRISE

5 to 2 Vote Rejects Historic Ordinance

by Kathy Brown

Members of the Tecumseh Historic District Study Committee and proponents of the historic district ordinance were still smarting Tuesday from the stinging blow delivered Monday when Tecumseh City Council voted 5 to 2 to veto the ordinance, a result of three years of study by the Council appointed committee.

The ordinance would have established a seven member advisory historic district commission to review plans for repair, alteration, construction or demolition of buildings in the historic district. The advisory commission would also advise residents and Council of alternatives. Council would have final veto power.

The historic district included buildings along W. Chicago Blvd. from 206 to 710 and from 207 S. Union St. north to Evans Creek Bridge about 90 properties.

Council cited a petition signed in the past three weeks by opposing residents in the historic distric as its chief reason for the veto.

Council members Aden Mead and Carlton Cook voted for the ordinance. Mayor Harold Easton, Council members Len DeMoss, James H. Palmer, Mary Bowers and Jay Tressler voted "no".

Before Council's vote, the city accepted the petitions circulated by Terrance Beland, 111 N. Union and George Sommermeyer, 305 W. Chicago Blvd. They said that 56 of 89 property owners in the proposed historic district signed.

That petition stated: "We are opposed to any city ordinance which would in any way limit our right to administer our property or subject us to any additional procedures that other members of the community would not have to comply with."

While the petition was no surprise to the members of the historic district study committee, the rhetoric delivered by Sommermeyer and Beland was.

Sommermeyer cited the "implications" of the ordinance the commission's duties to inspect and designate other historic properties and Council's option to acquire them.

"What I'm saying is that there are tax implications in this ordinance for all the people of Tecumseh. I don't believe that the city of Tecumseh would pass a law creating special conditions for those citizens with two-thirds majority opposing them. These questions of future acquisition and taxes have not been answered," Sommermeyer said.

"I strongly would like to see an advisory group pertain to the whole town," said Terrance Beland. "Everybody has a stake in preservation. Knowing the people in Tecumseh, I don't think we'll need a law."

Mayor Harold Easton gave an opportunity for equal time but the proponents were caught off guard.

"I didn't know that this was going to be a public hearing," said Mrs. Lynn Cook, chairman of the historic district study committee. "I didn't feel the study committee should go door to door, this material was available to the people."

The Council then stated its position before voting.

"I believe we have an obligation to the people who are opposed as they are the majority," stated Mayor Harold Easton. The historic district ordinance could be adopted to protect historical homes for people who want it."

Len DeMoss echoed those feelings and added, "It really hurts to vote against this." He suggested a compromise in Ann Arbor where property owners objecting to the ordinance worked with the city's historic district committee to come up with specific guidelines of mutual satisfaction.

Mary Bowers stated: "I have indicated right along that I support this." However, she said, "I don't feel I want to be in a dictatorial position. I want to do what's right and fair. I don't feel we can throw this down their throats. At this point, it is a hard thing to do."

Jay Tressler said the only fault of the study was that "They didn't list the alternatives. We have no way to know if the petitioners knew what they signed," he added.

Aden Mead admitted that he had not reached a decision until this week. "I am concerned about these names here, but it's also interesting that some of these people haven't appeared here.

"To me the ordinance is not going to be that kind of restricting thing. But I think that the wording of this would alarm anybody to sign it," said Mead.

"I think it's only fair that the historic district study committee be able to get petitions signed in favor of it. I assert some signatures were to get people off their backs," said Councilman Carlton Cook.

Council member James H. Palmer stated: "If we start singling out certain areas and subjecting them to certain procedures we will hurt the community forever. It is the responsibility of all property owners, whether their home is new or 200 years old, to keep their property maintained. I don't think that this ordinance has anything to stand on."

"Why did you include homes 40 years old and less?" asked Harold Easton.

"Because that's our future history," said Lynn Cook. "Homes are the history of man represented in architecture. This is the true picture of Tecumseh, the small town community. If we don't encourage people to take care of it, we will have holes."

After the Council's vote, a member of the audience applauded, said "Congratulations" to the assembly and left.

Tempers Flare after Meeting

After the Council meeting Monday night, tempers flared as Council members argued about the historic district ordinance.

The Tecumseh Herald reporter asked Council members: Was the historic district study of three years a waste of time or was the study of any value?

Mayor Harold Easton stated he felt it was of value, that he supported historic preservation but he did not approve the ordinance because the majority of residents were opposed.

"Then why don't you suggest an alternative?" asked Carlton Cook.

Easton then told Cook that proponents "pushing" the historic district ordinance made him feel uninformed and that when he expressed his opinions, he received a "nasty" letter. "That's not the way to get along with me," said Easton.

Councilman Aden Mead said he thought that it was a complete waste of time as the ordinance failed. Both he and Easton felt that any further action from Council on preservation should be initiated by the residents.

Councilman Len DeMoss said he felt that a volunteer homeowners association should be organized by historic district residents as other communities have done.

Councilman Jay Tressler said the topic was not closed "As far as I'm concerned." He does not believe that Council's veto dissolved the historic district study committee. However what does the committee feel?

Lynn Cook, chairman, teary eyed after the ordeal, stated the work of the committee was completed "as far as I'm concerned."

"All those signatures scared them," she commented on Council's vote. "It was hard for them."

One committee member commented "After two thirds in the district are opposed? If you think I'm going to volunteer for another committee, you've got to be crazy.

An observer said: "How many times can you get kicked?"

MIAA Tourney on TCC Course

Tecumseh Country Club will mark a first here Oct. 21-22 when the local golf course will be the site for the annual MIAA tournament.

MIAA consists of Adrian College, Albion College, Alma, Kalamazoo, Olivet, Hope and Calvin College.

Adrian College is the host school, but rules prohibit the college from using Lenawee Country Club, where its matches are played, and Woodlawn, where Adrian College golfers practice. A rental course is required.

There will be 42 golfers teeing off here Friday morning, Oct. 21, and Saturday, Oct. 22 from 10:00 to 12:00 noon. Among those playing will be Scott Macbeth, son of the William Macbeths of Tecumseh and former Tecumseh Country Club champion, who is a member of the Hope College team.

Golf course will be closed to members during tournament play. Spectators are welcomed and should see some of the finest amateur golfers in the state.

Country Club pro Stan Brion will be the official scorer.

Bags Ready, Pickups Start Here Oct. 24

Residents may start picking up leaf bags next Monday at city hall, Cal Zorn, city manager, announces.

Curb side collection, however, will not start until Oct. 24th.

Zorn says he expects truck collection of the bags should be completed prior to Halloween. Leaves, small limbs and branches are collected annually during the fall season.

'Irene' Underway for Players

The Tecumseh Players are well into their 18th season with rehearsals currently in progress the musical, "Irene". This lighthearted comedy-romance, written originally in 1919, was produced for Broadway in 1973 by Harry Bigby, Albert Seldon, and Jerome Ninskoff. It starred Debbie Reynolds in the title role.

The Players' production of "Irene" is directed by Pati Evans of Adrian, a graduate of Siena Heights College, where she studied theatre arts.

This summer she had a starring role herself, as Rosie, in the Croswell's "Bye-Bye Birdie".

Helen Bendes is musical director for this show. She has been a music teacher in Tecumseh schools for many years and has handled the music for other Players' productions in the past.

Choreographer for the many dance numbers will be Dean Shullick, a student at Siena. Gerry Johnstone is technical director.

Appearing at the Glass Room at the Tecumseh Community Center for the first time will be Concetta D'Agostino of Adrian, who will star as the wholesome, optimistic Irene, a resident of the Irish immigrant section of Manhatten just prior to the "roaring 20's."

Irene's mother, Mrs. O'Dare, whose only wish is for her daughter to hurry up and get married, is played by veteran actress Judy Vanzo of Tecumseh. Her experience with nearly every phase of theatre literally spans decades. She was most recently seen as the Mayor's wife in "Bye-Bye Birdie".

The male lead in "Irene" is played by Mike Ray in the role of Donald S. Marshall III, wealthy and upper crust. Mike is from Adrian, as is John 'Beef' Evans, who plays Donald's irresponsible cousin Ozzie. This summer 'Beef' had two major roles at the Croswell. He was Mr. McAfee in "Birdie" and in "My Fair Lady" played the part of Eliza's father, Alfred Dolittle.

The colorful character of dress designer, Madame Lucy, is portrayed by Tecumseh stage favorite, Dr. Carlton Cook, whose acting credits are innumerable. He was unforgettable last spring as the jilted fiance in "Dear Ruth".

Cast in the role of Donald's properly stuffy mother is another Tecumseh veteran, Dorothy Wetter, who is back to life after her demise as Emily Brent in "Ten Little Indians" last year.

Two of Irene's girlfriends are Jane, played by Patti Ray of Adrian, and Helen; played by Kathi Johnstone of Tecumseh, who was last fall's "Calamity Jane". Kim Swift of Clinton, who was "lovely Francis Fryer" in "Calamity Jane" plays the part of Jimmy.

Comprising the neighbors, workers, socialites, etc. of the story are the "glue" that holds any musical together - the chorus members. Performing these parts are Linda Baaske, Lisa Bush, Renee Lapham, Skip Johnstone, and Gary Rader, all from Tecumseh; and Dean Shullick and Sue Gross of Adrian.

Performances of "Irene" will be given in the Glass Room Oct. 21, 22, and 27, 28, 29. There will be a special senior citizens night on opening night, Oct. 21 only.

All seats for the show are to be reserved, with the admission payable at the door. The number to call for reservations is 456-4370. As an alternate number only, call 423-2504.

7 Complaints

Three drunk driving arrests and two for possession of marijuana were among the seven complaints handled the past week by Tecumseh police.

Bernard G. LaVoy of Deerfield, Henry J. Orth of 5137 Cadmus Rd., Adrian, and James F. Brown of 11313 Matthews Hwy., were charged with driving under the influence of alcohol.

LaVoy was observed Saturday running into a curb on S. Evans St. Orth was driving left of center Saturday and off the right side of W. Russell Rd. Wednesday, Brown's vehicle was weaving on N. Evans St.

Ralph E. Williams, 33, Jonesburrough, Tenn., a passenger with Brown, was arrested for being drunk and disorderly. When officers arrested Brown, Williams reportedly disregarded instructions from the arresting officers.

Charged with possession of marijuana Monday were, William G. Caulkins, 25, of 116 E. Kilbuck, and Douglas E. Sessoms, 18, of 703 S. Pearl St.

Caulkins was arrested in the parking lot at the Community Center after police observed marijuana in his car. He was taken to the county jail where he posted $100 bond. He's to appear in court Friday.

Sessoms was westbound on E. Chicago Blvd. where officers stopped him for a loud exhaust and muffler dragging on the street. Police then discovered marijuana in his automobile. Court appearance is scheduled for Friday.

In a complaint Friday, Tammy Ford, 202 N. Maumee, reported her bicycle stolen from behind the Party Shop. Value reported was $135.

'M' Night Success

Tecumseh Jaycees and Auxiliary membership night Oct. 1 was reportedly a success. Sixteen guests were hosted by the Jaycees with a total of 40 in attendance.

Three new Jaycees and one Auxiliary member joined with other indicating interest.

Bob Vinning, administrative executive vice president of the Michigan Jaycees from Marshall and Sharon McGill, recording secretary of the Michigan Jaycee Auxiliary of Clinton, were speakers.

Drive Closes

Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce closed its current year membership drive with 75 members, said Dr. David Blanden of the Chamber.

Kapnick's Orchards was the last new member to join.

A flea market, baked goods and craft items will be on sale. A raffle will be held. For more information, contact Helen Hendershot.

Junior-Senior Parent Night

Junior and senior Tecumseh High School students and their parents are invited to attend an informational program to be presented by the Tecumseh High School Guidance Counselors, Oct. 13.

Topics to be covered will include "How to Choose a College or Vocational School" and also financial aid information.

"It is quite important to gather as much information as possible about colleges and vocational schools in order to insure a wise decision. This process of selecting a school is a family affair and mom and dad should assist the student in making a selection," said John Pobuda, guidance counselor.

The cost of higher education has grown to the point when most students need some type of financial assistance or part-time work. The counselors will explain the different types of financial aid opportunities.

Bid Accepted

Tecumseh City Council Monday accepted the low bid of Erb Chevrolet for a ¾ ton pickup truck at $4,555.

Bids of Underwood Chevrolet for $4,989 and Les Dallas for $5,047, were vetoed.

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

A visit to the apple orchard is a fun family activity that we look forward to each fall. This area is fortunate to have so many orchards where you can purchase apples by the bushel, pick your own or already picked. It is hard to beat their freshness and crispness. Here are two suggestions for baked apple desserts.

ROMAN APPLE CAKE

1 cup sugar
1½ cup flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup shortening
½ cup milk
1 egg
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups chopped apples

TOPPING:

1 teaspoon butter
1 tablespoon flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ cup brown sugar
½ cup chopped nuts

Cream shortening and add sugar. Add egg, milk and vanilla. Sift remaining dry ingredients and stir into batter. Fold in apples last. Pour batter into greased 9x13 inch pan. Combine ingredients for topping and sprinkle over cake batter. Bake 350 degrees for 45 minutes. Delicious!!

BAKED APPLE DUMPLINGS

2 cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons cold shortening
¾ cup milk
8 medium apples
¾ cup brown sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup raisins, optional
3 tablespoons butter

Sift flour, baking powder and ½ teaspoon salt together and cut in shortening. Add milk to make a soft dough. Place on floured board and knead lightly a few seconds. Roll ⅛ inch thick and cut into squares large enough to cover apple.

Pare and core apples and place one in center of each square. Mix brown sugar, butter, ½ teaspoon salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and raisins together and fill cavity of each apple with mixture.

Bring corners of dough to the top of the apples and moisten edges and pinch together to seal. Bake 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Serve with cream or milk.

See you next week. Hope to hear from you.

MR. and MRS. DON DUMIRE

Cynthia Stevens Weds Don Dumire

Cynthia Stevens and Don Dumire were married Sept. 23 at 7:30 p.m. at Grace Bible Church, Tecumseh before the altar decorated with candles, ribbons and baby's breath.

The Rev. David Holly officiated at the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens, 513 Occidental and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dumire, Adrian.

Joe Murphy was organist and Leslie Giesen of Tecumseh was pianist. Donna Sandrick of Tecumseh was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin and lace gown with lace bodice, high neckline and mutton sleeves. Her jewelry was a pair of diamond earrings, a gift from the groom. She wore a Victorian headpiece with fingertip veil. Her bouquet was composed of roses, mums and baby's breath.

Peggy Wilgus of Tecumseh was the maid of honor wearing a peasant style gown of ivory and brown chiffon over taffeta. She wore baby's breath in her hair and carried an arrangement of dried flowers with a candle in a chamberstick.

Bridesmaids were Ginger Dowd, the bride's sister of Bagley, Iowa and Nancy Stevens, the bride's sister of Ft. Monmouth, N.J. They were attired in gowns identical to the honor attendant's in coral and brown.

Their flowers were designed and arranged by Kathy Hamilton of Clinton, a friend of the family.

Randy Wiles of Tecumseh was the best man. Terry and Steve Dumire and the groom's brothers of Adrian, were ushers.

Charity Blaker and Chad Blaker, both of Adrian, attended as the flower girl and ring bearer, respectively.

A reception for 250 guests was held at the Tecumseh Grange Hall with the bride's table decorated with carnations, mums and candles.

Jackie Penninger of Bagley, Iowa was in charge of the guest book. Cindy Dumire, the groom's sister-in-law, cut the cake.

The bride's grandmother, Lee Layne from Florida, celebrated her birthday on the same day. Out of state guests came from Florida, Iowa, New Jersey, New York and West Virginia.

The bride attends Tecumseh High School and is employed at Don's Beef Buffet. The groom is a 1974 graduate of Adrian High School and is employed as a contractor.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Don's Beef Buffet.

The newlyweds reside at 9103 N. Union St.

GAS MACHINE — Mrs. Lorena Walker double-checks one of her anesthesia machines prior to the start of the day's surgery schedule. No flamable or explosive gases are used at Herrick Memorial.

A LOOK INSIDE
Herrick Hospital

BY
KATHY BAILEY, R.N.
RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

The operating room (O.R.) in any hospital is surrounded by mystery and drama. All the doctor shows on television manage to get patients into the O.R. sooner or later. At Herrick Hospital, surgery is a team effort. Let's spend the next few weeks getting acquainted with the surgery department at HMH.

Long before the patient comes to the hospital for an operation the teamwork begins. The doctor calls the director of surgery, Alyce Dick, RN to reserve the operating room. To control expense patients are scheduled for blood tests, X-rays and other tests the doctor has ordered before patients are admitted.

Surgical patients usually are admitted to the hospital the evening before their scheduled operation. During the first evening the patient is visited by Lorena Walker, C.R.N.A. (Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist). Mrs. Walker has been giving anesthetics at HMH for six years. She received her training at University Hospital in Ann Arbor and practiced at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor and at Hillsdale Community Health Center before coming to Tecumseh. In all, Mrs. Walker combines 26 years of anesthesia experience and it shows from the minute she steps into a patient's room for the preanesthesia interview.

This visit on the evening before surgery is important. On the basis of the information she gains about each patient's medical history, Mrs. Walker will decide what type of anesthetic she will administer during surgery the next morning. It is valuable also to the patient to have the chance to ask questions.

Mrs. Walker holds two certificates of excellence from the American Association of Nurse Anesthetists of which she is a member. The Association provides continuing education programs several times each year.

Three of our staff physicians also administer anesthesia. They are Dr. Gordon Guild, D.O., Dr. R.E. Dustin, M.D., and Dr. C.L. Cook, MD. This ensures that an experienced hand will be available day and night whenever surgery is required. The O.R. at HMH is covered 24 hours a day.

Next week we will pick-up on the morning of surgery and see more of what happens behind the operating room door.

Anniversary at Croswell

The Croswell Opera House and Fine Arts Association celebrates 10 years of existence this year and will mark 1977 with a celebration featuring a benefit stage production, reception, refreshments back stage, and an open house of the entire facility on Oct. 23, at 4 p.m.

Invitations were sent to individuals, businesses, and organizations who have been supportive of the Croswell and its programs over the years.

Several dignitaries representing state offices, State Historic Commission, and Michigan Council for the Arts have indicated that they will attend the event.

The celebration culminates ten years of community involvement, with participation of area residents from every walk of life.

Croswell Gets Grant

Sen. Hal Ziegler (R) 19th District and Representative John S. Mowat, Jr. (R) 40th District, have announced a Community Arts Council grant from Michigan Council for the Arts to Croswell Opera House and Fine Arts Association, in the amount of $7,500.

Problem Is Studied

"Lenawee County wind and water erosion problems are being studied by the Soil Conservation Service, stated District Conservationist Tom Thrall.

The Lenawee County Study is part of a National Erosion Inventory being made to determine the extent of soil erosion occuring in the country.

A conservationist from SCS will study 20 160-acres sample areas in Lenawee County. He will evaluate nearly 20 factors that effect erosion.

Conservationist Tom Thrall and Dan Allison will visit the sample areas in October and November and gather facts about the slope, land use, existing conservation practices and cropping systems for each sample. Land owners will be contacted as needed regarding this inventory.

8 Public Hearings Held

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) will hold eight public hearings on the nation's child nutrition program to seek public comment directly from people concerned, to know how well the programs serve and how they can be improved.

Hearings closest to this area will be held Oct. 25-26 at 55 E. Jackson-17 floor, room, 2, Chicago, Ill.

Persons interested in speaking or submitting written statements should call the appropriate regional information directors for the Food and Nutrition Service at 1-800-621-3199, toll free.

Written statements may be addressed before Nov. 7 to Food and Nutrition Service, Midwest Regional Office, 536 S. Clark St., Chicago, Ill. 60605.

Limited funds are available for individuals to testify at the hearing site. Call the toll free number for information.

The child nutrition programs provide cash and food assistance to the school lunch and breakfast programs and help support food services to children in public and nonprofit private schools, residential child care institutions, summer day camps, child care centers and family and group day care homes.

Programs are administered through state educational agencies and USDA's Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) regional offices.

Hearings will consider public comment on such topics as meal quality and waste, school breakfast program, nutrition education, student, parent and community participation and federal state and local relationships.

COLUMBUS DAY

October 10th reminds us of our courageous ancestor who added new real estate, new riches and a new dimension to the known world.

It also reminds us that in 1977 anyone can discover that their future holds a greater promise if they spend a little less than they make.

Today, it takes a genuine effort and some real courage to save money, but it pays off in peace of mind, self respect and security in the future. Come save with us.

Taking Orders for Florida Fruit

BRITTON — Beginning Oct. 7 the senior class of Britton-Macon High School will be taking orders for fresh Florida Indian River oranges, tangelos and pink or white grapefruit.

Seniors are also taking orders for sneeze-proof pepper, cry-proof onions, all-purpose seasoning and "meatless" bacon bits.

To order, contact any senior or call the school, 451-2805.

Proceeds will finance their senior trip.

History Is Reviewed

Mrs. Ellsworth Robison read a history of the Northeast Tecumseh Extension Club at the recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Raymond Bird.

A copy of the history will be sent to the chamber of commerce as requested.

During the meeting, the eight members voted to donate to the Ridgeway Landscaping Fund in memory of Mrs. Clifford Southard, recently deceased member of the club.

Mrs. Fern Drewyer, who retired from the Extension Office, thanked the group for a gift given to her at the Fall Rally.

Mrs. Fredrick Helm reported on the district council meeting Sept. 22 at Mt. Clemens.

Yearbooks were filled out. The hostess served lunch.

Fun Night Plans Are Announced

BRITTON — The Britton-Macon PTO Fund Night will be Oct. 8 from 5-9 p.m. in the high school gym and multi-purpose rooms.

Door prizes given away to luck winners will include a 10-speed bicycle, picnic basket, skate board, tennis racquet, Presto Fry Baby, Proctor Silex electric ice cream freezer and a Sunbeam 1-2 hambuger grill. These prizes furnished by the PTO.

Other prizes made possible for the special event were donated by Gobel's Carry-Out and Union '76 Service, a six piece cutlery set; hanging basket from Village Greenery; a woman's electric watch, donated by Russell Lutton. Local dealers donating prizes are Frieda Rowlands (Stanley); LaRue McWilliams (Avon); and Lorraine Hummell (Tupperware).

These prizes are now on display at the Britton Branch Bank.

Classes and organizations sponsoring booths for Fun Night are: seventh grade — softball throw; eighth grade — Toss Across and Frisbee throw; ninth grade — 50-50 raffle and dunking booths; twelfth grade — fruit and spices sale; Camp Fire Girls — fudge sale; Band Boosters — will sell pop, popcorn and cider; Tory Athletic Boosters, hot dogs; FHA, doughnuts; Journalism class, year book pictures.

The annual zoo parade drawings will be held throughout the evening. Stuffed animals of all kinds will be on sale.

A feature of Fun Night will be "Pumpkin the Clown". She will have games geared to pre-school children. Along with "Pumpkin" another attraction is "Sweet Tooth", a pig shaped five-gallon terreriam filled with candy and for 10 cents guesses can be made as to how much candy "Sweet Tooth" ate.

The Country Roads booth needs donations of plant cuttings, pumpkins, gourds for Fun Night. Also needed are homemade cakes and pies for the Cake Walk. Call 451-8111 if you can help out.

Donations of used dishes and glasses are also needed. Call any member of the Ways and Means committee.

Committee members this year are: Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford, chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hemphill, co-chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Fairbanks; Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Needham, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cook, Mr. and Mrs. John Aylward, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Below and Mr. and Mrs. John Osborne.

Ticket sales for Fun Night will be held until Friday, Oct. 7. They may be purchased from fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and also at the door on Fun Night.

Children participating in ticket sales are eligible for awards. There will be three winners from each grade. First place, $1; second place, 50 cents; third place, a candy bar. The room selling the most tickets will receive candy bars and the overall first place winner will receive $3.

28 Members Entertained

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Benedict hosted 28 members of the Baraca Philathea Class of the Congregational Christian Church recently at a cooperative swiss steak dinner.

Special guest, Neil Judkins, entertained the group by telling of his motorcycle Alaskan trip taken this summer, averaging 10,000 miles round trip.

Former Pastor and Mrs. G.O. Hannevik of Stoughton, Wisc., were also guests of the class. They were in the area visiting friends Sept. 22 to 27. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis of Dearborn and Mr. and Mrs. Murell Clark of Tecumseh.

Next meeting will be Oct. 30 with Lillian Buttolph in Tecumseh.

Minister to Appear

World Mission Festival will be celebrated at Immanuel Lutheran Church of North Blissfield this coming Oct. 9 with guest speaker, the Rev. Matti Amadhila, a national from Ovamboland, Namibia.

Pastor Amadhila was educated at the Paulinum United Lutheran Theological Seminary in Namibia and was ordained in 1971. He is taking addition training at the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Columbus, Ohio.

His wife and four children have been here in America with him since August.

He will speak at the Sunday School session at 9 a.m. and preach at the 10:15 a.m. worship service on "World Missions-Namibia in Particular!", and at a gathering of youth and families over the noon hour-potluck dinner style.

All in the community are cordially invited to share the Mission Festival Day at Immanuel, according to the local Pastor, the Rev. Karl Oelschlager.

Soup Labels Are Collected

BRITTON — The Britton-Macon School will participate in the Campbell Soup Co.'s "Label for Education Program" beginning Jan. 2 to March 11, 1978.

Labels collected will be from Campbell's soups, bean products and Franco-American products.

Labels may be turned in at the school library in care of Anthony Bandurski.

NEW LOOK FOR TORY JR. HIGH BAND — Britton-Macon eighth graders, Amy Rohrs, left, and Suzi Oswald, representing the Jr. High Band, model the band's new sweaters. The red sweaters will be worn with white turtleneck dickies and black slacks for the first time Dec. 3 for the Solo and Ensemble Festival. (PHOTO BY FRANK WEIR)

MACON — Harvest time is a wonderful time of the year. The last of the vegetables were brought in from the garden before that frost gets here. The sunflowers were picked and corn and beans begin to disappear. Now is the time for a trip to an apple orchard and time to look for a Halloween pumpkin.

The former Beulah Camburn home was a busy place since last June when a new family came from near Hudson to Macon. Nancy Andrews (Schoolmaster) moved her family into the house she was born in years ago. Children Bob, Bruce, Brad, Bryan, Rebel and Susan agree there aren't many dull minutes. All six children attend Britton-Macon School with four in high school and two in elementary. Nancy's oldest son and wife, William and Becky Clark live in Brooklyn with their little daughter, Lou Ann. The family loves their new home.

Carl and Evelyn Hawkins spent two weeks camping in the Upper Penninsula near Manistique.

Rip and Jean Smith have returned from a 10-day trip to Halifax, Nova Scotia. They toured the whole province of Nova Scotia enjoying beautiful coastal areas, weather much like ours and ate some delicious sea food.

Little Adam Stretch, six week old son of David and Linda Stretch, is home and doing well following 10 days at Herrick Hospital.

James Konen, father of Mrs. John (Cathy) Keller of Ford Rd. died suddenly Sept. 16 in Detroit. A retired carpenter he loved to come out to the Keller home where he did much of the finish work on the old farm house John and Cathy remodeled. Cathy remembers an unusually strong wind blowing one of the walls several years ago and as quick as word got to dad he was there the next morning repairing it.

Mr. nd Mrs. John Keller celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary in September. John, Cathy and their four children had dinner at the Plaza Hotel in the Detroit Renaissance Center.

Pat Connors Jr. was home for the weekend. Family had a birthday dinner for him. His birthday was Sept. 27.

The Macon United Methodist Church celebrated World Communion Sunday last Sunday with a large attendance. In fact attendance has been good at the church with the exception of the time the the road was so bad.

Coming events are:

Oct. 6-12

THURSDAY — 1:30 p.m. Faith Circle at Shirley Riggs. Program, Margaret Hall.; 7:30 p.m. Chancel Choir

MONDAY — 7 p.m. Trustees Meeting; 8 p.m. Administrative Board.

THURSDAY — 9:30 a.m. Hope Circle at Mary Foster's. Program, Rosella Rhoades.

Special Oct. 7 9-4 and Oct 8 9-12 extension of rummage sale. Come and fill a bag for $2.

Mark your calendars for Sat. Oct. 22 annual Bazaar and Smorgasbord Supper.

Methodist Youth Fellowship meets Oct. 9 at 6:30 p.m. at the Macon-United Methodist Church. All interested junior and senior high youth invited.

Prize Winners Are Announced

CLINTON — The Chrysler Cordoba provided by Driscoll Bros. Motor Sales, was the choice of Fall Festival winner Tim Fero, according to ticket chairman, Gary Couture.

Fero is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blom of Clinton, and resides with his wife, Patty, in Ann Arbor now.

He's the manager of the Yost Arena there and was working Sunday so Patty was on hand to get the surprising news of their good luck. Tim's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Fero, Queretaro,Qro, Mexico, formerly of Tecumseh.

Other prize winners were: trip to LasVegas for two, Mrs. Frank Hahn, Clinton.

Stereo winner, Ann Buckman only gave her address as Detroit and a wrong telephone number so the committee is still trying to find her.

CB radio was won by Tom O'Brian, Ann Arbor.

Ten speed man's bike was won by Judy Goshorn of Clinton and the girl's bike by Richard Peterson, local barber.

Ticket sales reached a new record of 17,000 compared to last year's 14,000. Proceeds will be shared by Clinton's four village churches, United Church of Christ, St. Dominic's Catholic, St. John's Episcopal and United Methodist, and the Fall Festival.

Methodist Women Told of S. Africa

CLINTON — Carol Goodrich of the Tecumseh Methodist Church, who had attended a seminar in South Africa, gave an informative message of that country's needs to members of the United Methodist Women Monday night.

Noting that the United States' interest in S. Africa was largely economic, Mrs. Goodrich, reported that American companies make an estimated 50 percent profit in their S. African enterprises compared to a two to three percent profit in the States.

She explained how the black majority is dominated by the whites in a police state economy there.

Mrs. Roger Waltz gave the devotions reading from "The Suffering" from the book by Marjorie Holmes.

The church Festival rummage sale was a success, but there are still a lot of items to be sold, so the sale will continue Thursday, Friday and Saturday this week.

Dorcas Circle will meet Oct. 19 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. L. Johnson. Faith Circle will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. James Meeks.

Plan to Widen Road

CLINTON — Village Council has received notice of approval for a federal grant of $213,000 for the Tecumseh Road improvements at the Budd Co. and Peerless Gear Division location. They will be ready to accept bidding in about three weeks.

Council adopted the amended contract with Ayres, Lewis, Norris and May for the sewer project.

Petitions for the Macon Road drain improvement were completed and will be turned over to the Lenawee County Drain Commission.

Village Council resolved to adopt the articles of incorporation of Michigan South Central Power Agency.

Council voted to adopt the rules and regulations including amendments to date for the fire department. These will be listed in the minutes and are available at the village office. Also adopted were two changes in the fire department ordinances.

A marker has been received for the Michigan Historical Society and it will be dedicated and installed Oct. 15 to mark the location of the old Clinton Inn, now located at Greenfield Village.

Clinton Calling

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Grigg and family of 5229 Clinton-Macon Rd. are moving to the home of her mother, Mrs. Neola Stephenson, on Allen Lake, Brooklyn, while a new house is being completed for them in that area.

The Grigg house has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Compau of Saline. Mr. Compau is employed at Saline Ford Motor Co., and Mrs. Compau, a 1975 graduate of Clinton High School, is employed at Arbor Drugs, Saline.

Ella Filter and Alice Filter of Water Wheel Estates, along with Linnie Houston of Tecumseh and Lillian Bartle of Flint recently returned from a six-day trip in Northern Michigan.

After spending a weekend at Oscoda, where they enjoyed the paddle wheel boat trip on the AuSable River, they journeyed to Sault Ste. Marie where they took the Algoma Train ride into the Canadian woods.

CLOWNS MAKE FRIENDS — R.L. Moorman, a professional balloonolist, magician, and clown of Kalamazoo, kept the youngsters amused during the parade, Sunday in Clinton. A former drug salesman, Moorman has more fun in his new vocation, he says.

CHS ROYALTY — Dennis Venia and Gigi Roberts were named Clinton's Homecoming King and Queen by vote of fellow students. Presiding at the crowning ceremony at Friday's game, were last year's king Terry Reiser and queen Ruth King.

Adopt Fire Board Ordinance

CLINTON — At a meeting of the Clinton Township Board Monday, the meeting of the Fire Board was reported by Trustee Harry Comstock.

Township Board members voted to rescind the suspension of fireman Jim Schuler and to rescind the promotions of firemen, James McMurray and Carl Fletcher.

Board voted to adopt an ordinance to provide for the operation and maintenance of a joint fire department by the Village of Clinton and the Township of Clinton.

Paragraph Five was voted changed to read: April of each year Clinton Village Council and Clinton Township Board shall appoint, respectively, three members from Village Council and two members from the Township Board to be known as the Fire Board.

Paragraph Six shall read: Fire Board shall oversee the operation of the fire department and is hereby authorized and directed to adopt a code of regulations for the control, management and government of the fire department with the exception of all financial transactions, such code of regulations shall become operative after same is approved by the resolution of the Village Council and Clinton Township Board.

Board voted to accept the recommendation of Fire Chief Harlon Ruhl for Paul Quick to be named captain, and for Carl Fletcher as lieutenant.

Contract for the fire truck, on order, was again reviewed, since Supten Apparatus Mfg. Co. is still seeking to add $417.76 increase to the price, above the contract agreement. Upon attorney's advice, the township will refuse the additional charge.

Charles Wilson, building inspector, reported $15,000 in building permits, which were approved.

Report of the Sept. 15 meeting of the Riverside Cemetery Board was read by trustee Harry Comstock. A special meeting of that board will be held Oct. 18 at 7 p.m. in the townhall.

Nick Holt, trustee for the Clinton Township Library Board, reported on two bids for air conditioning of the library and the township meeting room. Further discussion will be held on this matter.

Board approved a kennel permit for Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith, who plan to operate a kennel on a 10 acre parcel they have purchased just off W. Michigan Ave.

Approval was voted to install posts on the east side of the township building at the north and south ends to permit better maintenance.

Co-chairmen for '78' Festival

CLINTON — Howard and Betty Oesterling have accepted the co-chairmen positions for Fall Festival '78, thus last year's biggest hurdle is already overcome.

The Clinton High School principal has lived in Clinton since 1963.

He's a native of Pennsylvania, attended Adrian College and earned a masters degree at Eastern Michigan University.

He's an avid jogger, recited poetry with a flair, tinkers with clocks and does a bit of deer hunting from a cabin in the Allegheny Mts.

Betty Oesterling, nee Luegge, is from Tecumseh and a graduate of Blissfield High School and Adrian College, majoring in home economics.

She was a co-chairman at this year's Lost Arts exhibit and is interested in needlecrafts and antiques.

There are two daughters, Kim and Tara.

Rain Doesn't Dampen '77' Festival

CLINTON — Even overcast skies and 50 degree cool weather couldn't dampen the spirits of Clinton Fall Festival visitors as the weekend got off to a good start with a colorful Homecoming parade on Friday.

Although there were 108 booths signed up, just a few didn't show up, possibly because of the rain early in the morning.

In just about two and one-half hours Friday night, the committee at the United Church of Christ, prepared and served 375 fish dinners, matching the 1975 record, and insuring a money making event.

Folks ignored the shower which began around 8 p.m. and swarmed around Hartman field for the Homecoming game with Hudson. They were treated to a great game with Clinton holding Hudson scoreless for an 8-0 triumphant win.

St. John's Episcopal Church served beef barbecue lunches Friday and Saturday, and found business a bit slower than previous years.

Saturday's steady drizzle all day kept the crowds down a bit, but most of the booths opened and everyone seemed to be buying food—food—food.

By five p.m. the 500 pretzels UCC women had prepared were all sold and their booth closed up. Jaycees sold a lot of pork sandwiches, and had a good turn out for the street dance at night with Carolyn Dicks, and the Glen Kinneys providing the music.

Throughout the afternoon, Saturday, area musical and dance groups entertained from the portable stage in front of the Middle School, while watchers huddled in the drizzle.

Show climaxed with the Community Chorus presentation of several selections from various musicals, with featured soloists and dancers, directed by Peg Geiger.

Fireworks display gave another hour's entertainment Saturday night.

Sunday dawned with a bright and sunny, but cool day and it seemed as though all those who had stayed home the other two days showed up. By parade time the visitors were several deep lining Tecumseh Rd. and Michigan Ave.

Although there were a few straggling units, Parade Chairman Charlie Steffens and his assistants were able to get the parade started promptly at 2:30 p.m. from the new Tecumseh Rd. route.

Highlighted by the Michigan Fifth Regiment Band, Windsor's Border City Pipe Band, Tecumseh's Shawnee Marchers, Adrian High School band, as well as Clinton's own bands, the one-hour parade was one of the best ever held in Clinton.

Helpful parade announcements by Charles and Charlotte Parker were loud and clear.

By a few minutes after the parade, the Rotarians had sold the last of their 1,200 barbecued chicken dinners and folks just kept on eating...tacos, pressed waffles, stuffed cabbage, ribs, kielbasa, pretzels, snow cones, popcorn, baklava, and the 170 apple pies with ice cream dished up by St. Dominic's women at the Community Center.

Festival committee was all smiles as the grand drawing was held after the parade. Early estimate was that more than 17,000 tickets were sold.

General Chairmen Dave and Barbara VanTuyle and all those who were involved, and that seemed like everyone in Clinton, are deserving of much praise for the fine job.

Fall Festival is a lot of work, but it's a lot of fun too, as it has become a great homecoming event for folks who have moved away from Clinton.

Business, Potluck Is Held

CLINTON — Clinton Baptist Church held its business meeting and potluck dinner Oct. 1.

Bowling will be held the second and fourth Saturdays at 3 p.m. at Clinton Colonial Lanes.

Oct. 29, the last Saturday before Halloween, a hay ride will be held for all. A weiner roast will follow afterwards at the church.

Cut'en Down to Size!

FAIRY TALES — Clinton's Homecoming parade float winner was the Jack-in-the-Beanstalk float of the Sophomore Class. Second was Puss-in-Boots of the Seniors; third was the Three Little Pigs of the Junior Class; and fourth was the Freshmen's Little Train That Could.

Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear father, John I. Jones who passed away one year ago Oct. 5, 1976.

To those who have a father,
Please treasure him with care,
For you'll never know the heartache,
Until he isn't there.

So sadly missed and forever loved by his loving daughter Lee Horton and family. 10-6c

During Mark Twain's days as a newspaperman, he was editor of a small Missouri paper. One day he received a letter from a subscriber, stating that he had found a spider in his paper, and asked if this was an omen of good or bad luck.

Twain replied: "Finding a spider in your paper is neither good nor bad luck. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant was not advertising so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door, and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

Fire Drill Is Reviewed

The fire drill plan at Herrick Memorial Hospital was reviewed by hospital employees last week during a special in-service training session.

The slide presentation was written in cooperation with the hospital by Kathy Bailey R.N. in-service coordinator, Chuck Robison, director of maintenance and safety and Richard Sies, business manager.

The program emphasis is on individual employee responsibility in case of fire. The most significant change in the plan is that the associated director of nursing is the fire brigade leader to give 24-hour leadership in fire control until the fire department reaches the hospital.

The ABC's of fire safety were stressed: A for Sound the alarm; B for Be a Hero and assist patients being threatened by smoke or fire; C for Control the Fire and D for Destroy the Fire.

The Hospital advocates that all employees use the common sense approach in evacuating procedures. An evacuation plan with general guides is under study by the hospital administration.

The hospital features several fire safety devices such as automatic fire doors, 17 ceiling detectors, duct detectors and temperature sensative sprinkler systems.

Fire extinguishers of all three types are stationed in the hospital. Type A is exclusively for wood fires, Type B is exclusively for grease fires and Type ABC is for all fires.

Last spring the hospital employees were able to practice using the extinguishers on test fire situations. Fire drill procedures are reviewed at the hospital at least twice a year, in the spring and fall.

Sisters Hold Meeting

Mariam Nixon, district deputy of district 6 of Tecumseh, was introduced at the meeting of Pythian Sisters Monday night at the KOP Hall.

During the meeting, a report was given by the delegate Mrs. Ray Marrow on Grand Temple held in Jackson Sept. 29, 30 and Oct. 1 at the Sheraton Inn.

The Grand Chief of Michigan, Helen Tooze, would make her official visit on Oct. 17 and all officers are to wear formals.

A dinner preceding the meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Bale.

The date of Nov. 11 was set for the dinner honoring a 50th wedding anniversary.

Gingerbread and whipped cream, tea and coffee were served by Mrs. Howard Evans and Mrs. Lester Baker.

Mrs. Lyle Bailey and Mrs. Charles Driffill also attended Grand Temple.

Squad Loses

Clinton's golf squad fell to Blissfield 165-183 last Wednesday but came back to beat Sand Creek 182-185 on Monday of this week.

Blake Clark led Clinton against Blissfield with a 43.

Brad Eversole fired a 43 against Sand Creek while Tom Eddy had a 44, Bernie Hough a 45 and Clark, 50.

Clinton is 5-8 overall.

September 30 Marked 20 Years for Publisher

James C. Lincoln of Willard, Ohio and Thomas Riordan of Marysville, Michigan purchased The Tecumseh Herald, Lenawee County's oldest newspaper, from Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Belleville and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Belleville, Sept. 30, 1957.

This week marks 20 years here for Jim Lincoln and the Herald staff prepared a surprise congratulatory page and an anniversary cake for him.

Twenty years ago Lincoln was 31, a native of Ohio and a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, Ohio. He was assistant editor of the Willard Times, a member of the Rotary Club, Willard High School Athletic Board, Masonic Lodge and Chapter.

His wife, Dorothy was a teacher — and she continued to teach in Tecumseh Schools. Daughter, Katherine, was two years old then.

Since then, the family has added a son Jim, now 16.

Riordan and Lincoln continued their association at The Herald for 10 years until 1967, when Riordan sold to Lincoln and became managing editor at Jackson Citizen Patriot.

Circulation was less than 2,000 in 1957 — and has grown to 4,600 now. The staff includes 14 adults, several part-time youths and five correspondants.

From a hot type operation in a building on S. Evans the newspaper was moved to the present location at 110 E. Logan in the fall of 1970 and switched to a web offset press.

Commercial job printing was dropped about a year ago as The Herald began to print several area publications.

ECOL Still Short of Funds

Bicentennial Woods, which contains a tract of virgin forest in Lenawee County, led the agenda of the September meeting of the Environmental Council of Lenawee (ECOL) at Adrian College.

The Nature Conservancy, which works to preserve unique natural areas, has provided a loan of $52,000 to purchase the entire 78-acre property.

The Lenawee County Board of Commissioners has voted to acquire the property and maintain it as a park. Federal Bureau of Outdoor Recreation funds are being sought to help repay the Nature Conservancy.

ECOL is obligated to contribute $6500, which is to be raised through private donations. Thus far ECOL has collected $3,000.

Donations, which are tax-exempt, are being sent to "ECOL Bicentennial Woods Fund", care of Jipson-Carter State Bank (Attn: Mr. Lowell Reed), 130 S. Lane, Blissfield, 49228.

The ECOL board was briefed on a proposal by Toledo promoters to locate a Jellystone Park facility in Raisin Township. The park would provide a variety of forms of outdoor recreation and accommodate several thousand people at a time during the active season.

Indications are that the promoters have at least for the time being decided not to pursue the plan further.

The board thanked Dr. John H. Dawson for the use of Adrian College facilities for an additional three years. ECOL has been located at the college since the beginning of its operations in Oct. 1971.

Cars Collide, Injured

Cars driven by Clarence Summers 62, of Windsor, Ont. and Helen Grenoysa, Dearborn Heights, collided Sunday morning at 11:35 a.m.

Grenoysa turned left into a truck stop and didn't see the other vehicle. Accident occurred on US-12 just west of Monagin Hwy.

A passenger, Phyliss Summers, 67, in the Summers vehicle, was treated at Herrick Hospital, then transferred to University Hospital, Ann Arbor. She has apparently sustained hip injuries from the seat belt.

Girls Win

Britton's girls basketball squad came up with a 58-53 victory over Sand Creek Monday in Tri-County League action.

The game was close until the third frame when the Tories pulled ahead by outscoring the Aggies 15-9.

Kim Cottrell led the Tories with 22 points. Genene Bruce had 11.

Britton is 3-1 in the league.

Stickmen Are 3-0 in League

Tecumseh's golfers came up with three wins, including two Huron League victories before non-league foe Bedford stopped them 168-173 on Tuesday of this week.

John Paxton led the Indians against Bedford with a 40. Dave Graf shot a 43, Ron Smith and Kevin Koszka both had 45's.

Tecumseh's golfers beat Monroe Catholic Central last Wednesday 167-180.

Graf shot a 39 as the meet medalist. Koszka fired a 41, John Faulkner 43 and Dave Bauman a 44.

On Friday, the Indians also defeated Jackson Northwest 163-193.

Ron Smith, a freshman, led all Tecumseh golfers with a 39, Koszka had a 40, Keith Bauman and Barry Barnhart each had a 42.

The orange and black was at it again against Airport on Monday of this week beating the Jets 171-190.

Leading the Indians were Koszka and Smith both with 42's. Keith Bauman had a 43 and Graf a 44.

The junior varsity also beat Airport 187-223.

Indians Scalp Monroe

Tecumseh's Indians easily handed Monroe Catholic Central a 26-14 loss in football action last Friday.

The Indians were first on the scoreboard after Greg Barton took a 15-yard pass from Jeff Hans. John Egbert made good on the point-after try.

Monroe came back to score in the first frame but the team was unable to convert the point after. In the second frame, Jeff Anderson went three yards for another Tecumseh score.

It was John Egbert's turn in the third frame running the ball in from the one yard line. Anderson made the final Tecumseh score in the fourth stanza with another three yard run.

Monroe came up with one more touchdown and passed for two points after the score.

Five Huron League teams now post 2-1 records including Tecumseh, Airport, Monroe, Jefferson and New Boston Huron.

The Indians had 213 yards rushing with Anderson leading the way with 102 yards. Monroe had 211 yards adding 60 through the air. Indian quarterback Jeff Hans completed five of seven passes for 101 yards.

Tecumseh hosts Airport this Friday night.

Girls Win 1st League Battle, 52-29

Tecumseh's girls basketball squad won its first Huron League outing on Tuesday of this week beating New Boston Huron handily 52-29.

The Indians fell to Ann Arbor Pioneer on Wednesday of last week 42-29.

The New Boston Huron win was a decisive victory with the orange and black outscoring their opponents 18-9 in the second quarter to lead at the half 25-13.

They scored another lopsided quarter in the final frame taking that one 15-2.

The Indians hit on 36 percent of their shots from the field to 23 for the Chiefs. Tecumseh dumped 12 of 22 from the line compared to five of nine from their opponents.

Grace Burns had the lion's share of Tecumseh's 46 rebounds coming up with 13. Huron had 26 carooms. Sandy MacGeorge led in scoring dumping six field goals and two foul shots for 14 markers. Burns was close behind with 10 points.

The junior varsity also won 42-18.

Tecumseh was even with Pioneer after the first quarter 6-6. But starter Debbie Steadly was lost in the early going with a cut lip and two other starters, Sandy MacGeorge and Gloria Fosbender fouled out in the third period.

The Indians trailed at the half 16-12. Pioneer took advantage of Tecumseh's depleted ranks in the third period with a 12-2 margin.

Grace Burns was the scoring leader for Tecumseh with 15 points. Burns also had 11 rebounds. Coach Diane Nelson is hopeful Steadly will be back for the St. Mary's game next Tuesday. Steadly needed 18 stitches to close her cut lip.

The junior varsity won their match 35-30.

The Indians are now 3-2 overall, 1-0 in the Huron League. They travel to Flat Rock this Thursday hosting St. Mary's next Tuesday.

Harriers Squeak By MCC

Tecumseh's cross country squad scored another close victory in Huron League action beating Monroe Catholic Central 28-29 on Tuesday of this week.

That was the third straight one-point win over a league foe.

The Indians were sixth out of 12 teams at the Hillsdale Invitational Saturday.

Jesse Castorena was first against Monroe with a 16:02 time. Brian Banda was second at 16:17, Doug Bohannon was fourth at 16:40, Scott Betzoldt was ninth at 17:12 and Kent Norris was 12th at 17:39.

The junior varsity also won 24-35.

At the Hillsdale Invitational Saturday, the Indians were sixth out of twelve teams in Division III with 167 points. Plainwell won it with 62 points.

Brian Banda was ninth for the Indians at 16:13. Jesse Castorena was 22nd, Doug Bohannon was 33rd, Jim Harris 49th and Kent Norris 54th.

In the girls division, Division V, Tecumseh finished fifth with 143 points. Ladywood was the winner with 54 points.

Janel Mumme was eighth at 20:28 for the orange and black while Karen Egli was 15th, Leslie Oliver 27th, Monica Mumme 44th and Kathy Craig, 50th.

The Indians are 3-0 in the Huron League tied with Airport for first place. They battle against the Jets this Thursday. The junior varsity also posts a 3-0 record.

Redskin Runners Undefeated

Clinton's cross country squad scored two more impressive wins last Saturday and on Tuesday of this week.

The Redskins won their division of the Hillsdale Invitational Saturday going on to humiliate Blissfield 18-44 on Tuesday.

The victories leave Clinton with a 4-1 overall record, 4-0 in the LCAA League. The squad is in first place with Manchester close behind with a 3-0 mark.

It was all Clinton against the Royals Tuesday. Redskin Mike Risner set the pace taking the top spot with an excellent time of 15:45 for the course. That time set a course and school record.

Wally Pike was second at 16:32, Mark Prichard and Chris Wojtowicz tied for fifth at 16:58. Matt McNeil was seventh, Dave Dagostino and Devin Schindler tied for ninth and Gary Houghton finished 11th.

Clinton won its division at the Hillsdale Invitational last Saturday against 10 other teams. The Redskins came up with 60 points, eight better than Southfield Christian, the no. 2 rated Class D team in the state.

It was the third trophy of the season for the Skins and the team also captured 11 medals.

Mike Risner was third at 16:37, Matt Peters fourth at 16:38, Wally Pike ninth at 17:00, Mark Prichard 15th and Chris Wojtowicz 29th.

The Skins will participate in the Dundee Invitational this Saturday hosting Sand Creek next Tuesday.

Clinton Beats Hudson

There was plenty to celebrate in Clinton Friday night since the Redskins scored their first victory over Hudson in 12 years. The Skins defeated the Tigers 8-0 during Clinton's homecoming celebration.

Clinton star Casey Thilo came up with the only touchdown of the game when he went 66 yards for the score in the middle of the first quarter. The extra-points attempt failed.

The Redskins picked up two more points in the third frame when a Hudson snap went awry and landed out of the end zone.

Thilo was the leading rusher picking up 102 yards on 16 carries and intercepting a Tiger pass and going 25 yards.

Bill Gerard, Eric Pratt and Tray Richardson had 12, 10 and eight tackles each to lead the Redskin defense.

Clinton had 194 yards rushing to 118 for the Tigers. Hudson came up with 47 yards through the air to 10 for the Skins. The Redskins had 11 first downs to Hudson's 10.

The victory upped Clinton's record to 2-1 in the LCAA 3-1 overall. This Friday they travel to Blissfield which is tied with Addison both posting perfect 2-0 league marks.

Score By Quarters

Clinton	6	0	2	0	—8

CASEY THILO, no. 22, led the way for Clinton in the Redskins' victory over Hudson Friday. In the first quarter, Thilo ran 66 yards for the only touchdown of the game.

Britton Gridders Defeated

Britton's gridders had their hands full Friday night losing to Ida 34-0 in non-conference play.

The Bluestreaks jumped out in front in the first quarter scoring 13 points adding 14 more in the second period and seven in the third frame.

Britton's only threat came in the first stanza when the Tories fought to the 12 yard-line only to be stopped. Jeff Osterhout and Dave Bruce had 13 and 12 tackles each to lead the Tory defense.

Britton could come up with just 77 yards rushing, adding a meager five yards through the air. Ida piled up 230 yards on the ground and 56 through the air. Each team lost four fumbles. Ida had 12 first downs to five for the Tories.

Britton was hurt by penalties losing 80 yards to 45 for Ida.

The Tories' overall record drops to 1-3. They host Deerfield this Friday.

Score By Quarters

CHS Girls Are 5-0

Clinton's girls basketball team scored victories over Onsted 55-36 last week and over Hudson 58-41 on Monday of this week.

The Redskins held a narrow 23-22 lead over Hudson at the half but put it away in the third frame outscoring their opponents 18-8.

Sue Richter led the Skins with 24 points and six assists while JoAnn Grossman came up with 12 points and Cathy Gibson 10 markers.

Richter also led in scoring against Onsted coming up with 21 points.

The Redskins are undefeated in the LCAA posting a 3-0 mark, 5-0 overall.

They travel to Blissfield this Thursday hosting Morenci next Tuesday.

Holloway Happenings

By Helen Smoll

HOLLOWAY — The Presbyterian Women's Association met at the home of Mrs. Elwyn Green. The co-hostess was Mrs. Merle Kerr.

Mrs. Green opened the meeting, with a poem "Gardens." An offering was taken for medical missions. Bible study, the first of the series, will be at the home of Mrs. Anabel Cadmus.

October will be a busy month for the association. A 6:30 p.m. cooperative supper and auction will be the next meeting. The members will prepare and serve a dinner for the Professional and Business Women's Club of Tecumseh. The Presbyterian Association are selling knives and more will be ordered.

The Presbytery meeting will be on Oct. 20, at the Presbyterian Church of Fostoria, Ohio.

Mrs. Wilson Sawyer gave the least coin service and was also in charge of the program, the scripture she read was taken from Matt. 24. She read a poem, "The Guiding Hand."

Mrs. Roy Brosamer entertained the Main St. Extension Club on Tuesday evening. The members selected hostesses and programs for the coming year.

Officers elected are chairman, Mrs. Robert Kerr; vice chairman, Mrs. Carl Gritzmaker; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Roy Brosamer; project leader, Mrs. Ralph McGuire and sunshine, Mrs. Merle Kerr.

The Friendly Neighbors Farm Bureau enjoyed a cooperative supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weiss. The vice president, Gladys Warner opened the meeting with all saluting the flag. Visitors were Mrs. Walter Weiss, Emma Young and Ilene Dickerson. Mrs. Robert Engel, Mrs. Richard Weiss and Lawrence Smoll, all thanked the members for birthday cards received in August and September.

Mr. Smoll reported on "Energy." Earlier this year President Carter asked Congress for a comprehensive energy program. The House passed Carter's bill, H.R. 8444 by a 244-177 vote. The energy needs of farmers are critical to the national economy. Farm Bureau believes that adequate supplies can be given to all users through the market system as the best allocator to stimulate increased domestic exploration of oil and gas.

Mrs. John Young led the discussion topic on, "Everybody's Doing It, Should We?" This referred to supporting a political candidate. Farmers have a reputation for being friendly. If there are enemies, perhaps this is the time for a friend-enemy approach to the agricultural industry, as this is the last approach to free enterprise system in the country. A question and answered followed with no conclusion drawn.

The Around the Block Extension Club was at the home of Mrs. Glen Mumaw. Mrs. Joe Glenn as co-hostess. The new chairman, Mrs. Glenn opened the meeting with the woman's creed in unison.

New officers are: chairman, Mrs. Joe Glenn; vice chairman, Mrs. Glen Mumaw; secretary-treasurer, Sarah Lowery; project leaders, Mrs. Elwyn Green and Mrs. Kenneth Mitchell; alternate leaders, Mrs. Jack Silberhorn; and Mrs. Jay Fisher; safety, Mrs. Jack Silberhorn; health, Mrs. Sam Fagan; cultural arts, Carol German; citizenship, Anabel Cadmus; sunshine, Mrs. Louis Machan; international, Mrs. Cadmus.

VFW Invites Local Youths

Hall-Slater Post 4187 of Tecumseh and its Auxiliary will sponsor the local Voice of Democracy program in the Tecumseh, Clinton and Britton-Macon High Schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mueller are local program chairmen.

The local awards for each school are first, $100 savings bond and plaque, second, $50 savings bond and third, $25 savings bond.

Students write and then record a three to five minute broadcast script expressing their opinions on the 1977-78 theme, "My Responsibility to America."

The first place winning tape from each school will be forwarded for district competition.

Each state winner is provided with a five day all expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. plus the opportunity to compete for national scholarships totaling $22,500. First place is $10,000 second, $5,000, third, $3,500, fourth, $2,500 and fifth, $1,500.

This is the 31st annual Voice of Democracy national scholarship program in cooperation with state and national broadcasters to give public, parochial and private school students in the United States an opportunity to give their opinions on a patriotic theme via the broadcast media

by Marda Gene Duncan

Once in a while events force me to write an article about tree roads, the tree top highways which squirrels use to dash from one place to another. Usually, of course, it happens just after the leaves have fallen. Sometimes limbs have grown just enough so that a new highway is open whereas other times a branch has fallen thus effectively destroying an old, well used route. It is a new world once the leaves are down.

But the leaves are not down yet and I find myself talking about tree roads because of the red squirrels. Yes, you did read correctly. Red squirrels is plural. One is too many and I know we have two, possibly three around.

But for all their miserable and destructive habits, they are cute and sometimes fun to watch. This brings us to the tree roads.

Again this year the walnut trees have produced a bumper crop. The tree in the front is a main source of action. In fact it is the starting point.

Branches on the west side of the tree reach the mulberry tree, which grows in back of the end-of-the-street barrier, and these limbs in turn stretch west far enough to connect with a mulberry tree on the creek bank. And nicely for us, the traffic on these busy thoroughfares is easy to see even though the leaves have not fallen.

Now that the walnuts are big and ready for harvesting this tree route is a superhighway, carrying a great deal of fast traffic.

It is absolutely fascinating to watch these tiny squirrels tearing along at top speed. As they skip back to the walnut tree, I can understand their swift nimble footedness, but as they carry away a large awkward nut, it is amazing how little the load bothers them. And often that messy old walnut which the squirrel has in his mouth looks larger than his head.

At this time of year walnuts are indeed messy. The coarse green husk is beginning to turn a nasty black or dark brown and is full of an almost indelible dye or stain.

Almost an indelible are hardly compatible words, Marda — and yet as I remember how difficult it was to get the stain off my hands that long ago fall when we three Duncans tried to harvest our own walnuts, they really do go together.

Eventually our hands were soaked or scrubbed reasonably clean but believe me, it was not easy. We wore gloves but the brown oozed right through. The squirrels have the same problem but it does not seem to bother them. One of the true sights of fall is squirrels with walnut stained faces and hand-paws.

Seldom do the red squirrels shuck the walnuts before taking them away. They simply plant those sharp teeth down into the dirty soft husk and away scamper along the tree roads. Their faces become unbelievably dirty.

The larger fox squirrels occasionally sit in the walnut tree and holding the nuts in their two paws, use their strong jaws to rip off the outer husk.

If the squirrel is high enough in the tree to be out of our view it seems strange to suddenly see gobs of nasty green-black walnut husks come falling down 'out of the sky'.

Once the little reds reach the mulberry tree on the creek bank, their highways branch and they can either go north into our maples or cut south and then west along Diepenhorst's side. To watch these tree roads we must wait until the leaves fall.

Fire Detectors Vital

"Small home appliances" commonly include "essentials" like toasters and irons.

The same term applies to even more essential appliances — household fire detectors and fire extinguishers.

Coupled with a good home fire escape plan, a device that will give early warning of fire can literally mean the difference between a safe escape and no escape at all.

Fire Prevention Week observed Oct. 9-15 is an excellent time to review family fire prevention strategy.

Using a portable extinguisher to put out a small fire before it has a chance to spread will help minimize damage as well as injury.

Smoke and heat detectors are designed to emit a loud alarm to signal, respectively, a build-up of smoke and a rapid rise in temperature. A combination of both smoke and heat detectors makes the best home alarm system.

The type, number and location of detectors needed depends upon the size and arrangement of each specific house or apartment.

For about the cost of an electrical kitchen gadget that may be used only once in a while, a fire detector can protect a household 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

A fire extinguisher, the other important fire-related appliance that belongs in every home, is basically a storage container for water or chemicals that is designed to put out a small fire.

Most practical for household use is a multi-purpose dry chemical extinguisher labeled Class A-B-C. This means the extinguisher can be used on localized fires involving such materials as wood, paper, cloth, flammable liquids, grease, and electricity.

Just as advance escape planning and installation of a fire detection system go hand-in-hand, so do having a prtable fire extinguisher and knowing — in advance of an emergency — exactly how to use it. Every extinguisher comes with these instructions right on its case.

In choosing fire detectors and extinguishers, select only those which show the label of a major independent testing laboratory. It's also important to install and maintain these appliances according to manufacturers' directions in order to make sure they are in perfect working condition at all times.

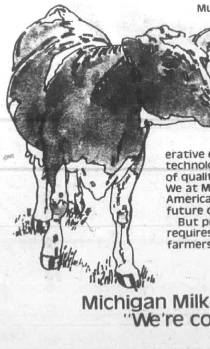
America's future.
Dairy Farmers want to be a part of it...
and we hope the feeling is mutual.



Mutual effort is what makes Michigan Milk Producers Association work. For the dairy farmers who make up MMPA. For you, the consumer.

For sixty-one years, we have been a cooperative owned and controlled by the dairy farmers we serve. And we're still working together to keep our farms and marketing system productive and efficient.

Though there are now only about one-third as many Michigan dairy farms as there were twenty years ago, our cooperative efforts and advancements in dairy farming technology continue to assure you an adequate supply of quality milk, delivered where and when it's needed. We at MMPA believe the dairy farmer is important to America's future, just as you are important to the future of the dairy farmer.

But preserving the American dairy farming industry requires a mutual, united effort. That's why dairy farmers of MMPA work to stay together.

Library Open House on Oct. 23rd To Show Preservation of Materials

Tecumseh Public Library will host an open house Sunday, Oct. 23 from 2-5 p.m. to show the general public and the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation (TCFF) how the $5,300 grant from the TCFF was used to perserve the library's historical collections.

"Picture Tecumseh: A Way to Study Local History through Pictorial Materials" is the show's theme. Exhibits of old photographs will feature such categories as business, architecture, education, women's sports and others.

"The major benefit of the grant was that the library was able to bring its storage facilities up to archival quality, such as putting the pictures and rare old books and pamphlets in acid free boxes and folders so items would survive as long as possible," said Deborah Harris, Tecumseh Public Library director.

Patricia Eby, library employee spent hours organizing the pictures by subject and identifying each person to compile an index.

A collection of 400 slides, taken by the late Joe Rice of Tecumseh, will be shown continuously on a carousel projector. The slides are a record of the city's architectural growth from the 1950's to the 1960's and feature civic events such as ground breakings, celebrations, etc. Other slides were donated by Wilfred Waldron and Donald Berkley.

A blueprint case was purchased to house the blueprints from Marr and Marr architects of Detroit who designed 63 buildings that were projects of the Herrick Foundation.

Also on display is a copy of blueprints of the "Anderson House," 402 W. Chicago Blvd., from the Historic American Buildings Survey collection in the Library Congress.

"Blueprints serve as the architectural record of the community, a record of the history of the building," aid Ms. Harris, regarding their significance.

As a result of the TCFF grant, volumes of the "Tecumseh Herald" from 1899 to 1976 were microfilmed along with some editions of the "Tecumseh News."

The use of the microfilms will be demonstrated on the microfilm reader purchased jointly by the Library and the Tecumseh Area Historical Society.

A special video tape production, produced by Donna Roe and Deborah Harris, will be shown during the open house to explain what will be seen in the display and to promote the idea of using pictorial aids to learn about local history.

Members of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation, city and school board officials and the general public are invited to the open house.

Big Boy To Open

The owners of Tecumseh's new Elias Bros., Gene Tuckey, Joe Mannino, and Earl Baldwin, are looking forward to opening their new restaurant in the middle of next week.

The restaurant will seat 140 and will offer traditional Big Boy full course dinners.

Just a few finishing touches are needed for the Big Boy to open.

Tuckey will manage the restaurant. He previously opened the Saline Big Boy and was in a partnership with one in Ypsilanti. His only interest now lies with Tecumseh's restaurant.

Have Chance To Question 4 Candidates

If you had the opportunity to do so, what questions would you like to ask the Tecumseh City Council candidates competing for the three vacancies in the upcoming Nov. 8 election.

The Tecumseh Herald would like to provide readers with an opportunity to question the candidates about things that concern them the most. Deadline is Tuesday, Oct. 18 at noon.

Simply call in your questions to the Herald office at 423-2174. Or mail your questions to The Tecumseh Herald P.O. Box 218 Tecumseh, Michigan 49286. Or drop them off at the Herald office at 110 E. Logan St. during business hours.

The Herald will compile the questions and ask them during interviews with candidates during the next two weeks.

Accidents Are Minor

Police investigated eight accidents this week, including one auto-bicycle accident and one car accident involving three parked cars.

Saturday, Joseph W. Kukral, 19, of 207½ Pottawatamie, was cited for going the wrong way on a one way street after he pulled into an alley on N. Evans. A bicyclist, Sandra Adams, 14, of 221 Herrick Park, struck the auto's left front. The cyclist was not injured.

Last Thursday, Luis Lee, 23, of 216 W. Kilbuck, was involved in an unusual accident after he first struck a parked car in a private doctor's drive on Division St. Parked auto belonged to Mary Grozkiewica of Ypsilanti.

Lee then reportedly went to the police station to report the incident. He returned to the parking lot and hit two other cars while trying to park. Those autos belonged to Elizabeth Wing of Oneida St. and Wayne Blanchard, Blanchard St.

A resume of other accidents includes:

Oct. 5 - Ann M. Hella, 16, of 1002 Sunset, was cited for failing to have her vehicle under control after she pulled from a stop on W. Logan and hit a parked auto belonging to Pat Heimbach, Wisner Rd.

Oct. 6 - Terry W. Godzina, 28, of 1000 Park stopped on Occidental at Russell when Janel M. Mumme, 17, of 6951 Coachlite turned from eastbound Russell onto N. Occidental and struck the Godzina auto.

Oct. 7 - Mildred I. Jordon, 53, of Clinton hit a parked auto

Band in Top Performance

by Kathy Brown

Oct. 4 at the Lenawee County Band Festival at Indian football field, Tecumseh residents had the opportunity to learn what it is to be a band booster as they applauded Tecumseh's Shawnee Marchers and compared their style with the 10 other county high school bands.

The LCBF in its 31st year is not a competition but a festival as the name tells. It originated in Tecumseh with proceeds for county bands and scholarships.

As far as this reporter was concerned, there was no comparison. Tecumseh's Shawnee Marchers were disciplined. Once they started performing on the field, there was no question about their seriousness, hours of dedication and proud showmanship.

One couldn't help but feel that when Tecumseh came on the field, the audience was keenly aware that this band was different.

The corps style is what separates Tecumseh from the others. Most of the bands in Lenawee County adhere to the high stepping style popularized by college bands who must be concerned about being heard by every member in the stadium.

The Shawnee Marchers have used a "glide" step for the past three years. Still they were not corps band until this year, insisted director Jimmie Rice.

The corps style is concerned with a visual presentation on the field that is directly related to the music.

"It is to make the musical part alive and say what its

Fund Drive Starts for $84,000 Goal

Annual Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation drive will start Monday, Oct. 17th, with the theme - "You can help YOUR neighbor and YOUR community through the Tecumseh Community Fund."

Goal is $84,000, an increase of $4,050 over last year but slightly less than raised a year ago when Tecumseh had its most successful campaign ever.

The four-week drive is being headed by Harry Hans, chairman, and his assistant, Roger Proctor.

Approximately 20 drive officials met Friday morning at the Tecumseh Products to complete plans and to obtain other relative information. The Tecumseh Fund assists 34 Michigan United Way agencies, 13 county agencies, three Tecumseh agencies and contributes to local needed, community projects.

At Friday's session, Lilly Robinson, chairman of the residential division and wife of Robert Robinson, Foundation president, reported that 930 Fund letters already had been mailed here. Since the county campaign does not solicit in subdivisions within the Tecumseh School District, she was asked to expand her solicitation outside the community.

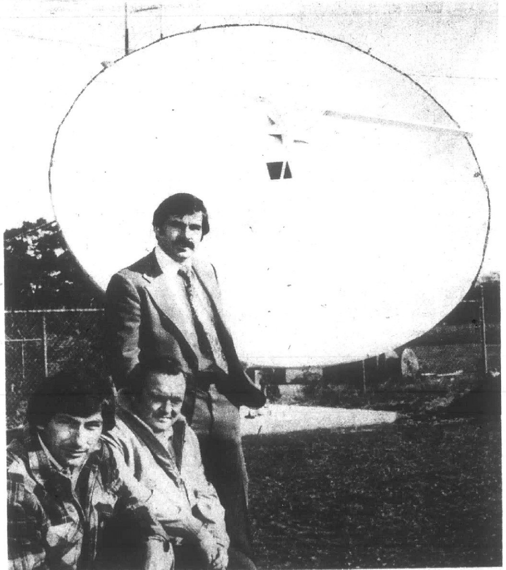
Rudy Clum, industrial drive chairman, also reported his division's campaign underway.

Division goals this year are:

	1977-78	1976-77
Industrial	$49,000	$45,000
Special Gifts	14,360	10,000
Commercial	10,800	12,500
Schools	4,000	3,350
Residential	2,140	4,500
Professional	2,100	3,000
Public Employees	1,600	1,600

Other division chairmen include Ken McElroy, special gifts; Tim Neill, commercial; Gene Cooley schools; Dr. Robert Murray, professional, and Paul Preston, William Groover and Lewis Potts, public employees.

The Foundation will continue to recognize individuals and businesses contributing $100 or more by sending them certificates of recognition. Names of Century Club members, however, will not be published in The Herald.



ONE OF THE FIRST — Chuck Keller, Don Williams, and Mike Ritter (front to back) stand in front of Liberty's new "dish" antenna that allows cable TV subscribers to view programs bounced off a satellite above the equator. The dish, 16 feet in diameter, is only the second of its size known to the three and is located at the company's antenna site between Tecumseh and Adrian.

Pay TV Coming to Tecumseh

With the help of a five meter "dish," one of the first of its kind in the U.S., Tecumseh and Adrian residents will soon be able to view pay television.

The system is called Home Box Office (HBO) and allows Liberty Cable TV subscribers to view movies, sports and special programmings that are bounced off the RCA Satcom II satellite. The satellite lies 22,000 miles above the equator.

The dish's potential is almost unlimited, but programming is subject to FCC regulations. Liberty already plans to expand the use of the dish after January 1. At that time, viewers will be able to view channel 17 out of Atlanta, a late night station.

Liberty will begin offering HBO to its 4,800 cable subscribers in Adrian and Tecumseh on November 11, starting a free 7-day preview for subscribers at that time. Preview programming will begin in the early afternoon on weekends and in the early evenings on weekdays.

During the last three months, HBO has offered an average of a dozen new films each month. Films rescheduled for viewer convenience brings the total number of films to nearly 30 each month.

HBO is the nation's largest pay TV entertainment service and is now seen in more than three quarters of a million American homes in 46 states. HBO, a subsidiary of Time, Inc., presents its movies, night club performances, and sports events uncut and without commercial interruptions. No X-rated movies are carried.

GO TO ALBION — These six winners of the Tecumseh-Clinton Punt, Pass & Kick Contest will compete again this Saturday at Albion. There were 62 youngsters bouncing the ball around here Sunday afternoon on a wet THS athletic field. Jaycees from Tecumseh and Clinton supervised the contests. Winners are from the left, Mike Francisco, 13-year olds; Chad Anschuetz, nine-year olds; Wayne Starkey, 12-year olds; Jason Governo, eight-year olds; Mike Walper, 11-year olds; and Craig Rudolph, 10-year olds. Presenting trophies is John Mamayek of George Underwood Fordland, sponsor of the contests here for many years. (PHOTO BY JIM LINCOLN)

Make a Make A Date with EDITH

During National Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 9-15, Tecumseh Fire Chief Wallace MacGeorge reminds families to make a date with EDITH- - make a family fire escape plan and have Exit Drills In The Home.

EDITH can save the family in an emergency if everyone cooperates.

Have each person in the household take part in Operation EDITH. To prepare, sit down with the entire family and plan step-by-step what to do to get everyone out of the house or apartment quickly and safely during a fire.

Then hold a rehearsal using the pre-planned household alert signal, alternate exits from bedrooms and assembly point outdoors, well away from the "burning" building.

EDITH can literally mean the difference between life and death during a fire emergency.

belonging to Robert E. Wojtowicz of Clinton. Accident occurred behind Ken-Rays.

Oct. 10 - Jim L. Garcie, 18, of Adrian sought his own treatment after a one-car accident. He told police he was southbound on S. Evans, swerved to miss an oncoming auto, and hit a power pole.

Emil D. Kowalski, 49, of Toledo could not stop in time to avoid an accident Monday. She told police Donald A. Wright, 27, of 8344 Welch Rd., stopped in front of her at a light on W. Chicago and she could not stop.

Oct. 11 - Police cited Elizabeth D. Cox, 33, of 1503 W. Monroe, for improper left turn after she turned from Ottawa from the right lane. Cox collided with Helen J. Schmidt, 50, of 1605 Dinius, who was northbound on Ottawa in the left lane.

Talking It Out

ROGER PROCTOR

"Should I ever dip into my Capital?"

In her book, "Life is for Living," Theresa Morse maintains that a widow's capital is not always an untouchable commodity, nor need it be sacred. It is intended to be used sensibly for the sake of security but also to help make a better, happier life for yourself.

Ms. Morse points out that, if for all the years before you were widowed, you and your husband managed your finances without your children's advice, there's little reason to begin now.

Feel free to do what is important to YOU, without endangering the bulk of your capital. A trip or a special gift to yourself or others may seem extravagant to your children, but extremely meaningful to YOU.

Project the use of your capital wisely, reserving funds for emergencies, but, as Ms. Morse indicates, your welfare and happiness comes first and "your life is for living."

Advice regarding major finances can be sought from a banker or accountant, both professionals on whose skill you may rely.

Marchers Last, But Better

Tecumseh's Shawnee Marchers finished "dead last" in band corps competition Oct. 8 held at Caro.

Neither the kids nor director Jimmie Rice are taking it on the chin, so take heart all you Tecumseh band boosters. Although the band received a score of 30.75, it was the highest score it ever received in competition. Lowest score was 18 this summer.

"We've got nowhere to go but up," said Jimmie Rice, band director.

"I figure we're making progress," he commented. "It is just a matter of time before we can compete with these other bands" who are "pretty stiff competition," Rice added. This is the band's first year in competition.

"People call me every day" to compliment the band on the progress it has made, told Rice.

The four schools that Tecumseh Shawnee Marchers competed against in flight A last Saturday and their respective scores were Marlette High School, 55.55; Clarkston, 55.25; Flint Power, 43.1. Highest score for the day was in the open flight, 69.9 out of 103 possible points. Flights are determined by school size.

The Shawnee Marchers will travel to Bridgeport Oct. 22, the day after Tecumseh's Homecoming to compete again. Just as the Indian Fans await victory, the bands boosters will anxiously await the band's performance score.

5 Complaint Reports

Police investigated only five complaint reports this week. Three involved malicious destruction to autos and two were alcohol related arrests.

Last Thursday, Karl E. Robert, 49, of 502 W. Chicago was arrested for being intoxicated. A patrol car reportedly pulled into the Tecumseh Plywood parking lot and stopped when Robert turned his bright lights on the police. The police moved twice, and Robert's lights followed. Upon investigation, police found the suspect to be intoxicated.

Friday, Samuel B. Aeschliman, 25, of Manitou Beach, was also ticketed on an alcohol related arrest. Police initiately stopped him for having no brake lights or license plate light on Chicago, near Van Buren St.

Joe Oliver, 808 S. Union, found his van broken into Friday. Gaining entry by breaking the vent, vandals escaped with the auto's tape player valued at $160. Van was parked at the Oliver residence.

On Saturday, Jesse Higgins, 518 E. Chicago, reported malicious destruction involving his auto at 2:35 a.m. Higgins found his car door kicked in and a mirror damaged, probably by a foot. Auto was parked in the alley by Wrong Way Pub.

Carl H. Bower of Britton found his car windshield smashed early Wednesday morning. Someone apparently broke the window with a club while it was parked by the fire barn.

Aircraft Maintenance

Al Meyers Airport announced the arrival of a new business on the field. National Aircraft Maintenance will be the fixed base operator located in the North Hangar area formerly occupied by Tecumseh Aviation.

Wesley and Dan Plattner are the men in charge of the new business. Both are licensed airframe and power mechanics as well as being pilots. They had considerable experience at Howell, Willow Run and National Airports.

Wayne Plattner is their father, the well-known, old-time pilot, fixed base operator and one time manufacturer of the Evangel airplane.

The Plattners will move onto the premises during October and are preparing the site for approval by the Federal Aviation Administration as a fixed base operation for all types of airplanes.

They welcome repair work and annuals and will be in charge of gasoline sales.

Pard Diver of Tecumseh Aviation will continue to operate his own business in sheet metal work at the rear of the North Hangar.

The Al Meyers Airport will continue to function as before.

BIG MACS ARE WHOPPERS — Marge Boynton, 4171 Allen Rd. and her neighbor, Adam Sturtevant, 15, show off a 146 lbs. pumpkin in Mrs. Boynton's garden, grown from a Burpee Big Mac seed planted late by Adam. It measured 62" around several weeks ago. The smaller pumpkin in the background weighed over 92 lbs. Mrs. Boynton said they are perfect for any prince looking for a coach for his Cinderella. Speaks on Research and Aviation Field

Dr. Nydia Meyers of Tecumseh was in demand as a speaker on her research and in the field of aviation.

On Sept. 14-17, she spoke on "Fatty Acids and Membrane Function of Cells" at the Fourth International Conference on Red Cell Metabolism and Function at the Towsley Center for Continuing Medical Education, Ann Arbor.

She will speak Nov. 7 on "Sickle Cell Anemia: Everyone's Problem" at a forthcoming meeting of the Women's Research Club at the University of Michigan, the West Conference Room, Rackham, 8 p.m.

She coauthored a chapter entitled "The Use of Pharmacological Doses of Zinc in the Treatment of Sickle Cell Anemia" in the recently published book "Progress in Clinical and Biological Research, Vol. 4." Focusing on zinc metabolism.

On Sept. 6 Dr. Meyers spoke at the retirement dinner honoring Helen Powers, member of the Michigan Aeronautics Commission and editor of "Michigan Aviation" news. Ms. Powers spent 28½ years with the Department of State Highways and Transportation, aeronautics commission.

CROP Walk Is Successful

Despite rain and cold weather, 116 people walked or biked to raise money for CROP last Oct. 9. Several Tecumseh residents participated Approximately $3053 was pledged.

The walk which started at the United Methodist Church in Adrian included a one, five, and 10 mile walking routes and a 20 mile bike route.

Erica and Karen Miller, ages two and four of Tecumseh, were the youngest walkers. Karl Koenig of Adrian was the oldest walker. Koenig also had the most sponsors 146, and raised the most money, $571.

Participants should turn their money in to Joan Miller, 906 N. Union St or to the United Methodist Church in Adrian.

Horses Greet Club Members

The Wit and Wisdom Club was greeted by miniature horses gathered near the front yard of the home of the hosts, James and Mary Lou Feight at the Oct. 3 meeting.

After a short business meeting and refreshments of cider and donuts served by Mrs. Feight the club viewed movies of the miniature horses.

Mary Lou told about breeding and racing these horses, a hobby the Feight family has participated in for 14 years.

The miniature horses are no taller than 51 inches and are raced with sulkeys. The Feights have had their own race track for 10 years and have sponsored races there until this year.

This year they traveled with their "barn on wheels" to various race tracks throughout Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and Canada. They have won several of the coveted horse racing "blankets"

Club Discusses Care of Plants

The Tecumseh Town and Country Garden Club held its meeting this month on Oct. 5, at the Tecumseh Greenhouse where a complete tour was given.

Afterwards pest control was discussed.

Members returned to the home of one of the evening's hostesses, Linda Glenn, for a brief meeting.

Bulbs were exchanged and dessert was served by Dinah Wakeford, another hostess. Carol Reynard created the monthly flower arrangement with the theme being Calendula's.

Lots of progress at Hidden Lake Gardens this month: Bulb planting, starts and seeds have all been added.

After a visit to the home of Betty Blake for advice on the rock garden, members managed to come away with more plants.

Committee chairman Gretchen Lovett introduced a new name identification tag for use in the Hiddlen Lake Rock garden.

Next month will be a workshop on spice wreaths and seed flowers held at United Savings Bank. Hostesses will be Linda Herman and Toni Schneider.

Becker Honored for Contributions

Juanita Becker, remedial reading teacher at Tecumseh Junior High School, was precented with a certificate from the International Reading Association Oct. 6 at Adrian College for her outstanding contributions to the Lenawee Reading Council activities.

Mrs. Becker conducted a workshop session entitled "Reading for Content in the Middle School."

She has presented workshops at various county schools, taught at Siena Heights College and helped other teachers set up similiar programs with her classroom as a lab.

Juanita Becker has a reading lab at Tecumseh Junior High School where she works with students whose reading ability is at least one year below grade level. Each student is taught on a one-to-one basis.

Indian Golfers Triumph

After a slow start against non-league foes, Tecumseh's golf squad has turned the season around.

The Indians picked up two league victories defeating Grosse Ile 168-170 last Wednesday and Gibralter Carlson 160-170 on Monday of this week.

Tecumseh took first place out of 12 teams in the Jefferson Invitational last Saturday with a 318 team score. Grosse Ile was second at 324.

This Saturday, the team travels to Green Oaks Golf Club at Willow Run for regional competition.

John Paxton shot a 40 against Grosse Ille, Dave Graf had a 42 and Ron Smith and Barry Barnhart each had 43's.

The junior varsity also beat Grosse Ile 176-195 with John Faulkner and Dave Erb leading the way with 42's.

Faulkner was tops in scoring against Carlson carding a 39. Keith Bauman and Kevin Koszka and Bauman each had 79's while John Paxton had an 85.

The Indians are undefeated in the Huron League with a 5-0 record, 7-5 overall. New Boston Huron is second at 4-1.

Trout Derby Saturday

The Fifth Annual Trout Fishing Derby will be held on Saturday, October 15 at the Walter Bohn Memorial Pool, South McKenzie Street, Adrian.

This year's derby will be divided into two fishing sessions: 9:00 a.m. - 12 noon, and 1:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Tickets are now on sale for either or both sessions at the Adrian Community Services Department, City Hall from 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. weekdays through Friday, Oct. 14.

Some 400 Rainbow Trout, each 11 to 13 inches in length promise to provide a real challenge for fishermen of all ages.

REDSKIN RUNNERS — Clinton's cross country squad posts a 4-0 league record and are ranked 15th in the state. CHS Harriers Are 4-0

Clinton scored two more victories over non-league foes and also won the 11-team Dundee Invitational in cross country action.

The Redskins defeated Ida 23-32 and Sand Creek 15-48 on Tuesday of this week.

Mike Risner was first in the double dual meet at 16:10. Matt Peters was second at 16:24, Mark Prichard and Wally Pike tied for fifth at 17:03 and Chris Wojtowicz was ninth at 17:36.

Clinton won the Dundee Invitational last Saturday with 76 points. LCAA rival Manchester was second with 87 points while Addison was third with 89 markers.

Risner was fourth at 16:59 while Matt Peters was sixth at 17:13. Wally Pike was 15th, Prichard 23rd, Wojtowicz 28th, Devin Schindler 34th and Matt McNeil 41st.

The Redskins are now rated 15th in the weekly state Class C cross country ratings. They have an unblemished 4-0 league record, tied with Manchester. Overall the team is 6-1.

The Skins go to the Hudson Invitational this Saturday. Next Tuesday the team travels to Manchester for a key LCAA matchup.

Tories Routed, 20-0

After a scoreless first half, the Deerfield football team burst into action against Britton Friday night, defeating them 20-0.

The loss was the fourth for Britton in five games, but coach Randy Salisbury had to be proud of his defensive team in the first half. They held Deerfield to just 25 yards rushing.

Salisbury could not be as proud of his offensive squad, which had two touchdowns called back because of penalties in the first half. In total, Britton had 12 penalties called against them for 74 yards.

Britton controlled the ball the first quarter, holding Deerfield to minus four yards rushing. Britton's offensive squad took the ball down to the Deerfield four, but a penalty and stiff Deerfield defense kept the Britton squad from scoring.

After the half, Britton never got inside the Deerfield 40. Deerfield straightened their play out, putting seven points on the scoreboard in the third quarter and 13 in the fourth.

Tecumseh, MCC Tied for 1st Place

The Indian football squad shares the league's first place honors after they out played Airport Friday 27-0.

Their record now stands at 3-1, sharing first place honors with Monroe C.C. and Jefferson.

Tecumseh controlled the game Friday from the time of the opening kick-off, where they took just 10 plays and four minutes to cross the goal line. Jeff Anderson scored the first of his two touchdowns with an eight yard run to cap the 58 yard drive.

The second Indian's scoring opportunity came early in the second quarter when Jeff Hans intercepted a pass. Jeff Robideau scrambled in from the one yard marker.

Tecumseh then added 13 more points in the third frame when Anderson scored his second touchdown on a 13 yard run. Hans again set up a score, the Indian's fourth, when he blocked a punt. Hans took the ball in himself on the first play from the three yard line.

Egbert connected on his first three point attempts after.

Anderson led the Indians offensively with 55 yards rushing on 12 carries. Randy Halvin led the defense with 15 tackles.

Tecumseh travels to Grosse Ile Friday, a team that now posts a 0-4 record. The Indians homecoming is scheduled for the 21st against Gibralter Carlson.

Thin Clads Lose Upset Bid

Tecumseh's cross country squad couldn't pull an upset over state ranked Airport last Thursday losing the match 22-34.

The Jets are ranked fifth in the state.

However, Brian Banda finished first with a time of 15:47.8. Jesse Castorena was fifth at 16:16, Doug Bohannon eighth at 16:43, Scott Betzoldt ninth at 17:09 and Kirk Oliver 11th at 17:36.

Tecumseh's girls cross country team defeated Airport 25-30 with Janel Mumme in first place with a 20:23 clocking. Karen Egli was third, Leslie Oliver fifth, Monica Mumme seventh and Kathy Craig ninth.

On Tuesday of this week, the Indians defeated Grosse Ile 23-34. Banda hurt his leg over the weekend and was unable to run with the varsity. Doug Bohannon took first against the Red Devils at 16:51. Jesse Castorena was third at 17:28, Scott Betzoldt fourth at 17:34, Scott Winstead seventh at 18:06, Kent Norris eighth at 18:12.

Lennie Castorena was 10th while John Prettyman was 11th.

The girls ran in the Ann Arbor Invitational last Friday placing seventh out of around 14 teams. Janel Mumme was fourth, Karen Egli 26th, Leslie Oliver 30th, Monica Mumme 49th and Kathy Craig 61st.

The Indians are in second place in the league behind Airport with a 4-1 record. The Jets are 5-0. Overall, Tecumseh has a 5-3 mark. This Thursday, the orange and black hosts Carlson traveling to the Hudson Invitational this Saturday.

Skins Falter

The Clinton Redskins were unable to blemish the perfect 3-0 record of the Blissfield Royals Friday night, as they fell 7-0.

The ballgame could have turned out entirely different, but Clinton coughed up the ball on the Blissfield 11, after marching down with the opening kickoff.

Clinton used their running game as they took the kick off on their own 40. They did throw two passes for first downs.

The loan score of the game came in the last part of the second period. The Royals started on their 37 and moved the ball down to the Clinton 35.

Two Royal penalties followed and Blissfield suddenly faced a first and 30 situation. In the next four plays, they rushed 31 yards. Five plays later, they were in the end zone.

Clinton meets Morenci in their home territory Friday and goes into the match with a 2-2 record.

THS Grad Qualifies

Tecumseh graduate and golf star Doug Jacobs qualified for a spot on a special Toledo University golf squad which will participate in tournament play next spring in Texas.

There was only one spot remaining on the special team and 18 players were in the running. They played 18 holes last Friday, 36 on Saturday and another 18 on Sunday.

Jacobs was seven shots down going into the Sunday round but ended up winning it by seven strokes.

THS Girls Beat St. Marys 46-33

Tecumseh's girls basketball team came up with two victories beating St. Mary's 46-33 on Tuesday of this week and Flat Rock 44-21 last Thursday.

The Indians were in the lead against St. Mary's 16-13 at the half stretching the margin to 32-20 at the end of the third frame.

Tecumseh walloped the opposition on the boards picking off 39 rebounds to 22. Debbie Steadly, playing her first game in two weeks after suffering a cut lip, picked up 13 carooms.

The orange and black shot 44 percent from the field to 24 percent for St. Mary's.

Coach Diane Nelson felt Sandy MacGeorge played her best game this season coming up with seven field goals and four foul shots for 18 points. Steadly had 12 markers as well.

Robin Isom led in scoring against Flat Rock with 13.

The Indians are undefeated in the Huron League with a 3-0 mark. They are tied with Grosse Ile. This Thursday they host Airport traveling to Grosse Ile for a key game next Tuesday.

Cagers Are 5-0

Clinton girls basketball team continued its winning ways by securing two more victories over league foes.

The Skins defeated Morenci on Tuesday of this week 59-50. Last Thursday they devastated Blissfield 47-17.

Against Morenci, the Redskins jumped to a 15-2 lead. They never fell behind although Morenci battled to within five late in the fourth quarter. Clinton picked up the pace though, and won going away.

Sue Richter continued to dominate the scoring for Clinton with 27 points. JoAnn Grosseman had 11 while Karen Busch came in with 10 markers.

Against Blissfield, the Redskins jumped to a quick 17-2 lead after the first quarter increasing the margin to 40-5 at the end of the third frame.

Clinton's defense prevented the Royals from scoring at all in the third period.

Sue Richter led in scoring for Clinton with eight field goals for 16 points. Cathy Gibson had 12.

Clinton hosts Class B powerhouse Columbia Central this Thursday traveling to Waldron next Monday. They have a perfect 5-0 record in the LCAA, 7-0 overall.

CHS Stickmen Defeated

Clinton's golfers fell to LCAA foe Manchester 174-177 on Monday of this week.

For the Skins, Brad Eversole shot a 42 followed by Blake Clark and Bernie Hough both with 43's and Steve Porterfield with a 49.

The Redskins now post a 4-6 record in the the LCAA, 6-10 overall.

Lorenz, Sontag Recite Vows

St. John Lutheran Church in Dundee was the setting for the marriage of Linda Sue Lorenz and Jeffrey L. Sontag on Sept. 24 at 7 p.m. Pastor Paul A. Horn officiated the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lorenz, Britton and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Sontag of Dundee.

Mrs. Wesley Gilmore, the bride's cousin of Britton, was the organist. Debbie Heiden of Dundee was the soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza. The bodice was designed of Cluny lace with a high stand up collar. The straight narrow sleeves of Cluny lace were enhanced with seeded pearls. From the princess style gown flowed a full A-line skirt ending in a cathedral length train trimmed with a deep flounce of Cluny lace.

A Camelot headdress secured her fingertip illusion veiling. The headpiece and veiling were tripped with a re-embroided Alencon lace and seeded pearls.

She carried a cascade of daisy mums, roses and baby breath.

Sandy Lorenz was maid of honor for her sister, in a princess style gown of apple green and matching lace cape. She wore rose and baby's breath in her hair. She carried a fireside basket with pumpkin mums, tinted baby's breath, bearded wheat and yellow statis.

Colette Sontag, of Dundee, sister of the groom and Nancy Lorenz, Britton, cousin of the bride, were the bridesmaids in maize and apricot gowns identical to the maid of honor. They also carried fireside baskets and wore flowers in their hair.

Kevin Sontag, of Dundee, brother of the groom, was best man.

Ushers were Larry Lorenz of Britton, brother of the bride bride and Bradley Luck of South Bend, Ind., cousin of the groom.

Reception was held at the United Products Workers Union Hall for 475 guests. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Linford Price, aunt and uncle of the bride. Connie Price was in charge of the guest book. The cake was cut by Donna Price and Pat Holcomb, aunts of the bride and groom. Dianne Price and Mrs. Lonnie Wertenberger served the punch.

The bride is a graduate of Britton-Macon High School and is employed at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor. The groom is a graduate of Dundee High School and of Monroe County Community College. He is employed at Salenbein Bros. Implement of Dundee.

Following a wedding trip through Northern Michigan the newlyweds are residing on Tecumseh Rd., Dundee.

supposed to say. Just as the musical score of a movie enhances the action on screen, the activity on the field is to enhance the music." For example the flag movements are sharp or smooth, depending on the music. A disciplined air bordering snobbishness is "part of the decorum of the style," Rice explained.

It took approximately 140 hours to write the field movements to accompany the 11 minute program presented Oct. 4, Rice told. It is performed at each of the home games at Tecumseh.

Rice first listens to the music carefully marking its "emotions," the tempo or timing and the instrumentation. Showmanship and variety must be considered as with any production. Rice then writes the patterns of motion on a field planning chart.

Donald Dobrosky, a volunteer staff member, has given unnumbered hours to help Rice direct the Shawnee Marchers on the field.

Dave Roberts, senior, is the drum major and Sheila Pease, junior, is the assistant drum major. Their leadership on the field and his chief and her Indian maiden costumes make a striking appearance.

The Shawnee Marchers themselves are volunteers. They do not practice music during the regular music classes as all classes are presently working on concert material, said Rice. Instead after school practices as long as three hours are held to perfect their performance.

"The top priority is that this is a learning experience," Rice told. The kids seem to thrive on it. They are not allowed to eat when in uniform, a rule to which they stubbornly adhere.

The clear drum heads on all the drums, the snares, bases and tri-toms, are part of the new field look which audiences seem to approve.

Whatever the audience or judges' reactions, the most meaningful reward is still the hug from mom and dad and the look of pride from the band director that says "We're proud of you. You did it."

Last Tuesday, there were plenty of family hugs for all the participants in the Lenawee County Band Festival.

Letter Addresses Confidence

To the Editor:

It is interesting to note that in voting against the Historic District Ordinance, the Council supported the very people expressing fear and distrust of Council's judgement and power with such an ordinance in their hands.

We had more faith in our city government and supported their jurisdiction of our neighborhood through an ordinance.

However, Tecumseh isn't the only place where the people's lack of confidence in public officials is showing. What does a vote at the polls really mean anymore?

Sincerely,
Owen & Sylvia Merrill

CLOTHING FOR THE FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Egbert will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary with a family dinner party at the Vineyards. They were married Oct. 18, 1952. The Egberts have lived in the area for five years. They are parents of Mary, Mrs. Paul Hill, Laurie, Jim, John and Jean. Since coming to the area, they obtained their real estate licenses and are with Vern Manwaring Realty. They are planning a trip to Georgia to visit their daughter, Eileen and tour the state.

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

Cookies are a welcome treat anytime and these drop cookies are both easy and delicious.

These soft, frosted ginger cookies will be a hit with both young and old alike.

GINGER CREAMS

¼ cup soft shortening
½ cup sugar
1 small egg
½ cup molasses
1 tsp. soda
½ cup hot water
2 cups sifted flour
½ tsp. salt
1 tsp. ginger
½ tsp. nutmeg
½ tsp. cloves
½ tsp. cinnamon

Quick Icing:

¾ cup powdered sugar
1 tbsp. margarine
¼ tsp. vanilla
1 tbsp. milk (about) or cream

Mix together thoroughly shortening, sugar, egg and molasses. Dissolve soda in hot water and add to sugar mixture. Sift flour, salt and spices and stir in. Chill dough. Drop rounded teaspoonsfull about 2 inches apart on lightly greased baking sheet. Bake in 400 degree oven for 7-8 minutes, just until set. (When touched lightly, almost no imprint remains.) Combine ingredients for icing, adding enough milk or cream to spread easily. Frost cookies while still slightly warm.

Chocolate chip cookies are one of four old stand-bys and here is a new version that we enjoy.

CHOCOLATE CHIP COOKIES

1½ cup flour
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. soda
1 cup shortening
¾ cup brown sugar
¾ cup white sugar
2 eggs
1 tsp. hot water
1 cup nuts
2 cups oatmeal
1 tsp. vanilla
12 ounce package chocolate chips

Cream shortening. Gradually add sugars and mix well. Add eggs one at a time, blending well. Add hot water. Add rest of ingredients, mixing well. Bake 375 degrees for 8-10 minutes. Makes about 5 dozen.

The engagement of Deborah Kay Creger of Ypsilanti to John Robinson Jr., is announced by her parents, Mrs. Violet Creger and Gerald Creger of Tecumseh. Mr. Robinson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson Sr. of Dixboro. The bride-elect is a 1975 graduate of Tecumseh High School and her fiance is a graduate of Huron High School, Ann Arbor. Both are employed at the John Knox Village, Ann Arbor. A Dec. 17 wedding is planned.

Club Opens Season

The Tecumseh Monday Club opened the 1977-78 season at St. Peter's Episcopal Church Oct. 3 with 64 members and guests present. A luncheon as served by the women of the church.

In the absence of the president Ruth Kuder, Mrs. Donald Smith, first vice-president, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Walter Prill gave the devotions. Mrs. LeRoy Titley, president of the Lenawee County Federation of Women's Clubs, introduced the past presidents, nine being present.

The County Federation will meet Nov. 9 as Rollin Center United Methodist Church with registration at 9:30 a.m. and call to order at 10 a.m. The Addison Women's Club will host the meeting. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. Reservations must be in by Nov. 2 to Mrs. Merrick Dibble.

Oct. 18 is the date for the trip to Archbald, Ohio. Women driving and those wishing a ride will meet at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, leaving for Archbald, Ohio at 10:30 a.m.

Mrs. Prill introduced Nina Bower of Britton who sang "He Touched Me" and "How Great Thou Art." Mrs. Bower was accompanied by Mrs. Glenn Driscoll at the piano.

Mrs. Smith introduced Mrs. Mervyn Boltz who gave an interesting talk on women of the Revolutionary period who were instrumental in winning the struggle against Britain. These women were Abigail Smith Adams, Margaret Catherine Moore Berry, Mary Clopp Wooster, Hannah Hunter Henler and Deborah Sampson.

Mrs. Boltz showed pewter medallions of these women, depicting them and their acts of courage.

Women's liberation was present even in the 1770's. Women from all classes helped in their homes, caring for the sick, wounded and dying. They made musket balls for the guns.

Abigail Adams wrote and kept records of the customs and activities of the period.

Some acted as scouts to keep the Army informed and others as guides.

Deborah Sampson changed her name and enlisted in the Army. She was twice wounded and later became the first woman to lecture on her experiences. Women followed their men into battle and gave their lives for freedom, too.

New Kiwanis Officers

James Bick president of the Kiwanis Club of Tecumseh was installed with 1977-78 officers and directors in ceremonies at the Tecumseh Country Club Oct. 1.

Division 8 Lt. Gov. Darral Ball presided. Other officers are William P. Clark president-elect; Kenneth Boyd, vice-president; Marten R. Vegter, secretary and Russell G. Scott, treasurer.

New board of directors members named to serve one year terms were recognized. They are Carl Lamb, Pete Hayes, James Anderson and Ronald Curtis.

Special guests of the club at this annual banquet, in addition to Lt. Gov. and Mrs. Ball, were Tecumseh Police Chief and Mrs. Merlin Mowrey.

In honor of the Kiwanis International 1976-77 theme of "Safeguard Against Crime" and in recognition of his valuable cooperation with the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club, Mowrey was presented a distinguished service award.

Before retiring his symbolic gavel, President Allan Gray recognized and awarded the chairmen of committees for their service in the past year.

Honored were Charles Williams, spiritual aims; Edwin Walters, membership development; Kenneth Boyd, youth services; Douglas Bird Jr., citizenship services; Carl Lamb, sponsored youth; Richard Beckwith, public relations and club newsletter; and Pete Clark, club meeting.

Following the buffet-style dinner the members, their wives and the guests enjoyed singing and a frolic presided by Ronald Curtis and Pete Clark. Curtis arranged the banquet.

New president James Bick in turn recognized Allan Gray and his leadership role over the past year. As a momento of his office, Gray was presented with an engraved gavel.

Echoing the Kiwanis International announcement in Dallas, Texas in June, both Lt. Governor Ball and President Bick, supported the 1977-78 theme of Reach Out, a challenge to share what Kiwanians believe with others.

College Prep Meet

College bound 11th and 12th grade students and their parents will have the opportunity to question over 50 experts on the colleges they represent and financial aid opportunities at the 15th annual college night sponsored by the Lenawee County Counselors Association Oct. 27 at 7 p.m. at Adrian High School.

TV Awareness

The T.V. Task Force, a social concerns subcommittee of Adrian First United Methodist Church, will host a series of seven sessions aimed at increasing television awareness for adults and teens.

Sessions begin with a potluck dinner-program on Oct. 18 6-9 p.m. and continue on consecutive Tuesday night (7:30-9:30 p.m.).

Topics for the awareness training are:

Oct. 18 TV: a General Overview and TV and Stereotyping, Oct. 25 TV and Violence, Nov.1 TV Advertising and Values, Nov. 8 Children and TV, Nov. 15 TV and Human Sexuality, Nov. 22 TV News and Values, Nov. 29 Decisions and Strategies for Change.

McDonald's® Opens New Store In Tecumseh

Restaurant Portrays Tecumseh Indian Heritage

HERRICK MEMORIAL NURSING HOME RECEIVES RIBBON $$ — After official cutting of $100 ribbon, Mrs. L.D. Thompson, auxiliary chairman for Herrick Memorial Nursing Home, receives 100 one dollar bills.

TWELVE EARN DEGREE OF BURGEROLOGIST — Twelve local dignitaries earned Certificates of Award and Degrees of burgerologist Monday, September 26 when they toured McDonald's and donned apron and hat to cook their own hamburgers. Owner Bill Sigmund, Manager James Abbs and Supervisors, Dutch Hoffman, Rusty Bodman, Mike Brown and Doug Bott graded their efforts, then awarded the men their degrees.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TECUMSEH, Mich. — Mr. and Mrs. William Sigmund announced the newest member of the restaurant chain that revolutionized America's eating-out habits is now open in Tecumseh, at 1206 W. Chicago Blvd.

It features an enlarged menu of quality food in addition to the efficient service and cleanliness that have long been fixtures of McDonald's® operation.

The menu, built around the hamburger, also features French fries, shakes, soft drinks, coffee, Filet-O-Fish® sandwiches, McDonaldland Cookies®, hot apple and cherry pies. A full line breakfast selection of Egg McMuffin®, scrambled eggs and sausage, hashbrowns, assorted juices and Danish pastry is also available.

Highlighted by an Indian motif, the restaurant carries on the Tecumseh heritage. Ample parking is available for customers.

The new restaurant is the latest in the international organization founded in 1955. There are now McDonalds'® in all 50 states, Canada and overseas.

FACTS: The new Tecumseh McDonald's Restaurant, 1206 W. Chicago Blvd., is owned and operated by Bill and Vi Sigmund of Jackson. The manager is James Abbs of Adrian, formerly manager of the North Main Street McDonald's, Adrian. He and his assistant manager, Gerald Hunter of Adrian, will have 60 employees in the 4,276th restaurant, McDonald's International. The restaurant, which has an interior decor depicting the history of Chief Tecumseh, has 128 seats and 71 parking spaces.

RIBBON CUTTING CEREMONY — A rawhide ribbon, made up of 100 one dollar bills and decorated with eagle feathers, was recently cut by Tecumseh Mayor Harold Easton to officially open the new McDonald's. A dedication speech, given by Mayor Easton, also highlighted the ceremony as it was taped, sealed in a metal box with other mementos of the occasion, placed in a wall opening, and sealed with a metal plaque. Other local dignitaries who attended the ceremony include: Cal Zorn – City Manager of Tecumseh; Merlin Mowery — Police Chief of Tecumseh; Wallace MacGeorge — Fire Chief of Tecumseh; Richard Eggleston — President of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce; Robert Hamden — City Assessor; Robert Duhan — Superintendent of Schools; and Earl Mason — Bank Manager, United Savings Bank of Tecumseh.

McDonald's® Owners Involved In Community

FLAG RAISING — Four members of Tecumseh Boy Scout Troop #272, accompanied by Scoutmaster John Demming, raise flag that flew over the U.S. Capitol. Flag raising ceremony was one of several Grand Opening events at the new McDonald's®.

HIGH SCHOOL BAND PLAYS FOR GRAND OPENING — Members of the Tecumseh High School Band, accompanied by their band director, Jimmie Rice of Tecumseh, entertained the first visitors of the new McDonald's® as part of the Grand Opening ceremonies. The band played the National Anthem, the special McDonald's® music and their own selections.

Bill and Vi Sigmund have 534 sons and daughters. And thousands of close friends.

The sons and daughters are employees of the Sigmunds' eight McDonald's franchises in the Jackson, Adrian, Albion and Tecumseh areas of Michigan. The close friends were acquired in a lifetime of concerned, community involvement wherever the couple have been.

Bill was born and raised in Naperville, Illinois. He attended Naperville High School before going on to Northwestern University. At the conclusion of his schooling, he went to work for Kraft Foods. (It was around this time that Bill met and married Vi Staite.) He was office manager for the company at Akron, Columbus and Cincinnati before being transferred to Chicago where he was promoted to head of twenty-one branch offices.

In 1959, after 26 years with Kraft, Bill came with his wife to Jackson, Michigan to open one of the country's 100 original McDonald's Restaurants. Bill and Vi have lived in Jackson ever since.

The Sigmunds have run up such an impressive list of leadership positions within the community that one wonders how the two have found the time to supervise the operation of their restaurants as efficiently as they have.

Bill has served on the board of directors of both the Jackson Chamber of Commerce and the Order of the Mystic Shrine. He has been president of the Jackson Lions' Club and, for the last four years, General Chairman of the Jackson Rose Festival. In addition, he has twice served as president of the Michigan McDonald's Operators' Association.

Vi Sigmund's record of community involvement is equally impressive. Vi is a former two-term president of the Jackson Lioness and Shrine Auxiliaries and is still very active in both of those organizations. She is also a member of Zonta Internation, the Business and Professional Women's Club, Town Hall Club, Women's Business International Club, and the Women's Club of Jackson. Moreover, like husband Bill, she serves on the Jackson Rose Festival Committee.

Bill and Vi Sigmund

The Rose Festival is an important event for the Sigmunds. Consistent with their high regard for education, they have donated a $1000 McDonald's Educational Scholarship to the winner of the Rosequeen pageant for the past 12 years. Another service which they provide for the Rose Queen is a flight to the Miss Michigan competition in Muskegon in their own airplane.

Bill, a longtime flying enthusiast, served two terms as president of the local flying club and is still an active member. Since his first solo flight was in 1934, he gets additional enjoyment when the flight to Muskegon turns out to be the winning girl's very first time up in an airplane.

As in the case of the Rose Festival, the Sigmunds derive particular satisfaction from working with young people.

"I enjoy the enthusiasm young people have," is the way Bill sums it up. "After all, the future is in their hands."

The couple's eight McDonald's Restaurants, the largest number of singly-owned stores in Michigan, afford them considerable opportunity to witness that youthful enthusiasm at work. Most of their employees, like the parent company itself, are not that far along in years. A very large percentage, in fact, are even younger than McDonald's which was founded only twenty-one years ago.

By the same token, the Sigmunds' young employees enjoy working with them.

"They actually treat us as if we were their children," said one employee.

The record speaks for itself. Bill and Vi Sigmund have been recipients of the "Ronald McDonald Award", the highest honor McDonald's confers.

To be sure, their acceptance speech must have gone something like this: "We could not have done it without the help of our 534 children and our thousands of best friends."

Bill and Vi would have wanted to name every one of them.

Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

Have you ever been told off by a bird? It can be a loud, eloquent tirade, a no nonsense dressing down which leaves little doubt as to the problem, tells how that problem should be corrected, when and by whom.

The bird doing all the shouting was a cute and cooky tufted titmouse. On the receiving end of all this verbal abuse were Mom, Gertie T, and yours truly.

The reason for all the carrying on was the condition of the near-my-window feeders. They were quite well stocked. The sunflower seeds were piled high. Apparently this little character either wanted fresh handouts or he objected to sorting through a few empty shucks.

It happened several times each day for something less than a week. On both food trays of the near-my-window feeder there are holders for ears of corn. On the north feeder is merely a spike, three or four inches long, standing straight upon which an ear of corn can be jammed. Not terribly picturesque but the squirrels don't seem to mind.

We have not yet started feeding corn so the spike stands empty. And really, who would ever think that a usually mild mannered and friendly titmouse would use it as his soap box!

The entire episode was untypical. When he flew down, the six inch gray bird somehow managed to grab the skinny spike and make a most ungraceful landing.

Of course titmice are not woodpeckerish in their habits. They are agile enough but truly, this character could in no way cling to the side of the spike and look anything but ridiculous.

With feet widely spaced apart and toes curled in a vise like grip, he held his body at an awkward position.

A black and white downy woodpecker would have had no trouble at all with such a stance and the pert little black capped chickadee could have carried it off with a dash of class. For the poor titmouse though it was just not his thing.

Once in position — I was tempted to say something about it being a precarious perch but apparently it wasn't because, although it looked as though he were on the verge of a fall, there never seemed to be even a slight slip.

But, once the bird had landed, he launched into his scolding speech. With little topknot standing stiff and straight and his bill wide open, he began berating us.

These are cute and attractive birds, a pretty soft gray, always neat and trim. They have black shiny eyes and usually quite nice dispositions. Oh, occasionally one shows a bit of temper when the feeders are crowded on a cold winter's day. We have chuckled as they let other birds know when the crowding is getting too much.

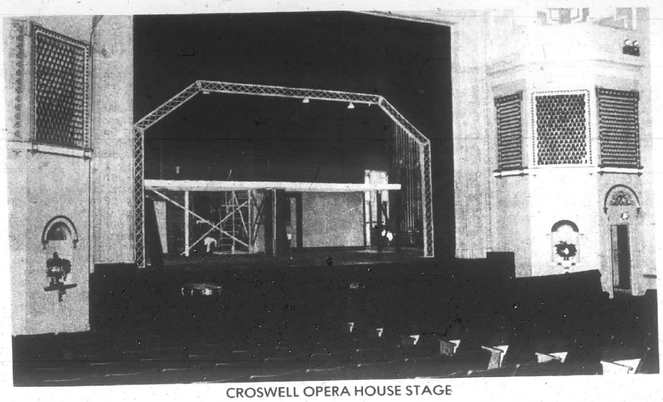
But to have a tufted titmouse in a fit of temper day after day was a new experience. And believe me, he consistently complained each and every time he came to the feeders.

After 'blowing his top' — and my, what a loud shrill screaming it was — he would run out of steam and step down to the floor of the feed tray. There was always plenty of food available, the pile of sunflower seeds was a high one; however, business at the feeders had not been record breakingly heavy and there had been no need to replenish with fresh seeds. Could this little character have been objecting so much and so violently to leftovers?

Cutler-Dickerson Named Warehouse

Grains stored by farmers in the Cutler-Dickerson Co. at Adrian, are now eligible for price support loans since the facility has been added to the list of warehouses approved by the Commodity Credit Corporation, the Lenawee County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Office stated.

A recent inspection by officials of Commodity Credit Corporation shows the facility is fully complying with the provisions of the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement controlling the storage of Government-owned grains.



CROSWELL OPERA HOUSE STAGE

Opera House Comes to Life

By Kathy Brown

Just like Dorothy of the Wizard of Oz who didn't realize she possessed the magic to return home, Lenawee County residents had overlooked the magic of the Croswell Opera House in Adrian.

Within the last three years however, the image of the 1860's opera house has grown steadily thanks to the quality entertainment, interior renovations and volunteer supporters from all walks of life.

This last summer stock season broke a 10 year attendance record as patrons rediscovered live theater. Civic groups and families planned group nights, county politicians made appearances and enthusiastic theater students and professionals breathed new life into familiar productions.

Interest didn't occur overnight. It took hard work and cooperation of patrons, publicists, performers and politicians, too. Resurgence in local history and community pride added incentives.

The driving force behind the new success of the Croswell Opera House for the past 10 years was the Croswell Opera House and Fine Arts Association, a non-profit corporation that operates and maintains the opera house for community cultural events.

Invitations were sent to Croswell supporters who on Oct. 23 at 4 p.m. will celebrate the association's anniversary at a benefit featuring a stage production, tour of the entire facility and refreshments.

Prior to 1973, many repairs were made on the opera house. That year the Heritage Fund Project started with a goal of $350,000. Pledges and gifts to date total $314,000.

Improvements included electrical, heating and plumbing overhaul, a console for lights and sound control, more effective balcony lighting and new stage rigging preserving the original hemp.

A 20x65 rear addition provided a business office for the manager since 1973, James Myers, a stage workshop, costume storage loft, new and renovated dressing rooms and set storage. The ultimate dream of Croswell supporters is to expose the original facade of the old Opera House and renovate the lobby.

The historic Croswell Opera House was designated to the State Register of Historic Sites. It is the third oldest continuously operating theater in the country and a charter member of the League of Historic American Theaters.

While tradition says that the Croswell began in 1858 with Edwin Booth opening in "Hamlet", the early origins of the Croswell are unknown as Civil War records are missing. Two maps dated 1866 verify that the Croswell Opera House existed in its completed form at its present E. Maumee St. location in Adrian.

It operated under Charles M. Croswell in Oct. 5, 1869. He later became governor of Michigan. Land agreement for the opera house was found among his papers at the Burton Historical Collection at the Detroit Public Library. At least three academic papers were written about the Croswell's history. Grace Kaledo, public relations, helped collect these historical nuggets.

Because of rail transportation, tours played in Adrian on their schedules between Chicago, Detroit and New York.

Top attractions of the day that were booked at the Croswell included Tom Thumb, Madame Mojeska, Al Jolson and John Phillip Sousa's band. Some original posters though yellowed still exist in sections of the theater. Souvenir programs are contained in the Bentley Library Historical Collections, Ann Arbor.

After World War I, live performances suffered a decline and the Croswell became a movie house with some live events featured. In 1967 the movie lease expired and the Croswell was rescued by the Adrian Foundation before it became a parking lot.

Today, the Croswell continues to live with summer stock, town hall lecture series and junior town hall for children, the Croswell players, community concert series, community chorus, family movies and school programs. Just this summer, an art gallery opened on the balcony and features a veritable who's who of Lenawee County artists.

In 1975, grants from the Michigan Council for the Arts brought professional artists to the Croswell stage to perform with local players.

Perhaps the most significant aspect of the Croswell's entertainment is its children's programs which bring live theater to young people who are the audiences of tomorrow.

LARC Truck Stops Visits

With the cold weather fast approaching the Goodwill-LARC truck will no longer be parked in Tecumseh on Saturdays after Oct. 15.

If you have items to donate, you may leave them at the collection center at the Mall or the one in the A&P parking lot, or our plant at 600 East Beecher St.

For items too large to large to bring, please call Anna Wells— 423-4212 or 263-2135 for a home pickup.

Coldwater Open House

Coldwater possesses a wealth of 19th-century architecture and eleven of its historic sites will have their doors open to the public Oct. 23, from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. during the third annual tour of historic homes.

Sponsored by the Branch County Historical Society, the tour will feature three public buildings, seven private residences and a barn. Among them can be found interesting examples of adaptive use. The buildings range in age from 94 to 126 years.

National 4-H Week Honored

During National 4-H Week Oct. 2-8, 4-H members in the Tecumseh area will experience the theme, "Freedom to Be."

Over the years, 4-H has helped millions of boys and girls grow into self-directed, productive members of society through informal, learn-by-doing approach to education. Young people 9-19 choose their projects and set individual goals.

The Lenawee 4-H Youth program involves 483 registered special interest group youth.

The 4-H program staff, Dyle Henning, Mary Miller, Cathy Clement and Doug Ruesink, provide administration to 1the leaders.

Private sector donors, businesses, foundations and individuals contribute significant financial and technical assistance. Parents reinforce their children's earning experiences in the program.

The Cooperative Extension Service of the land-grant universities, state and local governments and the U.S. Department of Agriculture provide substantial resources and versatility for the 4-H program.

"We make fast work of your auto insurance claim."

What is the story behind this "For Sale" sign? Is it just a house that's for sale, or is this a tale of happiness or sorrow — of success or defeat?

Let's hope this story has a happy ending! But this isn't a world of make-believe we live in. God made us human beings, not puppets. He has given us minds and bodies, nerves and muscles — and weakness as well as strength.

Maybe the story behind this house is a happy one. Maybe it's a sad one. Regardless, the people who lived here, like all of us, will be able to accept both good fortune and bad if there is yet another house in their lives.

The House of the Lord, the Church, has been built to endure through the ages. Here we will always have a home — during our lives on earth as well as throughout eternity.

Approve Contracts, Raises

CLINTON — Board of Education approved contracts with teachers, custodial, secretarial and cafeteria staff, as well as administrative staff, at Monday's meeting.

Teachers contract calls for a five percent raise, 4.3 percent increment, $300 longevity, full MESSA Super Med II insurance, MESSA Dental Plan C, and two board paid Association days for the Clinton Education Association.

Custodial union was granted a larger raise in lieu of the MESSA Dental Plan C.

Secretarial union was granted a 5.5 percent increase and the MESSA Dental Plan.

Cafeteria personnel were granted a 5.5 percent increase 5 percent retirement contribution, holiday pay nine holidays, long term disability at 66 and two-thirds percent of salary, break-time and substitute pay at the rate of the position to which they are assigned with the exception of manager substitutes. Health insurance will be offered, to be paid by the employee.

It was noted that the cafeteria operation does not cost the taxpayer any money except in indirect costs such as lighting, and heating.

Administrative contracts included a $2,000 raise for high school principal Howard Oesterling, plus dental insurance; and raises of $1,800 plus dental insurance for middle school principal, Gordon Clark and elementary principal Margaret Bless.

Superintendent Richard Wegner will receive a $2,600 raise without dental insurance, as per Wegner's request.

Central office secretaries were granted a 5.5 percent increase plus dental insurance.

Board voted to hire Deborah L. Brighton to fill the fourth section of the second grade teaching assignment.

Official school enrollment was set at 1,287.

Macon Montage

By Sharon Connors

Fall, a popular time of the year for dinners, bazaars and pancake suppers, finds many people enjoying the fellowship of working together for a common goal.

Oct. 22 is the date this year for the Macon Methodist Church dinner and bazaar. I called two ladies, Mrs. Carl Thomas and Mrs. Clarence Hall, to get a little history of this annual event as they were active in these dinners in years gone by.

A fried chicken dinner with all homemade trimmings dates back to near 1918 and was held every year, with the exception of a few years. In the last six years it was changed to a smorgasbord of good food.

The ladies remember getting together to dress the chickens and assist in preparations. Mrs. Thomas remembers one year when two crates of live chickens were delivered on the morning of the dinner but they were all ready in time.

This sounds like quite an accomplishment to this modern housewife considering all the hot water for dressing them was heated on a coal-wood range. She also remembers carrying water in milk cans to the church before there was a well.

All the food was donated and everything was made from scratch. This year's dinner will live up to tradition as the smorgasbord will feature creamed chicken and biscuits, swiss steak, and ham plus a variety of salads, vegetables, rolls, pie and cake. The dinner will start at 4:30 p.m. and the biscuits will start going in the oven around 4 p.m.! The bazaar will open at 2 p.m. and will feature needlework, baked goods produce and candy, all made and donated by the church ladies.

Mark your calendar for Oct. 22.

Carl Hawkins was honored at a family birthday dinner last Sunday. Mrs. Hawkins (Evelyn) fixed chicken dinner for the families of George and Donna Hawkins, Marvin and Betty Stotler, Larry and Judy Crittenden. Daughter Nancy Eldred and her friend, Dick Ryan, also joined in the celebration which was topped off with ice cream and cake.

Dean and Susie Hamilton, Bert and Ginny Wright and Jim and Dee Colson enjoyed a color tour the first weekend of October. On the way home the group stopped in Big Rapids to visit Kirk Hamilton a student there and join in some fun at an Octoberfest which was in progress.

Sherry Hover was home from Spring Arbor College last weekend. She spent the two days at Catherine Harsh's house in Tecumseh celebrating Catherine's birthday.

The youth group of the Macon Methodist Church encourages all young people in the area seventh grade and up to come join them. They will meet every Sunday from 8-9 p.m. at the church.

Activities lined up so far include entertaining children while their moms work on the church dinner and bazaar Oct. 22 and a hayride Oct. 30 from 8-10:30 p.m. at the Bill Swanston home. Bill and Marilyn Swanston are the sponsors for the group.

Pat and Sharon Connors Kris and Tim enjoyed the weekend with Jim and Sandy Curth, Missy and Jeff at Curth's cabin near Lewiston. The weather was rainy but a good time was had as the place was readied for winter. The fall colors were beautiful in spite of the lack of sunshine.

Bill and Rose Ann Hatchett had Rose Ann's brother and family, Ron and Delaine Hickey and children as guests this past weekend. The Hickeys are from Toronto and were here over there Thanksgiving weekend as last Monday was Thanksgiving day in Canada.

Instead of a turkey dinner, the group enjoyed pumpkin stew on Sunday. The stew is cooked in a hollowed out pumpkin in the oven. It is a recipe from Maine and hopefully Rose Ann will share it with us soon in Shirley Weekly's column.

Mrs. Elton Osborne is a patient in Saline, Hospital.

Truman and Lois Jordan had Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Simpson and their three daughters from Carlsbad, Calif. as houseguests last week.

UMW PLAN BAZARR, SUPPER — Wilma Clark and Bertha Zick display the variety of arts and crafts that will be available at the Macon United Methodist Church Bazaar at 2 p.m. and Supper at 4:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 22 at the church.

Ice Cream, Pie Sale Is Success

CLINTON — Happy pie bakers of St. Dominic's Altar Society marveled over their successful apple pie and ice cream sale at the Fall Festival, during their meeting Monday.

That project netted $1,236.46 with the sale of 182 pies, and "not even a smidgen" of food was left over, it was reported.

Meeting at Community Center was attended by 15 members and a guest, Mrs. Marvin Vallad.

Mrs. Geordie Poland's suggestion was accepted to hold a demonstration toy sale to benefit the Society, at the Nov. 14 meeting.

A card party was discussed and may be held after the new year.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Edward Blom and Mrs. George Bowman. Lucky lady prize was won by Mrs. John Toomey.

Hostesses for the November meeting will be Mrs. Bruce Krueger and Mrs. Alfred Cowhy.

Class Begins New Study at UCC Church

CLINTON — Mrs. James Heimerdinger began a study of "Your Erroneous Zones" by Wayne Dyer for the members of the Mary Martha Class of the United Church of Christ.

Members met at the home of Mrs. Glen Bihlmeyer at Sand Lake, Tuesday evening.

Devotions were read by Mrs. Harold Moon.

Class will serve a progressive gourmet dinner, Oct. 22, to members and spouses. Hostesses will be Mrs. Glen Bihlmeyer, Mrs. Paul McKenna and Mrs. Mervyn Witherell.

Proceeds will benefit the church organ fund.

Homemade donuts were served by the hostesses.

Next meeting will be Nov. 8 at the home of Mrs. Harold Calhoun.

Mutual Wheel Joins Budd Co.'s Trailers

CLINTON—Mutual Wheel Company, Moline, Ill., is the newest member of The Budd Co.'s trailer division sales and service distributor network.

Budd announced that Mutual Wheel will sell the complete line of Budd vans, reefers, and flats in the Quad-City metropolitan area, which includes the neighboring cities of East Moline and Rock Island, Ill., Davenport, Ia., and Bettendorf, Ia. Mutual Wheel will also provide service and distribute parts for Budd trailers.

The new dealership is headquartered in an 11,000 square foot trailer sales and service center at Airport Road and Interstate 280 in Milan, Ill. The facility includes 6,000 square feet of service shop area and 5,000 square feet of parts and office space. Mutual Wheel also has branches in Dubuque, Ia., Moline, Monmouth, Ill., and East Peoria, Ill.

Authur A. Adams, whose background includes 25 years of experience in the trailer and transportation fields, was named manager of Mutual Wheel's trailer facility. Robert Kirchoefer is parts manager. Al Langfeldt is service manager.

Budd operates three trailer manufacturing plants and a national parts center. The company also distributes its trailer line through sales and service branches throughout the U.S.

Festival Film Set To Show Thursday

CLINTON — Howard Schrader, official Fall Festival photographer, had a spectacular view of the village from the observervation lounge of the Goodyear Blimp, Sept. 30.

He took some 300 feet of film of the Festival while in the blimp, which hovered at 200 feet over the village at times.

Another 500 feet of movie film was taken during the three-day event and will be shown to the public, Oct. 13 at 7:30 p.m. at Clinton High School.

The "Americana" Goodyear Blimp was moored at Ann Arbor to take aerial camera shots for ABC television of the U-M football game.

Festival chairman Dave VanTuyle made the arrangements to have the Blimp flown over Clinton.

Presentation of checks will be made to the ministers of the four churches participating in the Festival ticket sales at Thursday's meeting.

Lack of Profit Concerns Groups

CLINTON—Lack of profit from their Fall Festival booths concerned Clinton Area Jaycees and Jaycettes at a joint meeting Oct. 3. Rainy Saturday slowed sales for the JC food and beer tent, apparently.

By joint decision the groups decided they will not sponsor the annual Halloween party for village children.

A membership social will be arranged in November with volley ball games scheduled between husbands and wives.

Letters to Santa will be sought in the village through drop boxes and will be answered by Jaycettes.

Harold Hunt was named chairman of the next Red Cross Bloodmobile in Clinton, with the date to be announced.

Sharon McGill will be chairman of a Christmas project still to be determined.

A program on Halloween Safety Tips will be presented at the elementary school.

Next meeting will be Nov. 7.

LT. DAVID SHAFER

Transferred to Italy

Lt. and Mrs. David D. Shafer and children, Laurie and Jeffrey, are visiting their parents and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Shafer, Onsted and Mary McConnell, Tecumseh for two weeks while he is being transferred from Norfolk, Va. to Italy.

David is a 1965 graduate of Onsted and enlisted in the navy in Dec. 1965.

After four years, he enlisted in the service in nuclear power and was graduated from Miami University of Ohio with a degree in chemistry in 1973. He was commissioned an ensign in the United States Navy and obtained three Navy Enlisted Scientific Education programs.

He served on the USS Green Bay PG101, based at Little Creek, Va. as a weapon officer, then served aboard the USS MC Whitney LCC20, amphibious command control ship the last 18 months. It was home ported at Norfolk, Va. where he was a weapon and air officer.

He is now being transferred to shore duty as director of fleet support, military sea lift command Mediterranean, based in Naples, Italy.

They would like to hear from friends at their new address, Lt. David D. Shafer, USN, COMSCMEO, Box 23, F.P.O., New York, 09521.

Automobile Overturns

CLINTON—Michael Linn Rosedale, 21, 6349 Sutton Rd., Britton, sustained minor cuts and a mild concussion, when his automobile overturned Sunday at 12:45 p.m. He was treated at Herrick Hospital, and released Tuesday.

Rosedale was driving on Rogers Hwy., about a mile south of M-50, when he ran off the left side of the road and the car rolled end for end several times, completely demolishing it.

Clinton State Police investigated the mishap.

California Tests Chosen for Schools

CLINTON — Clinton Community Schools, for many years, have used a standardized test as one of the tools of evaluation. The process of learning centered around three basic questions — What? How? and When? What is it we want students to accomplish? How must we plan curriculum to produce the desired outcomes? When will we know the students have accomplished the skills that are needed?

Two of these three questions are related to evaluation and clearly illustrate the importance of having effective and usable means for measuring progress. Therefore the need for a standardized test.

Last spring the entire staff reviewed standardized tests and selected the California Achievement Test to be given in grades K through 9 each fall.

This test, a new battery, will provide information for use in making educational decisions leading to the improvement of instruction in the basic skills, reading, language, math, and reference skills.

The purpose is greatly enhanced through the reporting of both norm-reference and criterion-referenced information.

Tests will be administered in grades 1-10 during the weeks of Sept. 19, 26 or Oct. 4. Kindergarten will be tested in mid or late October. The time required for the complete battery ranges from two-and-a-half hours to three-and-a-half hours.

This time will be spread out over three or four days so students will not become bored. Tests are administered on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday for optimum performance.

Parents can help their child's performance by stressing the importance of always doing their best, being prepared by having sufficient rest and proper diet, and being present on days they are scheduled to take the test. When the results are back they will be available to parents, students and staff.

CETA Provides Job Opportunity

The CETA program or Comprehensive Employment Training Act is one of the federal grant programs in which the city of Tecumseh participates.

Under the CETA program, temporary employment is provided while people are trained for permanent employment in government or private, non-profit groups.

To be eligible, candidates must be underemployed or unemployed, or a member of a family whose income is at or below the lower living standard income level set by the government and unemployed for 15 weeks.

Three CETA employees are employed through the program in the city of Tecumseh. They are Cathie Hartung, clerk dispatcher for Tecumseh Police Department, Rudy Mantalvo, cemetery employee and Laura Caterina, clerk at Tecumseh City Hall.

Their combined salaries through CETA grants is $22,000.

Eligibility is determined through the Michigan Employment Security Commission offices in the three counties of Lenawee, Jackson and Hillsdale, in conjunction with the Region II Manpower Consortium which directs the program at the regional level.

At the county level, the Lenawee County Board of Commissioners are the program agents. A standing committee of the commissioners sets the priorities. Currently 320 are employed on the CETA program in Lenawee County.

Chief Suggests 'Aids' for Prevention Week

Fire Prevention Week suggestions come from Ron Bolz, Fire Chief of Raisin Township Fire Department.

Place house numbers and names near roadside. This is a postal regulation, too that name and number be on rural mailboxes. Many times firemen are slowed in finding a fire for lack of readable house numbers.

When calling to report an emergency, be prepared to give correct location and clear directions to find it. This may save your house...or your life.

Review fire exit plans with your family, especially from upstairs bedrooms. A stout rope tucked inside a window may offer the only escape in a fast moving fire emergency.

Install fire extinguishers and smoke alarms.

Ground Breaking for Rec Facility

Siena Heights College broke ground last week for a new recreational facility, a 57,000-square-foot field house that will be used for intercollegiate basketball, track, and tennis as well as for the enlargement of the present intramural program.

Completion is set for June 1, 1978.

The field house is designed to accommodate a number of educational, cultural, and community activities in addition to athletics.

When completed, the facility will round out Siena's total campus plan, allowing further growth and program development for the college and its 1,100 full and part-time students.

Among those present at the ground breaking ceremony were Chester Devenow, chairman of Siena's Board of Trustees and chairman of the Sheller-Globe Corporation; Robert Sage, Louis Allen, Sr. Nadine Foley, and Gerald Diehl, all members of the Siena Heights College Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees, as well as other long time friends of the college.

The facility will be a metal skin building with masonary walls. The interior of the building will be on open area with a seamless resilient tartan type floor containing an 1/8 mile track, six tennis courts, and an intercollegiate basketball court.

The building will be located on Siena Heights Drive directly across from Sacred Heart Hall near the Zollar baseball fields.

RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

The day of the operation. It is morning. You are awake and ready. Last night you were prepared (prepped) for your specific operation by a skilled member of the nursing staff.

At midnight your water pitcher disappeared and word was passed that you were to be NPO. NPO means you may have nothing by mouth before surgery.

You will be visited by the recovery room nurse, Helen Kappler, R.N. When you are returning to consciousness in the recovery room just next door to the operating room, you will recognize her presence. She will be carefully checking and recording your vital signs until you are ready to be returned to your room.

When you enter the surgical suite you will be greeted by Alyce Dick, R.N. or by Ruth Browne, R.N. One of them will take you immediately into the operating room which has been prepared for your operation. You will recognize your anesthetist.

All of the equipment, supplies, and instruments that will be used are sterilized and ready for use. All instruments used in surgery are of high quality stainless steel. They have been processed through a washer-sterilizer and ultrasonic cleaner; then resterilized under high pressure in a modern autoclave. A basic set of surgical instruments costs about $4,000.

There are two operating rooms at HMH. Both are modern and spacious. Between them is an area called the "clean core." No-one is permitted to enter this "core" unless he or she wears clean surgical cap, gown, mask and foot coverings to prevent contamination.

Each operating room is staffed by an R.N. who is called the "circulating nurse". She is in charge of the room during the operation. Your doctor is assisted by a specially trained surgical technician and in the event of major surgery by another doctor.

Altogether, there are nine physicians with surgical privileges on staff at HMH. Many types of surgical procedures are performed including general surgery, and in specialized fields such as urology, gynecology, and dentistry.

In next week's column we will look at one of the newer developments in surgery at HMH called out-patient (or day) surgery.

Bortel Receives Leader Award

BRITTON — Former local resident, Bill Bortel, now County Extension director at Caro, received a distinguished service award for outstanding agricultural leader Oct. 27 at a Farm Bureau buffet dinner at Caro High School, from County Farm Bureau president Leroy Schluckebier.

Bortel has been part of the state Extension service for 21 years and is termed as one of the state's "most productive and influential" county Extension direcors.

The 1977 Michigan Farm Expo, held Oct. 5-6 in Tuscola County, seven miles north of Caro, is the latest of a long list of agricultural and Extension activities which have been enhanced by Bortel's leadership.

The first Michigan Farm Expo was held in 1976 with Bortel as Expo coordinator along with 40 farmers and agribusinessmen organized for non-profit under the name Michigan Farm Expo, Inc. The goal was to bring together in one place, different makes and models of tillage and harvesting equipment for farmers to see and compare under field conditions.

Bortel says it boils down to enthusiasm. These farmers are always eager to try new ideas and cooperate together. That's how last year's Expo got started.

Over 30,000 people attended the two-day Farm Expo in Tuscola County on a total of 500 acres, donated for the show by local farmers. Tuscola County, home of more four-wheel drive tractors than any other county east of the Mississippi displayed tractors, harvestors, tillage equipment, modern tiling, spraying demonstrations, and agricultural clinic tent, chemicals, seeds, supplies and services. Forty companies showed tools in action.

Corn was shelled, sugar beets harvested, corn silage, dry beans and rock pickers were also demonstrated.

Over 100 FFA youth groups attended, including Milan, Manchester and Coldwater.

New Supervisor Is Appointed

BRITTON — Russell Spalding, 4902 Palmer Hwy., was appointed Ridgeway township supervisor at a recent board meeting, following the resignation of Robert Auten, supervisor since 1971.

RUSSELL SPALDING

Spalding served as Ridgeway treasurer since his election in 1974. He will take over duties as the new township supervisor Dec. 31, 1977 when Auten's resignation becomes effective.

Spalding has served the community as teacher and superintendent at the Britton-Macon Schools and served on the Township Region II Planning Commission and is an active member of the Disabled American Veterans.

The township board appointed James Shiels of rural Britton, to fill the office of township treasurer, effective as of Dec. 31, 1977.

These appointments are for the unexpired terms until the next regular township election Nov. 1978.

Don Reum of Britton, reported for basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. on Sept. 29. Following basic training, he will go to Fort Sam Houston, Tex. for further training as an eye specialist. Don, a 1976 graduate of Britton-Macon High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Reum.

Guest Speaker

BRITTON — Emma Johnson of England houeguest of Margaret VanVorst of Tipton, was guest speaker Thursday evening at the Ladies' Missionary meeting at Bethel Baptist Church.

A retired missionary to Nigeria Mrs. Johnson gave an object lesson based on Jer. 18. She told how a potter must have a plan, purpose and place for the pottery he is making and how God, the Master Potter, also has a plan, purpose and place for each Christian.

She illustrated her talk with China cups beginning with a broken cup, Rom. 5:12 followed by a common, ordinary but useful cup, Isa. 431.

Next cup was without a handle or a "crippled" cup but still useful, Isa. 41:10.

Continuing in Isa. 43:7 she showed a cracked cup with no true ring. A cup of lovely design or a royal cup which had to be burned to bring out its true beauty and true ring, Ps. 45, was likened to a true Christian whom God views through the eyes of his son, clothed in righteousness.

She concluded with a plain cup that inside contained a picture of England's sovereign. "The beauty of the Lord should be reflected in each Christian from within," she said.

Mrs. Johnson left Saturday for Florida before returning to her home in England.

Mrs. Howard Bishop presided at the business meeting and introduced the guest.

The group sorted for mailing a letter of the Barnards, missionaries from China.

Fruit salad and crackers were served by the hosts, Mrs. Lyle Hayford and Mrs. Robert Hunt.

Next meeting is Nov. 3 at the church.

$218 Netted for Fibrosis

BRITTON — Vivian Brown, local Cystic Fibrosis chairman, announced the drive went over the top for the Village of Britton. The collection netted $218. Goal was set at $200.

Mrs. Brown expressed her thanks for all who gave and the volunteers who assisted in the drive. Money collected will go to research and to help families with the long medical expenses and treatment of their families.

Solicitors were Rosemary Auten, Laura Belle Grady, Janet Furgason, Sandy Spencer, Judy Bailey and Phyllis Below.

You get more than phones when you order a phone system from us.

You get us.

Any shrewd business person—you, for example—knows that value is measured by what you get for your money.

That being the case, the service you get from General Telephone is one of the best bargains around.

For instance, we don't vanish the minute your phone system is installed. Our communications service advisors help to train you to operate your equipment. And they don't leave until you're as good at it as they are.

We provide maintenance and repair technicians who really know their stuff. And we make sure we have enough of them to give you fast, efficient service.

If your system is ever damaged by circumstances beyond your control, we get it working again faster than you'd think possible.

And, of course, our Communications Consultants are always available to analyze and meet your changing communications needs.

That's value. In fact, when you compare our business rates to the Consumer Price Index trend for the last 15 years, you find that our service is more than a value.

It's a miracle.

During Mark Twain's days as a newspaperman, he was editor of a small Missouri paper. One day he received a letter from a subscriber, stating that he had found a spider in his paper, and asked if this was an omen of good or bad luck.

Twain replied: "Finding a spider in your paper is neither good nor bad luck. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant was not advertising so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door, and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

If you want to weld, there is no need for you to purchase gas tanks. It is much easier to lease oxygen and acetylene tanks. The supplier will pick up the used ones and deliver full ones. Here is a run down of some of the basic equipment you will need for welding. A metal or metal-topped workbench of table height will provide the proper surface for your welding activities. Keep plenty of clamps nearby so they can hold all the parts in place and leave your hand free for welding. A small vise is useful for similar purposes.

For all your tools for your next project rent them from TECUMSEH RENTAL CENTER 112 S. Pearl, 423-4470 where renting is cheaper than buying. We welcome you to stop in and visit, whether or not you presently need to rent something. We will be happy to say hello and show you around and making you aware of the many fine items that we have here to rent. We are conveniently located and there is also plenty of free parking. Stop in soon for that next item you need. Open: Monday through Saturday 8-6, Sunday 12-3.

COUNCIL HEARS COMPROMISE

Plan Historic Ordinance on a Voluntary Basis

by Kathy Brown

The city of Tecumseh may have a historic district ordinance before Christmas.

Council decided Monday night that willing members of the original Historic District Study committee, plus new members, will revise the historic district ordinance to permit any home owner in the city an opportunity to voluntarily subscribe to the ordinance with a qualified recommendation from the historic district commission and approval of City Council.

Council asked assistant city manager Paul Preston and attorney Greg Forsthoefel to work with the historic committee. Council set Dec. 5 meeting as the target date for the revised ordinance.

Councilman Dr. Carlton Cook was absent from Monday's meeting.

Lynn Cook, chairman for the historic district study committee made the recommendation to Council in a recent letter.

"I would like to know what the future of the Tecumseh Historic District Study Committee will be," Mrs. Cook stated.

She suggested two possibilities and asked Council's opinion and suggestions about:

1. An ordinance to permit any homeowner in the city to voluntarily take advantage of its protection and local, state and national historic register benefits.
2. A permanent historic commission or study committee.

"I would like to see education continued with a city sanctioned historic commission," Mrs. Cook said Monday night.

"This is an alternative, a compromise. I think that this is the coming thing, and I'd like to see Tecumseh qualify. I'd like to see more new people volunteer and participate," she stated.

She recommended in her letter that the commission be selected according to guidelines proposed by the National Register of Historic Sites, that is the seven-member commission could be composed of the mayor, one Council member, one planning commission member, one architect, two members of a historic organization and one member at large or a representative from the district.

"This would allow continued communication between all parties having expertise and concern over the decisions," Cook said in the letter.

"I'm glad to see this letter and agree with your two points," said Councilman Jay Tressler. "At the outset, I agree that historic preservation is part of community development as well as new sites and new activities. I suggest Paul Preston, Tecumseh's community development director, become involved to come up with a final ordinance or document."

"How do you anticipate how a voluntary effort would work?" questioned Councilman Aden Mead.

"I'm asking for volunteers to serve under the ordinance, not a volunteer homeowners association," Mrs. Cook stated.

"That type of historic preservation could very well be generated in the community," commented Councilman James Palmer. "I'm sure that could be acceptable to the community."

Councilmen Len DeMoss commented in agreement with the volunteer ordinance. "It could have a snowballing effect, picking up homes that weren't originally in the historic district.

"I would like to see them come back with a recommendation," Mayor Harold Easton said with approval.

Preston pointed out that there are two types of historic preservation ordinances.

The first is the historic district ordinance, the one vetoed by Council three weeks ago, that would give authority to a historic district commission to designate an area or historic district with certain controls over non-historic properties.

The second is a Landmark Commission Ordinance which allows historic site designation of any home in the city on a voluntary basis. It limits the powers of the commission as an advisory board, does not control non-historic buildings and permits review of new construction and alteration of historic sites.

"I think we're just down to the mechanics. It is just a matter of refining those alternatives and coming up with one," Tressler said. "I don't want the idea to form in people's minds it's going to be another three years," Tressler recommended Council set a time limit.

"You've got the framework before you," said attorney Forsthoefel, "All you need is the modification.

Board Approves $5 Million Budget for Schools Here

Tecumseh's board of education approved a $5,499,809 budget Monday night.

Actual expenditures for 1976-77 were $4,983,986.

School officials estimated total revenue to be $5,991,580 this year, leaving excess revenue in the amount of $491,771 or over five mills.

The district will be receiving state aid in the amount of $576.24 per pupil times 3,644 pupils for a total of $2,099,818,56. That's a per pupil increase of $51.76 over last year.

The 3,644 is the official enrollment that was taken on the fourth Friday of the school year. It represents a drop of some 47 students from last year, including 56 less kindergartners and 14 less adult education pupils.

The rest of the drop is spread among all the grades, Supt. Robert Duhan said.

The budget passed unanimously.

The lion's share of the budget goes to instruction, 69.45 percent. Instructional appropriations include salaries and utilities.

Asst. Supt. Gene Cooley was quick to add that increases in utility costs have been significant. Building utility increases have been as much as 20-25 percent Cooley said. And, insurance in some areas has gone up a whopping 40-50 percent.

There has been a 5½-5¾ percent increase in salaries overall.

Cooley concluded by saying that the budget is only a guideline.

Benefit Performance

A benefit performance of "Irene" by the Tecumseh Players will be held Oct. 30 from 7-9 p.m. at the Glass Room of the Tecumseh Community Center. Proceeds from the evening are for the Tecumseh theater fund.

For reservations for this special performance, readers may call Edna Smith, 423-2593 or Lynn Cook, 423-2393.

The first regular performance of the musical comedy will be Oct. 21 at 8 p.m. at the Community Center. Special rates for senior citizens will be offered that night only.

Other performances are Oct. 22, 27, 28 and 29. For reservations for the regular performances, readers may call 456-4370 or 423-2504.

Zoning Change to Commission

City Council Monday night referred to the Planning Commission the request of Louis B. Schneider for the rezoning of 807 W. Chicago Blvd., formerly the Erhart property, from RA2, residential, to B3, business.

Close Monday

Tecumseh Post Office will be closed Oct. 24 in observance of Veterans' Day.

City Taking Sealed Bids, Selling House

The city of Tecumseh announced that sealed bids will be taken Nov. 4 for the sale of a single family, three bedroom home at 609 S. Pearl St.

Home will go to the highest bidder. A minimum bid of $4,000 will be accepted. Terms will be for land contract at 9½ percent interest, with the stipulation that the home be repaired.

A list of these basic repairs and bid forms are available at Tecumseh City Hall.

An open house will be held Oct. 28 from 9 a.m. to noon and Oct. 31 from 1 to 4 p.m. for inspection of the home by prospective bidders.

The home was acquired by the city from the federal department of Housing and Urban Development. The city wants to see the home repaired and back on the tax rolls, told assistant city manager Paul Preston.

"The repairs are pretty basic," said Preston. "Exterior condition is not bad. It could be a home for a small family willing to do a little work," he commented.

TA Project Is Surprise

Tecumseh school board members were surprised to learn that a memorial to the late Dwight Helms is being erected at Tecumseh Acres by the PTO.

Members did not object to the memorial, only to the fact that they were not consulted by principal Pete Clark.

Asst. Supt. Gene Cooley told the board, "I only found out about it 10 days ago."

Several members suggested that other schools in the district be made aware that the school board must be notified of such projects.

Supt. Duhan said later that the memorial will consist of a signboard of some type.

School Officials in Disagreement

by Frank Weir

After a lively discussion between school board member William Macbeth and Asst. Supt. Gene Cooley, board members approved the purchase of two half-ton pick-up trucks Monday night.

Macbeth was the only member voting against the purchase.

Cooley told the board that the district now owns two 1969 vans, one of which is no longer "roadworthy." One van has over 60,000 miles the other just under 60,000 Cooley said.

The vans are used by district maintenance personnel.

Cooley asked the board for approval of the purchase of two pick-ups. The van in poor shape would be traded while the other would be kept. The district also owns a 1966 Ford Bronco used by maintenance personnel.

Macbeth questioned the need for two new trucks and wondered whether a used truck might suffice. Macbeth stressed that the two trucks amounted to a 14 percent increase in the districts vehicle fleet.

"I think its a justified increase," Cooley said.

Macbeth quickly replied, "I guess I don't agree. We can get the job done without going first class. I think there's a better way to do it."

After a roll call vote, the purchase was approved with Macbeth voting nay.

The low bid of $7,400 was submitted by Erb Chevrolet-Buick and the board accepted it. Les Dallas bid $7,834, and Underwood Chevy-Olds-Pontiac, $7,846.

Board members also discussed the possibility of purchasing $12,121 insulated food truck to transport food from the high school kitchen to the junior high. School officials made the proposal thinking that eventually the schools will have to transport lunch to all the elementary schools as mandated by the legislature last year.

Currently, a station wagon is used to transport the food, something the health department frowns upon, Cooley said. Cooley stated that the health department allows it since the distance is so short.

But, he went on to say that if food had to go to the elementary schools, the district would probably have to make other arrangements.

Macbeth asked whether one of the new pick-ups could be used for hauling food and Cooley replied, "It can be."

Macbeth went on to say, "I think for the potential of (using the special truck) for 300 hours a year and to tie up $12,000 is ridiculous."

Board members decided to hold off the purchase of the insulated truck and to study the situation further.

The board unanimously approved the purchase of four bus chasis at a total cost of $40,820 from Tecumseh Equipment.

Unhappy!

School district officials are "very dissatisfied" with the progress of the high school addition.

Asst. Supt. Cooley told school board members Monday night that the outside brick work and asphalting has been completed but windows are not slated for delivery until mid-November.

Cooley went on to say, "We wish it were done, it should be done, but it isn't."

He went on to say that the pole barn at the high school is near completion except for downspouts and gutters and some electrical work. It should be completed in two weeks he said.

Volunteers Are Sought

New residents of Tecumseh historic homes and any city resident is welcome to volunteer to work with the Tecumseh Historic District Study Committee to prepare an ordinance for a voluntary historic district.

The first opportunity to organize will be Oct. 25 at 7:30 p.m. at the Tecumseh Public Library when the Tecumseh Area Historical Society will meet.

Anyone who would like to volunteer but cannot attend Tuesday's meeting should leave their name and address with the librarians or with Mrs. Carlton Cook, Historic District Study commiitee chairman, 423-2393.

Expand Food Line at THS

Tecumseh students will have a greater selection of food when they purchase a Type A meal by next spring, the school board learned Monday.

The board heard a report on the implementation of ARA Food Services from company representative, Sandra Romanchuk.

Romanchuk told the board that the food service would like to implement a "rainbow" plan for Type A meals. The plan will allow a greater selection.

Asst. Supt. Cooley told the board that an average of 502 students were served per day during the first 19 days of school.

Accept Bid

Tecumseh City Council accepted Monday night the bid of Smith Nursery for $1,500 for landscaping of the new addition to city hall with 61 plants.

Council rejected the lower bid of $1,411 for 44 plants from Spielman's Nursery.

Bag Pickups Start Monday

Leaf bag pickup in the City of Tecumseh begins Monday, Oct. 24 and will continue through the week.

City crews will try to cover the entire city each day. Brush and limbs will also be picked up and the city said it has plenty of leaf bags for residents.

'IRENE' OPENS — A light-hearted comedy-romance, "Irene," opens this Friday night at the Community Center with performances of the musical also scheduled for Saturday evening and next week, Oct. 27-28-29. Cast includes Tecumseh Players' oldtimer, Dr. Carlton Cook, above, as Madame Lucy. Linda Baaske, Sue Gross of Adrian, Lisa Bush and Renee Lapham are "the debutantes." Special senior citizens night is Friday, Oct. 21.

Five Accidents Are Investigated, One Injured

Only five accidents were investigated the past week with one involving personal injury and two others with drivers charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Last Wednesday, Kathryn V. Mercer, 24, Columbus, Ga., was westbound on W. Logan St. and failed to stop at the street's intersection of N. Union St.

Kevin Murphy, 19, of 4179 Dillingham Dr., northbound on N. Union, crashed into the Mercer car, sending the driver and a passenger, Scott Laslo, 13, of 408 W. Kilbuck, to Herrick Hospital with minor injuries.

Mercer was cited for a stop sign violation.

Other accidents were:

Oct. 15 — Ella R. Cook, 50, of 401 Seneca, turned in front of Thomas J. McKenzie, 21, of 506 N. Evans, at the intersection of W. Chicago Blvd. and N. Union St. She was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

Oct. 15 - Robert D. Meadows, 24, of 6907 Coach Lite Dr., was westbound on W. Chicago Blvd. where he struck the median and a street sign. He failed to stop and report the mishap and was arrested later by police, who charged him with DUIL.

Oct. 16 - William M. Goodrich, 32, of 110 N. Maumee, reported his vehicle damaged while parked on the street.

Oct. 19 — Randy R. Arnett, 19, of 708 S. Occidental, pulled out of a parking place downtown Tecumseh and struck parked vehicles owned by Paul R. Randall, 24, of 803 River Acres Dr., and Carol Sue Hunt, 27, Adrian. Arnett was cited for DUIL.

City Council Welcomes Scout Pack

As one of its more pleasant ceremonial functions, Tecumseh City Council welcomed the Webelos Den 3 of Scout Pack 73 Monday night.

Seven members attended to earn their citizenship badges. They were accompanied by den leader Larry Bauman and assistant den leader Mary May.

Also in the audience were Vi and Bill Sigmund, owners of the McDonalds restaurant and manager Jim Abbs. They thanked the city for its support.

Talking It Out

LESTER D. PROCTOR

"What should I look for in a nursing home?"

People often tell us about their experiences with nursing homes. We have some very fine ones in our city and these are just some of the things to look for in choosing a nursing home.
1. Consult first with your doctor as to the particular type and amount of care required.
2. Visit the facility yourself, alone.
3. Does the home provide all the services your doctor requires?
4. If the patient is dependent on Medicare or Medicaid, does the nursing home participate in both programs?
5. Obtain and read the "patient's Bill of Rights." This is posted conspicuously and it gives the regulations necessary to be certified for Medicare and Medicaid.
6. Who is the "house" doctor? Is he available on staff or on-call 24-hours? How many registered nurses?
7. Are emergency patient transfer to a hospital provided for? How far away is it?
8. What is the exact total monthly covered and what is and is NOT covered? Is a written basic service agreement available?
Be sure to discuss with the patient's doctor other special services he may require — special diet, excercise, personal attention, etc.

Penterics, Samples Recite Vows

St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church was the setting Oct. 8, for the marriage of Diane Lynn Penterics, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Penterics and Michael Gordon Samples, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Samples of Clinton.

Msgr. Vincent J. Howard officiated the ceremony.

The bride wore an ivory silk organza gown, trimmed with Venice lace and accented with pearls and pearl sequins. It was designed with a wedding band neckline, princess silhouette and bishop sleeves. Her matching bouffant floor-length veil was held in place with a Venice-lace, Camelot cap.

Christine Ann Penterics served as maid of honor for her sister. The bridesmaids were Virginia Samples, Cathie Hartung, Mrs. Rosemary Bush and Cathy Kershner.

Her attendants were all gowned alike in an apricot knit gown with matching stoles. Their flowers accented the apricot gowns.

The best man was William Samples, brother of the groom. The ushers were David Brian Penterics, Kip Jaros, Daryl Lukasik and Chuck Warner.

The reception was held at the United Products Workers Hall. Guests were from Detroit, Plymouth, Livonia, Ann Arbor, Troy, Grosse Pointe, Flint, Ohio, Indiana, Florida and Illinois.

Mrs. Samples is a 1974 graduate of Clinton High School and is employed at the University of Michigan Medical School. Mr. Samples is a 1972 graduate of Plymouth High School and Detroit Engineering Institute. He is general manager of Oak Tree, Inc.

The couple honeymooned in Florida. Upon their return, they will reside at their home in Tecumseh.

MR. and MRS. MICHAEL SAMPLES

MR. and MRS. MARK OSBURN

Linda L. Hardy, Mark Osburn Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Osburn are now at home at 50 Broadway, Apt. 18 in Beverly, Mass. after their Aug. 20 marriage at the First Congregational Church in Essex, Mass.

Linda Lorraine Hardy, daughter of Frank I. and Lorraine Hardy of Essex, Mass. and Mark Douglas Osburn, the son of Raymond C. and Pearl Osburn of 231 Park St. exchanged their wedding vows in the presence of Arther Wonson, pastor.

Betsy Wallis was the organist. The groom sang the Lord's Prayer. Garden flowers, arranged by the bride's aunt, Joan Colby, decorated the altar.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white sheer gown trimmed with floral Venice lace. The empire bodice featured an illusion neckline, bishop sleeves, Venice lace appliques. The A-line skirt, with garlands of lace, swept into a chapel length train.

Her cathedral veil with lace appliques was secured by a matching Camelot headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations, stephanotis, yellow roses and ivy.

Diane Patrican of Essex, Mass was the matron of honor attired in a sleeveless gown with white bodice and floral skirt with matching jacket. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis, blue baby's breath, white daisies and yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Denise King of Essex, Mass. and Cindy Donovan of Beverly, Mass., attired as the matron of honor.

Richard Kevin Osburn, the groom's brother of Tecumseh was the best man. Raymond Charles Osburn Jr. the groom's brother of Waterford, Jeffrey Brown Osburn the groom's brother of Goffstown, N.H., Frank I. Hardy Jr. and Roger N. Hardy, the bride's brotherssof Essex, Mass. were ushers.

The reception was held at The Surf in Magnolia, Mass.

Hurricane lamps arranged with yellow mums, white daisies and blue bachelor buttons decorated the bride's table.

Special guests included Mrs. Lillis Dolan of Seattle, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. William Powell, Mrs. James C. Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Osburn, all of Tecumseh; Mr. and Mrs. William Squires and son, Dennis of Fenton.

The new Mrs. Osburn is a graduate of Ricker College in Maine, a member of Phi Omega Chi sorority and a sales manager for Jordan Marsh Co.

Mr. Osburn is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University and is a buyer of the Jordan Marsh Co.

His parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Easterly Inn in Gloucester, Mass.

After their wedding, the couple vacationed at Englewood, Fla. for 10 days.

Wedding Set in Irish Hills

Jo Hubbard and Bob Bolenbaugh were married Oct. 1 at 6 p.m in St. Joseph's Hall, Irish Hills with the Rev. William Harvey, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn, officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hubbard of Onsted and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bolenbaugh of Adrian.

Bridesmaids were Jackie Armovit, Julie Sayles and flower girl Heidi Hubbard.

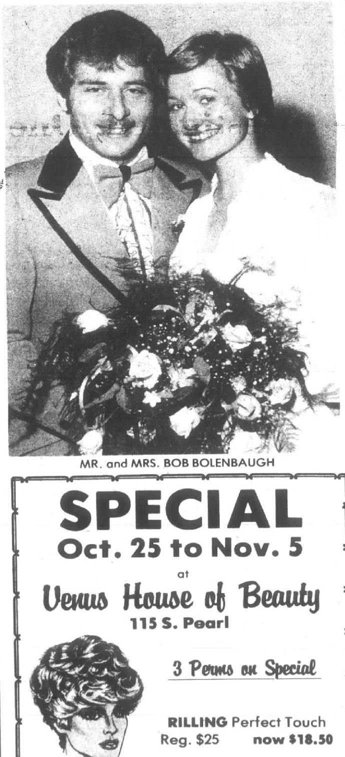
Mike Stienle of Addison was the best man. Ushers were Greg Hawes and the groom's brother, Jim Bolenbaugh of Addison, Tim and Tom Hubbard and Bob Hubbard, ring beraer, the bride's brother of Onsted.

The reception for 250 guests was held at the St. Joseph Hall.

Guests attended from New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Florida, Brooklyn, Onsted, Addison, Bay City and Tecumseh.

The bride was graduated from Onsted High School, and is employed as a secretary at Hubbard Apiaries.

The groom was graduated from Addison High School and is employed as a car salesman at Gambles High Point.



MR. and MRS. BOB BOLENBAUGH

Hall, Sheehan Nuptials in N.C.

Guests from Michigan and Florida attended the marriage of Janice Elaine Sheehan and David Lee Hall on Oct. 8 at 3 p.m. in the Allen's Creek Baptist Church, Waynesville, N.C.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Charles Sheehan of Waynesville, N.C. and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Douglas Hall of Largo, Fla., formerly of Tecumseh.

Carl Presnell, assisted by Jerry Ensley, the bride's uncle, officiated the ceremony.

Pam Jenkins was organist and Danny Mills and Jo Ann Walker were musicians. Before her vows, the bride presented a long stemmed yellow rose to her mother. Afterward, the couple presented a long stemmed rose to the groom's mother.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a cathedral gown of white sheer organza and imported Chantilly Lace. It was styled with a high neckline, sunburst yoke and basque bodice. The skirt was tiered with lace and formed the cathedral train. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Her veil of French silk illusion was edged in matching lace.

Kathy Farrell of Knoxville, Tenn., the bride's sister, was matron of honor. Gloria Buchanan of Waynesville, N.C. was the maid of honor. Both were attired in satin gowns of green and yellow respectively with empire waistlines, sheer floral sleeves and V-necklines. They wore matching picture hats and carried long stemmed mums.

Barbara Phillips of Miami, Fla. served as a bridesmaid, wearing a yellow gown and carrying a yellow long stemmed mum.

Russell Douglas Hall, the groom's father, was the best man. Gary Hall, the groom's brother of Waynesville, N.C., Bill Sterrett of Warren, Penn., Patrick O'Neil, the groom's nephew and Russell May, of Asheville, N.C., the groom's cousin, were ushers.

Jodi Lynn O'Neill, the groom's niece, was the flower girl and Will Taylor, the bride's cousin was the ring bearer.

Piedmont Inn, in Waynesville, N.C. was the site of the reception.

The couple attended Haywood Technical Institute and the bride was graduated from Tuscola High School in 1974 and the groom was graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1971. He is employed by Taylor Motor Co. in Waynesville, N.C.

Randy Work Wins Jackpot

Randy Work, formerly of Tecumseh and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Work of 711 Adrian St., was the jackpot winner in the "Bowling for Dollars" television program recently.

Show will be aired Thursday on Channel 4 at 7 p.m.

Randy was entered in the program by his mother, Eva Work. He will share his $1,000 prize with a viewer "Pen Pal." To win the jackpot, Randy bowled two consecutive strikes.

"He was on top of the world," said his father, Glen, who is employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. "Not a bad prize for a Friday afternoon's work."

Randy and his wife, Marilyn, reside in Wayne with their two children, Amy, 3 and Jennifer, 5. He is employed as a teacher in Taylor.

800 Years of Silver at Toledo Art Museum

by Kathy Brown

Oct. 7 was the gala opening of the landmark international exhibition, Silver for the Gods: 800 Years of Greek and Roman Silver. It continues at the Toledo Museum of Art through Nov. 20.

Over 140 objects of ancient Greek and Roman silver from major museum and private collections in Europe and America were assembled for the first time.

Never before has such a major group of ancient silver masterpieces from the age of Perikles to Constantine been collected.

The festive evening began in the Great Gallery with a brief introductory program. After viewing the exhibition, members and guests were invited to have refreshments and meet the guests from European and American museums.

The exhibition is the first international loan exhibition of Greek and Roman silver ever organized. The Museum staff worked for over three years in preparing the catalogue and arranging for the loans of these pieces.

After its world premiere in Toledo, the exhibition will travel to the William Rockhill Nelson Gallery of Art and Atkins Museum of Fine Arts, Kansas City, Mo., and the Kimbell Museum of Art in Fort Worth, Texas.

Admission to the exhibit is free on Fridays.

Special illustrated lectures are offered at the Little Theater on Oct. 20 at 7:30 p.m. Andrew Oliver, Jr., director of The Textile Museum, Washington, D.C. will speak on "Silver for the Gods: 800 Years of Greek and Roman Silver."

Oct. 30 at 2 p.m. "Bacchus and His Drinking Vessels" will be the subject discussed by Dorothy Kent Hill, recently retired curator of ancient art at the Walters Art Gallery.

The Toledo museum is located at 2445 Monroe St. in Toledo, Ohio. Hours of the exhibit are: 9-4:30 Tuesday through Saturday and 1-4:30 Sunday and Monday. For more information call the museum at 1-419-255-8000.

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

Quick breads are a favorite fall treat and this apple and witch's nut bread are both typically autumn. Delicious.

APPLE BREAD

One-third cup shortening
2 eggs
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons sour milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
2 cup chopped apples
½ cup nut meats
Topping:
2 tablespoons margarine
4 tablespoons sugar
2 teaspoon cinnamon

Cream shortening and sugar. Add eggs, milk and vanilla, and mix well. Add flour, soda and salt. Add chopped apples and nut meats last. Pour into greased loaf pan and sprinkle on topping. Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour.

Get into the spirit of Halloween by baking Jean Dellecese's Old Witch's Magic Nut Bread.

OLD WITCH'S MAGIC NUT BREAD

3 eggs
1 pound can pumpkin
¾ cup vegetable oil
½ cup water
2½ flour
2¼ cup sugar
1½ teaspoon baking soda
1¼ teaspoon salt
¾ teaspoon nutmeg
¾ teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup raisins
½ to 1 cup chopped nuts

Beat together eggs, pumpkin, oil and water. Mix in dry ingredients, adding raisins and nuts last.

Pour batter into three buttered 1 pound coffee cans (½ full) and place in oven standing up. Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour and 15 minutes (or until straw from witch's broom comes out clean.) Frost or sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Girl Scout Leaders Organize

Oct. 12 Tecumseh Community Association Girl Scout Leaders met at the home of Mrs. Donald Escott, chairperson. Ten new leaders were introduced.

Mrs. Glen Klingensmith, troop organizer received special thanks for her efforts.

All girls from last year and all new girls to date have been placed in troops.

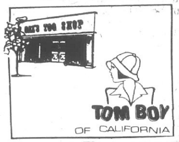
If by chance, a girl has been overlooked please call Mrs. Klingensmith, 423-7836.

Anyone still interested in being a leader or co-leader can still join the group.

Mrs. James Bick, trainer, and Ms. Sandy Seals, council program director, presented a program explaining "New Worlds to Explore."

A film strip and game were also included in the training session for 22 members of all levels of scouting.

Marilyn DeShano, calendar chairperson, reported on the annual sale. Sale starts Oct. 14. Thirty cents per dollar is the troop profit.



Clarence Hall Has a Match

In a June issue of The Tecumseh Herald, reporter Kathy Brown told the story of Clarence Hall, 84, Macon Cemetery sexton for 60 years. When she told him she wanted to find out if he held some kind of record, he replied "Get to it" and she did.

A dozen letters and half as many months later, Kathy found that such information isn't widely known. However, she did find Dudley Clapp, 89, of South Windsor, Conn. who still hand digs graves after more than 60 years in the business. He buried his mother, father, wife and many friends, works seven days a week at times and has no plans to retire.

Following are excerpts from Dudley's reply:

My Dear Katherine Brown,

How surprised and pleased I was to receive your letter of Sept. 1. No, indeed, I did not think at the time of my interview with the reporter from our "Hartford Courant" that my picture and story would travel as far as it has nor that it would prompt such response.

I really am at a loss to explain why what service I have been able to render to others is such a curiosity. Contrary to what is now occuring, the past never paid too much attention to we "grave diggers".

As a matter of fact, people have had a certain reticence about the subject. This had led me into many peculiar situations: some humorous, some sad and some embarrassing. I am sure that your Mr. Hall knows whereof I speak, and that he can understand my present state of wonderment.

Incidently, extend to him my congratulations upon his attainment of 60 years of understanding, personal service to the many families who left their loved ones in that "home of the departed" which it is his privilege to maintain.

What we both evidently feel is important is the quality of our work, the satisfaction and peace of mind we offer to the living, and too, the respect and care rendered to the resting places of those who have "run the reace and kept the faith", whether their whole generation has followed them or if they were stranger and alone in the world, or if there still be those who come to stand in quietness.

I have no personal knowledge of others with tenure as a sexton, such as Mr. Hall, or as a grave digger such as I. A "caretaker" in my area, 93 years of age, recently died. He, as your see, was older than me, but his tenure was of 34 years.

I do not know where one would get such information. Perhaps others will come forth due to the stories in our two papers. If so, I will not be unhappy. I hope there are others who have that honor in serving which Mr. Hall and I share.

All this noteriety is a bit disturbing to me. I have no desire to be singled out as a holder of a record. I am pleased to tell Mr. Hall's story to others. God has blessed me with "fullness of years", and I have done what I could in them. That is all. No more, please!

I am sure other men in the past labored as long as we and, perhaps, as was a custom, handed the job over to a son or another relative. But the long, long tenures, I believe, will be ended soon.

It is a matter of economics and of "greener pastures" for today's young folks; and society's values and practices are changing so rapidly. I don't know what directions, and, at the last,. in determining the need for continuing the likes of one such as Clarence Hall and Dudley Clapp.

NOSTALGIA TRIP

A church steeple, spearing the sky! What does it do for you?

All across the country, slender church spires punctuate the landscape. To many of us, they are a part of the scenery, like autumn foliage, rolling hills and city streets.

To some of us, they bring back memories of childhood. Sunday. Going to church. Something many of us have gotten away from.

Yet with or without us the Church is still standing, the steeple is still there. But without any of us those spires would most certainly disappear. There would be a void. Do you really want this to happen? Something to think about, isn't it? It is certainly something to explore.

Through My Window
by Marda Gene Duncan

Supposedly I was reading. I was wearing my reading glasses and the latest issue of "The National Geographic" was propped on my reading table. The article about wolves was most interesting. However, a commotion on the near-my-window feeders attracted my attention and suddenly all concerned about the wolf population disappeared.

A gang of chickadees came bouncing down out of the nearby maple trees. Cute little sassy characters, they were bubbling over with high spirits. I have always maintained that no birds can hold a candle to the black-capped chickadees when it comes to infectious joy-of-living attitudes. They are happy with the world and after observing them a few minutes so too is the bird-watcher.

Bad weather bothers them not a whit but fortunately, this particular day was sunny and warm, a rather rare occurence this fall. In squeaky little high-pitched voices they gossiped about the latest comings and goings in the chickadee world. Hopefully they also decided that the Duncans' bill-of-fare was quite tasty and perhaps it would be a good place to dine all winter.

While all of this was going on a pair of neat and dapper tufted titmice dropped in for a leisurely snack. A snack plus a bit of gossip too. Soon the birds were flying back and forth between the trees and the feeders.

With this kind of action it is hardly surprising that few pages were turned in the magazine. After all, I can read when there are not black-capped chickadees and tufted titmice to enjoy.

Oops, what was that? A something small and rather dark came out of the shrubbry and began investigating the sunflower seeds on the food tray. It took only a quick look to recognize a newcomer.

And how nice to know immediately who he was. A red-breasted nuthatch! A first of the season. While he tested the big black seeds with his nuthatchish bill, I had a good look at him.

This is a nice bird, about four inches long, with a dark bluish-gray back and a reddish-tinged front. His short blunt squared-off tail had small outer corners of white. His head was attractively marked with a dark stripe through his eyes and a white line above the eyes.

This is by far the earliest that we have ever hosted one of these birds. Actually we don't even start looking for them until Old Man Winter starts kicking up his heels.

A quick check of the bird book though and this little guy knew what he was doing. Red-breasted nuthatches are notoriously early migrators—wonder why they usually don't get here until late?

As birds who raise their families in the conifer forests of the north, the red-breasteds head south in mid-summer and may travel into the far south, or on the other hand, might just decide to trip no farther than Michigan. Our fingers are crossed for the latter of course.

We will gladly feed them sunflower seeds and suet. And since the parents are apt to stay together after the kids are out on their own, it is possible that we may entertain two red-breasteds. She will be a little less colorful than the male I saw — her back will be a duller bluish-gray and her front will be a lighter reddish-tan.

A pair of red-breasted nuthatches would be a super addition to the bird feeders this winter. And if they should hang around with the chickadees and titmice my reading may continue to be disrupted and I will not complain a bit.

DAR Examines Biblical Gems

"Gemstones of the Bible" was the program delivered by Lawrence Pate at the Oct. 14 meeting of the Abi Evans Chapter Daughter of the American Revolution at the home of Mrs. Edwin McClain.

He researched the stones of the breastplate worn by Aaron as described in Exodus and Revelations, namely sardius, topaz, garnet, emerald, sapphire, diamond, jacinth agate, amethyist, beryl, onyx and jasper.

The women viewed samples of these gems that he gathered in the Holy Land and other countries.

The regent, Mrs. Frank Vanderlinden, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Donald Smith, chaplain, gave a tribute to deceased member Mrs. Fred Schober.

Mrs. Neil Pearson gave the "defense talk" about education today and where it is leading us.

Delegates to the state convention held in Flint in late September were Irene Wisner, Mrs. Ellisworth Robinson and Mrs. Jennings Frayer.

Band Participates in All-County Festival

BRITTON — The Britton-Macon High School Band, performed in the annual Lenawee County Marching Band Festival Oct. 4 at Tecumseh's Indian Stadium playing popular hits of recent years.

For its performance the 38-member Britton Band marched out on the field in four straight lines and each rotated at different yard lines, creating a criss cross march.

After playing their first piece in this formation, they changed to their concert formation and played a selection. For their final number the band went into formation of a stick person.

Selections played were "What You Gonna Do When The Rent Comes 'Round," "Workin' Song," and "Stand Tall.".

When the microphone system failed, drum major, Julie DeJonghe continued leading the performance without hesitation, and kept the band performing within its alloted time span, avoiding a penalty.

Proceeds will be divided among the 12 participating bands and used to establish scholarship funds.

Clinton Cagers Dominate

Clinton's girls basketball squad continues to dominate its opponents winning two more and running its record to 9-0.

The Redskins defeated Columbia Central 59-32 last Thursday and Waldron 58-40 on Monday of this week.

The Skins had their first string in against Waldron in just the second and third frames. They outscored their opponents 43-20 in those periods.

They also outrebounded Waldron 49-33 with JoAnn Grossman leading the way with 13.

Sue Richter led in scoring with 19 and Karen Busch had 13.

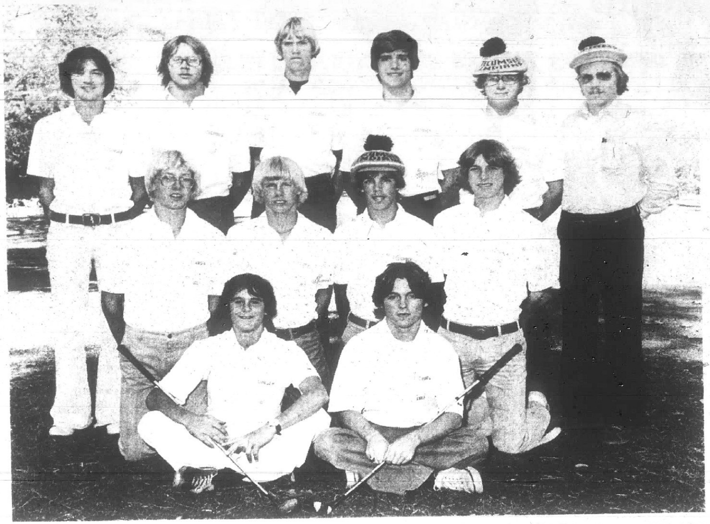
The junior varsity also won 34-11.

The Redskins outscored Columbia Central 12-7 in the first frame. Columbia Central fought back in the second period but were still outscored 15-12 by the Skins.

In the third period, Clinton came up with 18 markers to just four for the opposition. The Redskins hit on nine of 11 shots from the field during that period.

Sue Richter led in scoring with 20. Jo Ann Grossman had 13 of Clinton's 57 rebounds. Columbia Central had 26 carooms.

The Skins travel to Manchester this Thursday and to Addison next Monday.



UNDEFEATED IN LEAGUE — Tecumseh's golf team posts an unblemished 6-0 record in the Huron League. This Saturday they will participate in the state Class B meet at Portland. The team is, l-r, first row, Larry LaVoy, Barry Barnhart; second row, David Erb, Kevin Koszka, Ron Smith, John Faulkner; third row, Keith Bauman, Mike Gower, Mark Colson, Dave Graf, John Paxton, coach Paul Cunningham.

THS Golfers Qualify for State Tourney

Tecumseh's golfers came up with a 155-175 win over Monroe Jefferson last Wednesday and took second out of 24 teams at the Class B regional tourney at Green Oaks in Ypsilanti Friday.

By virtue of the second place finish, the Indians will be going to the state tourney this Saturday at Portland. This marks the third year in a row that the Indians have qualified for the state tournament.

The Indians came in with a 341 score at the regionals to tie with Riverview Gabriel Richard.

Tecumseh won a sudden death playoff 20-21 on the first hole. Grosse Ile was number one with a 335 tally.

Dave Graf and Kevin Koszka tied for fourth place overall with 82's. Keith Bauman shot an 87 while John Faulkner had a 90. Meet medalist Mark Dingman from Milan fired a 75. All Tecumseh golfers received second place medals.

Dave Graf shot a 34 against Monroe Jefferson although he suffered from a broken finger at the time. Keith Bauman had a 38 while John Faulkner had a 41 and Kevin Koszka a 42.

The Indians now have a Huron League record of 6-0, 8-5 overall. This Wednesday, the team participates in the league meet and the state meet Saturday.

Jacobs Top Man for Toledo

Doug Jacobs was top man for Toledo University in its golf match against Bowling Green State University recently.

The match consisted of 54 holes played at Toledo, Bowling Green and Tecumseh Country Club. Toledo lost.

Jacobs was five down going into the final round. He ended one shot under the top man, Pat Dugan of Bowling Green.

Dugan shot a 228 and Jacobs, 229.

The match was the finale to the golf season for Toledo University.

THS GIRLS BASKETBALL — Tecumseh's girls basketball squad lost to Grosse Ile Tuesday but is tied for second place in the league. The girls are, l-r, first row, Vicki Broderick, Kelly Kruger; second row, Gloria Fosbender, Janice Jahner, Ginger Turner, Jill Greenfield; third row, Sandy MacGeorge, Robin Isom, Grace Burns, Debbie Steadly, Kerry Hamilton, Coach Diane Nelson. Morenci Blanked by Redskins

Clinton's gridders came up with 223 yards rushing on their way to blanking Morenci 22-0 Friday.

Casey Thilo got things underway with an 18 yard run in the first quarter running in the extra points as well. A Morenci fumble set up the scoring drive.

The Skins went 62 yards on their first drive of the second half with Thilo going two yards for the score. The attempted run by Terry Carlton came up short.

Clinton capped off the night in the final quarter after the Skins grabbed a fumbled fake-punt try at the 11 yard line. Eric Pratt went the final two yards for the score. The run failed.

Morenci had 174 yards rushing, 69 yards through the air. Clinton had 15 yards passing. The Bulldogs lost three fumbles while Clinton also lost four fumbles.

Clinton posts a 3-2 record in the LCAA while Addison and Blissfield each are 3-1. This Friday the Skins host Grass Lake.

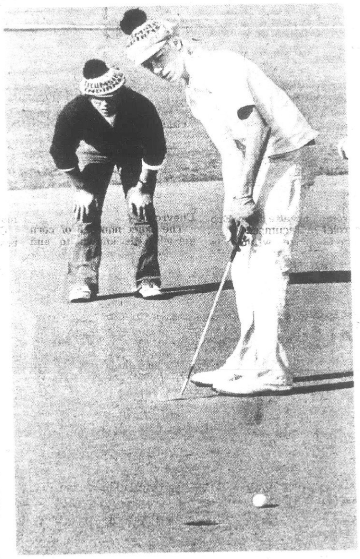
Eggleston Stars at Adrian

Kevin Eggleston, Tecumseh graduate and now middle guard on Adrian College's grid squad, recovered an Alma fumble during an Adrian-Alma contest recently.

The Adrian Bulldogs won the match-up 34-8.

Eggleston grabbed the fumble at Alma's 32-yard line setting up an Adrian touchdown seven plays later.



THS Cagers Fall to Grosse Ile

Tecumseh's girl cagers couldn't find the basket for three periods at Grosse Ile Tuesday night of this week and lost a squeaker 42-41.

Last Thursday the girls beat Airport 65-23.

The loss, the Indians first league defeat, put them in a tie with St. Mary's for second place. Grosse Ile takes over the top spot with a 5-0 mark. Tecumseh is 4-1.

"We couldn't hit the broad side of a barn," coach Nelson said about the loss. Tecumseh was outscored 7-4 in the first period but played even 12-12 in the second frame.

They ran into trouble again in the third period scoring seven to the Red Devil's 12. Although the Indians came up with 18 markers to Grosse Ile's 11 in the fourth, they were still just short of victory.

Overall, Tecumseh shot 24 percent from the field making only six of 24 in the first half and nine of 33 in the second half. Grosse Ile didn't do that much better completing 31 percent.

Tecumseh made nine of their foul shots while the opposition had 10.

The orange and black had 38 rebounds to Grosse Ile's 33.

Nelson went on to say, "Robin Isom fouled out early in the fourth quarter and that hurt us defensively. We needed her experience. We just couldn't hit. If we had played the first three quarters like we did the fourth we would have won. But our schedule is a round robin this year so we have another shot at them at home later."

The junior varsity won 42-20.

The Indians defeated Airport 65-23 last Thursday.

Tecumseh started the game with a press holding the Jets to just two points the first frame compared to 20 for themselves.

They lengthened the margin to 32-8 at the half.

The Indians nailed 46 percent of their shots from the floor to 14 percent for Airport. The Jets lost the ball 35 times while Tecumseh outrebounded their opponents 38-21.

Janice Jahner led the way in scoring with 15 markers.

The junior varsity also won 40-38.

Tecumseh travels to Carlson this Thursday hosting Monroe Jefferson next Tuesday.

ROBIN ISOM makes a lay-up against the Jets.

Clinton Harriers Tied for LCAA League Title

Clinton's cross country squad had its big showdown with the Manchester Dutchmen on Tuesday of this week and the battle ended in a 28-28 tie.

Manchester and Clinton were tied for the LCAA League lead going into the match and that's the way it will remain until the league meet scheduled for next Wednesday at Hudson.

The Skins took first place out of 14 teams at the Hudson Invitational Saturday.

Both Clinton and Manchester ran well. Six of seven Clinton runners turned in their best performances of the season with Clinton's Mike Risner taking second and setting a school record of 15:40.

Matt Peters was fourth at 15:52, Wally Pike was sixth at 16:26, Mark Prichard seventh at 16:26, Chris Wojtowicz was ninth at 16:40 Devin Schindler was tenth at 16:45 and Matt McNeil was 12th at 17:09.

At the Hudson Invitational Saturday, Clinton beat 13 other teams with 80 points. Riverview Gabriel Richard was second at 87 and Tecumseh third at 111.

Mike Risner finished fourth for Clinton at 15:58. Matt Peters was sixth at 16:07, Wally Pike 15th at 16:26, Mark Prichard 19th at 16:37 and Chris Wojtowicz 36th at 17:09.

This Saturday the Redskins attend the Manchester Invitational and then the league meet at Hudson next Wednesday.

Clinton posts a 4-0-1 league record tied with Manchester. Overall the Redskins are 6-1-1 while Manchester is 7-0-1.

Tories Triumph Over Madison

Britton evened its Tri-County League mark at 2-2 with a 26-13 win over Madison in grid action Friday.

The Tories started the scoring in the first frame when Jeff Osterhout ran 24 yards for the score. The run failed. Madison came back with seven points in the second frame.

After the half, Osterhout was on the move again going yards and then running in the extra points. Madison added six points on their behalf in the third frame.

In the final quarter, Randy Smith went 11 yards and Osterhout 47 for the final scoring.

Britton rolled up 340 yards on the ground with Osterhout donating the lion's share with 275. Madison had 213 yards rushing.

The Tories had 16 first downs to 12 for the Trojans.

Britton hosts Summerfield this Friday. Summerfield is 4-0 in the league behind Sand Creek which posts a 5-0 mark. Britton is in fourth place.

Indian Thinclads Are 5-1

Tecumseh's cross country squad defeated Carlson 23-35 last Thursday and took third at the Hudson Booster Invitational Saturday.

The Indians had 111 points at Hudson trailing winner Clinton with 80 points and Riverview Gabriel Richard with 87.

Brian Banda finished eighth at 16:13. Doug Bohannon was ninth, Jesse Castorena 30th, Scott Betzoldt 31st and Scott Winstead 33rd.

Against Carlson, Doug Bohannon won the race with a time of 15:54. Brian Banda was fourth Jessee Castorena fifth, Kirk Oliver sixth and Scott Betzoldt seventh.

The Indians are now 5-1 in the Huron League 6-3 overall.

Francisco Takes First

Mike Francisco, winner here in the 13-year-old group of the annual Punt, Pass & Kick Contest, won first place Saturday at Albion and will compete again this Saturday at Lansing.

Others from Tecumseh competing Saturday failed to take a first place and a chance to compete at Lansing.

JEFF ANDERSON PLOWS TOWARD GROSSE ILE LAST FRIDAY.

THS Gridders Blast Grosse Ile

Tecumseh's gridders remained tied with Monroe CC after downing Grosse Ile 34-0. CC also won it's match 12-7 over Monroe Jefferson.

Grosse Ile occupies the Huron League cellar with a dismal 0-5 mark.

The Indians got underway in the first period when Jeff Hans blocked a Red Devils punt. Jeff Robideau later went two yards for the first score of the contest.

The orange and black added 15 markers in the second period when Jeff Anderson went three yards and Hans, nine. Richard Cangley took a pass from Hans to convert the extra points on the Anderson touchdown while Robideau kicked succesfully on the other.

The Indian defense held Grosse Ile to 26 yards in 25 carries for the entire game. John Egbert ran eight yards for a score early in the final staza while Robideau went one yard for the final score of the game.

In what has become almost commonplace, Jeff Anderson led in rushing with 104 yards. Tom Chatters and Bill Tooman each had 17 tackles.

The Indians had 188 yards on the ground adding 156 through the air. Grosse Ile had 93 yards passing. Tecumseh also dominated the first downs statistics with 15 to four for the opposition.

The Indians host Carlson this Friday for homecoming. Carlson posts a 2-3 league mark.

Score By Quarters
Tecumseh 6 15 0 13—34
Grosse Ile 0 0 0 0—0

Judy Governo Wins McDonald's Contest

Judy Governo, 17230 Milwaukee was the grand prize winner of the McDonald's "Win A 1978 Chevette for One Year Contest."

She guessed 41,651 corn kernels in the tee-pee inside the new Tecumseh McDonald's, only 47 off from the actual count of 41,698.

She will have the choice of free use for one year of either a four or two-door 1978 Chevrolet Chevette from Erb Chevrolet in Tecumseh.

Second prize winner is Charles C. Ball, 13120 Sharon Hollow Rd., Manchester who guessed 41,750, only 52 more than the actual count. His prize will be one year's free use of the second 1978 Chevrolet Chevette.

Third prize went to Jim Perrin, 1305 Southwestern Drive. His guess of 41,620 was 78 kernels away from the actual count. His prize is $100 of McDonald's Wampum or 200 50 cent McDonald's gift certificates.

Retail value of the automobiles is $9,576. Value of the lease of both cars for one year is $3,840, compliments of Erb Chevrolet.

The exact number of corn kernels was known to and certified by Henry W. Wolcott Accounting Co., Lansing. Count of kernels was certified, legally notorized and sealed in an envelope on Sept. 22 then deposited in a safe deposit at Midwest Bank, Jackson. It was not opened until 6 p.m. Monday.

Mayor Harold Easton, Police Chief Merlin Mowery and Councilmember James Palmer of the city of Tecumseh witnessed the envelope opening along with store owners Bill and Vi Sigmund of Jackson, Jim Abbs, Tecumseh store manager and other key managers for the Sigmunds.

Contest was open to all residents in Lenawee, Washtenaw, Jackson, Hillsdale and Monroe counties. Only insured, licensed drivers were eligible to win.

Contest officially closed Oct. 16. Six key crew members sorted the some 30,000 entries into stacks by the thousands so that the winners could be quickly known.

"Fifty percent of the entrants guessed way too low," said Manager Jim Abbs, who with his wife, double checked each of the entries the night before. "Only about seven cards guessed in the 41,000 area," Abbs said. Over half guessed between one and 15,000 kernels, he commented.

Reading Skills Stressed

At Tecumseh Junior High - the "3 R's" are stressed - developmental reading, remedial reading, and reading laboratory

Two-thirds of the seventh grade students are involved in one of the three reading programs during the year and the eighth graders with diagnosed reading problems receive laboratory instruction and additional year.

Juanita Becker, a full-time reading teacher, is in charge of the Tecumseh Junior High reading lab. Mrs. Becker spends the first three weeks of each school individually testing and diagnosing all seventh grade students who scored a year or more below grade level in reading on their sixth grade achievement test.

She also tests those students who are recommended by the sixth and seventh grade teachers and parents

Based on these individual tests students are selected for the daily reading lab.

Since each student's problems are unique, individual diagnosis and analysis is necessary before a personalized program can be set up for each student to pursue at his own rate and level in the lab.

"No one 'cure all' method of teaching reading has been discovered," stated Mrs. Becker.

"One student may do best with a visual approach, another student may learn more from an aural (or hearing) one."

Thus the reading lab uses many methods of instruction - programmed learning, linguistics, language experience, audio visual aids, and individualized reading.

Phonics drills are stressed and use is made of a controlled reader to improve eye span, rate and accuracy.

Visual perception training is provided by use of the tachistoscope and programmed materials. A collection of special books films and casettes, developed to interest junior high school students provide the instruction materials in a simplified form.

Dale Harvey and Nancy Stoutenberg each teach one remedial reading class. Students use the same materials and lesson plans as lab students.

In the nine week developmental reading classes, students read library books under the direction of their teachers Joyce Costigan and Boniface Duritsky.

Students strive to improve their rate and comprehension. The main objective of these classes is to help students enjoy recreational reading and to read a variety of books.

"Tecumseh Junior High strives to improve reading by teaching and reteaching phonics, word attack and comprehension skills in each of its three reading programs," said Mrs. Becker.

The final goal of the program is to get students to read - and to enjoy it.

TUTORETTE MACHINE — Remedial reading teacher Juanita Becker looks on while student Jeff Escott uses the tutorette machine at the junior high. Programmed materials are prepared for the machine and words and sentences are put on a tape. The student can hear the teacher's voice and then his to see if he reads it correctly. The machine and another with it was donated by the DeJonghe family in memory of their son Eric. (PHOTO BY FRANK WEIR) extra space in your garage and room for your car, too

Your garage can provide the space for a sewing center—or be adapted to another hobby, too. The work table rolls where you need it and is the right height for stand-up cutting and pinning. The storage wall has a closet for hanging, plus drawers and cabinets galore, with swingout baskets to catch scraps and mending.

The plan shows how neatly a room like this, or the mudroom opposite, fits into one quarter of a double garage. You need build only two partition walls, indicated by the heavy black lines.

Russell Cooper of the St. Johns Church, receiving $2,300; Nancy Warren of the Methodist Church, receiving $2,200; Doris Bauer of the Catholic Church, receiving $2,300; and Joe O'Donnell of the UCC Church, receiving $1,750.

Library Board Cool on Air

CLINTON — Clinton Township Library Board considered a low bid of $2,770 for air-conditioning in the library and meeting room, at the meeting Tuesday.

Vote on the purchase of air-conditioning was defeated 3-2.

Dissenters claimed to have consulted library patrons and determined there was no need for air-conditioning.

One board member suggested the funds should be used, for purchase of more books instead.

Librarian Janet Welch refuted this, saying many books are already being purchased as the need is shown. There are limits to the books display area, she explained.

Those who sought the air-conditioning, noted that it might encourage increased use of the library during the summer.

Mary Croteau, director of the Huron Valley Library System, of which the Clinton Library is a member, mentioned that she knew of only Clinton and one other library, which is not air-conditioned now.

She also commented that for the preservation of the books and materials, air-conditioning is considered a necessity.

The library board has the funds available, but the project was defeated.

Mrs. Croteau, was present to explain Public Act 89 of 1977, which will provide for an increase of state funds for smaller libraries, which will become available in 1978, and increasing in amount in later years.

Crafts Is Topic of Woman's Club

CLINTON — Two handcrafts, the relatively new and American craft of rug hooking and the age old craft of needlepoint, were the topic of interest at the Oct. 15 meeting of the Clinton Woman's Club at the Smith Kimball Community Center.

Anna Mae Waterman told that rug hooking was a strictly American craft and was first practiced out of the necessity to utilize cast off clothing and materials. She exhibited several examples of her own work and work done by Mrs. Harold Hertler, Elsie Helgren and her daughter.

Alice Randall, owner of the Tecumseh Needle Nook talked about the history of needlepoint. Samples of it were found in the Egyptian tombs and the craft flourished during the rule of Queen Elizabeth I.

She illustrated her talk with several examples of her own work. She explained how designs are created.

The candlelight tea featured a decorated cake to honor Mildred Corser Scott, a member who recently published a contemporary western romance, "The Triple S."

Mrs. Jacob Bauer cut the cake and Aileen Cahill poured refreshments.

Oct. 18 at 1 p.m. is a board meeting at the home of Mrs. James Chellman. Time and place of the Nov. 9 regular meeting will be announced.

Open Da-el's Fashion Shop in Clinton

CLINTON — David and Elsie Evison of 5184 Pawson Rd. in Tipton plan to open Da-El's Fashions at 115 W. Michigan Ave. in Clinton about Nov. 1.

The husband and wife business team plan to offer larger sizes because "I felt that it was an area that needed to be covered," said Elsie, former retail salesclerk for Sears in Briarwood of Ann Arbor.

David is an accountant for Central Fibre Products, Chelsea, an automotive parts manufacturer. The couple have three daughters in Onsted Schools, Duana, 17, Lori, 14 and Sandra 10.

They have resided in Tipton for about one and a half years, moving from Chelsea.

Over $10,000 from Sales

CLINTON — Over $10,600 from ticket sales and advance ticket sale bonuses were paid out Thursday night to the four Clinton churches and other groups that sold raffle tickets for the 1977 Clinton Fall Festival.

Total amounts received by the churches, including bonuses were:

St. John's Episcopal Church, $2,325, sold 4,133 tickets; St. Dominic's Catholic Church, $2,315, sold 4,084 tickets; Clinton United Methodist Church, $2,208, sold, 3,549 tickets; United Church of Christ, $1,752, sold, 1,271 tickets.

Fall Festival 1978 share was $1,498. This was the same amount each of the churches received in the five way split of the ticket sales, the difference being their individual bonus for advance sales.

Other groups that sold tickets and earned cash through the advance sale incentive plan were:

Learn Through Fun Nursery School, $297, sold 1,488 tickets; Clinton Alumni Association, $103, sold 515 tickets; Clinton Cheerleaders, $59, sold 298 tickets; Junior Chamber of Commerce (Jaycees) $58, sold 291 tickets; Clinton Volunteer Fire Department, $48, sold 240 tickets.

Total receipts for the 1977 Fall Festival were $17,515 of which $17,236 were from 1977 ticket sales, a $237 balance from last year and interest received.

Total disbursements were the same grand total. Prizes and expenses were $6,848, incentives $3,173 and five way split of ticket receipts, $7,493.

To The Editor

Dear Editor,

We would like to take this opportunity to give a well deserved thank you to Dave and Barb Van Tuyle, General Co-Chairmen of Fall Festival '77.

The Van Tuyle's stepped forward last March, when the future of Clinton's Fall Festival was in jeopardy; to volunteer their time and efforts to our community project.

As general co-chairmen they brought many new ideas to Fall Festival '77 and allowed each of us as committee chairmen the freedom to work out our own ideas for a successful Fall Festival.

Thank you Dav and Barb, it was a pleasure to work with you!

Sincerely,
Mary Jane Richard, Charlie Steffens, Don Geiger, Les Proctor, Gary Couture, Nick Holt, Joe O'Donnell, The Ruhl's, The Woodward's, Betty Oesterling, Evelyn Heimerdinger and Amy Haft.

Chapter 51 OES Meet

The Tecumseh Chapter no. 51, OES draped the charter Oct. 6 in honor of Anna Haughn and Walter Nichols. Worthy matron Cindy Hand reported on the fall association meeting in Adrian.

Mary Lou Moore, secretary of the Lenawee-Monroe County Association and Carolyn Baker, worthy advisor of Adrian Assembly of Rainbow, were introduced and welcomed.

Twenty-five members of the local chapter were present.

At the election of officers Lillian Meining was elected to the station of worthy matron.

Also elected were Ernest Alspach, worthy patron; Mary VanValkenburg, associate matron; Kenneth VanValkenburg, associate patron; Mary Lou Moore secretary; Vera Driffill, treasurer; Mary Wiederhoeft, conductress; Ida Hartley, associate conductress.

A semi-public installation will be at the temple on Oct. 29 at 8 p.m. Practice will be Oct. 27 at 7 p.m.

Birthdays were celebrated by Mary VanValkenburg, Ida Hartley, Lillian Meining and Bud Ruettinger.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Bud Ruettinger and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kempf.

Reports Light

Complaint report at the Tecumseh police department was short this week with none of a serious nature.

Resume is:

Oct. 16 — Mail boxes were damaged at the homes of Clarence Crow and Lester Handy on River Acres Dr.

Oct. 16 — Damage to a car window was inflicted while parked during the night at the Miriam Knight residence, 501 W. Russell Rd.

Oct. 16 — Francisco R. Alvarez, 20, of 316 S. Evans St., was stopped on St. Evans St. for having only one headlight and damage to the front end. He told police that he had run into a pole but did not remember where. He was booked for DUIL.

Oct. 17 — Ray Titsworth of Tecumseh Collision, S. Maumee St., reported a front window broken of a vehicle parked at his business. Chunks of concrete had been thrown through the window of the vehicle, owned by Harry Beland of Tecumseh Wood Products.

Oct. 17 — Columbus Salyer, 42, Manchester, was arrested for DUIL after police observed him weaving on N. Evans St. near the city limits. He also had no tail lights on his vehicle.

Oct. 18 — Thurman E. Stanley, 56, of 509 W. Brown, crossed the center turn lane on W. Chicago Blvd. and nearly hit a police patrol car. Officers stopped him and arrested him for DUIL.

Halloween Insurance

The Voyage En France Club of Tecumseh High School is selling Halloween Insurance Oct. 24 to Oct. 30 to raise money for its members' travel to France or a French speaking country.

The insurance covers the clean-up of smashed fruit and vegetables, soaped or waxed windows and various debris. Policy does not cover leaf clean-up. City is aware of the project.

Tuition Rates Set by Board

Although there are no tuition students in the district at this time, school officials approved tutition rates at Monday night's board meeting.

Tuition was set at $158.16 for elementary students and $209.34 for grades 7-12.

Supt. Duhan stressed, however, that it is the policy of the district to allow only seniors to remain in the district if they have attended in past years but no longer live within the district.

A LOOK INSIDE
Herrick Hospital

BY
KATHY BAILEY, R.N.
RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

Out-patient surgery is not new. Years ago some minor surgery procedures were performed in the doctor's office and there are still small operations that can be done there.

But, today, there are a number of operations that fall in between those that can be done during an office call and those that require you to spend time in the hospital afterwards (major surgery).

There are distinct advantages to out-patient (or day surgery). You save money by not being charged for admission to a bed in the hospital.

There is also a large psychological advantage to know that you will be back at home on the same day as the operation. This is especially true when our patients are children.

Day surgery is an idea that has grown. Just one year ago only two to five out-patient operations were being done a month at Herrick Memorial. This year there are up to 20 done each month.

Here is how it works. You have your laboratory tests done ahead of time along with any other tests your doctor orders.

On the day of your operation you arrive at the hospital out-patient department one hour before the time of your operation. You will be shown to a "holding room" inside the surgical suite where you will change into a hospital gown.

When the time comes you enter the operating room. Depending on your operation you may be given a general or local anesthetic.

If you were under general anesthesia you will awaken in the recovery room. When you are recovered you will return to the bed in the "holding room" where a family member may stay with you.

Patients given a local anesthetic return directly to the "holding room" from surgery.

Around noon, the dietary department will serve you a light lunch. Shortly thereafter you will be discharged to be driven home by a relative or friend.

Most surgical out-patients are on their way home by 2 p.m. the same day.

Your doctor will have given you orders for a follow-up visit to the office and perhaps for a prescription also.

MACON — Every year many people think about doing their Christmas shopping early. If you are one of these, this Saturday is a good chance for you to shop for homemade items at the Macon Methodist church bazaar. The bazaar which starts at 2 p.m. will feature needle work, baked goods, candy, many Christmas items, a "trash and treasure" booth and friendly people to serve coffee while you browse. Then the smorgasbord supper, which promises some delicious food, it starts at 4:30 p.m.

NOTICE

The City of Tecumseh will accept sealed bids for the single family house and lot located at 609 S. Pearl Street until 2:00 P.M. Friday, November 4, 1977. The highest bidder will be awarded the property with the minimum acceptable bid being $4,000. A cashiers check in the amount of $100.00 must accompany each bid. The bid deposit will be returned to all unsuccessful bidders. In the case of two or more identical high bids, a drawing will be used to pick the winning bid.

The winning bidder will receive the house on a land sales contract with 25% down. Minimum monthly payments of $100.00 will be charged beginning one month after date of contract. The remaining balance will be due and payable at 9½% interest, either one year after the date of the land sales contract or upon completion of required repairs. The aforesaid repairs will be part of the land contract and failure to make said repairs within one year shall result in forfeiture or enforcement of said land contract.

The list of required repairs and a bid form may be obtained at City Hall. An open house will be scheduled from 9 to 12 a.m., on Friday, October 28, and from 1 to 4 p.m. on Monday, October 31, for anyone who may wish to inspect the house.

The city retains the right to reject any or all bids.

Game Deciding League Title

Huron League title will be on the line here Friday night when the Indians host Monroe Jefferson in the final league game.

Tecumseh can wrap up the championship by defeating the Bears, who are tied for second place with Monroe Catholic Central and Flat Rock. If the Indians lose, they will fall into a tie for the title.

Mail Boxes Are Damaged

Postal patrons on Red Mill Drive, River Acres, Newburg Rd. and Burt St. complained that their mailboxes were damaged on the night of Oct. 24.

Postmaster Jack G. Metcalf said parents and children should be aware that willful damage to mail receptacles is a federal crime with a fine of $1,000 or imprisonment for up to three years.

Michigan law says parents may be held responsible for vandalism attributed to their children.

TM Report at Meeting

The Tecumseh Area Town Meeting Organization will meet Nov. 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the First United Presbyterian Church of Tecumseh.

A report about the teen summer dances will be made and a recommendation will be presented for the future of A Place for Teens.

Also the progress of forming a Tecumseh Council for the Arts will be reported.

Feasibility of another Tecumseh Town Meeting this spring will be discussed. Other items of interest may be brought up.

THS Marchers Are Improving

Tecumseh's Shawnee Marchers came in last again at competition for corps style bands at Bridgeport Saturday.

However the point spread was smaller between the Marchers and the next highest band, said director Jimmie Rice.

The group gained almost a whole point and received good comments from the judges, Rice stated.

Tecumseh competed against nine other bands in its flight.

Meet Nov. 3

New volunteers and members of the original historic district study committee are invited to attend a meeting at city hall at 7 p.m. Nov. 3 to organize for the purpose of recommending a new ordinance for a volunteer historic district.

$100,000 in Cash!

Three Tecumseh officials met Tuesday in Lansing with officials of the Office of Local Government, Department of Highways, relative to the extension of Russell Rd. east to Rogers Hwy. and construction of a new River Raisin bridge.

Officials here wanted to clarify local costs and necessity of the city making a $100,000 cash deposit prior to the project. The city has received a grant up to $312,000 for the program.

Those representing the city were Cal Zorn, city manager; Paul Preston, assistant city manager, and Chuck Kipke, city engineer.

They questioned costs to the city of approximately $20,000 for engineering services and additional local funds for engineering supervision at the site. Another cost for the city, but one brought up for discussion in Lansing, was a $20,000 expenditure for a right-of-way for the extension of Russell Rd.

Preston said Wednesday these problems will not affect construction of the street and bridge. Bids for the new street and bridge will be opened next Wednesday in Lansing, and some work is planned before winter settles in.

Zorn is expected to brief council at the next meeting, and officials expect to know prior to the meeting whether the city has to come up with $100,000 cash, a sum that may have to be "raised some way."

Other work in the area involves the industrial park, and bids will be opened here on Nov. 15 for that construction.

Investigate 8 Accidents

Eight accidents, including one with personal injury, were investigated the past week by the Tecumseh police.

Cathie Hartung, 21, of 313 W. Logan St. a dispatcher at the local police department, was southbound Sunday on N. Evans St. when she lost control of6 her car while passing another vehicle.

She struck a curb and speed limit sign before running into a tree. She was taken to Herrick Hospital for observation and treatment.

A resume of other mishaps is:

Oct. 19 — George D. Lynch, 18, of 609 S. Occidental, was cited for unsafe backing after hitting a parked car owned by Clifford G. Bramer, 47, Onsted, on Southwick Dr.

Oct. 19 — Pamela S. Butter, 22, of 4350 Rogers Hwy., struck a parked vehicle in the Faraday lot. Other vehicle is owned by Edith M. Hayford, 39, Adrian.

Oct. 19 — Betty I. McDonald, 55, Defiance, Ohio, was backing out of a drive on Wyandotte St. and struck a passing vehicle driven by William P. Purield, 64, Manchester.

Oct. 21 — Michael A. Barrett, 18, of 601 Brook St., was cited for failure to yield after making a left turn in front of Larry D. Hollis, 20, of 706 Brook, on W. Chicago Blvd.

Oct. 21 — Mary E. Outman, 48, Tipton and Larry J. Yoakum, 20, Adrian, collided in the intersection of W. Pottawatamie and Park St. Outman was eastbound on W. Pottawatamie and Yoakum, northbound on Park.

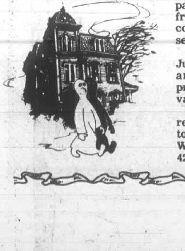
Oct. 22 — Eddy N. Clark, 36, Keary, and Clayton W. Wilkens, 31, of 9321 Macon Rd., were both northbound on N. Ottawa St. when Wilkens, 31, of 9321 Macon Rd., were both northbound on N. Ottawa St. when Wilkens attempted a left turn into W. Logan and struck the Clark vehicle.

Spooky Weekend for Youngsters

Tecumseh youth will celebrate Halloween on Oct. 31.

City Council set treating hours from 6 to 8 p.m. for youth in the city of Tecumseh on Halloween night, Oct. 31. Start and finish of the treating period will be signalled by the fire whistle as in previous years.

The city of Tecumseh parks and recreation department will have four separate activities that day for preschoolers, junior high school students, kindergarteners through third graders and fourth through sixth graders.



Pre-schoolers costume party will be from 1:30 to 3 p.m. at the Community Center.

Junior High Dance will be at the Community Center from 7 to 9 p.m. Admission will be 25 cents per student. Only seventh and eighth grade Tecumseh Junior High School students are allowed to attend. Dress is informal.

Kindergarten through third grade students will have a party at Patterson School from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m. This is a costume party for all Tecumseh students in this age group.

With the exception of the Junior High dance, all parties are costume parties and prizes will be awarded for various types of costumes.

The recreation department requests anyone who wished to assist at the parties contact Ward Eardley, director, at 423-5602.

Janet Skinner Killed, Murder Charge Filed

Slain While Observing Disturbance at Eaton Rapids

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Purse Funeral Home for Janet M. Skinner, 48, of 312 S. Union St., who was killed in Eaton Rapids Saturday by a gun shot wound in the neck.

She was dead on arrival shortly after 11 p.m. at Eaton Rapids Community Hospital after she was fatally wounded in an incident at The Keg bar in that city, according to Eaton County sheriff's deputies.

An Eaton Rapids man, James William Johnson, an employee of The Keg, received a single gun shot wound in the leg and was listed Tuesday in serious condition at Ingham Medical Hospital, Lansing.

Mary Nemore, 56, of Homer, was arraigned Monday morning in Charlotte by the Hon. Kenneth Hansen, 56th District Court, Eaton County, on one count of open murder for the shooting death of Mrs. Skinner and a second count of assault with intent to commit murder for wounding Johnson.

Preliminary examination for Nemore is Nov. 4. No bond was set, and she was remanded to custody of the Eaton County Sheriff's Department.

Asked why the charge of open murder was made, Eaton County Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Ray Buffmyer stated, "We did this because we don't have all witnesses statements."

He explained that 11 police officers and 49 civilian witnesses were involved in the case.

"At the preliminary examination, the judge will decide whether the charges will be first degree, second degree, etc."

Buffmyer said that the shooting occurred outside the bar and that Skinner, Johnson and Nemore were outside the bar.

According to reports from the Eaton County sheriff's deputies, several people were removed from the bar after a disturbance. The altercation continued outside.

Mrs. Skinner's family said that she was observing the disturbance along with several other people when she was shot. It is possible that Mrs. Skinner was killed by a stray bullet, as her daughter, Amy, said that Mrs. Skinner did not know Nemore.

Mrs. Skinner was born Oct. 28, 1928 in the Irish Hills area to Raymond and Mae (Smith) Aylesworth. She married Dean Skinner on Dec. 6, 1947. He survives.

She was a lifelong Tecumseh area resident and was a former state health department employe. She also worked at Rushia's Apparel Shop in Tecumseh. She attended the First United Presbyterian Church of Tecumseh.

Other survivors are one daughter, Amy Jo Skinner of Tecumseh; a sister, Mrs. Ward (Lillian) Perso of Tecumseh; and a brother, Marvin Aylesworth of Albion.

Her parents preceded her in death.

The Rev. Edmund Watkins officiated, and burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

'I Love You, Mom'

To the Editor:

I really can't believe how cold and cruel some people can be just to better themselves these days. I thought people might be a little more educated and advanced, and have a little more sense than people back in the days of the cavemen. But what I've seen and heard has shattered my whole picture of "mankind."

It must be that people today have a great hearing problem, can't read, or can't carry on a constructive conversation. These are our main means of communication, talking, hearing and reading. Other important means of communication are the news media; newspapers, radio, and television. Important, did I say? I am truly mistaken. It seems the news media is the most ignorant and uninformative way of communication anymore. I have living, oh, excuse me, dead proof of the comment just made. I am refering specifically to the Adrian Daily Telegram, the Jackson paper, radio stations WABJ and WLEN, and God knows how many more.

It's about time the truth be brought up front about the news media.

In the past few days, the Skinner family, relatives, friends, and neighbors have been mourning over the heartless and brutal murder of Janet M. Skinner.

The problem is they can't mourn with dignity and Janet can't rest in peace because of the slander, cruelty, and ignorance of the media. Everyone is trying to clean up the rotten and sickening mess that the papers and radio stations have made. Believe me, the full blame is placed solely on them.

The reason I can say this is because they, the media, were fully and accurately informed of exactly what happened and were asked to print and announce it in that form and manner. But, it seems that they didn't hear right. Pretty soon the media will talk and print themselves right out of business, if people continually read and hear the wrong information about themselves and others constantly, day after day.

Who wants to read lies and false information about himself?

In this case, the media couldn't even get the day of the funeral or the age of the victim correct, and they were just dealing with simple figures. It's incredible how stupid and selfish some people can be, especially the editor of the Daily Telegram. Of course the story wasn't printed totally incorrect, but it was how the story was printed that made it wrong. Janet was an innocent bystander in the incident.

But of course those people who knew Janet Skinner will know that the information concerning her was extremely in bad taste.

It's too bad stories and news have to be printed and read like this so the papers will sell and people will listen to the radio at the cost of a dead and innocent person. I do believe I am not alone in the way I feel.

Janet Skinner will never be able to defend herself and so this is why the whole mess is one-sided.

I for one, am trying to help her rest in peace by clearing her name. People can say all they want to about me, but for God's sake, leave the dead alone!

She was a good and well liked individual who didn't deserve to go this way, but fate will always take its place.

May God be with her and protect her from all evil.

I Love You Mom,
Amy J. Skinner

DAV Flowers Here Nov. 4-5

The annual sale of "forget-me-not" flowers by members of the Lenawee chapter of Disabled American Veterans will be held Nov. 4 and 5, in the Tecumseh area.

The small blue flower tokens, made by disabled veterans, will be offered by volunteers on the street corners and various business shopping centers.

All contributions received will be used in the Lenawee DAV's program to aid persons handicapped by war injuries.

Herb Townsend is flower drive chairman.

Fund Officials Report Drive at 20% of Goal

Approximately 20 percent of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation drive towards $84,000 has been realized in the first week of this year's campaign.

Only official return is from Fisher Body Plant where employees have contributed $9,780. In addition, a company gift from GM, representing both the plant in Adrian and Fisher Body, amounts to $1,900 and a total contribution of $11,680.

While these gifts were just short of the total contributed a year ago when the employees and company donation was $12.060 - and a record for the local plant - it is considerably more than the 1975 contribution of $10,800.

Doug Dillon, who is collecting and tabulating donations at the main office of the United Savings Bank, says some divisions have reported initial collections.

He reports that the public employee division has returned $446 so far; residential, $568; special gifts, $400, and commercial, $570.

Before the drive ends in mid-November, officials anticipate reaching the $84,000 goal. Biggest contributor annually is the Tecumseh Products, and the drive is still underway there.

Although it is practically impossible to reach every resident and business, the Foundation is seeking cooperation - and a donation - from those who might be missed.

Any individual, who has been missed and would like to contribute, can call The Herald, 423-2174 or 423-2175, and the donation will be picked up at his or her convenience.

Donations may also be given to Mr. Dillon at the bank, or mailed to the Foundation, Box 142, Tecumseh, Michigan.

Checks should be made out to the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation. Those who contribute $100 or more will receive a certificate and recognition. Their names, however, will not be printed in The Herald as in previous years.

FAMILIAR THERMOMETER — Erection Tuesday of the Community Fund Foundation thermometer sign at United Savings Bank shows this year's drive at 20 percent of goal. You'll Go 'Wild, Simply Wild'

by Kathy Brown

You'll go wild, simply wild over the polished comedy performances of Carlton Cook and Judy Vanzo in the musical comedy "Irene" playing at the Glass Room this weekend.

The veteran actors turn in polished performances. Cook evoked uncontrollable laughter as "Madame Lucy," pseudonym for this affected dress designer who is completely wrapped up in his creative genius and lacks only a sponsor.

Judy Vanzo, the sympathetic, all knowing mother of Irene, the budding business manager of "Lucy," is a wonderful choice for the loving Irish Momma. Her performance flows.

Both Cook and Vanzo have a perfect sense of comedy and together in "You Made Me Love You" capture the audience's approval for the true lovers, rediscovered in maturity.

Dorothy Wetter gives a classic performance as the snobbish Emmeline Marshall, status conscious, doting mother of Donald, the object of Irene's affection and consternation.

The star is Irene, a bold and determined Irish Miss of Ninth Ave. that believes ambition not breeding determine one's status.

Concetta D'Agostina has all the vitality of an eager businesswoman and a gutsy voice that can handle the fantasy and fire of Irene's dreams. Only reserve of this reviewer is that she tended to take some lines too fast and miss a few notes.

Mike Ray as Donald Marshall III, seemed detached from the audience until he cut loose in "Great Lover Tango", with Patty Ray as Jane McFudd and Kathi Johnstone, as Helen Burke, Irene's friends and models for "Lucy."

Patti shows a beautiful sense of humor about her plumpness and uses it to the play's advantage. Skinny Kathi contrasts her Ninth Ave. sidekick but they match in enthusiasm and acting effort.

Together with John Evans, Ozzie Babson, Donald's coniving cousin, they make a smashing comedy quartet with Cook in "We're Getting Away With It."

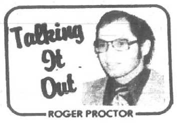
Helen Bendes, the one woman orchestra, should be cheered. She accompanies the cast on piano with the play's popular songs including, "Alice Blue Gown," "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows" and "You Made Me Love You."

Dean Shullick, young choreographer does an admirable job, but some of the chorus members need more practice as they were heard counting steps. Which brings us back to one of the problems of a tiny stage — audience and players are self-conscious about being eyeball to eyeball. Experienced performers however, were able to overcome the feeling.

One impression the Players consistently produce is enthusiasm for the production and creativity in set design. Amazing how many different set changes they stack into a two foot area and pull off a smooth production.

Congratulations to Pati Evans on her first directing effort with the Players.

Play continues Oct. 27, 28 and 29 at 8 p.m. Curtain time for a special Tecumseh Theatre Fund benefit is 7 p.m. Sunday.



ROGER PROCTOR

"Why am I afraid to talk about death?"

You should know first that your fears are common ones which have been fostered for many centuries. Till recent years the subject has been taboo and "swept under the rug" till it affects us personally. Only recently has there been substantial scientific research on the subject.

We don't talk about death because we fear it and we know so little about it. In the interest of mental health, such feelings need to be changed. Public education, based on our new psychological and medical data, offer us our greatest help.

These educational helps are becoming more and more available to us. The librarian (and we) can recommend some very fine books written about death and dying; thanatology courses are offered in many schools; many churches now offer classes and discussion groups on the subject.

Here at Proctor Funeral Home, we ca arrange a tour of our funeral home and an explanation of our services for you and your friends. We can also be your personal consultants to answer some of your concerns about death.

Janet Skinner Death Shocks and Saddens Friends and Family

by Kathy Brown

Friends and family of Janet M. Skinner, 48, were shocked and saddened by her death Saturday and also upset by early accounts of the shooting incident in Eaton Rapids that implicated Mrs. Skinner with a bar fight.

"That is far from the truth," her daughter Amy told the Herald. She said that her parents were enjoying a casual drink at the Eaton Rapids bar when a disturbance occurred.

According to her daughter, Mrs. Skinner was observing the disturbance with several other people when she was killed with a bullet that hit her in the neck. A case of being in the wrong place at the wrong time.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Skinner were on a weekend trip to their 45 acre Springport farm, Mrs. Skinner's homestead. They acquired it after her father's death, four years ago and made the trip every chance they could, friends said.

They stayed in a trailer home and tended a "big garden" on the weekends. The vegetables they raised were shared with their Tecumseh neighbors.

"They would have liked to move up there," told Norma Murphy, 744 N. Union, Mrs. Skinner's sister-in-law.

"Janet loved wildlife, flowers and animals. This was her whole life. She loved reading 'All Things Bright and Beautiful'," a non-fiction written by British veterinarian James Herriot. She was sensitive about the abuse of animals.

"They owned a couple of dogs and a cat. When one of the dogs broke its hip, she nursed the animal," said Mrs. Joseph Pospisil, 315 W. Cummins, a neighbor.

"They enjoyed the music at this particular place. She said they had good food and it seemed to be a real quiet place.

"We've been real close. Her death hit my husband and I both hard. We used to keep an eye out on each other's houses when the other traveled. She didn't get to do much. They just finished painting the house. She was 100 percent just a wonderful person," Mrs. Pospisil commented.

Another neighbor, Tom Ruff, 313 S. Union said that he and his wife knew the Skinners for about six years. They were guests of the Skinners at their Springport home.

"She was a fine person. Anytime you needed help with anything, she'd be right there. She was an extra nice neighbor. You don't find too many of them like that anymore," he stated.

Marilyn Baaske of 309 S. Union St. stated, "She was a very good neighbor. We've known her about 10 years. She liked to work around the house."

Rushia Coscarelli, 501 W. Chicago Blvd. knew Janet Skinner from the time they roomed together in Tecumseh as teenagers. They kept in touch with Christmas cards over the 20 some years the couple traveled during Mr. Skinner's army career.

"She was a real nice gal," commented Mrs. Coscarelli. "Shy but warm with a deep sense of humor about life she didn't show to most people."

"She was considerate of other people's and her family's feelings and comforts. She was a devoted wife and mother and yet never wanting to intrude. She was sweet and considerate," Mrs. Coscarelli told.

"I'll miss her calls," added Mrs. Murphy.

Police Record Ten Complaints

Ten complaints recorded by police the past week ranged from vandalism to drunk driving and possession of marijuana.

Friday night police were stopped by two men who claimed a gun had been pulled on them by a driver who had just left a city alley in the southwest business block and was headed south on S. Evans.

Officers stopped the vehicle, which had no lights on, on W. Pottawatamie St. and arrested Gary R. Johnson, 21, Adrian. Before he was taken to the county jail, Johnson was charged with driving while his license was suspended and for possession of marijuana.

Police, searching Johnson, discovered a baggie of marijuana in his left hand. He was also wanted on a bench warrant from the state police.

Also Friday, Robert A. Dinse, 48, of 108 N. Maumee, was arrested on N. Evans St. for being drunk in public.

The same day, Rollin K. Wilse, 28, Adrian was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol. He was southbound on S. Pearl St. at a high rate of speed and nearly hit a patrol car.

Two drivers were arrested Sunday for drunk driving. Gregory W. Dunbar, 25, Britton, bounced off the median twice on W. Chicago Blvd. before being arrested, and Brad A. McElroy, 19, Clinton was observed driving on Southwick Dr. with the driver's door partially open.

Gary Hicks of 1360 W. Chicago Blvd. reported vandalism at the car wash there. Three windows in the office behind the car wash were broken and a fourth window in a door was smashed.

Police investigated vandalism at Whelan Implement on W. Logan St. Monday. Six windows had been pelted by a BB gun.

Also Monday, Joe LeFevre of 117 Burt and Mary Bilke, 1016 Red Mill Dr., reported mail box damages.

Celestine Landrum, 22, of Jackson, was arrested near Harvey's Restaurant on W. Chicago Blvd. for a loud exhaust and no tail lights. Police then discovered she was driving on a suspended license and was wanted in Jackson on a felony charge. She was taken to the county jail in Adrian.

Halloween is just around the corner. Here are suggestions for special Halloween treats for your favorite ghosts and goblins.

These monster cookies from Betty Meni are a combination of everyone's favorite cookies, peanut butter, oatmeal and chocolate chips.

MONSTER COOKIES

3 cups peanut butter
2 sticks margarine
2 cups firmly packed brown sugar
2 cups white sugar
6 eggs
2½ tablespoons Karo syrup
9 cups oatmeal
4 teaspoons baking soda
8 ounces M&M candies
8 ounces chocolate chips
8 ounces chopped nuts

Cream peanut butter, margarine, sugars and eggs. Add rest of ingredients and mix well. Drop by teaspoon on greased cookie sheet and bake for 10-12 minutes at 325 degrees. Makes at least 150 medium cookies and uses NO flour. Note: Chunky peanut butter can be used and the 8 ounces of chopped nuts can be omitted.

These Halloween squares are delicious and so easy to prepare.

ROCKY ROAD HALLOWEEN SQUARES

1 (12 ounce) package semi-sweet chocolate morsels
1 (14 ounce can) sweetened condensed milk
2 tablespoons margarine
2 cups dry roasted peanuts
1 (10 ounce) package miniature white marshmallows

In top of double boiler, over boiling water, melt morsels with sweetened condensed milk and margarine; remove from heat.

In large bowl, combine nuts and marshmallows; fold in chocolate mixture. Spread in wax paper lined 13x9 inch pan. Chill two hours or until firm. Remove from pan, peel off wax paper and cut into squares. Makes about 40. Cover and store at room temperature.

Mr. and Mrs. John VanValkenburg of Morenci, will observe their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house on Oct. 30 at the United Methodist Church, Morenci, from 2 to 5 p.m. Mary L. Dangler and John P. VanValkenburg were married in Toledo, Ohio, by the Rev. Roscoe J. Beard on Dec. 24, 1927 but the observance will be held on Oct. 30, since the couple will be in Florida. Mr. and Mrs. VanValkenburg have been residents of Morenci since 1951, having moved there from Northern Michigan. They owned and operated the Morenci Dairy and Van's Tastee Treat. They are the parents of one daughter, Jane, at home. Friends and relatives are invited to attend the open house. They request gifts be omitted. They were residents of Tecumseh at one time.

Vickie Felton and Donald Occhi Wed

Vickie Felton and Donald Occhi were married Sept. 17, at the King of Kings Lutheran Church in Phoenix, Ariz.

Pastor Steven Cluver officiated at the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Felton, formerly of Tecumseh, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Burroughs, of Phoenix, Ariz.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Qiana accented by a single string of pearls that was her grandmother's. Her bouquet was composed of yellow roses and evergreen ferns.

Pamela Felton, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. John Burroughs, the groom's stepfather, was the best man.

A buffet reception for the immediate family and friends was given by the bride's parents at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs.

After honeymooning in Carmel, Calif., the couple will move to the Scofield Army Base in Hawaii, where they will both be stationed.

Piekarek, Smith Wedding Nuptials

Fall flowers of rust, peach and white and candelabra decorated the altar of the Adrian Seventh Day Adventist Church for the Oct. 16 2:30 p.m. wedding of Deborah L. Piekarek and Greg Scott Smith.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Karl H. Piekarek of 10901 Wisner Hwy. and Ora O. Smith of Geneva, Ohio.

Pastor Roy Lemon officiated at the marriage ceremony. Virginia Tabor of Flint was the organist.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white gown of organza over taffeta appliqued with Alencon lace on the arms and wrist of the long fitted sleeves and the gathered ruffle which formed the soft circular train. Tiny beads accented the bodice and empire waistline. Her veil of white illusion was edged and appliqued with matching lace.

She carried white carnations with peach roses.

Denise Tabor of Flint was the maid of honor wearing a princess styled gown in fall shades with brown velvet ribbon trim. She wore a picture hat with matching velvet trim and peach colored roses. She carried a bouquet of orange, yellow and bronze mums.

Bridesmaids were Karyn Kissinger, the bride's cousin of Farmington Hills and Sherri Moellman of Livonia. Their costumes and flowers were accented with green and yellow velvet ribbons respectively. Darlene Piekarek, the bride's sister, was flower girl.

Daniel Piekarek, the bride's brother, lit the tapers.

Barry Schneidewind was the best man. Groomsmen were Douglas and Kimber Smith, the groom's brothers from Denver, Colo.

The reception followed in the church fellowship hall.

Gus Wellnitz, 97, the bride's great-grandfather from Clinton, was a special guest.

The new Mrs. Smith completed her freshman year at Andrews University, Berrien Springs. Mr. Smith was graduated from Andrews University with a business administration degree. He is employed by Troxel Lumber Co. in Battle Creek.

Following a wedding trip to the Upper Peninsula, the couple will reside at 137 Hazel, Battle Creek.

MR. and MRS. GREG SMITH

THS Administers College Tests

The ACT Assessment collects information about students, past experiences, interest and goals.

This information is collected in two steps, first, in registration when each student responds to questions regarding interests and student profile and second, covering four subject areas - English, mathematics, social studies and natural sciences. ACT Assessment information is used by many colleges as part of the admissions process.

The ACT Assessment test was administered at Tecumseh High School on Oct. 9. Approximately 30 students were tested at the high school by the guidance department on that date.

In addition to college use, the ACT is also used by the Michigan Higher Education Program in determining the eligibility of students who are seeking financial assistance.

Trick or Treating Set for Monday

BRITTON — The Britton-Macon PTO set Oct. 31 as "trick or treat" night for the area children. Arrangements are being made by the UNICEF Committee.

Children will do their usual door-to-door "trick or treating" Monday evening, but this year they will not collect money for UNICEF, as has been the practice in the past years. This year the PTO will send $50 from its own funds.

"Trick or treating" begins at 6 p.m., when the fire siren blows, and the children may continue, at their parents discretion, until the fire siren blows again at 7 p.m.

At that time they should proceed directly to the school gymnasium for costume judging and refreshments.

Prizes will be awarded for the funniest, most original, and prettiest (or handsomest) costume in each group of boys and girls from pre-school to seventh grade plus.

Homemade cookies and McDonald's Orange Bowl is on the refreshment menu. Special sound effects for the party will give the gymnasium a Halloween atmosphere as the costumed ghosts and goblins enter.

Co-chairmen for this year's UNICEF program is Karen Tiede and Nancy Gibbs.

Celebrates 90th Birthday

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ash entertained her father, Carl Johnson of Grand Rapids, Sunday at a family dinner on the occasion of his 90th birthday anniversary.

Grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ash and Matthew, assisted with the dinner.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Saur, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Anderson, all of Kent City; and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Youngquist and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Younquist of Sparta.

Friends and relatives have been calling on Mr. Johnson at the Ash home, during the week to wish him well. He plans to spend a few more days with his daughter and son-in-law.

Restoration Is Discussed

RIDGEWAY — Helping the Jonathon Hall Ridgeway Library Association restore the 90-year-old building was discussed at the Oct. 18 meeting of the Ridgeway Bicentennial Committee.

In other business the committee voted to reimburse the Ridgeway Cemetery for shrubs planted to complete the heritage project near the south drive of the cemetery, started by the Bicentennial committee last year.

Committee also voted to give the Ridgeway Cemetery $140 toward a tree to be planted in the new section, north of the present cemetery, when landscaping and development begins.

Next meeting was set for the early part of the new year.

Women Meet

BRITTON — Emmanuel Lutheran Ladies' Guild collected their Lutheran Women's Missionary League mite boxes at the Oct. 18 meeting at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church with 13 ladies present.

Madelyn Schafer LWML Christian Growth Chairlady, opened the meeting by leading the group in reciting the League Pledge.

At the business meeting it was voted to send all proceeds from the upcoming bazaar to the local LWML Monroe Zone of which 75 percent is for Michigan district and 25 percent is sent to the LWML Internation for missionary work only.

Bazaar and mission supper will be held Nov. 5. Bazaar beginning at 10 a.m. with coffee and sweets for sale during the day, and the turkey supper to begin at 4:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Also reviewed was the grants to be given to each graduate of colleges and seminaries of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod who is a communicant member of Emmanuel Lutheran Church of Britton, provided the graduate is engaged in a program of study that will prepare the students for full-time, professional service in the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

This has been kept up to date. Next to receive such a grant will be Carolyn Gilmore.

The Bible study for the evening covered the first two chapters of "Grow-up, Christians" taken from the book of Ephesians with Beulah Squires as leader.

The meeting closed by singing the LWML hymn "Lutheran Women, One and All."

Next meeting will continue with Chapter 3, which will be Nov. 15. Ida Helm and June Koob were hostesses for the evening.

The engagement of Joan Willaert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Willaert of 6534 Hoagland Hwy., Britton, to David Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barrett, Ida, is announced by her parents. Miss Willaert is a 1973 graduate of Britton-Macon High School and attended Monroe County College for two years. She is employed in the accounting department at Union Camp Corporation, Monroe. Her fiance, a 1973 graduate of Monroe High School, also attended Monroe County Community College and received a bachelor of science degree from Michigan State University. He is employed by U.S. Postal Service, Monroe, and plans to enter the Federal Aviation Administration as an air traffic controller. A Feb. 3, 1978 wedding date has been set.

65 Senior Citizens Feted

BRITTON — Sixty-five senior citizens gathered at the fellowship center of the Congregational Christian Church Saturday noon for a luncheon prepared by the ladies of the church, and served by the church's young people.

Seven tables were decorated in a fall theme. Turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served.

Prizes were presented to the following:

Charles and Liz (Wilson) Reynolds of New Mexico, former residents visiting in the area, came the longest distance. Bill and Effie Gibson were married the longest, 63 years. Phoebe Bryan was the oldest, 90 years. Earl Murphy, 88, was the oldest gentleman. Raymond Seagert won the door prize.

Vera Driscoll of Tecumseh, on piano, accompanied the group for sing-a-long entertainment.

Lillian Kniffen and Thelma Younglove were program co-chairmen.

Peanut Butter Dream Pie Wins

BRITTON — Mrs. Keith Swain placed first with her Peanut Butter Dream Pie in "Pastry" category in a recent baking contest.

Mrs. Swain created the recipe and hoped to save it for the restaurant she and her husband hope to operate some day. She since decided it was just too good to keep a secret.

MRS. KEITH SWAIN

She says she experimented with different recipes before she came up with the right combination. The whole family loves to cook. Mrs. Swain has cooked for camps three summers. Mr. Swain was a cook in the army and their children Adrienne, 11, and Brian, 8, also like to cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Swain both work for Tecumseh Products Co. She is head of International billing and he is director of domestic accounting.

Here is the winning recipe: Melt 4 lb. marshmallows with ½ cup milk. Stir in ½ cup peanut butter. Cool slightly. Fold in one 6 oz. container of "Cool Whip". Pour into cooled, baked pie shell. Chill at least an hour for best flavor. Pile extra whipped cream on top. Sprinkle with Spanish peanuts for party look.

Seat Belts Is Topic

Edwin Walters of the Fisher Body Division of General Motors spoke about the use of seat belts in automobiles at the Tecumseh Rotary Club's Tuesday noon meeting.

Walters presented a film and spoke on behalf of Motorist Information, Inc., a nonprofit organization founded by the big four automakers of the United States.

He said seat belts are estimated to be 40 times more effective than the second leading safety device suggestion.

Walters reported a U.S. Department of Transportation study indicated that seat belts saved 89,000 lives and approximately 3.2 million injuries over a 10-year period.

The study also indicated that if all motorists used seat belts 16,000 lives would be saved per year along with the prevention of 900,000 injuries.

Despite those facts, Walters declared, it would appear that only 20 percent of all motorists use seat belts. Motorist Information, Inc. is attempting to use a media campaign to influence American drivers to use the seat belt and suggested that a law requiring the use of seat belts might be beneficial in the United States.

Walters noted that Ontario's auto death rate dropped one-third after the Canadian Province passed a law requiring drivers to use seat belts.

One myth concerning seat belt use is that seat belts are needed only at highway speeds; actually most deaths occur at lower speeds and within 25 miles of home. Another myth is that it could be safer to be thrown out of an automobile when in reality a person ejected from an automobile is five times more likely to become a fatality.

Guests at the regular Tuesday meeting, held at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, included Tecumseh High School students Greg Lewis and Cindy Egli and Ray Oliver, President of Jiffy Plastics.

Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

Oct. 16, the sun was bright and shiny but the breeze was brisk and had more than a slight nip to it. In fact, we joked that there must be an iceberg nearby over which it was blowing. Brrrr. Prettyman's maple trees glowed with their own intense yellow-orange fire. Fall was indeed here. We enjoyed the beauty but shuddered at the thought of what the next season would bring.

For some time the few letters I wrote contained a brief discussion of the current birds. It was fun to talk about chickadees and tufted titmice coming to the near-my-window feeders. It was also good to report that the old faithfuls such as the bluejays, cardinals, and upside-down nuthatches were still regulars.

The truly exciting news, of course, was the early visit of the tiny red-breasted nuthatch.

I could wind up the bird talk by saying something about even though a few of the winterish birds were here all was not lost and I was still keeping my thoughts warm weather oriented because the juncos had not yet arrived.

Just as the robin is the harbinger of spring, the junco seems to epitomize all of the dire aspects of winter.

I enjoyed this false sense of security until Sunday the 16th. That was the day the juncos, or at least the junco, forced me into admitting that, as beautiful as the autumn is, winter is stomping impatiently in the wings.

The yew which grows around the south end of the near-my-window feeder is dense and thick, almost an extension of the feeder itself.

Bush and tray are about the same height and the birds and squirrels walk back and forth with no trouble at all. It was on the flat top of this solid yew that I saw the junco.

He was standing there staring at me. I am sure he was not trying to attract my attention but it certainly looked as though that was what he was doing.

I also realize there was no malicious intent in that stare. There is no way he could have taken diabolical pleasure in my shock and surprise in seeing him. But there he stood and by doing so shattered all of my efforts to ignore the approach of winter.

Actually, in spite of all my ranting and raving, I thoroughly enjoy juncos. They are nice birds and good to have around. If only some people did not call them snowbirds. But enough of that, Marda.

After attracting my attention the junco hopped up on the nearby food tray and proceeded to investigate. With his small bonewhite bill he nibbled a bit of scratch feed and incidentally gave me a long and close look.

Truly, this was a handsome bird. Black, but not jet black, with a soft gray tummy and two white outer tail feathers. The females are a dark gray instead of black.

That night there was a freeze, we had had several frosts but this was a freeze. Monday morning the still green leaves of the mulberry trees were limp and droopy. The slightest breeze 'broke' them off.

All day we watched the green shower and by late afternoon the mulberry trees were bare. The walnuts had been dropping their leaves for some time but by evening they too were naked.

It was a ridiculous situation but in the course of two days our window pictures went from early to late fall. Hopefully the junco liked the neighborhood and will bring all sorts of friends to visit.

As for the sudden leaf fall—well, we in Michigan always boast about our changeable weather but some things are a bit much.

Unique too, I do not think I ever remember so many trees so completely losing all of their leaves in a single day. Wonder what other surprises are in store?

Sausage Supper at Porter Center

The seventh annual benefit Sausage Supper for the Milton C. Porter Education Center on Sutton Rd. will be Oct. 27 from 5 to 8 p.m. with continuous serving. It is held in cooperation with the Lenawee Association for Retarded Citizens (LARC).

The menu includes sausage, scalloped potatoes, baked beans, cole slaw, salads, rolls and butter, pie, cake, milk and coffee.

All students of the trainable mentally impaired and the severely mentally impaired programs at the Porter Center may obtain tickets for $1 each. Tickets for adults are $2.50 and for children under 14, $1. Entertainment is planned.

A variety of items for sale will include 4-H Bake Sale, crafts, LARC calendars and Christmas cards. An extra special item for sale will be the approximately 150 pounds of sausage.

A trophy will be given to the boy or girl from each room level at the Porter Center who has the greatest amount of ticket sales.

With proceeds from last year's supper, the officials from the Intermediate School District and the Milton C. Porter Education Center purchased a new Ford pick-up truck for the special education center.

This year's supper is organized by Ralph Tillotson and his father-in-law Ernie Pate.

The supper committee needs a large number of salads for the supper. If anyone would like to donate a salad, not cole slaw, contact the Milton C. Porter Education Center. Lois Bennet 263-8931, , school principal, can answer questions.

Grand Chief Visits Sisters

TIPTON—Helen Tooze of Ypsilanti, grand chief of the grand jurisdiction of Michigan Pythian Sisters, made her official visit to the Minnehaha Temple Pythian Sisters no. 43 on Oct. 17.

Twenty-one members and guests were present for the ham dinner served at the home of Helen Bale.

Other guests were Joan Yoakam, Ypsilanti grand secretary; Bernice Reason, Hillsdale grand protector and district deputy; Maxine Wilson, past grand chief of Hillsdale, Alice Whelan, past grand chief of Tipton; Miriam Nixon, district deputy of Tecumseh and Nida Bemis, past chief of Hillsdale.

The grand chief's project this year is to send 32 girls to camp. Mrs. Wilson, chairman of the camp committee, reported it will sell fruitcakes, pecans, black walnuts, peanut crunch and stick candy.

The grand chief's reception hosted by the Huron Temple no. 66 Ypsilanti will be held at the Charles McHenney Hall, Cross St. and Washtenaw Ave. in Ypsilanti on Oct. 29.

Social hour is at 6:30 p.m. with sit down dinner at 7 p.m.

Reservations are due Oct. 24 with grand secretary Joan Yoakam, 762 Davis St., Ypsilanti, Mich. 48197.

Reader Objects to Defeat

To the Editor;

Many of us who were engaged in the four-year effort to preserve what still remains of Tecumseh's proud architectural heritage wish to register publicly our respect for those two Council members, Aden Mead and Carlton Cook, who voted for the proposed Historical District Ordinance and did not knuckle under to the last-ditch, spread-eagle arguments which proved so persuasive to other members of our Council.

It is gratifying to know that Tecumseh has at least two elected representatives who can see farther than the northwestern corner of Chicago Blvd. and Maumee.

Personally I have no regrets about the defeat of the ordinance, for in the end a community gets what it deserves. One man's meat is another man's poison.

I think Marshall is a handsome town with its fine old houses, broad avenues, and arched trees. But no doubt there are others who prefer Inkster, Ecorse, and Romulus.

However, what I do find odd about the defeat of the ordinance is the blindness of citizens within the proposed district to the economic advantages which they would have under this form of zoning. For it has been proved time and again, from Savannah, Ga. to Grand Rapids, that houses within historically zoned districts appreciate more rapidly in value than houses lying outside.

Indeed, authorities in such places are usually badgered to death by petitioners requesting inclusion in historical districts — and for sound economic reasons.

In Tecumseh, the experience was just the reverse. In those communities zones of dilapidated houses and inner-city blight are regarded as evils; in Tecumseh such areas are either ignored or welcomed.

But the water is over the dam. The historical district is a dead issue. In a decade or so we shall know conclusively whether the citizens and council of Tecumseh are smarter than those in historically zoned communities — or dumber.

Sincerely yours,
Cecil Eby

October 1977

During the period covered by this report, July 1, 1976 through June 30, 1977, a total of 3661 full-time resident pupils were enrolled, with another 30 full-time equivalency in Adult Education. There were non-resident pupils. To serve these pupils the District employed a staff of 158.5 teachers. In addition the District employed an additional 13 staff members holding valid teaching certificates. The total amount paid for instructional salaries was $2,603,905.00. The number of full time equated certificated employees totaled 171.5. The ratio of 3661 pupils to employees holding a valid Michigan teaching Certificate was 21.3 during the 1976-77 school year.

Minimum and maximum teachers salaries were as follows:

DEGREE	MINIMUM	MAXIMUM
Bachelor of Arts	$10,275.00	$16.738.00
Master of Arts	11,328.00	18,454.00
M.A. PLUS 15 Semester Hours	11,894.00	19,377.00
Specialist Degree	12,489.00	20,346.00

The District operated 123 classrooms in eight buildings; ten portable classrooms and five support facilities which are valued at approximately $15,000,000.00. School owned equipment and furniture is valued at approximately $1,350,000.00.

To the best of my knowledge and belief, this report accurately reflects the financial status of the Tecumseh Public School District for the fiscal year 1976-77, Rule 340, 351 of the General School Laws and the State Board of Education.

Historical Marker Honors Clinton

CLINTON — A state historical marker has been erected in honor of the Village of Clinton on the site of the Clinton Inn, located on the front lawn of the Clinton Village Office, 119 E. Michigan Ave.

The markers was dedicated Oct. 15, by the Historical Society of Clinton. Participating in the ceremonies were Charles Hagler, state historical commissioner and Clayton Strolle, village president.

Although discussed by Clinton residents for many years, the plan for the marker really began last May after the local historical society sponsored a Clinton Inn Day at Greenfield Village, where the Inn is now located. More than 140 Clinton area residents attended that event.

The marker committee consisted of Lawrence Bailey, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Eric Halladay and Shirley Fraley.

After obtaining approval for the historic site from the state, the committee asked for donations, which were generously given by many area donors.

The marker measures 42 by 54 inches, weighs 187 lbs. and cost $735. It is the 474th state historical marker to be erected in Michigan, the eighth in Lenawee County.

Clinton is the first town to have a marker erected in its honor. Among the eight buildings so designated is the Tecumseh Community Center.

The inscription on one side describes the history of Clinton and the other side gives the history of the Clinton Inn, which once stood on this site.

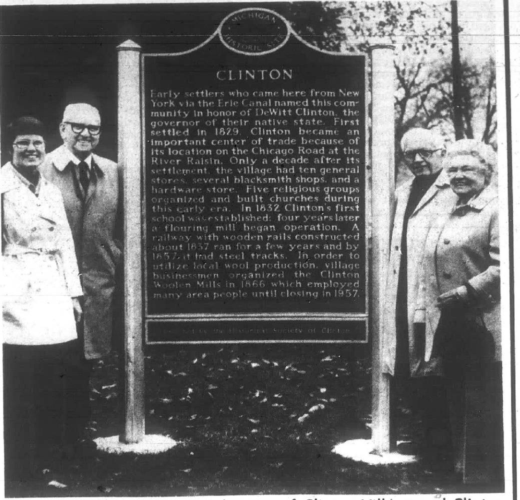
During the dedication program, the Historical Society of Clinton had arranged an informative display of Clinton Inn momentos and photos on display inside the Village office.

The east side of the marker, which honors the Clinton Inn, reads as follows

SITE OF THE CLINTON INN

The Sauk and Potawatomi Indians first traversed this main throughfare as a portion of the Sauk Trail. It became a military road after Congress appropriated funds in the 1820s for survey and construction of a route from Detroit to Chicago. Built about 1830 on this site, the Clinton Inn served travelers on the Chicago Road who journeyed by stage coach, covered wagon, and horseback.

Originally called the Eagle Hotel, the Inn became the Union Hotel during the Civil War and lodged soldiers coming to and from the front. Walter Hubbell Smith purchased the Inn in 1864. His daughter and heir, Mary Ella Smith, sold the building in 1927 to Henry Ford who moved it to Greenfield Village. There the Inn was restored and reopened in 1929.



MICHIGAN HISTORIC SITE
CLINTON
Early settlers who came here from New York via the Erie Canal named this community in honor of DeWitt Clinton, the governor of their native state. First settled in 1829, Clinton became an important center of trade because of its location on the Chicago Road at the River Raisin. Only a decade after its settlement, the village had ten general stores, several blacksmith shops, and a hardware store. Five religious groups organized and built churches during this early era. In 1832 Clinton's first school was established; four years later a flouring mill began operation. A railway with wooden rails constructed about 1837 ran for a few years and by 1857 it had steel tracks. In order to utilize local wool production, village businessmen organized the Clinton Woolen Mills in 1866 which employed many area people until closing in 1957.

HISTORIC OCCASION — Dedication of Clinton Village and Clinton Inn site marker was held Oct. 15. Shown here at the west side of the marker are: Shirley Fraley, Clayton Strolle, Village President; Mr. and Mrs. Halladay. Mrs. Fraley and the Halladays are members of the marker committee of the Historical Society of Clinton, which initiated the project 18 months ago.

United Fund Seeks $15,000

CLINTON — Clinton United Fund is holding a campaign dinner Oct. 26 at the Tecumseh Country Club.

The dinner is for members of the Clinton United Fund Board and their spouses, members of the Clinton Rotary Club and their spouses, and invited guests from local industries, Clinton Schools, Chamber of Commerce, Jaycees, and local banks.

The keynote speaker is Barbara Blanden of Tecumseh who has had varied experience in the United Fund work. She served on the staff of the Detroit United Way, served as chairperson and co-chairperson and treasurer of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation and is currently a consultant with the United Way of Michigan and serves on its board of directors.

The dates for the Clinton campaign is Oct. 26-Nov. 11.

Contributions may be made at these collection points in Clinton: Merkle-Young Hardware, State Savings Bank of Clinton, First Federal Savings of Clinton and Clinton Township Library.

Contributions may also be made through the mail addressed to Clinton United Fund, Clinton, Mich. 49236.

The goal for this year's campaign is $15,000. The area served is the Clinton Community School District.

The Rev. Roy Wagner, board vice-president, is serving as the fund drive chairman this fall. Dennis Reeve is board chairman; John Frye, treasurer; and Judy King is secretary.

Set Date for Bazaar and Dinner

CLINTON — Members of the prudential committee of the United Church of Christ met Thursday evening to complete plans for the annual pre-Christmas bazaar and dinner to be held Dec. 3.

Janet Corwin and Jennie Davis agreed to serve as co-chairmen of the dinner, and Irene Steffens is chairman of the bazaar.

Progressive Dinner Nets Circle $300

CLINTON — A progressive dinner for members and spouses of the Mary-Martha Class of the United Church of Christ was attended by 22 persons, Saturday evening, including members and spouses and the Rev. Roy Wagner.

Event raised $300 for the benefit of the United Church of Christ organ fund.

The group met at the Sand Lake beach front home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bihlmeyer, where they were served hors d'oeuvres and punch from a table centered with a stuffed pheasant nestled in fall leaves. A large variety of plants is a feature of this home.

The couples then strolled across the street to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKenna for the dinner entree.

Served fondue style, this included steak and cheese, fresh baked bread, cheese-filled meat balls, breaded mushrooms and relish tray.

The McKennas' antiques provided interest.

A dozen guests sat on high-backed, convent prayer chairs, and dined from pewter plates and goblets, gleaming in candlelight.

Others were seated at tables in the living room, before a lighted fireplace, where they were served from a collection of assorted floral china plates and cups.

Highlighting the decor of this room was a rare 1932 rosewood grand piano, recently acquired, which is being restored to playing condition.

Service for the dinner was provided by the McKenna family, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Bowman of Tecumseh, and Dr. and Mrs. Dwight McKenna of Ann Arbor.

Next the group went to the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Witherell on Michigan Ave., where they were served cherry cheese and grasshopper pies and coffee.

The remainder of the social evening was spent in the charming Early American setting, highlighted by the Franklin fireplace.

Mrs. Harold Moon assisted Mrs. Bihlmeyer; Mrs. Roy Wagner assisted Mrs. Witherell and Mrs. Harold Calhoun assisted Mrs. McKenna with preparations.

Plan Drain Study

CLINTON — Village Council members voted to request a Metzger Drain study by the Lenawee County Drain Commission, at their meeting Oct. 19.

They also adopted assessment principles to grant some tax relief to those unable to meet assessment costs of the drain.

Council accepted petitions from residents requesting the drain, which runs through farm land, and joins village subdivision on Clinton-Macon Rd.

A proposed ordinance for the drain is to be drawn up by the Nov. 7 meeting.

Following a discussion on the practice of giving out free light bulbs, the Council voted to give out six free bulbs for residential customers, after that customers will have to bring in expired bulbs.

The village is awaiting a ruling on whether public utilities can give out free light bulbs to customers.

Budd Reports Record Sales

CLINTON—The Budd Co. reported record sales and earnings for the third quarter and nine months.

Third quarter net income was $8.3 million, or $1.12 per common share on sales of $309.2 million. This is a 158 percent increase over last year's third quarter earnings of $3.2 million, or 49 cents per common share, on sales of $241.3 million. Both sales and earnings were a record for any third quarter.

Nine-month earnings in 1977 rose 73 percent to $34.9 million, or $5.02 per share, compared with $20.2 million, or $3.11 per share for the comparable period last year. The rise in per share earnings for the nine months was 61 percent.

Gilbert F. Richards, chairman of the board and chief executive officer, said the company's earnings for the first nine months of this year were greater than the entire 12 months of 1976.

He noted that third quarter results last year had been affected by a strike against a major customer and the cost of closing a unit of the company's Philadelphia stamping plant.

Sales for the first nine months of 1977 also set a record at $959.0 million, compared with $805.8 million for the comparable period in 1976, an increase of 19 percent.

"A continued high volume of sales to the automotive industry was a major contributor to the excellent third quarter results," Richards said.

"Further recovery in our highway truck trailer business and a strong showing by our foundry and plastic products operations were important factors. Improved performances were recorded by all of the company's international operations."

He said Budd is now producing 70 commuter railcars for Chicago's Regional Transportation Authority. Delivery of these cars will start before the end of 1977.

As a worldwide supplier to the automotive, trucking and railway industries, The Budd Co. produces automotive body components of steel and plastics, chassis frames, wheel and brake products, castings, prototype stampings and automotive heating accessories.

The company also manufactures a wide range of highway truck trailers and container chassis, railway passenger cars, rail anchors and hand tools for industrial, railway and consumer markets.

The Budd Co. operates plants in the U.S., Canada, Mexico, Brazil, Argentina, France and West Germany.

CHS Harriers at Tourney

Clinton cross country picked up five medals and a trophy at the Manchester Invitational Saturday.

The meet is divided by grades (freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors) with three runners in each class composing a team.

Clinton won the senior division and was fourth in the junior division. The Redskins also had the fastest five-man time of the 19 schools participating.

The Skins also broke three team records during the meet.

Mike Risner lowered his school record to 15:26. Matt Peters broke Risner's junior record by running 15:46. Matt McNeil lowered his freshman record to 17:05.

Risner was second in the senior race with a 15:26 time to lead the team to first place in this class. Wally Pike was 12th, Chris Wojtowicz was 20th and Dave D'Agostino was 46th.

Clinton was fourth in the junior portion. Peters was fifth at 15:46, Mark Prichard was 18th, and Devin Schindler was 31st.

Tom Nighswander was 32nd in the sophomore race while Gary Houghton was 39th. Matt McNeil was ninth in the freshman race.

Clinton's future in cross country also looks bright. Bobby Zimmerman and Butch Zemmer finished first and second in the one mile seventh grade race.

Jeff Heimerdinger finished tenth in the one mile eight grade run.

THS Cagers Crush 2

Tecumseh's cagers romped over two more Huron League opponents defeating Monroe Jefferson 66-29 on Tuesday of this week and Gibralter Carlson 51-34 last Thursday.

The wins left the Indians with a 5-1 league mark tied with St. Marys for second place. Grosse Ile is in first place.

Jefferson was no match for the orange and black. The Indians came out with a press for the first five minutes of the game completely dominating the play. At the end of the first frame Tecumseh was in the lead by a very comfortable 28-6.

Coach Diane Nelson began substituting late in the first period.

By the half they led 46-15.

Tecumseh hit on 31 of 59 attempts from the field for 44 percent while Jefferson just couldn't find the hoop dumping only 10 of 57 for a miserable 18 percent.

Tecumseh outrebounded its opponents 51-33.

Grace Burns led in scoring with 12 followed by Sandy MacGeorge and Gloria Fosbender each with 10.

The Indians were hot from the field against Carlson last Thursday dumping 22 of 42 attempts for 52 percent. Carlson hit on just 26 percent of their attempts.

By the half, the orange and black held a 24-13 advantage and were never challenged.

Debbie Steadly led the way in scoring with 13 markers followed by Grace Burns with 10. Tecumseh outrebounded the opposition 26-19. Burns had the lion's share with seven.

The Indians host New Boston Huron this Thursday and Flat Rock next Tuesday.

CROAK 'EM
HOP TO IT

'CROAK 'EM' — The seniors float, with the theme 'Croak 'Em' won the float contest for Tecumseh's homecoming last Friday. All the floats were based on characters from Sesame Street or the Muppets.

Auxiliary Meets, Projects Discussed

Auxiliary to Hall-Slater Post met Wednesday at the Post Home with 6th district president, Betty Ellsworth, present for inspection of the auxiliary.

Helen Abersold, Joyce Jacobs and Olive Wheeler were initated into membership.

Hospital chairman, Mary Ann Froelich reported on visiting patients and also the hospital party for patients at the VA hospital.

Twenty members of the Post and Auxiliary assisted with bingo and refreshments.

Mrs. Froelich and Pauline Mueller attended a volunteer workshop held on Saturday.

Mrs. Mueller reported on 49th State Pow-Wow held at Hyatt Regency, Dearborn. President Adelene MacKenzie also attended.

Nine members attended the school of instructions in Adrian at the VFW Post Home with state officials conducting the meeting.

National Home chairman, Martha Webb, reported a meeting will be held in Lansing Oct. 26 at the Law Building for the revision of Child Care institution rules. Members are urged to attend as the results of this hearing will affect the VFW National Home at Eaton Rapids.

Youth activities chairman Mrs. Mueller reported that contacts were made with three high schools for the Voice of Democracy Program.

Cancer chairman Naomi Williams reported on raffle for State Cancer Program.

Group will donate $25 to the Dyke Helms Fund. Ten dollars was voted for State President Sweebe's Camp Trotter project.

Refreshments were served by Viola Frost. Decorations were in keeping with the 50th anniversary of the Michigan Auxiliary.

Norma Tesma of Howell was a guest.

Golfers Are Huron Champions

The Indian golf squad finished up the regular season with a flourish on Wednesday of last week winning the Huron League meet with a team total five strokes better than its nearest competitor.

Tecumseh attended the state Class B meet on Saturday and ended the season in the 17th spot with a 350 total. Oscoda was number one with a 321 tally.

The orange and black ended the season with an unblemished 6-0 dual meet record and the Huron League championship. It was the fourth year in a row that the Indians have won the title.

Tecumseh won the league meet with a team score of 322 followed by Grosse Ile at 327, New Boston Huron at 330, Monroe Catholic Central at 340, Jefferson and Gibralter Carlson tied at 351 and Airport at 375.

Dave Graf tied with Russ Bajek of New Boston Huron for medalist honors both with 77's. It was the second year in a row for Graf to win medalist honors.

John Faulkner was next in line for Tecumseh with an 80 while John Paxton shot an 82 and Keith Bauman an 83 for Tecumseh.

Graf and Faulkner were named to the all-league first team and Paxton and Bauman to the second team.

At the state meet, both Graf and Bauman carded 83's while Faulkner had an 89 and Kevin Koszka a 95. Medalist in the tourney was Mike Madonis of Hartland who fired a 75.

Bauman and Graf tied at 29th individually.

Coach Cunningham said after the state meet, "We played much better last Wednesday. We were really up for the league tournament, that was one of our goals. It would have helped if we had played on the course where the state meet was held."

The Indians are losing five seniors to graduation including Dave Graf, Keith Bauman, John Paxton, Barry Barnhart and Mike Gower.

TECUMSEH'S GREG BORTON found some running room during the Indian's trouncing of Carlson 48-0 Friday. Tecumseh is in first place in the Huron League.

Indians Sharp, Trounce Carlson

By Jim Lincoln

A smile undoubtedly crossed the face of coach Pat Connors Friday night, perhaps, for only the second time this season.

His Indian team was sharp, playing as a team rather than as a bunch of talented individuals. Maybe Tecumseh has jelled, a little late to avoid an earlier loss but not too late to cap a fine season with just two games remaining.

After fumbling and losing the ball on the first play from scrimmage against Carlson Friday night, the Indians were outstanding both offensively and defensively. They not only ran and passed well, but blocking and tackling were sharp in completely dominating the visitors.

Final score of 48-0 is misleading. It could have been larger.

Tecumseh was ahead 13-0 at the end of 12 minutes and 35-0 at halftime. By that time, Connors already had gone to the bench, a move not anticipated at least at this stage of the game.

Carlson had size and good speed. Tecumseh was not expected to romp, but neither were the Indians expected to play as a team, their best performance since trouncing Chelsea in the opener. In retrospect, how did they lose to Flat Rock?

Tecumseh has only Monroe Jefferson here Friday night now to win the Huron League championship, and the Bears could give the Indians some trouble. They're tied for second place with Monroe C.C. and Flat Rock.

Fans were barely in their seats at homecoming against Carlson before the Indians broke the game wide open. After fumbling and then stopping the visitors, the Indians moved some 80 yards for a touchdown with Jeff Hans passing to Greg Borton for the final 10 yards.

Moments later, Hans again connected, hitting Jeff Anderson with a long aerial along the sidelines and the speedy Anderson simply outraced the Carlson backs for the end zone, capping a 67-yard play.

Anderson and Borton each tallied again in the second period before Jeff Robideau took in a Hans pass for a TD and to give the Indians a 35-0 lead at halftime.

Although reserves played most of the second half, Anderson completed his scoring in the third quarter with a 20-yard scamper, and John Egbert, having kicked three extra points, scored the final touchdown on an eight-yard run. Robideau then kicked the extra point, completing the scoring.

It was the best offensive exhibition of the season for Tecumseh, rolling up almost 450 yards with nearly 200 yards through the air. Not once did the Indians punt.

The Indians also dominated the statistics coming up with 258 yards rushing while holding Carlson to just 52 yards on the ground.

Tecumseh added another 187 yards through the air.

Anderson led in rushing with 120 yards in 20 carries while Tom Chatters had 15 tackles for Tecumseh.

The victory boosted the Indians to 6-1 for the season and 5-1 in the league.

Scoring:

Carlson	0	0	0	0	0
Tecumseh	13	22	6	7	48

JEFF ANDERSON, NO. 45, LED IN RUSHING AGAINST CARLSON

Indian Runners Tie For 2nd in League

After placing third at the Huron League meet at Grosse Ile on Tuesday of this week, the Indian cross country team ended up tying with Huron for second place in the league.

Airport won the league meet and league title.

Following Airport in the final league standings was Huron and Tecumseh tied for second, Monroe Catholic Central and Flat Rock tied for fourth, Carlson sixth, Grosse Ile seventh and Jefferson eighth.

Airport had 56 points in the league meet while Huron had 73, Tecumseh 75, C.C. 93, Flat Rock 106, Carlson 111, Grosse Ile 158 and Jefferson 231.

Brian Banda was seventh in the league meet at 16:12, Doug Bohannon eighth at 16:13, Kirk Oliver 13th, Scott Betzoldt 21st, Jesse Castorena 26th, Scott Winstead 29th and Phil Conklin 42nd. Gene Reitz of Huron won it at 15:50 for a course record.

Brian Banda was named to the first team all-league while Doug Bohannon and Kirk Oliver were named to the second team.

Last Thursday, the Indians defeated Jefferson 19-44 and participated in the Manchester Invitational Saturday.

Doug Bohannon took first place against Monroe Jefferson with a 16:10 clocking. Kirk Oliver was third, Jesse Castorena was fourth, Scott Winstead fifth and Kent Norris sixth.

Tecumeseh participated in the Manchester Invitational on Saturday. The tourney was divided into four races pitting grade gainst grade. Three runners comprised a team in each grade rather than the usual five.

Doug Bohannon was fifth in the senior race while the Indians took second in the junior class. Brian Banda led the way taking fourth place with a clocking of 15:45, Kirk Oliver was seventh and Jesse Castorena was 26th.

Tecumseh was third in the sophomore class. Scott Winstead led the way with an 11th place finish while Phil Conklin was 15th and Lenny Castorena was 18th.

Scott Betzoldt led the county with a third place finish in the freshman division with a 16:35 time.

Tecumseh finished the regular season with a 7-3 overall record, 6-1 in the league. This Saturday they participate in the Class B regionals at Jackson. There is a girls invitational next week.

Redskins Win Non-league Battle Against Grass Lake

Clinton's gridders came up with a 26-15 win over Grass Lake Friday in a non-league contest.

The Redskins scored twice in the first quarter to take a quick 14-0 advantage. Tailback Casey Thilo dominated the Clinton scoring running three yards and then five yards in the first frame for the two touchdowns.

Thilo ran in the extra points after his first score while the pass try failed after the second.

Grass Lake scored in the second frame while Jeff Porterfield ran two yards for another Clinton score. Grass Lake made its final score in the third period while Thilo went four yards in the final quarter for Clinton.

As might be expected, Thilo led in rushing picking up 127 yards of Clinton's 172 yards on the ground. The Redskins defense held Grass Lake to 98 yards rushing and 58 through the air. The Skins had 15 yards in passing.

Both teams lost 70 yards in penalties.

Defensively for Clinton, Porterfield had 16 tackles, Bill Gerard 12 and Rudy Weirich 11. Doug Brooks recovered a fumble while Andy Hoag snagged a Grass Lake pass.

The Redskins are 5-2 overall, 3-2 in the LCAA while Grass Lake is 2-5.

Clinton travels to Manchester this Friday.

Clinton Cagers Roll to 11th Win

Clinton's cagers withstood one of the strongest challenges to their undefeated season on Tuesday of this week in the form of Addison.

Clinton, losing by six with three minutes to go, went to a two-on-two zone defense and was able to come back and win 53-50.

The victory leaves the Skins with a perfect 7-0 record in the LCAA, 11-0 overall. Addison dropped to 5-2 in the league.

Clinton held a 26-21 advantage at the half when Addison came alive in the third period scoring 17 to eight for the Skins. Clinton outscored its opponents 19-12 in the final frame to cup up with the win.

JoAnn Grossman had 13 of the team's 34 rebounds. Scoring was very balanced, something that pleased coach Bob King. Sue Richter was on top with 16 markers followed by Cathy Gibson, Karen Busch and Grossman all with 10 points.

The Redskins had no trouble with another LCAA foe, Manchester, last Thursday winning handily 63-41.

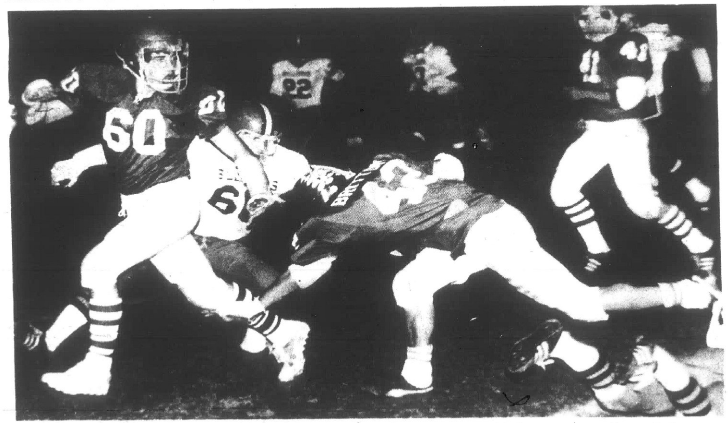
Sue Richter came up with an impressive 28 points to lead Clinton against the Dutchmen.

The Skins were ahead 35-26 at the half taking a 20-10 advantage in the third frame.

Karen Busch and Cathy Gibson added 12 and 10 points respectively.

The Dutchmen couldn't keep their hands on the basketball turning it over 36 times to 20 for the Skins. Clinton came up with 40 rebounds to 30 for the opposition. Richter also led in that department with 10.

Clinton entertains Onsted this Thursday night, traveling to Hudson next Tuesday. The Skins are in first place in the LCAA.



JEFF OSTERHOUT led in rushing against Summerfield last Friday but it was all for nothing. The Tories were shut out 34-0. Above, Jeff tries to follow teammate Dan Sparrow, no. 60, but is tripped up. Below, he finds a hole for a gain.

Tories Tromped by Summerfield

Britton's Tories were no match for Summerfield's undefeated grid team Friday night.

Britton lost the battle 34-0.

The Tories had trouble hanging on to the ball giving it up at the Bulldog 12 and 17 yard line. They fumbled three times altogether.

Summerfield put together quarters of six, seven, seven and 14 to hand Britton its third Tri-County loss. The Bulldogs came up with 338 yards rushing to 202 for Britton.

Neither team picked up much yardage through the air with Summerfield adding 13, Britton 10 yards.

Jeff Osterhout led the Tory offense in rushing with 165 yards while Terry Daykin had nine tackles for the defensive unit.

Summerfield and Sand Creek are tied for the Tri-County lead with identical 5-0 records. Britton is in the third spot at 2-3.

Britton travels to Whiteford this Friday.

Britton Cagers Triumph

The Britton girls basketball squad put together an 18-4 second quarter to pull away from Summerfield last Thursday. The Tories went on to win the contest 40-25.

Genene Bruce had 24 points and Kim Cottrell had 11 rebounds.

The Tories outrebounded their opponents 27-19.

Britton is 5-2 in the Tri-County League, 7-3 overall.

"Insurance will do that?"

If an insured damage (fire, windstorm, explosion) forces out the tenants of your apartment or commercial building, the owner can collect lost rentals and the tenants can collect cost of operating elsewhere until repairs are made. A LOOK INSIDE
Herrick Hospital

BY
KATHY BAILEY, R.N.
RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

Oct. 23 to Oct. 29 marks Michigan Nurse Week of 1977. This week is set aside to recognize the contributions of nurses to the health and welfare of the citizens of Michigan. Special tribute is made to all RN's, LPN's, occupational health nurses and nurse anesthetists by their respective state and local associations.

As we salute the nursing staff at Herrick Hospital, readers might find it interesting to compare the duties of the nurse in 1887 to that of nurses now. In 1887, in addition to caring for 50 patients, each nurse was expected to follow these regulations:

1. Daily sweep and mop the floors of their ward, dust the patient's furniture, and window sills.
2. Maintain an even temperature in their ward by bringing in a scuttle of coal for the day's business.
3. Light is important to observe the patient's condition. Therefore, each day fill kerosene lamps, clean chimneys and trim wicks. Windows are to be washed once a week.
4. The nurse's notes are important in aiding the physician's work. Make your pens carefully, you may whittle nibs to your individual taste.
5. Each nurse on day duty will report every day at 7 a.m. and leave at 8 p.m., except on the Sabbath on which day you will be off from noon to 2 p.m.
6. Graduate nurses in good standing with the director of nurses will be given an evening off each week if you go regularly to church.
7. Each nurse should lay aside from each pay a goodly sum of her earnings for her benefits during her declining years, so that she will not become a burden. For example, if you earn $30 a month you should set aside $15.
8. Any nurse who smokes, uses liquor in any form, gets her hair done at a beauty shop or frequents dance halls will give the director of nurses good reason to suspect her worth, intentions and integrity.
9. The nurse who performs her labors, serves her patients and doctors faithfully and without fault for a period of five years will be given an increase by the hospital administration of five cents a day providing there are no hospital debts that are outstanding.

The role of the nurse has changed greatly since 1887, as any former patient can attest to, and many nurses at HMH have been a part of these changes through the years.

A special tribute to three nurses with long years of service — Wanda Cavin, RN, head nurse in OB, Marge Spooner, RN, associate director of nursing on 11-7, and Norma Moll, RN, director of nursing.

May a grateful community join in honoring the dedicated nursing staff at HMH this week.

NURSES OF THE 1800's would probably be most puzzled over all the technical equipment used by today's nurse. These nurses, Cheryl Peroy, Ann Tuckey and Kathy Sell, are shown administering a breathing treatment, using an Intermittent Positive Pressure Breathing machine.

NURSING NOTES remain very important, but equally important are plans of care, individualized for each patient. Nurses shown here discussing a patient and his care include (l-r), Debbie Taylor, Linda Lloyd, Kip Jackson and Beulah Morris.

Choral Concert by Sunshine in Jackson

Sunshine — a choral group of 16 young ladies, fourth through 12th grades, of the First Baptist Church of Tecumseh presented two concerts Sunday.

First concert was at the regular morning worship service attended by 220 persons at the church.

The second concert of the day was presented that evening at a worship service in Judson Memorial Baptist Church, Lansing.

Sunshine is in its fourth year, and is directed by Carol McLeod.

Any local church or civic organization which would like to make arrangements to have the Sunshine girls sing for them at a future concert, may call the director, 423-3482.

Sunshine members are Carol Fisk, Mini Rogers, Dawn Champanois, Rhonda Rhora, Stephanie Shied, Lynn Boyd, Terri Rickard, Laurie Emerson, Julie Gage, Carol Clark, Jeanne Johnstone, Susan Mills, Kim Seay, Patti Mitchell, Jackie Johnstone and Jeanne McLeod.

Macon Montage

MACON — When the Tecumseh Indian Football team gathered at mid-field last Friday night to say their post game prayer, they certainly had much to be thankful for. The beautiful weather, the terrific support of all their fans and the victory were among the things which will make homecoming 1977 something they will long remember!

Bill and Linda Phillips and Jim and Joyce Conrad enjoyed weekend before last in Oscoda. The foursome tried their hand at Coho fishing but didn't have the luck they did last year. They took a two-hour color tour on a paddle boat called the River Queen and report it was beautiful. Snowfluries were in the air as the group returned.

Several Macon families will enjoy some meals of Coho salmon this winter. Bob Kollar, Paul Kollar, Ed Mueller and Larry Biskner spent five days in Tawas fishing and when they returned Bob took his wife, Shirley and three children back up for three more days. Altogether the group caught 39! Danny Kollar caught four and sister, Debbie, got her first one.

Saturday afternoon callers at Agatha Camburn's home were Elizabeth Brown and Romaine Stoddard who brought Agatha's sister, Hester Gunder, over from Adrian for a visit. Hester's daughter, Catherine Wittkop, was still at Camburns.

Attics and closets are being dug into as Macon Historical Society members are deciding what they will wear to the "50's Dance" Oct. 29 from 8 until midnight at Bill and Sandy Gilreath's home on Hack Rd. A potluck will be served with the society furnishing sloppy joes. A prize for the best costume will be awarded.

Pat and Sharon Connors, Kris and Tim, had birthday dinner last Wednesday night for Pat's mom, Ahlene Connors, who had a birthday Oct. 20.

The Macon Youth Group met at the Macon Methodist Church on Sunday night. Officers elected were: president - John Clark; vice-president, Bruce Bugbee; secretary, Jacki Swanston; treasurer - Perry Moore.

Members and prospective members are reminded of the hayride Oct. 30 from 7:30 - 11 p.m. at Swanston's. Bring your own hot dogs, buns and all else will be furnished.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Russell VanValkenburg will be honored for their 50th anniversary at an open house Nov. 6 from 2-5 p.m. at the Macon Methodist Church. The afternoon is planned by the five VanValkenburg children, Harold, Kenneth and Richard and their wives plus their daughters, Mrs. Robert McTaggert and Mrs. Floyd Lindsey and their husbands. Harry and Mary have 15 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

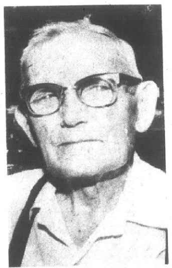
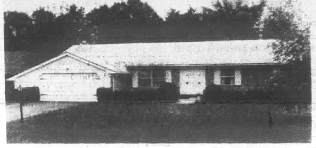
All Macon area children are invited to a Halloween party, Oct. 29 from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Macon Methodist Church.



CELEBRATES 85th — Clarence Hall of Macon celebrates his 85th birthday Oct. 31. He has cared for Macon Cemetery for 60 years.



Just Listed!!! Executive home located in Tecumseh. . NOTICE
Invitation to Bid

The City of Tecumseh will accept sealed bids for the single family house and lot located at 609 S. Pearl Street until 2:00 P.M. Friday, November 4, 1977. The highest bidder will be awarded the property with the minimum acceptable bid being $4,000. A cashiers check in the amount of $100.00 must accompany each bid. The bid deposit will be returned to all unsuccessful bidders. In the case of two or more identical high bids, a drawing will be used to pick the winning bid.

The winning bidder will receive the house on a land sales contract with 25% down. Minimum monthly payments of $100.00 will be charged beginning one month after date of contract. The remaining balance will be due and payable at 9½% interest, either one year after the date of the land sales contract or upon completion of required repairs. The aforesaid repairs will be part of the land contract and failure to make said repairs within one year shall result in forfeiture or enforcement of said land contract.

The list of required repairs and a bid form may be obtained at City Hall. An open house will be scheduled from 9 to 12 a.m., on Friday, October 28, and from 1 to 4 p.m. on Monday, October 31, for anyone who may wish to inspect the house.

The city retains the right to reject any or all bids.

Tecumseh Herald Readers Write

Dear Editor:

We feel this "Letter to the Editor" should really be addressed to the parents of the Junior Class.

During the week of Oct. 15-21 we hosted a lot of the young adults in the Junior Class while they worked on their homecoming float in our garage.

We use the term young adults because that is what they are and that is the way they conducted themselves.

We feel their parents should be justifiably proud of their sons and daughters. They were always courteous and pleasant around us and our two younger children, I'm sure we sometimes got in their way.

Even when things didn't go just as planned or as quickly, they didn't become unpleasant or try to find someone else to blame for something that couldn't be helped.

I'm sure their class adviser, Ray Schmidt would add his praises of the junior class to this letter.

We really felt it was an honor to have the Junior Class in our home, and feel that you as their parents should be congratulated on your part for the way they conducted themselves.

As a final note, we would like to say that they are welcome to come back again, anytime.

Dr. and Mrs. Sidney E. Adams
503 N. Evans
Tecumseh, Mich.

To the Editor:

Tecumseh High School Varsity Football Team wishes to express its sincere appreciation for the loyal support from their many fans.

We solicit your utmost support for this coming Friday's game against Monroe Jefferson which will be for the championship of the Huron League.

Sincerely,
Tri-Captains:
Jim Neill
Richard Cangley
John Egbert

To the Editor:

Congratulations.

Anybody who can make it through 20 years of deadlines has a right to be proud. Goes to show that there's still hope for the rest of us.

I couldn't resist dropping a line to let you know that the weather here is getting better even as yours is getting worse. Temperatures in the high 80s, sunny days, fishing's picking up... Just want to let you know I'll be glad to trade places with you when you get fed up with fighting the snowdrifts.

But believe me, snowdrifts aren't anything compared to some of the editors down here.

Anyway, best wishes to you and the gang as you head into your 21st year in Tecumseh.

Bill Whiting
The Miami Herald

Letter to the Editor

Our family had the privilege again this fall of having a homecoming float built in our garage.

It is a great experience to watch the transformation of a bare wagon, chicken wire and squares of chicken wire turn into a "masterpiece," such as Grover was.

The class adviser, Miss Jan Harrison, and her dedicated helper, Mr. Jerry Nelson, should be commended for the many hours of hard work and organization they put into this project.

There was a slight problem on Tuesday evening when a few sophomores got "carried away" and had a paint brush fight. However, contrary to the rumors that spread rampantly, the damage to our basement is almost nil.

Again, I believe the adviser, teachers who helped, class officers, and the class of 1980 should be commended for their hard work, politeness and consideration given to our family and home last week.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Roger Williams

Wagon Auction Is Successful

The second monthly meeting of the season was held Oct. 20 for the Welcome Wagon Club of Tecumseh in the United Savings Bank.

The month's feature was a service auction, which was a money-raising success.

September's meeting was highlighted by a talk on wills by Henry Newlin, a local attorney.

The group set a full calendar for this year and cordially invites its members and new town residents to get on the Wagon.

November meeting will be held Nov. 7 at the Fabric Center at 8 p.m. Program is "So Sew It."

Poison Poster

Families may have a poster with the latest first aid information on poisoning, according to Elwood Little, chairman of the Lenawee Red Cross Chapter.

It can be posted on the medicine cabinet, in the kitchen or near a phone. Poster also has space for telephone numbers of the Poison Control Center and rescue squad.

To receive one, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to "Poison Poster," Lenawee Red Cross Chapter, 204 N. Broad St., Adrian 49221.

Memorial from Friends

A memorial to the late Dwight Helms at Tecumseh Acres Elementary, consisting of a bronze plaque mounted on a school activity signboard, is being furnished by "friends and neighbors" of Helms according to Tecumseh Acres principal Pete Clark.

It was incorrectly stated last week that the PTO was furnishing the memorial.

The sign will feature current school activities and will also show the school's colors — blue and white — and the school symbol, the Vikings. Flowers will also be planted.

Construction was started a month ago according to Clark and it is hoped that the dedication will be in March. The Vo-Tech building trades department is handling construction.

A permanent fund has been established at the main branch of the United Savings Bank for the perpetual care of the memorial.

Clark estimated the cost at $200 coming from donations.

Herrick Contributions

Recent contributions to the Herrick Memorial Heart Fund were made in memory of Garland Holmes by Mr. and Mrs. William Barringer, George S. Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Myers, Frank G. Gruber, United Savings Bank Tuesday Night Ladies Bowling League, Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Sunderland, Lawrence Pate, Allen H. Meyers Foundation;

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Million, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hintz, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Durand, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burleson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Green, Mrs. Allen H. Meyers, Mrs. Carlyle G. Reed, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Willis G. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cote Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Max Hallett, Ila Smith and Wsythe Louden.

In memory of Jolan Bills by V.F.W. Auxiliary.

In memory of Orville Dewey by Murray, Wolf & Curtis D.D.S.

Recent contributions to the Herrick Memorial Hospital General Equipment Fund have been made in memory of Garland Holmes by Gladys Durand and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Durand.

In memory of Doug Barron by Murray, Wolf and Curtis D.D.S.

New Members

New members joined the fellowship of the Tecumseh United Methodist Church: Donald and Grace Sass of Adrian transferred from Strathmoor Church of Detroit and Mrs. Kent Downing from Garden City church.

Mark Alexander, son of the Tony Greca's of Ypsilanti, and Cynthia Marie, daughter of the Stanley Legencs of Tipton, was baptized during the Sunday morning services.

Next Sunday, the United Methodist Men will have their monthly breakfast at 7 a.m. in the fellowship hall.

XL DEALER — Tecumseh Equipment was recognized last week for their overall excellence. C. Lephart, IHC representative, was on hand to give the group a special plaque designating the local dealer as "XL". On hand to receive the honor were, (l-r), William Alfrey (vice president) and wife Dorothy, Lowell E. Meyers (secretary) and wife Lois, Donald A. Ford (president), Linda Chase, Pam Ford and Ashley E. Chase (treasurer).

Tecumseh Equipment Is 'XL Dealer'

International Harvester recognized Tecumseh Equipment, 2485 Monroe Rd., as an "XL Dealer" last Monday night at an honorary dinner in Ann Arbor.

The "XL" appointment is the highest form of recognition an International dealer can earn.

It is, according to regional manager R.L. Lee, "a symbol of excellence. . .in customer service, production, knowledge and employee management. Only International Harvester dealers committed to the highest standards of operation and a total pursuit of excellence for U.S. agriculture and service to their communities become 'XL Dealers'."

A plaque was given to the local group representing IH at the Win Schuler dinner.

Others on hand included C. Lephart, Ron Whaley, Allen White, and Bill Bohmer from IHC. Special guests included Mr. and Mrs. A.W. merz, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Masters and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newlin.

BOTH TEAMS BOAST 7-1 MARKS

Indians Face Adrian Here Friday Night

An all-out team effort will be needed here Friday night by the Tecumseh Indians in their annual showdown against Adrian. The Maples are tough, losing only once this season in an upset to Ann Arbor Huron.

While the Indians likewise post a record marred by just one defeat, Tecumseh has come fast in the past couple of games and what might have been a mismatch just a few weeks ago now shapes up as a typical Tecumseh-Adrian scrap.

Coach Pat Connors and his team would enjoy nothing better than to whip the Maples. After defeating Monroe Jefferson here Friday evening, 48-12, and for the Huron League championship, a victory over Adrian really would be "frosting on the cake."

About two-thirds of the varsity will be playing their final game, a number that will be sorely missed next year.

Jeff Anderson, one of Tecumseh's finest runners ever, will graduate as will Jeff Hans, John Egbert, Jeff Robideau and Butch Harvey from the offensive backfield, one of the most talented here in many years.

Other seniors and on the championship team are Bill Tooman, John Yoakum, Jerry Herring, Wendell Withrow, Dan Yoder, John Silberhorn, Jim Neill, Richard Cangley, Keith Hill, Jim Storms, Mark Feight, Kim Cantrell and Mike Ery.

Two seniors, Dan DeHaan and Lyndon Hughes, are injured and not expected to see action.

While the Indians will be wrapping up another season and one that brought them a league title, their hopes for a play-off in the state's Class B games vanished when they were upset by Flat Rock.

Connors has a team that is playing excellent football today, and a team today that undoubtedly would shellack Flat Rock, rather than losing by a single point, and every other team in the Huron League.

While the Indians may be underdogs against Adrian, if they repeat their Monroe Jefferson and Carlson performances, Friday night's game could be a dandy - and for the Tecumseh team and fans!

Council Race Vote Tuesday

Tecumseh residents have only one question on the Tuesday Nov. 8th ballot. Voters will have a choice of four candidates for the three council seat vacancies.

Newcomer Michele A. Worley and incumbents Leonard H. DeMoss, Harold Easton and Aden Mead will be on the ballot.

Polls are open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the Community Center, precinct no. 1 and 4 and the fire station for precincts no. 2 and 3. Anyone in line at closing will be given an opportunity to vote.

This issue of the Herald features pictures and resumes of the candidates as well as their responses to questions about their candidacy, the leadership role of a council member, challenges to the city in the next two years and the problem of vandalism.

Only one qustion, regarding the present garbage collection system, was asked by a reader in response to the Herald's invitation for voters to quiz the candidates.

LEONARD H. DeMOSS

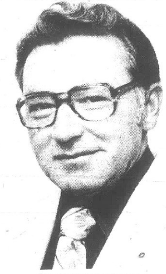
Leonard H. DeMoss, 30, of 802 W. Pottawatamie, has been a Tecumseh resident for about 17 years. He concludes his first council term.

He is a quality control engineer for Ford Motor Co., Rawsonville Plant.

He was active in the Jaycees and is a member of St. Elizabeth Church.

Elected in 1975 for his first term, he succeeded councilman Wallace Whiting.

He and his wife, Terry, have three sons, Robert 5, Scott, 2 and Matthew, eight months old.

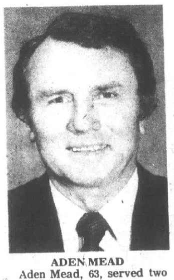


HAROLD EASTON

A resident of Tecumseh for 43 years, Harold Easton, 53, resides at 701 Center Ct. with his wife, Clara.

He has served Tecumseh city council for 18 years, 16 as mayor. He is a Mobil Oil dealer, president of the Rotary Club, a member of the First Baptist Church, American Legion, Masonic Lodge, Lenawee County Sheriff's Department mounted division and assistant leader for 4-H.

Easton has served Tecumseh fire department for 33 years.



ADEN MEAD

Aden Mead, 63, served two terms, (four years) as city councilman.

The president of Weather-Seal of Southeastern Michigan, Inc., he has resided in Tecumseh since 1938 and served 21 years as member and president of the Tecumseh school district school board. A member of the Tecumseh United Methodist Church, he has served in various capacities.

He and his wife, Margaret, reside at 128 W. Brown with daughter, Laura, a junior in Tecumseh high school.

MICHELE A. WORLEY

Michele A. Worley, 31, of 710 W. Chicago Blvd. has resided four years in Tecumseh with her husband, Lee, and their two daughters, Kellie, 12 and Letty, 10.

Mrs. Worley was employed by the Washtenaw Association for Retarded Children as an instructor [illegible] mentally retarded adults, and worked several years at the University of Michigan cashier's office as a disbursement clerk.

She served as a member of the historic district study committee.

Question Candidates

This first question came to the Herald from a city resident.

Q: What do you think of the present garbage collection system? If you are satisfied, why? If you are not satisfied, what alternative could you suggest to correct or improve it?

DeMoss: "I don't think it is efficient. For the past two years, I've harped about it. For the past three weeks, there has been no collection on the west side and last winter for four weeks in a row.

"This should be a strong consideration to the contract when it comes up. I don't like the bags. Fifty aren't enough for a family of four. A person who moves has to pay about 46 cents a bag if the previous owner didn't leave any.

"I would like to see it as it is in the township."

Easton: "I think it's one of the best that there is. Provides a neat, clean way for collecting garbage. Economically, it's probably the lowest priced system the community could have.

"We investigated other systems. It boils down to be the best. In fact, many communities are patterning their systems after ours here."

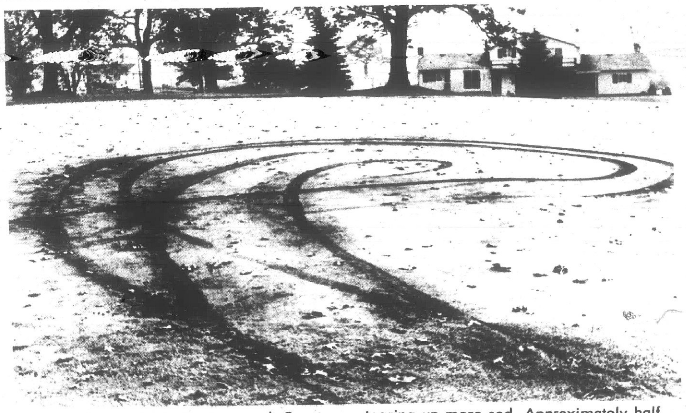
Mead: "It is fair system for all citizens, because those who have more garbage are going to pay for a larger share of the collection costs. Each person pays according to the amount collected.

"Sometimes it is not as speedy. But this is due to human error. They're not paying for the bag, they pay for the service.

"If people want more service, there's no question we could give it to them, but it will cost more money. Services aren't free."

Worley: "I don't think the brown bags are adequate. Extra ones are not always available. That means you have to buy plastic bags to keep your garbage until the next pickup. If you have something larger, you have to wait until spring and fall pickup or take it to the dump.

"I don't know what we have as an alternative."



MORE DESTRUCTION — Tecumseh Country Club has often been the target of vandals in the past, and last Friday night was no exception. A vehicle was driven onto the above green, spun around a couple of times and then driven down a fairway, tearing up more sod. Approximately half of this green, number two on the golf course was so badly damaged that play here will be restricted most of next year's golfing season. (PHOTO BY KENT DOWNING)

BANK HIT, OFFERING REWARD

Golf Green Heavily Damaged by Vandals at Country Club

Vandalism was practically nil here over the weekend with two exceptions, damages reported at the main office of the United Savings Bank and Friday night at the Tecumseh Country Club.

An east side window, 30 inches by nine feet and smoke-colored plate glass, was broken out of the director's room at the bank. Discovery was made Tuesday morning.

Bank officials, upset by the breakage, have offered a $500 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the party, or parties, directly involved.

While the bank sustained a loss, Tecumseh Country Club loss could well be bigger.

Last Friday night, a small vehicle or Jeep was driven onto the number two green with severe damages to the green. John Kennedy, golf course greenskeeper calls it the worse he's seen here.

He says all bare spots — and there's plenty — have been seeded with hopes that the seed will germinate next spring. If not, the areas will be patched with sod.

Regardless, Kennedy reports, damages inflicted will still be apparent all through the next golfing season. Approximately half of the green will be restricted or limited to use.

A neighbor reportedly witnessed part of the vandalism but did not have time to obtain a license number before the vehicle left the premises. Officials only know that it was a small car or Jeep and that it had regular tread on the front wheels and snow tires on the rear wheels.

This same vehicle is believed to have driven across and damaged lawns at the Phillip L. Parisian residence, 8818 Grange Hall Rd., and at the Tim Laphan home 902 Murray Dr.

Tire markings are said to be the same.

Other complaints the past week were:

Oct. 28 - William S. Laplante, Monroe, reported a party rolled a truck tire into his car and damaged the front left fender during the Tecumseh-Monroe Jefferson football game.

Oct. 28 - Carl Martin, 118 S. Ottawa, told police he was driving on S. Occidental when a rock was thrown, glancing off the windshield of his pickup camper and then denting the camper's top.

Oct. 29 - A.B. Hammond, 148 Brown, told police that eggs were thrown against his house, one flower pot broken and another stolen.

Oct. 29 - Carmen Murphy, 705 Russell Rd., said he was turning at the Russell-Adrian St. intersection when his vehicle was hit by eggs, believed to have been thrown from a balcony of the apartments there.

Oct. 29 - Doug Hoffman, Lee Villa Court, reported his car extensively scratched while parked in a city parking lot.

Oct. 29 - Mrs. Joanne Carterer, 713 N. Union, reported grass, leaves and wood dumped in her backyard. Neighborhood youngsters agreed to clean it up.

Oct. 31 - Thomas D. Dalton, 37, McMinniville, Tenn., was arrested for having open intoxicants in his car.

Nov. 1 - Ward Eardley, city recreation director, told police that a large window was borken in the building at Tecumseh Park. Other windows were scratched.

Break Cancels THS Classes

A leak in a steam line running from the boiler to the language lab at the high school resulted in a surprise holiday for high school students Monday.

According to Supt. Robert Duhan, the leak was discovered at 5:30 a.m. Monday morning.

There was some moisture damage to classroom materials and there was no heat in one section of the building, Duhan said.

School officials could give no damage estimate except to say the dollar amount would be minimal.

Classes resumed Tuesday.

Pop Concert Next Monday

A pops concert will be Nov. 7 at 8 p.m. at Tecumseh high school gym.

Jimmie Rice will conduct the junior varsity and varsity bands in selections from "Man of LaMancha" and the Carpenters' hits.

Nominal admission will be charged for students and adults. Preschool children will be admitted free.

Christmas Tab on Nov. 22nd

Annual Tecumseh Herald Christmas shopping tabloid for local merchants will be printed and mailed Tuesday, Nov. 22.

Advertising deadline for the special section will be Wednesday, Nov. 16th. Any merchant who wishes to be included in the section and not contacted by Nov. 11, should call The Herald, 423-2174 or 423-2175, and the ad will be picked up.

Out of Bags

City manager Cal Zorn reported the 25,000 leaf bags which city hall has distributed are all gone.

Households are advised to put their leaves in boxes until the end of the season.

Fund Drive Nearing $40,000, Half of Goal

At their weekly meeting Friday morning, Community Fund Foundation officials learned that the current drive has raised approximately $38,253, or 46 percent of the $84,000 goal.

None of the division drives is completed. Campaign is scheduled to end in about two weeks.

Breakdown of monies raised so far is:

Residential Division	$ 937.00
Industrial Division	29,815.00
Tecumseh Public Schools	2,500.00
Public Employees	331.00
Professional Division	1,030.00
Commercial Division	2,840.00
Special Gifts	800.00

The drive is well underway at Tecumseh Products and officials there have estimated $15,000 contributed to date.

Tecumseh Businesswoman Dies Here Unexpectedly

MARTHA E. BRADY

Services were held Monday at the Proctor Funeral Home for Martha E. Brady, 62, co-owner and secretary of Brady Sand and Gravel, Inc., one of the oldest businesses in Tecumseh.

She died last Thursday in the emergency room at Herrick Memorial Hospital. Her unexpected death was attributed to a heart condition.

Mrs. Brady was a life-long resident of Lenawee County and a resident here for the past 31 years. She and her husband, Arthur F. Brady, whom she married on July 10, 1938, first operated an electrical business here, then built houses before acquiring the farm and starting a sand and gravel business at 2980 Russell Rd.

She was born Dec. 11, 1914, in Tecumseh to Carl and Eva (Boyce) Glancy, who died while she was an infant. She was reared by her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George Clancy, and attended the Wooden School at Cambridge Junction.

She once attended the Prospect Hill Methodist Church, which no longer exists.

Survivors, besides her husband, are one daughter, Janice Bendele, a son, Robert Brady, and three grandchildren, all of Tecumseh.

The Rev. Russell Cooper, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church, Clinton, officiated, and burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

On July 6, 1912 she was born in Coleman, Mich. to Henry and Clarissa (Craft) Jenkins. She married Frank Mason in Auburn, Ind. on March 6, 1936. She was a Tecumseh area resident for over 34 years.

Survivors include her husband, five daughters, Mrs. Donald (Judy) Maschino, Rapid River, Mrs. Jerry (Phyllis) Stanford, Maumee, Ohio, Mrs. Joel (Susan) Baughey, Tecumseh, Mrs. Paula Gainey, Whitmore Lake, Francine Mason, San Francisco, Calif.; three sisters, Lulu Schaffer, Adrian, Mrs. Kermit (Margaret) Wilson, Toldeo, Ohio, Mrs. Gerald (Myrtle) Phillips, Levering, Mich.; three brothers, William Jenkins, Adrian, Henry Jenkins, Long Beach, Calif., Robert Jenkins, Adrian; 11 grandchildren.

One brother and her parents preceded her in death.

The Rev. Lacy Stephenson will officiate and burial will be in the Ridgeway Cemetery.

Friends may call after 2 p.m. Thursday.

ELAINE I. LAWS

Services are at 1 p.m. Friday at the Purse Funeral Home for Elaine I. Laws, 38, of Pekin, Ill., formerly of Tecumseh who died Oct. 31 in the Proctor Hospital in Pekin. She was in ill health for five years.

Born May 13, 1939 in Tecumseh to William and Lucille (Martin) Butler, she resided in Pekin for the past nine years. She married Calvin Laws on Jan. 21, 1961. He survives.

Also surviving are three sons, Rodger of Pekin, Jeffery and Christopher at home, two daughters, Cynthia and Laurie at home, her mother Mrs. Lucille Butler of Tecumseh; three sisters, Mrs. James (Kathleen) Dahlke of Adrian, Mrs. David (Sharon) Tumey of Jackson, Mrs. Harry (Joan) Lee of Southfield; three brothers, Ronald Butler of Rowland Heights, Calif., Ned Lewis of Jackson and Keith Lewis of Romulus, one grandson.

Her father preceded her in death.

The Rev. Edmond Watkins will officiate and burial will be in Brookside Cemetery.

Friends may call after 7 p.m. Thursday at the Purse Funeral Home.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY VANVALKENBURG

50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Russell VanValkenburg, 10300 Britton Hwy., Britton will observe their 50th wedding anniversary at an open house, Sunday, Nov. 6 from 2 to 5 p.m. at the United Methodist Church, Macon.

He is retired from Tecumseh Products Co. She was employed at the Interstate Cafeteria at Ford Motor Co., Saline. She was recently installed as associate matron of Tecumseh Chapter 51, OES.

The couple has five children, Harold of Ypsilanti; Kenneth, Tecumseh; Joyce McTaggert, Saline; Kathryn Lindsey of Adrian and Richard, Saline; 15 grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Two Drivers Cited

CLINTON — Terry D. Harkness, 31, of Oak Park and Dennis Scholl, 18, of Wellwood St., Tipton were drivers of two vehicles which collided Friday morning at 8:40 a.m. on US-12 at McCullum Rd.

Harkness told Clinton State Police that he slowed down for a truck that was turning, then saw that Scholl was not going to stop, so he swerved left.

Scholl told officers he must have dozed off for a second and did not see Harkness slow to stop.

David Kurowicki, 18, of Britton, was driving a pickup camper which collided with an automobile driven by Keith Pernie, 19 of Clinton, at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday, almost in front of the Clinton State Police post on W. Michigan Ave.

Pernie was stopped to make a left turn and Kurowicki couldn't stop in time to avoid striking the car in the rear.

Kurowicki was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance ahead.

CHARLES J. GIBBS

Talking It Out

LESTER D. PROCTOR

"Who can help me plan my funeral?"

"I am alone. No family members live near me and I'd like to talk to someone about making plans for my funeral."

There is help available to you! Our city is fortunate in having fine, thoughtful funeral directors who are prepared to consult with you about planning a funeral in advance.

This service is called "pre-planning a funeral." Here at Proctor Funeral Home, we can serve as your personal consultant and will inform you completely about all the services and costs. We will discuss music, clergyman, and scripture readings, things which are most meaningful to you.

Because of our highly mobile society today, pre-planning of funerals is a request we hear more and more often. Feel free to contact us about this very personal service at no charge to you and without obligation.

MR. and MRS. JOSEPH STODDARD

Dawn Renee Warren, Joseph Stoddard Wed

Approximately 150 guests assembled in the United Methodist Church, Clinton for the marriage of Dawn Renee Warren and Joseph Gregory Stoddard on Oct. 22.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas Kruchkow before a candlelit altar arrangement of fall color mums.

A 1977 Clinton High School graduate, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Warren of Clinton. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy Cavins of Tecumseh are parents of the groom. He is a graduate of Tecumseh High School.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a chapel length wedding gown in white sheer organza and beaded lace trim with open neckline in a petal effect. Bishop sleeves were overlayed with matching beaded lace. The cummerbund revealed a full flared skirt and chapel length train with hand clipped medallions on the front of the skirt. Her fingertip veil was made of beaded trimmed lace. The bridal bouquet was formed of sweetheart roses and baby mums.

Bridesmaids were attired in gowns of peach knit with cocoa brown floral cape and carried a basket of mums.

The ushers were Patrick and Ronald Stoddard of Tecumseh, brothers of the groom and David Warren of Onsted, brother of the bride. James Davidson of Tecumseh served as best man for his brother.

Randy Breeding of Clinton served as soloist and Mrs. Paul Hawkins of Clinton was organist.

A buffet dinner was served by the United Methodist Women at Peerless Union Hall. Cindy and Laurie Porterfield of Tipton, John Ingersoll and Kim Greenfield of Clinton and Dan Warren of Brooklyn assisted at the reception.

The new Mrs. Stoddard is employed at Harvey's in Tecumseh and Mr. Stoddard is employed at Peerless Gear in Clinton.

The couple will reside in Tecumseh.

Rehearsal luncheon was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Warren.

Showers recently were hosted by Mrs. Dan Warren, Mrs. David Warren, Lisa Gilbert and Elaine Gilmore.

LeBlanc - Dillon Nuptials

Susan Ann LeBlanc and Douglas Kent Dillon spoke their wedding vows before the Rev. T. Eichberger in Hope Lutheran Church, Adrian, Saturday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert LeBlanc, Adrian and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Dillon, 715 Seneca St., Tecumseh.

The organist was Mrs. G. Schippers.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore her mother's wedding gown of white lace, styled with an empire waist and long sleeves and ending in a chapel train. She wore a cameo necklace, a gift of the groom. Her veil was elbow length.

The bride carried long-stemmed white roses.

Wearing identical dusty rose, long sleeved gowns of Qiana, with floral headpieces and carrying Williamsburg bouquets of pink carnations and baby's breath, the attendants were: maid of honor Sherryl McClain of Troy, a cousin of the bride; and bridesmaids, Monica Moesta, Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Kent Downing, Tecumseh and Denise Paris, Adrian.

Flower girl was Andrea Dillon, Adrian, niece of groom and ring bearer, Kevin Beazley, Tecumseh, nephew of groom.

Kent Downing was the best man. Ushers were Steve Parker, Kalamazoo; Ken LeBlanc, Adrian, brother of bride; and Craig Davis.

The new Mrs. Dillon is a graduate of Lasher-Bloomfield Hills High School and attended Oakland Community College. She is employed by her father at Al LeBlanc Olds-Cadillac, Adrian.

Mr. Dillon is a graduate of Tecumseh high school, and Western Michigan University. He is a member of Alpha Kappa Psi fraternity. He is employed at United Savings Bank, Tecumseh.

Rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at the Hathaway House.

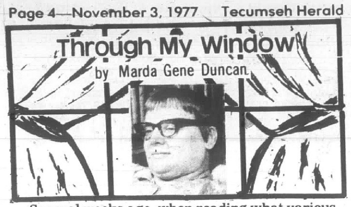
Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan



Several weeks ago, when reading what various bird books have to say about the tiny red-breasted nuthatch, I came across some interesting facts or theories which simply did not work themselves into that particular article. Well, never let it be said that I have a work file full of unused information ---

Red-breasted nuthatches have a rather "curious, diconnected range" here in the northern hemisphere. It is speculated that at one time they were probably quite common and widespread, found in all areas of both the new and the old world.

Now, however, there are only three distinct and rigidly defined areas of red-breasted nuthatches — they are found in North America, on the Isle of Corsica, and in eastern Siberia. The theory is that various ice ages forced the birds into the three isolated groups.

These cute little birds pose a few questions with their family rearing habits too. They are, of course, tree-nesters but it would seem that they have moved into such habitat only recently. Recently in evolutionary time measurement.

Most birds who use cavities for nesting-sites lay eggs which are white in color and unmarked. The white color is supposedly easier to see in the dark nest.

The red-breasted's are white but they are also freckled with reddish-brown spots. For birds using open or unprotected nests the spots or speckles decorating their eggs tucked into a hole in a tree need no such camouflage.

In the construction of the nest there is, what some experts consider, a holdover from earlier nesting habits. Woodpeckers, flickers, and other cavity nester usually either leave the floor of their nest hole bare or line it with wood chips.

The red-breasted nuthatches use wood chips but they also are apt to incorporate feathers, grasses, and rootlets into the nest too. Why?

As might be assumed, these small birds (four to four and a half inches in length) need a not very large front door. A hole one inch in diameter does well.

And curiously, the birds have a peculiar habit of plastering little globs of pitch around the front door. They carry the sticky substance in their bills and work hard to smear it all around the entrance way. Another unanswered why.

However, when the birds fly to their nests they ususally zoom right in without landing in the doorway. This seems not a bit hard to understand — sticky feet would be uncomfortable and a doormat upon which to 'clean the shoes' might be a bit difficult to build into a tree nest.

And then in my bird book reading I ran into that ubiquitous statement about this bird being "extraordinarily common is parts of its winter range one year and very rare the next." Even the usual explanation was given — the failure of a favorite food supply.

They also, of course, hasten to add that such speculation is mainly theory and has not been "fully documented" yet.

Our winter feeders have indeed hosted red-breasted nuthatches one year and then not been visited by a single one the next. In this I have no argument with the books but never, never have we ever seen the winter when red-breasted nuthatches come in numbers sufficient to be called common. Perhaps this will be that year — what fun.

Evening grosbeaks, red crossbills and purple finches are also notorious for their erratic winter migrations. As long as I am hoping for much red-breasted nuthatch action it will do no harm to include these three birds in the wish, will it?

The engagement of Karen Sue Brumm to Doug Ashby is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brumm of Tecumseh and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Ashby of Adrian. The bride-elect will graduate from Tecumseh High School and her fiance from Adrian High School in June 1978. A Sept. 23, 1978 wedding is planned.

The engagement of Jean Marie Webb to Richard Dean Stuart is announced by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Webb of 4350 Macon Hwy. and Mrs. Margot Stuart of 9235 Murphy Hwy. and Richard Stuart of Grass Lake. She was graduated in 1977 from Tecumseh High School and will be employed at Tecumseh's Big Boy restaurant. He was graduated from THS in 1975 and works at Hoover NSK, Ann Arbor as a machine repair apprentice. An Aug. 12, 1978 wedding is planned.

CAR WINNER — Judy Governo (above), realtor for Jackson Realty, won the McDonald's auto drawing contest. Judy will be able to freely drive the auto for one year. She is pictured here receiving the keys from (l-r) Jim Abbs, local McDonald's manager, and Jim and Dick Erb, local Chevrolet-Buick dealers who donated use of two Chevettes for door prizes in McDonald's opening.

9 Accidents, 1 Injured

Although nine accidents occurred here on city streets the past week, only one involved personal injury to the drivers.

Monday, Linda L. Underwood, 17, of 510 Seminole, was westbound on Burt St. and failed to stop at N. Evans St. Her car was hit by Sue E. Blasius, 43, of 9234 Murphy, in the intersection.

Both drivers suffered injuries and were taken to Herrick Hospital for treatment. Miss Underwood was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

Last Thursday, Jeffrey A. Berry, 22, Horlong, Calif., struck and killed a deer on Rogers Hwy., near Blood Rd.

Report on other accidents is:

Oct. 28 - An automobile owned by Ernest E. Skinner, 611 N. Union, rolled out of the drive way and struck a vehicle driven by Lawrence L. Holdridge, 60, of 210 S. Democrat.

Oct. 29 - Douglas C. Wood, 16, of 807 Shady Lane, was backing in the high school parking lot and struck James P. Neill, 17, of 9555 Newburg Rd., who was pulling into the area.

Oct. 30 - Gloria A. Barnett, 22, of 2474 E. Valley Rd., instructed by officers in a patrol car to pull over, jumped the north curb on E. Chicago Blvd. in downtown Tecumseh and struck a fire hydrant. Hydrant was not damaged but the side of the vehicle was.

Oct. 31 - Ernest A. Venzke, 58, Petersburg, was turning off E. Pottawatamie into S. Maumee when he struck a pole. He was cited for failure to control his vehicle.

Oct. 30 - Karen L. Jeffers, 23, Brooklyn, backed into Joanne M. Duby, 32, Monroe, in the Kroger parking lot.

Self Help for Patients, Family

The living with cancer self help group, sponsored by the American Cancer Society, will meet Nov. 7, at 7:30 p.m. at First United Methodist Church, 1845 W. Maple Ave., Adrian.

The American Cancer Society's self help group for cancer patients and family members affords the opportunity to ask questions, discuss problems with others in the same situation and most important, gain the emotional support needed to live with cancer.

Monthly meetings are directed by registered nurses.

For additional information call 456-4214.

Milton Porter Is Appointed

Milton Porter of Adrian was appointed to the Michigan Joint State Legislative Committee of the National Teachers Association and American Association of Retired Persons by James McDowell, State Director of NRTA for Michigan.

More than 22 million persons are 65 or over and of these more than half belong to the NRTA-AARP. This combined association carries political clout on the national and state level.

The committee to which Mr. Porter has been appointed endeavors to initiate and follow through on legislation which will make retirement living more dynamic by providing retirees with greater independance, dignity, and purpose.

Sometimes known as the "Committee of 12," this Joint State Legislative Committee is comprised of six members appointed by the AARP State director and six by the NRTA state director.

"Whether you are a member of AARP or NRTA or not, feel free to call Mr. Porter and talk with him about matters concerning retirees you feel should reach the legislature," said McDowell.

Goldenaires Plan Potluck

Goldenaires will have their monthly potluck Nov. 10 at noon at the Tecumseh Community Center. Meat will be furnished. Bring a dish to pass and your own table service.

You get more than phones when you order a phone system from us.

You get us.

Any shrewd business person—you, for example—knows that value is measured by what you get for your money.

That being the case, the service you get from General Telephone is one of the best bargains around.

For instance, we don't vanish the minute your phone system is installed. Our communications service advisors help to train you to operate your equipment. And they don't leave until you're as good at it as they are.

We provide maintenance and repair technicians who really know their stuff. And we make sure we have enough of them to give you fast, efficient service.

If your system is ever damaged by circumstances beyond your control, we get it working again faster than you'd think possible.

And, of course, our Communications Consultants are always available to analyze and meet your changing communications needs.

That's value. In fact, when you compare our business rates to the Consumer Price Index trend for the last 15 years, you find that our service is more than a value.

It's a miracle.

Ratify Contract by Narrow Margin

CLINTON— The teachers of the Clinton Education Association ratified their contract by a narrow margin last Wednesday.

According to CEA President Tom Mueller, "As chief spokesman for the CEA negotiating team, I'm quite happy with the contract. We have made many improvements which were important to us and in lieu of the millage defeat, we did the best we could do.

"There was much discussion and some discontent especially on the part of teachers who have ten years or better experience within the system because their salary raise did not keep with the cost of living and this will continue to be an issue for next year.

"On the more positive side, we gained a dental insurance plan which is the first in Lenawee County. I'm sure that this addition will be a big savings, especially for those teachers having families. Clinton teachers have been the first to make other fringe benefit improvements and as a result we have one of the best insurance and fringe benefit programs in the county and this is something we can all be proud of."

Perform 'Arsenic' November 18, 19

"Arsenic and Old Lace" by Joseph Kesselring will be the first production this year at Clinton high school. The comedy will be directed by Mrs. Don Geiger and will be presented on Nov. 18 and 19 at 8 p.m.

The plot centers around two charming and innocent ladies who will be played by senior Dana Burch and sophomore Kelley MacRae. Both girls are doing major roles for the first time.

Last seen as Nathan Detroit in "Guys and Dolls," Devon Schindler will play the ladies nephew Mortimer. Playing opposite him in the role of Elaine will be Beth Erickson who took part in both of last year's productions.

Phil Erickson, who has been in several shows will play Dr. Einstein and Lance Traves who has been away from the stage since 8th grade will be Jonathon, another nephew.

Other students playing supporting roles will be Gary Gibbard., Lynn Greenleaf, Doug Mowrey, Bill VanTuyle, Gay Service, Mike Williams, Bernie Hough and Ed Schmidt.

"Many of these students are becoming experienced actors," says Mrs. Geiger who teaches first grade. "Several years ago when I returned to direct the high school productions, because there had been none the previous year and I felt the students were missing out, we went to an all school production rather than a senior class or one class play. This allows all students to tryout and gain experience and training in smaller roles. We also have many who were in an 8th grade play. These people are juniors now and have gained much from continued training. We've been gradually building our theatre program and this year's shows should be the best ever.

"We do need, you the audience to make it complete. Come and see us. You'll like it," Mrs. Geiger urged.

Hobby Club

CLINTON — The Clinton Hobby Club met Oct. 19, at the home of Myrtle Miller.

After dessert luncheon, Mrs. Tom Pence presided at the business meeting.

She was re-elected as president and Mrs. Dan Reilly as secretary-treasurer.

At Mrs. Jacob Bauer's suggestion, meetings with hostesses were scheduled, each hostess responsible for her entertainment or activity.

The name of the club may be changed at the next meeting.

Cards were played.

The Nov. 16 meeting will be preceded by a potluck luncheon at the home of Anna Anglemyer, with Gladys Tirb as co-hostess.

Mission Weekend Preparations Made

Members of Grace Lutheran Church and pastor Kenneth Strack are making preparations for a Mission Weekend Nov. 5 and 6.

Purpose is to stimulate the members to greater interest in the worldwide work of the church.

This year the theme will be "special ministries," which deals with the special spiritual needs in the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod. These include college students, those in the military, the visually and hearing handicapped, those in institutions and the aging. Saturday evening at 6 p.m. will be a fellowship dinner, at which Pastor Greg Lenz of Ann Arbor will speak. He will also preach at the 9:15 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. worship services.

In addition to serving a congregation, Pastor Lenz also ministers to college students at the University of Michigan and Eastern Michigan University.

Nov. 6, at 4 p.m. Pastor Edgar Herman, Flat Rock, chairman of the district special ministries board will preach. Lunch will follow, served by the ladies aid. Friends are welcome to attend these activities.

Seek Candidates for Awards

Rotary District 640 or the Rotary Club of Tecumseh are seeking young men and women as candidates for Rotary Foundation Educational Awards for study abroad in 1979-80.

Five types of educational awards are offered by the Foundation: graduate fellowships, for those between the ages of 20 and 28, with a bachelor's degrees or equivalent;

Undergreduate scholarships, for those 18 to 24 with a minimum of two years of university level work but without a bachelor's degree;

Technical training awards, for those 21 to 35 with a secondary education and at least two years' working experience;

Teacher of the handicapped awards, for those 25 to 50 who have been engaged as full-time teachers of the mentally, physically or educationally handicapped for at least two years at the time of application;

Journalism awards, for those 21 to 28, who have at least two years experience as a professional journalist or if a student, two years post-secondary study in journalism prior to commencement of award studies.

Each award covers round-trip transportation, educational and living expenses for one academic year, and if necessary, funds for intensive language training.

The Rotary Foundation is a non-profit organization supported by contributions from Rotarians and Rotary Clubs in 149 different countries.

Since 1947, the Foundation has awarded more than $14 million for its various programs, and more than 5,000 young men and women have gone to countries other than their own for a year of study.

Further information about these awards is available from Les D. Proctor address 313 W. Pottawatamie, phone 423-2525.

Application deadline is March 1, 1978.

CHS Cagers Dominate

This is getting almost boring.

Clinton's girl cagers continued their romp through the LCAA pounding two more opponents. Last Thursday, the Skins trounced Onsted 65-22 and on Tuesday of this week, they whipped Hudson 57-26.

The victories upped the Redskin's mark to a superlative 9-0 in the league, 13-0 overall. And you can't do any better than that. A win over Blissfield this Thursday would assure the Skins of at least a tie for the league championship. Morenci and Addison are the nearest competitors both with two losses.

Clinton took an incredible 95 shots from the field against Hudson Tuesday. They only completed 26 for 27 percent. Although that isn't an exemplary scoring performance — coach Bob King felt it was one of the worst nights for shooting the Skins have had — Hudson never really challenged.

The Tigers were close after the first quarter trailing 10-8. The Redskins went on to outscore their opponents 29-9 during the second and third frames putting the game away.

Clinton dominated the boards grabbing 55 rebounds to 35 for Hudson. JoAnn Grossman had 21 and Sue Richter 14. Richter led in scoring with 25 points, Grossman had 15, Cathy Gibson 11.

It really was no contest when the Redskins attacked Onsted last Thursday.

Clinton started off on the right foot taking a 30-12 advantage in the first half. To add insult to injury, they outscored Onsted 25-0 in the third quarter and part of the fourth.

JoAnn Grossman played one of her best games scoring 20 points and grabbing 20 rebounds. Sue Richter added 13 markers.

The Skins hit on 48 percent of their attempts from the floor dumping 26 of 54. Clinton also outrebounded their opponents 40-28.

Clinton hosts Blissfield this Thursday traveling to Morenci next Tuesday.

Clinton's cagers continue to dominate league play posting an undefeated record. Above, Sue Richter attempts to get the ball back in play while Cathy Gibson, right, fights off an opponent. The action took place against Onsted.

Basketballers Tied for 1st

The Indian cagers had little trouble knocking off two more Huron League foes beating New Boston Huron 62-34 last Thursday, and Flat Rock 59-32 on Tuesday of this week.

St. Mary's beat Grosse Ile on Tuesday night giving Grosse Ile its first loss. That throws the Indians into a tie for first place with the Red Devils both with 7-1 records. St. Mary's is in second place with two losses.

Tecumseh travels to play an undoubtedly sky-high St. Mary's team this Thursday.

The orange and black employed its successful press to begin the first quarter. Coach Diane Nelson has used the press to open the last several games allowing the Indians to take an immediate lead. At the end of the first period Tecumseh was in the lead 17-7.

By the half, the Indians were ahead 38-18 and dominated the third quarter 12-2.

Tecumseh controlled the boards as well coming up with 56 rebounds to 10 for the Eagles. Debbie Steadley led with 14 carooms while Grace Burns had 12.

Scoring was very well balanced with Burns having 10 points, Steadley and Gloria Fosbender with nine.

The Indians made 39 percent of their shots from the field to 29 percent for Flat Rock.

A first quarter Tecumseh press left New Boston Huron quivering last Thursday night. The Indians took a 20-4 first period advantage stretching it to 38-12 by the half.

The orange and black dumped 22 of 53 shots from the floor for 41 percent while Huron hit 14 of 41 for 34 percent.

Grace Burns led in scoring for Tecumseh with 14 points and seven of Tecumseh's 30 rebounds. Huron had 21 rebounds.

The Indians travel to St. Mary's this Thursday, and to Airport next Tuesday.

Reduce Heating and Cooling Costs with Insulating Glass Wood Windows

- After a house is fully insulated, up to 30 percent of the remaining heat loss can be saved by proper windows. That savings carries over to air conditioning.
- Wood is an efficient insulator . . . 1,770 times more efficient than many building products.
- Insulated glass cuts heat loss in half over single glazed sash.
- For greater comfort, less maintenance, less window washing, less heat loss, use insulated glass wood windows.

Clinton Runners Qualify

Clinton's cross country squad qualified for the state Class C meet this Saturday after taking third place as a team at its regional Saturday.

On Wednesday of last week, the Skins took second place in the LCAA League meet losing to Manchester by one point.

At the regional, held at Ella Sharp Park in Jackson, Clinton was third with 134 points. Host of the meet, East Jackson, won it with 116 points while Manchester was second at 128.

There were 22 teams in all at the regional.

Mike Risner was the top runner for Clinton finishing third at 15:42. Matt Peters was 17th, Mark Prichard 35th, Wally Pike 37th and Chris Wojtowicz 42nd.

The top runner individually was from Allen Park and ran the distance in 15:29.

In the LCAA League meet held last Wednesday, Clinton was edged by Manchester 59-60.

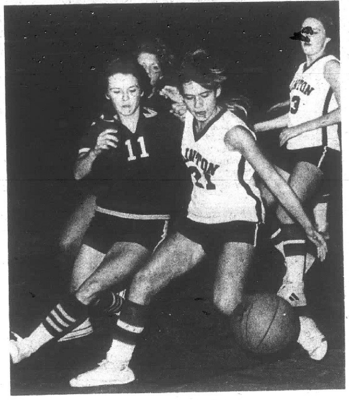
The two teams had been neck-and-neck throughout the season, both fighting to a 28-28 tie at one point. The first four runners of each team was counted to break that tie with Manchester getting the decision 17-19.

Following Clinton in the third spot was Addison 68, fourth, Onsted 92, fifth, Hudson with 101 and Blissfield, sixth at 107.

Top man for Clinton was Matt Peters in the fourth spot at 17:01; Mike Risner was eighth at 17:10, Wally Pike 13th at 17:24, Mark Prichard 16th at 17:33 and Chris Wojtowicz 19th at 17:42.

Peters and Risner received first team all-league mention along with eight of the other top ten runners.

Manchester's Keith Moore finished in the top spot in a time of 16:29.



Clinton Gridders Close Out League Season With Victory

Clinton finished up its league season with a 20-13 decision over Manchester in football action Friday night.

The win upped the Redskins record to 4-2 in the LCAA tied with Addison and Hudson for second place.

The Dutchmen were on the board first with a one yard scoring run in the first quarter. Fullback Casey Thilo went five yards for a Clinton score in the second frame. Thilo also ran in the points after.

Terry Carlton found 37 yards of daylight for Clinton in the third quarter but the run afterwards failed. Thilo went three yards in the final quarter for the Skins' final score.

Manchester also scored in the final frame on a one-yard run.

Thilo had 136 yards rushing for Clinton while Bill Gerard had 10 tackles leading the Redskins' defense.

Manchester had 912 total yards on the ground while Clinton had 193. The Skins came up with 38 through the air to the Dutchmen's 52.

Clinton closes out the regular season by hosting Whiteford this Friday.

Cagers Whip Aggies

Britton's girl cagers came up with a narrow 48-41 victory over Sand Creek last Thursday.

The Tories outscored the Aggies 18-5 in the second period to lead 31-19 at the half. Sand Creek outscored the Tories 22-17 in the second half but the team still came up short.

Britton dumped 18 of 42 shots from the field for 43 percent while the Aggies hit on 34 percent of their shots.

The Tories had 12 of 21 field goals to three of 17 for the opposition.

Britton's Genene Bruce had 23 points to lead all scorers while Pam Dusseau had 11 markers. Kim Cottrell had 15 rebounds and Karen Wielfaert had nine for Britton.

Britton is now 8-2 in the Tri-County league, 9-3 overall.

THS JV's Are 5-3

The Tecumseh junior varsity football team ended its season last Thursday with a victory over Monroe Jefferson.

The final tally was 54-0.

This concluded the season for the Indians and left them with a 5-3 mark.

During the year, Tecumseh came up with 170 points while giving up 88 points.

Indians Make It Look Easy, Win Huron Title

Looking exceptionally strong, Tecumseh's gridders overwhelmed a hapless Monroe Jefferson team 48-12 to win the Huron League championship Friday.

The victory left the Indians with a 6-1 league record, 7-1 overall. Jefferson fell to 4-3 tied with Flat Rock and New Boston Huron.

The orange and black wrap up the regular season this Friday by hosting Adrian, a contest many area football fans have been looking forward to.

Jeff Anderson continued to dominate the rushing statistics running for four touchdowns of 16, one, 10, and 21 yards. In all, Anderson came up with 170 yards in 17 carries. Teammate John Egbert raced for 68 yards on four carries.

Tecumseh built up a comfortable 27-0 margin by the half adding 21 in the second half. Jefferson put together two scoring drives culminating in runs of 75 yards and one yard.

Hans and Egbert also scored for Tecumseh.

The Indians rushed for 342 yards to 321 for Jefferson. Tecumsee had 24 first downs to 14 for the Bears. Jefferson lost 140 yards on 14 penalties to Tecumseh's 44 yards on four penalties.

Bohannon Going to Class B Meet

Tecumseh's cross country squad finished up its season as a team after taking seventh place out of 23 teams at the Class B regional at East Jackson Saturday.

Indian runner Doug Bohannon qualified for the state meet to be held this Saturday at Sturgis by virtue of a 13th place finish at the regionals. Bohannon ran the course in 15:51.

The top ten individual runners not on a qualifying team are eligible to attend the state meet. Other runners in front of Bohannon were on one of the three qualifying teams making room for Bohannon.

Other runners for Tecumseh at the regional included Brian Banda 22nd at 16:15, Kirk Oliver 26th at 16:16, Scott Betzoldt 67th at 16:57 and Scott Winstead 76th at 17:07.

Mark Blodger, of Marshall, was first with a 15:27 time. Jackson Lumen Christi won it with 94 points while the Indians ended with 204 points.

Tecumseh's girls cross country team attended the Milan invitational on Tuesday of this week and finished third with 58 points out of the twelve teams invited. Milan was first with 43 points, Saline second with 51.

The top ten runners received trophies. For Tecumseh, Janel Mumme was third overall at 19:38, Leslie Oliver was eighth at 21:01, Karen Egli was 10th at 21:31, Monica Egli was 22nd at 23:59 while Kathy Craig was 28th at 25:26.

The boys ended the season with a team record of 7-3 overall, 6-1 in the league and tied with Huron for second in the league. The girls ended with a 4-0 dual meet record.

Tecumseh will be losing Doug Bohannon and Janel Mumme to graduation.

Tories Pull Out Narrow Victory

Britton's grid squad came up with a narrow 14-13 win over Whiteford Friday night to raise its record in the Tri-County league to 3-3. They are in fourth place in the league.

The Tories fought their way to the six yard line in the first quarter only to fumble it away to Whiteford. But the Bobcats fumbled it themselves on the next play with Britton coming up with the ball.

Jeff Osterhout then went six yards for the score. Randy Smith hit David Bruce with a pass on the two point conversion.

Whiteford also scored late in the first quarter on a seven yard run. They kicked the extra point.

Britton blocked a Whiteford punt in the third frame to set up a one-yard scoring run by Randy Smith. The conversion failed. The Bobcats scored again in the final frame on a three yard run. Whiteford attempted the two point conversion but came up short.

Whiteford came out on top in the statistics earning 19 first downs to seven for the Tories. The Bobcats rushed for 159 yards while Britton had 124. Whiteford also outpassed the Tories with 76 yards to 33. However, Whiteford coughed up the ball five times to three fumbles for Britton.

Jeff Osterhout led Britton in rushing with 77 yards in 22 carries. Ken Scott had 13 tackles for Britton.

Britton concludes its season this Friday by hosting North Adams.

'Arizona' Showing at Adrian College

Stan Midgley, armchair traveler, returns to Adrian College for his 10th appearance to open the 1977-78 World Travel Series Nov. 3. His film "Arizona" will be presented at 8 p.m. in Dawson Auditorium.

Foreign Adoptions Satisfying, Quicker

by Kathy Brown

Tecumseh couples find adopting foreign children a satisfying parenting experience and an alternative to the five year wait for adopting younger children in the United States.

Three Tecumseh couples are working with other county adopting parents to create Lenawee Families of Adopted Foreign Children. Their purposes are to offer fellowship, information on foreign adoption and an understanding ear to new adopting parents of foreign children.

The group's next meeting is Nov. 10 at 8 p.m. at the Lenawee Vo-Tech Center. Nancy Fox, director of International Aid and Adoption will speak and show slides of Korea.

Information on the alternative of foreign adoption was an important reason Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Powers, 301 N. Union St. joined the new Lenawee parenting group.

They expect a call anytime to confirm that their nine month wait is almost over and that they may pick up their now two month old baby, Jeremy in Columbia.

"We fiddled around for two years before we found Columbian American Friends, an Ann Arbor based volunteer group that acts as a liaison in Columbian adoptions," said Mrs. Powers.

"We didn't know where to turn. We were told by Social Services in Lenawee County that we had to attend an orientation meeting. None other was given that year. And then we would have a five year wait (for a child). They didn't tell us about foreign adoption. We learned by word of mouth. I don't think it should be that difficult for people who want to adopt to find out."

The other two families, the Ken Bollingers of 517 Occidental Hwy. and the Robert Millers of 906 N. Union both have biological daughters and wanted to adopt foreign children. They were familiar with foreign adoption through friends. Both couples attended similar parenting group meetings in Washtenaw County and adopted through other agencies.

Mrs. Bollinger stated that the parenting group supplements information but does not replace the caseworker in the adoption process.

"The parenting group can help lighten the load of the caseworker by giving information along the way," she said.

Experienced parents recommend couples get in touch with a local parenting group, people who have been through foreign adoption, be aware of costs and read literature on foreign adoption.

Process takes about 10-14 months. Sometimes paperwork just seems slow, sometimes it gets lost. While it may weary couples, they accept it as necessary.

"They are putting a life in your hands," said Mrs. Powers.

She explained the value of the parenting group from her experience: "With any adoption you have problems. When it comes up you can call and say 'Hey, this has come up, What do you suggest?' "

The mothers said that their children will know their heritage. The new parenting group helps the children meet others from their native country, too.

The parent group also helps families cope with questions. "People wonder if the baby belongs to me," said Mrs. Bollinger. "I say, 'Yes, they are both mine. I just got them differently'."

Mrs. Robert Miller with daughters Erica, 2 and Karen, 4 at home. Family joined the Lenawee Families of Adopted Foreign Children which meets Nov. 10.

Square Dance Set

The Lenawee 4-H Square Dance Committee will sponsor a square dance Nov. 5 from 8-11 p.m. at the Tecumseh Grange Hall.

Elwood Bush and The Bush Band will provide the music.

Bring cookies to share; beverage provided. Contact Cathy Clement 263-8831, ext. 298.

A donation will be collected

Northern Ireland Is Service Topic

Nina Klaudt, state president of Church Women United, will speak at the Church Women United World Community Day this Nov. 4.

The service begins at 7:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Adrian.

Theme for the evening is "Heart Change-Global Change", focusing on how people may reach out with changed hearts to unfree people throughout the community, the nation and the world.

Mrs. Klaudt journeyed to Northern Ireland last spring on a Church Women United Causeway to learn about and encourage the people working for peace in that war torn land.

She will relate her experience with slides and discussion.

Mrs. Klaudt met with Betty Williams and Mairead Corrigan, the two recent winners of the Nobel Peace award. Meeting is public. Babysitting will be provided.

Joan Miller of Tecumseh, 423-4526 is county Church Women United president.

Macon Montage

By Sharon Connors

MACON—"At the hop" last Saturday night at Bill and Sandy Gilreath's house, Linda Phillips in her long skirt, bobby socks, saddle shoes and bright red lipstick and Jim Conrad in his white bucks, pegged pants and slick hair-do walked away with the prizes for "most original" costumes.

Macon Historical Society members enjoyed dancing the Stroll and the Chicken to 50's music that came from a juke box. At the Hop, Little Darling and lots of Elvis Presley songs were among the musical selections.

Another couple enjoyed going back to the 50's last weekend, Josephine and Dean Jones attended Josie's reunion class of 52 at Summerfield High School at Win Schulers, Ann Arbor.

Father Steve Sedlock C.S.C. of Boysville was at St. Elizabeth's last Sunday afternoon giving a hand in the preparation of Confirmation candidates.

Congratulations to the Tecumseh Indian football team—1977 Huron League Champs! Pat and Sharon Connors are looking forward to having the team come to Macon for their last team supper the night before that big Adrian game.

St. Elizabeth's Church in Tecumseh had confirmation last Wednesday night. Two Macon area young boys and one girl were in the class, Daniel Keller, Tim Connors and Martha Larrowe. Another Maconite, Fr. Steve Sedlock of Boysville participated. He was one of the concelebrants at the liturgy offered by Bishop Kenneth Povish. Father Steve also helped prepare the class the week before.

Mrs. Richard Mohr is Macons Blue Bird leader again this year. The girls in her group are Dawn and Tina Penney, Erin Long, Erika and Martie Robinson, Tracy DeBow, Julie Stanley, Lara Liechty, Teri O'Toole, Lisa Canuelle and Tammy Mohr.

The girls started their meetings in September and meet every Monday afternoon. Activities so far this year have included a hayride, roller skating and craft work. The group adopted again this year Clarence and Margaret Hall as their grandpa and grandma. Oct. 31 the girls had a birthday party for the Halls inviting them to the last hour of their meeting for birthday cake.

Halloween Party Held

BRITTON — Sunday School teachers of Grace United Methodist Church held a Halloween party Sunday afternoon at the church for all children in nursery through sixth grade.

Games such as Bob for Apple and Marshmallow on String were among the many games played.

Refreshment table was centered with a huge lighted Jack-O-Lantern.

Refreshments of hot dog chips, relishes, cookies and cider were served the 50 attending.

Diana Henry, church superintendent was assisted by teachers Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hawkins, Jane Handley, and Nina Bower.

Other parents who assisted were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bird, Dottie Palmer, Charlene Burgess and Mrs. Linda Linn.

FAMILY STYLE MISSION SUPPER and BAZAAR — Roast turkey and all the trimmings with a family style flavor will be served Nov. 5 beginning at 4:30 p.m. at Emmanuel Lutheran Church, 9550 Ridge Hwy., Britton. Handling kitchen details are, l-r, Diana Tucker and Eileen Gilmore, kitchen co-chairmen, and Alys Miller, dining room chairman. (Not pictured - Chariman Clara Furgason) (PHOTO BY FRANK WEIR)

Adrian Outing for Blue Birds

BRITTON — Second grade Blue Birds had their first outing since they formed in September. On Oct. 29 the girls got their first glimpse of the Camp Fire cabin in Adrian.

They had their first cookout along with their Halloween party. Hot dogs and S'mores were served.

Girls played games, sang songs and hiked.

Each girl decorated a pumpkin to take home. Everyone had a fun time with a little outdoor training.

Girls were: Crissy Anaya, JoAnne Chlebek, Carrie Cook, Christi Cook, Monica DeLine, Sherry Faust, Marcia Linn, Dena Osborne, Stacey Preece, Anique Secord, Heather Stutzman and Amy Wiginton.

Lynnea Lewis, a classmate was a guest.

Deanna Osborne, a Camp Fire Adventure Girl, assisted leaders Donna Osborne and Cindy Stutzman.

For the Record

BRITTON — In last week's Herald we erronously promoted Mrs. Keith Swain's position higher than the one she holds. Sorry Mary, but you're still a secretary at the Tecumseh Products Co., in the International Billing Division, and husband, Keith, is supervisor of accounting at the Tecumseh Products Co.

To make things worse, an error in her prize winning Peanut Butter Dream Pie read, 4 lbs. marshmallows. It should have read ½ lb. marshmallows. Afraid it might be too dreamy with that much marshmallows.

Ridgeway PTO Selects Officers

RIDGEWAY — Officers and committees were announced at the Oct. 18 meeting of the Ridgeway PTO.

President is Ardyth Schroeder. Other officers are:

Jeannette Mannino, vice-president; Isabelle McMahon, teacher vice-president; Diana Henry, secretary; Kathy McDemott, treasurer; Brenda Rebottaro and Ardyth Schroeder, hot dog day; Judy Governo and Ardyth Schroeder, pancake supper; Lois Hover, membership; Sharleen Burgess, safety; Jeanette Mannino and Isabelle McMahon, program; Linda Moody, refreshments and room mother; Irene Miller, telephone; Diana Henry, tutor program; Dotty Palmer, sunshine; Brenda Andrews, publicity.

A committee of Jeanette Mannino, Isabelle McMahon, Sharon Connors, Sylvia Korte was appointed to determine the needs of the school and teachers.

Money will be used from the proceeds of the pancake supper.

The PTO will buy the "Scholastic Magazine" for the school.

Tecumseh bus drivers presented a program on "Bus Safety."

Next meeting is Nov. 14. The program "How To Help Your Child with Reading," will be presented.

Girls Host Tea Honoring Mothers

BRITTON — Mothers of Blue Bird and Camp Fire Girls were special guests at the annual Mother's Tea Oct. 24 at the high school study hall. Approximately 170 girls, mothers, leaders and sponsors attended.

As the mothers arrived they were presented with a corsage, made by their daughters, and seated at tables centered with arrangements of fall flowers.

Welcome was given by Amy Rhors and Julie Grounds led the pledge of allegiance. Mrs. Allen Bower, president of the Camp Fire Leaders Association, introduced the leaders, assistant leaders and sponsors.

Blue Bird Wish was given by the Blue Bird Girls and their leaders, followed by all singing the Camp Fire Blessing.

For entertainment girls from second to 10th grades presented "The Gong Show" with each group performing a variety of comical skits, with Mrs. Bower as commentator. Performers all received award certificates.

Judges were Lorraine Hummell, Mary Lou Rowe and Sue Aylward.

Table centerpieces were awarded as prizes to Mrs. Wilnella Bush, Laura Smith, and Helen Osterhout, sixth grade sponsor.

Mrs. Bower closed with a prayer.

Fifth Grade Camp Fire Girls served refreshments.

Supper Is Huge Success

RIDGEWAY — The annual Ridgeway School Pancake Supper was a huge success again this year according to the PTO. 854 tickets were sold and profit was $827.

Prize winners and prize donors for ticket sales were: first, Arrin Schroeder, skateboard, Baldwin's; second, Deanne Governo, radio watch, Gambles; third, Matt Jones, back pack, Time Out Pro Shop; fourth, Gerald Pape, bike water bottle, John's Bike Shop; fifth, Jeff Faust, gift certificate from Green's;, sixth, Mark Irwin, bank from United Savings Bank; seventh, Doug Henry, John Deere T-shirt, Hoyt Whelan; eighth, Ronda Andrews, ball point pen,. Tecumseh Office Supply; ninth through thirteenth, Chuck Staley, Lance Cadmus, Kelly Oliver, Terry O'Toole and Julie Keyaiva, felt tip pens from Dick's House of Hallmark.

Top room prizes were won by Andrew Rebottaro, kindergarten; Ronda Andrews, first grade; Kelly Oliver, second; Mark Irwin, third; Matt Jones, fourth; Jeff Faust, fifth; Arrin Schroeder, sixth. They received hats donated by the D & C.

The sixth grade sold the most tickets will be rewarded with a taco dinner at a later date.

Ridgeway Hosts Film

RIDGEWAY — "Shiokari Pass," a new film from the producers of "The Hiding Place," will be shown at The Ridgeway Church of The Nazarene, 6886 Ridge Highway on Nov. 6. The one hour color film from World Wide Pictures will be shown once beginning at 7 p.m.

It was originally produced for showing to Japanese audiences, filmed entirely in Japan with a Japanese cast and crew, and depicts the delicate beauty of that country.

A true story, Shiokari Pass is based on the international best seller by Ayako Miura, a story of the abiding love of a young couple at the turn of the century.

The Rev. James Stephenson, pastor of the Ridgeway Church of The Nazarene, invites the community to attend this special showing.

No admission will be charged.

Bazaar, Sale Is November 6

BRITTON — The Bazaar and Bake Sale at the Nov. 6 Fall Mission Supper at Emmanuel Lutheran Church, 9950 Ridge Hwy., will be open from 10 a.m. and promises a variety of stocking stuffers for Christmas.

Supper will be served beginning at 4:30 p.m. Those attending the supper are asked to enter through the main church entrance where they will be greeted by hostess, Kathy Trapp.

Among the many items available at the bazaar will be dolls, refrigerator stick-ons, Christmas tree decorations, pot holders, baked goods, artificial flower arrangements, and small live plants.

Ida Helm will be in charge of this area. Contact her if anyone has items they wish to contribute for the cause.

The baked goods department will feature fresh homemade donuts and other goods.

Bazaar proceeds have annually been sent to Lutheran Women's Missionary League of Michigan District. Madelyn Schafer is the representative in this project.

The League's projects include: 1. Projection Compassion - love addition at Concordia College, Ann Arbor, 3. Construction of six classrooms and chapel auditorium complex in Puerto Barrios, Guatemala, Central America, 4. World Mission Institute, 5. Concordia Luthern College, Ann Arbor, scholarship program, 6. Wycliffe Jungle aviation and radio service center and Lutheran Bible translators, 7. In-service training program for Hispanic ministry.

The project funds are derived from 75 percent of mission "Mite Box" offerings of the League membership, from the State of Michigan. Twenty-five percent is sent to the International League for their goals.

Candidates Questioned - Election Is Tuesday, November 8th

Q: Apart from the city charter's definition of the job, how do you view the leadership role of a council member?

Easton: "It's the role of council members to receive from the people their concerns and their wants. To make a thorough and accurate study of their concerns and make a decision based on what is best for the majority of the people."

Mead: "I think my role is more of a spokesman for people who have ideas for improvements, what gripes they may have.

"Areas that need leadership include the development of industrial base, more shops, continually improving our streets and downtown beautification. Our curb and gutter program is far better than in other cities. I think council has been responsible for encouraging these things.

"When there is an idea, the mechanics have to be implemented by council. Somebody hands you the ball, you pass it back and forth a little bit, but it's a cooperative venture."

Worley: "Council members individually are not playing as active a role as they should, particularly they could be more active participants on the city's committees and boards so that everything is not a surprise when they come to a council meeting.

They should "Indicate what the agenda would be so that people would know what is going to be discussed" at council meetings.

"There is a time and place for both approaches. There are only seven people on council. They can't know what everyone wants all the time. Then there are some people who are interested in the day to day business of living and don't make their needs known.

"Council members should be out and around the people of Tecumseh more than just the two hours a night during council meetings every two weeks.

DeMoss: "I think it is a council member's role to bring up things he sees wrong. Not necessarily a complaint, but attitude or different things the city's doing to save money or be more efficient. It is not so much a leading role but advising and following through.

Q: Name a decision (or more than one) that faces the city of Tecumseh and that you feel will require action from council in the next two years. Explain the importance of this challenge. What could be done by citizens, by city government to succeed in this area?

Mead: "I think the fact that there is not a big race for council indicates there are no burning issues. However, we must continue to consider the planned growth for the city, so we do grow in step with providing the city services, fire, police, housing, water supply, sewage system. If we wait until the emergency arises, it might be too late. We can plan for it without it handicapping us.

Worley: "Vandalism is still one of the problems. Atmosphere in the downtown is important. I think priorities should be reassessed.

"I think you can have industrial and commercial growth without giving up the character of Tecumseh.

"There ought to be some way to encourage commercial interest to utilize present facilities, have a contiguous commercial district rather than hopscotch around and infringe on the residential areas.

DeMoss: "Foremost, everyone should be very fortunate with the amount of federal funds the city has received for improvements.

"Another is a civic center. Council should concentrate all efforts now on federal funding for a civic center or theater.

"Utility usage by the city has skyrocketed along with everybody else's. I would like to see the city begin a program to evaluate cost analysis on how much methane gas we generate at the sewage treatment plant and could it be used to heat the Community Center. It can be done."

In the area of city cars, "City buys two cars each year for the building inspector and city manager then turns them over to the police department. I'm beginning to think this is wrong." DeMoss feels that reimbursement to the officials for mileage and buying new cars for the police department would be more efficient.

"The city's general liability insurance has tripled and general liability has doubled. I don't think we can afford it. The city may have to get together with the municipal league and other small communities to put together group insurance rates.

"We should evaluate stocking Globe Mill Pond with game fish as was done with Belleville Lake. There is potential in it for recreation."

Easton: "Capital improvements program. Here it is important that citizens have input. Telling council what they want and feel is most needed. It's up to council to study wants and decide on specific improvements.

Capital improvements are "an additional service or something not being provided for citizens now. An example would be a community theater or auditorium. I like to think of it as an auditorium myself. This is an example, I'm not picking it as a priority."

Q: Of what single contribution to civic service are you most proud? Tell us about it. As a council member or in civic service, of what decision you made in the past year are you most proud?

Worley: "My nine years volunteer service working with the physically and mentally handicapped children, aged 3-18 in Oscoda and Japan prior to my employment in the field.

DeMoss: "Serving city council." Voting 'no' on curb and gutter for Hiawatha and Muscody Sts. and Burt St. were two decisions he said "I felt I did my job, stood up and said 'no, I disagree.' Those people didn't petition for curb and gutter. Some of them on Muscody and Hiawatha are behind, they can't pay on it."

He said he was "gratified" when residents from Burt St. came out to oppose curb and gutter there and council turned around "180 degrees" and voted "no."

"Anytime people say they don't want something and it is done anyway, I have a hard time understanding why."

Easton: "Tecumseh is a progressive city. I like to feel the little bit that I've been able to contribute has made it progressive.

"I'm proud of the fact that people can talk to me at anytime. And I will pledge to continue to be that way."

Mead: "I am proud to serve. I have tried to talk to as many people as I could, on both sides of each issue, keep an open mind, try to study all I could and never make a snap decision. We have to make decisions that will serve the greater good of the greater number of people."

Q: Vandalism is a perennial problem that seems to come to a head at the end of the summer. What role might the community play? What role could Council play in finding a solution to vandalism? For example: Some communities have organized neighborhood watch groups. What role could the city play in helping neighborhoods organize this kind of program? What steps could citizens take?

DeMoss: "Initiate a CB watch is one of the ways we could help curb it. Somebody from the city could talk to them, set up an organization and tell them we need help. Often times police don't have their CBs on.

"Citizens can report it as soon as it happens. People are afraid to get involved, often times. We have to do a better job of educating people to keep an eye out, notify police and control it."

Easton: "Hiring 20 policemen isn't going to stop it." It will take "an effort by the community and the city. I think it would be worth a try. I would be in favor of getting someone to go to these groups and ask them."

Mead: "How to reach these particular problems, I don't know. Final job can only be resolved by parents who must set the example. Sometimes kids have all kinds of privileges without responsibilities. We should continue with our teen club arrangements and parties for youth."

In general he approves of education efforts but is skeptical of a neighborhood watch group without defined limits.

Worley: "People have a responsibility to be aware of what's going on and report what's happening, be concerned and interested in the remedy. It is not good to be concerned only when it just affects them. In the end, it will affect everyone.

"I don't know how officials can get by with saying nothing can be done about loitering. I don't believe it is that simple. There has to be a concerted effort by the community and council to solve the problem."

She suggested reevaluating the budget and providing more patrolmen, asking the police department to study possibilities and a test program.

Q: Is there any issue, problem or concern you have that you would like to address?

Easton: "My biggest concern is vandalism. I expressed that a few council meetings ago.

"I'm also interested about industrial growth. We're headed in the right direction. It depends on what legislators do." Easton said that he has written legislators about these concerns, particularly workman's compensation."

Worley: "Unbiased representation: I think there are some people on council who have their minds set on a situation before they hear both sides. I don't think people should act unless they are informed. It is an imposed responsibility of the job to be informed on both sides before they take a stand."

"Current council performance has been less than adequate. For example the trash problem, not too much was said until council members had problems. Regarding vandalism it was stated at a council meeting that merchants reticent to make night deposits call the police department for an escort. I refuse to accept the fact that our public streets have degenerated so our downtown merchants can't utilize our bank without police escort.

"If we must accept their situation, as council suggests we must, then our current representatives are suffering from a case of misplaced priorities."

Q: What makes you the best choice for Tecumseh City Council?

Mead: "I like Tecumseh. If there is anything I can do for it, I want to help. I feel anybody who gets something should also give something. I've gotten an awful lot, I want to help."

Worley: "I have a genuine and sincere interest in the city. I want to play an active role in the future community in which our children will grow, develop and become adults. I want to protect and preserve the values which are associated with and present in our small community. I will devote whatever time and energy necessary to provide the residents with unbiased representation they expect and deserve from their city government."

DeMoss: "I love the city. We're small town people. We love Tecumseh. Everyone at some point in life contributes to the community, to make sure it will be for your children what it was for you. Progress is important but it is vitally important that Tecumseh doesn't loose its small town charm.

"A council member has to be willing to listen, assess the situation. Sometimes you can't help him, but you've got to be able to try and make sure you follow through with the people involved."

Easton: "Fact that I've lived here most of my life. Been in business community for 33 years. I know the people as a community. Know their concerns. Do have a fair knowledge of city government. I'm willing to listen to the people I represent."

Holloway Happenings

By Helen Smoll

HOLLOWAY — The Friendly Neighbors Farm Bureau met at the home of Mr.and Mrs. Dick Wiess.

Lawrence Smoll gave the minute man report on H.R. 8410 to rewrite the National Labor Relations act. This bill will make it easier and faster for unions to force a representation election, will slow removal of a union by vote, give more authority on National Relation board, increase membership from receiving government contract. In essence, it will give the union more power.

Louis Machan, announced members of the American Farm Bureau Federation who desire to attend the 78 annual meeting should make arrangements in advance of Nov. 23, deadline. It will be held Jan. 8-12 in Houston, Texas. Nearly 200 volunteers members from 17 counties assisted at the Michigan Farm Bureau State Fair booth in 77.

Among some of the issues discussed by the group led by Mrs. Hester Wooster were "Land Use Passes Available."

These can be obtained through the Public Affairs Division of Michigan Farm Bureau.

P.A. 323 which became effective in April 77, requires sportsmen to get written consent of the farmers before using their land for hunting, fishing, snowmobiling and other off road vehicles. The ticket stub, that lists the sportsman's name, address, auto license number, and date issued is retained by the farmer, if he or she so desires for them to use their land.

WILLIAM ROSS

Bill Ross ISD Head

by Harriet Fields
Lenawee Vo-Tec

William Ross of Byron, was named superintendent of the Lenawee Intermediate School District Monday night at a meeting of the ISD Board in Birdsall.

For the last seven years, he has been superintendent of the Byron District Schools.

The 39 year-old Ross succeeds Milton C. Porter, who was the first person to hold the position and served in that capacity for 30 years. Mr. Porter resigned in September.

Cal Poppink, who has been acting superintendent, has been named assistant superintendent.

In 1966 Ross was principal and vocational teacher at Sand Creek High School. At that time the former - and first - Lenawee vocational director, Philip Bailey, assumed a position with the Michigan Department of Education in Lansing, and Ross was named county vocational director.

Vocational education was then under the Adrian School District, and offices were behind the high school on Frank St. When the Vocational Center first opened, Ross was the director.

Ross grew up on a farm near Rudyard in the Upper Peninsula. He is a graduate of Michigan State University, working in the areas of science and agriculture. After graduation he taught in the Maple Valley Schools in the Lansing area. He was awarded a fellowship from the Mott Foundation, attending Western Michigan University and serving his internship in the Flint Schools.

After coming to Lenawee County, he attended Eastern Michigan University, earning his Specialist in Education degree. He is now completing work on a Ph.D. degree.

1 Killed, Businessman Injured in Car-Truck Collision Early Monday

A young Adrian woman was killed early Monday morning and a Tecumseh businessman was seriously injured in a car-truck collision on E. Valley Rd., about three-tenths of a mile east of M-52.

Dead is Belinda Brusseau, 20, N. Center St., Adrian. Her services were held Wednesday in Adrian.

Injured and at St. Joseph's Hospital in Ann Arbor is Roger Linger, 59, of 115 N. Maumee St.

According to the sheriff's department, the Brusseau vehicle was westbound and skidded across the centerline and was hit broadside by Linger's truck, owned by the Way Baking Co. of Jackson. Both vehicles were totalled in the collision.

Miss Brusseau was pronounced dead on arrival at Bixby Hospital. Linger was also taken there and then transferred to St. Joseph's.

He suffered a compound facture of one leg, a facture and severe lacerations of another leg, and bruises. It was first reported that he had also suffered internal injuries.

He underwent surgery Monday afternoon. Its not known how long he will remain in the Ann Arbor hospital. His room number is 2013 at St. Joseph's.

His seat belt undoubtedly saved his life.

Mrs. Linger said Wednesday morning that her husband was up briefly in a wheel chair Tuesday afternoon. She said that he has a full length leg cast on one leg and a splint on the other, because of a severe laceration near a knee.

Both legs were broken beneath the knees.

Linger has been a delivery salesman for the Jackson company for over 20 years, calling on practically every grocery and restaurant in this area.

$62,904 Raised in Fund Drive

Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation drive hit the 75 percent mark this week when the various divisions reported $62,904 donated or pledged.

Drive officials hope to reach the $84,000 goal next week and before the drive is scheduled to end on Nov. 18th.

The industrial division, annually a leader in contributions and one that set a record last year in donations, broke that mark again this year with a donation of $51,663 to date.

Seventy percent of that amount came from the Tecumseh Products where employees and the company contributed $35,700.

Current division reports are:

Industrial	$51,663.00
Residential	1,161.00
Public Employees	3,865.00
Professional	1,390.00
Commercial	3,700.00
Special Gifts	1,125.00

Most divisions have not completed their drives. Herrick Hospital, for example, has not completed its campaign there nor have any donations been reported to Fund officials.

Accidents Soar

Traffic accidents multiplied in Tecumseh this past week with eight persons suffering minor injuries and nine drivers receiving citations.

Worse accident occurred shortly after the Tecumseh-Adrian football game and probably occurred because of another accident just minutes earlier.

Michael A. Dubay, 16, of 9037 Tipton Hwy., was westbound on E. Logan at N. Evans and is said to have been looking at an accident scene just north of the intersection when he pulled into the intersection.

He struck a car driven by mary A. Clark, 36, of 2843 Heritage, knocking it across the intersection and into a car operated by Gary A. Maska, 23, of 8838 Ridge Rd., who was eastbound on W. Logan.

Accused Has Past Record

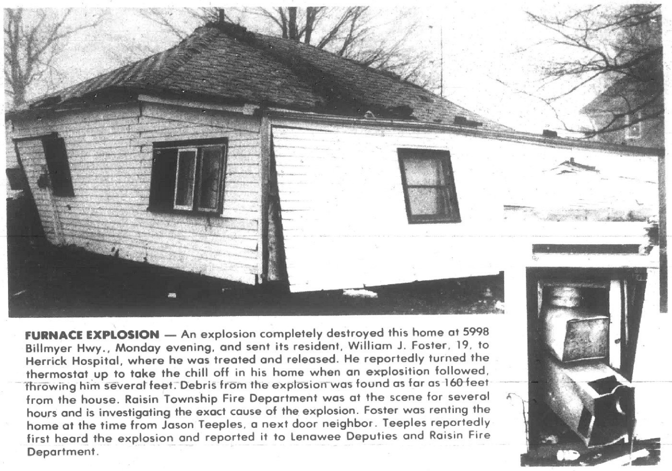
Preliminary examination for Mary Nemore, 56, of Homer, alleged murderer of Janet M. Skinner of Tecumseh, was rescheduled for Nov. 30. It was originally scheduled for Nov. 4.

Nemore, also known as Mary Jane Little, is being held on charges of murder and assault with intent to commit murder in connection with the death of Janet Skinner, 48, of Tecumseh and the wounding of James Johnson, 41, of Eaton Rapids on Oct. 22. The shooting occurred that night outside the Keg bar.

Easton County Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Ray Buffmyer said that about half a dozen statements from a total of 51 civilian witnesses must still be taken.

He said that a statement was already taken from the woman with whom Nemore allegedly had argued. She was not Mrs. Skinner.

Nemore was previously convicted of manslaughter in Kentucky and sentenced to 15 years, although she did not serve that long, Buffmyer stated Wednesday.



FURNACE EXPLOSION — An explosion completely destroyed this home at 5998 Billmyer Hwy., Monday evening, and sent its resident, William J. Foster, 19, to Herrick Hospital, where he was treated and released. He reportedly turned the thermostat up to take the chill off in his home when an explositon followed, throwing him several feet. Debris from the explosion was found as far as 160 feet from the house. Raisin Township Fire Department was at the scene for several hours and is investigating the exact cause of the explosion. Foster was renting the home at the time from Jason Teeples, a next door neighbor. Teeples reportedly first heard the explosion and reported it to Lenawee Deputies and Raisin Fire Department.

Britton Teachers Want Contracts

Britton Education Association, working without a contract since the beginning of the current school year, has filed for fact-finding or a public hearing.

BEA, representing 31 teachers in the system, believes its request offers a reasonable and just compensation for the teachers of Britton-Macon.

On Sept. 22, George Rickey, state labor mediator, conducted an eight-hour marathon session in an attempt to reach a contract settlement. He was unable to break the impasse.

In fact-finding, a representative of the state labor department will be the fact-finder and will examine all evidence and make a specific, non-binding recommendation for a settlement. This is the next legal step in negotiations.

BEA says it is prepared to present information supporting its position.

No date has been set for the public hearing.

The Britton board and administration reports $68,698 in new revenue to operate the school district for the 1977-1978 school year. The school will be receiving $77,518 more in local taxes, but $8,820 less in state membership aid than the previous year.

Further, the $68,698 must cover salary increases and fringe benefits for all school personnel. This includes the administration, clerical, custodians, bus drivers, and the noon supervisor as well as the thirty teachers on the staff.

It also must cover the ever increasing costs of instructional materials, utilities and plant maintenance.

"Trying to satisfy everyone and live within that figure is a very difficult task," officials explain.

Re-elect 3

Approximately 20 percent of the total number of registered voters in the city of Tecumseh re-elected incumbents Leonard H. DeMoss, Harold E. Easton and Aden E. Mead to city council Tuesday.

Aden Mead led at the polls with 639 votes, followed by Leonard DeMoss, 572 and Harold Easton, 490. Michele A. Worley, new candidate, trailed 39 votes behind Easton, who has served as mayor for 16 years.

City clerk Vera Gardner reported that of 4,008 registered voters, 806 voted Tuesday.

In the 1975 election roughly 16 percent or 652 of the 3,966 registered votes cast ballots.

Breakdown of the vote by precinct is:

	Pct. 1	2	3	4	AV
Aden Mead	176	153	133	89	23
Leonard DeMoss	154	125	128	143	22
Harold Easton	138	119	99	116	18
Michele Worley	128	99	89	120	15

Kapnicks Buy Raisin Valley

A Blissfield family, Arlan and Linda Kapnick and their three children, will be opening Raisin Valley Golf Course next spring.

The purchase from Willis Porter was finalized the end of October.

The purchase includes the course, club house, and approximately 160 additional acres. The Kapnicks plan to expand the club house, but have no immediate plans for the course or acreage.

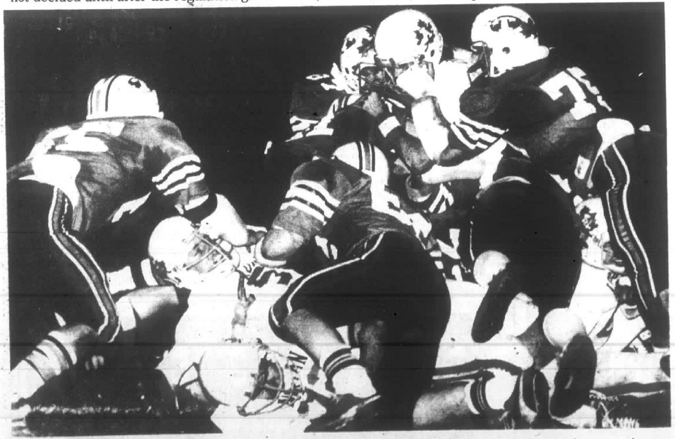
MAPLES ESCAPE WITH 13-7 WIN

Indians Shock Adrian before Losing in OT

Tecumseh stunned the Adrian Maples here Friday night before losing a 13-7 decision that was not decided until after the regulation game ended, and the first overtime session ever played here was completed.

Adrian, co-champions in their league with Ann Arbor Pioneer, Ann Arbor Huron, Ypsilanti, and other Class A schools, was expected to handle the Indians in the final football game for both schools.



STACKED UP — Tecumseh repeatedly stacked up the Adrian offense, and this photo shows the Indians stopping the Maples just short of the goal line in the final seconds of the game.

Handling the gutty Indians was quite a bit more than the visitors anticipated. In fact, the unhappy Adrian following could easily have traveled home with a second defeat for the season. There's a cliche, Adrian, about "counting your blessings!"

The Maples, perhaps their finest team in 10 years or so, started off impressively, taking the kickoff and moving smoothly downfield - before pulling a "Huckleby."

Adrian bobbled the ball on the one and Tecumseh recovered in the end zone - stopping the Maples' first drive. Some observers, mostly from about midfield, thought the Adrian back had scored before the fumble but sideline spectators will tell you he was stopped short of the end zone.

Gary McNitt, a very good quarterback for Adrian, finally put his team ahead when he hit Rick Smith on a 24-yard pass play. Score came just before the end of the first quarter.

While Adrian dominated the first 12 minutes of the game, the Indians took over the second quarter - except for the final three minutes.

Taking over on their 40 - the first decent field position of the night - the Indians marched 60 yards with Jeff Anderson bulling over from the one. John Egbert's kick knotted the game at 7-7.

McNitt, practically Adrian's entire offense, took to the air late in the period, hitting Jeff Patterson who carried to Tecumseh's four yardline. The Maples had four cracks at the Tecumseh defense and couldn't score - game movies will prove it and fans will agree. Again, some midfield observers including a few in the press box, will argue the Maples scored.

By halftime nearly 5,000 partisan fans were roaring for the Indians. Largest home crowd in many years were watching one of the finest defensive efforts every played by a Tecumseh team.

After the two teams returned to the field and played a scoreless third quarter, Anderson proved why he's one of the finest runners in the state. the 200-pound senior ripped off a 51-yard scamper, much of it on his own, breaking loose from the Tecumseh 28 to Adrian's 21 before being dragged down.

Tecumseh then picked up a first down and moved to the Adrian two, where on fourth down, Jeff Robideau's attempted field goal just skimmed under the cross bar. A little higher and the Indians might have been home free.

McNitt, now starting from his own 20 and with less than five minutes remaining in the game, threw the bomb over the Indians' secondary and moved his club to Tecumseh's two.

Again, the Indians did not fold, and they stopped Adrian on four straight running plays. Again, game movies prove the Maples did not score although the same midfield observers were crying that officials were robbing them.

The gutty Indian defense sent the game into overtime, the first ever played here. Athletic directors prior to the game had agreed to an overtime in case of a tie, and both Coach Pat Connors

LORI EGLI WORKS THE POTTER'S WHEEL

Stoneware Works To Be Exhibited

Lori Egli, local creator of handcrafted stoneware pottery will be exhibiting her works at the Adrian Mall Art Show, sponsored by the Maple City Art Guild this weekend Nov. 11, 12, 13.

Lori has been working at the craft for three years. She mixes her own clay body which is then used for wheel-thrown pieces as well as hand built creations and sculptures.

All the pottery is fired to 49, which is classified as stoneware. This high firing creates a more dense, stronger ware that can be used in ovens and for holding hot foods and liquids. All glazes used are lead-free.

Her creations range from utilitarian bowls, mugs and casseroles and hanging pots, to imaginative vases, wind chimes and mirrors.

Since all the pottery is fired to 2300 degrees, any bright colors tend to burn out, and so the stoneware pottery reflects the various muted earth tones of brown, white, green, blue and black.

All of her works are original designs and mostly one of a kind. If someone wanted 10 mugs all alike that could be done, but she prefers creating different designs.

Custom orders are accepted.

Mrs. Egli has become well known here for her many activities with the Girl Scouts and for her appearances with the Croswell Players and the Tecumseh Players.

She resides at 615 W. Chicago Blvd. with husband, Richard, director of telecommunications at Adrian Intermediate School System, and children Valorie, Cynthia and Karen.

Accept Bid

Council approved the low bid of $453,463.55 from a Novi contractor for construction of Russell Rd. from Mill to Rogers Hwy., Monday night.

Six contractors bid for the work with bids ranging up to $615,605.59. Originally, the estimated cost was $447,000, a projection just under the winning bid.

The Highway Administrative Board is expected to award the contract next Tuesday, providing necessary paper work can be completed.

Other bid approved by council was for 500 tons of salt for snow and ice control on city streets.

International Salt bid $14.84 per ton, f.o.b. Tecumseh, and $13.40 per ton, Detroit.

City Unsure

City building inspector Robert Hamden said that the city isn't sure who is buying the home at 609 S. Pearl St. Nine closed bids were opened Nov. 4 and ranged from $4,200 to $10,300. Difficulty is that the buyer is hesitating, Hamden indicated.

City set $4,000 as minimum acceptable offer for the home. It was obtained through the federal department of housing and urban development. City wanted new owner to repair it so that it could continue on the city's tax rolls.

Purchaser should be known by next week Hamden added.

Huber - Vaughn United

Tecumseh Friends Church was the setting for the wedding of Merry C. Huber and James L. Vaughn, Oct. 29.

Candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dane Ruff.

Bride is the daughter of the late Marilyn A. Huber. Groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Vaughn, 4941 Raisin Center Hwy., Tecumseh.

Given in marriage by her brother, Douglas Huber, the bride wore a gown of white polysheer, styled with a wedding ring collar, full bishop sleeves and a chapel length skirt that fell from an empire waist. Garlands of lace accented the neckline, sleeves, skirt and train of the gown. Her headpiece was fashioned of fresh flowers.

She wore diamond earrings, a gift of the groom and carried a cascade of white miniature carnations, white sweetheart roses, stephanotis, baby's breath and ivy leaves.

Maid of honor Debra Meringa of Tecumseh and bridesmaids, Sharon Jones of Tipton and Anita Nichols, Tecumseh, wore floral gowns in fall colors. Their crescent bouquets were of rust shades in carnations and star flowers, with matching flower in their hair.

Junior bridesmaid, Kristen Huber, niece of the bride, wore a peach gown with a floral cape to match the bridesmaid's gowns.

Junior groomsman was Jeremy Huber of Adrian, nephew of the bride.

Candlelighters were Shelly Comfort of Saline and Sherry Vaughn, nieces of the groom.

Best man was Brian Bird. Ushers were Richard Meade of Saline and Dewey Baker of Clinton.

Reception at Peerless Gear Union Hall, Clinton, was attended by 300 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harvey were hosts, assisted by co-hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Comfort of Saline and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vaughn of Cookville, Tenn.

Cake was made by Mrs. Donald Baker, who served it assisted by Mrs. Dewey Baker, Lisa Carpenter and Mrs. Debra Feight.

Guests came from Florida, Tennessee, Virginia, Ohio, Illinois and Iowa.

Bride is attending Apollo University, Adrian and is a 1977 graduate of Tecumseh High School.

Groom is a 1975 graduate of Tecumseh High School. He graduated in 1977 from Ferris State College and is employed with David Siler Architect in Adrian.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Ont. the couple is residing at 2985 Gady Rd., Adrian.

Groom's parents hosted a rehearsal dinner at Shaffer's, Monroe.

Police Cars Are Discussed

Monday night's council session was little different than many meetings in the past when the subject of police cars was discussed.

The only difference was approval to place a tentative order for a police car to be recommended by the state police, who are currently testing cars.

City officials asked Merlin Mowery, police chief, to report back as to the make of car and cost, both of which will be determined by the state. It is doubtful that local dealers will be bidding.

Officials made it clear that it could cancel the order, but approved the city plan to order a patrol car now and to be high on priority list.

Some 12 years or so ago, council discussed plans to buy cars similarily equipped as those operated by the state police. At that time, it was vetoed on the basis that city patroling was far different than the highway patroling of state polcie.

Councilmen Jay Tressler and Len DeMoss spoke favorably for a city "state police" cruiser, as did a couple others, and said three police officers here have been critical of the automobiles now used by the police.

Tecumseh purchases new cars for administrative personnel, and after one year, they are passed on to the police for use as cruisers.

MR. and MRS. RICHARD BUTLER

Laurel Scheuerman and Richard Butler Married

Laurel Scheuerman and Richard Kevin Butler were married Sept. 9 in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Adrian.

The Rev. Fr. John Gussenbauer performed the ceremony as the couple recited marriage vows they had written.

Parents of the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Keith Scheuerman of Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Butler of Tecumseh.

Guitarist Mike Ocamb and Lee Prettyman provided the music.

The bride wore an antique satin wedding dress made by Mrs. Randy Butler sister-in-law of the groom. The gown featured a scoop neckline and long sleeves, trimmed in antique lace. The bride's three-tiered veil was trimmed in matching lace, and designed and made by the bride.

She wore a crystal necklace, a gift of the groom, and carried a dried flower bouquet of wheat, baby's breath and wood roses.

Maid of honor Chris Scheuerman, sister of the bride, of Adrian, wore a long tiered ruffle skirt in a fall floral print with a green peasant blouse. She carried a dried flower bouquet in fall colors.

Bridesmaids were April Moor of Lansing; Nicky Priemer, Sault Ste. Marie; and Martha Scheuerman, of Adrian, cousin of the bride.

Best man was Wayne Oliver of Tecumseh. Groomsmen were Rene Fonda, of Lansing; Randy Butler, Tipton, brother of groom; and Jim Sisson, Tecumseh.

Guests were seated by Greg Scheuerman, brother of the bride and Jeffrey Butler, brother of the groom.

Miniature bride was Amy Scheuerman, cousin of the bride, wearing a print dress styled like the bride's, and she carried dried flowers. Miniature groom was Timothy Butler, brother of groom.

Bride attended Michigan State University and Lansing Community College.

Groom is attending Lansing Community College.

Reception buffet dinner dance was attended by 200 guests at the Elks Club, Adrian.

The couple resides in Lansing, and plans a delayed wedding trip to Florida in December.

Groom's parents hosted a rehearsal dinner at the Country House.

Indians Lose in OT

of Tecumseh and Coach Len Calhoun of Adrian wanted it that way.

Adrian won the toss and elected to take over on Tecumseh's 10, where McNitt on a broken play after running to the right hoping to pass on first down, skirted left and skipped in untouched for the deciding score.

The Indians then had their opportunity from the 10. Two running plays netted just over two yards, and on third down, a pass from Jeff Hans was intercepted and one of the most exciting Tecumseh-Adrian games ever was over.

Tecumseh fans should not be disheartened in the loss. The Indians showed they're champions of the Huron League, a league on paper that's not too impressive when compared to the teams that Adrian schedules. But, that's on paper.

Admittedly, Adrian was hurt offensively. Rick Dubase, speedy back, was hit clean and hard by John Yoakum early in the first quarter and was out for the rest of the game.

Only McNitt was able to hurt Tecumseh offensively. He picked up 97 yards rushing on 18 carries, mostly after being forced to run on pass plays. While his pass completions hurt, time after time Mike Creswell batted passes down at the line of scrimmage, some barely after leaving McNitt's hand.

Bill Tooman, one of many stalwarts on the Tecumseh line, was especially tough against the Adrian attack.

"We had a team effort, and I'm proud," explained Connors.

Offensively, the Indians had a tough time moving, although Anderson again broke the 100-yard rushing mark, picking up 104 yards in 23 carries. This moved him well over 1,000 yards for the season.

THS Cagers Fall to St. Mary's 34-33

Tecumseh suffered a narrow loss to St. Mary's 34-33 last Thursday but bounced back to beat Airport 58-45 in girls basketball action.

The Indians now post an 8-3 Huron League record, tied with St. Mary's for second place in the league. Overall, they are 11-4.

The loss to St. Mary's forced Tecumseh into a tie for second place in the Huron League with St. Mary's. Both post 7-2 records. Grosse Ile is at the top of the heap with one loss.

The Indians take on Grosse Ile this Thursday at Tecumseh.

Both teams were tied at 6-6 after the first period. The Indians pulled into the lead by the half with 11 points in the second frame to six for St. Mary's.

Tecumseh pushed its lead to 11 points in the third frame before St. Mary's began to press forcing crucial turnovers. St. Mary's came back to tie it up 25-25 at the end of the third period.

St. Mary's outscored the orange and black 9-8 in the final frame to take the narrow victory.

Gloria Fosbender led the Indians in scoring with ten points. Grace Burns led the way in rebounds capturing 13 of Tecumseh's 38 carooms. St. Mary's pulled down 33.

Coach Diane Nelson said of the loss, "We were ahead by 11 in the third period. Then they put a press on us with four minutes left in the period. They scored three quick turnovers and suddenly it was nip and tuck. Steadly was in foul trouble and was on the bench until late in the fourth quarter.

"It was the best defensive game we've ever played. Our players did everything they were supposed to do and its a shame they lost."

The orange and black got off to a slow start against the Airport Jets on Tuesday of this week. They trailed 14-12 at the end of the first frame, 31-30 at the half.

The Indians caught fire in the third frame outscoring the Jets 16-8 going on to take the fourth quarter 12-6 and coasting to victory.

Tecumseh hit on 38 percent of their shots from the field and 16 of 27 foul shots. Airport made 33 percent of their shots from the field and only seven of 22 from the line.

Debbie Steadly and Gloria Fosbender tied for scoring honors with 16 markers each.

Tecumseh hosts Grosse Ile this Thursday in an important league match-up. A victory would throw Tecumseh and St. Mary's into a three-way tie for first place along with Grosse Ile.

Bohannon Is 49th at Class B Meet

At the state Class B cross country meet Saturday, Tecumseh's Doug Bohannon came in 49th.

He finished with a time of 16:37.

Bohannon was the only Indian to qualify for the meet.

Dominate All-League

Tecumseh, Huron League champions, dominated all-league selections made by coaches Monday night.

Picked for the first string offensive unit were Bill Tooman, tackle; Jeff Anderson, running back, and Jeff Hans, quarterback.

Second string picks were Dick Cangley and Greg Borton, ends.

First string defensive berths went to Jeff Robideau, line backer; Mike Creswell, end, and Hans, safety.

On the league's second defensive unit were John Egbert, linebacker, and John Yoakum, halfback.

Rules in determining all-league teams restrict selections, which undoutedly prevented several other Indians from being nominated and earning recognition.

Tories Close Out Season with Loss

Britton's Tory grid squad closed out its season by losing to the North Adams Rams 32-8 Friday.

The Rams opened the scoring in the first quarter with a seven yard pass play failing on the extra point try.

Britton fumbled on its next possession allowing the Rams to [illegible] again after a short drive.

In the second frame, North Adams scored on a six yard run.

David Bruce came up with the lone Tory touchdown on a two yard plunge. Jeff Osterhout ran over the extra points.

With just 10 seconds left in the first half, the Rams connected on a 36 yard pass play adding the extra point to give North Adams a 26-8 halftime advantage.

The only score in the second half came in the fourth quarter when the Rams came up with a 25 yard pass play failing on the extra point attempt.

North Adams rushed for 161 yards and passed for 135 yards for 296 yards total offense.

Britton had only 85 yards total offense, all coming on the ground. David Bruce was the leading rusher for the Tories with 62 yards in 14 carries. The Tories were 0-3 in passing.

Defensively, Jon Hintz had 11 tackles while Dennis Kimerer and Terry Benedict added eight and six tackles respectively.

Britton ends the season with a 3-6 overall record. In the Tri-County league, the Tories posted a 3-3 mark.

Britton JV's Are 2-3-2

The Britton junior varsity football squad closed out its season with a convincing 50-0 victory over Whiteford last week.

Britton's leading rusher was Brad Rowe with 110 yards while Mark Crittenden added 100 yards and Wally Armstrong had 92 yards.

The Tories came up with 440 yards rushing and 25 yards passing holding Whiteford to minus 2 yards rushing and 27 yards passing.

Wally Armstrong led the scoring with two touchdowns while five teammates had one touchdown each.

Britton finished the season with a 2-3-2 overall record, 2-2-2 in the Tri-County league.

Redskin Gridders Crush Whiteford

Clinton's Redskin grid team finished out the season with a flourish Friday absolutely overwhelming Ottawa Lake Whiteford 66-0.

The victory left the Skins with a 7-2 record, their best since 1969 when they came up 7-1-1.

Casey Thilo had the lion's share of touchdowns with four, all coming on the ground. Thilo had runs of 10, eight, six and 18 yards while Eric Pratt went 71 yards for the longest scoring run.

Terry Carlton also scored on a 14 yarder, Pratt had a seven yard run, Jeff Porterfield went five yards for a score and Bob Santure took a 25 yard pass from Carlton in for the final score of the game.

Thilo did all the scoring in the first quarter running in the touchdowns and points after. By the half Clinton led 32-0 adding 14 markers in the third frame and 20 in the final period.

The Redskins amassed an impressive 547 yards rushing holding Whiteford to just 31. Whiteford had 38 yards in passing to 88 for Clinton. The Skins did lose three fumbles to one for the opposition.

Gordon Miller came up with 13 tackles for Clinton while Santure added 10.

Coach Don Eaton said of the victory, "We were dead set on getting the 7-2 record on the season. Whiteford got some people hurt and the score just got out of hand. I didn't have a second team so I couldn't substitute."

The Redskins are losing eight seniors to graduation including Terry Keith, Tracey Richardson, Eric Pratt, Bill Gerard, Doug Brooks, Wally Heimerdinger, Jeff Voorhees and Bob Santure.

Runners 10th in State

Clinton's cross country squad capped an excellent season by finishing 10th at the Class C state meet Saturday. The meet was held at Sturgis.

The Skins totaled 282 points while Dewitt was the state champion with 62 points. Manchester, which had edged Clinton to win the LCAA title, finished 16th with 331 points.

Senior Mike Risner closed out his high school career for Clinton by making the all-state team. He finished in the ninth spot with a 15:59 clocking.

Matt Peters was 34th at 16:31, Mark Prichard was 78th at 17:09, Wally Pike was 79th at 17:11 and Chris Wojtowicz was 82nd at 17:19.

Finishing out the scoring for Clinton: Matt McNeil was 95th at 17:30 and Devin Schindler was 121st at 18:36.

Peters, Prichard, McNeil and Schindler are all underclassmen giving Clinton a good nucleus for next year's edition.

Risner, Pike, Wojtowicz and Dave D'Agostino will all graduate.

This was the first time as a team that the Skins have attended the state meet.

Coach Ozzie Hashly was obviously pleased with the results. "We had set a goal to finish in the top ten after the regionals. It was the first time that Risner had beaten Keith Moore of Manchester. Moore ran the course in 16:08. We also beat East Jackson and Manchester to whom we had lost at the regionals."

Lose Upset Bid

Britton's girl basketball squad missed scoring an upset over undefeated Whitmore Lake last Thursday.

The Tories lost the battle 48-47.

Britton trailed 21-18 at the half maintaining the margin 33-30 at the end of the third. Although the Tories outscored Whitmore Lake 17-15 in the final frame it just wasn't enough.

Genene Bruce had 23 points for Britton followed by Smith with 12 and Janelle Schultz with 10.

Britton is 8-3 in the Tri-County league, 10-4 overall.

4 Are All-League

Four Clinton football players were recently named to the LCAA All League first team.

The four are, Bob Santure, tight end; Jeff Voorhees, tackle; Casey Thilo, tailback and Eric Pratt, defensive end. Thilo is a junior, the rest are seniors.

Thilo and Santure also received honorable mention for defensive assignments along with Andy Hoag, Jeff Porterfield, Bill Gerard, Lee Russ and Tracey Richardson.

Eric Pratt Injured

Eric Pratt, senior fullback for Clinton, suffered a severe ankle injury during the Redskins 66-0 rout of Whiteford Friday night.

According to coach Don Eaton, Pratt broke loose on a 60-70 yard run in the middle of the fourth quarter. He was hit hard on the three yard line and fell in such a way that he dislocated his left ankle and broke a bone near the ankle.

Eaton stated that Pratt was scheduled for surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital in Ann Arbor Tuesday of this week.

Pratt was recently named to the LCAA All League first team.

Herrick Hospital were Mrs. Clark, her daughter, Juli, 15, and Debbie Crawford, 15, Gady Rd.

Dubay was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

The accident, which had occurred just previously on N. Evans St., involved Kurt S. Titze, 17, Adrian, and Douglas J. McKowen, 16, of 1421 Southwick Dr. Titze ran into the rear of the McKowen automobile, and he was cited for failure to stop within an assured clear distance.

Titze also suffered minor injuries.

Another personal injury mishap involving four youths was investigated Monday. Jeffrey A. Rendell, 16, of 10699 Murphy, told officers he was westbound on W. Chicago Blvd. when a car came out of Adrian St. and into his lane of traffic.

He said that in avoiding the car, his car jumped the curb and slammed into a tree. A brother, Mark, 14, and two other passengers, Keith Ferraro, 16, of 2686 Coachlite and Scott Hans, 14, of 2555 Oxford Ct., suffered minor injuries.

Nov. 2 - Diane L. Griffin, 27, Morenci, was charged with an improper left turn after a mishap with James D. Boschard, 39, Brooklyn, at the E. Chicago Blvd. - Ottawa intersection.

Nov. 3 - Marjorie M. Vincent, 20, Ida was cited for improper lane usage after an accident with Henry E. Rayless, 60, Jasper, on E. Chicago in downtown Tecumseh.

Nov. 4 - Mark A. Webb, 17, Adrian, was charged with failure to yield after he attempted to cross E. Chicago at Wyandotte and struck Michael A. Bearinger, 21, of 514 W. Kilbuck.

Nov. 4 - Lorena B. Hubbs, 71, Brooklyn, was cited for an improper left turn after an accident with Mary A. Adams, 17, Adrian, at the intersection of W. Chicago and Union St.

Nov. 6 - Norman K. Langthorne, 35, Adrian, was ticketed for failure to yield after a collision with Jean A. Brown, 36, Adrian, on Adrian St. at W. Pottawatamie.

Nov. 7 - Michael J. Keys, 18, of 2817 Coachlite Dr., received two tickets from police after running into a parked car owned by Curtiss E. Heaton, 501 Occidental, on Occidental Rd.

He was charged with failure to have his car under control and for leaving the scene of an accident. Keys reported the accident four hours after it happened.

Nov. 7 - Three suffered minor injuries on Adrian St. at W. Pottawatamie when Byron D. Salters, 18, of 5143 Osburn Dr., ran into the rear of a vehicle driven by Dennis O. McCafferty, 38, Clayton. McCafferty, a passenger Ernest Woodard, 28, Blissfield, and Salters suffered injuries.

Salters was cited for failure to stop within an assured clear distance.

B&E, Larceny Hit Tecumseh

A breaking and entering of an Adrian St. residence and a $400 larceny from an automobile were at the top of the police complaints this past week.

Mabel Nichols, 414 Adrian St., told officers Monday that her home had been entered, probably with a skeleton key, and money and clothing valued at $750 were taken.

Her bedroom had been ransacked and $360 in cash had been taken. Other items stolen included clothing and stereo tapes. Donald Nichols, grandson, reported $40 in cash stolen from him.

The B&E is still under investigation.

Maria Harrold, Munger Rd., told officers that her car was parked over night in the alley near Tecumseh Glass and a tape player valued at $400 was taken. There was also motor damage to the automobile.

Other police complaints were:

Nov. 2 — Rodney W. Higgins, 18, Douglas, was charged with being drunk and disorderly outside the House of Pizza on W. Chicago Blvd.

Nov. 2 — Gladys Hartley, 518 Pawnee Heights, reported a bicycle stolen from the yard there.

Nov. 5 — Steven Kampmueller, 506 Orchard Lane, reported car emblem removed from his automobile at high school parking lot.

Nov. 5 — Jeffrey Mack, 405 E. Chicago Blvd., told officers that a tape deck, worth $45, was taken from his car parked in the driveway.

Nov. 5 — Harold A. Gove, 57, of 8745 Matthews Hwy., was arrested for driving while under the influence of alcohol. Gove was first observed by police stopped in the intersection of N. Evans and Brown. He then swerved into an oncoming lane of traffic, drove west on Brown and then jumped the curb when patrolmen stopped him.

Nov. 8 — Robert L. Hosley, 39, Lincoln Park, was arrested for DUIL after being observed driving left of center on E. Chicago Blvd.

Nov 8 — Linda Gordon, 209 Cairns, reported $80 in cash taken from her home.

Chamber Meeting

Booklets, pamphlets, and brochures highlighted the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce meeting Thursday morning.

The three pieces of literature that the Chamber will soon have readily available, will hopefully attract potential businesses, professions, and industries to the community.

The first booklet is a general look at the community's schools, churches, recreation, industries and potential. The booklet, as well as the other pieces of literature, will be on file at the Chamber office and at city hall.

Chamber's only hesitation in printing this booklet has been the general lack of community support. The group is attempting to get more sponsors and may soon be contacting businesses and professions on a one-to-one basis.

The pamphlet and brochure that the group is working on are keyed more to potential Tecumseh industries. Here, the Chamber hopes to go out and contact industries as well as have the material on file.

The Chamber also discussed a general retail meeting Tuesday, 8 a.m., at Don's Contented Sole.

At the meeting, retail chairman, Mary Lou Dangler, will discuss the Chamber's Christmas promotion, the arrival of Santa Claus, and a possible retail-wide one day sale.

Society Dinner Set

The Lenawee County Historical Society will have its dinner meeting Nov. 17 at 6:30 p.m. at Madison High school, Treat Rd. (US-223 turn south on Treat Rd.)

Program will be Lenawee county and canal history by Mrs. Donald Frazier, curator emeritus.

Reservations must be made by Nov. 12 at the museum or call no later than Nov. 14, 263-3979, 263-9346 or 265-5231.

Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

They do not seem to come around when I have a roomful of company but, off and on for the past several weeks, we enjoyed cedar waxwings. Beautiful birds and most interesting to watch. They are gregarious and travel in flocks. I have no idea as to the size of our gang; however, there does seem to be a goodly number.

These lovely birds must be seen to be truly appreciated. Some colorplates offer a good rendition of their colors but in no way can they show how incredibly soft the waxwings' feathers look.

While brownish birds with yellowish fronts is a general description, it is the extra markings which give the birds their handsome appearance. They wear a bright yellow band across the end of their rather short tails and their rakish black eye-masks are outlined in white.

Actually though, one need only to see the silhouette of a cedar waxwing to recognize him. These are crested birds, just as are the cardinals, but they do not have the cardinal's long tail.

Waxwings have a unique perching posture — they sit up quite straight. No other 7¼ inch bird is so erect on a limb. And usually there is not just one waxwing either. If one is spotted on a limb a closer look usually shows a whole tree full of these birds.

Cedar waxwings are not about to be pigeon-holed into adhering to strict and rigid rules. They are free spirits who improvise and make up the rules as they go along. Although migratory we are fortunate in having them in this area twelve months a year.

Mom and I are lucky in almost being able to plan on having cedar waxwings each fall. They might drop in anytime but, when the barberry berries are ripe and when the fruit is red on Prettyman's huge cotoneaster bush, then we start looking.

Listening too. These are not noisy birds in the sense of being loud and raucous. Neither are they quarrelsome. In fact, they are mild mannered and polite. But oh, how they do like to talk to each other! As they go about their business in the tree-tops or the bushes they chatter, chatter, chatter. Friendly gossiping carried on in shrill little high-pitched lisps or wheezes. It seems strange that such lovely birds do not have beautiful melodic voices, doesn't it?

Being avid fruit eaters they always seem to know just where their favorite foods are and exactly when they are at their peak of tastiness. But they also have an appetite for insects — orchard men usually believe that the waxwings pay for the fruit they eat by consuming vast numbers of harmful insects. There are also many reports of waxwings eating the petals of some fruit blossoms — quite an exotic dessert.

Another strange contradiction is that these neat and sleek birds build rather rough and bulky nests. They are late nesters too, July and August are their family rearing months. But in spite of this they raise two or sometimes even three broods a year.

Our beloved Evans Creek is a prime attraction — cedar waxwings are clean birds, fond of bathing. Mom had the extreme good fortune to see our flock come up from the creek late one afternoon. They settled themselves in the trees and bushes in the back yard and proceeded to preen.

She said the feather shaking, the arranging and rearranging, the fluffing and fluttering was absolutely fascinating to watch. The rays of the setting sun lent a soft warm glow to the scene. What a sight!

50th Dinner

TIPTON — Pythian Sisters will host a 50th wedding dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Church on Nov. 17 at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Faye Luce and Mrs. Raymond Marrow will be in charge of the dinner.

Meat and dessert will be furnished. If not contacted, members are to bring a dish to pass, buttered rolls and table service.

Star in 'Oz'

Lynn Boyd, Steve Dangler, Theresa Dangler and Richelle Marks of Tecumseh will be in the cast of Lenawee County children, aged 12 through 16, who will perform in the modern classic, "The Wizard of Oz," at the Siena Heights College lab theatre.

Remaining performances are Nov. 11 at 7:30 p.m. and Nov. 12 at 9:30 a.m.

For reservations, call 263-0731, ext. 254 or 255.

Garden Club Holds Meeting

November meeting of the Town and Country Garden Club was held Wednesday evening at United Savings Bank.

President Barbara Schrader reported on the recent Lenawee County Council of Garden Clubs meeting.

Plans for a Council sponsored flower show were presented.

Environmental Council of Lenawee's current fund-raising drive to purchase Bicentennial Woods was brought to the members' attention.

A $25 donation to ECOL was approved.

Members participated in a two-part workshop.

Fruit and vegetable seed flowers were made under the direction of Mary Ferguson.

Corn husk flowers were constructed with the guidance of Mary Sue Ferraro.

Co-hosts were Toni Schneider and Linda Herman.

An arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums was created by Gretchen Lovett.

Next meeting will be a progressive dinner for members and their husbands on Dec. 3.

Mary-Martha Has Luncheon

BRITTON — Mary-Martha Circle met at the Congregational Christian Church Nov. 1 for a noon cooperative luncheon with Phyllis Patterson as hostess. Fifteen members attended.

Meeting was opened by Marian Ash reading answers, given to teachers, by fourth grade students on a variety of questions. The answers proved to be interesting and amusing. She also read "About Birthdays".

Report was given on the success of the Senior Citizen's luncheon held Oct. 22 at the church. Profits will go into the general fund.

Announcement was made on this year's Christmas Mitten Tree. Members were asked to have the mittens at the church by Dec. 17. Last year the mittens were distributed to local needy children and same will be done this year.

Letter was read from the Ypsilanti State Hospital asking help from circle members in planning and putting on activities for patients at the hospital.

Names of State Hospital patients were distributed to members for Christmas gifts. These gifts should be brought to the church Dec. 7, which will also be the date for the Christmas Family Night Supper for all circles and their families.

Boxes for shut-ins will be packed after this year's Christmas program. Local men and women serving in the armed forces will also be remembered.

Year books were distributed and project for the year was to make lap robes for nursing homes.

Mary Oliver gave devotions on "Thanksgiving Prayer," and Helen Osterhout, program chairman, read "Landing of Pilgrim Fathers At Thanksgiving Time."

Meeting closed with all repeating the Lord's Prayer.

Sunshine Circle Holds Meeting

BRITTON — Mrs. Vivian Brown was hostess at her home for a cooperative luncheon Nov. 1 with 13 members of the Sunshine Circle of the Britton Congregational Christian Church attending. One guest, Mrs. Audrey Harder of Adrian and three children were also present. Mrs. Brown was assisted by Mrs. Audrey Palmer, co-hostess.

Mrs. Nancy Wilson, president of the circle, conducted the business meeting. Routine business was transacted. The group voted to have a brunch at 9 a.m. Dec. 7, to complete business for the year.

A number of announcements were made — Wrapped and labeled gifts for patients at the Ypsilanti State Hospital are to be under the tree in the Fellowship Center at the church by Dec. 7. — Mittens for needy children are to be on the Christmas tree before the Christmas program. Items to be used in packing boxes for shut-ins are to be at the church on the date of the Christmas program.

Cards were signed to be sent to Mrs. Carmen Brown, Mrs. Alta Thompson, and Mrs. Marion Dicks, members of the circle who were unable to attend the meeting.

Mrs. Bonnie Bush, who was in charge of devotions and the program introduced Mrs. Audrey Harder who opened the program with a prayer and read Psalm 34 before showing slides of her trip to Israel and telling of interesting experiences on the trip.

Bride To Be Is Honored

BRITTON — Bride-elect Sue Tompkins of Chelsea, was guest of honor at a miscellaneous bridal shower Sunday, given for her at the home of Mrs. Howard Wilson, future sister-in-law, in Tecumseh.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Robert Wallace and Mrs. Henry Brown of Britton and Mrs. Raynor Brown of Adrian, future aunts.

Games were played and duplicate prizes awarded to guests and to the honored guest.

Refreshments followed the opening of gifts by the bride-to-be.

Miss Tompkins' marriage to Rodger Brown of Britton, will take place Dec. 10.

Guests were from Adrian, Chelsea, Tecumseh and Britton.

Secretary Is Elected

BRITTON — Judy Pilbeam was elected new secretary for the Britton-Macon Band Boosters at the Nov. 9 meeting, filling in the office vacated by a resignation.

Mrs. Meri Schoof's sixth grade band presented a program of music to the parents and guests who attended the meeting.

During the business meeting the constitution and bylawsre, revised last month, were read and approved.

New band uniforms have not yet arrived but announcement was made that they should arrive by Dec. 1, and be worn at the All-Band Christmas Concert on Dec. 13.

Annual Turkey Supper, Bazaar Is Successful

BRITTON — Grace United Methodist Church Annual Turkey Supper and Bazaar held Nov. 3 was a huge success.

Co-chairmen Sandy Bortel and Marie Judkins and their committee were kept very busy feeding the 350 persons who attended. Nancy Bishop and her dish washers were kept busy also.

Nina Bower and Nancy Gibbs, co-chairmen for the bazaar reported that everything went very well and they received many nice comments concerning the displays and the free coffee and cookies from the shoppers.

The United Methodist Women voted to give the $550 earned from the bazaar to missions.

Readers Write

To the Editor:

On behalf of the Lenawee Chapter 20 of the Disabled American Veterans, we would like to thank your paper, local merchants, businesses and all the residents of the area served by your paper for the generous contribution to our annual "Forget-Me-Not" Flower Campaign on Nov. 4th and 5th.

Our members volunteered their time and were stationed at food stores some banks in Tecumseh and Britton Banks and merchants and the general public were very generous.

This money remains in a special Fund for our hospital, sick and needy veterans of the Lenawee County Area.

A special thanks to our members and the women auxiliary members who help make our drive a success.

Just a reminder to all disabled American veterans who are not involved, to join our local county chapter of the D.A.V. 20, located in Adrian, and help us help those veterans who are less fortunate than we are. The general public responded to our assistance, so let each of you veterans find time and effort to help our own needs.

Respectfully yours,
Russ Spalding, Britton
Zone II and Chapter Officer

Dear Ms. Brown:

Reading the story in the Oct. 20 issue of the Herald of Dudley Clapp reminded me that I've wanted to write to you since your story appeared about our Grandpa, Clarence Hall, (60 year Macon Cemetery Sexton) in the June 16 issue.

I want to compliment you on capturing Grandpa's personality in your article. He's a very special person as Dudley Clapp also appears to be.

Can you imagine the interesting "looking back" one could witness if they were to meet?

Again, thank you.
Sincerely,
Mrs. Gary D. Hall

Dear Sir:

I am writing to you to request the help of your readers in the Tecumseh area. I am in the process of writing a book on the Bath School Disaster which occurred in Bath, Michigan in 1927.

The central figure in that tragedy was a Mr. Andrew P. Kehoe, reportedly a graduate of Tecumseh High School. Mr. Kehoe was born in 1827 near Tecumseh and Clinton, married and set up housekeeping in 1912 at his rural Tecumseh address, and moved to Bath in 1919.

In spite of considerable assistance from some of his acquaintances and relatives, I am still badly in need of any possible information of his life experiences and activities either in the Tecumseh area or elsewhere - and either in his early life or later.

I would like to request that any such information be mailed directly to my home at 2115 Mark Avenue in Lansing, Michigan or that I be otherwise contacted there. My phone number is area code 517-484-9751.

I will be most grateful for any information at all which might exist, no matter how insignificant it might at first seem - for it may well help shed light on this tragic American incident.

Very truly yours,
Grant Parker

To the Editor:

My faith in "teens" was recently restored Friday night, Nov. 4, while chaperoning a large, extremely well behaved group of teenagers at the after game dance at Tecumseh High School.

It was great to note that the kids had fun dancing without the usual acts of vandalism.

Incidentally, this dance was supposedly sponsored by Medical Careers Club and only two dedicated members appeared to help work.

Thanks all teens at the dance.

A grateful chaperone,
Mrs. Norris Kopka

To the Editor

As everyone knows the night before Halloween is considered "Devil's Night". All the kids around get blamed for all the pranks going on.

The police are kept very busy answering complaints about objects being thrown at cars, houses and other children. Many yards get toilet papered, pumpkins smashed and leaves scattered about the city streets.

But what most people don't know is that a group of adults between (ages 25-40) with the ideas of our adolescent children were out toilet papering yards and soaping windows of their friends and relatives. In the group was a fireman, hospital employees, factory workers, janitors and a school teacher from our own Tecumseh High School.

Looks as though our principal Mr. Lacney is always stressing discipline to the students and a little of that should go to the teachers too.

Now do we have to ask where our children get some of their ideas.

It looks as if some of our adults are possessed with the devil too.

Clinton's Oldest Tombstone Told

CLINTON — Historical Society of Clinton members were told of a discovery by Lillie Neblo of Clinton's oldest tombstone in Oakmont Cemetery on Currier St.

Tombstone dated 1830 with the name of Lazelle on it, was discovered broken in pieces in Oakmont Cemetery.

It has been authenticated by Sexton of Riverside Cemetery, Joe O'Donnell by newspaper account of the times.

The Historical Society is interested in having the tombstone repaired.

Genevieve Reilly gave a report on the October meeting of the State Historical Society in Holland, attended by Shirley Fraley and Sharon Scott.

They were treated to a tour of Holland. Mrs. Reilly became intrigued by the search for the significance of the rooster weathervane on Dutch Reformed Churches in that area, and would like to learn more about them.

The discussion at the State meeting concerned establishment of historical districts, museum funding, and ethnic preservation activities.

Next State meeting will be in Petosky next fall.

Sally Scheer and Norman Campbell presented a program on "Auctions and Barns."

The Historical Society members will meet for a pre-Christmas gathering and carol sing, Dec. 6 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Campbell.

Members plan to accept the special invitation to the Wednesday evening meeting of the Clinton Woman's Club to hear Speaker Herbert Bartlett of Saline talk about the Indian trails of the area.

Completes Training

CLINTON — Navy Seaman Apprentice Bruce A. Johnston, son of Russell Johnston of water Wheel Estates, has completed the basic enlisted course at the Naval Submarine School, Groton, Conn.

He joined the Navy in April 1977.

Presents Program

CLINTON — Rev. Russell J. Cooper presented a program on the subject of Advent for the meeting of the St. John's Episcopal Churchwomen, Nov. 2, at the home of Mrs. Vernon Fry.

Final plans were made for the Smorgasbord dinner, Saturday, Nov. 12.

Announcement was made of the Community Thanksgiving Eve service at St. John's church on Nov. 23.

UF Drive Continues

CLINTON— Clinton United Fund Drive will continue until Nov. 18.

There will be no household canvassing this year.

Contributions may be sent to Clinton United Fund, Clinton, Mich. 49236, or left at State Savings Bank of Clinton, First Federal Savings of Clinton, or Merkel-Young Hardware.

Community Center Board Holds Meet

CLINTON — Smith-Kimball Community Center Board meeting was concerned with the continuing redecoration of the center.

Upstairs painting has been completed.

Board noted that center users may no longer place tape on the walls or ceilings. Removal of the tape added considerably to the cost of redecorating. Instead bulletin boards will be provided. Decorations may only be attached to the ceilings with string.

Downstairs redecorating will be done as funds become available.

Recent improvements include the new fence along the rear, and the front board fence has been newly painted.

Drama Club Play Nov 18-19

CLINTON — Clinton High School Drama Club is busy preparing for their up-coming performance of "Arsenic and Old Lace" by Joseph Kesselring. The comedy will be presented Nov. 18 and 19.

Tickets will be available at the door and from cast and crew members. While the actors rehearse under the direction of Mrs. Geiger and student director Carol Clark, the set begins to take form under technical director Rex Geiger. Assisting him on set construction is Bob Simpson. Cindy Duda will be handling the lighting and Allison Baily and Tommy Dettling are busy gathering props.

Lisa Gilbert will be coordinating costumes and working on make up with Lynn Greenleaf. Beth Everett is in charge of set decoration.

Audrey Thompson is acting as prompter and under study. In charge of house and ushers will be Janet Hilderly. Les Meyers will be helping out in various areas.

OES Installs New Officers

CLINTON — Installation of officers unable to attend the recent installation ceremony, took place prior to the meeting of the Golden Rod Chapter OES, Thursday.

Installing officers were Elva Hoelzer and Mable Porter. Those installed were: secretary, Mrs. William Stout; organist, Mrs. Del Manchester; Martha, Diane Schuler.

Each was presented with a pink carnation, and a bluebird pin.

Worthy matron Helene Ruhl reported on the grand chapter meeting at Grand Rapids, which she attended.

Plans were made for the Christmas party with the Masons on Dec. 11 at 2 p.m. in St. John's Episcopal Church.

Refreshments were served by Ernestine Manchester, Cass Larrabee and Lucille Hill.

Table decorations included a centerpiece of yellow mums, surrounded by gourds and colored leaves.

School of instruction will be held Dec. 9. Next regular meeting is Dec. 1.

Tax Appraisal Cards Begin

CLINTON — Michigan State Law now requires that a property tax appraisal card system be established by Dec. 1978.

Clinton Township Board at Monday's meeting agreed to contract with Charles Cook of Marion and Perry Cook, Tyrell St. (no relation) to prepare the appraisal cards on every property in the township.

Householders will be required to admit these men so that they can ascertain interior and exterior information, measurements, rooms, etc., and they will take a photo of the front and back of the property to include in the file.

Information on the appraisal cards will be used by the township supervisor and tax appraisor for property evaluation at tax time.

Property of township board members will be examined first, as the work is beginning immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Harris of Taylor were present to request permission to place a trailer on property on W. Michigan Ave., while they are building a house. Building inspector, Charles Wilson, told how this can be done cording to the zoning ordinance.

Wilson reported a total of $114,500 in building permits that were approved.

Ben VanDemark resigned from the board of review since he will be out of the state this winter. Board appointed Charles Cook to fill the vacancy.

Board voted to make the fee for the zoning board of appeals $25, payable in advance, as of Nov. 7.

Board approved the Riverside Cemetery sexton's request to repair the foundation of Clinton's first gravestone at Oakmont Cemetery, Currier St.

UCC Class Has Doll Factory

CLINTON — Members of the Mary Martha Class of United Church of Christ had their own little doll factory going Tuesday night.

They handmade more than a dozen baby-sized anklet dolls, and will make more for the annual church bazaar to be held Dec. 3.

Ten members were present for the meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Calhoun.

Plans were made for the Dec. 13 meeting, when members will meet at the church at 5:30 p.m., then visit the Sampsell Nursing Home, Tecumseh for a carol sing before going to Rock Inn for dinner. Afterward the group will meet at a member's home for a secret pal gift exchange.

Cagers Hope for Title

Clinton's hopes for an undefeated season in girl's basketball were dashed on Tuesday of this week by Morenci when the Redskins fell 60-47.

The Skins easily sailed past Blissfield last Thursday 62-25.

The Skins were without the services of JoAnn Grossman, a consistent scoring leader and rebounder, against Morenci. Grossman has the measles and coach Bob King is unsure when she will be able to return.

In addition, King readily admits that Morenci played well.

"Morenci played very well and we probably didn't play as well as we're capable of. We didn't have JoAnn, Cathy Gibson and Lisa Cark fouled out."

Clinton was still in the game at the half, trailing by just 27-21. Morenci kept up the attack though, and the Skins were behind 41-33 at the end of the third frame.

Morenci outrebounded the Redskins 37-31 but suffered 30 turnovers to 26 for Clinton.

Sue Richter was tops in scoring for Clinton with 22 while Karen Busch had 11.

It was clear sailing for the Skins against Blissfield last Thursday night. Clinton nailed 11 of 14 shots in the first frame to jump out to a 22-10 lead after the first period.

The Skins widened the margin to 37-15 at the half.

Sue Richter led in scoring with 16 points while Cathy Gibson and Lisa Cark each added 11.

Richter had 14 of Clinton's 44 rebounds. Cark added ten. Blissfield had 23 carooms.

The loss to Morenci left the Skins with a 10-1 league mark, 14-1 overall. Clinton still owns first place in the LCAA with Morenci posting a 9-2 record.

Clinton takes on Britton this Thursday, hosting Manchester next Tuesday for its final league contest.

Hospital Visits Is Program

CLINTON — Erma Broniman presented a skit, "How Not to Visit a Patient in the Hospital", for members of the United Methodist Women, Monday night.

She also read a poem, "I Was Sick and You Visited Me."

Devotions were from the 65th Psalm and a poem on "Thanksgiving" by the late Rev. Rial Simons was read.

Plans were made for the annual Book Fair Dec. 1, 2, 3, and 5.

On Dec. 2, at 10 a.m. Marion Powers of the Logan Book Store of Ann Arbor will review books.

A coffee hour will follow, cochaired by Mrs. Lee Thompson.

The Dec. 5 meeting of UMW will feature candlemaking led by Mrs. Raymond Kussmaul. There will also be a cookie exchange. Members are to bring two dozen cookies.

Appointed Counselor

CLINTON — Steven R. Barkway, 24, Adrian, was appointed an admissions counselor at Adrian College.

His radio debut came in late 1971 when Steve, then an Adrian freshman, joined the staff of college-owned and operated WVAC-FM. He also held summer employment with WABJ-AM in Adrian and completed a college internship with WLEN.

Barkway, 1971 Onsted High School graduate, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Barkway, Onsted, and married to the former Laurie Lindh of Clinton.

JC's Sponsor Safety Meet

CLINTON — The safety of our youngsters and what our community can do about, will be examined in a special meeting planned for Wednesday Nov. 16, sponsored by Clinton Area Jaycee Auxiliary.

The meeting will be at 7 p.m. in Clinton High School Learning Resource Center.

"All About Safety Town", an early childhood safety education center, is an educational program geared to instruct children on safety.

Mrs. Gail Nichols, Michigan State Director, speaker will show slides of actual classes.

The general meeting will allow everyone to be properly informed and to see and hear reactions of mothers and others and ask questions.

Ice Rink for Clinton Approved

CLINTON—Village council approved a request of Clinton Chamber of Commerce for the use of part of village owned land east of the tennis courts for the construction of an ice rink. The approximately 120'x60' space will not interfere with the Middle School parking area.

Council voted to act in conjunction with Clinton Township to install posts on the east side of the township hall building, north and south ends, for better maintenance. This is contingent upon a survey of the land.

Joe O'Donnell, village sexton, was present on behalf of the Historical Society of Clinton, to request permission for the repair and resetting of a grave marker in Oakmont Cemetery on Currier St. The marker states that it is the first grave in Clinton. Council agreed.

A trial unit street light is being used on Tecumseh Rd. in the vicinity of the Don Thomas residence. Council would appreciate citizen comments on the new light.

Council resolved that: Village of Clinton requires any person requiring service, electrical, water or sewer, must sign an application for such service at the village office, and proof of identity must be presented.

Contract was allocated to A.C. Moller Construction Co., Inc. for 50'x40' addition to the municipal power plant of a stran-steel pre-engineered building to enclose the new engine, in the amount of $49.573.

Bishop Visits

CLINTON — The Rt. Rev. H. Coleman McGehee, Bishop of Michigan, will make his official visit to St. John's Church, Sunday, Nov. 13 for the 10 a.m. services.

See these exclusive free shows Tomorrow.

Home Box Office is totally unlike any other TV channel. Preview it FREE on channel 5 for a full week. From Nov. 11 to Nov. 17. It brings you premiere movies. Uninterrupted by commercials. Plus, live sports. Children's specials. And much more. It's the most exciting new kind of entertainment in the U.S. today. Available exclusively on cable TV. (It's worth getting cable for, if you don't already have it. See money-saving Installation Offer below.)

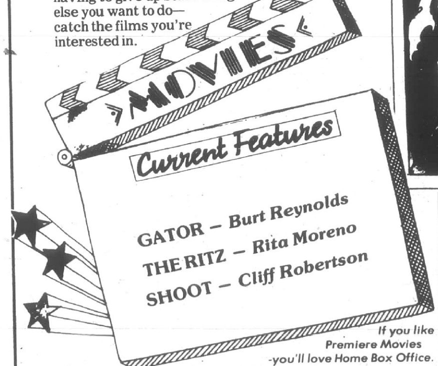
Now you can enjoy the best in movies long before they appear on ordinary television.

You can take your choice of up to 10 recently released films a month, and see them in the comfort of your living room. Every month Home Box Office, the exclusive new kind of TV channel in town, brings you a new premiere movie festival. Movies that haven't been seen anywhere else, except in the best theatres. Movies for Nov. include "Network" with William Holden, "Two Minute Warning" with Charleton Heston.

You can also see encore performances each month chosen from outstanding movies previously premiered on Home Box Office. There's a tremendous range of choice.

Choose your own viewing time.

What's more, you can choose your own viewing time for enjoying these movies. Instead of having to give up some-thing else you want to do—catch the films you're interested in.



If you like Premiere Movies -you'll love Home Box Office.

That's because on Home Box Office [illegible] movies are shown several times, usually from two to six times in the four week period after the premiere.

As an HBO subscriber you receive a free 24-page program guide at the beginning of each month. This enables you to see which films and other attractions are coming up — note the times — and plan viewing to suit your convenience.

Nuisances you'll avoid on HBO.

But there are a few things you'll be missing on Home Box Office. Nuisances like the commercials. And the cuts in movies that ordinary television has to make to fit the commercials in, but that sometimes cause a film to seem disjointed. And the censorship.

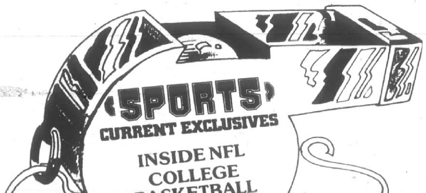
We believe you'll welcome the change. Over 750,000 families who are enjoying Home Box Office in other parts of the country do. (We haven't had a single request to put the commercials back in.)

Another thing you'll miss on Home Box Office is the hassle and expense of having to go out in bad weather — fight the traffic — try to find a parking place — arrange for a baby sitter.

An Extraordinary Home Entertainment Bargain

We belive you'll find Home Box Office worth much more than its low cost.

A full month of Home Box Office costs less than taking a family of four out to a sporting event or to the movies once. (And with HBO you can enjoy dozens of events each month.)



If you like Sports -you'll flip over Home Box Office.

An important point: You're never "locked in" as an HBO subscriber. There's no contract. You're free to discontinue your subscription at any time.

You get a great deal more than movies on HBO

And, of course, you get a lot more than movies on Home Box Office.

Home Box Office is also for sports fans. You'll see exclusive games and matches not available on ordinary TV.

To cite a few: Inside NFL, College Basketball, Ice Skating.

Liberty TV Cable

Every month—that 24-page Program Guide

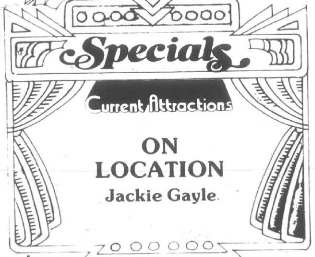
You can stay on top of everything—and plan your viewing—with your MONTHLY PROGRAM GUIDE.

It gives you a detailed listing, schedule and description of the movies, sporting events and other attractions. Soon it will be the primary source for entertainment in your family.

Getting Home Box Office is a natural, whether or not you have Cable TV

If you don't have Cable TV — it's worth getting, so you can enjoy Home Box Office.

How to Get Home Box Office—and Save $7.50. It's easy to get Home Box Office. Even if you didn't have cable yet. Send no money. Just fill out and mail the coupon below or telephone 263-4663.



If you like Nightclub Entertainment, Great Drama, Thrilling Spectaculars -you'll applaud Home Box Office.

The total monthly charge for Home Box Office is $7.95. That's for exclusive programming. Seven days a week, all month long.

You can save $7.50 in Installation Charges if you do so before Nov. 17th. Otherwise, if you delay and decide to sign up later, we'll have to charge the standard fee.

Offer is good only in areas where Cable TV is available.

Croswell Celebrates 10th

by Kathy Brown

People tend to negate their good attributes and shy from compliments. It is a behavioral phenomenon.

Even the venerable Croswell Opera House in Adrian, gracious lady that she is, seemed to suffer from this malady Sunday during a benefit program "Memories and Sketches" in celebration of the 10th anniversary Year of the Croswell Opera House Fine Arts and Association.

The program opened with an outstanding production of color slides and music from the original casts of countless musical productions staged in the last decade at the Croswell.

Technical difficulties arose when the screen refused to make a graceful exit and nearly bounced on emcee Darrell Pollard's noggin before it was carted off by the whistling stage crew.

Two of the planned command performances were cancelled. Tracy Wigent of "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" couldn't make it and Glenn Crane of "Fiddler on the Roof" was ill.

Alice Mott graciously substituted with "Whistle a Happy Tune" from "King and I."

Other numbers and performers were: "Do-Re-Mi" children's chorus from "Sound of Music " Brenda Krauss', the "Fair Lady" with her flower basket singing "Wouldn't It Be Loverly;" Choyce Quigley with "Oliver" memories singing "As Long as He Needs Me;" Eleanore Brown with a Spanish tango and "Showboat" duo, "You Are Love" featuring Candyce Harrington and Bob Fraile.

Barbara Kondalski sang "Climb Every Mountain" from "Sound of Music" and "Put On Your Sunday Clothes" from "Hello Dolly" served as a costume revue.

Helen Bendes was musical director.

Sumptuous hors d'oeuvres and punch were served backstage and tours of the renovated theater were given. Several members of the Tecumseh Players cast of "Irene" and patrons from the Tecumseh area attended.

Packets Are Available

One of the new self teaching packets available through the Family Living Education Program of Michigan State University's Cooperative Extension Service is "Cancer Detection."

This packet has won National acclaim by health educators, and received an Award from the American Medical Association.

Color illustrated slides and cassette tape discuss the growth and development of the human breast from before birth to adult and give complete instructions and illustrations of self breast examination.

It also includes an illustrated book complete with questions and answers gathered from women over several years.

For more information contact the county Extension Home Economist Ann L. Hinsdale at 199 N. Broad, Adrian, phone 263-8831, ext. 329.

Music Box Program

Tecumseh Business and Professional Woman's Club met for the October dinner meeting at the Holloway Presbyterian Church.

Several Thanksgiving and Christmas projects were discussed and planned.

An informational program, "The charm and history of musical boxes," was presented by Elizabeth Wilson.

The November meeting of the Business and Professional Woman's Club will be held at the United Church of Christ in Clinton.

Kid's Service

A special Kid's Service was held Oct. 31 at 4:30 p.m. at St. Elizabeth's Church.

Children came dressed in their Halloween costumes, met in the school and marched in procession to the church.

A Mass was held featuring scripture selected and prayers written for and read by the children. Afterwards a Halloween party was held in the gym.

60 View Local History Rooms

The improvements to the Tecumseh Public Library's local history collection in the Clara Waldron Rooms were viewed by 60 visitors Sunday.

The rainy afternoon attendance was "disappointing" said head librarian Deborah Harris. Nevertheless, visitors for the one day open house enthusiastic about the collection.

Improvements were made possible by a $5,300 grant from the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation. Historical materials donated to the library are now preserved in acid free folders and boxes to slow down deterioration. The display was one day only to protect the photos from harsh light.

The photograph display featured the following subjects selected by these volunteers: businesses, Barbara Kruger; architecture, residences, social groups, Claire Dana; schools, library, girls' basketball teams, Donna Roe; baseball and football teams, Steve Kruger; railroads, Barbara Chavez.

Pat Eby, exhibit coordinator, completed a display of Tecumseh photographers on the first floor. Kevin Trickey was responsible for the display case with cameras from the early 20th century including a 19th century stereopticon. Ron Frenzen made a display of a disassembled Kodak instamatic cameras.

Charles Gross assisted with the folding display unit. Don Berkley made photographs of damaged photos. Mary Dana, a student, lettered a map of the business district 1900 from the Woods' Tecumseh Directory. Kathy Kruger did lettering.

A kiosk display entitled "A Preservation Ordinance for Tecumseh Means. . ."was the contribution of Lynn Cook. Blown-up copies of color slides of historic buildings taken by Cook, Owen Merrill and Don Berkley were displayed on a cork board kiosk loaned by The Collaborative Inc. Co. architectural firm of Toledo, Ohio.

The library has over 500 old photographs. Indexing project was led by Pat Eby. Tecumseh Public Library also has as many slides, many of which belonged to the late Joe Rice of Tecumseh.

These nonprinted local history materials are an important supplement to printed library materials. Photographs and slides and visual details and a sense of immediacy to printed sources. The library's collection of architectural blueprints of the buildings of Herrick Foundation serves as a unique architectural record.

Also displayed for the open house was the portrait of The Prophet, Tecumseh's brother, and portraits of Tecumseh by Catherine Cobb, Barbara Chavez and a photograph reproduction taken by Don Berkley.

Two works of Lavern F. Wheeler, Tecumseh artist, were displayed - - "An Artist's Dream" 1868 and the untitled work of two young girls dated 1875. Wheeler, a photographer by trade, is included in the book, "Artists in Michigan."

SPECIAL EXHIBIT — Library employee Pat Eby shows part of a special exhibit that appeared at the Tecumseh Public Library Oct. 23. She indexed historical pictures donated to the library's Clara Waldron Historical Room.

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

I often receive requests for low calorie recipes. Here are a couple to help us all get in a holiday shape.

Rose Mininger sent this recipe for diet lasagna. It is a low calorie favorite with her family.

DIET LASAGNA

1 pound lean ground beef or veal
¼ cup minced onion
1 cup condensed tomato soup
1 teaspoon basil
¼ teaspoon oregano
garlic salt and pepper to taste
3 ounce can chopped mushrooms
1 package (10 ounce) frozen spinach
8 ounce cottage cheese
4 ounce Mozzarella cheese, thinly sliced

Brown meat and onion until onion is soft. Add soup, mushrooms, and spices. Squeeze liquid from spinach and mix with cottage cheese, Preheat oven at 375 degrees. Place ½ spinach mixture in 9x9 inch baking dish. Top with half the meat mixture and ½ the Mozzarella cheese. Repeat layers in same order, making sure cheese is on top. Bake 20-30 minutes until cheese is bubbly and slightly browned. Serves 4.

Yogurt has become a favorite low calorie health food. This quick dessert will be a hit with your family, even if they are not fond of yogurt. This recipe is from Ann Griffin of East Liverpool, Ohio.

ORANGE YOGURT DESSERT

13½ ounce container whipped topping
8 ounce orange yogurt
small can madarin oranges, drained

Fold yogurt into whipped topping, blending well. Fold in mandarin oranges, drained. Spoon into individual serving dishes. Garnish with an orange slice or sprinkle with graham cracker crumbs, if desired.

NOTE: Other flavored yogurt and fruit can also be used. Try strawberry yogurt with fresh strawberries, peach yogurt with peaches, etc.

See you next week.

103 Attend Camp Fire Fall Party

The Camp Fire Association of Tecumseh held its annual fall party Oct. 15 at the Charles Ruesink home on Tipton Hwy.

103 members were present.

The girls, parents and leaders had a weiner roast and a hayride.

The girls will start their Camp Fire candy sale the first week of December.

They are attending the roller skating parties the first Wednesday every month.

Hits Semi, Driver Hurt

Martin Elsworth, 20, of Redford sustained serious leg injuries in a collision with a semi-trailer truck, at 7:20 a.m. Saturday.

He was treated at Bixby Hospital and transferred to St. Joseph Hospital.

Elsworth told Clinton State Police he must have fallen asleep and traveling north crossed the center line, striking the southbound semi driven by Richard J. Schultz, 34 of Strongville, Ohio.

The collision occurred on M-52 just south of M-50.

Tecumseh firemen gave rescue assistance.

Elsworth was cited for careless driving.

Taxation Is Discussed

Lenawee County Citizens for Reasonable Taxation met on Oct. 17 at Vo-Tech with Robert Tisch as speaker. He is the Vice-President of the Michigan Citizens for Reasonable Taxation.

Workings of the Tax commission and the bureau of management and budget were explained along with his experiences as supervisor, judge, drain commissioner and farmer.

Joe Schultz reported on a meeting he attended in Tawas, with the Taxpayers Federation of Michigan.

Next meeting to be held at the same place on Nov. 7 at 7:30 p.m. with David Jaeger, Equalization Director as speaker.

Esterline Graduates

Sgt. Robert R. Esterline, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Esterline, 310 E. Chicago Blvd., was graduated from the tactical air command non-commissioned officer leadership school at Langley AFB, Va.

The sergeant, who was trained in military management and supervision, is an integrated avionics systems specialist at Langley.

He is a 1968 graduate of Tecumseh High School and attended United Electronic Institute in Grand Rapids.

JEANETTE HOFFMAN CHECKS SUPPLIES

A LOOK INSIDE
Herrick Hospital

BY

KATHY BAILEY, R.N.
RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

This week we'd like to highlight a familiar face around the hospital, namely Jeanette Hoffman.

Jeanette has worked at Herrick for nearly 10 years as a desk clerk. Jeanette's duties are many, including daily charging for all supplies used by hospital patients and typing up the 24-hour patient reports which are utilized by the nursing staff.

During the day Jeanette prepares the charts for each new admission and accompanies each new patient to their room.

Jeanette also serves as a vital source of communication within the hospital. She is responsible for calling a nurse aide or orderly to transport each patient from his room to surgery and back again.

During the afternoon, Jeanette calls each nursing station and receives a list of all the patients who have or are going home. She then notifies the associate director of nursing of all available patient rooms for the incoming admissions.

Although originally from Detroit, Jeanette has lived in the Tecumseh-Irish Hills area for nearly 30 years. She keeps busy with friends, her bowling and is active in church work.

Deputy Speaks to Rotarians

Deputy Sheriff Gary Teske, of the Lenawee County Sheriff's Department was the guest speaker at the regular Tuesday meeting of the Tecumseh Rotary Club held at St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Deputy Teske, recently attached to the Region II Metro Squad, talked about drug abuse and drug enforcement.

Teske cited statistics from the Drug Enforcement Administration of the federal government that the average heroin addict spends approximately $58 a day to support his habit.

According to Teske this amounts to a heroin trade of approximately $13 billion per year in the United States.

Not only does the heroin addict cost the public in terms of the loss of resources, Teske said the addict generally must steal in order to support his habit.

To support his habit, an addict may steal approximately $200 in merchandise per day because the stolen goods market will only pay approximately 20 to 30 per cent of the value of the items, Teske told.

Teske estimated the $50 billion worth of merchandise is stolen in the United States per year by heroin addicts. This, of course, leads to higher insurance rates for homeowners and businesses.

The Drug Enforcement Administration, according to Teske, estimates that there are 626,000 heroin addicts in the United States today. He added it costs the State of Michigan approximately 1,300 to attempt the rehabiliation of one addict plus the cost of drug enforcement agencies, to the taxpayer.

Guests at the Tuesday meeting included Ken Hamblin of Tecumseh Printers and student guests Jeff Anderson and Sandy Jacobs, both of Tecumseh High School.

Crop Reports Are Wanted

Lenawee county farmers are urged to report their total crop and land use acreages to he Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) soon.

Robert Allen, county ASC committee chairman, said the acreages must be reported to be eligible for 1978 program benefits.

Ventz Elected President

Sallie Ventz of Adrian has been elected president of the Nazareth College Student Nurse's Association. This national organization brings together student nurses to promote health care, education and legislative action.

Sallie, daughter of Mrs. Lois O. Ventz, is presently a junior nursing student in the Bachelor of Science Nursing program at Nazareth College at Kalamazoo.

Grant-In-Aid Is Approved for School

Meyers Foundation recently approved a grant-in-aid application from Mrs. Lois Fleming, principal of the Herrick Park School, for aviation science teaching materials.

Dr. Nadia Meyers and Mrs. Lynn Cook made the presentation to the school last week. Richard Billington's sixth grade was selected to represent the school at the presentation.

The books, "Let's Go Flying," will be used in the career ed program as well as in the science teaching.

After the presentation, Dr. Myers shared with the students many interesting accomplishments of her late husband, Allen Meyers, as a pioneer in aviation. Many newspaper articles and photographs were displayed that attested to the unique contributions of Mr. Meyers to the field of aviation.

Mrs. Cook also gave a brief account of the formation of the 99's pilots, whose organization published the books that were given to the school.

'Thank You' Club Members

Ward Eardley, director said "The Tecumseh recreation department would like to thank Kiwanis Club members who helped at all three locations, Herb Hoag, recreation department playground supervisors, Ethel Wright (Buffie the Clown), Jenny Fielder, Cindy Anschuetz and all others, including the board of education and Margaret Yerman. Without all this help, these community functions could not have worked.

Stained Glass Is Club Topic

Special guest of the Tecumseh Kiwanis club was Richard Marks, formerly of Adrian, the owner and artisan-in-reisdence at the Richard Marks Stained Glass Studio and Gallery on E. Chicago Blvd. in Tecumseh.

Besides an active career of teaching the art of stained glass creation from design to finished piece, both at the studio and at the University of Michigan, Marks draws upon a reputation begun over 20 years ago to obtain commissioned installations.

Many of these are found in churches, public buildings and others within Michigan, Ohio and other states.

Stained glass windows of the leaded type are not a "permanent" fixture. Either by natural attrition or damage of one type or another, repair is inevitable. Restoration work is another major function of the studio.

Using film slides Marks showed the methods by which stained glass is produced at two domestic suppliers in Pennsylvania and Ohio. Imported glass is also a source. Between color varieties and glass types an infinite number are available to the artist.

Members were invited to stop by the studio to view first hand the displayed samples of this craft as well as to watch the work in progress.

Meeting dates on the Kiwanis calendar are Nov. 10, board meeting at 7 p.m. at Marten Vegter's office. Date was changed. Budget for the new administration will be discussed.

Nov. 15 is a club business meeting. Nov. 22, Allan Gray will have the program. Nov. 29 is the first meeting at the Big Boy with Bob Holmes giving the program.

Fashions Highlighted

Reports on a visit to Meadow Brook Hall and Christmas boutique in Monroe were heard at the Oct. 25 meeting of the Northeast Tecumseh Extension Club at the home of Mrs. Gwen Cox.

Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Edward Stoelt, Mrs. Frederick Helm reported on the Meadow Brook trip and style show luncheon featuring fashions worn by Matilda (Dodge) Wilson.

Mrs. Charles Koob, Mrs. Ellsworth Robison, Mrs. Raymond Bird and Mrs. Frederick Helm also reported on the Monroe Christmas boutique.

A thank you letter was read from the Border Missions of Texas and explained what they are doing.

Mrs. Ellsworth Robison and Mrs. Helm gave the lesson on "Work smarter, not harder." Luncheon was served by the hostess.

Next meeting is Nov. 22 at the home of Mrs. Charles Koob with the lesson on dressing for 18 degrees Celsius.

REPAIRMAN DAVE PAEKE

'Friendliest Town I've Seen'

Dave Gets Around Town

By Kathy Brown

David Paepke, watch repairman at Eggleston's Jewelry, is a man who knows how to get around town. During the past year he has worked in Tecumseh, he has developed a rapport with the noon hour regulars at Don's Beef Buffet who congregate at the round table.

Dave's self-confidence and self-reliance are doubtlessly how he develops friends.

"This is the friendliest town I've seen in my life. Ninety-nine percent of the people are super," Paepke (pronounced Pep-key) commented.

Dave's wheel chair is not motorized. "I get around on my own power. I look out for me. If I need help, I ask for it," told Dave.

One the whole he said that most stores in Tecumseh are accessible. "I get around better than most people," he stated.

"The only thing I've found I can't do is get up and run. If anybody tells me I can't do it, that's when I get determined," Dave asserted. "Most people are curious about how I got this way."

Dave had polio when he was 14. As a teen he wore long leg braces, a back brace and got around with the support of crutches.

"I threw away the back brace and long leg braces. They're concerned (the doctors) that I can't do it. They told me I don't have enough muscles. My mother would like to have had a stroke but I once drove a motorcycle," Dave stated.

Dave participated in the Michigan wheelchair games for three years and parficipated in a national competition. Now he said he doesn't have the time. He enjoys fishing and bowling. He drives 28 miles to work from his home near Toledo, Ohio.

"You can do anything you want to do," Dave stated. "You're only limitation is yourself. People who don't try are either too lazy or they don't want to."

Lamaze Classes Scheduled

The Lamaze Childbirth Preparation Association of Ann Arbor is now scheduling classes in Saline.

Expectant women and their coaches should register during the fifth month of pregnancy for the childbirth preparation classes which begin during the seventh month.

Classes are taught by nurse instructors and focus on relaxation exercises and breating techniques with accompanying lectures and discussion of stages of pregnancy, labor and delivery.

Further information and registration may be obtained from the registrar at 313-761-4402.

Reading Exhibit

The annual Lenawee Reading Council Publisher's Exhibit will be held Nov. 15 at the Lenawee Vo-Tech Center on M-52. Exhibits will be open from 3:30 to 6 p.m.

Materials from over 25 publishing companies will be available. Consultants from various book companies will also be available for a question and answer period.

Long Joins Crime Program

H. Fred Long of Tecumseh is county president of Rural Crime Prevention Program designed to help farmers and others in rural communities make it even tougher for agricriminals.

The program is the outgrowth of the Michigan Rural Crime Prevention Council (MRCPC), an ad hoc organization comprised of the Michigan Farm Bureau, Michigan State Police, Michigan Sheriffs Association, Farm Bureau Insurance and others who have joined to help reduce crime in rural areas.

Meining Is Worthy Matron

Lillian Meining was installed as worthy matron during the 90th installation of officers of Tecumseh Chapter No. 51, held Oct. 29 in the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Meining has chosen the theme "Serenity" and her emblem the lamb. Her watch words for the 1977-78 year will be peace and harmony, and the year is dedicated to the youth of the Order, Rainbow Girls, Job's Daughters and DeMolay.

Other officers installed were Ernest Alpach, worthy patron; Mary Van-Valkenburg, associate matron; Mary Lou Moore, secretary; Vera Driffill, treasurer; Mary Wiederhoeft, conductress; Ida Hartley, associate conductress; Patricia Dixon, marshal; Stanley Miller, organist; Florence Miller, Adah; Carolyn Baker, Ruth; Lucinda Hand, Esther; Miriam Nixon, Electa; Reino Meining and Jane Alspach, guest book.

The installing staff was the past matrons Olive Ann Ruettinger, installing officer; Hazel Bonner, chaplain and Clara Hicks, installing marshal.

The installing organist was Ernestine Manchester of Golden Rod Chapter, Clinton. Marilee Purse, a member of Tecumseh Chapter was the installing soloist.

Alspach was escorted to the east by his wife, Jane and Mrs. Meining was presented with an arm bouquet of mums by Mrs. Bonner as she approached the east. She was presented with her gavel by her husband, Reino Meining.

The call to order was conducted by Stanley Miller, retiring worthy patron and the address of welcome was given by Lucinda Hand, retiring worthy matron.

The introduction of guests included Ernestine Manchester, past grand organist of the grand chapel of Michigan, order of the Eastern Star; members of the Lenawee-Monroe county association, Mary Lou Moore of Tecumseh, secretary and Ina Bashan and Alvina Roberts, members of the ways and means committee, both of Clinton; Cindy Welch, worthy advisor, Gloria Chase, love and Carolyn Baker, mother advisor of Rainbow Assembly No. 44, all of Tecumseh.

Other guests included three members of Orient chapter of Northsville, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fabuliner and Jack Sharpe. Mrs. Meining was a former member of this chapter.

The chapter room was decorated with arrangements of gold mums and fern, carrying out the worthy matron's solo scheme for the year. A life size white lamb was placed at the base of her pedestal.

The retiring worthy patron and worthy matron were presented with their jewels and Mrs. Hand was welcomed into the past matron's club by the past matrons of the chapter.

Refreshments were served from a buffet table centered with a large decorated cake and candle flower arrangements in the worthy matron's colors. Presiding at the table was Mrs. Bonner, Mrs. Ruettinger and Patricia Dixon.

Volunteers Needed for Shut-Ins

Many of the home residents in Adult Foster Care Homes are in need of someone to talk to, to assist them in writing a letter, to read to them or someone just to listen and show interest in their well-being.

Anyone interested in sharing an hour a week visiting shut-ins may attend an information meeting Nov. 16 at 10 a.m. in the conference room of the Department of Social Services at 1301 N. Main St., Adrian. or contact Mr. Lynn Schultz, coordinator of volunteer services at 263-6761. ext. 216.

Attends Meeting

NRTA State Director attends Chicago Leadership Meeting James McDowell, Michigan state director for the National Retired Teachers Association, attended the NRTA leadership meeting for Area V in Chicago on Oct. 25, and 26. Area V comprises Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Wisconsin and has the largest membership in the nation, 103, 167. Michigan has more than 23,000 and ranks ninth of the 50 states in membership. Their goal is a more rewarding life for older Americans.

'Bubbles' Is Topic

Mrs. Donald Bush presented the first part of a book review, "Bubbles," about the life of singer Beverly Sills at the Oct. meeting of the Tecumseh Music Club.

At age 7, Miss Sills knew 22 Italian arias, by 10 she spoke French and at age 15 she knew 20 operas.

Mrs. Roger Hardenberg hosted the club at her Manchester home. Thirteen members participated in an international potluck dinner. Mrs. Harold Smith was the co-hostess.

Mrs. Richard Broniman, president, presided over the business meeting. The Tecumseh Music Club is affiliated with the National Federation of Music Clubs.

WILLIAM and SHIRLEY CAWTHON FAMILY

Bagpipers to Appear Sunday

The William and Shirley Cawthon family of Dearborn will bring the robust bagpipe music of Scotland with all its color in costumes, regalia and historic tradition to the Tecumseh United Methodist Church Sunday, Nov. 13 at 3:30 p.m. for a special concert.

Sponsor is the Tecumseh Music Club, affiliated with the National Federation of Music Clubs.

The family program will include traditional Highland music and dance and a medley of the British and American tunes.

The group is composed of four piper brothers, aged 16 to 21 and only sister, Laura, 22, who with her students will dance.

The four brothers all started piping at about age 10. Interest originally was created by a friendship between father and one of this area's noteable pipers, Donald MacLellan. Donald was one of the boys' most admired persons and their primary teacher..

All in the family share the love of the bagpipes and pipe music and are accomplished pipers, continually active in piping events and gatherings. The oldest son won gold medals in national competition.

They increase their skills with instruction from professional pipers from Scotland.

In addition to their individual and brothers group piping activities, their local inspiration is still with a MacLellan, "Jock" MacLellan, equally admired brother of Donald and organizer, manager and motivator of the proficient "Boarder Cities Pipe Band" of Windsor, Canada of which all are members.

Brothers play at numerous Highland gatherings or games in the U.S. and Canada as band members and individual, competitive pipers. They also play for family gatherings, parties, weddings and funerals.

Quite a number of good pipers and pipe music exist and interest is growing. As a point of interest, over 3,000 tunes are published for the pipes, many of which cannot be played on any other instruments.

One of the brother's favorite expression is: "Never heard a pipe tune I didn't like."

Each piper maintains his own pipes, which takes about as much skill as playing. Their pipes, although made by the finest Scottish pipemakers, are still the ancient style and require a good amount of attention to keep in playing condition. The pipes are the only instrument to have four bamboo reeds sounding simultaneously and with different notes.

Pipe music sounds different because its musical scale, unlike the present chromatic scale, is in major part an equal tempered interval of the older pentatonic scale. It's tuning is different from all other instruments.

Playing with other musical accompaniment is possible if music is carefully selected and edited. Pleasing harmony results in pipe combinations with the organ, violin and to a lesser degree some brass, playing portions of tunes.

Highland dancing was originally a man's dance and is still performed in its near original form in the military regiments. Each dance has its unique individual history and meaning.

Today the Highland dances are more often performed for entertainment by young women.

New Film at Friends Church

"Shiokari Pass," a new, color, one hour film from the producers of "The Hiding Place" will be shown at the Tecumseh Evangelical Friends Church, 9500 Tecumseh-Clinton Rd. on Nov. 13 at 7:30 p.m.

An English soundtrack, it was filmed entirely in Japan with a Japanese cast and crew and depicts the beauty of that country.

A true story, it is based on the international best seller by Ayako Miura. It tells of the abiding love of a young couple at the turn of the century.

Credited with creating a deeper understanding of the Christian faith among the Japanese people, the film tells of the love of a young man and of his willingness to be guided by his personal faith, no matter how great the cost.

The Rev. A. Dane Ruff, pastor, invites the public. No admission will be charged for the program.

Sesame Street Characters Teach Safety

By Kathy Brown

Sesame Street characters are teaching bus safety to Tecumseh Public School students.

The idea is not as far out as it might sound. Students are enthusiastic about the television characters Big Bird, Oscar the Grouch, Cookie Monster, Kermit the Frog, Grover Bert and Ernie to mention a few—and have fun learning from them. The actors—alias the 15-20 Tecumseh Public School bus drivers rotating in the first time volunteer project—have fun too.

The skit originated from a similar program presented by the New Boston-Huron School district bus drivers at the annual bus drivers school all drivers must attend.

The local drivers received school administration permission to conduct the program on their own time. They will perform for any interested group. Ridgeway PTO and Patterson Elementary School already viewed the program.

The touring company uses the cosutmes sewn by driver Lois Tilton, known to her student passengers and coworkers for her annual Halloween dress up.

The safety rules of using the bus are presented in the skit during a stop action. After the characters demonstrate the wrong way to ride the bus, the action is stopped the rules of bus safety are reviewed.

Parents may find it helpful to review these rules with their children:

1. Line up orderly. Be considerate of others.
2. Stay away from the roadway until the bus makes a complete stop. Look both ways before crossing the street.
3. Be ready at the bus stop at least five minutes early.
4. Don't stand up in the bus while in motion. Keep your feet on the floor so everyone has a seat.
5. Never block the aisle. In case of emergency, you might not be able to get out on time.
6. Save snacks until you leave the bus. Food on the floor may cause serious accidents.
7. Keep your body inside the windows.
8. Don't throw things out the window or at the driver. It could cause a serious accident.
9. Don't distract the bus driver by fighting or getting out of your seat. Wait until the bus stops at school to talk to the driver.
10. Remember to be quiet at the railroad crossings.
11. When leaving the bus, go directly to your driveway. Walk out a few feet in front of the bus so the driver can see you. Look both ways before crossing and wait for the driver's signal.

Costume Winners Are Announced

Tecumseh's annual Halloween youth parties were held Oct. 31. Approximately 200 youth participated in events for their age groups. Attendance was down considerably from years past.

The pre-schoolers partied Monday afternoon at the Community Center.

Winners of the costume contest were for the girls:

Spookiest - Julie Oxley, age 3; most original - Christy Selph, age 2½; funniest - Megan Durkey, age 2 and Katie Skelton, age 3½; dressiest - Monique Andre, age 3.

Winners in the boy's categories were:

Spookiest - Jason Meier, age 3; most original - Ted Cattell, age 2; funniest - Brandon Nolan, age 2; best dressed - Kristian Cubberly, age 3.

The kinnergarten through third grade party was held at Patterson School from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m. Movies, games, cider and doughnuts and a costume contest was held.

Winners in the kindergarten through third grade were in the girl's category:

Spookiest - Jane Kattell; most original - Heather Johnson; funniest - Trudy Houtly; dressiest - Kristin Nicely.

Winners in the boy's category were:

Spookiest - Lee Andrews; most original - Tim Brown; funniest - Dale Cole; dressiest - Robby Conrad.

The fourth through sixth grade party was help at Tecumseh Acres school where attendance was minimal.

Costume contest winners were:

Spookiest - Jerry Frye; most original - Rick VanDuzen; funniest - Allen Cole; dressiest - Grant Bauman.

The junior high dance was held from 7-9 p.m. at the Community Center where approximately 70 youth danced. Nate Smith, disc jockey, provided the music for the dance.

An extra attraction was held for the recreation department fifth and sixth grade flag football teams, as they played under the lights at the high school athletic field, bringing to close a highly successful youth football season.

Centennial Business Are Sought

The Historical Society of Michigan is continuing its search for centennial businesses operating in the state.

The Society sponsored a contest during the Bicentennial year to locate the oldest business in Michigan.

Because of the enthusiastic response, the recognition of centennial businesses has been adopted as an ongoing program of the Society.

Applications for centennial business certificates should include: complete name, address and phone number; name and title of chief executive officer; documentation to verify founding date; and name and address of person submitting the application.

All applications should be mailed to the Historical Society of Michigan, 2117 Washtenaw Ave., Ann Arbor, 48104. Program is supported by Michigan foundations including the Herrick and Sage Foundations.

Birthday for Dave

A Republican party-sponsored "birthday party" will highlight Congressman Dave Stockman's visit to Lenawee County this weekend. It is planned for Saturday evening, November 12th, at St. Joseph's Hall on U.S. 12 in the Irish Hills with the public invited. Bill Carter's band will provide music for dancing.

Congressman Stockman will address the American Legion Armistice Day banquet on Friday at 7 p.m. He will be meeting with Lenawee County Farmers, Saturday morning from 8:00 a.m. until 10:30 a.m. at the Adrian Holiday Inn. The new farm bill will be the topic for discussion.

From 10:30 a.m. until noon, Saturday, Stockman will appear on WLEN radio's "Partyline" program.

A Sunday afternoon lecture at Hillsdale College concerning the energy situation will complete the weekend itinerary.

For the Record

Sherri McLain, Anne and Katie Sommermeyer were omitted from the first press release about the benefit performances of the Sandy Covell Dancers at Sutton School last Thursday.

Pack 32 Hold Party

Twenty cubscouts and their families enjoyed a hayride and hotdog roast Friday evening at the home of their cubmaster Harold Robinson.

Families that attended were the Robinsons, Holdridges, Goves, Hartmans, Towns, Fishers, Scudders, Davises, Crutchfields, Spiegels, Slusarskis, Eberles, Carters, Sheldons and Bakers, Afterward the cubs held a penny digging contest.

The Understanding Chair

When we are young, rocking is a game. When we are old, it can become a way of life. And in between, there are countless occasions when rocking fulfils a human need . . . to think . . . to relax . . . to reminisce . . . to dream.

It's almost as though the rocking chair understands people, turning their restlessness into calm and contemplation.

But there are deeper human needs that find no comfort in the rhythm of the rocking chair—intense spiritual needs met only by communion with God.

The Church really understands people. Its worship, its teaching, its community service, all provide expression for man's spiritual needs. The soul's restlessness is turned into conviction and commitment.

FOCUS on City Government

By Paul L. Preston, Jr.
Tecumseh's Assistant City Manager and Community Development Director

BITS & PIECES
LAND USE PLAN

The Planning Commission at its meeting of Oct. 11, voted to accept the Land Use Plan for the City of Tecumseh and referred it to the City Council for its review.

The purpose of the plan is to set forth a policy for land use development within the city through the year 2000.

The plan includes an inventory of the characteristics of the city including socio-economic factors, housing, land use, physical and natural features, and community facilities and services.

An analysis of these characteristics was made to determine their present status and anticipated influence on the city's land use development.

Based on this analysis, the City Planning Commission determined a set of goals and objectives to guide the future growth of the city. These goals and objectives were discussed in a previous article.

The report itself is available at the Tecumseh Public Library and at City Hall and the Planning Commission encourages any interested party to stop at either location to review the document.

LEAF AND TREE PROGRAM

Since Oct. 10, over 15,000 leaf bags were given out to citizens. Pick-up of the leaves began the week of Oct. 24. If you have small limbs and branches that you would like removed place them at the curb also.

The city will begin cutting down dead and damaged trees within the next few weeks. If you live in the city and have dead trees in the right of way in front of your house please call city hall.

CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS
TENNIS COURTS

Ground has been broken for the new tennis courts at Satterthwaite Park. Tecumseh tennis enthusiasts can look forward to playing on the new courts next spring.

RUSSELL ROAD BRIDGE & INDUSTRIAL PARK

The city has received $464,000 of Local Public Works money from the federal government to fund both the Russell Road Bridge Project and the Industrial Park improvements.

Construction on both projects will begin in December with completion planned for the spring and summer of 1978. The $464,000 represents the largest federal grant ever received by the City of Tecumseh.

NOW IT IS YOUR TURN

I am sure that many of you have questions about the city, how it functions and the services it provides. I would like to give you the opportunity to ask those questions and hopefully we can provide the answers.

If you have general questions that would be of interest to a number of people I will be glad to publish the answer in the newspaper.

Please send your questions in writing to my attention at either city hall or the newspaper. If you would like to phone in your question please call me at city hall.

If you have a specific question or problem please call me at city hall any time.

A weight control program with Neo-Trim

You CAN control your weight
without: Pills and drugs,
Exercise,
Starvation diets,
Hunger pangs,
Going to meetings.

HOW? By drinking two glasses of a delicious high-protein Neo-Trim milkshake twice a day and then eating a regular third meal. Sound easy? It is!

Neo-Trim is the result of extensive research and field testing by the Neo-Life Company of America. Neo-Life makes more protein, sells more protein, and knows more about protein supplements than anyone in the industry; so it was natural they would find a better answer to the problem of weight control.

Chapter 51 OES Holds 1st Meeting

First meeting of the new year for Tecumseh Chapter 51 was held Thursday evening with Mrs. Lillian Meining, worthy matron, presiding.

Officers, who were not present for the official installation, were installed. They were Kenneth VanValkenburg, associate patron; Mrs. Bettie Kiser, chaplain; Mrs. Clara Hicks, Martha and Wilmer Kiser, wardens.

Mrs. Olive Ann Ruettinger presided as installing officer and Mrs. Patricia Dixon, installing marshal.

A request for transfer was granted to Mrs. Marguerite Garlick. She will become a member of Iasco Chapter at East Tawas.

An invitation to attend the annual matron's alumni dinner was read. It will be held Nov. 30, beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the Medina Federated Church.

A report was given by Mrs. Meining, covering her attendance at the Joy of Living session of grand chapter held in Grand Rapids recently.

Members were reminded of the composite School of instruction to be held Nov. 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the Masonic Temple.

A 6:30 potluck supper was held preceding the meeting. This was in honor of the retiring worthy matron, Mrs. Lucinda Hand and the retiring patron, Stanley Miller.

Attend Cobo Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Meade, second vice-president of Maple City Swingers of Adrian attended the 17th Annual Michigan Square & Round Dance Convention Nov. 5 at Cobo Hall, Detroit.

Attending with them were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dumire of Adrian, treasurer of the club; Margaret Harris, Bob Lewis, secretary.

Mrs. Phyllis Gilson, the caller for the Maple City Swingers, also attended with her husband and family, with Phyllis doing several calls at the convention.

During the supper break they all went over to Windsor, Ont. and had a special meal at the Holiday Inn.

In all they danced to some 15 different callers.

Jazz Dance Master Class Is Sponsored

Tecumseh Dance Workshop is sponsoring a Jazz Dance Master Class Saturday, Nov. 19.

The class will be taught by Samantha Witt, dance and drama teacher at Nicolet High School in suburban Milwaukee.

Mrs. Witt has studied extensively in jazz, mainly under Gus Giordano of Chicago.

The class is open to teens and adults and will be aimed at the beginning-intermediate level of technique.

Warm ups, technique, and dance will be taught.

For further information, or to register, call Jo Ann Cooley, 423-2395.

Openings for Trip

Some seats are still available for the trip to Frankenmuth sponsored by the Tecumseh parks and recreation department on Nov. 17. For further information, contact the Tecumseh parks and recreation department office at 423-5602.

Macon Montage

By Sharon Connors

The Allen Kennedy family are brand new residents of the Macon area. Allen and Sally, daughters Shayna and Christina moved into the former Bill Bishop home this past week. Coming from Adrian the family was enthused about moving to the country and their very first morning in their new home as they sat at breakfast they enjoyed watching a deer out the kitchen window. Allen is employed at Ford Motor Co. in Rawsonville and Sally teaches a tole painting and decorative painting class at Pat's Craft Studio in Tecumseh. Shayna started third grade and Christina the second at Ridgeway last Monday. A fifth family member is Hans Fritz Fonzie Kennedy, a schnauzer who is very busy investigating his surroundings. The girls were excited to report another "touch of the country" they had seen, a small mouse in the vicinity of the bread drawer. Welcome Kennedy family!

The Tecumseh Indian football team, it's coaches, managers and the cheerleaders along with some of the parents who helped cook, enjoyed dinner at Pat and Sharon Connors home last Thursday night. The 1977 team is a super group of young men as they showed the next night as they nearly upset a strong Adrian team. The game went into overtime and was a new experience for Coach Connors who by the way has now coached 186 football games in Lenawee County either as an assistant or a head coach — and so the curtain falls on another football season.

A family Christmas was enjoyed in Macon this past weekend-end at the Terrace Griffin home. Terrance (Turk) family got together early as mom and dad Ralph and Marguerite Griffin of Hart, Michigan will be leaving for Florida until next spring. Along with mom and dad, brother Luke and his family from Niles and sister Jane Hartman and her family from Grand Haven gathered for the "holiday". A very nice family weekend was enjoyed and of course a gift exchange.

Trick and treaters in Macon were treated well last week! The witches and goblins report that the spookiest place was the Shirley Chatter's home on Halloween night. Son Tom had placed some speakers in the windows and as the children came onto the porch they were greeted by all kinds of eery sounds as they received their treats.

The UMW youth group enjoyed the Nicky Cruz concert in Ann Arbor last Saturday night. The next regular meeting will be Sunday, Nov. 13 at 8 p.m.

The following ladies were elected officers at the October 25 general meeting of the United Methodist Women, president: Hallie Jane Mehler, vice-president; Linda Kuder, secretary: Wilma Clark, treasurer: Evelyn Hawkins.

Bill and Susie Bishop and family are presently living in the Methodist Parsonage in Macon. They will be there until plans on their new home are finalized and the home is built.

Hugo Grisanti from Santiago Chile was a guest of the Dean Jones Saturday evening.

77-78 Officers Are Elected In Tipton

TIPTON — The Tipton Adventures started the year with 16 members attending a first meeting.

The girls are from grades four, five and six. Mrs. Janice Slick and Mrs. Lina Sherman are the leaders.

The group attended the fall party with other groups from Tecumseh schools.

A Halloween party was organized by the Discovery girls of Tecumseh.

Officers elected were: Shelley Dittmer, president; Rachel Dittmer, vice-president; Kim Leader, secretary; Esther Scribner, treasurer; Jody Fahringer and Amy Sherman, news reporter.

The girls meet the second and fourth Thursday each month.

Tipton Topics

TIPTON — Rev. Dr. W. Harper Welch, an Associate Minister of the Michigan Conference of the United Church of Christ, visited Tipton Community Church Monday, Nov. 7.

The Official Board of the church met with Dr. Welch at an informal dinner in Fellowship Hall.

Dr. Welch spoke of the responsibilities of his office, and the close working relationships he hopes to foster with the UCC churches of this area.

He said that, since coming to Michigan from Maine in January of this year, he has come to "greatly appreciate the local churches, the faithful clergy and the faithful folk of Michigan."

Following the dinner meeting with the Official Board, Dr. Welch met briefly with the Sunday School teachers and the pastor, Rev. Raymond E. Schribner. At that meeting, he proposed a plan for clustering the area UCC churches for purposes of teacher training and enrichment.

TIPTON NOTES

The Womens Fellowship of Tipton Community Church will meet Nov. 15 with Mrs. Raymond Platt. Devotions will be led by Mrs. Lyle Whelan. Blanch Willnow, of Adrian, will present a whistle program and Joan Emery, from Emery's Flowers, will demonstrate and talk on Christmas arrangements.

Remember Wind Sand, Erosion

Remember the wind and water erosion problems of last spring along the Tecumseh-Clinton Rd.? Local drivers and residents still do.

The answer is leaving this year's crop residues on the land surface over winter instead of fall plowing.

Fall plowing leaves the soil bare for five to eight months, when we get most severe winds and rains that cause soil erosion.

Crop residues, field stalks that remain after harvesting, serve as mulch. They absorb the impact of falling rain and keep strong winds a few inches above the surface where they are harmless. Residue slows down runoff and allows more water to soak into the soil.

Prime reason farmers still fall plow is time. They want to get a "jump" on spring field work. The risk is soil erosion.

Some farmers expect freezing and thawing of all plowed land to solve their soil structure problems.

Dwight Quisenberry, agronomist for the U.S. Soil Conservation Service, agreed that soil may be easier to work the next spring but added, "It can be more compact than ever during the growing season when crops need a mellow soil for good root penetration."

He described fall plowing as a temporary solution.

Quisneberry, 17 year veteran in soil conservation stated "The better way of leaving crop residues on the land definitely reduces wind and water erosion. Fall plowing isn't worth the risk when high yields can be produced without plowing."

For more information about crop residue or no-till contact the local Soil Conservation Service office at 265-5887.

Fund Drive Certain To Top $84,000 Goal

For the second straight year, the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation will reach its goal and set records doing it.

Although this year's drive is still short of the $84,000 goal, $82,963 has been contributed or pledged, or 98 percent of the goal.

Marten Vegter, Foundation treasurer, expects the goal to be topped by Friday when division chairman make their weekly reports.

Harry Hans, drive chairman, has a luncheon planned next Wednesday at the Tecumseh Country Club for a final report and a "thank you" to division chairmen and workers.

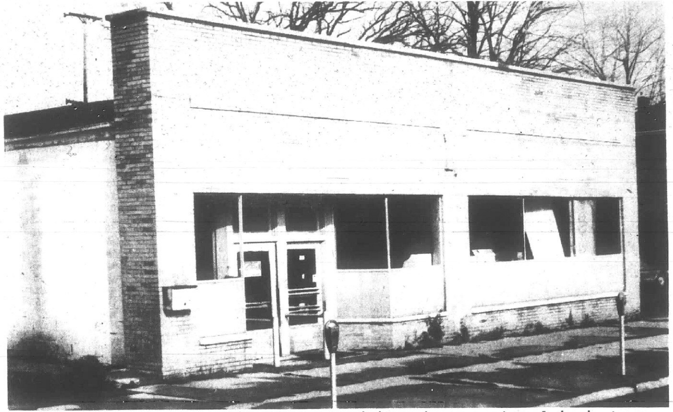
Three divisions already have topped their goals.

The industrial division has contributed $55,629 — a record for that division and $6,000 more than its goal of $49,000. Schools again topped its goal of $4,000 with donations now at $4,079.

Special gifts, always a major division and contributor, now totals $15,100, almost $800 over its $14,360 goal.

Breakdown of donations to date is:

	Raised	Goal
Industrial	$55,629	$49,000
Residential	1,450	2,140
Commercial	4,830	10,800
Schools	4,079	4,000
Special Gifts	15,100	14,360
Public Employees	485	1,600
Professional	1,390	2,100



EXPECTED TO GO — Tecumseh's old Vescio store is likely doomed for a new main office of the United Savings Bank, a possibiity that developed this past week when the bank purchased the property on E. Chicago Blvd. at the east edge of the business district. The new site offers the bank a number of advantages, especially if compared to the present, restricted site at W. Chicago and N. Evans St. (PHOTO BY KENT DOWNING)

30 Discuss Auditorium

Tecumseh made another step Tuesday night in obtaining a community auditorium as 30 leaders from the community met to discuss feasibility of cooperating on the project.

Representatives from the schools, city, Tecumseh Players, Arts Council and Tecumseh Area Town Meeting Organization (TATMO) met for 90 minutes and proposed a study committee to begin a feasibility study.

Seven-member committee will be composed of one member each from city council, school board, TATMO, Tecumseh Players, Arts Council, Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation and Chamber of Commerce.

Each group will elect its representative, and each committee member will have one vote.

Advisory committee will be Cal Zorn and Paul Preston from the city and Robert Duhan and Clarence Lacny from the school district.

The Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation and Chamber were not represented Tuesday night and not contacted at this point, explained William Frownfelder, chairman of TATMO, which organized the meeting.

"This is much better than we had hoped for," Frownfelder said. He indicated that the meeting was productive.

Invitations Are Mailed

Plans are underway for the annual Holiday Ball on Dec. 10th at the Tecumseh Country Club.

Invitations have been mailed, and reservations may be made until Dec. 1.

Joyce Butters is general chairman, and Jan Hunt and Pat Schmidt head the decorating committee. Reservation committee consists of Barb Wheeler, Marie Clum, Mary Mammoser and Allie Collins.

Color theme this year is silver and green. Music will be 9-1:30 by Jack Reis, and breakfast will be served, starting at midnight.

Reservations for dinner from 6:30 to 9:00 may be made by calling the club.

2 Slide, Hit Icy Bridge

Two drivers escaped injury Monday morning in separate incidents when they crossed an icy North Evans bridge and struck the cement structure.

At 8:30 a.m. Monday, Lori A. Brooks, 19, of 9297 Newburg was northbound on N. Evans, lost control on the ice and hit the bridge crossing the River Raisin.

Twenty minutes later police witnessed a second accident just as they finished clearing the first. Young Ja Park, 43, of Clinton was southbound on Evans when he lost control and hit the bridge.

Casteels To Open Bookstore Here

David and Terri Casteel of 110 N. VanBuren, plan to open a family bookstore in the downtown building next to Schmidt's Rexall Drugs. They recently purchased it from John Cameron.

Opening will be sometime around Christmas said the new owners. The couple recently moved from Ann Arbor where David is employed at the Chrysler plant. They have three sons, Aaron, 7, Jacob, 4 and Daniel, 1.

Mrs. Casteel said she will be the manager of the store while her husband continues to work.

They plan to remodel the interior of the store with wood panelling. They will offer periodicals, newspapers, paperback books, hard bound editions and a children's section with store copies to entertain children while parents shop. They are planning different promotions as well.

"We really love the city. We decided to move here in August after driving through the town. We noticed that there was no local bookstore and that people had to drive to Adrian or Ann Arbor for reading material. We felt a bookstore would be a service to the community," said Mrs. Casteel.

Union Service on Nov. 23rd

Union Thanksgiving services will be Wednesday, Nov. 23 at 7:30 p.m. at the First United Presbyterian Church in Tecumseh with the Rev. Ray Warnick, pastor of the Tecumseh Assembly of God as the speaker.

The liturgist will be the host pastor, the Rev. Edmund Watkins.

The Tecumseh Area Ministerial Association welcomes everyone to join this year's service.

Offering collected during the service will be designated for C.R.O.P. Four ushers will be provided by the Kiwanis Club.

May Undergo 2nd Operation

Roger Linger, seriously injured in a truck-car accident that claimed the life of a 20-year-old Adrian woman on Nov. 7, may have to undergo surgery for a second time.

He has failed to recover as expected from the accident and may have some internal injuries previously not diagnosed. He underwent surgery the day of the accident after suffering a compound fracture of one leg and facture of the other.

Complications apparently have developed within the past few days.

Cards may be sent to the Tecumseh businessman: Room 2013, St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Special Meeting for Spring TM

A special meeting will be held Nov. 30 at 7:30 p.m. at the Tecumseh public library to discuss the possibility of holding another Tecumseh area town meeting this spring.

A Place for Teens committee was also created with the prime goal of establishing a permanent place for teen recreation.

MARILYN'S OPENS — Marilyn and Roger Walch of Addison opened their fourth store November 16 at the corner of Logan and Evans Streets. Marilyn's Country Bargains features liquidated stock and will be managed by Jan Kniffen (above) of Britton.

Open 4th Store

Marilyn's Country Bargains Inc., liquidator of name brand merchandise opened its fourth store in Tecumseh Nov. 16 in the former Arrow parts building on N. Evans and E. Logan Sts. across from R.S. Moore Lumber.

Owners are Marilyn and Roger Walch of Addison. They have two children, Robin, 16 and Matthew, 4.

The other store locations are Addison, Concord and Jackson. With the opening of the Tecumseh store, they will employ 22 people in the four locations combined.

Jan Kniffen of Britton will manage the Tecumseh store. She and her husband, Jim have two children, Julie, 15 and Michael, 11. Mrs. Kniffen worked at the Jackson store 1½ years ago. She will work with her twin sister, Jean Diver of Blissfield and Carol White of Britton in Tecumseh.

The Walches opened their first store 3½ years ago in a finished pole barn at their Cement Hwy. home. They found response gratifying. Later they opened the other two shops and found their customers came from the Toledo, Ohio and Detroit areas.

They will open in the finished area of the building and expand in the spring.

MOVE WITHIN TWO YEARS

Bank Buys Vescio Site for New Main Office

Plans for a new main office of the United Savings Bank of Tecumseh have developed with the bank's purchase of the former Vescio store property on E. Chicago Blvd. in downtown Tecumseh.

Size of the new site, approximately 180 feet frontage on the boulevard and 225 feet deep, is about three times the site now occupied by the bank at the corner of W. Chicago and N. Evans St.

The property has an outlet behind Merkel-Seidel furniture store to N. Ottawa St., and this outlet obviously increases the options in planning the layout of the new main office.

"Present facilities are inadequate to meet the needs of the bank, which in the past 10 years has grown from 29 million dollars to 80 million dollars in assets," explains Kenneth C. McElroy, chairman of the board for the bank.

Plans for the new building will not be drawn until extensive studies are completed relative to future needs. Occupancy is expected within the next two years.

Merlyn Downing, bank president, reports that decisions also to be made include disposition of the present Vescio building and what will be done with the present main office.

The new office is expected to be two stories with a limited amount of office space available for rent. Such a plan would necessitate removal of the present building.

Vescio's, a food market chain, went into bankruptcy several years ago, and the building has been vacant since. Prior to Vescio's, Kroger was located there.

Purchase of the property ends speculation of a site for a new main office. Bank officials have discussed building a new office for many years and have considered other sites.

Low Bidder May Not Qualify

Only two bids were received and opened Tuesday afternoon at city hall for construction of the proposed industrial drive off E. Russell Rd.

And, the low bidder, Union Construction of Manchester, could be disqualified because of its failure to follow instructions of the Economic Development Administration.

The Manchester firm bid $346,577.25. Second bid from Cunningham-Gooding of Ypsilanti was $374,411.85.

Charles Kipke, city engineer who opened th bids, immediately noticed an infraction in the Union Construction's bid, a technicality but one that local officials could not rule out.

EDA requires bidders to use figures and words in their pricing, and Union Construction merely used figures and failed to spell out its prices.

Paul Preston, assistant city manager, will bring the technicality before EDA officials in Chicago this Thursday.

Both bids were higher than the estimates and far exceed the federal grant of $152,000 for the project.

Cal Zorn, city manager, says the city will have to delete a portion of the costs and the development of Mill St. This included approximately 1,300 feet of sewer and water lines and was estimated to cost $52,000.

The industrial drive project includes curb and gutter, bituminous paving, sanitary and storm sewers and a lift station. The U-shape drive off Russell will be about a half mile in length and 36 feet wide.

Zorn expects to proceed with the project, pointing out that the construction will run into the next fiscal year and will enable the city to budget for the costs. Although such funds are not available now, Zorn explained, the city usually plans $200,000 in capital improvements each year and much of that amount may have to be budgeted next year for the industrial drive.

Of 15 plans sent out for the project, Union Construction and Cunningham-Gooding were the only ones to file bids.

Open House next Tuesday

Tecumseh High School principal Clarence Lacny, announced that he and his staff will hold their annual open house for the parents and general public next Tuesday, Nov. 22, at 7:30 p.m.

The program will begin with all visitors assembled in the gym to hear a few opening remarks, followed by the introduction of new teachers and several numbers by the high school chorus.

Afterwards the parents will be free to visit their child's classrooms and meet informally with the teachers.

An opportunity will also be provided for those parents wishing to arrange a conference with specific teachers at a later date.

The evening will conclude with refreshments being served in the cafeteria.

Police Dance Friday Night at Union Hall

Tecumseh Police Department will be holding a "Turkey in the Straw" Dance this Friday night from 9 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. at the Tecumseh Products Union Hall.

Tickets will be sold at the door or are available from any of the officers. Tickets are $10 per couple and include a buffet meal and all set ups. Furnish your own refreshments.

The dance will mainly feature square dancing with some round dancing and polkas played. Music will be by Bob Gray.

A turkey will be given away as a door prize, along with a raffle of several other prizes.

Early Paper

The Herald will be published early next week because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

A Monday afternoon printing date is scheduled with the newspaper on the newsstands later in the day. In an effort to meet a Monday deadline, the newspaper office will be open Saturday morning for advertising and news.

Although news will be accepted until noon Monday, advertising must be in the office no later than Saturday noon. Next week's issue will carry the Tecumseh merchants' annual Christmas shopping tabloid.

An extra appeal for cooperation from news sources and advertisers is being made as The Herald also will be installing a new folder for its press over the weekend - and several employees will be involved in the installation and unable to perform some other responsibilities directly related to publishing the paper.

ANNA M. KOMON

Services were 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at the St. Alphonsus Catholic Church, Deerfield for Anna M. Komon, 55, of 7652 Holloway Rd., Britton who died Nov. 12 at Bixby Hospital.

She was in ill health for three and a half years.

Born June 8, 1922 in Summerfield Township to Valentine and Celia (Fornecek) Prochaska, she married Charles Komon in Deerfield on Jan. 31, 1942. He survives.

Mrs. Komon was a member of St. Alphonsus Catholic Church, Deerfield, the Altar Rosary Society and a charter member of the American Bohemian Club in Britton.

Also surviving are two sons, Charles of Brighton and Thomas at home; two daughters, Mrs. Gary (Mary Ann) Mueller of Deerfield and Mrs. Sam (Theresa) Starkey of Tecumseh; one brother, Joseph Prochaska of Britton; two sisters, Mrs. Louise Kohut of Deerfield and Mrs. Joe (Lillian) Bakus of Blissfield and four grandchildren.

Fr. Fortunatus Lukanima officiated and burial was in the church cemetery.

A rosary was said at the Spencer Funeral Home, Deerfield.

EDWARD NORTHROP

Services were at the Clinton Baptist Church Nov. 13 for Edward O. Northrop, 87, of Clinton who died at 12:10 p.m. Nov. 9 at the Whitmore Lake Convalescent Center.

Northrop was born Feb. 19, 1890 in Flint.

On March 8, 1909 he married Mable Curtiss. She died Feb. 14, 1934.

Northrop married Dorothy Depue on June 23, 1934. She survives.

He was a self-employed painting contractor most of his life and also worked for 10 years in the research department at the University of Michigan.

He was a member of the Clinton Baptist Church, a former member of the Royal Arch of Masons and the Washtenaw Masons, Chapter Six.

Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. Rudolph (Annabelle) Pratt of Clinton, four grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren, four great-great-grandsons.

The Proctor Funeral Home Clinton made arrangements for cremation. The Rev. Floyd Caughn officiated the services.

VERA SZUKALOWSKI

Services are 3 p.m. Friday at the Proctor Funeral Home for Vera Szukalowski, 35, of Detroit who died Tuesday. She formerly lived in the Adrian area. She was in failing health for the past year.

Survivors are her parents, Lee and Zubie (Sewart) Dew, her husband, Marvin, two sons, Robert and Steven Krajci, four brothers including John Dew of Adrian and Connie Dew of Onsted and three sisters.

Richard Krebs of Bowling Green, Ohio will officiate and burial will be in Brookside Cemetery. Friends may call after 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the Proctor Funeral Home.

Senior Play Opens Nov. 17

The Tecumseh high school senior class will present its senior play, "More Than Meets the Eye," this Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. at the Glass Room of the Tecumseh community center.

Tickets are available at the door. Proceeds from the admission will go to the senior class.

Nancy Kinnard, English teacher is director for the comedy which was in rehearsal for the past five weeks.

The plot revolves around Stanley Nichols, portrayed by Tom Conklin, who unknown to all but his immediate family, has written a series of successful children's stories under the pen name Grandma Letty.

Stanley's wife, Christine, played by Nena Murphy and niece Peggy, portrayed by Connie Binder, protect his image and all goes well until Grannie is elected grandmother of the year.

Publisher Hoskins, Larry Webber, enters with marriage on his mind, followed by Miss Jenkins, (Dori Amrhein), Prudence Harper, (Dee Wilson) and Carl Henderson, (Tim Mutter) representing the press. The many confusions arriving with them create the basis for the farce, "More than Meets the Eye."

Other performers are Maude the maid, (Cindy Ocamb); Nora the nosy neighbor, (Cindy Egli); Brad the square boyfriend, (Barry Barnhart) and Lawton Ellerbe, (Jim McKinney).

Looking for Spirit

The Tecumseh Herald is looking for the Christmas spirit.

Through December we will feature stories about special people who do special things at Christmas.

Do you know someone who:

Has a big heart at Christmas time? These people shy from publicity. They do things because they have big hearts and want to make Christmas happier for their family and other persons.

Has a Christmas birthday? They have to share their day with everyone else who is remembered at Christmas. Let us know who they are so we can give them special recognition.

Has a childhood Christmas toy or memories of Christmases past?

Has a homemade Christmas? If you know someone who makes things homemade for their Christmas, we will share their talents with our readers.

Let us know about these special people by dropping us a card or letter or giving us a call. Identify the person briefly and outline his or her specialty.

We need your information now so we will have time to write the stories.

Only 4 Complaints

Tecumseh was relatively quiet this week as police investigated only four complaint reports.

On Thursday, Skippy C. Hanna of Adrian was arrested for DUIL after police stopped him on S. Evans.

Gary Spillman of 1000 Park Street reported his mail box was destroyed by a ball bat on Friday.

Police investigated a malicious destruction report Friday when Margie Bordner, manager at Town and Country Apartments, reported someone had driven on the grass there.

On Sunday, Brad A. McElroy of Clinton was arrested on DUIL charges after police stopped him on Brown Street.

Teen Program to Continue

At the Nov. 8 general meeting of the Tecumseh Area Town Meeting Organization, the A Place for Teens committee reported a fund balance of $1,500 to continue a teen program.

Money came from proceeds of summer dances and donations from the community to found a permanent place for teens and teen program.

The Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation initiated the program last summer with $1,000 seed money.

Talking It Out

LESTER D. PROCTOR

"How can a "Memory Book" help my child?"

When a child's father (or mother) dies, talking about the child's concerns and relieving his anxieties about the loss are important in working-through the grief experience. The "Memory Book" is an effective device for this.

It is a scrapbook-and-keepsake in which the children may write down their memories of their parent or, if the children are too young to write, have the parent write as the children "talk it out."

The Memory Book helps because, in it, the children openly relate their shared experiences, feelings and remembrances. The remembering and talking about the deceased parent offers the proper outlet for grieving... and understanding and accepting the fact of the loss.

Photos of the parent may be put in the book, especially if the pictures include the children, thus aiding recall and discussion. The activity, itself, is important. It puts everything out in the open and into family talk. It will assist in providing good and stable remembrances of the deceased parent as the children grow up.

Knowles - Higgins Wedding Vows

MR. and MRS. RODNEY HIGGINS

The Church of the Nazarene in Tecumseh was the setting for the wedding of Susan L. Knowles and Rodney W. Higgins at 3 p.m. Nov. 2.

The Rev. Herbert Nation officiated at the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Knowles of 206 Cairns St. and the son of Marvin Higgins of 1979 Michigan Ave., Clinton and Wilma Higgins, 307 S. Evans St.

For her wedding the bride wore a bone ivory polyester gown with empire waistline, puff sleeves and lace bodice. She wore a solitaire gold cross, a gift from the groom. Her bouquet was fashioned of yellow and white carnations, baby yellow roses, baby's breath on a white Bible.

Judith C. Knowles, the bride's mother was matron of honor wearing a beige polyester gown.

Marvin C. Higgins of Clinton, the groom's father, was the best man.

A reception for the immediate family and friends was held at the church Nov. 13 at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Herbert Nation poured refreshments. Maxinne Eggleston the groom's grandmother; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hatch, the bride's grandparents; Beverly McCarley, the groom's aunt; Ray and Chris Knowles, the bride's brother and his wife; Wilma and Dan and Jesse Higgins, the groom's mother and brothers were special guests.

The new Mrs. Higgins attended Tecumseh High School. Mr. Higgins attended Tecumseh High School and is employed at Jiffy Plastics.

They reside at 206 Cairns.

Club Hosts

The Kiwanis Club hosted three council candidates of the four seeking office Nov. 8. Present were incumbents Harold Easton, Aden Mead and Leonard DeMoss.

Each expressed his reasons for wanting to be elected to council and his goals for Tecumseh. A question and answer session followed.

Michele Worley, the fourth candidate, was not able to attend due to family illness.

Ken Boyd fulfilled double duty in mastering the fine session and song session. The aforementioned candidates were pressed into a vocal trio effort.

Other guests included an interclub from Blissfield and Ric Robel of Adrian, guest of Jack Curtis.

Allan Gray will give the program Nov. 22 and Dick Beckwith will be finemaster.

DAR Chapter Meets

Abi Evans Chapter of the DAR studied silver, clothing and glass of ancestors at the Nov. 11 meeting.

Mrs. Louis Schneider hosted the November meeting of the Abi Evans Chapter of the Daughter of the American Revolution. Mrs. Donald Smith was co-hostess.

Regent Mrs. Fran Vanderlinden, conducted the business meeting.

A bake sale will be held at the Herrick Branch of the United Savings Bank on Dec. 2 at 9:30 a.m.

Two members are hospitalized at this time, Mrs. Orvalle Laidlaw, R. Fort Myers, Fla. and Mrs. James Thomas of Macon. The club extended their sympathy to Mrs. Howard Schultz in the recent loss of her husband.

Two new members were accepted into the chapter, Mrs. Charles Waterman and Dorothy Landen, both of Tecumseh.

Mrs. Neil Pearson spoke on national defense, arms negotiations was her topic.

A plea was made for the members to finish their project of lap robes for the Veterans as they are badly needed now at the hospital.

A nominating committee was appointed to select new officers for next year, Mrs. Maurice McIntosh, Mrs. Earl Linsley and Mrs. Schneider.

Irene Wisner and Mrs. Jennings Frayer reported on their recent trip west to visit Indian schools in S. Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri.

Mrs. Smith, program leader, led a discussion as members displayed articles of silver, glass and clothing used and worn by their ancestors. History of these items proved a history of their DAR lineage.

Next meeting of the chapter will be a Christmas party, dinner at 6:30 p.m. on Dec. 9 at the home of Regent Vanderlinden.

Daughter Is Born to Griggs

A daughter, Cassandra Dawn, was born to Mr. and Mrs. David Grigg of Portage, at Borgess Hospital, Kalamazoo, Nov. 14 The baby weighed 7 lbs., 14 ozs.

Little brother David is four years old.

Mr. Grigg is the son of Mrs. Anna B. Grigg of Tecumseh and the late Robert B. Grigg. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Quinn of Holland.

Club Hears Wood Artist

The Wit and Wisdom club met Monday evening Nov. 7, at the home of Mrs. Louise Lott. After the business meeting Mrs. Lott introduced her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice McIntosh.

Mr. McIntosh brought along four of his large inlay pictures. His eagle worked on walnut contains 371 pieces of inlay in nine different woods. He has done a smiling Christ, pilgrim scene and Tecumseh using as many as 19 different woods in one picture.

He brought examples of his carvings, one of Tecumseh, a Santa Claus and several hand carved toys. His miniature birds and animals fashioned as pins and clasps made a big hit with the group.

Society Meets

Mrs. Raynor Van-Valkenburg presented the program "Closed doors," about the missions around the world at the Nov. 1 meeting of the Frances DeVol Willing Workers Missionary Society at the Friends Church.

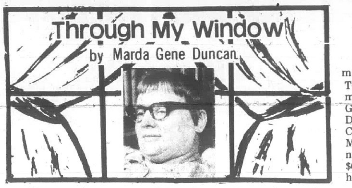
President Naomi Sallows presided with 12 members present.

Mrs. Clark Pearson gave the devotions from Rev. 3:7-13 on the same theme but with an individual outlook.

Next meeting is Dec. 15, the annual Christmas party.

Nov. 15 Thanksgiving boxes will be packed for the missionary kids attending schools in the states.

Naomi Sallows and Elizabeth Manley served refreshments.



Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

He was large — and handsome — and proud! I just happened to glance away from the book which was propped on my reading table in time to see him strut in front of the end-of-the-street barrier. Fortunately Mom was close by and, even before I finished stuttering and stammering that there was a pheasant in the yard, she was at the window watching him. And he was certainly well worth watching.

Few birds are more outrageously beautiful than a cock pheasant in his prime. As this fellow unhurriedly strode across the yard and along the top of the creek bank Mom and I were almost spellbound.

He was absolutely gorgeous. Iridescent green head, white collar, and burnished brown body; horns or ears erect, long pointed tail, and round plump body — well, he was simply a superb example of everything a cock pheasant should be. And his haughty arrogance clearly bespoke, "Ho ho, I fooled them another hunting season!"

This was the first pheasant we had seen in some time. Although never common, they do manage to make an appeance once in a while and always it is exciting. When they show up during or immediately after the hunting season we assume that they have been flushed out of their usual haunts by the hunters.

Around here these game birds are such an integral part of the hunting season. To those of us who just enjoy a quiet ride through the countryside, it is so natural to look for pheasants near cornfields, soy bean plantings and weed patches.

It is easy to forget they are not native birds. They are sometimes called Chinese ring-necked pheasants for good reason. Much of the original stock was imported from the Orient.

Earlier than this there were a few European pheasants introduced into the eastern states but it is generally felt that experiment was not too successful. The larger and brighter colored orientals were a huge success. Isn't it strange to think of our fields without them?

Always the sight of a pheasant is a thrill. They are big beautiful birds. For Mom and I they are also nice memory provokers. Dad was an avid pheasant hunter and for ages "the season" was one of the main events of the year. We often thought, and he finally admitted, that being in the field at such a lovely time of year and watching the dogs work was as much fun, if not more so, than the actual shooting itself.

I grew up with a beautiful liver and white English setter, Janie, but my own dog was a smaller white and black setter called Topper. She was as good a hunter as Janie and an even better catcher. Let's face it, Janie had been formally and well trained but we raised Topper from a puppy and were not quite so particular. Occasionally she broke a few of the rules of hunting etiquette. Nothing serious, often amusing.

One day, for example, Dad was hunting with four or five fellows and they were working in tall uncut cornfields. This was not his favorite kind of hunting, he much preferred open fields where he could see the dogs. However, cornfield hunting was the order of the day.

After sweeping through the field the men came out of their rows on the other side complaining and grumbling. No birds. I think Dad never did forget the shocked looks when he held up a pheasant. There had been no shots. No one had fired at a bird and yet there was Harry with a big cock pheasant.

Topper not only pointed a bird well but if it started sneaking away she sometimes lost patience and, instead of merely trailing and pointing again, she would neatly catch the bird.

So as Mom and I watched our pheasant stalk along the creek bank and then fly into the weed patch on the other side, we also thought about Dad and Topper and the cornfield.

Projects Underway

The Lenawee county historical museum has several concurrent projects including: inventory and storage of costumes donated to the museum, compiling archives of obituaries, surname file cards and name files and indexing by township the complete name index of the Lenawee plat books of 1874, 1983 and 1916.

Volunteers for these projects may contact Doris Trowbridge at the museum.

Over $69,000 Pledged

William J. Polk, plant manager, Fisher Body-Tecumseh Plant and chairman of the Adrian-Tecumseh GM plant city committee, and Don L. Fruitt, plant manager, Chevrolet Adrian-Manufacturing Plant announced that a total pledge of $69,108 was subscribed by the hourly-rate and salaried employees during in-plant campaigns for United Way.

When combined with the gift of the General Motors Foundation, representing both facilities, a grand total of $77,108 was raised, with allocations of $63,747 directed to the Lenawee United Way and $13,361 to the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation.

Plant co-chairpersons for the Tecumseh Plant United Way activity were Adolph Nobles, personnel and Linda Mack, UAW Local 1341, while E.C. "Bud" Clark personnel, and Richard Hoard, UAW Local 2031 were co-chairmen for Chevrolet-Adrian.

The combined hourly and salaried employe pledges from both plants provided funding support of $57,647 for the Lenawee United Way and $11,461, Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation campaigns for 1978.

For The Record

Services were Nov. 9 at the Spencer Funeral Home, Britton for Troy Hall, 70 of 130 Osborn, Britton, who died Nov. 6 in Herrick Hospital where he was a patient for three days.

Three area extension clubs will meet Nov. 21 or 22.

Around the Block Extension study group will meet Nov. 21 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Jack Silberhorn, 3701 Rogers Hwy. "Be your own energy warden" will be the lesson.

Marco Extension study group will meet Nov. 22 at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Virgil Bortel on Milwaukee Rd. to discuss "dressing for 18 degrees Celcius." Roll call will be dressing for 65 degrees F.

Northeast Tecumseh Extension study group will meet Nov. 22 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Koob, 313 W. Pottawatamie St. to discuss the lesson, "Dressing for 18 degrees Celcius."

Music Club Visits Jackson

For their November meeting, the Tecumseh Music Makers attended the Jackson Symphony Nov. 6. Famous pianist, Gyorgy Sando was soloist.

Following the concert they met Mr. Sando and he autographed their programs.

Those who attended were Sue Bless, Scott Brooks, Andy Neilson, Tim Packard, Chyrl Peck, Alison Phillips, Janet Rundell and JoLynne Tilton.

Honored at Shower

A miscellaneous bridal shower was given in honor of Pam Watters by one of her bridesmaids, Mrs. William Goble Jr. on Nov. 5.

A give and take game was played by the friends who attended and prizes were awarded.

Refreshments were served as Pam opened gifts.

Pam is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watters of 12 Occidental Hwy. Her fiance, Dennis Goble, is the son of Mrs. Emma Hammack of 516 W. Chicago Blvd. and William Goble Sr. of Britton.

The couple plans a Nov. 26 wedding at the Pilgrim Evangelistic Church, Adrian.

72 Are Confirmed

Seventy-two junior high students and eight adults received the Sacrament of Confirmation, administered by Bishop Kenneth Povish of the Diocese of Lansing on Oct. 26 at 7:30 p.m. at St. Elizabeth's Church.

A model church was fashioned from rocks representing the confirmation candidates. These rocks were given at an enrollment ceremony last spring.

The church symbolizes the meaning of Confirmation - becoming committed Christians to build a better church. In Confirmation, Catholics believe, the Holy Spirit comes to help candidates bring Christ's presence into the world.

During the summer the candidates were to perform a service project for the community. They did such things as free babysitting, gardening, etc.

During the ceremony Bishop Povish likened Confirmation to taking tonic every day. Confirmation enables the candidate to establish a Christian lifestyle.

He asked parents and sponsors to help the candidates by their good example. Finally, he asked the candidates to pray weekly for help in making a choice of a vocation.

The actual confirmation ceremony is an anointing with blessed oil on the forehead while saying "Be sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit." The candidate chooses a saint's name whom he wishes to imitate.

The church was decorated with banners made by the candidates illustrating the meaning of the Sacrament: "Flame of the Spirit," "Power from Heaven," "Inner Strength" and "Born Anew."

Macon Montage

By Sharon Connors

A year ago the Harold Rhora family of Macon bought a house in Tecumseh and began a big family project.

Knowing their oldest son, Brad would be starting college the following fall they decided a little extra income would come in handy.

In addition to the profit from selling the house the project would create many hours of work for their children Brad, Kent and Rhonda and Steve Chatters who "is like a member of the family."

The kids kept track of their hours and were paid on a weekly basis by Rhonda, 15, who was the bookkeeper and business manager.

The Rhoras were fortunate to have Harold's sister and husband, LuAnn and Gary Gove occupy the house during the entire year of complete remodeling.

Sunday was a day the whole crew looked forward to because in addition to the work a nice family dinner was always in store. Besides the experience of working together for this common goal much was learned about money management. As the project neared completion Gary and LuAnn had become so attached to the home they purchased it. The project covered just about a year.

Harold and Julie plan a little open house at the newly remodeled home this Sunday from 3-6 p.m. to get reacquainted with all their friends who have been wondering what the Rhoras have been up to!

Work is progressing on the Clinton-Macon Rd. George Hillard of the Lenawee County Road Commission reports the grading is all done.

Patches of sand have been put down to help motorists in some spots. The road is being checked for soft spots developing which means the ditches in that area need more work for better drainage.

Next step now will be lots more sand hauled in and graded, eight inches altogether, next will come four inches of gravel and finally two inches of stone. The plan still calls for this all to be completed this year. Surfacing will follow next year.

The Macon Blue Birds are beginning a three week conservation project. The girls will have several ways each week of earning feathers to put on an owl called "Wise Old Willi".

Some of the ways include turning off a dripping faucet, having dad check the car muffler, bagging leaves (not burning them) and caring for a plant.

Mom and dad will verify their girls have done the things and a different color felt feather will be used for each.

Macon was well represented at the Lenawee County Jr. Livestock Association banquet Nov. 10 at Blissfield High School. Fair awards were presented.

Four Macon area young people received several awards all in the sheep division, Jackie Bortel three awards, Melinda Bortel two awards, Kent Rhora three awards and Wes Loesch two awards. One of the awards Kent received was champion sheep showman. Kent was also elected to the jr. livestock board of directors at the meeting.

The Macon Historical Society met Nov. 9 at the home of Herb and Marilyn Bagby. Election of officers was held with the following results: Larry Bush, president; Don Oswald, vice president; Bill Phillips, treasurer and Sandy Gilreath secretary.

The December meeting will be a Christmas party at Don and Karen Oswald's home on Pennington Rd. All are reminded to bring your favorite Christmas goodies to share. Games and a gift exchange will be held.

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

Looking for something new and different to serve at your Thanksgiving dinner? Consider these suggestions. They sound delicious.

This salad is served each year by the Herrick Hospital Auxiliary at their annual salad luncheon.

7 BEAN SALAD

1 can kidney beans
1 can baby limas or green limas
1 can yellow limas
1 can pinto beans
1 can garbanzo
1 can cut green beans
1 can yellow beans
1 large onion
1½ cup sugar
1 cup oil
½ tsp. pepper
1 cup vinegar
1 tbsp. salt

Drain and rinse beans. Add large onion, thinly sliced. Prepare dressing by combining sugar, oil, vinegar, salt and pepper. Mix well.

Pour over bean mixture and refrigerate several hours before serving. Can be made the day before.

This casserole from Irene Baron would make a nice addition to any holiday menu.

BROCCOLI & RICE

3 tbsp. butter
¼ cup chopped celery
1 onion chopped
1 pkg. (10 oz.) frozen broccoli, chopped
2 cups cooked rice
1 can cream of chicken soup
½ cup milk
1 can cheddar cheese soup

Melt butter in skillet. Add celery, onion, broccoli and saute. Add cooked rice, both cans of soup and milk.

Pour into 2 qt. casserole. Bake 350 degrees for ½ hour.

I am looking for special Christmas cookies and other holiday recipes. If you have a suggestion, please call 423-4848.

Airman Assigned

Airman Jose Fuentes Jr., son of Mrs. Jessusa Lazano of 212 Cairns St., was assigned to Lowry AFB, Colo., after completing Air Force basic training.

During the six weeks at Lackland AFB, Tex., the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations. Completion of this training earned the individual credits towards an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Airman Fuentes will now receive specialized training in the munitions and weapons maintenance field.

The airman is a 1976 graduate of Tecumseh High School.

Small Deposit Will Hold

One shot at an insulator can drop a city in its tracks.

I know, because I'm a Consumers Power lineman, and it's my job to search for the cause of a power failure.

People who shoot out insulators forget that a single shot can bring down a house, a factory, a hospital or even an entire city.

That's why Consumers Power offers substantial rewards for information resulting in either the arrest and arraignment, or the apprehension of persons responsible for damage to our property.

So, if you have information concerning such an incident, please contact a local police agency or call Consumers Power.

Former Resident Publishes Book

Shirley (Maschino) Jackson of Cassopolis, former Tecumseh resident, wrote a book "It's A Small World of Gum Paste." Gum paste is an edible substance made of powdered sugar, gelatin, egg whites and syrup, made into dough - much like children's play dough.

SHIRLEY JACKSON

She will display her craft at The Cake Shoppe Nov. 20 from noon to 5 p.m. in Tecumseh.

With gum paste, Shirley created an old fashioned country store almost 20" square that has all the things one would expect to see in the "Good Old Days" - meat on the chopping blocks, hams hanging from wall, books, fabrics on the shelves, all kinds of groceries, homemade bread, apples and an old pot bellied stove with a hound dog curled up by the door.

In 1974 Mrs. Duane Jackson entered the "store" in the New York International Culinary Art show and won first prize and grand prize, competing with chefs from all over the world. A beautiful bronze medal from France was awarded but more than that, a standing ovation was given which completely over whelmed her.

She was the only participant not sponsored by a firm or restaurant and one of few women to enter these shows.

Shirley travels and teaches all over the U.S. this last year, and Canada to hold one week classes. Classes for 1978 are almost filled. Gum paste is a versatile medium that children or adults can work with.

This Sunday Shirley will visit Barb McCann at The Cake Shoppe in Tecumseh doing demos and autographing her book which will be on sale there.

Shirley attended grade school in Tecumseh and graduated at Saline High School. Her father was the late Ernest Maschino and mother, Alice Hartsell Maschino, resides in Britton the winter months.

Ken Wilhelm Speaks at B-M PTO Meeting

BRITTON — Ken Wilhelm from Call Someone Concerned - Crisis Walk-in Center, in Adrian, will be the guest speaker at the Britton-Macon PTO meeting Nov. 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school. He will discuss "Drug Abuse."

Wilhelm coordiantes students services for the Crisis Center. In short, that involves working with high schools in Lenawee County in the development of student programs.

Previously he worked as counselor-educator for CARE, Inc. a drug abuse prevention agency, also located in Adrian.

Wilhelm received his BA in physiology from Quincy College in Quincy, Ill., and is certified by the State of Michigan as a trainer in empathy, values clarification and problem solving as well as other types of communication skills.

Through his address he will try to assist parents in gaining a realistic prospective on drugs and drug abuse.

Information on drug properties and effects as well as tips on communicating with children regarding drugs will be presented.

Audience questions will be welcomed.

BEA Members Attends Meet

BRITTON — The Britton Education Association membership attended the regular monthly school board meeting Nov. 19 to discuss their contract negotiations.

Teachers have been working without a contract since the beginning of the current school year.

John Evans, BEA spokesman, read a letter expressing disappointment in the progress of negotiations.

The Britton board went into executive session to discuss negotiations following the adjournment of the regular board meeting.

A negotiating meeting has been scheduled for Nov. 17.

Senior Trip Is Approved by B-M Board

BRITTON — Board of Education at the Britton-Macon Area School gave approval for the seniors to go to Florida for their annual senior trip.

Donald Bush appointed a committee to work with Principal John DeLine on rules and regulations governing future senior trips.

Board gave their approval to the athletic department to purchase new baseball uniforms.

In other action the board authorized Superintendent William Saxton to get bids on a new school bus body and chassis.

The Ordinances for the Village of Britton have been compiled and printed, and may be reviewed at the Village Council Room during the regular meetings or at the Britton Village Library.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank two former Councilmen, who spent many hours with me compiling these Ordinances. They are Henry Mastie and Fred Bryan (who still remains on this Committee) and also a special thanks to Elmer Bryan for his help when I needed it.

These books may be purchased by individuals for $15.00 a set from the Village Clerk.

Number 75 Celebrated

Marie Dinse was honored at a birthday gathering in her home Sunday to celebrate her 75th birthday anniversary.

The party was hosted by her three children, Robert of Virginia, Nancy of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and Mary Lou of Britton.

Ice cream, cake and coffee were served to about 45 guests.

Grandchildren, great grandchildren, friends and relatives were from Tecumseh, Adrian, Clinton, Monroe and Fort Wayne, Indiana.

New Priest Named to St. Dominics

CLINTON — The Rev. Fr. Chester Tomaszewski was named to succeed the Rev. Fr. James Lee as pastor of St. Dominic's Parish.

Father Tomaszewski assumed his duties early in November, as Fr. Lee left to undergo medical treatment.

The new priest was ordained as priest for the Diocese of Lansing in 1959, and has served several parishes in the Diocese, most recently as associate pastor of St. Anthony Parish, Hillsdale.

He has also served at St. John Parish, Division; Holy Redeemer Parish, Burton; Our Lady of Fatima Parish, Michigan Center and St. Paul Parish, Owosso.

Party Planned

New officers were installed at the Monday meeting of the North Franklin Hustlers 4-H Club.

They are president - Janet Williams; vice president - Jayne Thompson; secretary - Audrey Thompson; treasurer, Steve Wahl; reporters, Debbie Baxter, Annette Thompson and Melinda Thompson.

Next meeting will be the Christmas party Dec. 10 at 7 p.m. at the United Church of Christ basement.

Every family is to bring its own table service. A main dish and a salad or dessert to pass.

Adults should bring $1 gift for grab bag and children a gift for someone their own age for under $2.

Families in charge of the Christmas party are, the Roehms, Williamses, Milbauers, Adamses, Wahls and Makis.

A meeting will be held at Kay Adam's house Nov. 30 at 7 p.m. about packing boxes for the elderly.

Receiving wine here is Jonathon Brewster, a nephew played by Lance Traves.

Seven Students Expelled

CLINTON—Board of education voted at Monday's meeting, to expel seven students because of attendance problems and smoking in the school area.

Robert Hess, custodian and Jane Murphy, secretary, resigned and the positions were filled.

Thomas Bailey was hired for the custodian position and Cindy J. Harris for the secretarial position.

Application was made for three employees to do general site work under Phase II of the Title VI Special Projects. If approved, this project would supply all labor, plus fringes to the employees, with the school supplying the materials.

Projects that could be developed under this program are bleachers, press box, bus garage, etc.

Bid was approved of Butchart Roofing Co. for $3,880 for the replacement of the warehouse roof at the middle school and the elementary hallway-center.

Report of the 1977 VanTuyle pool operation budget showed a cash balance of $1,737. A new filtration system will be needed for the pool next year.

Board voted to accept the low bid of Town and Country Pools for $2,132 for the filtration system.

Superintendent Richard Wegner will submit the budget and the pool needs to the Clinton United Fund, requesting appropriation for installation of the equipment, with the remainder coming from the pool account.

Superintendent's report concerned the Michigan Assessment Testing; the drug problem in the community; and certain legislative bills.

Club Topic Is Indian Trails

CLINTON—Clinton Woman's Club held a special evening meeting, Nov. 9 at St. John's Lyster Hall.

Meeting was preceded by a lasagna supper at Clintonian Inn for out-of-town guests including Elwood Little of Onsted, president of Lenawee County Historical Society; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Halley, president of Historical Society of Clinton; Prof. and Mrs. Lee Anderson of Ann Arbor; and the speaker, Herbert Bartlett, a prominent civil engineer of Saline, formerly of Ann Arbor.

President Mrs. James Chellman introduced the Mr. Bartlett, who spoke about Indian trails of the area, including the Old Sauk Trail.

This transcontinental system of Indian trails antedated the Christian era, actually a corridor of trails blazed and tred by animals, such as a giant black buffalo with long horns, long before man discovered it.

Until 1825 the 267 mile route was just a trail because Andrew Jackson was slow to provide funds for its construction until Michigan became a state.

Robert E. Lee, who had recently graduated from West Point, was one of its surveyors.

After the meeting refreshments were served by the social chairmen, Mrs. Roy Schlagel and Mrs. Holland Fraumann and assistants.

Next meeting will be Dec. 14 and will be a Christmas tea at 1:30 p.m. and will feature a "Christmas Visit" to homes of Mrs. David Hough and Mrs. James Chellman.

40 Attend 'Pep Rally'

Approximately 40 Clinton Rotarians, United Fund officials and guests attended a "pep rally" for the Clinton United Fund drive last Wednesday night at the Tecumseh Country Club.

Barbara Blanden, of Tecumseh, a state director for the Michigan United Way, was the principal speaker. She was introduced by the Rev. Roy Wagner, pastor of the United Church in Clinton.

Say what you want about the Bible — it lives. It has endured through centuries. No matter where you go across the face of the globe you can find it, printed in a vast variety of languages, bringing new meaning to new thousands.

Maybe some of it may be a muddle to you. It isn't easy reading, even the revised versions. But because it really is the greatest story ever told it's worth all the study you can give it.

Think about it. This book has lasted through wars, floods, famines, periods of both depression and prosperity, this over centuries. Get to know it better. Both on your own, and through your church.

Red Devils Put the Heat on THS Hoopsters, 48-43

by Frank Weir

A cold first quarter spelled disaster for Tecumseh's girls basketball squad last Thursday.

The Indians fell to Grosse Ile 48-43, giving them a 10-3 Huron league record. Tecumseh is now in third place with Grosse Ile at the top of the heap followed by St. Mary's.

The Indians came out cold against Grosse Ile and that just wasn't the thing to do against the Red Devils who had already beaten Tecumseh by one point earlier in the season.

The first quarter was well underway before the orange and black finally scored. The Devils ended up dominating the quarter 16-8, making it 29-20 at the half.

The two teams played even the third frame with Tecumseh settling down.

The Indians fought to within two, 45-43 with 1:27 left in the contest. After Debbie Steadly forced Grosse Ile into tying up the ball, the Indians got control with Fosbender heading down court. At mid-court, Fosbender lost her footing and was called for traveling.

Tecumseh got the ball back with :51 seconds left but Grosse Ile picked it off and made the basket making it 47-43 with :18 left. A foul on Tecumseh made the final score 48-43.

Turnovers were high for both teams with the Indians losing it 27 times to 23 for the Red Devils.

Tecumseh made 40 percent of its shots from the field to 44 percent for Grosse Ile.

Fosbender had 12 points while Steadly and Burns each had ten points.

Coach Diane Nelson commented on the game, "The biggest thing about the game was we just couldn't capitalize on their turnovers. Our press worked well forcing Grosse Ile to give up the ball but we turned the ball back over ourselves. The first quarter killed us, we played them even for the rest of the game. The second half was a different ballgame."

On Tuesday of this week, the Indians had little trouble polishing off Carlson. Tecumseh took a quick 14-9 first quarter advantage leading 26-22 at the half.

Carlson outrebounded the Indians 36-30 but committed 27 turnovers to just 15 for the orange and black. Grace Burns had nine rebounds.

The Indians made 38 percent of their shots from the field to 37 for Carlson.

Burns led the way in scoring with 17 points followed by Janice Jahner with 10.

The draw for district competition will be held next Monday. The district will be held at Jackson Northwest starting Nov. 28.

SURROUNDED BY RED DEVILS, Tecumseh's Kerry Hamilton puts the ball up last Thursday. The Indians lost the battle 48-43.

Redskins Wrap Up LCAA Championship

Clinton girls basketball team wrapped up the LCAA Championship for the second year in a row by beating Manchester 64-47 on Tuesday of this week.

The Skins closed out their league season with the win posting an 11-1 record. Only two games remain in the regular season, a battle with Saline Thursday and Britton next Monday. Both are at home.

The Britton battle is also Parents Night. In addition, all students will be allowed in the game for only $.25.

Last Thursday, the Redskins defeated Britton 55-43.

Clinton wasn't really challenged in the Manchester game taking a 12-6 advantage after the first quarter. They outscored the Dutchmen 19-10 in the third frame and then coach Bob King substituted freely in the fourth period.

Manchester held a 31-30 edge in rebounds, but 15 of those came in the final quarter with Clinton's second string in play. JoAnn Grossman, back in the lineup after the measles, was tops for Clinton with 10 carooms.

The Dutchmen lost the handle on the ball 35 times to 20 for the Skins.

The Redskins made 29 of 80 shots from the field for 36 percent with Sue Richter leading the way with 21 points. Karen Busch had 11 and Grossman 10.

Against Britton, the Redskins exploded in the fourth quarter outscoring the Tories 15-3.

Sue Richter scored 10 of her 26 points in the fourth frame to lead Clinton to victory.

Jodi Smith led for Britton with 10 markers.

The Skins host Saline this Thursday and Britton next Monday to close out the regular season.

Parents Night will be featured at the Britton game.

District competition will be at Clinton with games on Nov. 28, 30 and Dec. 1. The championship game will be played Dec. 3. Drawings will be made Nov. 21.

It's MARK, Not Mike!

It was incorrectly reported last week that a Tecumseh football player named Mike Creswell was named to the all-league first team as a defensive.

Actually, Mike Creswell is enjoying college and certainly wouldn't qualify to play in a high school grid contest.

That was MARK Creswell who received the honors and did such a fine job against Adrian and all the other Indian opponents during the season.

We regret any embarrassment caused by the error.

Clinton Open Gym

Clinton Community Schools will again be sponsoring open gym nights for men and women.

The open gym will be every Wednesday night beginning Dec. 1 from 8:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.

The high school will be open to men while the middle school gym is reserved for women.

All participants must be 18 years or older.

Paper Drive Dec. 17

An extra pick up day for the Clinton's girls athletics paper drive has been scheduled for Dec. 17, a Saturday.

Those interested in participating should bag or tie newspapers, magazines or books and place them at your curb.

Pick up will be made in Clinton and Tecumseh extending to the city limits of both areas.

Skins Begin Tuesday

Clinton gets its boys basketball season underway next Tuesday, Nov. 22 by hosting Napoleon.

This Saturday, the Skins scrimmage at Lincoln Park with three other teams.

The varsity consists of seniors Mike Risner, Jeff Voorhees, Wally Pike, Rick Smith, Bill Zimmerman, Richard Brown, Terry Carlton, Mike Karapas, Mark Deitling, Dave Porter and Doug Mowery.

Playing for the junior varsity Redskings will be, juniors Ed Foreman and Jim Hansen, sophomore co-captains Barry Yocum and Tom Foreman, Kevin Cymes, Steve Porterfield, Ray Phelps, Mark DeKany, Emory Dotson, Warren Green, Paul Stiendurf, Dave Brown and J.T. Greenleaf.

Jim Pittman is taking over the coaching helm from Dave Arnold for the varsity unit while Roy Gaddey will head up the jv's.

THS Cage Season Beginning

Tecumseh opens its boys basketball season next Tuesday, Nov. 22.

The Indians will hold a scrimmage with Class A Ann Arbor Pioneer.

The scrimmage will be in Tecumseh and begins at 3 p.m.

Indian Grapplers Ready for Season

Tecumseh's wrestlers open their season Nov. 29 by hosting Saline.

And with nine lettermen returning, including three regional qualifiers from last season, the Indian hopes are high.

The orange and black finished up last year with a 9-3 record, second in the league behind a tough New Boston Huron team. the Chiefs were responsible for Tecumseh's only Huron League loss.

Lettermen returning include three regional qualifiers — Ben Williams, John Silberhorn and Jack Bagby. Bagby is a junior, the other two are seniors.

Other senior lettermen returning include Mark Barrett, Steve Bishop, Dan Yoder and Dan DeHaan. Sophomores are Matt Barrett and John Southard.

Tecumseh will miss the services of Brad Rhora, Eric Butzky, Kevin Eggleston and Dan Tilton, all have graduated. Eggleston and Tilton were state qualifiers last season.

Coach Pat Connors is pleased with the turnout for the team, around 60 wrestlers so far. "We've got some really good wrestlers returning. Several wrestlers are at a similar weight now. When we get them distributed a little bit to even out the weight classes, we'll have good balance. Especially in the low and middle weights. I think we'll have a lot of fun. Its a good working bunch and we're looking forward to the season."

Assisting Connors this year is Ron Frenzen.

City Official Opposes Raisin Zoning Change

Tecumseh city manager Cal Zorn objected recently to a proposed zoning change along the south or Russell Road between Green and Occidental Hwys. in the neighboring Raisin Township at the Nov. 17 meeting of the Lenawee County planning commission.

Zorn, vice-chairman, chaired the meeting in absence of chairman Norman Haft, mayor of Adrian.

Property in question includes about ½ mile of frontage south side of Russell Road between Green and Occidental Hwys., about 460 ft. deep, or approximately 18 acres. It does not include the home on Russell and Green Hwy. Presently 6½ acres is zoned commercial at the corner of Occidental Rd. and Russell.

Zorn said he opposed the change because it would mean increased traffice to be faced by Tecumseh homeowners on the other side of the road.

"I've always been taught that it's bad planning. Ordinarily when you zone one side of the street, you zone the other the same way so that residents don't have to look at commercial property."

The Raisin Township planning commission approved the change at its Nov. 3 meeting after a public hearing. Lee Coffee, Raisin township planning commission chairman represented the township at the Nov. 17 county planning meeting.

The Lenawee planning commission is an advisory board. It did not have a quorum present to officially conduct business. It has 30 days or until Dec. 4 to take formal action. No action is deemed approval.

Raisin Township Supervisor Richard Gallaway explained the township's position.

The businesses are allowed to operate under a conditional use permit with the provison that they revert to agricultural use if the buildings are destroyed or businesses close.

He stated that the zoning change from agricultural to commercial was part of the township's master plan approved about a year ago. Three existing businesses were there before the last change in the township's zoning went into effect in 1967. When the three businesses later asked to expand, they were given permission and asked to return and request rezoning so that they would conform to existing use.

Another party wanted commercial rezoning in that area and we thought that this was the proper time for rezoning." Since then other parties have expressed interest in the rezoning there, Gallaway stated.

"I realize (Zorn) has strong feelings but two members of the Tecumseh planning commission were present at the meeting before the township land use plan was adopted. This met with their approval. I do not know if this was a committee function," he added.

"We will respect any recommendation given to us, but I assume that it will pass

Falling Tree Injures Hunter

Wesley Hunt of 2304 Occidental Hwy. is a patient at Foote Hospital West in Jackson as the result of a freak accident last week while deer hunting.

Hunt was hunting alone in Hillsdale County when a squall felled a tree and knocked him unconscious.

He regain consciousness and tried to get up when he realized he had some broken bones. He dragged himself through a swamp for 250 yards. Two boys responded to his call for help.

Hunt was taken to a Hillsdale hospital and transferred to Jackson. He sustained injuries to his left arm and leg. Surgery was performed on the leg Monday and placed in a cast. The arm is too badly bruised and swollen to determine extent of injury.

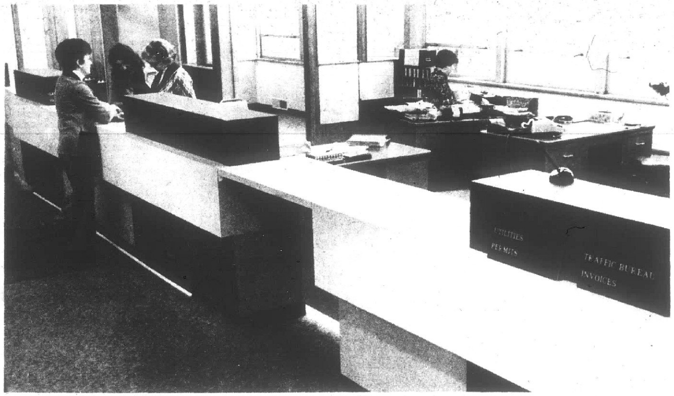
Hunt is employed at Keewaunee Manufacturing, Adrian. His wife is the former Leola Marks. He has two daughters, Karen Hunt and Mrs. Al Bailey and one son, Kevin Hunt.

Snowmobiles Banned at CC

Damage to greens and tees at the Tecumseh Country Club has led the club's directors to ban snowmobiles from the golf course this winter, John Kennedy, greenskeeper, reports.

He says the ban includes all snowmobiles, including those owned by members, and anyone operating a snowmobile on the course will be prosecuted.

In the past snowmobiles have been driven onto the greens and tees, resulting in damage to the turf.



CHANGES AT CITY HALL — Recent construction of an addition at city hall has drastically changed the interior, and for the better. Rather than cramped quarters, personnel there now enjoy a larger, general office area, seen above, plus individual offices for department heads for the city manager, assistant city manager, clerk, assessor, building inspector and engineer. Tentative plans are being considered for an open house. (PHOTO BY FRANK WEIR)

City Hall Addition Nearing Completion

Musical chairs is finally over at Tecumseh city hall as city officials settled into their new offices made possible with the recently constructed 30x44 addition.

Construction was started in June by the Kreighoff Lenawee contractors. Cost of the 1,320 square foot addition with full basement was $106,800, $40,000 of which represented overhaul of the heating and air conditioning system for efficiency.

Money for the addition was from the city fund balance, set aside from previous budgets, and $110,000 was appropriated for construction and furnishing.

Basically the city gained three new offices, one for the city manager Cal Zorn; engineering staff, building inspector and assessor, Robert Hamden, and engineer, Chuck Kipke; and assistant city manager, Paul Preston.

A new business counter and reception area, double vault capacity, kitchenette and women's restroom were also gained.

David Siler, architect for the addition suggested last year that the improvements to the mechanical system would save the city 10 to 15 percent in energy costs.

The mechanical system is not larger, because at the time of redesign, additional gas allotment was not available to the city. However, mechanical system is more efficient use of gas allotment.

Other energy saving improvements were insulation in the older section and addition, acoustical ceiling tile, tinted thermopane windows and exterior overhang.

"I don't think it will be a problem to heat," said city manager Cal Zorn. During the Monday interview in his office, mechanical system was not yet operating, still employees seemed comfortable. "Nobody's freezing," he stated.

The addition is completely carpeted. Landscaping was done by Smith Nursery. Barrier free design entrance for the handicapped is located at the east entrance. Basement may also double for a meeting area in time. Presently, area CB'ers meet downstairs.

The city hall addition was originally proposed two years ago, but council was skeptical of the economic climate.

Last August, city delayed the project rejected construction bids and held out for federal public works money, which it did not receive in the first round. City did however receive $752,000 of public works and federal road funds for four projects, Russell Rd. from Rogers to Mill, Mill to Green Hwy., the Russell Rd. bridges industrial park drive.

The addition actually cost more than the original city hall. It was built in 1957, occupied in January 1958, and cost approximately $95,000.

"We're talking different dollars today," said Zorn.

City manager said he felt an open house was appropriate, but some work still remains before a date can be determined.

Businessman Hospitalized

Tecumseh businessman Roger Proctor, 29, was hospitalized early Sunday morning, Nov. 13 at Alpena General Hospital for heart attack symptoms.

While it was not determined whether he did suffer a heart attack, it was expected by family that he would be released Monday or Tuesday and have further medical consultation.

He and his wife, Diane traveled up north for the hunting season, when he took ill.

Fund Drive Sets Record

For the second straight year, the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation set a record with contributions and pledges totaling $95,794.

In a final report from Harry Hans, general drive chairman, the total figure tops the $84,000 goal by over $11,000.

Five drive divisions exceeded their goals, and two just missed.

The industrial division, headed by Rudy Clum, topped all divisions with $55,390, a new division record and breaking the one established just last year.

Other divisions over their goals were special gifts, schools, residential and public employees. Although the commercial division did not quite reach its goal of $10,800, drive chairman Tim Neill and his workers did raise $10,514, the most ever for this particular division.

Breakdown of the campaign, including division chairmen and comparisons to the previous two years, is:

Division	Goal	Total	1976	1975
Industrial - Rudy Clum	$49,000.00	$55,390.00	$50,126.00	$43,173.00
Commercial - Tim Neill	10,800.00	10.514.00	8,901.10	6.585.00
Special Gifts - K.C. McElroy	14,360.00	20.125.00	19.430.00	19.000.00

A luncheon, scheduled Wednesday to wrap up the '77 drive, has been re-scheduled for Friday at the Tecumseh Country Club.

Harvey House Adding 20 More Motel Units

Harvey and Doris Carpenter broke ground Monday morning to add 20 more units to their motel on W. Chicago Blvd. It marks the fourth expansion for the business couple since they opened with the first 21 units in July 1965.

Currently, the motel has 41 units. Opening of the new units is expected in May 1978. The groundbreaking is one month short of the original groundbreaking in Dec. 21, 1964.

Ten additional units were opened in Nov. 1967. In 1973 the Mai Kai Lounge opened. In May 1974 another 10 units were added and in May 1975 the modernized, expanded restaurant reopened.

The new addition will be two story, attached to the rest of the motel. Rooms will be of the same size. Color television will be added. Room for the handicapped is planned. A new electronic telephone system, reportedly the second planned in the state, will be installed.

Mrs. Carpenter stated that the increased demand in the area encouraged the expansion.

Measles Hit 14 at THS

Along with the cold weather, an outbreak of measles and flu have struck the Tecumseh School District according to Supt. Robert Duhan.

Fourteen cases of measles have been reported at the high school recently. Three other cases were scattered throughout the district.

Duhan also reported that there have been several cases of colds and flu as well.

Santa Coming Here Dec. 4th

Annual visit of Santa Claus to Tecumseh has been scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 4, by the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce.

Time of his arrival and visitation hours during the Christmas season will be published in next week's issue of The Herald.

POSTMASTER JACK METCALF HAS 30 YEARS SERVICE (PHOTO BY FRANK WEIR)

Postmaster Retiring

by Kathy Brown

A familiar face to patrons will be missing from the Tecumseh scene after Dec. 1 as Postmaster Jack G. Metcalf retires after 30 years with the postal service.

Postal employees honored him and his wife, Jane, on Nov. 1 with a retirement dinner at the Cedar Shack. He was presented with a calculator and his wife, a bouquet of flowers..

"The postal patrons of Tecumseh have been really good to Jane and me," said Metcalf. He and his wife will winter in Florida for rest and relaxation, including fishing and golf and then return to their Lenawee County home.

"I don't feel we're moving away. We have a lot of ties in Tecumseh. We'll be back to visit with our many friends."

"Naturally I'll miss that," Metcalf said about his daily routine. "I'll miss my employees," he added. "We've had a good working relationship. I'll miss seeing the patrons, too. A lot of them you know by name, a lot you don't, but you speak to all of them."

George Hawkins, Britton postmaster, will be officer in charge until a new postmaster is appointed in Tecumseh, in approximately 90 days. Hawkins is not eligible for the position.

Metcalf came to Tecumseh in 1936 from Morenci where he operated Metcalf's Market with his father, Ira. His father was commissioned postmaster of Morenci by President Woodrow Wilson in 1918 and served approximately eight years, and years later again as an employee. Jack was commissioned by President Harry Truman.

The Tecumseh postmaster managed 24 employees on the six city routes and three rural routes.

Approximately 10,000 patrons are serviced with a volume of 30,000 pieces of mail a day. Operations were moved to the present E. Chicago Blvd. office from E. Logan St. in 1965.

During his tenure, Jack Metcalf served approximately 10 years as a counselor in the postmaster training program from the tri-county postal region of Jackson, Hillsdale and Lenawee. He trained approximately 30 new postmasters.

Postal rates were three cents first class and one cent for postcards when Metcalf joined the postal service. Postal receipts were $40,000 when he started. They are now over $300,000 in Tecumseh.

There were other changes he witnessed in the system in the past 30 years, notably the mechanization of operations and the use of zip codes. For the past 10 years carriers were using cars on their routes.

Another change within the last month was sorting of outgoing mail at Lansing for better dispatch. Some patrons may have noted this with postmarks from Lansing instead of Jackson.

A major change was the shift from the Postal Department and political appointments to the new corporation, the U.S. Postal Service.

One experience Metcalf said he won't forget was September 1970 when a semi-trailer truck crashed into the post office. Fortuantely, no one was injured, but it was an experience!

Special Meeting Nov. 30

A general meeting of the Tecumseh Area Town Meeting Organization was held Nov. 8 at the First Presbyterian Church.

Debbie Harris reported that the Tecumseh Area Council for the Arts met several times during the summer to determine goals and specific projects.

The temporary board, consisting of Jo Ann Cooley, Lori Egli, Deborah Harris, Gerald Johnstone, D. J. Rinehart, Donna Roe, Tom Rudd and Tom Sura stated its main function will be to "stimulate, guide, and strengthen the continuing growth of arts programs" in all areas.

This will be done mainly through 1) encouraging the public to be aware of and demand a variety of arts programs, 2) coordinate local programs, 3) encouraging education in the arts, 4) make possible performances and exhibits by local artists and help secure funding.

A specific project of high priority will be to help the community get an auditorium and arts center.

Work was also begun on a directory of Tecumseh area people engaged in the arts. Help is needed to complete the project. Interested people can call Debby Harris afternoons at 423-2238.

Pat Tressler and Donna Roe reported on the summer program and progress of A Place for Teens (A.P.T.).

The Tecumseh Community Fund gave $1,000 to A.P.T. to hold dances for teens during the summer at the high school.

The program was well received with five - four record and an average attendance of 240 teens from the Tecumseh area.

The program was more than self sustaining by returning an ending balance of $1,500 for future activities.

A.P.T. wants to expand its program and to hire a full time director for next summer. Plans and recomendations will be announced at a later date.

A discussion was held with Wendell St. John, Atsuma Matsuoba, and Roberta Lapp, from the Institute of Cultural affairs about the feasibility of holding a second lawn meeting in Tecumseh in the spring of 1978.

A special meeting was called for further study on Wednesday, Nov. 30 at 7:30 at the library. All people interested are urged to attend this meeting.

T.A.T.M.O. urged all area residents who support the Town Meeting concept become active in furthering its recommendations.

MARCH SATURDAY — University of Michigan Marching Band members performing at the Michigan-Ohio State football game Satuday were Mark A. Dermyer, 318 Evans Trail, Tipton; Prof. George Cavender, band director; and Linda L. Mapes of Manitou Beach.

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

The day after Thanksgiving I am usually faced with lots of left over turkey. Here are suggestions for turning these leftovers into delicious main dishes.

TURKEY AND STUFFING SCALLOP

¼ cup finely chopped parsley or 3 tablespoons dried parsley
1-¾ cups season stuffing mix
2 cups cooked turkey, diced
¼ cup margarine
¼ cup flour
⅛ tsp. salt
dash pepper
2 cups chicken or turkey broth
3 slightly beaten eggs

Add parsley to stuffing mix. Prepare according to package directions for dry stuffing. Spread in 8 x 8 inch baking dish; top with turkey. In saucepan melt margarine; blend in flour, salt and pepper. Add broth; cook and stir until mixture thickens. Gradually stir hot mixture into eggs; pour over turkey. Bake 325 degrees about 35 minutes. let stand 5 minutes; cut into squares. Garnish with sliced green olives, if desired. Serve with pimento cheese sauce. Makes 6 servings.

PIMENTO CHEESE SAUCE

1 can cheddar cheese soup
½ cup milk
¼ cup chopped pimento

In saucepan, combine soup, milk and pimento. Cook on medium heat until thoroughly heated.

This casserole from Lois Miller calls for chicken but turkey and turkey gravy could easily be substituted.

BISCUIT ON CREAMY CHICKEN

1 pkg. (10 ounce) frozen peas
2 cups diced cooked chicken
1 can condensed cream of chicken soup
½ cup sour cream
½ cup milk
½ tsp. salt
⅛ tsp. pepper
1¼ cup shredded cheese
2 cups Bisquick
½ cup water

Heat oven to 425 degrees. Rinse peas to separate. Heat peas, chicken, soup, sour cream, milk, salt and pepper to boiling, stirring frequently. Add the water to the Bisquick and prepare the rolled biscuits as directed on package. Pour hot chicken mixture into 9 x 9 baking dish. Sprinkle with cheese. Place biscuits on cheese. Bake about 20 minutes. Five servings.

Starting next week, a terrific lineup of favorite Christmas cookies from area residents. Watch for it.

Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

I was just struggling out of a 72 hr. bout with the 24 hr. flu. A contradiction? Not for me. I realize that most people bid goodbye to the 24 hr. bugs in about a day but when they visit me I can usually plan on a three of four day session. A most not-to-be-envied talent.

However, by Saturday I was definitely feeling better. I was thoroughly bored with myself. And Mom must have been tired of a daughter who did nothing but sleep. We were both more than ready for some outside stimulation.

Early last spring Gertie T. had appeared with one of those good ideas which didn't quite work out as it should. It was a bag full of needlepoint yarn ends. The nylon mesh bag was slightly larger than a softball. She tied it to a low limb on one of the creek bank trees.

Sometime before we had both read the same article. It painted a pretty picture of busy nest building birds practically falling over each other as they pulled out the gaily colored pieces of yarn and hurried home to incorporate them in their nests. A nice theory except for one thing. You've guessed it, the birds didn't read the same article that we did.

Admittedly it was with less than full enthusiasm that I glanced out the window. But wait, Marda, there was something happening out there. A red squirrel was running along the limb to which the yarn 'odds and ends' ball was tied.

He stopped, cocked his head, looked, then reached down and wrestled the ball to the top of the limb. He gave it a thorough inspection and, of course, his quick jerky movements soon let it slip back under the limb. He went with it. Instantly he scrambled back on top and thus the fun started.

By now Mom was at the window watching with me. Although we distrust these squirrels they are cute. This one was handsome. His coat was luxurious, all set for winter. And color-wise his back was redder than most red squirrels. But what was he up to?

Suddenly we knew what his intentions were. No, they were not honorable—he fully intended to rip apart Gertie T.'s yard ball. It was not an easy task though. The nylon mesh was tough. As he struggled and worked we could see his temper rise.

Finally he made a small opening and, with a mouthful of yarn, scampered to the top of the limb. There he sat down and, with the yarn in his mouth, used his two hand-paws to twist and turn and work the yarn into a ball—a big ball, larger than the walnuts he so industriously was carrying away a few weeks ago. Shifting into top gear he dashed along the limb, streaked down the tree trunk, and disappeared.

In just a few minutes he was back again. Another fight with the ball and this time he captured an even larger mouthful. For the better part of an hour this went on, Mom and I could not have asked for better entertainment.

What hard work! He finally had to start resting a few moments before collecting the next mouthful. But obviously, by the time the yarn was all gone, this little guy had made for himself a snug winter home. A unique one too, I am sure there is not another so colorfully lined in all Tecumseh.

Commission Meets

Louis Schneider requested city council delay action on his request for a zoning change for one more meeting.

Property is located on W. Chicago Blvd. between Clark Gas Station and last residence. He reportedly wants to use it for his business.

Tecumseh planning commission did not recommend the rezoning of the property from residential to commercial. Reportedly the commission's vote was a tie, broken by chairman Harry Stanifer.

A LOOK INSIDE
Herrick Hospital

BY
KATHY BAILEY, R.N.
RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

This being the week of Thanksgiving, we thought it appropriate to highlight our dietary department, which is composed of 30 female employees headed up by Stanley Nelson, our food service manager. Nelson came to Herrick Hospital as Ogden's food manager 5½ years ago.

The dietary department is vital to the function of our hospital, as it is to any hospital. Sick patients need theraputic diets, ordered by their physicians, to assist in healing and to promote good health.

Our dietary staff prepares many different kinds of diets daily to meet the health needs of our different patients. It requires considerable expertise to prepare nutritionally sound and appetizing bland, ulcer, salt-restricted, diabetic or general diet meals.

Equally important is the health of our employees and those patients in our adjacent nursing, home, for which the dietary department also prepares food.

Nelson supervises his staff in planning, preparing and serving approximately 2,500 meals per week. Serving such a large, diversified group as this requires many different talents.

The dietary staff consists of diet supervisors, who write diets, visit patients on special diets, and supervise other employees; cooks, who prepare all the cooked foods; and dietary aides, who prepare salads, clean vegetables, prepare patient trays and perform general cleaning duties and dishwashing.

Shirley Chumley is our "house baker," responsible for all the desserts. Many of us, both employees and patients, can serve witness to her ability. All the food at the hospital is bought either fresh or canned and prepared here. Nothing is ready to serve and no processed food is used.

The department is now busily planning a traditional Thanksgiving meal with a choice of either roast turkey or prime rib of beef complete with all the trimmings, which reminds us — Have a Blessed and Happy Thanksgiving from all the employees at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Mission Sunday

The Lutheran Church in America - with other Lutheran bodies in the USA and Canada - has started a world-wide mission and called its people to participate in the "Strength For Mission" movement.

The Gloria Dei of Tecumseh is a part of this mission. Months were dedicated in the life of the congregation to promote this goal.

Nov. 27, a staff member of the "Strength For Mission" will speak during the service. The Rev. William Heil Jr., pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church of Battle Creek will deliver the mission message.

Dr. Laszlo Gero, Tecumseh pastor will lead the liturgy with the participation of laypersons.

The Chancel Choir will sing "My God and I." The public is invited to the service.

The engagement of Phillis Elaine Lewis to David Joseph Siconoifi is announced by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Lewis of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. Nickolas Siconoifi of Rochester, N.Y. Miss Lewis was graduated from Tecumseh in 1969 and Delta Community College. She is employed at Toledo Hospital as an X-ray technologist. Mr. Siconoifi earned his bachelor of arts degree at Springfield College, Mass. He is working on his masters in chemistry at Bowling Green State College. A Sept. 30, 1978 wedding is planned.

Engagement of Patricia Ann Tamm to Kelvin T. Engle has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tamm of Novi. She is a 1974 graduate of Novi high school and will graduate from the University of Michigan in April with a BS degree in metallurgical engineering., Mr. Engle, of Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Engle, 49995 Raisin Center Hwy., is a 1974 THS graduate and will graduate from Eastern Michigan University in April with a BBA degree in computer systems. At that time he will be commissioned a 2nd Lt. in the Marine Corps. A May 6 wedding is planned.

MR. and MRS. DAVID BURKHARDT

Lori Lynn Boot and David Burkhardt Wed

The Church of the Nazarene of Tecumseh was the setting for the Nov. 5, 6 p.m. wedding of Lori Lynn Boot of Tecumseh and David Bruce Burkhardt of Tipton.

The Rev. Herbert Nation officiated at the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Boot, 906 W. Pottawatamie St. and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Burkhardt, 46 Evans Trail, Tipton.

For her wedding the bride chose an ivory empire styled gown with pink and blue flowers. The bodice featured a lace insert with blue ribbons. She wore a single strand pearl necklace, her mother's keepsake.

Maid of honor, Kathy Harris of Tecumseh, was attired in a pale green gown. The bridal and maid of honor's bouquets were both color coordinated to match their gowns.

Robert Davis of Onsted was best man.

A dinner party was held at the Tecumseh Country Club.

The new Mrs. Burkhardt is a student at Tecumseh High School and Mr. Burkhardt is employed at Ford Motor Co., Saline.

The couple resides at 705 Russell Square Apts.

Accept or Reject?

City hall officials do not know whether they may accept or must reject the low bid for construction of the industrial park drive project.

City manager was to discuss the problem with council Monday night.

Last week, the city opened two bids with Union Construction of Manchester the low bidder by approximately $28,000. But, the Manchester firm's bid did not completely follow Economic Development Administration regulations.

Both figures and words were to be used in the pricing, and the low bid consisted only of figures. Paul Preston, assistant city manager, was in the Chicago EDA office Thursday and failed to receive any satisfaction as to the possibility of waiving the technicality.

Cal Zorn, city manager, contacted Congressman Dave Stockman's office in Washington Friday in hopes of a favorable response.

Union Construction bid $346,577.25, and Cunningham-Gooding, $374,411.85. Both bids far exceeded estimates, and have caused officials here to adjust construction plans.

Tipton's Santa

TIPTON—Santa will arrive in Tipton, Dec. 3 at 3 p.m. on the Sand Lake Fire Truck. He will turn on the tree lights at the Franklin Township Hall and will greet children at the Tipton Grange Hall until 5 p.m.

The Sand Lake Fire-Flyes will have their third annual Christmas community store Dec. 3 and 4 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Auxiliary was busy since April making and buying items for the sale. Sale is not a money making project.

It is just "something we enjoy doing for our community," stated Ollie Koons, chairman. "If you could see all those kids eyes light up that is all the reward we need".

Over 400 items are priced under $5. Items include holiday decorations, homemade items, tools, games, dolls and toys.

The women gift wrap all items free. Coffee is free.

Santa will be there on Sat. from 3-5 p.m. and Sunday 1-3 p.m. Pictures will be taken with Santa while you wait.

A drawing will be held for anyone under 18 and a door prize will be given to some boy or girl.

The firemen will sell Christmas trees at the Superslide at Bauer Manor.

GEORGE SHAW

Enlists in Air Force

George Harold Shaw, son of Mrs. Esther Shaw, 209 S. Pearl St. and Clare Shaw, 9103 N. Union St. enlisted in the U.S. Air Force's delayed enlistment program.

Shaw, upon graduation from Tecumseh High School, is scheduled for enlistment in the regular Air Force during the month of July, 1978. Upon gradiation from the Air Force's six week basic training course, he will receive technical trading in electronics.

He will earn credits toward an associate degree through the Community College of the Air Force while attending basic and other Air Force technical training schools.

Park Folder Is Previewed

Assistant city manager Paul Preston previewed with council promotional folders for the Tecumseh Industrial Park.

Theme is for the promotion is "Tecumseh: The Pleasant Place To Be".

Folders include facts and figures on the region, the site, design and planning guidelines, utilites, population and labor force, transportation for freight and passenger, community facilities and guidelines for submission and design reviews by the city.

Preston worked on the project since his arrival in March along with other community development projects he was assigned by council.

5 Complaints

In the past four days, the Tecumseh police investigated five complaints and recorded one accident.

Resume of the complaints is:

Nov. 17 - Robert Shroupe, 700 Outer Dr., told officers that a vehicle was driven across his front yard, leaving ruts in the lawn.

Nov. 19 - Julie Roles, 602 Conklin Dr., was visiting neighbor Mrs. James Tindall, 604 Conklin Dr., when the Tindall dog bit her.

Nov. 19 - Troy Wallce, 104 E. Pottawatamie, reported damage to his yard by a vehicle. Police also discovered that the vehicle was driven across his neighbor's lawn, Lee Fogelsong, 102 E. Pottawatamie.

Nov. 20 - Randy Pierce, 402 Adrian St., reported damage to his mail box.

Nov. 22 - A large 4x9 foot window was smashed by a large rock at Wolf's Appliances.

In the lone recorded accident, Edwin T. Hamilton, 25, of 1327 Southwestern Dr., was cited for failure to have his vehicle under control after running into a parked car, owned by Tommy Gainey, 817 S. Occidental Rd.

Letters to the Editor

To Tecumseh Area Residents

On October 23, 1976 approximately 300 Tecumseh area residents met together in a town meeting. We wrote our story of the past and present and laid out some goals for the future.

We defined the challenges which we felt lay before us in the economic, political and cultural arenas of our town. We spelled out proposals to meet, these challenges and foster a new spirit of cooperation and awareness between its citizens.

To meet these needs a permanent non-profit group, Tecumseh area Town Meeting organization, was established. Committees on "the teen question", cultural environment and an activity center have been formed to study the proposals set down at town meeting.

"A Place for Teens" was formed and five dances were held during the summer. An arts council was established and is activily engaged in promoting a cultural program for Tecumseh. Exploratory talks are being conducted in hopes of finding a common ground for an auditorium and arts center for the community.

All these things came out of town meeting and now discussions are being held on the feasibility of having a second town meeting in the spring.

A meeting will be held Nov. 30 at 7:30 p.m. at the library to see if the people of the Tecumseh area really want to participate in a second town meeting.

I urge all of you to attend this open meeting and voice your opinions. Tecumseh needs all of its citizens to maintain it as a viable, progressive community.

Let's all spend a few hours for our community.

Sincerely,
Bill Frownfelder
Chairman of the Stearing
Committee of T.A.T.M.O.

To the Editor;

The Tecumseh Players appreciate the tremendous response to their special benefit performance of "Irene" on Oct. 20. Thank you everyone for your support which made it possible to place over $400 into the Tecumseh Theatre Fund.

We'd like to express a special note of gratitude to Lynn Cook and Edna Smith for all their efforts in planning the event and for hosting — at their own expense — the "meet the cast" party prior to the show. Also thanks to all those who assisted in various ways.

To receive this kind of encouragement from so many people is a thrilling experience.

Thank you so much!

Sincerely,
Kathi Johnstone
corresponding secretary,
Tecumseh Players

To the Editor:

We appreciate the picture you published in last week's Herald of a presentation that was made to Herrick Park School by the Meyers Foundation.

However, may I take this opportunity to correct the information accompanying the picture. Herrick Park School recently received a grant-in-aid from the Meyers Foundation to provide our science classes with current materials on aviation technology. The picture was taken at the presentation ceremony on November 3rd. The formal presentation was made by Mrs. Al Meyers and Mrs. Carlton Cook on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Meyers Foundation.

We are most grateful to the Meyers Foundation for their generous support of our teaching programs and wish to publicly thank them. The grant-in-aid was used to purchase fifty copies of the booklet, Let's Go Flying. Our thanks to you, too, for recognizing this gift with publication of the picture in the Tecumseh Herald.

Sincerely,
Lois Fleming, Principal
Herrick Park School

To the Editor,

True football fans must surely wince at the moribund sense of humor displayed in your article on the Adrian-Tecumseh game when you describe a fumble as "pulling a Huckleby."

Justice dictates that dangling participles, misplaced modifiers, and other literary perversions shall henceforth be known as "pulling a Herald."

Just "pulling your leg."

Analogically yours,
Mark Lewis

To the Editor:

Tecumseh High School Senior Class— thank you for being so courteous and respectful of us and our property during your class party. You're a fine group of young people.

I know our little valley hasn't held so much fun and activity since the first Tecumseh Indians.

Calvin and Jean Hughes

USDA Revises Majority Dates

The U.S. Department of Agriculture announced Commodity Credit Corporation loans on 1977-crop grain will be issued on a nine-month, rather than an 11-month, anniversary basis.

USDA officials explained that the anniversary loan concept is being retained in order to avoid having all loans for a commodity maturing on a common date.

However, by shortening the length of the loan, a greater number of the loans will mature before the 1978 harvest; this will permit 1977 grain to be moved from the farm and country warehouse to make room for the 1978 crop.

For the Record

Last week the Herald quoted Mrs. David Casteel, new downtown bookstore owner, "We noticed that there was no local bookstore and that people had to drive to Adrian or Ann Arbor for reading material.".

That is not to say that reading material is not available at many local stores that do not specialize in books and magazines.

Holland Is Series Topic

Captivating beauty of the Dutch countryside and fairy tale castles will come to life when Robert Brouwer presents his unusual film, "Spring Captures Holland," Dec. 1 at 8 p.m. in Dawson Auditorium at Adrian College.

A resident of Grand Rapids, Mr. Brouwer is another travel lecturer who began his interest in the field as a pastime. His background in electrical engineering combined with his hobby of photography has produced a revolutionary and unique presentation which often is referred to as a "movie-slide" program.

Brouwer's presentation is the second in the college's 1977-78 World Travel Series.

WILLIAM POLK HOSTS LUNCHEON

Luncheon Held

William J. Polk, plant manager, was host last week for a special luncheon held in the plants' executive dining room in honor of Charles A. Major upon the occasion of his recent completion of his apprenticeship in the sewing machine skilled trade.

Additional guests included Carl Goins and Russel Roback, members of the local plant apprenticeship committee.

Mr. Major was presented with a certificate, which formally recognizes his attainment as journeyman-sewing machine repair under the GM-UAW Standard Apprentice Plan.

Major, a resident of 1083 Gady Rd., and graduate of Hudson High School, began his employment with Fisher Body Tecumseh Plant in May, 1965 as a sweeper, maintenance department. In September of that same year he transferred to production department where he worked as a lay and cut finish employe for three years, with other production department work as an embossing press operator.

In September, 1968 he became an apprentice electrician in maintenance with later assignments in production prior to his entry into the sewing machine repair trade apprenticeship in June, 1973.

4th Annual Christmas Walk

Theater Has New Owners Again

CLINTON — Don and Dolores Crescio of Ypsilanti purchased the Clinton Theatre from Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Haskell, owners for the past five years.

The Crescios have three children at home. They will operate the business showing the same family type films as the previous owners.

Mr. Crescio is a head clerk in the quit claim section of Conrail and his wife is employed at Sears in Briarwood, Ann Arbor.

In the 40's, Crescio was a relief manager for a theatre chain in Detroit and for a time operated the old airline theatre in Willow Run Airport.

He also operated a small amusement ride unit for 16 years and brought it to the Clinton Fall Fesitval two years ago.

Forrest Haskell operates F & E Copy Products in the Coldwater, Hillsdale and Sturgis area.

Reception Planned

CLINTON — Members of St. Dominic's Altar Society planned a reception for their new priest, the Rev. Fr. Chester Tomeszewski at their recent meeting.

Receptions will be held at the rectory Nov. 26 after the 6:30 p.m. Mass, and on Nov. 27 after the 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. service.

Committee of Mrs. George Bowman, Mrs. Bruce Krueger and Teresa Bauer will arrange the Christmas decorations at St. Dominic's.

Nominating committee named to report a slate of officers at the next meeting includes Mrs. Bauer, Mrs. Al Cowhy, Mrs. Bowman.

Mrs. Joseph Busch won the lucky lady prize.

After the meeting, Mrs. Geordie Poland presented a gift demonstration sale.

Next meeting will be a 6:30 p.m. potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. Carlos Knisely in Tecumseh.

Calendar

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23

Coopers Are Honored

CLINTON — The Rev. and Mrs. Russell Cooper were surprised with a 40th wedding anniversary observance, Sunday, at St. John's Episcopal Church.

A cooperative dinner was attended by 70 persons. A decorated cake was a feature of the dinner.

A money tree of silver dollars was presented to the Coopers from the congregation.

Several selections of music were played by an instrumental sextet from Manchester, led by Carl Townsend.

They received a telephone call from their daughter, son-in-law, and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Michael E. Meade and son, David, who moved to Jackson, Wyoming this fall.

MACON — Home for the holidays will be wherever the Barry Raymond Family of Orillia, Ontario park "Rusty", their 1968 Volkeswagon van onverted t a home on wheels.

They won't see their Canadian home again until March, 1979.

The family left Macon Nov. 15, the first stop on their 40,000 mile trip around the world that took two years to plan.

They spent three days with Bill and Rose Ann Hatchett in Macon. "A sort of deconditioning after the somewhat hectic time preceeding leaving home," said Barry Raymond.

He and his wife, Gloria, are traveling with their two sons, Duane, 7 and Brent, 5.

A complete map of the Raymonds' world tour decorates one side of the orange van that was "rusty" when they bought it. They transformed the vehicle to a home on wheels using every inch of space.

Furnishings include three-way energy refrigerator, propane stoves, outside shower, table and benches, inside bunk for parents and top tent for the boys, cut and fit by Gloria.

To prepare for the trip, Barry studied mechanics. Both he and Gloria trained as paramedics to give injections, intervenous injections and suture in an emergency. They carry quite a medical supply. Gloria studied Spanish and researched all the foods of the countries they will visit.

The children will keep up with school during a couple hour sessions each day with mom as their teacher. Duane will use a Ministry of Education syllabus for grades two and three. He will keep in touch with his class via tapes and material sent back to his teacher.

Brent will have pre-school activity and an introduction to grade one work. The blackboard on "Rusty" will be used on nice days.

Complete records will be kept. The boys will keep a daily log and the family will record impressions on cassette tapes once a week.

Security measures for the trip included zippers in the collars and cuffs of shirts Gloria made to store valuables, a burglar alarm system, chain locks on the doors, valuables stored in ammunition boxes chained and padlocked, then bolted to the floor.

Barry, chief physiotherapist at Soldiers Memorial Hospital, Orillia, Ontario, took a 15 month leave of absence.

He briefly described the route: through North and South America to the tip of South Africa, Europe to Asia and Australia to North America via the South Pacific.

After several calculations and reseach on gas prices, etc. he figured the cost of the trip at $20,000. Fares for them and freight for their van total about $10,000 and insurance, van expenses and living costs total another $10,000.

Their research revealed that there are no books available on traveling around the world with children. They said they may write one when they return.

The Raymonds look forward to two wonderful years of living and learning with their two boys and a chance to know them. Barry says the trip is really "kid oriented."

After a Christmas 1978 family reunion in Melbourne, Australia, Barry and Gloria's original home, and a month visit, the family will fly to their Orillia, Ontario home sometime in March 1979.

On a sad note, the only part of the "family" not returning will be Rusty, the van. It will be left at Melbourne with relatives because of the added $2,000 to bring it back. Someone equated the loss with the astronauts leaving behind their space capsule.

A possible stop in Macon is also on the Raymond agenda and the Herald readers will be anxious for a report.

Good luck, Raymonds! Happy trip, happy holidays!

Women Plan Book Fair Dec. 1

CLINTON — United Methodist Church Women will hold the fifth annual Book Fair, Dec. 1, 2, 3, and 5 at the United Methodist Church dining room.

The community service project features Bibles, Christian study books, and hundreds of children's and teenager's books, hard and soft covered and paper backs, displayed for sale during these dates.

Of special interest this year, Marion Powers from Logos Book Store will be at a coffee hour, at 10 a.m. Friday, Dec. 3 to talk about books. She'll answer questions about books and Christian education.

As in past years, the book fair will include a door prize drawing for adults and children.

Hours are: Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Monday, Dec. 5, 4 to 7:30 p.m.

The book fair is open to the public.

Macon Montage

By Sharon Connors

MACON—Now thank we all our Lord......Boysville students will bow their heads in prayer Tuesday evening Nov. 22 at their "family" Thanksgiving dinner.

The next day all but a few will go home for the holiday returning to the campus Sunday.

On Wednesday evening the Macon Methodist church will resound with hymns and prayers of thanksgiving as the Rev. Albert Raloff conducts worship services at 7:30 p.m.

Several groups in Macon are getting in the holiday mood by sharing some of what they have with others. The Blue Bird and Camp Fire girls finished collecting goods for a basket for the needey. The young people of the church are making plans for such things as fruit baskets for the elderly at Christmas.

Many families will gather and enjoy the Thanksgiving holiday together. Some will be fortunate to have all their loved ones together, others will not, but each gathering large or small will be a special occasion.

We look forward to having the Wes Falls and Bill Dingler families from Toledo, Ohio (my sisters) for dinner with us. Of course Pat Jr. will be home. We will miss Mike but he promises to be home this year for Christmas.

Mrs. Arthur Brown will have her daughter and husband, Jim and Mary Blocker and children, David and Sarah from Birmingham for the holiday.

The John Swanston's will host a dinner for Jerry and Karen Miller and family, the Paul Shaffer family, Tom Swanston and guest Evelyn Hoffmeister.

The Harold Rhora family will be at Julie's parents' home, the E.J. Crawfords, Thanksgiving day. A big family dinner is planned and Brad will be home from college.

The Richard Mohrs will have a family day at home with daughters, Tonya and Tammie.

Dean and Josie Jones and family are planning family dinner. A happy part of the day will be Josie's dad being able to be with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zick, Philip, Dale and Dana, and Tim Sessoms left last Saturday for Ft. Reily, Kansas where they will spend Thanksgiving with Sgt. Richard Zick and family. The day before Thanksgiving Brenda Zick, Philip's wife, will fly down to join them. The group also plans a visit to Boulder, Colo. before they return to Michigan.

Mrs. Clare Camburn and Robert may be enjoying one of the turkeys Bob has been raising. They will cook one of the big birds if relatives from Florida are able to join them.

Being the Camburn's next door neighbor, the turkey raising has been interesting to this ex-city dweller. They were certainly interesting to watch and on occasion enjoyed breakfast with some of our cats. Bob expects some of them to weigh nearly 30 lbs!

Nov. 22 following the General UMW meeting at Wilma Clark's a bridal shower will be held for Meg Moore who will be married Dec. 10.

10 Members of Class Meet

BRITTON — Ten members of the Dorcas Class of the Britton Congregational Christian Church and the Rev. Hawk met in the fellowship center of the church Nov. 17, for a potluck dinner. Mrs. Marian Auten and Mary Oliver served on the refreshment committee.

After dinner Mrs. Helen Osterhout, class president opened the business meeting by reading a poem "God's House" by Edgar A. Guest. The Rev. Hawk reported that Alta Thompson has few visitors and appreciates cards.

The class voted to send Christmas cards to shut-in members. It also voted to pay for one of the poinsettias to be used at the church during the holiday season.

Members of the class decided to cancel the December and January meetings as weather conditions often prevent some from attending and energy would be conserved. The February meeting will be held at the home of Thelma Younglove.

The class voted to have the class treasurer pay the class's yearly pledge for 1978 immediately after the beginning of the new year. They also agreed to purchase a winter arrangement to be placed on the grave of Margaret Hannevik.

Clara Wright, program chairperson opened the program with a prayer. Then she asked Mae Willis to read a humorous article and Thelma Younglove to read the "Origin of Thanksgiving" from an issue of "Ideals."

Five members read wise sayings prepared by Mrs. Wright.

The Rev. Hawk concluded the program with a prayer.

Lutheran Guild Meets

BRITTON — The November meeting of Emmanuel Lutheran Ladies' Guild was held Nov. 15 at the church.

President, Eileen Gilmore, reading Psalm 67 the Thanksgiving psalm.

Committees reported on the mission supper and the Bazaar which was a success.

A resolution will be submitted to the Monroe Zone of the Lutheran Comen's Missionary League to be considered by the state committee for vote at the 1978 state convention.

This resolution reads: that a specified amount of monies be sent to the Pickney Mission, Pickney to aid in setting up the new congregation. The money will come from statewide mite box collections.

The Pickney Mission will be sent $100 from the Guild.

$300 was voted to be put into the Bell Tower Fund, plans for which will be completed soon in celebration for the 15th anniversary of the new church building in June of 1978.

Remembering the shut-ins, service men, and helping a family at Christmas time was planned at this meeting.

Madelyn Schafer reported on the fall rally of the LWML. Spring rally will be held at St. Paul's, New Boston.

Bible study of the Book of Ephesians was continued using "Grow-up Christian" as our guide. Beulah Squires was leader.

Next meeting will be Christmas potluck dinner, Dec. 20 at 6:30 p.m. Each woman is requested to bring a guest, two dishes to pass, a meat dish and or salad or desert, also a $1 gift to exchange.

Ann Cottrell and Louise Pollitz were hostesses for the evening.

Plant Parties Are Held

BRITTON — The Britton Camp Fire Girls eighth grade Discovery group, under the leadership of Phyllis Below, held a plant party recently.

The girls learned more about the care of plants, and earned free plants for themselves.

With the help of Sylvia Hemphill of the Village Greenery, the group sold $200 worth of plants and earned several recognition beads for themselves.

Beads were earned by Lisa Sparrow, Patsy Handley, Pam Rowe, Amy Rohrs, Jennie Monagin, Cheryl Irwin, Kim Timmerman, and Julie Grounds.

The next project the group will work on is making sock dolls for a Christmas gift to be donated to an orphanage.

BRITTON — A plant party, sponsored by the fifth grade Camp Fire Girls' will be held Dec. 1 at 7 p.m. in the village fire hall. The public is invited.

Girls will have the opportunity to learn about the basic care of plants from demonstrator Sylvia Hemphill, owner of the new "Village Greenery". They will also receive a free plant for a certain number of plants sold.

Sue Aylward and Jane Bosterdor are co-leaders of the group.

Thanksgiving Services Told

BRITTON — The Rev. James Stephenson, pastor of the Ridgeway Church of the Nazarene and president of the Ridgeway Township Ministerial Association, announces that the area community Thanksgiving service will be held Nov. 23 at Grace United Methodist Church at 7 p.m.

The Rev. John Roach, host pastor, will be assisted by the Rev. David Hawk, Congregational Christian Church pastor, with the Rev. Stephenson giving the message.

The combined choirs of the Congregational Christian, Grace United Methodist and the Ridgeway Church of The Nazarene will provide music. Mrs. William Raeburn of the Congregational Christian Church will direct. Other special music will be provided by the Congregational Christian Church.

The community is invited to attend.

Pancake Supper

BRITTON — The Grace United Methodist Youth Group will sponsor a pancake supper Dec. 1 from 5-7 p.m. at the church.

Menu will feature all you can eat of a variety of pancakes such as blueberry, banana, plain, etc. Applesauce, coffee and milk is also included.

Profit from the supper will go towards the annual Appalachia project. This is the only money making project put on during the year by the youths of the church.

Freshman Candy Sale

BRITTON — Candy sale which has been conducted by the freshman class at Britton-Macon school will end Nov. 28.

Sales include old fashion candy in jars, as well as deluxe boxes of chocolates Christmas wrapped for gift giving, and other chocolate assortments.

If not contacted, readers may call the school and leave your name and a freshman will call to take your order.

Menu

Nov. 28 - Dec. 2

MONDAY — Sloppy Joe, buttered peas, applesauce, cookie and milk.

TUESDAY — Beef salad or peanut butter sandwich, green beans, bar cookie, peaches and chocolate milk.

WEDNESDAY — Hamburg or beef gravy, mashed potatoes, celery sticks, bread and butter, fruit cup and milk.

THURSDAY — Marzetti tossed salad, biscuits with butter, pineapple and milk.

FRIDAY — Fish sticks or hot dog, mashed potatoes with butter, bread and butter, gelatin and milk.

Honored at Shower

BRITTON—Mrs. David Hays was guest of honor at a cradle shower at Bethel Baptist Church Nov. 15.

The Ladies Missionary group hosted the event with 14 women in attendance.

Games were played with Valerie Bartenslager, Barbara Bishop, Margaret Van Vorst and Vadah Stutesman winners.

Barbara Bishop baked and served a decorated rock-a-bye-baby cake with gelatin.

Mrs. Hazel Booth assisted with refreshments.

Among the gifts opened by Mrs. Hayes was a handmade baby quilt and knitted sweater.

Tecumseh Cagers Boast 7 Veterans

Tecumseh's boys basketball squad began its season on Tuesday of this week with a scrimmage against Ann Arbor Pioneer.

Feb. 17	Flat Rock
Feb. 24	at Airport
Mar. 4	District
Mar. 7-11	Regional
Mar. 15, 17, 18	State

On Nov. 29, the Indians travel to Blissfield in a non-conference battle.

Seven lettermen are returning including seniors Ben Maves, 5'11" guard; Richard Cangley, 5'11" guard; Doug Bohannon, 5'1" guard: Jeff Hans, 6'4" forward and center; Bret DesErmia, 6'4" forward and center; Lyndon Hughes, 6'2" center and forward. John Ely is a junior letterman standing 6'2" and is a forward and center.

Hughes will not be able to practice until after Christmas suffering from a pulled hamstring according to coach Jim Curth.

Filling out the roster are seniors Pat Davis, 6'3" center and forward and Jim Neill, 6'2" center and forward. Juniors John Faulkner, 6' guard, Steve Sisson, 5'7" guard, Jeff Osworth, 6'1" forward, and Mark Creswell, 6'2" center and forward.

Tecumseh lost three starters to graduation last year including guards Dave Bohannon and Dave Bilkie and forward Dan Maves. In addition, Gary Allen, who shared the starting center assignment with Hughes, graduated.

Curth is beginning his second year as head coach. In his debut last season, Tecumseh came up with a 13-1 won-lost mark in the Huron League, tied with New Boston Huron for first place in the league. Overall, the team was 15-5.

This year's league race promises to be a tough one according to Curth. Airport is the team to beat boasting three boys at or near 6'5". Other contenders should be Grosse Ile and Huron with Jefferson, Monroe C.C. and Carlson ready to challenge the leaders.

The orange and black will have its hands full with non-league foes as well. Adrian, Blissfield, Milan and Jackson Northwest are all scheduled. Northwest won a summer prep tournament and should be tough.

Curth concludes, "With discipline, hard work and genuine concern for other players, we should be a very good team. The key to the whole team is everybody doing their share. We have to develop consistency."

Curth is assisted by junior varsity coach Carl Novak. Student trainers are Brian Banda and Kevin Bater while Jon Andre and Dorman Frederick will be handling the managerial duties.

Tecumseh's cagers have been practicing diligently in preparation for the opening of the season Nov. 29 at Blissfield. The Indians hope to have another good season. Last year they posted a 15-5 overall record. Above, Ben Maves takes to the air preparing to pass to John Faulkner, far right, while John Ely defends. Head coach Jim Curth watches the action from the background. At the right, Jeff Hans takes a shot.

Indian Girls Whip Jefferson

It was easy sailing for Tecumseh's girls basketball squad in its battle against Monroe Jefferson last Thursday.

The Indians swamped their opponents 65-32 including a third quarter where Jefferson was unable to score allowing the orange and black to run up 16 points.

Tecumseh came out in the first quarter with a press overwhelming Jefferson 20-9.

Coach Diane Nelson sent in the second string in the second period.

Tecumseh yanked 46 rebounds with Debbie Steadly and Grace Burns leading the way with 11 carooms each. Jefferson had 19.

Tecumseh hit on 46 percent of its shots from the field to 29 for the opposition. The Indians lost the ball 26 times to 23 for Jefferson.

Burns led in scoring with 14 markers followed closely by Steadly with 13.

Tecumseh ended the league season with a 9-3 record, 14-5 overall and third in the league under Grosse Ile and St. Mary's.

The Indians closed out regular season play on Tuesday of this week at Adrian opening district competition Nov. 28.

3 Named All League

Three Tecumseh girl basketball players were named All-Huron league last week.

Debbie Steadly was named to the first team and was the only unanimous choice out of all the league selections.

Grace Burns and Gloria Fosbender were named to the second team.

Britton Tories 'Much Improved'

Britton basketball coach Jim Sweigart is truly excited about the Tories' season which opened Tuesday of this week at Manchester.

Although the Tories suffered through a losing season last year, ending 4-15, Sweigart promises that this year's edition is a "much improved ball club."

"This is one of the most talented groups I've ever had here. The players attitude is excellent, they worked out this summer and I'm optimistic."

Sweigart is quick to add that the Tri-County League will be very strong with many of the teams boasting returning starters.

But the Tories have some boasting to do in that department themselves having lost only one starter from last year, namely center, Lon Wagenschutz.

Returning starters include Terry Benedict, 6'1" junior forward; Greg Fanslau, 6' sophomore forward; Phil Loesch, 5'9" senior guard and Randy Smith 5'10" senior guard. All are lettermen along with 5'9" senior guard Jeff Bearinger.

Other team members include junior Tom Bluntschly, 6' forward; Dennis Kimerer, 5'1" forward; Dan Sparrow, 5'9" guard; and John Stevenson, 6'2" forward.

Seniors are Mark Daykin, 5'6" guard; Mark Gilmore, 6'1" center; Jon Hintz, 6' forward; John Marks, 5'8" guard; Ned Newlin, 5'10" guard and Bob Sanders, 5'8" guard.

Sweigert has been stressing defense in practice so far. He says the team has spent 70-80 percent of its time on that facet of the game.

"We were one of the worst teams in the county last year as far as giving up points and allowing turnovers. Defense is really the key to our season. We've also worked on shooting and I can safely say that this is the best shooting club I've had. I've got four people who can hit."

Sweigart is also excited about his new assistant and junior varsity coach, Cam VanArsdalen. "He coached the Adrian College J.V.'s last year and has been doing a tremendous job here. He's brought a lot of new ideas, especially defensive philosophy, to the ball club."

Sweigart concludes, "I'm pleased with the player's work, with their hustle and enthusiasm. We will be improved."

Clinton Frosh Host Morenci

Clinton's freshman basketball squad began practice Nov. 7 under the direction of coaches Mike Howe and Mike Steinkraus.

This year's edition is relatively small in the LCAA. The front line consists of Brian Dettling at 6'1", Jim Nisbett at 6'2"; John Santure at 6'0" and Brad marsh at 5'11".

At the wing and point positions are Dale Porterfield 5'7"; Mark Arquette, 5'6"; Clayton Covell, 5'5"; Ken Semanski 5'5"; Rick Armstrong, 5'1"; Darin McElroy, 5'0"; Scott Adams, 5'1" and Kirk Ragay, 5'1".

The freshman Redskins' first home game will be against Morenci Dec. 5 at 5 p.m.

Defeat Saline

Clinton girls basketballers notched another win, this one a 61-49 decision over Saline last Thursday.

The Redskins built up a 34-14 lead but the Hornettes came alive in the second half out-scoring Clinton 35-27. It wasn't enough for an upset though.

Cathy Gibson had 18 points for the Skins while Karen Busch had 11 and Lisa Cark, ten.

Clinton now boasts an overall record of 17-1.

Britton's girls basketball squad came up with an 11-4 first quarter tally over Dundee adding a 16-6 fourth quarter to win 41-24 last Thursday.

Genene Bruce had 17 points for the Tories and 17 rebounds. Kim Cottrell had 13 of Britton's 54. Dundee had 33 carooms.

The Tories hit on 23 percent of their shots from the floor to 18 percent for Dundee.

Britton now posts an overall record of 12-5.

Hockey Squad Begins Season

The Lenawee Hockey team is in its third week of the '77-'78 season. The team opened the season by losing to Jackson Western 6-1.

The following week they evened the score by defeating Jackson Hanover-Horton 6-4.

The Lenawee team is composed of boys from Adrian and Tecumseh high schools and is coached by Ron Johnson, assisted by Dave Simpson and Dave Prior.

The next game will be Sunday, Nov. 27 at 4:40 p.m. against Chelsea.

All games are played at the Jackson Sports Arena.

SHOPS OPEN FOR ARRIVAL

Christmas Season Here! Santa Arrives Sunday

Santa Claus will arrive at the four corners in downtown Tecumseh this Sunday, Dec. 4th, with an arrival time scheduled for 2 p.m.

Santa's annual visit is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, and coupled with his visit Sunday afternoon, most downtown shops will open, some with pre-Christmas specials.

The Chamber also has planned a new home for Santa this year. Rather than use the Santa Claus hut as in past years, Santa will have his headquarters in the old Palman building, southwest corner of Chicago Blvd. and S. Evans St.

His visitation hours for youngsters will be posted.

Council last week approved free off-street parking for Christmas shoppers, commencing Friday, Dec. 16 through Saturday, Dec. 24th.

Each year the city grants the free parking for local and area shoppers.

On-street parking, however, will be metered as usual.

A number of Tecumseh merchants have timed Santa's arrival Sunday with some shopping specials for that day only.

Most merchants will be opened from 1:00 to 5:00 for the specials and Christmas shopping.

Christmas shopping hours have already started for some stores with these shops staying open until 9 p.m. Other merchants will start their special hours on Monday, Dec. 12th with 9 p.m. closings through Dec. 23.

Only exception is Saturday, Dec. 17th, when some shops will close at the regular 5:30 time.

Special Ed Bus System Back to ISD

Special education transportation system, administered by the Tecumseh School District, has grown in such proportions that the district would like to turn the operation over to the Intermediate School District.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Tecumseh Board of Education last week, the board agreed to inform the intermediate district that "at the end of the current fiscal year, June 30, 1978, Tecumseh no longer wishes to operate the county special education transportation program."

Asst. Supt. Gene Cooley said later that Tecumseh now operates and administers a total of 14 special education buses. In 1970-71, there were only six buses and one van in operation.

The 14 buses travel 2,040 miles a day according to Cooley. Tecumseh has a two-bay bus garage. In addition, Tecumseh is spending more time administering the special education buses than its own.

Tecumseh operates 24 of its own buses along with three spares. The vehicles travel 1,700 miles a day.

Cooley concluded. "We certainly want to do everything to preserve the jobs of the special education bus drivers. It would make the transition easier by keeping the same drivers. "We've had a very fine relationship with the Intermediate District."

All fourteen buses are owned by the Intermediate District.

Free Measle Shots Today

High school and junior high students will be offered free vaccination against measles this Thursday, Clarence Lacny, high school principal, announces.

The program, sponsored by the Lenawee County Health Department, is on a voluntary basis, and students must have permission slips signed by their parents. Permission slips were sent home with students Monday.

High school pupils are to be inoculated Thursday morning, and junior high, Thursday afternoon.

Last week, officials reported 15 cases of measles at the high school alone.

Mr. Lacny says health officials told him that any student, who has not been vaccinated since age one or a student who has been exposed, would be safe in taking the vaccine.

Gun-type injection will be used in administering the shots.

Special Santa Letter Box

Letters to Santa Claus may be mailed to him in a special letterbox that will be located in the vicinity of the Bidwell Building, downtown Tecumseh on S. Evans at W. Chicago Blvd.

Letters will be picked up and replies will be sent to children. Tecumseh senior citizens will participate in handling the letters.

To receive a reply, children must sign their letters with name, age and return address and mail them downtown before Dec. 14.

Historic Ordinance Revised, Scheduled for Council Monday

A revised version of the historic district ordinance will be presented to Tecumseh city council next Monday, Dec. 5.

Two basic changes were made in the ordinance. First change regards the historic preservation commission as an advisory commission only.

The ordinance still provides for a historic district of approximately 90 properties, 50 years old and older, along Chicago Blvd. between Pearl and Sunset Sts. and on North Union to the creek, and south to Pottawatamie.

When a homowner applies for a building permit for rehabilitation of the home in the historic district, the historic preservation committee shall meet with the homeowner within 10 days and advise him on alternatives. The homeowner is not bound to comply with the advice.

Second change in the ordinance is addition of landmark designation which would allow any homeowner of a residence 50 years old or older to apply to have his home designated a landmark with the approval of the historic preservation commission and Tecumseh city council. If approved, the homeowner then obligates his home to review of further exterior alterations.

Guidelines for use of the historic preservation commission referred to, but not a part of the ordinance, are taken from the National Advisory Council on Historic Preservation.

TURTLES GO FAST — Barb McCann of The Cake Shoppe applies dipping chocolate and caramel to candy turtles which is one of the scrumptious recipes she teaches in holiday candy making classes. New classroom adjacent to original store doubles its size.

Yule Candies

by KATHY BROWN

"If you haven't felt like a queen before, you'll be one today when you take home your candy," Barb McCann, proprieter of The Cake Shoppe, said to one of her one-day candy making classes.

"Sweet assignment," I thought. As one of 10 women in the class, I observed the secrets of making dipped chocolates, bon-bons, cordials, fudge, mints and molded chocolate.

This story introduces a series the Herald hopes to continue through December on things people do for a homemade Christmas.

Why bother to make chocolate when you can buy them in the stores?

"Quality," Mrs. McCann replied. After sampling, one has to agree the freshness and flavor compares to the best. Several women stated it surpassed the best.

Other reasons for making them at home are that it is fun, easier and less expensive to make than one might expect.

Report 2 on Mend

Two Tecumseh businessmen, one injured in a truck-car collision, and a second from an apparent heart attack, are now reportedly making good recoveries.

Roger Proctor, local mortician, is now said to have suffered a heart attack while on a recent trip to northern Michigan. He returned home last week for two months rest after being hospitalized in Alpena General Hospital.

Roger Linger underwent surgery for the second time last week but is now reportedly making an excellent recovery at St. Joseph's Hospital. Linger was involved in a collision on Nov. 7 that killed a 20-year-old Adrian woman.

He suffered two broken legs, one a compund fracture, and internal injuries.

Complaints on Increase

Police handled a number of complaints the past week with incidents ranging from vandalism and theft to arrests caused by alcoholic drinking.

Nov. 20 — Randy Piercy, 402 Adrian St., reported his mail box damaged and post broken.

Nov. 21 — Tom Walters, 500 Blanchard, told police that a 10-speed bicycle, valued at $150, was stolen.

Nov. 22 — Judy McDowell, 317 N. Union, told officers that a vehicle had been driven across the lawn at Patterson school, damaging the sod. Similar vandalism was reported Sunday by Russell Hollenbuck, 400 Outer Dr., where a vehicle was driven across his lawn and his neighbor's at 308 Outer Dr..

Also during the weekend, a vehicle was driven over the curb from Herrick Park Dr. to Outer Dr.

Police believe it's the same vehicle that has done considerably yard damage in recent weeks, and the same one that extensively damaged a green at the Tecumseh Country Club.

Nov. 23 — James Tindall, 604 Conklin Dr., reported a CB radio, worth $200, was taken from his car.

Nov. 24 — Mary Lou Madrigal, 44, Ann Arbor, was arrested for driving on a suspended license after she forced a truck off E. Chicago Blvd. near the Community Center.

Nov. 25 — Harry Vischer, 9340 Newburg Rd., told police that clearance lights and side windows of his truck were shot out while the vehicle was parked at Hayden Fuel Supply on S. Evans St.

Nov. 27 — Frank O. Chase, 63, of 215 S. Evans, was arrested for driving while

Mini-Course Attendance Is Very Poor

School officials are looking into "viable alternatives" to the mini-course program held at Tecumseh High School.

Tecumseh School Board members discussed the courses at their regular monthly meeting last week.

Board members and school officials are concerned about flagging attendance at the courses, particularly last year's program.

According to Asst. Supt. Gene Cooley, the absentee rate for the first day of last year's three-day program was 34 percent. On the second day, there were 37 percent absent while 44 percent missed the third day.

Cooley stated that the absentee rate for normal day of school is five percent.

Principal Clarence Lacny stressed after the meeting that the mini-course program was not dead, but that "viable alternatives" are investigated.

One such alternative might be a career day, where students would explore various careers, training required, pay scales and opportunities.

Lacny intends to pursue that alternative as well as others.

LIKE FATHER. . .

LIKE SON. . .

That's our PLEDGE TO YOU in the PROCTOR TRADITION

As a small boy, I used to wonder why Dad couldn't spend more time with me. He seemed always to be working.

As I've grown up and observed his total dedication to funeral service and to the community affairs, I understand why. His dedication — and ours — calls for long hours, day and night. . . serving the families in their hour of need and applying ourselves to civic projects for your best interests.

I want to carry on in Dad's footsteps, offering the most complete and comforting funeral service possible. Our greatest reward will be to hear the words, "Like father, like son."

Spence-Sutherland United

Nancy Jane Spence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Spence Jr. of Brooklyn, formerly of Tecumseh and Thomas L. Sutherland son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sutherland, Waynesfeld, Ohio, were married by the Rev. Tim Miles at Faith Community Church near Manchester on Nov. 12 in a candlelight, double ring ceremony.

The bride chose a gown of candlelight satin and re-embroidered chantilly lace. Full Juliet sleeves with lace cuffs accented the ruffled yoke and lace of the bodice. Encircling the floor length satin skirt was the same lace and ruffle. A long chapel length lace-edged mantilla flowed from the matching lace and satin bridal cap.

The matron of honor, Kim Wyatt of Jackson, wore an empire waist, light blue, princess styled gown with royal blue velvet jacket.

Steve Lashell of Findlay, Ohio, served as best man. Ushers were William Spence, brother of the bride and Charles Sutherland, brother of the groom. Roger Knickerbocker of Clark Lake was the soloist.

Following a reception in the church social center, the couple left on a wedding trip to the Eastern states.

The bride is a 1971 graduate of Napoleon High School. The groom is a graduate of Waynesfield, Ohio High School and attended Lima Technical College where he received an associate degree in law enforcement. They plan to reside near Brooklyn.

Senior Citizens

Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

The always exciting evening grosbeaks stopped at Ella's first — they are apt to do this. Needless to say, however, as soon as she called to tell us who was visiting we began looking and hoping. Finally, on a bright sunny Sunday morning, Mom had the thrill of glancing out the west facing window and seeing not only a feeder, but also a tree full of these gayly colored birds.

What great birds these are and what a red letter day it is when they come calling.

Unfortunately there is nothing predictable about evening grosbeaks — some winters they appear in great hordes and are daily patrons at the feeders but another year they might not show up at all. Therefore, when they do come, it is a special treat.

This particular visit was a day long affair and while they seemed to enjoy themselves munching sunflower seeds and sunbathing in the nearby maples, there is no guarantee that they will favor us again. No guarantee that they won't either and that, of course, is one of the reasons a winter bird feeding program is such fun.

As the birds alternated between eating and resting Mom and I kept exclaiming. Truly they are strikingly beautiful birds.

Naturally any birds look like their best when the sun is bright but it seems to us that the grosbeaks really come into their own when they can find bright sunshine.

The books talk about the male having a black head but actually, it is a satiny black head highlighted by bright yellow 'horns' and, as the black goes down his back and front, it gradually shades into a rich dark Dijon mustard color. The female lacks the horns and her long head-hood is almost a silvery gray.

The size of the evening grosbeaks always comes as a surprise. So many of our winter birds are small — chickadees, titmice, juncos, and red-breasted nuthatches — that to see eight inch birds, who look even larger because of their short forked tails and heavy chunky bodies, is startling.

These tails by the way are black. their wings are black, too, but with large areas of white. Grosbeak is, of course, a most appropriate name as their bills are broad, oversized, and extremely strong. They are bone color.

As mentioned before, the flock spent most of the day munching sunflower seeds on the near-my-window feeders. And it was here that the little red squirrel blew all the 'brownie points' he had earned when he fought Gertie T's yarn ball.

That was such a cute thing to watch — this tiny character worked so hard to rip apart a ball many many times larger than he was.

He would haul it up on the limb, get a good hold with his mouth, and then tug. It was hard work.

As he braced himself on the limb and pulled or jerked at the nylon mesh, we could just see him getting madder and madder.

And then, of course, after a while he was visibly tired. After taking the yarn ends to his nest hole and coming back for another mouthful, he had to sit down and rest a few moments. Imagine, Little Red resting!

Once, when catching his breath, his front paw slipped and he almost lost his balance. As he caught himself he jerked upright, braced himself with one front paw, and clutched the other to his breast. We could almost hear him sigh, "Oh my."

But all those good thoughts about Little Red were quickly erased when he repeatedly disrupted the evening grosbeaks' feasting. It was almost as though he could not stand to see both feeders crowded with the large yellow, black, and white birds.

He would come tearing down a tree trunk, jump to the top of the creek bank, highball across the yard, and streak up the feeder post. When he gained the food trays, birds exploded in all directions.

They did not stay away long but there was no need for them to be disturbed in the first place. Little Red was simply back to his old nasty self again.

New Hostess for Welcome Wagon

Mary Sue Ferraro, 2686 Coach Lite Dr. is the new Welcome Wagon hostess, succeeding Sandy Titus.

Mrs. Ferraro represents 13 area businesses with information and gifts for newcomers to Tecumseh.

If any business would like to be a sponsor or if anyone knows a new resident or is a new Tecumseh resident, they may call Mrs. Ferraro at 423-5828.

Mrs. Ferraro and her husband, Anthony have three children, Keith, 16, Brian, 13, and Alyssa, 12. Mr. Ferraro works for Hoover Ball Bearing, Saline. The family has lived in Tecumseh for three years.

Mrs. Ferraro served as Welcome Wagon president last year and is a member of the Town and Country Garden Club. She completed her three days of group training with other new hostesses in Ann Arbor last week.

NEW WELCOME WAGON HOSTESS — Mary Sue Ferraro, left, is the new hostess of the Tecumseh Welcome Wagon replacing Sandra Titus. Ferraro welcomes newcomers to the city, like Connie Carlson, right, with gifts and information from 13 local merchants and sponsors. If you are a newcomer or have a new neighbor from out of town, contact Ferraro at 423-5828.

Club Marks 32 Years

The Northeast Tecumseh Extension Study Club, organized 32 years ago, qualifies as one of the "standard clubs" in the Tecumseh area. Its history is the history of homemaking in Tecumseh for over 32 years.

On September evening in 1945, a small group of women gathered at the home of Mrs. Gail Austin, 6989 Stone Hwy. to organize an Extension Club for the purpose lessons on homemaking skills and social meetings.

Officers selected at the meeting were Mrs. Gail Austin, president and leader; Mrs. Ellsworth Robison, second leader; Mrs. Wilbur Boyce, secretary and treasurer. Mrs. John Quigley and Mrs. Mervyn Boltz were members.

First meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Quigley on Macon Rd. in October. Dues were 10 cents per month, meetings were held on the third Monday of the month and charter members included:

Mrs. Wilbur Boyce, Mrs. Ellsworth Robison, Mervyn Boltz, Mrs. Lyle Grigg, Mrs. Herbert Cleveland, Mrs. Gail Austin, Mrs. John Quigley, Mrs. Harold Kempf, Mrs. Frank Csokasy and Mrs. Harold Baker.

First lesson was improve your kitchen cupboards. Some other lessons that were given were: time saved is money saved, making lamp shades, dress forms, lawns and shrubs, meals for middle years, wills and descent of property, glove making, you and your clothes.

Throughout the years, the lessons were of similar titles and updated.

New members through 1955 were: Mrs. Robert Stone, Mrs. Lavern Murphy, Mrs. Elmer Wilt, Mrs. Boomer, Mrs. Clifford Southard, Mrs. Wayne Blanchard, Mrs. Elmer House, Mrs. Marvin Fansher, Mrs. George Dinius, Mrs. Richard Sherman, Mrs. Marvin Johnson, Mrs. Edward Bailey, Mrs. Charles Manley, Mrs. Raymond Bird, Mrs. Lester Ruhl, Mrs. Barbara Brown, Mrs. Virgil Chumney, Mrs. E.L. Wright, Mrs. Tom Smith.

In 1951, the club was asked to present a program on extension work over WABJ radio, a different experience for the homemakers.

One year two ladies choose pen pals from foreign countries. Another year clothing was gathered for needy children in Tecumseh. In 1953, a window display was made in Tecumseh for "achievement day." Projects during the year were shown.

Parties were planned for patients at Maple Lane Manor and the Lenawee Medical Facilities. They participated in conservation tours, college day, Christmas workshops and May teas.

Special lessons were held on glass etching, cake decorating, ceramics, Christmas decorations. Other study groups were entertained and guest speakers and films were sponsored.

From 1955-65 a number of members left the club or moved away. An average of 10-12 members met until new members joined in the 1970's, Mrs. Fredrick Helm, Mrs. Truman Rentschler, Mrs. Lois Snyder, Mrs. Edward Stoelt, Mrs. Ellis Honeycutt and Mrs. Charles Koob.

Meetings are now held on the fourth Tuesday of the month. Dues are no longer 10 cents, but nominal. Mrs. Charles Koob will host the Nov. 22 meeting. Several members are still serving on the county council which coordinates the county wide and area extension study club meetings.

Couple Wed by Candlelight

The candlelit altar at the Tecumseh Evangelical Friends Church was the setting Nov. 19, for the wedding uniting Jacqueline Marie Chase and Gale Bruce Spohr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ashley E. Chase of Tecumseh and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Spohr of Adrian.

The double-ring ceremony was written by the bride and groom and the Rev. A. Dane Ruff officiated. Mrs. Loren Avery was the organist and the bride and groom sang to each other.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father wearing a gown of white polyester chantilace. The bodice was made of lace with a stand-up collar edged with ruffles. The long sleeves were of lace and the cuff was edged with dainty ruffles. The A-line skirt had the apron look of lace. Wide chantilace edged the chapel train hemline. Matching chapel length veil was edged in chantilace.

She wore a heart shaped diamond necklace, a gift from the groom. She carried a cascade of white daisies, peach sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

Cherilyn Spohr of Adrian, the groom's sister, was the maid of honor. She wore a peach doubleknit halter dress with a sheer print ruffled cape. Dress styling of the bridesmaids was identical to the maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Carlton Parker of Brooklyn, bride's cousin, in nile green; Barbara Henning of Tecumseh in light blue; Jan Wilson of Tecumseh in yellow.

Junior bridesmaid was Carrie Chase of Tecumseh, bride's sister, in pink. Flower girl was Dawn Radant of Tecumseh, bride's cousin. She wore a pink crepe dress edged in lace.

Gary Spohr of Ellensburg, Wash. was his brother's best man. Ushers were Jim Vaughn of Tecumseh, Bob Ahleman of Blissfield, and Doug Chase of Tecumseh, bride's brother.

Junior groomsman was Rodney Greve of Ortonville. Matthew Avery of Boise, Idaho, the groom's cousin, was the ring bearer.

The reception was held at Peerless Gear Union Hall for 400 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Austin Brockway of Toledo and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Avery of Tecumseh were hosts.

Servers were Roxanna Cook, Lynn DeJonghe, Sheryl Bugbee, and Andrea Phillips, all of Tecumseh. Mrs. Gary Spohr attended the guest book.

The new Mrs. Spohr is a 1975 graduate of Tecumseh High School and a 1977 graduate of Cleary College with an associate degree in business administration. She is employed as a legal secretary for Joseph Conklin. Her husband is a 1972 graduate of Britton-Macon High School and a 1974 graduate of ITT Technical Institute with an associate degree in electronics engineering technology. He is employed by the Adrian College plant department.

Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, they will make their home in Britton.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents in their home.

MR. and MRS. GALE B. SPOHR

MRS. DALE E. FORSYTH

Linda Gerten and Dale Forsyth Wed

Linda J. Gerten and Dale E. Forsyth were married at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church Nov. 11 at 7 p.m. before the altar decorated with Boston ferns and white carnations.

Msgr. Vincent J. Howard officiated at the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gerten of 9586 Tonneberger Dr. and the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Forsyth, 407 E. Logan.

Sharon Svestka was the organist and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gerten, the bride's brother and sister-in-law sang with Fred Gerten, also the bride's brother.

For her wedding the bride wore a white gown of sheer polyester organza lined with taffeta. It featured a wedding band collar with empire bodice and long lace sleeves. The train, trimmed with Venice lace, was attached with a large bow.

Her jewelry was a Linde and diamond necklace, a gift from the groom. Her fingertip veil was attached to a Camelot hat trimmed with lace.

Peach silk roses and white and peach tipped silk carnations fashioned her bouquet.

Mrs. Roy Schlegel, the bride's sister of Adrian, was the matron of honor wearing a peach empire, long sleeved gown, trimmed in lace. Her headdress was of dried and peach silk flowers and she carried a basket arranged with the same.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. John LaVoy, the groom's sister of Blissfield, Mrs. Greg Hoffman of Weston and Mrs. Jeff Langham of St. John's.

They were gowned in orange and carried baskets of matching flowers.

Flower girls were Kimberly Gerten of Virginia Beach, Va., and Andrea Gerten of Battle Creek, the bride's nieces.

They were gowned in peach cotton and polyester trimmed in white with eyelet lace and orange ribbon. They wore halos of dried peach flowers and carried matching flowers in baskets.

Dean Forsyth, the groom's brother of Columbus, Ohio was best man.

Ushers were Fred Gerten of Ypsilanti and Ed Gerten of Tecumseh, the bride's brothers and Greg Hoffman of Weston. Troy Gerten, the bride's nephew of Virginia Beach, Va. was the ring bearer.

A reception was held at the United Products Workers Union Hall for 500 guests. Hurricane lamps in flower wreaths decorated the bride's table. White linen tablecloth was trimmed with orange bows and ribbons.

Donna Roe and Jill Forsyth, the groom's cousin, assisted at the reception.

The couple was graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1973.

The new Mrs. Forsyth is employed by the Michigan Department of State, Secretary of State Office, Tecumseh. Mr. Forsyth is employed by the United Parcel Service, Adrian.

The couple resides at 640 Budlong St. in Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. James Forsyth, the groom's parents, hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Country House.

Communion Breakfast

A rose was placed on the Tecumseh United Methodist Church's Altar honoring the birth of Patricia Ann Hatch on Nov. 19 to Brad and Vickie Hatch of Sandusky, Ohio. Grandparents are the Raymond Hatchs.

Michelle Lynn Pratt, daughter of the John Pratts, was baptized during the morning worship service.

Next Sunday at 7 a.m. the United Methodist Men will have a Communion Breakfast in the fellowship hall.

'American Indians' Are Theme for Pack 32

"American Indians" was the November theme for Pack 32 of Birdsall monday evening.

The parents saw all of the Cubs dressed in their Indian costumes made of leather, paints, bells and feathers.

Den 2 presented the opening flag ceremony. Den 3 put on a Indian skit and Webeloes Den 1 told how the Indians lived.

Awards were presented to the following: Bradley Scudder, bobcat patch; Brian Slusarski, wolf patch and gold arrow; Steve Eberle, gold arrow, silver arrow and citizens pin; Arthur Garcia, bear patch, citizen's pin and engineer pin; David Holdridge, bear patch, gold arrow, silver arrow and two year pin; Kevin Robinson, citizen's pin; Bill Gove, Webeloes award, citizens pin, outdoorsman pin and his arrow of light award.

Macon Montage

By Sharon Connors

MACON — The first snow storm of the winter is always exciting. Luckily it came this year after Thanksgiving and didn't hamper the many family gatherings in the Macon area.

A dozen roses with a card "Go Blue" and a sugar bowl with a card "Go Buckeyes" was the centerpiece on the table that greeted the Ohio relatives at the Connors home on Thanksgiving. Pat Jr. provided the arrangement which got the family gathering off to a great start.

The Elwood Bush family had 28 people gathered for Thanksgiving dinner. It was a red letter day as all 12 of Elwood and Peggy's children were either there for dinner or stopped in at sometime during the day.

Peggy's brother, Steven Wood and family were there, Ed May from new Hampshire came with Paul and neighbors, Deed and Jim Eldridge were also with them for the day.

While all were there a family picture was taken. Peggy's grandmother was one of 12 children, six boys and six girls and a picture of that group inspired a similar picture to be taken of the Bush family.

The John Keller family had dinner on the holiday at Cathy's sister and husband's Mr. and Mrs. Bob Peltier in Detroit.

Community Art Group Organizes

CLINTON — "Your Arts Group" was the name selected for a community arts group by those who attended an organizational meeting at the Clinton Local, Nov. 19.

Those attending the founding session included Mary Ann Hunter and Mary Pauline Hunter, the hostesses, and Paul Buck, Gay Cates and Carol Christensen.

The group discussed offering classes in a variety of art forms — such as folk dancing, guitar and banjo, print making and others, as volunteer teachers become available.

Plans were made to begin registration for classes, Jan. 1, workshops, art exhibits, drama or dance presentations for summer of 1978 and participation in the Fall Festival.

For information or suggestions call 456-4100.

Deadline Is December 24

CLINTON — Deadline for filing petitions for village offices is Dec. 20 at 4 p.m.

Candidates must state their political party. If any office has more than one person filing for that position, in the same party, a primary election must be held on Feb. 20. Regular election is March 13, 1978.

Offices to be filled are: president, clerk, treasurer, three council trustees, assessor, and two trustees of the Smith-Kimball Community Center board.

Mitten Round-up

CLINTON — Clinton Area Jaycettes are sponsoring a mitten roundup for needy children.

Homemade or purchased mittens may be left in a drop box in the State Savings Bank in Clinton through Dec. 12.

Distribution of the mittens will be made through the schools.

Jaycettes at a recent meeting, approved the purchase of two tables and four chairs for the kindergarten rooms.

Kindergarten teachers Anne Erickson and Margaret Heimerdinger expressed thanks.

A children's Christmas party was tentatively planned.

Jaycettes will assist the Jaycees with a Red Cross Bloodmobile in Clinton Middle School, Dec. 12 from noon to 6 p.m.

Mother Hosts Baby Shower

CLINTON — Mrs. Ivan McKenna, Homer, was guest of honor at a baby shower, Saturday, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Merval Mattis.

Co-hostesses were her sisters, Mrs. Robert Saul of LaSalle and Mrs. David Nixon of Chicago.

Among the 20 guests were her mother-in-law, Mrs. Paul McKenna, Sand Lake; aunts, Mrs. Harold Walz of Harper Woods; Mrs. Roy Saul, Mrs. Harvey Saul and Mrs. Ernest Barron of Monroe; Myrtle Mattis of Adrian; Mrs. Ralph McGuire, Adrian; sisters-in-law, Mrs. Dennis Bowman, Tecumseh and Mrs. Dwight McKenna, Ann Arbor; Mrs. William Gray, Westland and Yvonne Marine, Palmyra.

Yellow centerpiece featured a giraffe motif with a matching mobile floating from the chandelier. Pumpkin pie, coffee and punch were served.

Variety of baby gifts opened by the honored guest, included many handmade articles, surprisingly most in shades of yellow and green.

Answers To Some Questions About Guaranteed Direct Deposit Of Social Security Checks.

What is guaranteed direct deposit?

Guaranteed direct deposit means your check will be deposited in your account by the third business day of every month. You know it's in your account-we GUARANTEE it's there. You no longer have to wait for a deposit receipt or a statement to verify the deposit.

What are the advantages of direct deposit?

There are several. First you have no problem cashing your check because it goes directly into your account. Second, you don't have to make a special trip to the bank and stand in line to cash or deposit your check. Third, even if you are away from home, your check will be deposited instead of sitting in your mailbox. Fourth, the bank guarantees that these funds are in your account on the third business day of every month. Fifth and perhaps most important, you'll never have to worry about losing your check or having it stolen from your mailbox.

Suppose I change my mind about direct deposit?

You can cancel your direct deposit authorization at any time by notifying the Social Security Administration. Of course, you can still maintain your bank account if you choose.

What happens if the amount of my Social Security benefits changes?

Social Security will notify you at your home address of any changes in your benefits or in the Social Security program.

If I move, do I have to notify Social Security or will the bank do it?

If you move, you must notify Social Security of your new address and/or banking relationship. The bank cannot do this for you.

How do I sign up for guaranteed direct deposit?

Stop in at any office of the United Savings Bank and fill out the forms authorizing the bank to receive and guarantee deposit of your checks.

Lori Escott and Gregory Hamilton Wed

Nuptial vows were recited by Lori M. Escott and Gregory J. Hamilton, Saturday evening before the Rev. John Roach in Grace United Methodist Church, Britton.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Escott, 5517 Billmyer Rd.

He is the son of Mrs. Herman Bethel, Adrian, and the late Paul Hamilton.

Peggy Raeburn was the soloist. Dan Brooks was the soloist to his own guitar accompaniment.

Altar vases held rust and brown fall flowers for the candlelight ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown featuring a scoop neckline appliqued with lace at neckline, hem and sheer long sleeves.

Her diamond necklace was a gift of the groom, and she wore her great grandmother's ruby ring. Her veil of illusion was held by a lace tiara. She carried a cascade of orange sweetheart roses and mums with satin leaves.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Chris Stanifer of Del Rio, Texas, sister of the bride, wore beige Qiana gown with a floral crepe overlay in autumn shades. She carried a wicker basket of fall flowers in brown and rust shades.

Identically gowned, the bridal attendants were Mrs. Bradley Hamilton, Clinton, sister-in-law of groom; Debbie Rodgers; and junior bridesmaid, Cherie Escott, sister of bride.

Flower girl was Nicole Stanifer of Del Rio, Texas, niece of the bride.

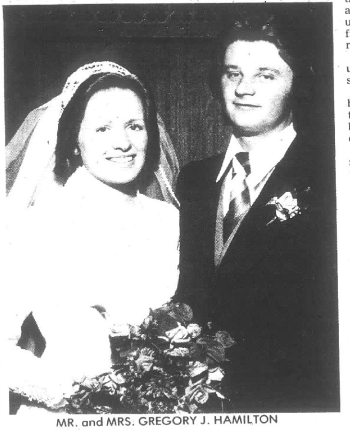
James Pilbeam was best man. Ushers were Chris Stanifer, Del Rio, Texas, brother-in-law of bride; Brad Hamilton, Clinton, brother of groom; Randy Reitz, Britton; Jeffrey Escott, and Steven Escott, brothers of the bride.

Reception at the United Products Workers Union Hall was attended by 300 guests. Amy Durkin assisted at the reception.

The new Mrs. Hamilton is a 1976 graduate of Tecumseh high school and is employed at DST, Inc., Clinton. Mr. Hamilton is a 1972 graduate of Britton-Macon high school and employed by Cunningham and Gooding Construction.

Upon their return for a wedding trip in Canada, the couple will reside at 6855 Hack Rd., Saline.

Rehearsal dinner was held at the Country House, hosted by the groom's mother.



MR. and MRS. GREGORY J. HAMILTON

Mrs. Santa on Wheels

Mrs. Santa Claus will be on wheels this year as she pays visits to Sutton School, Herrick Nursing Home and children's ward at Herrick Hospital, as well as other Christmas programs where she may be invited.

Wheel-chair bound Mrs. Bonnie Sniffen, 704 Occidental Rd., is having a red fur-trimmed costume made by Evalyn Halberstadt and is getting enthused about the fun she'll be having this holiday season.

She'll be accompanied by a "little elf," 12-year-old Jeff Hawkins.

This Christmas spirited woman would appreciate having folks call 423-4750 if they have a program in mind that she might attend as Mrs. Santa Claus. Of course, there is no charge for her visit.

intoxicated after police observed him weaving on W. Chicago Blvd.

On the evening of Nov. 26, Preston B. Boswell, 18, of 223 N. Evans, was arrested for drunk and disorderly and taken to the county jail. He and James J. Moore, 21, of 211 Chippewa, had been fighting earlier on S. Evans St. and both were told to go home. Neither did. Later, Moore was arrested after midnight on a charge of drunk and disorderly and also was taken to the county jail.

Request Granted

Tecumseh School Board last week granted the request of the Tecumseh Band Boosters and Chamber of Commerce to use school facilities for band field competition next summer.

Permission was granted to use the athletic fields and some classroom areas.

According to Tecumseh band director, Jimmie Rice, there will be around eight to 12 bands invited for the field competition.

The competition will be sanctioned by the Michigan Competition Band Directors Association, which will furnish the judges and forms.

The Competition is planned for June 29.

Tressler Appointed

Pat Tressler was appointed by the Tecumseh School board last week to serve as a representative of the board in discussing a community auditorium.

THE NEW PATIENT I.D. cards will contain your name and hospital number on the top line. The second line gives the name of your doctor and your date of birth.

A LOOK INSIDE
Herrick Hospital

BY
KATHY BAILEY, R.N.
RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

Several weeks ago we spoke about the importance of obtaining accurate patient identification information in the admitting office.

Accuracy is essential in order for the hospital staff to obtain payment from insurance carriers, route reports to your doctor and retrieve and file your medical records. Such accuracy is seldom a problem in the admitting office.

But it is quite a different story at the out-patient desk at 8 a.m. during the week. Large numbers of people are registered each day for X-rays and lab tests.

In fact the number reaches up to 35,000 registrations in a year. And many of these are people whom we register several times during the year. With such numbers the chance of a misspelled name of incorrect insurance number is great.

Recently, the hospital board of trustees purchased equipment designed to help us ensure the accuracy of patient information and to help speed services to our patients.

Manufactured by Addressograph Multigraph Corporation, one machine embosses information on plastic cards (like a credit card) and the other set of machines stamps the information from the card onto paper forms.

Your own personal Herrick Memorial Hospital I.D. card will be prepared for you when you come to the hospital. You will be given the blue plastic card to carry with you and to bring back whenever you need to return to Herrick Hospital.

The top line of the card will contain your name and your hospital identification number. The second line will give the name of your doctor and your date of birth.

Use of the card each time you come to Herrick Hospital will help us a great deal. The time saved by nurses by not having to handwrite your name many times is time that can be spent caring for you. Use of the cards will help promote accuracy for us and will help speed service to you.

THE PLASTIC CARDS are embossed by a machine called a "graphotype", as demonstrated by Mrs. Edna Sager of the Out-Patient department.

Extension Club Meets

The Northeast Tecumseh Extension Club met last Tuesday with nine members and one guest, Mrs. Charles Nicoloi of Texas present.

Roll call was answered with "My Energy Saver."

Mrs. Fredrick Helm gave the lesson "Dressing for 18 degrees C."

The remainder of the evening was spent working on cultural arts.

Hostess, Mrs. Charles Koob, served lunch.

Next meeting and Christmas party will be held Dec. 19 at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ellsworth Robison.

Christmas Decorations

A good place to start an old-fashioned Christmas is with live greenery—holly, mistletoe, boxwood, pine and fir—brightened with fruit or red ribbon.

One simple decoration, part of Dutch Christmas tradition, recalls the legend of the three bags of gold that St. Nicholas gave to three young women as their dowry.

Decoration combines pine sprigs and three oranges representing bags of gold. Pine sprigs are bundled with florist wire at the branch end. Oranges are embedded with wire and attached to the pine.

A more elaborate decoration, popular in the mid-1800s, is the kissing bell. Made of boxwood, mistletoe, candles and apples suspended with yarn, the bell provided an excuse for young couples to exchange a kiss as they tried to take a bite from the apples.

Other traditional decorations, easy to make, include dried flower wreaths and delarobbia wreaths in assorted fruits, wired to boughs.

Complete instructions are in the November- December issue of the Historical Society of Michigan Newsletter. It also lists thee trimming workshops, Christmas walks and other Christmas activities throughout the state.

Copies are available for $1 each from the Historical Society of Michigan, 2117 Washtenaw Ave., Ann Arbor, 48104.

Music Club 'Celebrates Life' Program

"Celebrate Life" was the November program of the Tecumseh Music Club at the Missionary Baptist Church with 21 members present.

"The Sunshine" chorus of 16 girls from the First Baptist Church was led by Mrs. Douglas McLeod in song and dance.

After the performance, the club met at the home of Mrs. Edwin Walters. President Mrs. Richard Broniman led the meeting. Mrs. Donald Bush was co-hostess. The Tecumseh Music Club is affiliated with the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Howard Named

Siena Heights College has announced the appointment of Charlotte Howard as director of public information.

She attended the College of Saint Teresa, Winona, Minnesota, and was graduated in 1956 from Marquette University with a B.S. in Journalism. She has been a copywriter for a Milwaukee, Wisconsin publishing company; held staff positions on daily newspapers in her home state of Montana, and prior to moving to Adrian this summer, was for three years a corporate buyer-analyst with The Mogul Corporation, Chagrin Falls, Ohio.

Mrs. Howard succeeds Barbara Tice who has joined the staff of Siena Height's External Degree Program in Southfield, Michigan.

'Messiah' at Adrian

The melodic strains of Handel's "Messiah" will herald the arrival of the Adrian College Christmas season Dec. 4 at 8 p.m. in the chapel on campus.

Four guest soloists will join the Adrian choir and chamber orchestra.

Conductor is Dr. Gerald R. Doan, assistant professor of music at Adrian.

Soloists for the performance are Jeanette Dagger, a soprano from Detroit; Elanor Felver, an alto from Windsor, Ont., Can; Philip Mooney, a tenor from Pontiac; and John Henkel, a bass from Ann Arbor.

The "Messiah" was first performed in Dublin, Ireland, in April, 1742 and in London, England, in 1743. It was during the London program that the expressive music first brought the audience to their feet and began the custom of rising during the performance of the "Hallelujah Chorus."

The public is invited. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

New Projector at Library

Movie lovers note. Tecumseh Public Library now has a 16 mm film projector available to rent to residents of the Tecumseh school district.

Chosen by the library for its durability and simplicity, the new projector is available overnight for $5 and weekends for $10.

"We expect the projector will be used in many ways," stated librarian Deborah Harris. "People may borrow it to show movies to the family or to provide entertainment at parties. Businesses, clubs, churches, and other organizations could also use it at meetings and training sessions."

Before checking out the projector, all operators must go through a brief orientation with a library staff member.

Projector may be reserved by calling 423-2238.

Library hours are Monday through Wednesday 1-9 and Thursday through Saturday 9-6.

Values Told to Women

Speaking to the American Association of University Women in Tecumseh recently, Bev Widegren of Women — Agents for Change presented a video tape program that stressed the importance of values as the basis for behavior chance in society.

The program was developed by Dr. Morris E. Massey of the University of Colorado. He presented a fast paced review of American society over the past 60 years and the effect on the developing personalities and value systems of each new generation of Americans.

He stated that at age 21 and over, basic values are locked in, unless individuals are changed by significant emotional events.

Dr. Massey feels that only when society understands and deals with value judgments can it begin to improve communication, understand motivation and cope with change.

Fisher Body plant in Tecumseh is working with educational systems to develop career education based on knowledge of themselves and occupations available to them.

In connection with this cooperative effort, the Massey tapes are being loaned to community members by the Fisher Body plant and coordinated through the career education office at the Lenawee Area Vocational Center.

Barbara Blanden hosted the meeting.

Rotary, Kiwanis To Man Kettles

Tecumseh Rotary and Kiwanis will man the Salvation Army kettles in Tecumseh on Dec. 15, 16, 17. It was recently announced by county chairman, Milton C. Porter.

Tecumseh police will set their own schedule for the days they will be at the Clark gas station.

Goal is $10,000. Theme is a "happy Christmas for every child in Lenawee County."

Kenneth McElroy of Tecumseh also serves the committee.

4-H Square Dance Dec. 3

Lenawee 4-H Square Dance Committee will have a square dance, Dec. 3 from 8-11 p.m., at the Morenci Community Center.

Contact Cathy Clement 263-8831, ext. 298 for more information.

Director Speaks to Group

The Lenawee County Citizens for Reasonable Taxation met Nov. 7 at the Lenawee County Vo-Tec Center.

David Jaeger, the equalization director for Lenawee County was the speaker. He described how his office attempts to equalize taxes not only among citizens but between industrial and commercial properties as well.

He informed the group that the state constitution states that property taxes cannot be assessed on more than 50 percent of the true cash value of a property.

However, he added, property taxes can be assessed on less than 50 percent of true cash value. This is seldom done because somewhere along the line someone would have to make up the amount that would be lacking.

He used slides of a typical sales report to show how some property was actually assessed at less than 50 percent of true market value, while some was assessed at quite a bit more than 50 percent.

It is his job, he added, to equalize these two sets of figures to ensure reasonable amounts of taxes are paid by everyone.,

Next meeting of the Lenawee County Citizens for Reasonable Taxation will be Jan. 16, at Onsted High School. The public is invited.

Livestock Association Holds Banquet

The Lenawee County Junior Livestock Association held its annual banquet at Blissfield high school Nov. 10.

Kevin Barrett, Tammy Fisher and Fran Vincent, local 4-H youth who serve as association teen directors assisted in the program presentation and banquet attended by approximately 500 persons. Nancy Pape led the 4-H pledg.

Election of 1977-78 teen directors from local area are: sheep-Kent Rhora; swine-Tony Rebottaro, Ann Rundell.

Local area adults elected to serve as directors were: sheep-Jack Barrett; swine-Jay Fisher; beef-Ralph Tillotson.

Awards were presented to the following area youth who have earned them thru their 4-H or FFA projects:

Beef-Mark Tillotson, Fran Vincent, Donna Roehm, Roger Roehm, Janet Williams and Tammy Fisher.

Sheep-Melinda Bortel, Jackie Bortel, Kent Rhora, Arrin Schroeder, Wes Loesch and Mark Johnston.

Swine-Eddie Fisher and John Marks.

The business report was given by Jay Fisher, association executive treasurer.

In 1976-77 total sheep sold was 143, $14,599; total swine sold was 161, $27,650; total beef sold was 160, $99,210.

Total 1976-77 livestock sale was $141,460 compared to 1975-76 total livestock sale of $120,924.

Dave, Irwin, president, detailed the successful year of 4-H project parents.

The Lenawee County Junior Livestock Association is 4-H and FFA members who have paid 2½ percent commission on sale of market livestock projects at the annual junior livestock sale at the fair.

The major purpose of the association is to provide educational activities to all of its members so that they may better understand the livestock industry today.

The Lenawee county fair junior livestock sale provides the last and one of the most valuable lessons in sheep, swine and beef projects.

The actual marketing of the animal is where the livestock industry is encouraged or lost.

Gary Maska and fellow hunters returned home without a deer late Saturday afternoon from a four-day hunting trip to Wetmore in the Upper Peninsula. Trip was not a total loss though as Gary and friends looked up Gary's one-time coach, Jim Landfair in Munising. Landfair left the Britton-Macon schools about 1972 to become head basketball and golf coach in the Munising School system on Lake Superior. He took the boys on a tour of the school.

Guest Speaker at B-M PTO

BRITTON — Ken Wilhelm from the Call Someone Concerned-Crisis Walk-in Center of Adrian talked at the Nov. 21 PTO meeting held in the Britton-Macon High School.

Wilhelm talked on "Drug Abuse" and answered questions from the audience.

Ann Creger's third grade class received $10 for most parents present. Money will be used to purchase something for the class.

Parent-Teacher conference will be held for elementary grades on Dec. 7.

Next meeting will be the high school open house Jan. 16 at 7:30 p.m.

Elections Are Held

The Southeastern Michigan Invitational Youth Convention, formerly known as the Lenawee County Youth Convention was held Nov. 14 at Dawson Auditorium, Adrian.

Jeanne Schroeder of Britton, chaired the meeting. Mark Phelan of Tecumseh was parliamentarian.

The convention rules were adopted in the morning session. Other officers of the convention and the issues were voted upon during the second session.

The Panama Canal issue and government censorship of sex and violence on television were both rejected.

Special interest group meetings and resolution caucuses filled the bulk of the afternoon.

After supper the resolutions were presented before the convention along with elections of next year's chairman and parliamentarian.

Doug McMunn of Sand Creek was elected chairman and Jim Wilson of Sand Creek was elected parliamentarian.

The convention is held annually to promote governmental interest among students by a simulated convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Cowen of Britton observed their silver wedding anniversary on Nov. 27. Doris Harvey and Robert Cowen were married Nov. 26, 1952 at the Tecumseh Presbyterian Church by the Rev. George E. Walworth. They were honored with a dinner at the Gandy Dancer, Ann Arbor, given by their children, Brad, Candy, and Mr. and Mrs. Greg Cowen, of Britton. A family gathering later that evening included their grandchildren, Melanie and Derek Cowen and relatives from Tecumseh, Clinton and Tipton.

Lauren and Bryon Gall Get Deer

BRITTON — Lauren and Byron Gall didn't have to go far to get their deer this year.

Lauren bagged his deer on opening day and Byron got his on the last day of deer season Wednesday.

The brothers were hunting on the Bill Bartenslager farm at Onsted.

REV. and MRS. COFFEY

Evangelistic Crusade Set

RIDGEWAY — Pastor James Stephenson announced that the Rev. and Mrs. Russell Coffey and family will conduct an evangelistic crusade Dec. 6-11, 7 p.m. each evening at the Ridgeway Church of The Nazarene, 6886 Ridge Hwy.

After completing work at both Owosso and Spring Arbor College, the Coffeys entered full time crusade work. Since then they have been actively engaged in camp meetings, area wide crusades, retreats, revival crusades, and youth campaigns. The Coffeys travel widely throughout the United States.

A Bible message and music will be part of the nightly program. Public is invited.

Filing Deadline

BRITTON — Dec. 20 is the deadline for filing petitions for village offices for the March 13, 1978 village election.

Petitions may be picked up at the home of Village Clerk Dorothy Hindes at 347 E. Chicago Blvd.

Britton Women's Clubs Meeting

BRITTON — Six Lenawee County Federation of Women's Club's officers and seven Macon Woman's Club officers were guests of the Britton Women's Club Nov. 15 meeting at the Congregational Christian Church. A turkey dinner was served on decorated tables in keeping with the Thanksgiving theme.

Guest Erma Ward, a Methodist Conference officer, from Milan was introduced by program chairman Lillian Kniffen. She spoke about the need of homemade cookies and volunteers at the Ypsilanti State Hospital, and thanked all for their help in the past.

Topic of Mrs. Ward's talk was "Smells," ones that she remembered as a child and her adult life.

President Thelma Frayer opened the meeting and introduced the guests. Pledge to the U.S. flag and Michigan flag were given, followed by the collect in unison.

Iva Bishop honored four members with birthdays in November.

Group singing was led by Melva Kanous with Linda Hawk at the piano.

Club voted to give $5 each to the Indian Fund, Music, Goodwill LARC and to Girls' Town.

President Frayer suggested the club send a representative to a meeting of Enviromental Council of Lenawee (ECOL).

"Thank you" letters were received from Marilyn Ries, Verna Swick and Fred Schober.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Frances Eberhardt Dec. 20 at 1:30 p.m. Members are asked to bring cookies, fruits or treats for shut-ins. Esther Seegert and Gladys Prill will be in charge of Christmas boxes.

Program "Christian Christmas Symbols" will be chaired by Nellie Barrett.

ANNUAL CAMP FIRE CANDY SALE will be held in Britton Dec. 4-14 by the above girls, l-r, Heather Dick, Blue Bird; Andrea Bower, first year Adventure; Dawn Crawford, Discovery; and Sharon Wielfaert, first year Horizon. Along with assortment of candies, cheese will be sold in refillable ironstone crocks. Girls get a certain percent profit from sales which goes into their treasury.

BRITTON — A cradle shower in honor of Mrs. Gary Judkins was held Sunday afternoon in the Deerfield State Bank hall. Hostesses were Mrs. Gary Maska, Julie Reau, Allison Judkins and Pam Starks.

Stork bingo and other games were played by the 35 guests. Door prize was won by Betty Stotler.

Refreshments were served from a table decorated in pink and blue and featured a cake decorated for the occasion by the honored guest's mother, Mrs. Urvin Reau.

Businessmen Hold Election

BRITTON — Doris Goble was elected president at the Nov. 21 meeting of the Britton Businessmen's Association.

Other officers elected were: Bud Lorenz, vice-president and Nina Bower, secretary-treasurer. Glen Gripton, Anna Bryan and Nina Bower are on the Flower Committee.

President Dick Dembinsky conducted the business meeting.

Any business which would like to join the association should pay dues of $7 by Dec. 12 to Treasurer Nina Bower.

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

Hope you had a pleasant Thanksgiving weekend. Here is the start of the special Christmas cookie lineup, with more planned for next week. Try them, they are great.

These Hidden Cherry Cookies from Bev Fuchs were a big hit with my family and a must on my Christmas cookie menu.

HIDDEN CHERRIES

½ cup margarine
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1½ tsp. vanilla
1½ cup flour
½ cup cocoa
¼ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. baking powder
¼ tsp. soda
1 (10 ounce) jar maraschino cherries, drained.

ICING

1 cup semi-sweet chocolate chips
½ cup Eagle Brand sweetened condensed milk
¼ tsp. salt
1½ tsp. cherry juice

Cream margarine, sugar, egg and vanilla. Add flour, cocoa, salt, baking powder and baking soda. Batter will be quite dry. Work with hands to mix well. Shape into small balls, place each on greased cookie sheet. Top each cookie with a whole maraschino cherry and press cherry firmly into cookie. Mix icing in saucepan and heat until chips are melted. Icing will be quite thick.

Frost cherries with icing BEFORE baking. Bake 350 degrees for 8-10 minutes. Delicious.

Note: Any leftover icing makes delicious fudge.

Sue Halstead from Britton sent this recipe for pecan bars, a rich chewy, delicious cookie.

PECAN PIE SURPRISE BARS

1 package yellow cake mix
½ cup margarine
1 egg
1 cup chopped pecans
1/3 cup brown sugar
1½ cup corn syrup
3 more eggs
1 tsp. vanilla

Grease 9x13 cake pan. Reserve 2-3 cup cake mix for filling. In large bowl, combine remaining cake mix, margarine and one egg until mix is crumbly. Press into pan and bake 12-15 minutes at 350 degrees, until golden brown. Mix 2-3 cup reserved cake mix with brown sugar, corn syrup, 3 eggs and vanilla. Beat at medium speed for 1-2 minutes. Pour into baked crust. Sprinkle on chopped pecans and return to oven and bake 30-35 minutes until set as pie would be. Cool and cut into squares.

Sesame Street characters will be on hand from 12-3 p.m. and children may have their pictures taken with them.

Volunteers Needed

Volunteers are needed to do friendly visiting of hospital patients, nursing home and adult foster care residents who need personal contact, especially at the holidays.

The Lenawee Council on Aging will conduct a workshop for interested volunteers on Dec. 6 at 1:30 p.m. at the Tecumseh community center.

The where and how of friendly visiting will be explained. For more information, readers may contact Karla Holmes at 263-7198, ext. 285.

There are no age restrictions on friendly visiting volunteers, young and old are both needed. Clubs or organizations may find friendly visiting a viable and satisfying community service project.

Libraries to Merge

At the regular monthly meeting of the Tecumseh School Board last week, board members gave approval to the merger of the Raisin Valley Library System with the Willard Library System.

The Willard system covers six counties including Calhoun, Eaton, Branch, St. Joseph, Hillsdale and Barry while Tecumseh belongs to the Raisin Valley system.

The merger is possible because of a law passed in August of this year by the state legislation allowing cooperative library systems to band together in order to provide a greater number of services to a larger area.

And, that is the intent of the proposed merger.

According to Tecumseh librarian Debbie Harris, all the libraries in the two areas covered by the two systems are asking school board approval before proceeding with the merger.

If the two systems are combined, the system would be called the Woodland Cooperative Library System.

The state has yet to draw up guidelines for the implementation of the cooperative. Therefore, Harris concluded, it might be a matter of months before the Woodland Cooperative becomes a functioning reality.

Revival Meeting

Tecumseh Lower Light Church will host a revival meeting Dec. 1 through 11 nightly at 7:30 p.m. at the church.

Evangelist will be the Rev. David Chaffin.

The Tecumseh pastor, the Rev. W.D. Bradshaw, invited the public.

For information, readers may call 423-4908.

Community Services Forum

Community Services Forum will hold its next meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 6, with a noon luncheon at the Elks' Club, 1200 N. Main St., in Adrian.

Speaker will be Pat Doherty, inservice director of Provincial House, who will show a film entitled "The Nursing Home Story."

These meetings are open to anyone in the county who is involved in any kid of social or behavioral work, health, etc.

Holloway Happenings

By Helen Smoll

HOLLOWAY — Michael Mitchell spoke to the Friendly Neighbors Farm Bureau on tax reforms of 1976. A question and answer period followed on federal, state inheritance and gift taxes.

"Prices and Pricing" were discussed. Prices affect business decisions of producers, marketers and consumers which in turn affect price.

A pricing system that facilitates the making of decisions by investors, producers, handlers and consumers contributes to a well balanced economic system. The prices of farm products and resources used in production, both result of supply and demand.

The 58th annual meeting of the Michigan Farm Bureau is Nov. 30, Dec. 1 and 2 at the civic center complex in Grand Rapids. Registration begins Nov. 29. Order will be called at 9 a.m. Wednesday. The annual banquet will be that evening with an awards program on Thursday.

The December meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Hester Wooster at 6:30 p.m. with potluck supper. Christmas party and gift exchange.

The Raisin Sewing Circle met at the Vo-Tech school where it viewed a show of 100 quilts, sponsored by the Adrian Women's Club.

The group later met at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Marks. Plans were made for the Dec. 9 meeting at the home of Irene Rouget. A Christmas potluck dinner and gift exchange are planned.

The Holloway Presbyterian Church invited the Palmyra Presbyterian Church for a farewell cooperative supper in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. Roger Galey and family. They will leave for Salem, Ohio and pastor the Ellsworth, Ohio church. Mrs. Elwyn Green presented a gift on behalf of the Holloway Presbyterian Church.

Lance Wiesmann sang two numbers accompanied by his sister, Lisa Wiesman, on the piano. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiesmann.

Mrs. Anabel Cadmus reported on the book "A Bum Voyage," a story about a child taking a trip.

The Presbyterian Women's Association was entertained at the home of Ruth DeGroot. Mrs. Roger Galey was the co-hostess. A dessert luncheon was served.

A donation of $25 was given to the Associated Charities. A mitten tree will be held at the church. Cheer boxes will be packed for shut-ins. The women will prepare and serve the meal for the retired teachers association on Dec. 5.

Mrs. Harold Johnston was the program chairman, she read the Psalm 100 on thanksgiving and an item for the book "Patches of Joy."

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnston had a combined Thanksgiving and third birthday dinner for Kamie Krohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Krohn and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hayes.

Mrs. J.D. Jaqua and Mary Kopke were dinner guests Sunday of Ruth DeGroot.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Berl Howe to the sixth district meeting of World War I in Jackson. Hosts were Barracks 222.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Sawyer attended a family Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Reister, Hillsdale.

Mr. Reister was recently released from the hospital, and his eyesight is improving after a severe eye infection.

A highlight of the occasion was a 30-minute tape message from the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Reister. Debra Sue Reister and Mustafa El Enani were married in Cairo, Egypt May 12. Debra is employed with Project HOPE and her husband is assistant to the general manager of the Sahara Petroleum Co.

Revelation Singers Here December 4

The Revelation Singers from Lakeland Reformed Church, Vicksburg, Mich., will make a guest appearance at the First Baptist Church, Dec. 4 at the 11 a.m. service.

Following their 40-minute program a communion service will be held.

Composed of 35 high school students, directed by Dick Snyder, a brother of the local church organist, Mrs. David Champanois, the group's name Revelation was taken from the Bible and means "Message from God."

They will share this message in singing solos, duets, as a group and with instrumental music.

Participates in Special Classes

Nancy Warner of Tecumseh returned from Washington D.C. where she participated in a special humanities class from Siena Heights College, entitled Values III. It focused on specific values of stewardship, non-violence, peace and justice.

During the five-day study tour, students examined the dimensions of social justice through a day-long workshop at Network, a Washington lobbyist forum operated by Christian women.

Common Cause, a citizen's lobby monitoring congressional representitives accountability, was also visited.

The studies actualized stewardship by daily preparing and serving soup at Zacchaeus Kitchen, operated by the Community for Creative Non-Violence, an ecumenical group serving the economically deprived of Washington.

Students visited with Congressman David Stockman R-4th Dist., toured the White House, House and Senate in session and saw Eugene O'Neil's "A Touch of the Poet" at the Kennedy Center.

Calendars Available

"Safety Wise" was the program presented by Jean Bick at the recent meeting of the Girl Scout Leaders Association. Eighteen members met.

Marilyn DeShano reported on the calendar sale. To purchase a Girl Scout Calendar, readers may call 423-7787.

A junior level workshop was planned at the home of Nancy Hopkins Nov. 16.

Next leaders meeting is Jan. 11 at 7:30 p.m.

Three girls of the junior level recently received awards at a councilwide junior weekend. They are Judy Wotring, Sharie Murphy and Becky Lange.

Parents make wishes too

Every year there's one more candle. Jeannie makes a wish — and blows them all out with a single breath.

Jeannie's parents make wishes too. But grown-ups' wishes are called hopes, and they can't be achieved by merely blowing out candles.

Jeannie's parents take her to church every Sunday. There she learns right from wrong and acquires the faith that will sustain her throughout life.

At candle-blowing-time her mother and father smile. It's a smile of confidence, of conviction. They know that their hopes for Jeannie can best be realized in a Christian environment.

Mmmmmm Good Candy

Molding chocolate into suckers for example, can be done by children. Barb's make their own.

Students in the class learn how to make the recipe look and taste professional and what to expect when handling the ingredients.

Careful attention to measuring ingredients and setting time are also important as I learned during the first part of the four-hour session when I hurriedly dumped too much liquid into a recipe and ruined it.

Fortunately the instructor and classmates were supportive with humor.

The one day classes are offered days and nights through Dec. 17. All materials are provided.

It is not the same as chocolate chips or baking chocolate, but a special chocolate for candy making. Recipes using it don't require paraffin. Candy doesn't have a waxy taste.

After the class, students ceremoniously divided the candy. Everyone had at least 3 lbs. to take home.

Barb McCann taught candy making classes for four years. It is her favorite class. The Cake Shoppe celebrated its fifth anniversary in Tecumseh. A new classroom is adjacent to the original store.

SUPER FUDGE
(Barb's Best)

Note there is no beating in this recipe. Use brands listed.

Melt ½ cup butter or margarine. Add to the same pan, 2 cups firmly packed brown sugar, 1 cup granulated sugar, 1 cup Rich's Coffee Rich (a dairy creamer available in the frozen food case.)

Turn burner to high and cook to 234 degrees Farenheit with candy thermometer inserted as far as possible into the liquid but do not touch bottom of pan.

Remove from heat and let bubbles subside.

Add 2 cups Kraft marshmallow creme, 1¼ cups cut up semi-sweet dark chocolate, 1¼ cups cut up butterscotch coating. (Note this is molding and dipping chocolate and butterscotch coating, not commercial chocolate chips or butterscotch bits.) Add 2 cups chopped nuts and 1 tsp. vanilla. Stir until blended.

Pour into buttered 9'' square pan. Refrigerate for five to six hours. Cut into squares.

Yields 3¾ lbs. or 185 small pieces of fine, smooth fudge with an excellent taste.

To test candy thermometer for accuracy, water boils at 212 degrees Farenheit.

Natural Resources Commission Action

(under authority of Act 230, P.A. 1925, as amended)

OPEN SEASONS AND CATCH LIMITS ON PIKE, WALLEYE, SAUGER & MUSKELLUNGE

The Natural Resources Commission, at its meeting on August 12, 1977, under the authority of Act 230, P.A. 1925, as amended, ordered that its subject order of August 15, 1975, remain effective through December 31, 1977, and that the following order become effective on January 1, 1978:

It shall be unlawful to take the following named species except within the open seasons and daily limits prescribed (statewide regulations apply unless otherwise restricted):

Statewide open seasons on all waters not otherwise closed to fishing shall be from May 15 through February on walleye, sauger, northern pike, and muskellunge (including tiger muskellunge). The daily catch limit shall be 5 singly or in combination for largemouth and smallmouth bass, walleye, sauger, and northern pike; 1 for muskellunge (including tiger muskellunge).

The above regulations apply except that walleye and sauger may be taken at any time from the Detroit and St. Clair rivers, Lake St. Clair, and Lake Erie; and that muskellunge in Lake St. Clair, St. Clair and Detroit rivers may be taken only from the first Saturday in June through December 15 of each year.

Beat Onsted in Districts

Clinton's girls basketball squad began district competition on Monday of this week with 49-20 win over Onsted.

On Monday of last week, the Skins completed their regular season by trouncing Britton 75-29. Clinton's Sue Richter scored her 1,000th career point in that contest.

In the district game, Onsted managed to stay with the Redskins for one quarter, trailing after the first period by just 11-9. But the Redskin battle wagon began rolling in the second period scoring 14 points while Onsted couldn't get on the board.

The Skins outscored their opponents 24-11 in the second half.

Clinton hit on "just under 50 percent" of their shots from the field and outrebounded Onsted 43-33. JoAnn Grossman had 13 rebounds for Clinton.

Sue Richter was tops in scoring with 15 followed by Karen Busch with nine and Cathy Gibson with eight.

The Skins truly dominated Britton last week scoring 29 points in the first quarter to no points for the Tories.

Richter had 23 markers followed by Karen Busch with 16 and Judy Zimmerman with 11. Genene Bruce had nine for the Tories.

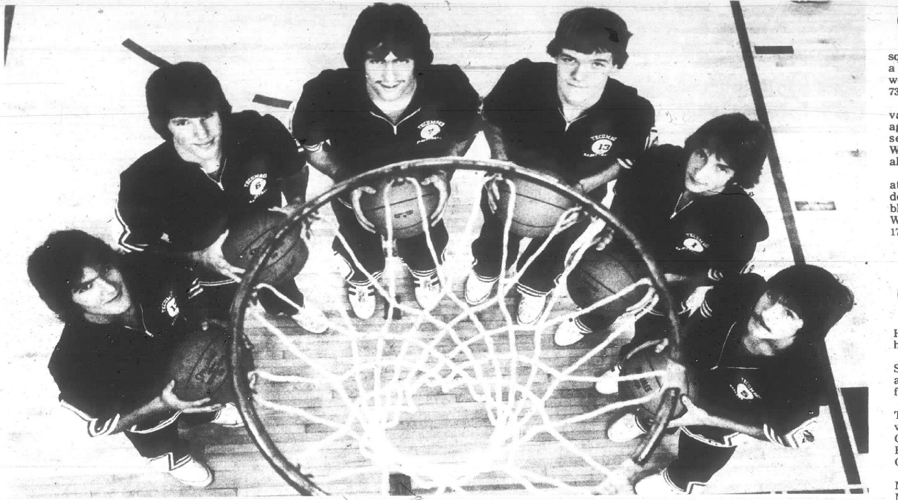
Clinton continued with district competition playing Hudson Wednesday. The winner of that game will play the winner of Thursday's Columbia Central-Addison match-up in the finals set for Saturday, 7 p.m. at Clinton.

4 Named All LCAA

Four girls from Clinton's basketball squad were named to either the first or second LCAA all-league teams recently.

Named to the first team were Sue Richter and JoAnn Grossman.

Cathy Gibson and Karen Busch from Clinton were named to the second team.



SIX STARTERS?!? — At the time this picture was taken, coach Jim Curth wasn't sure which of the above Tecumseh cagers would start in the team's first battle of the season against Blissfield Tuesday night. As it was, Doug Bohannon, second from right, didn't start but the Indians played as if they had six starters on the floor cruising to a 92-70 decision. The cagers, are, from left, Richard Cangley, John Ely, Jeff Hans, Bret DesErmia, Bohannon and Ben Maves.

Indians Blast Royals to Begin Season

Tecumseh's cagers, performing on offense about as well as a team can, devastated the Blissfield Royals on Tuesday of this week to open the season.

The final tally in the game was 92-70.

After the first five minutes of the game, the Indians had already piled up 27 points and went on to outdistance the Royals in that frame 31-22.

Key defensive errors in the second quarter allowed Blissfield to pull within five at the half 45-40.

Tecumseh straightened out the kinks in the third quarter. Richard Cangley "triggered the defense" in the third frame allowing the orange and black to take over the lead, without threat, 67-56.

Tecumseh's offense was hot dumping 40 of 60 shots from the field for an impressive 66 percent. Blissfield found its way to the basket 24 of 62 times for 39 percent. The Royals did complete 22 of 29 attempts from the foul line. The Indians dumped 12 of 22 from the line.

No less than five Tecumseh players were in double figures with Bret DesErmia at the top of the heap with 10 field goals, four foul shots for 24 points. Jeff Hans had 20 markers, John Ely 13, Ben Maves 11 and Mark Creswell 10.

In spite of the effort, coach Jim Curth found fault, especially with the Tecumseh defense, "The offense played about as well as we could expect but the defense left a little to be desired. We gave them too many easy shots and we committed ridiculous errors. We've got to improve the defense if we're going to be the type of team we want to be. We had a bad second quarter on defense but Dick Cangley triggered the defense and got it moving in the third quarter. He also had eight rebounds."

This Friday, the Indians host Monroe Catholic Central traveling to Columbia Central next Tuesday. Tecumseh is already looking forward to the Airport game in Tecumseh a week from this Friday. The contest is expected to be a key Huron League match-up with the two teams probably fighting it out for the league title.

Score by Quarters

Tecumseh	31	14	22	25—92
Blissfield	22	19	16	13—70

Scoring for Tecumseh: DesErmia 10 4 24, Hans 9 2 20, Ely 6 1 13, Maves 5 1 11, Creswell 5 0 10, Cangley 3 0 6, Bohannon 0 2 2, Neill 0 2 2, Sisson 1 0 2, Faulkner 1 0 2. Totals: 40 12 92.

Britton Tories Off to Slow Start, Drop 2

The Britton cagers have run into problems early in the season having lost their first two contests.

The Tories fell to Manchester 62-50 last week and to Deerfield 62-51 on Tuesday of this week.

Britton held a 12-9 lead against Deerfield after the first period only to see that margin evaporate in the second quarter. The game was all tied up 23-23 at the half.

A 21-10 effort by Deerfield in the third quarter put the game away.

The Minutemen outrebounded Britton 40-35 with Greg Fanslau getting 12.

The Tories connected on 24 of 60 from the field while Deerfield made 26 of 62.

Fanslau had 21 points for the game while Dan Sparrow had 12 and Randy Smith 11.

Tom Bluntschly received the sixth man award honoring that substitute which contributes the most. Phil Loesch was named defensive player of the week while Fanslau of course was named leading rebounder.

In the Manchester game last week, the Tories held a 22-17 advantage at the half. The Dutchmen were tougher in the second half outscoring Britton 45-28 to take the victory.

Britton trailed by just one point, 47-46 with around three minutes left before Manchester spurted ahead.

Greg Fanslau led in scoring with 14, Randy Smith had 13 and Dan Sparrow 12. Fanslau also led in rebounds for Britton with 13.

Fanslau was named the defensive player of the game and was leading rebounder. Dan Sparrow received the sixth man award.

The Tories host Summerfield this Friday traveling to Pittsford next Tuesday.

CHS Wrestlers Defeated, 39-30

The Redskins wrestling squad opened its season with a 39-30 loss to Napoleon on Wednesday of last week.

Individual winners for Clinton included: 98 lbs., Devin Schindler won on a 7-5 decision; 105 lbs., Chris Wojtowicz won on a pin at 5:22; 112 lbs., Bill Willis won on a 7-1 decision; 132 lbs., Rudy Weirich won on a pin at 2:20; 178 lbs., Wally Heimerdinger won on a pin at 5:19; Hvy., Bill VanTuyle won on a pin at 3:38.

Girls Trounce Adrian, 51-30

Tecumseh's girls basketball squad closed out its regular season with a 51-30 victory over Adrian last week.

The Indians begin district play Thursday after drawing a first round bye. Tecumseh will play this Thursday at Jackson Northwest.

The Maples, entering the contest with a 5-11 record, surprised the Indians taking a 10-9 lead at the end of the first quarter.

But Tecumseh outscored them 9-4 in the second frame to lead 18-14 at the half.

The Indians outscored Adrian 33-16 in the second half to dominate the contest.

Debbie Steadly topped all scorers with 22 markers in the contest. Grace Burns had 17 points.

The varsity ended the regular season with a 15-5 overall mark.

The junior varsity lost to Adrian 36-29. Becky Hamilton had eight points for the Indians who ended the season with a 17-3 mark.

Thilo Named All-State

Clinton's junior tailback Casey Thilo, who did such a fine job for the Redskin football squad this season was named to the Class C all-state team Tuesday.

It was the first time in 30 years that a Clinton gridder got the nod.

CHS Cagers Split Pair

Clinton's boys basketball squad began its season posting a 51-40 win over Napoleon last week but falling to Whiteford 73-47 on Tuesday of this week.

The Skins held a 12-8 advantage after the first quarter against Whiteford but a 14-9 second frame effort by Whiteford put the opposition ahead 22-21 at the half.

Clinton was still in the game at the end of the third quarter, down by just nine, but a blistering 34-point effort by Whiteford in the final period to 17 for the Skins put the game away.

Whiteford dumped 26 of 63 from the field for 40 percent to 16 of 60 for 28 percent for the Skins. Whiteford added 21 points from the foul line to 15 for the Redskins.

Mike Karapas led in scoring for Clinton with 10 followed by Dave Porter with nine and Terry Carlton with eight.

Coach Jim Pittman said, "The ball just wouldn't go through the hoop in the first half. We made only four of 28 from the floor in the first half. Whiteford dominated the rebounds in the second half."

The Napoleon game was all tied up after the first quarter 8-8.

Terry Keith, a substitute forward, tallied six points in the second frame and the Skins found themselves leading 26-20 at the half.

Clinton hosts Addison this Friday, traveling to Morenci next Tuesday.

7 in Cross Country Race

The Third Annual Prospect Hill cross country run was held recently.

The event is sponsored by Sauk Valley in the Irish Hills and consists of a 6.25 mile race for all age groups.

Male runners from Tecumseh and their times were: Chris Sullivan, 40.49; Charles Sullivan, 41.21; Russell Parrish, 42.12 and Jim Garvin 49.38.

Girl runners included Janel Mumme, 42.03; Monica Mumme 50.13 and Leslie Oliver 50.18.

Janel Mumme was awarded a third place trophy in the girls 18 and under class.

Lisa Lee Letters

Lisa Lee, a 1975 Tecumseh High School graduate, has lettered as a member of the Siena Heights' women's volleyball team.

Lee is a junior at the college.

THS Grapplers Fall to Saline

Tecumseh's wrestling squad ran into some stiff competition from non-league foe Saline on Tuesday of this week losing the battle 42-25.

Individual winners for Tecumseh included: 112 lbs., Chris Stoddard won a 7-2 decision; 119 lbs., Ben Williams won an 11-3 decision; 126 lbs., Jack Bagby won a 7-3 decision; 132 lbs., Steve Bishop won a 6-3 decision; 145 lbs., Dan Yoder won on a pin at 1:58; 178 lbs., Dan DeHaan won on a pin at 2:35.

Tecumseh hosts a double dual with Columbia Central and Madison this Thursday hosting Dundee next Tuesday.

Historical Ordinance Revised, before Council

A revised historical preservation ordinance came before Council Monday evening and generally received a favorable reaction.

In a memo relative to the ordinance, Paul Preston, assistant city manager, said "the main purpose of the ordinance is to preserve sites and structures of historical value to the community and to create a Historic Preservation Commission.

The new ordinance is somewhat different than the one recently rejected by Council. A property owner must volunteer to have his property designated as a landmark.

A public hearing on the ordinance was scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 3.

Balance of Preston's review of the ordinance is:

The Commission is to be appointed by the City Council and will consist of seven members who must be residents of the City of Tecumseh. The Commission may designate an individual piece of property as a landmark or it may designate an area as a Historical District.

In order for a piece of property to be designated as a landmark the owner of the property must apply for such designation.

A landmark can be a residential, commercial or public structure and can be located anywhere in the city. The Commission will then review the request and either approve or disapprove.

Its recommendations are then passed on to the City Council for final approval.

The designation of a property as a landmark places certain obligations on the property owner. If he wishes to make any alterations to the exterior of his structure, he must submit his plans for approval by the Commission. The Commission will review the plans in line with the guidelines for "Exterior Rehabilitation of Historic Structures" as published by the National Advisory Council on Historic Preservation.

The Commission can either approve or disapprove the plans. If the plans are denied, the Commission must automatically notify the City Council of its reasons for denial, and the Council may either approve or disapprove the plans. If after this review the property owner still feels aggrieved he may take appropriate legal action.

It must be stressed that the designation of property as a landmark and subsequent review of any plans for exterior changes to the property is strictly voluntary.

Owner of an approved landmark may make such designation binding on his successors in title. If he does not elect to make the designation binding, any subsequent owner may petition the Commission for release and automatically be granted release from the designation.

The ordinance does establish the West Chicago Boulevard-Union Street Historic District. This is the same area included in the original ordinance.

The Commission may designate additional Historical Districts it deems necessary for the benefit of the community.

Any owner of property that is fifty years or older is required to consult with the Historical Preservation Commission before undertaking any exterior renovation. The purpose of the meeting is for the Commission to advise the property owner as to proper materials and styles for their type house.

A property owner does not need Commission approval for the alteration, the Commission is to serve in an advisory capacity only.

In the way of a quick synopsis the ordinance:

- Allows for the designation of any property as a landmark.
- Designation can be either permanent or run with the owner of the property requesting designation.
- Establishes a Historical Preservation Commission.
- Requires the owner of a landmark to submit any renovation plans for approval.
- Establishes a Historic District.
- Requires owners of properties fifty years or older, within the District, to consult the Commission prior to exterior renovation.
- Does not obligate those property owners to follow the suggestions of the Commission (except in the case of a landmark).
- Will allow for the designation of commercial and public structures as a landmark.
- Will not stop deterioration of a piece of property if the owner does not wish to maintain it.
- Allows the city to accept gifts and grants from State or National sources for historic preservation purposes.

Snow Storms Closes Schools, Businesses

Monday's snow storm, second of the winter season, forced all schools in the area to close early, and a second vacation day was enjoyed by students Tuesday when drifting snows clogged rural roads.

Tecumseh schools closed Monday afternoon, the high and junior high pupils were taken home at 1:00 and at 2:00 elementary pupils were picked up.

Schools were not the only ones to close. Many downtown Tecumseh shops also called it a day a bit early, and who could blame them. There were very few patrons around to brave the weather and shop, too.

Although all city streets were open, driving was extremely hazardous because of the snowy and slippery conditions.

Bank to Petition for Traffic Light

Councilwoman Mary Bowers told her colleagues Monday evening that United Savings Bank has intentions of petitioning the State Highway Department for a traffic light on W. Chicago Blvd. at Occidental.

She said that the petitions will be out in the near future for the local citizenry to sign.

Mrs. Bowers says patrons at the bank's branch office at the intersection have complained about the difficulty of getting onto W. Chicago and the hazards involved there. A local citizen also complained of the traffic congestion in the area.

An accident study of the intersection and area shows no apparent trend, officials reported.

Cal Zorn, city manager, was asked to contact the highway department.

Appoint Daly to Commission

James Daley, Tecumseh attorney, was appointed to succeed Robert H. Moore to the Tecumseh Housing Commission by Council Monday night.

Mr. Moore, whose term expires next summer, has been in ill health recently.

29th Annual Holiday Ball on Saturday

The 29th annual Holiday Ball under the sponsorship of the Herrick Memorial Auxiliary will be held Dec. 10 at Tecumseh Country Club.

Many attending the Ball will be starting the evening with dinner at the Tecumseh Country Club.

The Jack Reis Orchestra will play and a midnight breakfast will be served.

Dinner will be served from 7-10 a.m. while dancing will be from 9-1:30.

143 Receiving Certificates

Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation began recognizing members of the Century Club Tuesday when certificates of appreciation were mailed to 143 individuals and businesses who contributed $100 or more in this year's drive.

Last year, just over 125 donated $100 or more.

New Saturday PO Hours

George Hawkins, officer in charge of the Tecumseh Post Office, stated that the post office will be open Saturdays, Dec. 10 and Dec. 17 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. due to the Christmas holiday.

Most Downtown

Stores Open Sunday

And, most Tecumseh merchants will start their special Christmas shopping hours next Monday, Dec. 12th, and will be staying open evenings, Monday through Saturday. Some shops will close at the usual time on Saturdays.

Christmas Concert at THS on Dec. 14th

Tecumseh junior and senior high school bands will entertain the community with a Christmas concert Dec. 14 at 8 p.m. at the high school gym. It is hailed as one of the biggest musical events of the departments for the term.

A potluck dinner will precede the concert at 6 p.m. in the school cafeteria for band boosters students and parents.

This is the first time a Christmas potluck is held before the concert. If anyone has not been contacted, call Lori Egli, 423-4557 by Dec. 12 for more information.

Bring one meat dish and another dish to pass, table service including cups, napkins. Beverage will be furnished.

Richard Reamsnyder will conduct the junior high school and Jimmie Rice will conduct the senior high varsity and junior varsity bands.

Tecumseh booster caps and cookbooks will be available for sale at the concert.

Admission is $1 for adults and 25 cents for students.

Dec. 13 is another important date for Tecumseh band boosters and parents as a donation day will be held at the A & P store.

Identification cards for shoppers may be obtained from Wilma Silberhorn or any band student. Parents will receive theirs from their students.

The band will benefit with a donation from A & P, based on the amount of sales by supporting shoppers that day. ID cards are necessary.

Mitten Tree at Bank's HP Office

Herrick Park branch of the United Savings Bank will again be the location for the Mitten Tree for the Tecumseh Service Club.

The tree is annually displayed for contribution of mittens, scarves, vests, and other outdoor winter accessories.

Tecumseh Service Club distributes the homemade or store boughten gifts to deserving familes in the school district.

"They are so dependent on it now, they'll really miss it if we don't have anything (donated)," said Mary Bowers, branch manager. She encouraged the community to give the project a boost.

Theatre Fund over $1000

The Tecumseh Players Theatre Fund passed the $1,000 mark after the special benefit performance of "Irene" Oct. 31.

Proceeds from the benefit, $405, went into the fund making the grand total $1,058.

A "meet the cast" party was held prior to the performance. Lynn Cook and Edna Smith were co-hosts. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sura, Mrs. Bruce DesErmia and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Adams assisted.

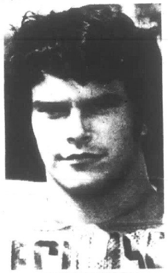
Dr. Robert Murray is chairman of the drive and contributions are received by Doug Dillon at the United Savings Bank main office.

New Cruiser Is Purchased

Council approved a purchase of a 1978 Plymouth Fury Monday night for a patrol car for the local police department.

The car with a 400 cubic inch engine will be ordered through the state and will cost $5,374. It had been tested and recommended by the state police.

The state police also had recommended the same car with a 444 cubic inch engine at $5,434.



JEFF ANDERSON

Anderson All-State

Tecumseh's outstanding running back this past football season, Jeff Anderson, has been picked for first team, Class B, All-Michigan by the UPI.

The 6'1" 205-pound back, considered by many as Tecumseh's best ever, could well be the first Indian player to attain All-Michigan status. Other notable Tecumseh players in recent years have been recognized in the state, but not at the first team level.

Coach Pat Connors calls Anderson the "best running back I've ever coached."

A number of colleges have expressed interest in Jeff, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson.

Appointed

Paul Preston, assistant city manager, was selected by Council Monday evening to represent the city on the Region II planning commission.

The commission meets quarterly and during the day.

George Hawkins Is Acting Postmaster

The "Whistling Mailman" has returned to Tecumseh.

George Hawkins, who began his postal career as a Tecumseh carrier in 1952 is back in Tecumseh — at least for a while.

Currently the Britton Postmaster, Hawkins has accepted the temporary assignment of Officer in Charge of the Tecumseh Post Office until a new postmaster is selected.

The Tecumseh vacancy is the result of the retirement of Jack Metcalf Dec. 2.

Generally, an Officer in Charge serves between 90-120 days, Hawkins said and cannot be considered for the permanent position. But the temporary assignment provides valuable experience in a larger post office.

Hawkins states that several people that were on his Tecumseh route back in 1952-57 have recognized him. Back in those days he was known as the "Whistling Mailman" after his habit of passing the time by whistling. He became Britton Postmaster in 1972.

Hawkins, a resident of Britton, is the area director of the National Association of Postmasters. In addition he serves on the postmaster selection board for the 492 zip code area which comprises 60 post offices. He is Federal Campaign Coordinator for the 492 area for the United Fund and is on the staff and schedule survey team as a team leader.

He also finds time to serve as a Command Sgt. Major in the 156th Signal Battalion of the National Guard. He's been in the guard for 24 years.

Council OK's $3,000 for Housing Study

by Kathy Brown

Tecumseh city council unanimously appropriated $3,000 for a senior citizen housing marketing survey at the request of the Tecumseh housing commission.

Richard Masters of Lorain, Ohio will do the survey which will project the need for senior citizen housing for five years, profile the senior citizen population and determine the price senior citizens can afford.

The Tecumseh area, more than the city, will be surveyed, but limits of the area were not defined. Study will take approximately one month.

The study is necessary so the city may qualify for senior citizen housing funds. It will also enable the housing commission to apply for funds in a systematic way.

Assistant city manager Paul Preston explained that a need was estimated between 50-100 units. A marketing survey will tell the city the exact number of units it needs and can support.

"You may be doing an injustice to the community if you don't build enough initially or if you build, say 100 units, and can't (fill them) and lose money on the deal," Preston stated.

Furthermore, to apply for funds, "You have to justify, or show by statistics, the number of people who qualify," said Preston.

Tecumseh residents have asked what is being done about senior citizen housing. "It takes time to do something like this," Preston stated. "Applications were filed and were not successful. It is not an easy project. (if pre-application is accepted) it could be next fall before paperwork is completed."

Fund applications were sent to the Department of Housing and Urban Development. The first was too late for consideration. The second was submitted by the Rotary in conjunction with the housing commission but because of a misunderstanding between the city and the architect at the time, the application was never submitted to HUD.

The Tecumseh Housing Commission met every other week recently to develop a viable program.

Housing commission members are Jim Daly, Roger Proctor, Nancy Nichols, Jens Touborg and Paul Fackler.

Other steps it recommended to council were:

Engage an architect. Francis Faulhaber of Adrian, architect and construction manager for the high rise in Adrian, agreed to work with the city on preliminary work at no charge with provision he be contracted, if funds are available.

Seek funds through Farmers Home Administration. It is the rural credit agency of the Department of Agriculture and will loan money to communities under 10,000 population. It also offers residential and multiple family loans.

Commission selected Farmers Home because most of the application work can be handled at the county and state level, and as a result, there is better dialog.

HUD applications are sent to Washington, either approved or not approved and not too much is known, explained Preston.

Preston said the commission will submit a pre-application to Farmers Homes within the next four months.

"If this is approved, we will then be asked to submit a full application. If we are approved at the first stage, our chances are excellent of getting the total project approved," he said.

Amount of money available right now is not known. Site considered for the project is the 8.5-acre site, in the vicinity of Tecumseh Park, given to the city by Mr. Touborg over a year ago.

Plans proposed at that time included 63 one bedroom units at an approximate cost of $1,390,000. It was based on an academic study by former Tecumseh resident, Robert Bonner. He estimated need between 75 to 100 units.

Preston said that Bonner's study would not qualify as a marketing survey for the fund application and that the existing site could be used to build 100 units, if necessary.

Approves Bid for New Pump at City Plant

Low bid of Brooks Equipment Co. of Missouri was accepted by Council Monday evening for a new methane gas pump for the wastewater plant.

Winning bid was $1,112. Other bids were Bradbury Kenrick Associates, Inc., $1,198, and Detroit Air Compressor & Pump Co., $1,224.

New pump is scheduled for a six-week delivery.

She Knits with Friends On Cold Winter Nights

by Kathy Brown

If you want to attract friends, start knitting a scarf. If people want to join you, say "Yes" and soon you'll be sharing fun and fellowship with a small circle of friends on cold winter nights as you sit at home and pull yarns together.

That was the experience of Carrie Hyatt, secretary and bookkeeper at Modular Circuitry Inc. She was introduced to glimmer yarn last year when she made a scarf and then three more.

This year she said "Everybody picked up on this and making theirs for boyfriends, girlfriends and for others as Christmas gifts."

When the scarf is worked on circular needles it forms a tube with variegated stripes and the yarn has a sheen that is attractive.

Other members in the group are friends of the Tecumseh high school class of 1976 graduate and her sister. "They've been around our house for a long time," said Carrie. They are Sheila Bihlmeyer, Mary Kane, Jane Hyatt, Mickey Hyatt, brother and sister, Sandy and Rita Sprague, Janice Jahner, Jill Greenfield, Wendy Moore and Terry Scheff.

Mrs. Russ Hyatt of 6671 Mill Hwy., Carrie's mother, also joins the group on their impromptu meetings.

"We don't get together on a certain night," explained Carrie. "It all depends on what people have to do."

Alice Randall tipped the Herald about the group of industrious young people. If you know anyone who does something special for a "homemade Christmas," contact the Herald and we will feature them in our December issues.

Chamber Directors Welcomed

Members of the board of directors of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, Dave Blanden, John Damelio, Opal Dickinson, Don Dobrosky, Henry Newlin, Roger Proctor, Ray Rouleau and Harvey Schmidt, welcome new directors Alan Beatty, James Daly, Lincoln Lloyd and Marten Vegter to the Tecumseh Area Chamber Commerce.

Opal Dickinson, a member in 1977, was elected to serve on the board in 1978.

Leaving the board this year are president Richard Eggleston, treasurer Merlyn Downing and retail chairman Mary Lou Dangler.

Dr. Dave Blanden was appointed interim president until the organizational meeting in January when officers and project chairmen will be chosen.

All members and friends are welcome to attend the next meeting, Jan. 5, 1978 at 7:30 a.m. at Don's Contented Sole.

Dec. 4 - Derial E. Hancock, 60, Stanton, was arrested for DUIL on S. Evans at Russell Rd. He was seen driving in the wrong lane and weaving.

Accidents Minor, Few

Although the city was blanketed with snow, forcing schools and businesses to close earlier this week, traffic accidents were minor and few.

A resume is:

Dec. 3 - Mary E. Brown, 38, of 9103 N. Union, struck the rear of a vehicle driven by Velma J. Campbell, 47, of 205 W. Logan St., on W. Chicago Blvd. at Union. Ms. Campbell suffered minor injuries when she left her car and fell. She was taken to Herrick Hospital.

Dec. 3 - Richard T. Perry, 707 Inner Dr., reported his car damaged while parked at a curb.

Dec. 3 - Ronald F. Shirk, 30, of 1000 River Acres, swerved to miss an animal on N. Ottawa and struck a guard rail. He suffered a minor head injury but refused treatment.

Dec. 5 - Deidre L. Sheldon, 22, of 210 S. Ottawa struck the rear of a car driven by Mary A. Rufner, 52, of 215 W. Pottawatamie, after Rufner attempted to turn on snowy W. Chicago Blvd. and then came back into her lane.

Dec. 5 - Steven R. Helinski 22, Onsted, backed into Lawrence L. Packard, 60, Lee Villa Court, in the parking lot at Heeman's Market, Russell Rd. at Occidental.

Dec. 6 - Daniel F. Zimmerman, 40, Adrian, struck the rear of a vehicle operated by Robert L. Hill, 32, of 4885 Tipton Hwy., on W. Chicago Blvd. Hill, who was attempting to turn at the time, suffered a minor injury and sought his own treatment.

DOROTHY RUTHRUFF

Services were Dec. 2 at the Brookside Cemetery for Dorothy E. Ruthruff, 75, of 215 N. Union St. who died at 11:45 p.m. Nov. 28 in the Lenawee Medical Care Facility, Adrian where she resided since July 11.

She was born June 5, 1902 and was graduated from Jackson High School and attended Michigan Normal.

She came to Tecumseh from Marshall in 1968 and was retired from Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

Ruthruff was a member of the Tecumseh Music Club, the Tecumseh Monday Club, the Wit and Wisdom Club, the Adrian Business and Professional Women's Club and the Michigan Bell Pioneers.

Survivor is her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson of Tecumseh.

The Rev. David Fox officiated. Arrangements were made by the Purse Funeral Home, Tecumseh.

EARL YODER

Services were Dec. 5 at the Purse Funeral Home for Earl L. Yoder, 55, of Hudson who died unexpectedly Dec. 2 at the home of his son, Robert, in Hudson.

He was a retired employee of the Tecumseh Products Co. where he worked for 33 years.

Survivors are his wife, three sons, two daughters including Mrs. Carl LaGore of Clinton, his father, three brothers including Don of Tecumseh, two sisters and 14 grandchildren.

Burial was in Lenawee Hills Memorial Gardens, Tecumseh.

Holiday Setting for Hamilton, Hebert Nuptial Vows

Tecumseh Missionary Baptist Church was the setting for the Dec. 2 marriage of Nancy A. Hamilton to Nick H. Hebert.

The Rev. Seal Janeway officiated at the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton, 514 W. Logan St. and the son of Minerva Hebert, 513 N. Union St. and the late Lawrence Hebert.

Linda Collins of Tecumseh was the organist and Susan Prettyman of Berrien Springs was the soloist.

The bride chose a white jersey knit gown with V-neckline and empire waist. Venice lace adorned the shirred bodice and the cuffs of the long fitted sleeves. The full skirt flowed into a chapel train.

Her jewelry was her mother's opal pendant. Her headpiece was a Venice lace trimmed bonnet with illusion walking length veil, trimmed with matching lace.

Her bouquet was a colonial nosegay with white sweetheart roses, French blue silk flowers, white velvet tubing with streamers

Barbara J. Hamilton the bride's sister of Tecumseh, was maid of honor wearing a light blue gown with royal blue velvet cape trimmed in blue marabou.

Deborah Hamilton, the bride's sister, Nadine Crawford and Pam Felton of Tecumseh were bridesmaids, attired as the honor attendant.

Cori Kastel of Blissfield was the flower girl. She wore a long white knit gown with white cape trimmed in blue marabou.

Michael J. Fowler of Tecumseh was the best man. Ushers were Mike Hebert, groom's brother of Tipton, Tom Komon of Britton, Lonnie Holdridge and Jim Randall of Tecumseh and Paul Hamilton, the bride's brother of New York City, N.Y. Mike Hebert, the groom's nephew of Tipton was the ring bearer.

At the United Products Workers Union Hall, 400 guests were received. Kathy Baugh and Nancy Andrus served punch and coffee. Diane Meyer and Cheryl Gramling served the cake.

Following a wedding trip in Florida, the couple will reside at 207 E. Logan St.

The new Mrs. Hebert is a 1972 Tecumseh high school graduate and has a bachelor of science in education from Eastern Michigan University with a physical education major. She is a member of Delta Psi Kappa honorary physical education fraternity and of the Motor Board ADAHI Chapter honor society. She is employed by the State of Michigan, Dept. of Social Services in Ypsilanti.

Mr. Hebert is a 1967 graduate of Tecumseh High School, a veteran of the Vietnam War and is employed by Fowler Construction.

Mary Patricia Lemanski and Steven Lee Pike Are Married

Mary Patricia Lemanski and Steven Lee Pike were married Nov. 25 at St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church with Msgr. Vincent J. Howard officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lemanski, 409 Center Dr. and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Pike, Rapid River.

Pat Patten was organist and Dion Pike, the groom's brother was soloist.

The bride was escorted by her father to the altar decorated with fall color flowers. Her gown was a knit with Venice lace bodice and insert on shoulders of fitted long sleeves. Cuffs and hemline of the pleated skirt and chapel train were edged in pointed Venice lace.

Her illusion veil was secured with a cap worn at the back of the head. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and deep orange roses.

The bride's sisters were the attendants. Jean Lemanski was maid of honor in a burnt orange halter gown with jacket and pleated skirt. She carried yellow, gold and orange mums and pompons arranged with baby's breath.

Barbara and Diane Lemanski were bridesmaids and Rita and Sally Lemanski were junior bridesmaids.

Dion Pike, the groom's brother of Great Lakes, Ill. was the best man. Ushers were Paul Lemanski, the bride's brother of Midland, Bob Whipple of Rapid River and Richard Duncan, the groom's uncle of Tecumseh.

Dinner was held at the Odd Fellows Hall.

Patricia Mannino and Susan Prettyman served refreshments.

The new Mrs. Pike is a graduate of Siena Heights College and is employed by Adrian Public Schools as a Head Start teacher. Mr. Pike is attending Eastern Michigan University.

After a wedding trip to Ohio, the couple reside at 301 E. Chicago Blvd.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner in the home of the groom's grandmother, Mabel Duncan of Tecumseh.

Conservation Service Helps County

By Kathy Brown

Raisin Township officials wanted to reclaim the township landfill at Sutton and Wilmouth Rds for a community park.

Glen Green of Rogers Hwy. had a four foot gulley preventing him from farming acreage on the other side of his farm.

Elmer Marks, 8724 Holloway Rd., needed an inexpensive watersupply for his livestock.

Lee Spohr, 4400 Holloway Rd., needed information on techniques to farm his rolling acreage.

Louis Machan also of Holloway Rd., had flooding in his field.

These Raisin Township area people all received technical advice for their problems from the Lenawee County Soil Conservation Service (SCS), a technical agency of the USDA which brings together various disciplines to solve land and water problems.

It cooperates with the Lenawee County Soil Conservation District (SCD), the local land management policy board, composed of cooperating landowners.

The top priority in the district erosion control and management of the land to its capabilities. The SCS does not provide funds, but can advise of agencies that do.

"We don't come out and tell farmers what to do. We suggest ways of doing things. We're there to give him technical advice to help him take care of his problems," said Tom Thrall SCS District Conservationist.

Sometimes the solution is as easy and as inexpensive as grading the gully and sending to create a grass waterway for water runoff. In Green's case, the $600 project was cost shared 75 percent by the federal government.

Other projects such as the pond to solve Marks' problem cost about $4,000 and was borne by him. But the SCS will work with any owner or unit of government to develop the plan whether money to execute it is available or not.

The decision to use the plan must be made by the landowner after his own cost-benefit analysis.

"It costs him money. Economics affect his decision in a broad sense. He has to consider his farming situation and economics of time," said Thrall. "The biggest problem is he must decide how conservation fits into his operation."

For example, "one of the biggest erosion problems we have in the county is plowing right up to a river or ditch. Reason why he does it is the price of land and crop price. He wants to get everything he can out of it."

"It can mean better farming for him, saving topsoil and stopping pollution problems, said Kit Kuschell, SCS aide "When topsoil ends up as sediment in a river, making a muddy appearance, everyone can see it," she told.

"By volume, it is one of the biggest pollutants we have," said Thrall. "Millions of dollars are spent dredging waterways. The cost to keep it on the field versus dredging is relatively small."

Soil control plans may become mandatory, "if people don't use conservation voluntarily," Thrall said.

RICHARD GALLAWAY, Raisin Township Supervisor, looks over part of the landfill owned by the Township on Sutton Road at Raisin Center Highway. The Lenawee County Soil Conservation Service assists the Township in planning reclamation of the land after trenches are filled with trash. The Conservation Service also provides pine seedlings at nominal cost. After filled, the trenches are covered with four feet of sand and then top soil. The seedlings are then planted.

MR. and MRS. DENNIS GOBLE

Pamela Jo Watters, Dennis Goble Marry

Pamela Jo Watters and Dennis Scott Goble were married at candlelight ceremony Nov. 26 at 7 p.m. in the Pilgrim Evangelistic Church, Adrian.

Her grandfather, the Rev. Donald R. Baughey Sr. officiated and the Rev. Daniel Baughey Sr., her uncle of Ypsilanti offered a poem as they prayed.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watters of 12 Occidental Hwy. and William Goble Sr. of Britton and Emma Hammack of Tecumseh.

Mrs. Donald Nichols of Osseo provided wedding music. Timothy Nichols sang "Because" and "Our Wedding Prayer."

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride chose a gown of sheer white woven nylon, lined with taffeta and covered with Chantilly lace. It featured an empire waist line with a stand-up collar, long sleeves, an attached ruffle-edged train and full apron style back.

Lace appliques and iridescent sequins highlighted the bouffant skirt. Her headpiece matched her dress with iridescent sequins and simulated seed pearls. She wore a face framing style veil of nylon.

Teresa Watters of Tecumseh, attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing a light blue halter style dress with jacket trimmed in dark blue velvet ruffled collar and cuffs. She wore daisies in her hair and carried a bouquet of multicolored daisies and blue tipped carnations with baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Rodney Lindsay of Monroe, cousin of the bride, Cheryl Plemmons of Belleville, Mrs. Kenneth Posey of Adrian, cousin of the bride and Mrs. William Goble Jr. of Tecumseh, sister-in-law of the groom.

They were identically gowned as the maid of honor, wore matching headpieces and carried matching bouquets.

Daniel Wilson of Clinton, served as the grooms best man. Other groomsmen were William Goble Jr. and David Goble, both of Tecumseh, brothers of the groom. Jeffrey Watters of Tecumseh, brother of the bride, and Steven Watters of Adrian, cousin of the bride.

Ushers seating the guests were, Mike Watters, brother of the bride, and Bradley Stuttz, cousin of the bride.

Bobbie Jo Cates of Adrian, was the miniature bride, gowned as the bride and Jonathan Watters, brother of the bride, was dressed as the groom. He carried a white bridal Bible, used for the vows. Their attire was taylored by Ardeth Schroder, of Britton.

A buffet luncheon was served to the 300 guests following the ceremony at the Palmyra Fire Hall in Palmyra. Two silver candle holders decorated the bride's table, along with a personal candle made by Mrs. Donald Butler.

Assisting at the reception were, Mrs. Bradley Stuttz of Adrian, cousin of the bride, Mrs. David Goble of Tecumseh, sister-in-law of the groom.

Cutting the five-tier cake, baked by their friend, Mrs. Butch Hayner of Whitmore Lake, was Mrs. Wesley Powers Sr. of Adrian, aunt of the bride.

Mrs. George Watters Jr. of Adrian, aunt of the bride served punch. Other servers were Mrs. Donald Baughey Jr. of Adrian, aunt of the bride, Mrs. William Storrs of Waldron, aunt of the bride and Kathy Plemmons of Belleville, friend of the bride.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the grooms parents at the Elks Club in Adrian.

Pamela Norris of Hudson, registered the guests as they arrived.

The couple was graduated from Tecumseh high school in 1976. The new Mrs. Goble is a sophomore music major at Siena Heights College. Mr. Goble is employed with his father at the Goble Dry-Wall Co.

They will reside at 320 N. South St., Adrian.

MR. and MRS. DAVID CLAUDA

Mary Johnson in Intensive Care

Mrs. Bud (Mary) Johnson of Hanover, formerly of Aebersold Dr., Tecumseh, is a patient in intensive care at St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Johnson had an aneurysm in the brain at home Monday morning. She was taken to Jackson to the hospital and transferred Tuesday to Ann Arbor. Mrs. Johnson is unable to receive visitors.

The Johnsons have three daughters, Tammy and Renee at home and Mrs. Cortland (Brenda) Hunt.

Lavender and Clauda Recite Nuptial Vows

Ruth Lavender and David Clauda were married Nov. 26 at the First Baptist Church chapel in Tecumseh.

The Rev. Kenneth Boyd officiated at the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Lavender, 508 Stacy and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Clauda, Adrian.

Mrs. David Champanois was the organist.

The bride wore a gown of ivory polyester trevera in a princess style with cape collar and sleeves. She wore a picture hat with flowers matching her bouquet of white and yellow silk roses.

Mrs. Ronald Brueckner, the bride's sister of Tecumseh, was the matron of honor wearing a rust polyester gown with matching lace shawl. She wore a picture hat with matching ribbon and carried a basket of matching carnations.

Gerald Spellman of Adrian was the best man.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Brueckner for approximately 20 guests. The wedding cake decorated the bride's table.

The new Mrs. Clauda is a Tecumseh high school graduate and is employed at Local Finance, Adrian. Mr. Clauda is a Catholic Central graduate and employed with Great Scott supermarket, Adrian.

Following a brief wedding trip, the couple will reside at 210 Renfrow, Adrian.

Dundee Invites Chapter 51 OES

Obligation night was observed by Tecumseh Chapter No. 51, OES, at the December meeting Thursday evening.

Lillian Meining, worthy matron, president at the business meeting, during which the Christmas message from the worthy grand matron was read.

The by-laws committee was instructed to formulate an amendment stating that the amount of dues would remain the same. Any increase in per capita tax would be added to this fee.

An invitation was received from Ruth Chapter No. 89 of Dundee to attend their Friendship Night Jan. 16.

Birthdays were observed for Carolyn Baker, Marge Tonneberger, Florence Miller, Margaret and Marvin Hurlbut.

Tunes for Turntables Delight Youthful Ears

"Attention, all record player owners. Your turntable — and your ears — will love these new children's records at Tecumseh Public Library," said children's librarian Mary Beth Reasoner.

Do any of these titles appeal to you?

Star Trek, Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, Beatrix Potter, Ella Jenkins; Bambi, Dumbo, Mary Poppins, Legend of Sleepy Hollow and Black Beauty from Walt Disney; The Chipmunks, Dr. Seuss, Captain Kangaroo, Curious George and Mister Rogers.

Laughter and learning are combined in these educational records: Multiplication Rock (from the popular Saturday morning TV series), Sesame Street, Electric Company, Spelling and Telling Time.

Any record in the library's collection may be checked out for two weeks. "Just think of all the money you'll be saving by not having to buy all those records," said Reasoner.

Margaret Furry Attends Camp

Margaret Furry of Tecumseh participated in the annual fall "Greentree" weekend at the UMCA Storer Camp located near Jackson.

100 teenagers volunteered to help with environmental projects at the camp. They spread woodchips on paths, transplanted shrubs and trees, rebuilt walkways and paths, planted ground cover to prevent erosion. Workers also picked up over a ton of trash and debris on roads surrounding camp.

Ruettingers Host OES

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ruettinger hosted the annual Christmas party of the past matrons and past patrons of Tecumseh Chapter No. 51, Order of the Eastern Star, Sunday evening.

Yuletide decorations throughout the home provided a festive air when 32 guests met at 6:30 p.m. for a social hour. Hors d'oeuvres and punch were served from a buffet table by Lillian Meining, co-hostess for the event.

Following the cooperative dinner, an exchange of gifts was held. Games of party bingo were played and prizes awarded to the winners.

The mystery gift, a miniature needlepoint picture made by Mrs. Meining, was won by Hazel Bonner.

Council Buys Park Land

CLINTON — Clinton Village Council voted Monday to purchase 52 acres of land from the Hulett property along the west side of River Raisin, for use as a park, at a cost of $52,500.

J.W. Sadler, Inc. of Highland, Mich., was the apparent low bidder for the wastewater treatment plant at $2,990,000. Acceptance of the bid awaits further consideration of the bid.

Concerning occupancy permits, council ruled that all authorized personnel must sign the new home occupancy permit applications. If occupancy occurs without this signed permit, there will be a fine of $250.

OES Plans Potluck Dinner Dec. 11

CLINTON — Members of the Golden Rod Chapter 85 OES, made plans Thursday for the annual joint Christmas party with the Masonic Lodge members, Dec. 11.

A family potluck dinner will be served promptly at 2 p.m. at St. John's Lyster Hall. Baked ham, scalloped potstoes, rolls, butter, coffee and milk will be furnished. Those attending are to bring salad, vegetables or dessert.

Santa will visit after the showing of films, and families with children may bring gifts for distribution by Santa.

There will be a school of instruction, Dec. 9 at 7:30 p.m. in the chapter room.

Refreshments were served by the worthy matron, Mrs. Harlon Ruhl.

Parties Resume

CLINTON — The Priscilla Class of the United Church of Christ will host monthly euchre parties at the church in December, January and February.

The first one will be Dec. 10 at 8 p.m. It will be held in the main floor Kirker room, since the dining room is being used for the 4-H Christmas party.

Mrs. Edgar Randall is general chairman.

There will be cash prizes and refreshments. Proceeds are for the organ repair fund.

First Trip Worth $1,000 to Wellnitz

CLINTON — Gus Wellnitz told his daughter, Mrs. Robert Allen, "I thought it was too much, $101, to fly to Florida, but now I think it's worth $1,000."

Gus says he just can't imagine how, in one country only 1,000 miles away, the trees are green, and it's too hot to wear winter underwear.

"I've got my first garden planted in November with my own saved pea seeds and sweet corn."

He's staying in a travel trailer near daughter and son-in-law, Wilma and Robert Allen of Clinton, in Inverness, Fla.

For the last six years Mrs. Wellnitz made his home with his other daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gove on Eccles Rd.

He's 97 years old and flew for the first time when he went to Florida in November.

His winter address is: Gus Wellnitz, Rt. 1, Box 403 Eden Gardens, Inverness, Fla. 32650, c-o Wilma Allen.

180 Attend Dinner

CLINTON — Annual Christmas bazaar and dinner at the United Church of Christ raised over $1,000, Saturday, with 180 persons attending the dinner.

Drawing tickets remain available for prizes of $50 cash, afghan, and Christmas tablecloth until Dec. 18. Also tickets are available for a 20" standing doll.

College Night Is Dec. 21

CLINTON — Second annual College Night will be held at Clinton high school Dec. 21 at 7 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

All interested students and their parents are invited to attend.

A panel of Clinton graduates presently attending college, will discuss and answer questions about their college experiences.

Letters were sent to graduates now in college. Those who do not receive a letter and would like to participate in the program, are asked to contact the counseling office at the high school.

Macon Extension Club History

MACON — The Macon Extension Club was organized in Aug. 1945 and covers mostly Macon and Britton area in membership.

It's members were the mothers of the local 4-H Club led by Virgil Bortel. Group met at the home of Carrie Murphy, where the president Beulah Squires now lives.

The charter members were Beatrice Gilmore, Hazel Bush, Anna Squires, Anna Hintz, Myrtlene Craig, Elizabeth Barrett, Delta Croll, Edna Bortel, Marjorie Rohrback, Phyllis Patterson and Lilah Cadmus. A total of 11 members.

It now has a membership of 17 with seven charter members. One of the oldest clubs in the county, it meets once each month with the exception of June and August.

Through the years, the club received and taught the lessons from the extension service. Activities varied.

One time a family in Macon were burned out of their home and the members of the Macon Extension Club prepared their entire Christmas dinner.

An old fellow who lived alone received food, clothing and bedding. Flowers and gifts were furnished for anniversaries. Several speakers were presented on health, law, police officers, etc.

Tours included the Detroit News building in Detroit, Frankenmuth, Bronner's Christmas shop, Sauder's Farm Museum in Archbold, Ohio, Libby Owens Glass Co. in Toledo, Ohio, Greenfield Village and many more.

Each July the club barbecues chicken at Julie Johnson's.

The group made mattresses years ago from surplus cotton and made and presented an American flag for the county extension and a United Nations flag to Tecumseh Grange.

Delegates were sent to homemakers conferences for many years. One of the current members, Lilah Cadmus, attended for 25 years. Delta Croll attended for 20 years. Four members served on the county board including Lilah Cadmus, Delta Croll, Hazel Bush and Gladys Prill who now serves.

For years, the Macon Extension Club and the Macon 4-H Rangers had a combined Christmas party. Both clubs provided the food and entertainment including a mock wedding, plays, etc.

Church Has 50th Anniversary

N. BLISSFIELD — Golden Anniversary, celebrating the dedication of Immanuel Lutheran Church building, 1500 N. Blissfield Hwy., Palmyra, will be held Sunday, December 11, at 9 a.m. Sunday School and 10:15 a.m. Worship Service.

There will be special music for the day, a celebration of traditional common cup communion and a display of articles formerly used in the church.

Charlene Dickerson, President of our ALC Women, announces that Golden Anniversary cake, coffee and punch will be served by the church women after the service.

All former members are invited to come, wearing 50 year old clothing or bringing some object 50 years old or more.

Many will remember the special significance of the new church building dedication on December 11, 1927, which followed a tragic fire of the former building on November 7, 1926 when the Rev. Bruno Brueckner was pastor.

In succeeding years, the Rev. William Weinlander and the Rev. Dan Mathes served as pastors.

Friends and families in the community are cordially invited to attend this special day together with the members of Immanuel, according to the present local Pastor, Karl Oelschlager.

Britton Briefs

The Rev. and Mrs. John Roach held a Christmas open house at teh parsonage Sunday afternoon from 2-5 p.m. A potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. followed at the Grace United Methodist Church.

Due to vandalism at the Britton Bethel Baptist Church it is necessary to have the church driveways chained when services are not held. Church members are asked to be careful as they drive in, just in case the drive has not been opened.

Community Effort Yields Auditorium

Mention a cultural explosion in the Upper Peninsula and some people might think you were talking about a revival of Indian folk lore or Ernest Hemingway.

Escanaba, a city of 16,000 county seat of Delta County in the Upper Peninsula, is experiencing a cultural explosion. Civic organizations have mustered their efforts to develop a city-county sponsored arts program for the people of Delta County.

The story appeared recently in the Michigan Municipal Review, a monthly magazine available to Tecumseh's city council members since the city is a member of the Michigan Municipal league.

The Escanaba arts center was founded on the basis that the arts are not for an elite minority but for people who care about their community.

The center is open year around, five or six days a week with major emphasis on art for children. The Players De Noc, Escanaba's community theatre and the arts association are also using it.

The Marquette Diocese agreed to a 15 year lease arrangement with the city of Escanaba. The city renovated, repairs and maintains the building and pays $1 per year

City and county governments provided a total of $25,000 to start repairs

Other groups contributing to restoration with volunteer labor and funds were the local players, Bay Arts Association, Delta County Council for the Arts, community volunteers, Escanaba Rotarians, American Association of University Women, local newspaper.

The Michigan Council for the arts, a state agency, funded in part the children's art classes. CETA federal funds were used to acquire an arts program director, assistant director and renovate basement into a potter's shop.

Joseph Zendell, program coordinator for the Michigan Council for the Arts commented on the program: "Escanaba is not an extraordinary town. But it does seem to have some extraordinary people who believe that the arts are basic to the community's self image and its quality of life."

Ann Worth Concannon, director of the Escanaba center stated: the people of the community are "people who are willing to support this center simply because it makes them feel better about the community. . ."

Macon Montage

MACON — People who live or work on the Clinton-Macon Rd. have to deal with some mighty rough road conditions. Work on the road is progressing and let's hope we can all hold on.

George Hillard of the county road commission reports that eight inches of sand is almost down. Some areas of the road were bad because of all the wet weather. The gravel should go down soon but as winter weather sets in the road men will have to clear snow and keep up with other winter jobs, as needed.

Let's hope everybody's patience holds out!

Charles and Luella Bigelow returned from a trip through the southwestern states last week. They left Macon on Nov.12, their 40th wedding anniversary.

Several nice things happened before they left. On Nov. 6 the entire family including grandchildren accompanied them to Sunday services at the Macon Methodist Church in honor of their anniversary and were publicly recognized by the Rev. Raloff.

Daughters Beth and Becky, took them to the Fisher Theater to see Carol Channing in "Hello Dolly" and sons, Bill and Bob and families entertained them at a dinner party in Bob's Grosse Pointe Woods home.

The Bigelows reported seeing some wonderful sites including the Grand Canyon.

In addition to sightseeing, they visited several people which will interest Maconites. They stopped in Indio, Calif. and called on Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mansfield, formerly of Macon. The Mansfields subscribe to the Tecumseh Herald and were surprised to find out the Macon reporter lives in the house they lived in as newlyweds 52 years ago!

They also visited with Hammie and Gwen Moore in Harlingen, Texas. In Kansas the Bigelows saw Ken and Marie Frost's daughter and husband, Stewart and Kendra Mossman.

They visited Roy Collins in Texas who left Macon as a boy. When the couple returned last week they traveled more than 7,000 miles.

Truman and Lois Jordan spent Thanksgiving week with their son, Truman H. Jordan and family in Mt. Vernon, Iowa. Jim Rathbun, a grandson from Lansing went with them. Lois reported coming home through quite a storm and only hopes the family finds better weather when they make the trip to Michigan for Christmas.

The Charles Bigelows received word that Kinsey Corl of Monroe died last week. Mr. Corl is their daughter-in-law Nancy's father. He was also the father of a former Macon Methodist Church minister, the Rev. Corl.

Susie Oswald, daughter of Karen and Don Oswald, won three blue ribbons last Saturday in a solo ensemble at Onsted. Susie is an eighth grader and plays the saxophone.

Josie, Julie and Mark Jones attended the American - Bohemian Club children's Christmas Party in Britton, Sunday.

The Macon Historical Society will have its Christmas party Dec. 14 at the Donald Oswald's on Pennington Rd. at 7:30 p.m. Members are reminded to bring their favorite Christmas goodies to share and a $1-$2 gift to exchange.

This would be a good time for any Macon area people who have been thinking about joining the society to join the group.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

Busy 2 Months for FHA Chapter

BRITTON — Britton-Macon FHA chapter president Kim Cottrell reports that the local chapter was busy the past two months.

On Oct. 24 the annual "Initiation" for four new members: Teresa Faust, Debbie Weyher, Brenda Reum and Peggy Squires.

Michigan State FHA secretary-treasurer, April Rhodes, was the guest speaker at the meeting. She spoke on the responsibilities of FHA.

For the month of November the girls planned long and hard for their "Thanksgiving Pumpkin Pie Sale", taking orders between Nov. 7-11 and on Nov. 20 the chapter members met to bake the pies, ending up with 74 baked pies.

Pie sale was a huge success and the girls credited Bertha Brown, school cafeteria head, Rosemary Niblack and Nancy Hurlbut, teachers and Mrs. Benny Cottrell and Mrs. Richard Vallie mothers, for donating their time and effort to help the girls with the project. They also thanked those who purchased pies for this successful venture.

The chapter plans to go to the Sutton School to work with the children and Christmas carol during December.

Christmas Concert Is Set for Dec. 13th.

BRITTON — Christmas concert is scheduled for Dec. 13 at 7:30 p.m. in the Britton-Macon high school, with the Jr. High and High School band and chorus performing.

Among the many selections that will be played, following are just a few of the seasonal tunes you'll be hearing:

Junior High band, "Frosty The Snow Man," and "Deck The Halls."

High School band will play "A Christmas Festival" and "Sleigh Ride."

High School Chorus will be singing such favorites as "Away In The Manager" and "Do You Hear What I Hear."

Everyone is welcome. No admission will be charged.

The chorus will be Christmas caroling again this year. The group asks anyone who knows of shut-ins or someone who would like to have the carolers come to their home, to contact the school and leave their name and address with Meri Schoof, music teacher.

If anyone is interested in having a band or choral group perform for a club or organizational meeting, contact Mrs. Schoof.

BHS Menu

DEC. 12-16

MONDAY — Taco, shredded lettuce, cheese, bread and butter, sliced pineapple, milk.

TUESDAY — Macaroni and cheese or tuna and noodles, tossed salad, bread and butter, fruit cup, chocolate milk.

WEDNESDAY — Pizza, buttered peas, bread and butter, peaches, milk.

THURSDAY — Hot beef and gravy, mashed potatoes, cheese stick or relishes, bread and butter, strawberry shortcake, milk.

FRIDAY — Egg salad or peanut butter sandwich, buttered green beans, orange juice, cookie, milk.

Filing Deadline December 20

BRITTON — Deadline for filing petitions for village offices is Dec. 20 at 4 p.m. Petitions can be picked up at 347 E. Chicago Blvd.

Candidates must specify their political party. If any office has more than one person filing for that position, in the same party, a primary election must be held on Feb. 20, 1978. Regular village election is March 13, 1978.

Offices to be filled are: president, clerk, treasurer and assessor for two year term; three council trustees, four years; and two council trustees for two years.

School Excerpts

SCHOOL NEWS. (Editors Note: Following Britton-Macon School news was taken from the Dec. 1 "Principal's Letter":

Three young men were selected on the all-league football team for 1977: Jeff Osterhout, first team as an offensive back and Randy Smith, defensive back. Jon Hintz received honorable mention recognition.

Junior high band will participate in the junior high solo and ensemble competition Dec. 3 at Onsted. Thirty-seven events from Britton-Macon are entered. Persons earning one or two rating will also receive a medal. Public is invited to attend.

Semester exams are scheduled for Jan. 18 and 19. Jan. 18 will be a full day of school with 1, 3, 5 and 7th hour exams. Jan. 19 school will be in session from 8:18 to 1 p.m. with 2, 4 and 6th hour exams. No Vo-Tec.

School picture retakes will be held Dec. 13 for those students whose pictures were not satisfactory or who were absent.

School is taking part in the "Soup Labels for Education Program" which begins Jan. 2, 1978. Labels needed are from Campbell's soups, bean products and Franco-American products. Only the front part of the label is needed. They may be turned in to the school library in care of Anthony Bandurski.

JC Activities Are Told

The Tecumseh Jaycees and Auxiliary are cooperating and working separately on several seasonal projects this month.

A mitten and sock tree will be located at the two bowling alleys, Ten Pin Alley and Airport Bowl and Herrick Hospital.. Donations will be given to the Tecumseh Service Club for distribution to needy families in the area.

The Jaycees and Auxiliary are hosting a Christmas shopping spree for children at the D&C store one Sunday during December.

Children selected through the Tecumseh Service Club will receive an allowance from the Jaycees and Auxiliary with which they may purchase gifts for their family. A Christmas party for the children will follow.

The Jaycees have 400 Christmas trees to sell at the House of Pizza from 3-9 p.m. daily and 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

The Auxiliary will buy toys, games and dolls for distribution by the Tecumseh Service Club.

A Christmas party for the children of the Jaycees and Auxiliary will be sponsored Dec. 11. Children will decorate Christmas cookies as one planned activity.

The men and women of the Jaycees and Auxiliary will have a Christmas tour and caroling homes at each others homes on Dec. 17.

Horse Board Needs Judges

The Lenawee County Horse Board met Dec. 1 at Vo-Tech and elected officers.

Cindy Derby is president; Linda Pennington, vice-president; Becky Hart, secretary, Kim Welke, treasurer; Gary Allshouse, adult advisor; Carla Daly, reporter.

Chairmen were appointed to committees.

4-H youths interested in judging and horse bowl are needed. Call Doug Rueskink for information at the Extension office.

Next meeting is Jan. 5 at Vo-Tec.

GT Building Is Planned

Construction on the new Tipton central office building addition is presently scheduled for completion on December 15, according to Dick Zanter, division manager for General Telephone Company.

This building addition will provide the necessary space for additional equipment that is to be installed in 1978.

Included within the new building will be a new pyrotronics fire detection system, lightning protection and a grounding system to insure transmission on telephone calls for our customers, Zanter said.

The $63,000 building addition will increase the capacity of the present Tipton central office and provide for both the present and future growth of the area.

Performs at EMU

Michele Wilt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Wilt, 911 River Acres Dr. performed with the Eastern Michigan University Dance division Dec. 2 and 3 on the EMU campus. Program included lecture and demonstration on modern dance technique.

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

Last week I suggested two rich, chewy Christmas cookies. This week I have two delicately rich, melt in your mouth Christmas cookies.

Kifleys are Hungarian pastries, a favorite of Irene Baran's family. These nutty morsels are an excellent cookie that will become your family's favorite, too.

KIFLEYS

½ cup sour cream
1 tbsp. boiling water
1 package active dry yeast
½ cup softened butter
½ cup sugar
2 eggs, separated
1½ cups flour (about)
1 cup finely chopped walnuts
½ cup sugar
1 tsp. vanilla

Combine sour cream and boiling water in small bowl. Stir in active dry yeast and let stand three minutes. Stir until yeast is completely dissolved. Cream softened butter and ½ cup sugar in large bowl. Add sour cream mixture and beat one minute at low speed. Add 2 egg yolks and ¼ cup flour and beat at medium speed for one minute. Stir in additional 1-1½ cups flour to make a soft dough. Turn on floured board and knead 8-10 minutes. Divide in three sections and wrap in wax paper and refrigerate 2 hours or up to five days.

When ready to shape, combine the one cup chopped walnuts, ½ cup sugar and 1 tsp. vanilla. Beat egg whites until stiff and fold into nut mixture. Set aside. Shape the dough into small balls the size of walnuts and roll into flat circles. Spread with nut filling, roll up like jelly roll and bend like crescents. Place on greased baking sheet and bake 375 degrees 15 to 18 minutes or until golden brown. Cool on wire racks and sprinkle with powdered sugar. Makes about 3 dozen.

Jean Dellescese sent this easy recipe for pecan crescents and they are great.

PECAN CRESCENTS

1 cup soft shortening (half butter)
1/3 cup sugar
2/3 cup ground pecans
1-2/3 cup sifted flour
¼ tsp. salt.

Cream together shortening, sugar and pecans. Add sifted flour and salt and mix well. Chill dough slightly. Roll with hands into pencil thin strips. Chill again and cut into 2½ inch lengths. Form into crescents and bake on ungreased baking sheets. Bake 325 degrees until set but not browned (14-16 minutes). Cool on pans. While slightly warm dip in powdered sugar.

Note: instead of crescents, bake in pencil thin strips or roll into small balls. This is even easier than crescents.

See you next week. Happy baking.

Atlas Presented

Marjorie Comfort of Raisin Township was presented a copy of the new comprehensive Atlas of Michigan, the first published since 1873, at the Nov. 28 annual meeting of The Environmental Council of Lenawee (ECOL).

Slides of the Bicentennial Woods were shown by Ken Ross. Jean Henning of the Little Garden Club of Tecumseh presented a check for $1,000 raised by various projects.

Total amount raised for the Bicentennial Park project was reported at about $4,300.

Art Brewer, chairman of the Citizens' Advisory Committee for Region II 208 Water Quality program, briefed the group.

The 208 study, like the Maumee River Basin study, gives all interested citizens an opportunity to participate in the plans for the future of this county and region.

It is a means to carry out the Environmental Protection Agency's mandate to clean up America's waterways. Each unit of local government will have procedures to reduce water pollution.

Brewer noted that according to the study, the most polluted waterways in Region II are the north and south branches of the River Raisin.

Christmas in the Air

Nothing could be nicer than to be able to go out on one's own land to cut and bring in a fresh tree for the season's celebration.

If you have a small area of your property that can be used to grow a Christmas tree, why not consider some scotch pine, white or blue spruce, or even a douglas fir for planting and future Christmas trees.

This along with 10 other varieties will be available in the spring tree planting program sponsored by the Lenawee Soil Conservation District.

If you have a small area on your property a group of evergreens could grow there. The trees not cut for Christmas will provide good shelter for wildlife, spring homes for birds, besides breaking the drab monotony of the winter landscape.

For more information on planting trees for Christmas, wildlife or windbreaks contact the Lenawee Soil Conservation District.

OVER $1,000 IN FUND — Doug Dillon, left, accepts a check from Robert Murray. The check represented the proceeds from a special benefit performance of "Irene" by the Tecumseh Players held recently. The money was donated to a special fund set up to provide for a community theatre eventually. There is a total of $1,058 in the fund.

A LOOK INSIDE Herrick Hospital

BY

KATHY BAILEY, R.N.

RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

Something new will await the employees at HMH when they pick up their paychecks this week. The first issue of the hospital newsletter is hot off the presses and awaiting employees.

This endeavor came about as a result of the Hospital Analysis and Development (HAD) group — an extension of the management classes held earlier in the year.

The weekly article in the Herald introduced us more personally to our public. It was decided that something should be done to enhance the espirt de corps of the employees.

Volunteers were sought to plan and coordinate the effort. Individuals from each department or nursing unit were recruited as reporters.

A contest was held to choose a name for the newsletter and the winning name was picked from approximately 40 contributions. Doris Kemner won a $10 gift certificate for Trickey's for her winning title of "Between the Sheets."

All work on the newsletter is done during breaks or after working hours. Highlights include news from each department on the employees who work there, as well as announcements concerning new policies and procedures, new equipment and for those with culinary talent, a recipe of the month.

With the next issue, plans are under way to highlight an "employee of the month," a person of outstanding qualities who will be recognized and chosen by his or her peers.

It is the hope of those working closely on the newsletter that as the employees at HMH recognize their worth and importance through features in their own newsletter, this feeling of pride and self-esteem will be passed on to their patients in the form of pleasant and effective patient care.

Completes Training

Pvt. Patrick M. Blaine, son of Mrs. Rose Jones, 1418 S. Raisin Center, Adrian, recently completed advanced individual training at Ft. Benning, Ga.

During the seven-week course, students received training which qualified them as light-weapons infantrymen and as indirect fire crewmen in a rifle or mortar squad.

Tecumseh's Industrial Park

By Kathy Brown

While many residents are rewriting Christmas shopping lists, the city of Tecumseh is marketing, too--marketing its 53-acre industrial park south of Russell Rd. between Mill and Raisin Center Hwy.

City's latest effort was the printing of a technical brochure entitled "Facts and Figures on Tecumseh Industrial Park."

Project was the work of assistant city manager and community development director, Paul Preston, who was employed in the new role last March.

Other steps that the city has taken to bolster industrial development include: making the land available, street improvements including the Russell Rd. project from Rogers to Mill with a new bridge over the Raisin River, plans for industrial utilities and paving, personal contacts with industrial realtors, the Lenawee Chamber of Commerce, county Economic Development Committee and legislators regarding statewide problems in industrial development.

City also has Preston as a full-time employee who may devote more time to this aspect of community development.

The brochure answers questions about the community's resources for employees and industry itself. These include facts about the region, the site, design and planning requirements, utilities, population and labor force, transportation for freight and passengers and community facilities.

To obtain one, an industry may first be contacted with a two-page mailer or pamphlet designed to attract attention to Tecumseh's advantages. A return, self-addressed, postage paid postcard is mailed to Preston.

Ephitet for the attractive orange and black brochures on white is "Tecumseh, the Pleasant Place To Be." Preston said this supplements the city's familiar standard, "Refrigeration Capital of the World."

"It symbolizes the way we feel about the community itself, the schools, housing, central business district, recreation and people."

Preston said the city's strongest selling point is the community itself. "What it boils down to, to a great extent, is how he (the industrialist), sees the community. Does he want to live here and have his people live here," said Preston.

Other strong selling points are:

+ Skilled labor force—About 10 percent in the county. Preston said his earlier surveys showed existing industry was "pleased with the quality of the labor force. I got the impression people gave a full day," Preston told.

+ Price of the land—$5,000 per acre, competitive in the area.

+ Location to major markets such as Detroit, Toledo, Lansing and Flint.

Industry that the city hopes to attract will be light, labor intensive, preferably not warehousing except in conjunction with operations, not offensive in noise or air pollution.

Preston predicted that the likely candidates will come from the metropolitan areas. "Those who want to expand in Michigan and get out to the smaller areas, not expand in Detroit or suburbs. This is where I will concentrate efforts initially," he stated.

The city decided it will pay a realtor's commission, and Preston said he is already talking to realtors who are members of the society of industrial realtors." They have a feel, a pulse for what's happening. They are used by firms looking for vacant land and used buildings," Preston stated.

But don't look for overnight results. Preston was told by these professionals that negotiations of a year or more are not unusual because industry makes decisions at different levels. Estimated time to fill the park was made at between seven to 10 years.

Meanwhile Tecumseh has made its start.

New Branch

Allan C. Graybiel, president of First Federal Savings of Lenawee, has announced that a new branch will be constructed in Brooklyn.

Construction of the new branch is scheduled for completion in late spring or early summer of 1978. The new facility will be located at 131 S. Main Street in Brooklyn, and will feature four teller windows, drive-up facilities, night depository, as well as, ample free parking.

Monday Club Discusses Crafts

"Crafts are the people's art" was the program presented at the Nov. 28 meeting of the Monday Club at St. Peter's Episcopal Church. Thirty members and two guests were present.

Ethel Wright, Katherine VanEtten and Helen Hendershot displayed many home made crafts from everyday items. The inexpensive projects demonstrated what imagination can do.

Items included crocheted animals, stuffed felt animals, wreaths from egg cartons, snowman of plastic bowls, hand held dusters from a hanger and yarn scraps and many more items. Centerpiece was a "sugar" house by Mrs. Hendershot.

Mrs. Charles Waterman presented the history of rug hooking, the only American folk art as there was nothing comparable in Europe. It originated in the early 1700's.

Rugs were necessary to keep floors warm and served as a medium of artistic expression. Subjects were designs from European china patterns, animals and nature.

First hooked rugs were believed to have originated with men at sea. They used marlin spikes for pulling material from used clothing through losely woven fabric. Burlap is the best fabric.

Natural dyes from herbs, flowers, roots and grasses produced the soft and vivid colors used.

Later templates were fashioned to print designs on fabric.

Mrs. Waterman showed rugs hooked by herself and Mrs. Charles Helgrin, Viola Hertler, Hennifer Rathke and Genieve Beall of Clinton. They are members of the North American Rug Hookers Guild.

Mothers and babies are welcome. For further information, please call 423-7752 or 456-4903.

Give Children Helping Hand

Helping Hands is a new volunteer program of adults who are home when children are walking to and from school. They make themselves available in case of an emergency involving children.

Children will know a Helping Hand home by the blue, cardboard hand in the window. One home per block in each school area will be designated.

A meeting was held Nov. 29 in Tecumseh Acres school library with Sarah Russell, chairman representing the Jaycees Auxiliary, William P. Clark, Kiwanis and schools, Maggie Yorman, Patterson school principal and Brenda Johnson of the Child Study Club in Tecumseh.

The group is developing cover letters and an application form for citizens who wish to participate.

This is part of a community crime prevention program.

Interested persons may attend the next meeting Jan. 10 at 7 p.m. at Tecumseh Acres school library.

Program will be initiated March 1978. Kiwanis donated $100 for expenses.

Help Vets with Gifts

American Legion Auxiliary of the Underwood-Orr Post No. 34 will participate in the annual gift shop at Ann Arbor Veterans' Hospital during the week of Dec. 5.

Each auxiliary unit purchases a certain number of gifts for men, women and children. The men may select gifts for family and friends.

Auxiliary volunteers wrap and prepare them for mailing by the hospital. Local unit purchased about $150 in gifts from money raised by various activities.

The November meeting of the auxiliary was held at the Legion home.

Past presidents' parley was held with a potluck preceding.

Sixteen past presidents were present with three guests, Edna Albur, department parliamentarian, past department president of the state of Michigan, Imogene Cougill, department president and Doris Mida, district president.

Past presidents will send white socks, lap robes and scuffies to the Ann Arbor Veterans' Hospital patients.

Pat McWilliams, president, conducted business.

Twenty-five "Need a Lift?" booklets were ordered for distribution to the library and high school. Book details scholarships available for students.

Girls' State candidates were introduced by auxiliary chairman Floris Snyder. Barbara Lemanski, Mary Pat Holmes, Jill Hibbard and Cindy Egli told about their political experiences this past summer at the convention.

Mrs. Egli, Hibbard and Lemanski were guests along with Katherine Redman, president of the Business and Professional Woman's Club, another Girls' State sponsor.

Natural Resources Commission Action

(under authority of Act 230, P.A. 1925, as amended)

OPEN SEASONS AND CATCH LIMITS ON PIKE, WALLEYE, SAUGER & MUSKELLUNGE

The Natural Resources Commission, at its meeting on August 12, 1977, under the authority of Act 230, P.A. 1925, as amended, ordered that its subject order of August 15, 1975, remain effective through December 31, 1977, and that the following order become effective on January 1, 1978:

It shall be unlawful to take the following named species except within the open seasons and daily limits prescribed (statewide regulations apply unless otherwise restricted):

Statewide open seasons on all waters not otherwise closed to fishing shall be from May 15 through February on walleye, sauger, northern pike, and muskellunge (including tiger muskellunge). The daily catch limit shall be 5 singly or in combination for largemouth and smallmouth bass, walleye, sauger, and northern pike; 1 for muskellunge (including tiger muskellunge).

The above regulations apply except that walleye and sauger may be taken at any time from the Detroit and St. Clair rivers, Lake St. Clair, and Lake Erie; and that muskellunge in Lake St. Clair, St. Clair and Detroit rivers may be taken only from the first Saturday in June through December 15 of each year.

Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

No, the gorgeous evening grosbeaks have not paid us a return visit. We keep hoping though. These are simply marvelous birds and oh, how their bright colors do spruce up a dull winter landscape.

We are being extra careful about keeping the bird feeders well stocked — perhaps the birds will get hungry again and remember that the Duncans are serving tasty sunflower seeds. And if they remember, certainly they should come back, shouldn't they?

The chunky eight-inch birds spent the whole day with us and last week's article described the fun Mom and I had watching them eat and rest. There were about 10 or 12 males in the flock and two females.

With such a number you can imagine that there was continuous action. They constantly went from feeders to trees and back again. In bright sunshine their colors were vivid and bright. Yellow, black, and white.

In midafternoon however, the birds added a new dimension to the day's activities. They began flying down to the creek for a bit of bathing. There were many shallow pools along the edge of the water. It didn't take long for our visitors to discover that they made excellent bathtubs.

Convenient for them and great for us.

How we did enjoy their free wheeling sessions in the water. An evening grosbeak is a good sized bird and when he starts ducking his head and splashing with his wings the water truly flies.

And then what could be nicer after an invigorating dip than to have a handy tree to fly to and perch in or a super time of preening! We were glad that tree was the creek bank maple.

The sun shone brightly on the birds which only added to our viewing pleasure — it must have added to their preening pleasure too. Nice warm sunshine soaking deep down feels so good.

It was a strange coincidence that, the next day after we watched the evening grosbeaks bathe in the creek, I happened to be reading a book about a pair of golden eagles. Two interesting passages dealt with their bathing and preening habits.

This, by the way, was a small book but a good one, "Flight to Freedom" by Kent Durden. He is a professional wildlife photographer and, at the time the book was written, was on the lecture staff of the National Audubon Society. He writes well and is seemingly knowledgeable about his subject matter.

The heroine of his book is a golden eagle named Lady, a bird he and his father raised for 16 years. The book is an account of her life after she left their care and returned to the wild.

But back to birds and their bathing. Just as the eagle waded into shallow water so did our grosbeaks walk into the creek until they were tummy deep. He then talked about her "dipping her head repeatedly beneath the surface and rising up to allow the water to spill over her back." The grosbeaks did exactly the same.

Honestly, our birds could almost have read the book because they too had their feathers fluffed so that the water could penetrate, they also crouched down and began thrashing and throwing water with both wings. ". . .flushing water into every feather." Vigorous splashing indeed!

As for the preening, there was also a similarity. I am sure the evening grosbeaks treated each and every feather. It took much twisting and turning but each back, wing, and tail feather was in turn stripped through the bill and put into place.

Durden says that as each feather is pulled through the bill the bird exhales and the warm moist breath is an important part of the grooming process. In other words, golden eagles steampress their feathers — I wonder if evening grosbeaks do?

Letters of Thanks

The Allen H. Meyers Foundation received 29 letters of thanks from sixth grade students at Herrick Park School for the recent grant from the foundation that made possible the purchase of 50 copies and teachers guides of the textbook, "Let's Go Flying," written for their grade level.

Letters were addressed to Mrs. Allen H. Meyers, representing the foundation, and Mrs. Carlton Cook of the Michigan 99's women flyers.

The national women's organization wrote and published the text which gives authentic information about flying and operation of an airplane.

Mrs. Meyers stated that both boys and girls were glad to know that women and men were doing equal work in flying.

Mrs. Meyers was the author of the story in the November "Aviation Sport" magazine entitled: "Last Meyers OTW Donated to the Experimental Aircraft Association Museum," in Hales Corners, Wisc.

Story complete with pictures by Meyers photographer, Ev Payette, Monroe, detailed the disassembling of Allen Meyers' personal OTW, the last built of his design. Harold Lossners of Iowa, president of the Meyers OTW Club of that state, did the transporting.

Highlights of Allen Meyers' role in aviation and the story of his creative genius were detailed in the comprehensive article.

Artist Randy Penner was inspired by Meyers' romance with airplanes and for the back cover interpreted the love at first sight scene of Al distracted by his first sighting of an airplane while he and his dad harvest hay by a full moon.

One of a million carolers. And on Christmas Eve she will bring comfort, reassurance, joy to many.

Mrs. J. is blind. She has never seen the carolers . . . but eagerly she listens for their arrival.

Mr. H. is an invalid. His nurse invites the boys and girls in and serves them cocoa. Mr. H. loves their happy smiles as well as their joyous voices.

Little Paul R. broke his leg last Saturday. That's why he's not caroling this year. But they'll be around to sing "Silent Night" under his window. That one is Paul's favorite.

When you hear the carolers on Christmas Eve, pause and consider the Love that inspires their singing. That Love was born in a Bethlehem stable one holy night centuries ago.

Hoopsters Split Pair

The Clinton boys cage team held off an aggressive Morenci squad on Tuesday of this week to win 68-56.

Last Friday, the Redskins lost to Addison 60-49.

The Skins jumped off to a quick 14-6 lead over Morenci after the first frame and lengthened the margin to 32-18 at the half.

But Morenci wasn't finished yet. The Bulldogs battled back in the second half scoring 38 points to 36 for Clinton including 22 in the final frame. Morenci still came up short however.

Clinton bagged 32 of 70 from the floor for 46 percent to 22 of 52 for Morenci for 42 percent.

Mark Dettling had 17 points and 18 rebounds for Clinton while Mike Karapas had 15 points and Terry Carlton, Dave Porter and Wally Pike each had 10.

Addison had a 20-19 lead at the half last Friday night but pulled ahead by virtue of a 20 point third quarter to 12 for the Skins.

For the entire second half, Addison had 40 points to 30 for Clinton.

The Redskins hit on 28 percent of their shots from the field while Addison hit on 43 percent.

Mike Risner was tops for the Skins with 10 markers.

Clinton is 2-2 overall, 1-1 in the LCAA. they host Blissfield this Friday, traveling to Grass Lake next Tuesday.

Summerfield Beats Tory Cagers, 55-42

Britton's boys basketball squad fell to Summerfield 55-42 last Friday. A game with Pittsford scheduled for Tuesday night of this week was cancelled.

The Tories were ahead of Summerfield 32-31 at the end of the third frame.

Summerfield caught fire in the fourth period and rattled off 24 points to just 10 for Britton.

The Tories could hit on only 24 percent of their shots from the floor to 38 percent for Summerfield.

Randy Smith was tops in scoring for Britton with 13.

4TH TIME IN 5 YEARS

THS Girls Rock Saline to Capture District Title

For the fourth time in five years, Tecumseh's girls basketball squad captured the district championship last Friday with a 57-42 win over Saline.

The Indians had a bye the first round and faced Chelsea last Thursday in second round action. Tecumseh won that contest 67-32.

The next stop for the orange and black was the first game of the regionals held Wednesday night at Ann Arbor Huron High School against Novi. A victory there, undecided before press time, would send the Indians into the regional finals this Saturday.

The Indians were not seriously threatened by Saline although Tecumseh endured a press through all four quarters resulting in 32 turnovers for the orange and black. Saline lost the ball 33 times as well.

Tecumseh was ahead at the half 27-18 and added 30 points in the second half to 24 for the Hornettes.

The orange and black connected on 26 of 57 from the floor for 57 percent while Saline nailed only 30 percent of their shots. The Indians could make only five of 15 from the line while the Hornettes dumped 10 of 21.

Grace Burns led in scoring with 17 while Janice Jahner had 13 and Debbie Steadly 12.

Tecumseh held the edge in rebounding 34-23.

Tecumseh led Chelsea 22-18 at the half adding 35 points in the second half to 14 for the opposition.

Gloria Fosbender had 16 points followed by Steadly with 15.

Coach Diane Nelson said of the Saline struggle, "They had a press on us for all four quarters. That was the third time all season we've been pressed and we are inexperienced in breaking a press. Defensively we did a real good job. They had a six foot center who was averaging 16 points per game. We held her to to six points."

The Indians entered the Wednesday night regional game with a 17-5 record while Novi was 17-2.

Indians Beat 2, Face Jets Friday

Tecumseh's boy cagers continued to roll through the season easily beating two more opponents including Monroe Catholic Central last Friday 65-47 and Columbia Central 82-46 on Tuesday of this week.

The Indians cruised by Columbia Central leading at the half by 45-20. The orange and black added 37 markers in the second half to 26 for the Eagles.

Tecumseh connected on 43 percent of its shots from the floor to 39 percent for Columbia Central. The Indians also made 18 of 25 from the line to eight of 14 for the opposition.

Tecumseh dominated the boards 46-33.

Jim Neill and John Ely tied for Tecumseh scoring honors with 11 each while Jeff Hans and Bret DesErmia each had 10.

Against Monroe Catholic Central last Friday, both teams were tied at 14-14.

The Indians caught fire in the second quarter scoring 24 points to 11 for Monroe.

Tecumseh held a 27-22 scoring advantage for the second half.

The Indians made 37 percent of their shots from the field to 40 percent for Monroe.

Hans had 24 points to lead all scorers while Bret DesErmia had 13. The Falcons lost the ball 37 times to 15 turnovers for the Indians.

Tecumseh now posts a 3-0 record on the season. This Friday, the Indians host Airport in a big Huron league match-up.

CHS Girls Win District Title

Clinton's girl cagers ousted Hudson 55-34 last week and Addison 69-59 Saturday to win their district championship.

It was the teams' third straight district title.

The Skins enter regional play this Thursday at 6:30 p.m. at Columbia Central facing East Jackson.

Clinton had to play catch-up against Addison Saturday night in the district finals — and that is something the Redskins aren't used to.

Addison took the first quarter 22-16 and was still in the lead 33-31 at the half.

The Skins scored the first two points of the third period to tie the score but Addison came back to pump in ten straight points.

With 2:30 left in the frame, Clinton came alive and led 47-45 at the end of the period. They kept up the pressure increasing their lead to eight after the first minute of the final quarter. The score seesawed for the rest of the period but the Skins hung on for the win.

Sue Richter scored 29 points in the contest and picked off ten rebounds. Cathy Gibson added 12 points, JoAnn Grossman 11 and Karen Busch, nine.

Grossman came up with 18 rebounds while Judy Zimmerman had seven assists.

Last Wednesday night, Clinton ousted Hudson from further competition with a 55-34 decision. The Skins ran away with the victory outscoring the Tigers 31-18 in the first half, 24-16 in the second.

Richter was again tops in scoring with 14, Karen Busch had 11.

Clinton enters regional play with a 21-1 record.

Junior Redskins Victorious

The Clinton junior varsity basketball squad dumped Addison last Friday 51-34.

The Redskins were led by Tom Foreman with 17 points and 10 rebounds and Ed Foreman, eight points and nine rebounds.

Eggleston Letters at Adrian

Kevin Eggleston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Eggleston, 709 Wenonah St. lettered in the fall sports program at Adrian College. He is a freshman art major and played football.

Fifty Adrian College athletes were honored Nov. 15 at the annual fall sports banquet.

Dundee Squeaks by Grapplers

Tecumseh's grapplers lost a close one to Dundee on Tuesday of this week 28-25.

The Indians lost to Madison 38-33 last Thursday but defeated Columbia Central 35-34 in a double dual meet.

Individual winners against Dundee: 119 pounds - Ben Williams on 5-4 decision; 126 pounds - Jack Bagby on 13-3 decision; 132 pounds - Steve Bishop on pin at 3:12; 155 pounds - Dan Yoder on pin at 3:54; 165 pounds - John Silberhorn on 9-2 decision; 191 pounds - Tony Turner on 5-3 decision.

Tecumseh attends the Huron Invitational this Saturday traveling to Chelsea next Tuesday.

Clinton Matmen Dump St. Thomas

Clinton's wrestling squad fell to Addison 39-31 last Thursday but bounced back to beat Ann Arbor St. Thomas 34-23 on Tuesday of this week.

The Skins placed second at the Whiteford Invitational Saturday.

Individual winners for Clinton against St. Thomas: 105 pounds-Schindler, forfeit; 119 pounds - Semanske by 2-1 decision; 138 pounds - Weirich on pin at :40; 165 pounds - Thilo on pin at :54; 191 pounds - Heimerdinger by forfeit; Hvt. - VanTuyle, on 7-3 decision.

Last Saturday, the Redskins participated in the Whiteford Invitational finishing second with 139½ points.

Michigan Center won it with 205½ points.

Chris Wojtowicz at 105 pounds was declared an individual champion as was Lee Russ at 138 pounds. Wally Heimerdinger at 178 and Clayton Semanske at 119 were second; Rudy Weirich at 132 and Casey Thilo at 155 were both third.

Individual winners for Clinton against Addison: 105 Pounds - Wojtowicz won on a pin at 3:40; 126 pounds - Willis won on pin at 1:50; 126 pounds - Hoag won a 3-0 decision; 138 pounds - Russ won 10-6 decision; Hvt. - VanTuyle won a 6-4 decision.

Clinton is now 0-1 in the LCAA, 2-2 overall. They host Morenci Thursday, traveling to the Napoleon Invitational Saturday. Next Tuesday they travel to a meet with Stockbridge and Vandercook Lake.

Tories Capture District Crown

Britton's girl cagers won their district title Saturday with a 35-32 win over Deerfield in Ann Arbor.

Last Wednesday, the Tories beat Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard 36-34 to advance to the finals.

Britton trailed 17-14 at the half against Deerfield but pulled into the lead after outscoring the Minutemen 11-6 in the third period.

The Tories hung on in the final frame to win the title.

The Tories weren't exactly hot from the field connecting on 13 of 60 for 22 percent while Deerfield made nine of 31 for 29 percent. Britton did have a 35-20 rebounding advantage.

Janette Schultz had 12 points in the contest.

Genene Bruce connected on a jump shot with just a few seconds left against Gabriel Richard last week to propell the Tories into the finals. Bruce led all scorers in the contest with 18.

Britton began regional play Wednesday night against the winner of the Webberville district. The game was at Grass Lake and was undecided before press time.

The Tories entered the first round of regionals with a 14-6 record.

Roles are available for 10 men and four women. A copy of the script is available at the Tecumseh Public Library but may not be checked out.

Phones Rang . . . We Were Late!

Our phones rang and rang last Thursday and Friday, and each time we knew the caller's reason. Where's my Herald?

We printed a day late, and we apologize. If hard work, long hours and persistence had paid off, we could have published on time.

A supplier not only sent us the wrong replacement for our folder, but it was faulty, to say the least. Error was not discovered until Sunday afternoon. Efforts to correct the problems were futile and our problems mounted. By Wednesday afternoon we were down completely.

A number of other publications scheduled for the Herald's press were also printed a day late with these publications handled in Toledo and Mason.

On Friday afternoon, we reinstalled our folder and were back in the printing business again.

GRIN 'N BEAR IT — Fourth grader Steven Martin may not have liked his measles immunization Tuesday, but the shot will save him and other Tecumseh schoolers the pain of taking part in the recent outbreak of measles in the Tecumseh school system. In total, 87 elementary students received immunizations at Patterson Elementary after returning a parent's permission slip. The vaccine was administered by nurses under the eye of the Lenawee County Health Department.

Soldier Murdered in Family Dispute

Husband of a former Tecumseh resident was killed early Wednesday morning from a shot gun wound received during a family dispute, according to Adrian police.

Victim is Pvt. Charles Mercer, 23, soldier stationed at Ft. Benning, Ga., and formerly of Addison. He was the husband of the former Kathy Laslo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Laslo, 408 W. Kilbuck.

The altercation took place at the Mercer residence, 647 W. Beecher St., Adrian, and Mrs. Mercer was with her husband at the time. The shooting took place about 1:00 a.m., and he died about two hours later on the operating table at Bixby Hospital.

Charged in the shooting is Timothy Poll, 20, also 647 W. Beecher. He was taken into custody and was scheduled for arraignment Wednesday morning in district court on the charge of murder.

Hospital Asks for Approval

Herrick Memorial Hospital asked the state for approval to house ultra-sound diagnostic equipment, operated by Dr. Nancy Newlin.

Dr. Newlin currently rents space for the equipment at Herrick Memorial Hospital and does all examinations personally.

Under the present temporary agreement, the hospital rents space to Dr. Newlin for providing diagnostic ultrasound consultation for inpatients and outpatients.

The equipment provides a non-invasive method of diagnosing cysts, masses and other tumors, abnormalities of the heart and valves; and evaluating pregnancy.

If approved, the new service will be completed in April 1977 at an estimated cost of $47,918.

In keeping with federal regulations requiring prior state approval before a change in service, Herrick Memorial Hospital has applied for a certificate of need. The application is on file with the division of health facility planning and construction, Michigan Department of Public Health.

Starts Dec. 22

Christmas vacation for the schools will start at the end of the school day on Thursday, Dec. 22.

Classes will resume on Tuesday, Jan. 3.

'Greetings' on the Way

"Christmas Greetings" from city hall are expected to be in the mail on Friday, Dec. 16, according to Vera Gardner, city clerk.

The greetings, however, will be in the form of winter tax statements for city taxpayers.

Give Santa a Jingle

Tecumseh area children will be happy to know that Santa will be answering Christmas calls from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. from December 19th until the 23rd.

Children, who wish to speak with St. Nick, can call 423-2131 or 423-2132.

The Tecumseh Jaycee sponsored event has been made possible by Frank Meyers, who has donated the use of the Arrow Part's phones.

HP's MITTEN TREE—During the past week, the mitten tree at the Herrick Park office of United Savings Bank has taken on a new look. More and more mittens and caps have been fastened to the tree for some needy youngsters this holiday season. Jaycees also are sponsoring mitten trees at both bowling alleys and at the hospital. 2nd Storm Raises Question-Another Winter Like '77?

Area citizens undoubtedly this past week asked themselves the question of are we headed for another winter comparable to last year.

It looks like it, and most will agree.

Last week, a snow storm forced schools and business to close early Monday afternoon. Classes were cancelled again on Tuesday.

Thursday, the worst storm of the year hit, and the area suffered from more snow and sub-zero weather. Again, the schools cancelled classes Friday as Thursday's storm plugged rural roads with snow, much of it drifted three and four feet high.

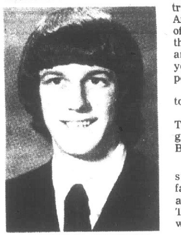
Friday morning many primary streets and highways were either snow covered, glazed with ice, and in some cases, one way for traffic.

According to the city wastewater plant's gauges, our official snowfall last week measured 12 inches. Five inches were recorded on Monday, Dec. 5, and an additional seven inches last Thursday and early Friday morning.

Over the weekend, the mercury fell to five and 10 below.

Youth Seriously Hurt in Accident

Lawrence Johnson, 20, of 6540 Billmyer Rd., was seriously injured, perhaps critically, shortly before midnight Tuesday when he lost control of his pickup on Russell Rd., just west of Occidental.



LAWRENCE JOHNSON

According to the sheriff's department, Johnson was eastbound when his truck went off the right side of the road, struck some railroad ties and flipped.

He was first taken to Herrick Hospital and then transferred to St. Joseph's in Ann Arbor. Local hospital officials were unable to give the extent of his injuries, but another source reported the young man appeared to be in poor condition.

The pickup truck was totaled in the accident.

Johnson was a 1975 Tecumseh high school graduate and was active in a Britton 4-H Club group.

Snow covered, slippery streets were contributing factors in seven of nine traffic accidents handled by the Tecumseh police this past week.

Resume is:

Dec. 8 - Duane C. Enos, 17, of 5906 Osburn Dr., was unable to stop on W. Chicago at Union and ran into the rear of a vehicle driven by Trent L. Deverna, 21, Canton.

Dec. 9 - Robyn K. Rutkofsky, 20, of 107 Maple, attempted to turn off W. Chicago at S. Pearl St. and slid into Lawrence Poley, 66, of 408 S. Pearl.

Dec. 10 - Randy R. Arnett, 18, of 708 Occidental, was northoound on S. Occidental and slid into W. Chicago Blvd., striking Harold J. Declercq, 50, of 512 W. Kilbuck.

Dec. 10 - Rodney W. Higgins, 18, of 206 Ciarns, told officers he was northbound on Cairns when he attempted to shift but grabbed the emergency brake instead. His car then slid into a snowbank at Sunset Dr., where the vehicle sustained front end damages. Higgins suffered minor injuries.

Dec. 10 - Sharon M. Hill, 20, of 11140 Matthews Hwy., was cited for failure to yield the right away after sliding into Michael A. Cheever, 18, of 9350 River Acres Dr., at the intersection of N. Pearl and W. Logan.

Dec. 11 - Douglas D. DeJonghe, 17, Ridgeway, told police he was not able to stop before running into Johen E. Stuart, 23, of 13030 Clinton Rd., on Water St. near N. Evans. Stuart's vehicle was struck in a snowbank at the time.

Dec. 10 - John L. Becker, 63, of 9451 Tipton Hwy., was turning off W. Chicago at Union St. when his car was struck by Richard W. Jackson, 28, of 2445 Munger Rd. Becker's car was then pushed into Brian Hager, 16, of 714 Seneca.

Two passengers in the Becker vehicle, Juanita Becker, 55, and Marian Stockinger, 50, complained of minior injuries.

Renew Shots for Measles

Inoculation of Tecumseh students against measles continued this week when the county health department officials moved into the elementary school buildings.

Pupils in kindergarten through the sixth grade started receiving shots Tuesday. Immunization was originally scheduled to begin on Dec. 9 in the grades.

Immunization in the schools is on a voluntary basis, but it is recommended by the health department.

Although there has been no outbreak of measles in the schools for the past couple of weeks, such an outbreak did occur at THS. Officials then began inoculating students and about 30 percent of the junior and senior high student body participated.

2 Schedule Kettle Drive

Tecumseh Kiwanis and Rotary will man the Salvation Army kettle drive in Tecumseh this Friday and Saturday. Kiwanis will work Friday and Rotary on Saturday.

Men will work from about midmorning to 8 p.m. at some of the locations that are open later. Some of these locations are the United Savings Bank downtown, Herrick Park and Occidental branches, A&P, Kroger, Ken-Ray and north and south corners of Chicago Blvd. and Evans.

Last year the men collected $2,000 for the Salvation Army. It was used for Christmas distribution among underprivileged families in the area.

Investigate Four Complaints

Four complaints investigated by Tecumseh police this past week were minor.

Saturday, Virginia Krout, 213 S. Pearl St., reported all four tires on her car had been slashed with a knife.

On the same day Zane Noragon, 211 N. Evans, told police a radio antenna on his car had been snapped off.

Later that day, Douglas J. Fleshman, 22, of 212 N. Pearl St., was stopped for speeding and weaving on W. Chicago Blvd. He was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Paul E. Baker, 47, Warren, was picked up Tuesday and turned over to the sheriff's department for child neglect. He had been stopped for erratic driving on S. Evans St.

Accidents

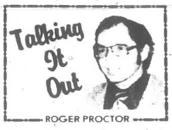
Dec. 10 - John R. Graham, 26, Adrian was cited for improper backing after hitting a parked car, owned by Myrtle I. Bancroft, 720 Waskin Dr., on Cairns St.

Dec. 8 - Lloyd G. Wahl, 56, Brooklyn, backed into an agency's auto at the Erb Bros. dealership on W. Chicago



'What should I look for in a nursing home?'

People often tell us about their experiences with nursing homes. We have some very fine ones in our city and these are just some of the things to look for in choosing a nursing home.

1. Consult first with your doctor as to the particular type and amount of care required.

2. Visit the facility yourself, alone.

3. Does the home provide all the services your doctor requires?

4. If the patient is dependent on Medicare or Medicaid, does the nursing home participate in both programs?

5. Obtain and read the "patient's Bill of rights." This is posted conspicuously and gives the regulations necessary to be certified for Medicare and Medicaid.

6. Who is the "house" doctor? Is he available on Staff or on-call 24-hours? How many registered nurses?

7. Are emergency patient transfers to a hospital provided for? How far away is it?

8. What is the exact total monthly covered and what is and is NOT covered? Is a written basic service agreement available?

Be sure to discuss with the patient's doctor other special services he may require -- special diet, exercise, personal attention, etc.

Award Benefits to 60 Foremen

Dec. 12, the Michigan Court of Appeals released its decision overturning Lenawee County Circuit Judge Rex B Martin and did award to the 60 foremen at Tecumseh Products full benefits for unemployment during the extended strike at the Tecumseh Products Plant in 1974 and 1975.

The decision was announced to Timothy P. Pickard of the Jameson Law Firm in Adrian, who represented the foremen, that the case was reversed and remanded to the appeal board of the Employment Security Commission to carry out this decision.

Pickard said, "We are pleased with this decision in that it will compensate the 60 families who suffered the hardship of no income for the four months through no fault of their own."

Moore-Barker Married

Margaret Marie Moore and Richard Eugene Barker were married at 4 p.m. at the Macon United Methodist Church on Dec. 10.

The Rev. Albert Raloof of the church officiated at the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dean Moore of Britton and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Barker of Tipton.

Howard Mehler was the organist and Edward Clark was the soloist.

The bride wore a white gown of Spanish lace with a tiered ruffled skirt.

Her jewelry was a diamond necklace and her bouquet was fashioned of blue and white carnations with ivy and baby's breath.

Deborah Lynne Moore, the bride's sister of Britton, was the maid of honor wearing a powder blue gown with jacket. She carried blue and white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Terri Miller of Reading, Joyce Loomis of Britton, Mrs. Gary Cox of Tecumseh. Each wore a powder blue gown styled after the honor attendant's and carried matching flowers.

Kim Blatt, the groom's niece of Tecumseh, was the flower girl with a powder blue gown and matching flowers.

Jason Scott Moore, the bride's cousin from Jackson, was the ringbearer.

Gary Cox of Tecumseh was the best man. Ushers were Perry Dean Moore, the bride's brother of Britton, Rich Shambarger, the groom's brother-in-law of Adrian and Tim Barker, the groom's brother of Tipton.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Randall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halliwill were hosts for the buffet supper at the Tecumseh Grange.

Stacy Morgan registered guests, Jayne Thomas served punch and Beth Kopka served the cake.

JC Auxiliary Meets

Claire Helms hosted the Dec. 7 Christmas season meeting of the Tecumseh Jaycees Auxiliary at her home.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Swearengin of Rockwood. She is a state vice-president for the Michigan Jaycee Auxiliary. Other guests were Maggie Yurman, principal at Patterson School, Sue Drazic and Cheryl Mullter.

Jaycee president Tom Thayer and Jaycees Ray Russell and Bob Cunningham told the auxiliary about the recently remodeled Jaycee club room located behind the House of Pizza.

The Auxiliary appropriated $200 for the club room from its internal account which is separate from community project funds.

The Auxiliary will donate a "Hear, See, Do" safety record set to the Tecumseh Library.

December projects include a mitten and sock tree at the Ten Pin and Airport Bowling alleys. Items collected will be distributed to needy families through the Tecumseh Service Club.

The Auxiliary purchased toys and games, also for Christmas distribution by the Service Club.

A shopping spree for 16 children from families selected by the Service Club will be held Dec. 18 at the D&C. This is a joint project with the Jaycees.

Other projects that the Auxiliary plans include Safety Town, a cardboard model of Tecumseh to teach pre-schoolers about safety, Jaycee Appreciation Day in January, a brotherhood breakfast, helping hands for children in emergency situations and Make Today Count for the terminally ill.

An auction of homemade items was held before the meeting concluded.

Next meeting is Jan. 19 at the United Savings Bank branch office at W. Chicago and Occidental. Women 18-36 years old are invited.

Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

No matter what the calendar says and no matter what the weather is on the day this article hits the newsstands, winter has arrived! It blew in on strong, screaming winds and fell in heavy snows which left everything buried beneath a blanket of white. Beautiful

Today, however, I shall not go off on a tangent and rave about the magical quality of a winter landscape. It is a busy birdfeeder which concerns me now and, as has so often been said before, nothing quite equals a good snow storm in affording busy feeding stations.

Where to begin? Well, first of all I suppose I should say that the unusual weather provided no unusual birds. The gorgeous evening grosbeaks of a few weeks ago did not come back on this snowy day.

They were too busy elsewhere, I guess, because we have received four or five calls reporting feeders full of grosbeaks.

Nice to hear that they are visiting around and giving others a taste of the pleasure they gave us.

Our snowy day gang consisted of old regulars. And my, what a thrill to be able to list a pair of tiny red-breasted nuthatches among the regulars. These are charming little birds who seemingly mind their own business and bother no one.

Only four and a half inches long they almost have to be seen together to realize that the male is slightly larger, has a darker navy blue head and a brighter, dirty rose colored breast than does the female.

Their sole job this particular day seemed to be building a cache of food against the hardships of winter. Back and forth they went between the near-my-window feeders and the walnut tree.

Every trip saw a sunflower seed carried to the tree—the crannies and crevices of its rough bark must be stuffed full of seeds. The 'one track mind' of the little twosome was really quite amazIng to watch.

With the exception of bluejays and squirrels, they did not seem to care who was on the feeder. They simply came down, grabbed a seed, and took off.

Unfortunately the red squirrels, and I fear they now number three, are beginning to intimidate the much larger fox squirrels. They drive them right off the feeders.

The only good thing to come out of those chases was that, on this particular day, the scurrying feet and swishing tails helped brush the snow from the food trays.

Both big and little squirrels are well prepared for cold weather—I hope it is just my imagination that their 'fur coats' look heavier and warmer than ever. What we don't need is another record breaking cold winter.

The pert little chickadees, were right at home in all of the snow and cold. Their spirits were high and I wish they could bottle and sell me some of their seemingly boundless energy.

They were almost too excited by the winter weather to eat. Sometimes they picked up a bit of corn or worked on a sunflower seed but often they landed on the feeders, looked around, squeaked or whistled a note, and hurried away.

The bright and beautiful male cardinal was more sedate. When he came in for a snack, he settled down in the snow and munched on sunflower seeds—nothing, absolutely nothing, can beat the combination of a red cardinal on a snowy feeder.

Our flock of juncos this year is an extra large one. They were highly visable this day but very quiet and peaceful. They simply did their backward jump scratching, uncovered the cracked corn they were after, and ate.

Such was part of the bird feeder action on a pre-wintery day. Hope when the season officially arrives it will continue to produce such good looking.

Witnesses Hold Weekend Assembly

Ronald E. Sobota, an elder of Jehovah's Witnesses in the Tecumseh congregation, announced that Dec. 17 and 18 will be the dates of their semi-annual circuit assembly to be held at Holt, near Lansing.

The two-day family seminar will feature the importance of good association in maintaining a close relationship with God.

Leo Mahan, circuit supervisor, and John Casino, district supervisor, will be on hand to present scriptural discourses and demonstrations to the 1500 delegates expected to attend. The main Bible lecture will be on Sunday at 2 p.m. entitled, "Maintain Your Confidence Firm to the End."

Local Clubs Help Army

The third annual Kiwanis, Rotary and Salvation Army party for underprivileged children in Tecumseh will be held Dec. 20 at St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Names of children were referred to the Army through the schools and people who applied for assistance. About 50 children are expected to be entertained next Tuesday.

Children were invited by letter by the Army and were asked to confirm reservations so that personal gifts may be planned for them.

The Kiwanis and Rotary Club members assist at the party by acting as companions to the children during the entire evening.

They welcome the elementary age children, help them with their coats, introduce them to the others, eat the same hamburger supper tailored for youthful appetites and help the kids open gifts addressed personally to them.

Evening's program consists of dinner, musical entertainment, visit from Santa Claus, distribution of gifts and candy.

The Tecumseh program is only a part of the Lenawee County Salvation Army's Christmas program. During 1976 season, 1,202 families in Lenawee County were contacted by the Army with 313 food orders and checks. 430 additional individual meals were furnished.

1,182 children were served with parties and entertainments.

1,578 toys were distributed. New garments and shoes were purchased for 750.

The Army visited 10 county institutions where 787 individuals were contacted. 3,661 articles including toiletries, clothing, Christmas magazines, food items, were distributed.

104 man and woman hours were spent by 104 individuals in this work.

Total income for the Salvation Army for last Christmas was $15,311. Total amount disbursed was $10,984 with the surplus of $4,326 used for winter relief, summer camping programs and purchasing gifts ahead.

3 Finalist in Math Competition

Three Tecumseh High School students finished in the top 4.6 percent on part I of the 21st annual Michigan Mathematics Prize Competition and are among 1,081 Michigan students who competed in the final examination on Dec. 7.

Tecumseh High School math students who qualified for the second test are William Brooks, Andrew Neilson and Jack Scheirer.

Other students with above average scores were Janine Bakucz, Sandra Dunn, Mary Pat Holmes, Karen Moll, Alison Phillips, Deborah Randolph and Robert Snyder.

This competition is sponsored by the Michigan section of the Mathematical Association of America and is designed to foster a wider interest in mathematics, to focus attention on the necessity for mathematical training in most professions and trades and to identify and provide scholarships for capable mathematics students in the state of Michigan.

The 100 winners of the competition will be honored at the awards program to be held at Eastern Michigan University on Feb. 25, 1978, with 40 of the winners receiving a total of over $7,000 in college scholarships.

The scholarship fund includes contributions from the Burroughs Corporation, the Kuhlman Corporation and the Michigan Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

A LOOK INSIDE
Herrick Hospital

BY
KATHY BAILEY, R.N.
RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

The medical records department is one of the least noticed departments of the Herrick Memorial Hospital. Until recently, they have been tucked away in the basement of the old building which they have graciously tolerated for several years. Now they inhabit new quarters in the remodeled east wing.

The job that medical records performs sounds simple: to gather, organize and file all records that pertain to the treatment of patients. In reality, the task is anything but simple.

Daily records are kept by nurses, technicians and paramedical personnel in the patient chart. The doctor writes orders in the chart each day along with his or her observations of the patient's progress.

Reports from X-ray, lab, social-services, and other departments are routed to the chart. In short, the chart will contain the documented history of the patient's stay at the hospital.

Many special reports are dictated onto tape by the doctors. Dr. Draginis, our radiologist, dictates his interpretation of each X-ray study.

The same is true of each electrocardiogram (EKG) done. The same procedure is followed by surgeons after an operation, and by each doctor when a patient is discharged. A dictated summary of the hospital stay is made.

All this adds up to vast amounts of words to be transferred to paper for inclusion with the chart. This transferring or transcribing is one of the jobs done in medical records.

The transcribers listen to the tape with an earphone. The tape is controlled by a foot switch which will run the tape forward or backwards. As the tape is played, the transcriber types the spoken report onto the proper form, word for word, as the doctor recorded it.

The volume of dictation keeps transcriptionists Corrine Dick, Michelle Hall and Florence Tilton pretty busy. Medical records director, Judy Steuwe frequently pitches in to help.

To watch the transcription process is impressive. The old saying, "the hand is quicker than the eye" is literally true as these expert typists reach typing speeds that boggle the mind.

Accuracy is vital, so a medical dictionary is always a close companion. One would be amazed at the number of medical terms in the English language.

When a report is completely typed, it is proof-read, then routed to the doctor who made the report. After reading the report to be sure it is correct, the doctor signs it and returns it to medical records.

The transcription process is only part of the work done in medical records. Other tasks will be covered in later articles.

Baby Boy Is Baptized

Michael Thomas Ball was baptized Dec. 11 at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dangler as his godparents.

He was born Oct. 26 in Bixby Hospital, Adrian to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ball of 205 Cairns St. He weighed 6 lbs. and 11 oz. Also at home are his two sister, Andrea, 5½ years old and Shannon, 16 months old.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Ball of Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Crisp of Detroit, formerly of Tecumseh.

7 Volunteers Are Recognized

Seven Tecumseh volunteers and two from Britton were recognized at the fifth annual Volunteer Recognition Banquet of the Lenawee County Department of Social Services held Dec. 1 in the Tobias Room at Ritchie Hall on the Adrian College Campus.

Certificates for outstanding work and service were presented to volunteer Tecumsehites Hazel Bonner, Elizabeth Dillon, Lorena Johnstone, Genevieve Rodehaver, Marvel Steinhoff, June Wood and Katherine Woods.

Britton volunteers Diane Denny and Jane Bird.

Elizabeth Frier, Volunteer Services administrator for the Michigan Department of Social Services remarked on the changes and growth of the program in Lenawee county and statewide.

Munroe Boersema, director of the Lenawee County Department of Social Services expressed appreciation to the volunteers.

Lynn M. Schultz, Volunteer Services Coordinator for the Lenawee County Department of Social Services was the master of ceremonies.

Macon Montage

by Sharon Connors

MACON — "It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas." The Macon store windows are gaily decorated and a wrapped box with a large tag saying "Merry Christmas" greets one as he or she reaches the doorknob.

Holiday lights are beginning to appear up and down Macon area roads. The nativity scene will soon be in front of the Macon church and the Chrismon tree will go up next Saturday to help remind us all of the true meaning of Christmas.

The annual Christmas tree "hunt" was held last Sunday as several Macon families sawed down their "best tree ever" at a nearby farm. The Dean Jones family, the Pat Connors family and the John Swanton family all happened to be there at the same time again this year.

One wonders if picking one already cut wouldn't have been faster on a day with a record breaking low temperature! Maybe so, but not nearly as much fun.

Bruce and Linda Dennis and children will move sometime this week to Portland, Ore. Bruce, who works for Michigan Bell was transferred, but is looking forward to being near two of his brothers in that area.

Their Macon neighbors had a surprise potluck supper Dec. 4 at the home of Rick and Mary Dapprich. Carol Kingston made a covered wagon cake with "Good Luck on the Oregon Trail" written on it.

The Dennis family plans a four-day trip as they travel the 2,500 miles to their new home. "We're going to try to find another Macon," Linda said.

Mrs. Leland Rohn spent last Sunday afternoon at her daughter's home, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Abersold's in Tecumseh. She visited with her sixth great-grandchild, Kevin, born Nov. 30. Kevin is the new son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Shultis of Tipton.

The Dean Moores were busy this weekend as their daughter, Meg, married Richard Barker on Saturday. Friday overnight guests at the Moore home were Terri Miller from Reading, Joyce Loomis of Britton and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Moore and son of Jackson. On Sunday Dean, Mary Lou and Perry attended the Bruder family Christmas gathering in Ann Arbor.

Bernard and Pearl Tucker had an early family Christmas last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Tucker and family of Clare, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tucker and sons of Grosse Pointe Woods and Pearl's mom, Mrs. Edgar Clark attended.

The Macon Women's Club had a Christmas brunch at the home of Mrs. Charles Bigelow Dec. 8. Patti Briquelet was the entree served by the hostess. The program included group singing with Mrs. Leland Bush playing the piano.

The January meeting will be at Mrs. Mills Swicks home on Clinton-Macon Rd. It will be on the 12th and the group will entertain the county officers.

The United Methodist Youth Fellowship met Dec. 11. The group decided to make Christmas baskets for the shut-ins of Macon. They will be delivered Dec. 13. The group will meet again after Christmas.

The Macon church children's program will be held Dec. 18 at 7:30 p.m. The "Old-Fashioned Christmas" is directed by Hallie Jane Mehler, assisted by Mrs. Carl Hawkins. Three short skits and lots of Christmas carols are included. All are invited to attend.

Edling-Bowman Wedding Is Held

CLINTON — Hollis K. Edling and Timothy Bowman were married Nov. 26, in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Downer's Gove, Ill., by the Rev. Joseph Voss.

Bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edling of Downer's Gove, Ill.

Groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Bowman, 128 E. Michigan Ave., Clinton.

Organist was Rita Forrester, A duet was sung by Rick Woellner and Kim Rhoades. They composed their own song and accompanied themselves on guitar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white Qiana gown styled with a high neckline, net yolk accented with appliques of french silk flowers, and empire waist. Skirt ended in a chapel train.

Silk flowers formed a cap to hold the bridal veil, accented with appliques. Bride's bouquet was of burnt orange roses, stephanotis, ivy and baby's breath.

Maid of honor Catherine Weiss of Odense, Denmark, wore a bittersweet Qiana gown, styled with empire waist and cap sleeves, made by the bride. Her hair ornament was of orange roses and baby's breath and she carried matching bouquet.

Identically gowned, the bridesmaids were Tracy Edling, sister of the bride; Anita Hugulett of Walled Lake, Cathy Malette of Ann Arbor and Diane Schwartz of Minneapolis, Minn.

Best man was Kim Rhoades of Northville. Ushers were Dennis Bowman; of Tecumseh and Kevin Bowman of Kalamazoo, brothers of the groom; and Daniel Lauer, Madison Heights and John Conzetti, New Jersey.

Reception dinner at American Legion Hall, Downers Grove, Ill., was attended by 150 guests.

The couple graduated in 1976 from Western Michigan University. He is a member of the Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.

After a week in Los Angeles and San Francisco, Calif., the couple resides in Lake Villa Apartments, Belleville.

Rehearsal dinner was held at the Cypress, Hinsdale, Ill., hosted by the groom's parents.

Cool Air Is Hot Issue for Library

CLINTON—After intermittant discussion during the past few months, members of the Clinton Township Library Board voted 3-1 at Tuesday's meeting to install air-conditioning in the library.

Cost of the air conditioning system was estimated at under $3,000.

Under Act 89, Public Acts of 1977, the Huron Valley Library System is undergoing reorganization.

Clinton Township Library has contracted for continuing services from that system for the next year.

Under that reorganization nine members of the Huron Valley board are to be selected from member library nominees.

Karen Bolgos was named to represent Clinton Library at a meeting with delegates from Chelsea and Manchester libraries to choose one board nominee.

An election of officers for the local library board returned to office all the incumbents: president, John Colton; vice-president, Esther Schmidt; and secretary-treasurer, Nick Holt.

Tecumseh Plans Town Meeting for Spring '78

The Tecumseh Area Town Meeting Organization will meet Jan. 3 at 7 p.m. in Tecumseh Public Library to plan for a spring town meeting.

Steering committee members and all interested citizens are invited to participate in the planning.

The first town meeting in Oct. '76 was considered a success and there has been follow up in several areas including youth recreation needs, community auditorium committee. It was no small effort and required the cooperation of many citizens and members of the business community.

Planners hope that community support will be as good if not better next spring.

Vocal Music Program Held

BRITTON — Britton-Macon Elementary vocal music class, directed by Hilda Caterina, will present a Christmas program, "Sounds of Christmas," Dec. 19 at the Britton-Macon high school gym at 7:30 p.m.

Varied selections by first and second graders will include "Silent Night", "The Friendly Beasts," "Upon A Housetop" and "Rudolph The Red-Nosed Reindeer."

Third and fourth grade will sing a French carol, "Pat-a-Pan" with rhythm accompaniment; "Lully-Lullay", "A Little Tiny Child" and "Chime Happy Christmas Bells" accompanied by sixth grade girls on flutes; and "Allelulia" from Mozart.

Fifth and sixth grades will sing "Allelulia," "He Is Born" and "Sing Noel" in harmony.

The public is invited.

SC Beats Cagers 68-55

Britton's boys cage squad has yet to taste victory dropping yet another contest, this one to Sand Creek 68-55 Saturday night.

The game was re-scheduled from Friday night.

A poor second quarter effort gave the Aggies a 30-20 halftime lead. Britton trailed by just one point, 15-14 at the end of the first frame but could score only six points in the second frame.

The team's played even in the third quarter while Sand Creek took a three point advantage in the final period.

The Tories simply couldn't find the basket dumping 20 of 67 shots for 28 percent while Sand Creek made 22 of 50 for 44 percent. The Aggies suffered 30 turnovers to just 14 for Britton.

Sand Creek held a 38-23 rebounding advantage with Greg Fanslau grabbing ten for the Tories. Randy Smith led in scoring for Britton with 19 markers. Dan Sparrow had ten.

The Tories are now 0-3 in the Tri-County League and 0-4 overall.

Fanslau was named defensive player of the week and was leading rebounder. Dennis Kimerer received the sixth man award.

Britton travels to Ida this Friday hosting Whitmore Lake next Tuesday.

Law Firm Is Hired

BRITTON — Britton-Macon School Board at its meeting Dec. 8, voted to hire the law firm of Thrun-Maatsch and Nordbert of Lansing to represent it at the fact-finding hearing to be held Jan. 30, 1978, regarding the Britton Education Association teacher's contract.

Board raised the reimbursement rate for mileage for use of personal cars for school business to fifteen cents per mile, formally was twelve cents per mile.

In other action the board decided to purchase school bus chassis from the low bidder Schneider Frame and Axle of Blissfield for $9,273.30.

The 66-passenger school bus body will be a Superior and will be purchased from Class Rooms, Inc.," Lansing for $8,214.

Board raised the salaries of all non-teaching personnel by seven percent.

Resolution passed to commend the girls' basketball team and coaches for an outstanding season.

Temporary Postmaster

BRITTON — George Griffith, 34, clerk from the Adrian post office was assigned to the Britton post office as officer-in-charge during the time Postmaster George Hawkins is temporary assigned to the Tecumseh post office as officer-in-charge.

Griffith, who has 12½ years experience as a clerk, is expected to run the local post office for three or four months, or until a new postmaster is selected for Tecumseh, and Mr. Hawkins resumes his duties here.

Griffith and his wife have two sons, Kevin, 8 and Kyle, 13.

Baptism Services

BRITTON — Garrett Austin, one month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Roe of Britton, was baptized Sunday morning at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church in Tecumseh, with Msgr. Vincent Howard officiating at the baptism.

Godparents are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tucker of Grosse Pointe.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kish, Ridgeway and Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Roe, Blissfield.

Open house was held by Mr. and Mrs. Roe following the services.

A buffet luncheon was served which featured a decorated cake.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

Methodist Hold Christmas Program

BRITTON — Grace United Methodist Church held their annual Sunday School program and Birthday for Jesus Sunday evening.

Program "What Christmas Means To Me" was under the direction of Mrs. William Bailey and Mrs. Mirl Henry.

Debbie Johnson opened with a welcome and led the congregational in a hymn.

The senior high class presented a skit on removing the signs of Christmas, such as music, tree, candles, cookies, wreath and stocking, but told how Jesus could not be removed out of Christmas.

The Youth choir sang "In A Lowly Manger," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Paul Bailey.

Nursery through sixth grade presented the customs of the hanging of the stockings on the fireplace and placing the poinsettia on the altar. Then they presented the gifts of Love, Joy and Peace from Christ.

A trio composed of Lana Wagner, Susie Palmer and Angie Wilson then sang, "Oh Come All Ye Faithful."

All children sat around while Carroll Hawkins told the Christmas story and children sang "Away In The Manger" accompanied by Mrs. Norm Johnson on the piano.

"Birthday for Jesus" led by Mrs. Alan Bower followed as she told the meaning of the birthday cake. Candles on the cake were lit for each month of the year as members of the congregational came forward giving an offering and taking a small candle.

For the closing a large circle was formed around the sanctuary with lighted candles singing "Silent Night."

Everyone enjoyed fellowship and refreshment of the birthday cake, cookies, coffee and milk.

After the program, the children and adults were surprised and delighted to have Mr. and Mrs. Santa Clause visit and pass out sacks of goodies.

Baby Boy Is Born to Servosses

BRITTON — A son, Alan Michael, was born Dec. 6 to Mr. and Mrs. Phil Servoss of Tecumseh at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

The baby weighed 7 lbs. 5 oz. The new mother is the former Sharon Rowe of Britton.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rowe and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Servoss, all of Britton.

Girls, Leaders Go Caroling

BRITTON — Camp Fire and Blue Bird Girls along with their leaders went Christmas caroling and delivered goodie boxes Monday night.

After caroling, all returned to the Scout building for hot chocolate and cookies.

Girls hoped they spread Christmas cheer around the village.

Brief

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bower spent Dec. 3-5 in Grand Rapids where Mrs. Bower attended the Post-graduate College of Cosmotological Arts and Science(PCCAS). She attended a make-up class taught by artist Robert Marc of Los Angeles, Calif.

Library Report

BRITTON — Village librarian Melva Kanouse announced that she now has a new assistant helping her six hours a week at the library.

Donna Price of Milwaukee Rd., will assist Mrs. Kanous Mondays from 5-8 p.m. and Saturday's 1-4 p.m.

Mrs. Kanous also wants it known that she is making plans for a pre-school story hour to be held Mondays or Wednesdays sometime after Christmas.

A story teller will come from the County Library to read to the children and also show films.

Library hours are Monday 12:30-8 p.m.; Wednesday 11-30 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Friday 11:30 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Saturday 1-4 p.m.

Mothers interested in signing up their pre-school children are to call Mrs. Kanous at the library, 451-2860.

Santa Here December 17

BRITTON — Youngsters of the Britton area are reminded to circle Dec. 17 on their calendar to make sure they don't miss Santa's arrival Saturday morning at 10 a.m. as he arrives via the village fire truck.

He will be located on the four corners downtown Britton in a decorated trailer where he will greet and visit with children between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. He will have candy for his little friends.

His visit is sponsored annually by the local Britton Businessmen's Association.

Scout Troop 623 News

BRITTON — Britton Boy Scout Troop 623 completed eight miles of hiking during their weekend camping trip Nov. 11-13 at Pokagon State Park, Angola, Ind.

Boys who went and received their Pokagon trail patch and trail medal were Bruce Raeburn, Chris Pickell, Steve Raeburn, Garry Wilcox, Adam Moyer, Ron Pickell, Gregg Stotler, Dale Evans and Robert Pratt.

Boys were accompanied by Scoutmaster Bill Szabo and Bill Raeburn.

This state park, reported the boys, has many interesting attractions including annual enclosures featuring buffalo, elk and deer. It is also one of the best toboggan runs in the area and is a great year around campaign area. No advanced registration is required at this camp.

Memoriam

In memory of Virgil Bortel, who left us Dec. 20, 1974.
December brings sad memories of a loved one gone to rest;
He will always be remembered
By those who loved him best.
In our lonely hours of thinking
You are always near;
We who loved you, sadly, miss you,
As it dawns another year.
Wife, children and grandchildren
12-15c

In memory of our father and grandfather John F. Marine, who left us Dec. 19, 1968.
Though his smile is gone forever,
And his hand we cannot touch,
We will never lose sweet memories
Of the one we love so much.
Sadly missed by his children and grandchildren. 12-15c

Natural Resources Commission Action

(under authority of Act 230, P.A. 1925, as amended)

OPEN SEASONS AND CATCH LIMITS ON PIKE, WALLEYE, SAUGER & MUSKELLUNGE

The Natural Resources Commission, at its meeting on August 12, 1977, under the authority of Act 230, P.A. 1925, as amended, ordered that its subject order of August 15, 1975, remain effective through December 31, 1977, and that the following order become effective on January 1, 1978:

It shall be unlawful to take the following named species except within the open seasons and daily limits prescribed (statewide regulations apply unless otherwise restricted):

Statewide open seasons on all waters not otherwise closed to fishing shall be from May 15 through February on walleye, sauger, northern pike, and muskellunge (including tiger muskellunge). The daily catch limit shall be 5 singly or in combination for largemouth and smallmouth bass, walleye, sauger, and northern pike; 1 for muskellunge (including tiger muskellunge).

The above regulations apply except that walleye and sauger may be taken at any time from the Detroit and St. Clair rivers, Lake St. Clair, and Lake Erie; and that muskellunge in Lake St. Clair, St. Clair and Detroit rivers may be taken only from the first Saturday in June through December 15 of each year.

Indians Lose Title Bid, 36-32

Poor foul shooting combined with a multitude of turnovers proved disastrous for Tecumseh's girl cagers Saturday night.

The Indians lost the battle for the regional title to Southgate Aquinas 36-32.

Last Wednesday, the orange and black defeated Novi 43-24.

Nonetheless, the girls ended the season with a noteworthy 18-6 record. And over the last four years, 1974-77, the Indians have maintained a basketball tradition piling up a 73-13 combined record.

Neither Aquinas or Tecumseh was particularly hot in shooting from the floor Saturday. The Indians hit on just 11 of 34 for 32 percent while Aquinas did even worse sinking just 12 of 54 for 22 percent.

The orange and black found the hoop just ten of 24 times from the line to 11 of 18 for Aquinas. Diane Nelson bristles at the mention of her team's foul shooting that night, "Turnovers and foul shooting really killed us. And you can't really coach poor foul shooting, if the team has an off night, they have an off night. Defensively, I thought we did a real good job."

The offense was another story. The Indians trailed by five at the end of the first period but came alive in the second frame rolling to a 17-15 lead at the half.

Aquinas went on a rampage in the third period stalling Tecumseh's offense completely. Aquinas racked up ten points in the frame holding the Indians to just four.

Tecumseh was never more than six points behind in the final quarter and pulled within two with 1:49 left after Debbie Steadly canned one. But 10 turnovers in that frame, due primarily to a Southgate press, hampered Tecumseh.

The Indians held a 44-43 rebounding advantage with Steadly grabbing 16 and Grace Burns eight. Val Springer was tops in the game and for Aquinas with 21 markers. It is indeed significant, however, that 11 of those points came in the form of charity tosses.

Burns had 11 points for the Indians while Steadly made nine, Gloria Fosbender six and Sandy MacGeorge six.

Nelson continues, "We made turnovers when we weren't even pressured and that hurt us. They put a press on us in the fourth quarter and we should never have had so many turnovers on a press. We were pressured only three or four times this season and you really need that game experience in breaking a press. We've practiced breaking it but it just isn't the same."

Wednesday night, Tecumseh started slowly but put together a tremendous second half effort. They trailed Novi in the regional semi-finals 12-11 at the half. But 32 points for the orange and black in the second half to just 12 for the opposition spelled a Tecumseh victory.

Burns led the way with 12 markers.

Score By Quarters

Tecumseh	4	13	4	11-32
Aquinas	9	6	10	11-36

Scoring for Tecumseh against Southgate Aquinas: Burns 4 3 11, Steadly 4 1 9, Fosbender 1 4 6, MacGeorge 2 2 6. Totals 11 10 32.

Tecumseh's cagers found themselves on the short end of the score Saturday, falling to Southgate in the regional finals 36-32. Above, Debbie Steadly is comforted after the loss. Janice Jahner, left, runs into trouble from Val Springer, no. 24. Springer scored 21 points for Southgate. Indian Gloria Fosbender, no. 23, tries to help Jahner. On the right, Sandy MacGeorge arches and fires toward the net.

Skins Win 1st Title!

The Clinton girls basketball squad became the first team in Redskin history to win the regional championship beating East Jackson 48-40 Friday and Ida 52-44 in overtime in the finals.

Saturday night Clinton played in the regional finals for the third year in a row against a very strong Ida team.

The first half was almost a carbon copy of the game on Friday as the girls were down by six, 24-18 at half time.

Ida's fine center, Kris Matthes was scoring and rebounding and proved to be a thorn in Clinton's side all night.

Ida captured the lead at the start of the second quarter and held it until 24 seconds were left in the game. Matthes committed her fifth personal foul at this point and the momentum shifted to Clinton. The Redskins senior center, JoAnn Grossman, stepped to the free throw line and made both points to tie the score at 42-42 and send the game into overtime.

It was the second year in a row that JoAnn came through with two free throws to send a game into overtime. The three minute overtime belonged to Clinton scoring 10 to Ida's two.

Sue Richter had another fine game leading all scorers with 28 points and nine rebounds. Cathy Gibson played her finest game of the year scoring nine points. She had five steals while playing very good defense. JoAnn Grossman added seven points and led the team with 14 rebounds.

It was the first regional championship in Clinton's history and a large crowd was there to support the team.

The girls traveled to Marshall High School on Wednesday, to play Buchanan. Clinton entered the game with a 23-1 record.

If Clinton won, they will attend the semi-finals at Lansing Waverly High School this Friday at 7 p.m.

The state finals will be played at Jenison Field House this Saturday at 6 p.m.

Boys Victorious

Clinton's boys cage team defeated Grass Lake 65-62 in a non-conference battle on Tuesday of this week but they had to fight to the bitter end for the victory.

The first half went smoothly with the Skins holding a comfortable 38-29 lead at the half.

But Grass Lake was not ready to throw in the towel. They scored a blistering third quarter scoring 21 points and holding the Redskins to 12 to tie up the game 50-50.

The Redskins scored 15 points in the final frame to 12 for the Warriors to squeak out a victory.

Clinton knocked in 31 of 55 for 56 percent while Grass Lake made 25 of 63 for 35 percent.

The Skins are now 3-2 overall and 1-1 in the LCAA.

They travel to Hudson next Tuesday.

Tories Falter

Britton's girls cage team was ousted from regional play last Wednesday by Grass Lake 47-42.

The Tories trailed 23-20 at the half and still remained within two at the end of the third frame.

Fifteen points for Grass Lake in the final period to 12 for the Tories kept Britton out of the regional finals.

Genene Bruce led in scoring for Britton with 19 markers.

The Tories closed out the season with a 13-5 record.

Tribe Slugs Devils

Indian boys basketball squad walloped Grosse Ile 81-58 on Tuesday of this week setting up a three way tie for the Huron League lead.

Tecumseh now posts a 2-0 record, tied with Carlson and Airport.

But that situation will be remedied in short order. The Indians host Carlson, which boasts a 6'6'' center and 6'4'' forward, this Friday night. And a week from this Thursday, on Dec. 22, the Indians will make up their game with Airport. The match was originally scheduled for last Friday night but was postponed due to weather.

Tecumseh coach Jim Curth warns that Airport is 5-0 and has a front line averaging 6'5''. Next Tuesday the Indians host Milan which should also be a good battle.

Regardless of what the future may hold, there wasn't a whole lot to worry about Tuesday night. The Indians came up with 23 points for each of the two middle quarters easily dumping Grosse Ile.

The Indians continue to register some impressive shooting percentages dumping 32 of 60 for 53 percent. The Red Devils made 24 of 62 for 39 percent.

Grosse Ile had trouble hanging on to the ball turning it over 33 times to 19 for Tecumseh.

Bret DesErmia was tops for Tecumseh with 19 points. Jeff Hans had 16 points and 13 rebounds while Richard Cangley had 12 markers.

Hans added 10 assists and eight steals.

Wrestlers Fall to Chelsea

Tecumseh's grapplers fell to Chelsea 35-29 on Tuesday of this week.

Tecumseh winners included Ben Nguyen at 98 pounds, Jack Bagby, 10-4, at 126 pounds, Dan Yoder, pin at 4:50 at 145 pounds and John Silberhorn pinned his 165 pound opponent at 5:24.

The Indians travel to Monroe Catholic Central this Thursday and to the Chelsea Invitational Saturday. Next Tuesday Tecumseh travels to Monroe Jefferson.

Grapplers Beat 2

Clinton's wrestling squad scored two wins in a double dual meet on Tuesday of this week.

The Redskins defeated Stockbridge 40-23 and Vandercook Lake 33-29.

A meet with Morenci last Thursday and an invitational at Napoleon were both postponed due to weather.

Individual Clinton winners against Stockbridge were: 98 pounds - Schindler, 4-0; 105 pounds - Wojtowicz, 11-4; 112 pounds - Willis, forfeit; 119 pounds - Semanske, pin at 5:56; 126 pounds - Prichard, 14-4; 138 pounds Weirich, pin at :36; 165 pounds - Thilo, pin at :48; 178 pounds - Heimerdinger, pin at 4:56; 191 pounds - Miller, forfeit.

Clinton winners against Vandercook Lake: 105 pounds - Wojtowicz, pin at :29; 112 pounds - Willis, pin at 3:43; 119 pounds - Semanske, pin at 1:47; 126 pounds Prichard, 7-2; 132 pounds - Hoag, 9-0; 165 pounds - Thilo, 9-4; 191 pounds - Heimerdinger, pin at :26.

The Skins travel to Blissfield this Thursday and host Dundee and Jonesville next Tuesday. They are 4-2 overall, 0-1 in the LCAA.

Bank Declares Extra Dividend

An extra dividend of 45 cents per share has been declared by the directors of the United Savings Bank. The extra dividend plus a regular dividend of 35 cents per share will be payable to shareholders on Jan. 3.

The extra dividend is 10 cents over the extra dividend declared a year ago, and makes the total dividends declared this year amount to $1.85 per share, or $370,000.

Kenneth C. McElroy, board chairman, reports that net income for 1977 will be a new record for the bank, but actual figures will not be available until the first of the year.

In other action at the board's regular meeting last week, Douglas K. Dillon was elected assistant cashier.

The bank's new officer, a 1972 graduate from Tecumseh high school, joined the bank here in June, 1976, after graduating from Western Michigan University with a degree in business administration.

He and his wife, the former Susan LeBlanc, reside at 707 Russell Rd.

Folks Upset at Charge for Concert

Tecumseh high school and junior high bands held a concert, Dec. 14, when an admission charge was asked at the door.

That upset some people.

Tecumseh's board of education discussed the admission charge at its regular meeting Monday night.

The admission charge had not been authorized by the school administration but had been announced in the media.

The decision to have a charge was made by the Band Boosters and Jim Rice, band director.

Rice told the board, "I take most of the responsibility. It was my decision. I overstepped my bounds."

Rice explained that the Band Boosters are trying to avoid candle sales and similar campaigns of the past. He said, "It was thought that the people who come to the concerts should subsidize the program."

Money collected was earmarked primarily for the hosting of field competition next summer.

Asst. Supt. Gene Cooley said later that there was a good deal of "negative feedback" from those who attended.

It was suggested that a policy be written to cover the situation.

Estimate $300 Fire Damages

Tecumseh Fire Department responded to a house fire call Saturday night when the John Underwood home, 703 Red Mill, became smoke filled.

According to fire reports, the small blaze was caused by newly installed insulation covering recessed lights in the attic. The fire was mainly smoke and damage was limited to $300.

Many Closing

Many Tecumseh businesses, including United Savings Bank, First Federal and the post office, will be closed the day after Christmas, Monday, Dec. 26th.

Similar closings will be observed the day after New Year's, Monday, Jan. 2.

Jail Accused on 3 Counts in Murder

Timothy Poll, 20, of Adrian was arraigned in second district court Dec. 14 before Judge John C. Timms.

He was charged with open murder, carrying a weapon with unlawful intent and use of firearms during commission of a felony.

Poll is accused of a shooting incident involving the death of Charles Mercer, 23, a staff sergeant stationed at Fort Benning, Ga. He was the husband of former Tecumsehite Kathy Laslo Mercer.

Mercer was shot with a .20 gauge shotgun at 1 p.m. Dec. 13 and suffered injury to the lower left back just above the hip, Adrian police reported. He died at 3 p.m. at Bixby Hospital. Services were held Dec. 19 in Fort Benning. Ga. with full military honors.

Poll is held in the Lenawee county jail without bond, pending further investigation of the incident.

City Awards Bid to JRA

The low bid of JRA Cleaning Service of Adrian for janitorial service at city hall at the rate of $380 per month was accepted by Tecumseh city council Monday night.

Service includes labor and supplies.

Servicemaster, city's present service, bid $400, per month. Their present contract with the city is $330. Servicemaster received no increases in the past three years.

City manager Cal Zorn, however indicated that the service did not justify the increase.

DOWNTOWN MACON — Lovely village of Macon is not quite so lovely these days, and residents there are unhappy. Village's main street was closed Monday, and photo here exemplifies the reason - mud! Road commission says it will be paved next year but what will residents do for next six to nine months? (PHOTO BY FRANK WEIR)

Macon Residents Complain — and We Don't Blame Them!

For several years the Clinton-Macon Rd. through the Macon village has been deplorable. Today, it is even worse, it is impassable.

Motorists were bogged down, some forced to have their cars pulled out. Staff at Boysville is using the parking lot at the Macon Methodist Church, and then walking the half mile distance to the Boysville complex.

Finally, Monday evening and after several vehicles were hauled out of the muck, "Stop-Impassable Mud" signs were erected.

Charles Kipke, Onsted, member of the Lenawee County Road Commission, says the stretch of road through the village and to Britton Hwy. is scheduled for completion and paving next year.

Tuesday afternoon, he said something has to be done for Macon residents and make their road passable for their vehicles to get in and out. This might entail hauling in large stones for the road.

Macon problems started about five years ago when the county planned a new and wider road. This involved cutting down a number of trees. Residents fought for their trees and obtained an injunction.

Since then, according to Kipke, construction has been tied up in the courts and slowed down with paper work. Last spring the county was finally given permission by the courts to renew construction, the commissioner explained.

In the meantime, Macon youngsters attending the Tecumseh schools must walk to a Macon store where buses pick them up and drop them off. School buses avoid the mud and the stretch east through the village.

Unless the commission is able to make the road passable or the ground freezes hard, Macon's problems could mount. It is unlikely that emergency vehicles could make it through the mud.

Change Date for Meeting

Next regular meeting of the Tecumseh city council is Jan. 3 at 7:30 p.m. due to legal holiday on Monday, Jan. 2, the usual meeting day.

Council will reorganize and elect a mayor and mayor pro-tem preceding the meeting.

A public hearing for the historic district ordinance is scheduled for 8:30 p.m that evening. The zoning request of Louis B. Schneider is another agenda item that was scheduled.

OK New Course for Graduation

A new course, which will be required for graduation from Tecumseh High School, will be started the fall of 1978.

School board approved the course, called career and life planning, at the regular monthly meeting of the board Monday night.

The class satisifes the requirements of Public Act number 97 which makes career education mandatory.

Students will take the course in their tenth grade. The class will last one semester with the other semester devoted to a health class. They will receive a one half credit for the class.

This year's ninth graders will be the first grade to take the class. It will be taught by current personnel in the high school counseling department. No additional staff will be needed.

Career and life planning will consist of seven units, including group interaction, differential aptitude test, self awareness, social awareness, decision making, job preparation, and career planning.

The job preparation unit would prepare the student for going into the job world, preparing a resume and undergoing a job interview.

The longest unit is career planning where the students will actually explore different jobs and occupations. Counselors will investigate what skills and preparation is required for a job, what the job is, opportunities available and future outlook.

Currently, students chose an elective for the one-half credit.

Grant Request

Tecumseh city council granted the request of the Tecumseh Products for the division of property at W. Russell Rd. Action will enable the company to sell the two homes located there and retain rear of the lots for its property.

Four Days Off

Tecumseh City Hall will be closed Friday before Christmas and Monday, the day after Christmas.

The office will be open on Friday, Dec. 30 and closed on Monday, Jan. 2.

Police Finally Nab Man After Chase Through City

A 40-year old Detroit man, James Hill, is lodged in the Monroe County jail after a chase through Tecumseh and into the Irish Hills area Tuesday morning. At least six law enforcement departments were involved in the chase that started in Monroe County.

It was a miracle that no one was killed, especially in Tecumseh, where Hill ran red traffic lights on Chicago Blvd. at Maumee and Union Sts. He fortunately caught green lights at Ottawa and Evans in the downtown areas.

According to Merlin Mowery, Tecumseh police chief, the department here was alerted at 9:52 a.m. by a Monroe County sheriff's car. At the time Hill and the sheriff's car plus a Dundee police cruiser were on M-50, passing through Ridgeway.

With speeds in excess of 100 mph, Hill reached Tecumseh before city police could set up a roadblock at the River Raisin bridge near the Community Center.

Tecumseh patrol car then joined the chase through Tecumseh. Hill was clocked doing between 70 and 75 mph through the city and well over 100 mph in the country.

The pursuit continued west to the M-50 and US-12 intersection at Cambridge Junction and Brooklyn area where officers temporarily lost him. From information available, it's not known whether Hill first went east on US-12 and then doubled backed, but he was spotted again heading west on US-12 toward Artisian Wells, intersection of US-12 with US-127.

Hill rammed a state police car at the intersection, was rammed himself by the Monroe Co. car, and then sped north towards Jackson. A state trooper managed to get his car ahead of Hill and with the Monroe car behind, the two officers managed to pinch Hill's coral colored Cadillac between them and stop him.

Officers broke a window in Hill's car to remove him. He had locked the doors and refused to get out.

He was seized about an hour after the chase started.

He has been charged with reckless driving, speeding and possession of marijuana.

Deputies from Monroe, Lenawee and Jackson Counties were involved in the chase as well as police from Dundee and Tecumseh, and troopers from the Clinton, Blissfield and Jackson posts.

Not 'Enthusiastic'

A drive is on to replace the traditional method of supporting public education, and the Tecumseh school board is less than enthusiastic about the idea.

The campaign, sponsored by the Citizens for a More Sensible Financing of Education, would do away with property taxes for supporting the schools.

The change would require an amendment to the state constitution.

The program would allow all public school and private school students to receive a voucher. Students could take the voucher and attend any school of their choice within a set geographical area. The voucher would allow state aide for that student to be sent to the school he has chosen to attend.

The state legislature would determine the extent of the geographical area open to a student.

Supt. Robert Duhan stated that there are no recommendations as yet as to how taxes would be raised. The amendment would allow the state to support both public and private schools and Duhan believes an increase in private schools is one possible result.

A petition campaign is currently underway to get the amendment on the fall 1978 ballot. The general feeling of the board was negative to the idea.

Virg Tucker Is Retiring

Virgil Tucker, secretary of the Tecumseh Products Co. for the past 18 years, is retiring. Since the company will not be working Friday, Thursday will be his final day as company secretary.

He started with the Products 41 years ago, became corporate secretary in 1958, a vice president in 1971, and a director in December 1973.

The personable company officer also is a member of the board of directors for First Federal of Lenawee, was elected a state director for the Michigan Chamber of Commerce in 1971, is a former trustee of the Tecumseh school board, a past president of the Tecumseh Country Club plus being active and holding positions with other organizations.

The company honored Mr. Tucker about two weeks ago with a retirement party at the Country Club.

ATTENDING INJURED LYNDON HUGHES AT ACCIDENT SCENE LAST THURSDAY

2 THS Students Hurt

Two Tecumseh high school students suffered injuries last Thursday when their car slid out of control on icy N. Ottawa St. and struck a pole at the corner of E. Logan and Ottawa.

Wendy Moore, high school cheerleader and driver of the automobile, was taken by car to Herrick Hospital, where she was treated and released.

Her passenger, Lyndon Hughes, was not so fortunate. He was treated for lacerations and held overnight for observation. Heads of both students struck and shattered the windshield.

After waiting nearly 20 minutes for an ambulance to come and transport Hughes to the hospital, the city's rescue wagon was called. Firemen placed Hughes, who was bleeding at the time, on a stretcher and took him to the hospital in the emergency vehicle.

Last week's accident is not expected to keep Hughes from joining the undefeated THS basketball team. A regular last year, the 6'3" senior, was injured during the football season and has yet to start working out on the court, although coach Jim Curth expects him to begin practicing next week.

Thirteen other traffic accidents occurred on city streets the past week, but most were minor.

Resume is:

Dec. 15 — Glenn E. Moore, 18, of 1020 River Acres Dr., struck the rear of a vehicle driven by James A. Lenz, 41, of 308 Adrian St., at the intersection of E. Chicago and Maumee.

city's northwest parking lot,

Dec. 15 — Peggy S. Willgus, 18, Jasper attempted to pull her bus around a car at Patterson school and hit the left rear corner of an auto, operated by Clina L. Robinette, 29, of 301 W. Logan.

Dec. 15 — Delbert F. Weaver, 73, of 129 N. Ottawa, pulled out of a drive on N. Evans St. and struck Donald L. Curtiss, 55, of 201 Burt.

Dec. 15 — Deborah Dinius, 25, Clinton, backing in the city's northwest parking lot, hit a car owned by Patricia A. Carpenter, 38, also of Clinton.

Dec. 16 — Donald E. Clark, 38, of 606 Sutton, backed into a parked van, owned by Thomas P. Dangler, Adrian, on Sutton St.

Dec. 16 — Catherine C. Muller, 50, of 111 Brown St., changed lanes on S. Ottawa and struck Robert Sterling, 50, of 5000 Burt St.

Dec. 16 — Dave Burkhardt, resident at Russell Square apartments, reported his car damaged while parked there. Other driver is not known.

Dec. 16 — Jeffrey L. Miller, 20, Clinton, was cited for failure to have his car under control when he attempted to pass Joseph B. Kottke, 22, Adrian, on N. Ottawa and

Only Three Complaints

Only three complaints were handled the past week by Tecumseh Police, and all three were minor.

Skippy Cash Hanna, 23, Adrian, was arrested for driving on a suspended license. He was observed driving early Thursday morning on S. Evans without tail lights.

On Saturday, Carson House, 708 Outer Dr., told police a hub cap was stolen from his car.

Sunday, Zane Noragon, 221 N. Evans, reported a snow ball or rock was thrown through a storm window.

Council Reschedules Rezoning Request

Tecumseh council rescheduled the rezoning request of Louis Schneider for the Jan. 3 meeting. It was noted that he was not notified in time to attend Monday night's council meeting.

Schneider requested the rezoning of about 4.5 acres on the north side of W. Chicago Blvd., adjacent to the Clark gas station. Most of the property is on the northeast side of the Evans Creek.

Presently the land is zoned in the master plan for RA-2 single family dwelling. He seeks rezoning to B-3, commercial highway business.

On the south side of the street is 710 W. Chicago Blvd., a home included in the proposed historic district ordinance. On the southwest side is a buffer zone on the right of way between Sunset and Chicago with the Church of the Nazarene directly west.

At its Nov. 8 meeting Tecumseh planning commission recommended that council deny the zoning request.

According to the minutes of the commission meeting, negative opinions were:

To rezone this entire parcel would open a residential area to commercial use with a natural barrier.

It would extend strip development.

Traffic hazard area and conflict with Land Use Plan approved last month.

Positive opinions were:

Use of property, if not commercial as residential use is questionable.

Flood plain would limit use as a residential area.

During that Nov. 8 meeting, a motion was made by commissioner Harrison Gonser, seconded by Lawrence Wollenhaupt to recommend that the request be denied.

Yes votes were cast by Commissioners Lynn Cook, Gonser, Owen Merrill and Wollenhaupt.

Those voting against denial of the rezoning were Janis Baker, Jack Brooks, June Stone, Robert Taylor and Harry Stanifer, chairman, who voted to break the tie.

A motion was then made by Taylor, seconded by Brooks to recommend that the zoning change request be approved.

Yes votes were cast by Baker, Brooks, Stone and Taylor, and no votes by Cook, Gonser, Merrill, Wollenhaupt and Chairman Stanifer, who voted against to break the tie.

Commission voted not to approve the zoning change.

Continue Share-Crop Agreement

The Tecumseh School District will remain in the share-cropping business.

The school board Monday night approved the continuation of a share-cropping agreement with James Rundell for 113 acres owned by the district on Rogers Hwy.

The Tecumseh FFA farms the other 10 acres owned by the district at the site.

The district earned $5,536.87 this year under the agreement.

Since the agreement began in 1970, the district has earned $31,996.71. The funds are intended for a new high school someday.

In other business, the board continued to discuss alternatives to the mini-courses held at the high school the last two years.

The possibility of a "career day" was discussed but no decisions were made.

In addition, the board discussed the high school special ed addition.

Board members are displeased with the progress the addition is making. The windows have held up completion but have finally arrived Asst. Supt. Gene Cooley said.

The work is slated to be completed in early January but Cooley stated that school officials "aren't optimistic."

Board member William Macbeth suggested that the policy for accepting bids on construction should be studied. "Our policy for release of bids is not adequate," Macbeth said.

MR. and MRS. HOWARD TRUESDALE

Party Honors Truesdales' 50th

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Truesdale will be honored on their 50th wedding anniversary at an open house Dec. 31 from 2-5 p.m. planned by their children and grandchildren at the lounge of the First United Presbyterian Church in Tecumseh.

Ethel Parr and Howard Truesdale were married at the Parr home in Manchester on Dec. 31, 1927. The Rev. E.L. Moon of Ann Arbor officiated. The couple has a son, Howard (Bill) and a daughter, Judith Wittrup, both of Tecumseh. They have three grandchildren.

Mr. Truesdale retired from Tecumseh Lumber Co. and contracting. Mrs. Truesdale worked for Lenawee schools for 20 years.

Thirty-five year Tecumseh residents, they retired ten years ago and moved to their summer home at the Hiawatha Sportsman's Club in Upper Peninsula and winter in Bradenton, Fla.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend the party. They request gifts be omitted.

Bidwell Building Is Historic Sight

The Bidwell building located at W. Chicago Blvd. and S. Evans St. was designated on the State Register of Historic Sites by the Michigan Historical Commission.

The state register, established by Act. 10 of the Public Acts of 1955, recognizes historic sites in Michigan. It includes more than 900 sites.

State registration indicates that the historical commission judged the site to be of significant historic interest. Such registration also enables the purchase and display of an official marker, approved by the commission.

The building was built in 1856. Gladys Robideau gave the building as a gift to the city of Tecumseh in July. The city is investigating the possibility of grants to restore the building. Plans to sell it to commercial interest or convert it to a community auditorium were other alternatives discussed.

Tompkins—Brown Nuptials

A candlelight service in the First Congregational Church in Chelsea was the setting for the double ring marriage ceremony of Susan Frances Tompkins and Roger Dee Brown on Dec. 10.

The Rev. Carl Schwarm officiated at the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Tompkins, Chelsea and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Brown, Britton.

The altar was flanked with pink and white poinsettas and pink and magenta carnations, enhanced by a Christmas tree decorated with white doves and gold balls for the bride's approach to the altar with her father.

Dwight Bolanowski was organist and Nancy Hepburn was soloist.

For her wedding, the bride chose a white peau de soie gown with an empress waist and full sleeves ending in points over her hands. Mandarin collar and sleeves were embroidered in seed pearls. Gown featured a full train.

Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a Juliet cap also embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Karen Sayler, of Chelsea was the maid of honor wearing an empress gown of rosette pink, trimmed in burgundy velvet. Her matching full length coat had a burgundy velvet hood. She carried magenta and white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Mary Ann Tompkins, sister of the bride from Chelsea and Mrs. Christopher Tompkins, sister-in-law of bride from Grass Lake. All were gowned identically as the maid of honor and carried magenta and white carnations.

Stanley Agner Jr., cousin of the groom from Rushsylvania, Ohio, was best man.

Ushers were Michael Seitz, from Adrian and Christopher Tompkins, brother of the bride from Grass Lake.

Masters Noel Benedict, nephew of the groom, Tecumseh, and Dane Tompkins, brother of the bride, Chelsea, were ushers and acolytes.

Buffet dinner for 150 guests was held in the fellowship center of the church. Crystal candelabra with pink candles, centerpiece of pink and white carnations and pink wedding bells decorated the bride's table.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilson, the groom's sister and brother-in-law of Tecumseh.

The new Mrs. Brown is a 1977 graduate of Chelsea high school and is presently employed at The Book Bindery, Ann Arbor.

Mr. Brown is a 1970 Britton-Macon high school graduate. He attended college in Fort Wayne, Ind. and Tulsa, Okla. He served in the Army from 1971 to 1973.

The couple resides at Hickory Rd., Milan.

Rehearsal dinner was held in Chelsea by the groom's parents.

Youth Prepare for Christmas

In the true spirit of Advent, junior and senior high school members of the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church devoted Dec. 18 to preparing for Christmas.

The church sunday school program was held in the morning, with the senior high class preventing a marionette show, depicting the story of the birth of Christ, narrated by Katie Heglin.

Taking part in the show were:

Lance Sheldon, Cindy Schiller, Tom Colson, Andy Nielson, Julie Sheldon, Becky Eidson, Earl Gero, Betsy Nielson, Martha Holmes, Andy Eidson, Susan Bless and Erik Mason.

In the afternoon, junior and senior high members of the Luther League set up the life-sized nativity scene on the church lawn.

Additional participants were:

Jeff Sheldon, Andrew Heglin, Bill Gross, Marc Colson, Barb Wilt, Beth Butters, Carrie Watson, Cheryl Sheldon, Karl Hamilton, Cindy Wright, Sherrie Dunn and Mark Schiller.

This was followed by the Youth Singers choir rehearsal for Christmas Eve. They were accompanied by Sandra Dunn, organist.

The group then carrolled around the community, visiting shut-in members of the church.

The activities ended with a taco supper prepared by group sponsors Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sheldon and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heglin. They were assisted by James Colson and Chris Nielson.

Surprise Party for Robisons

Forty close neighbors and relatives were guests at a surprise 40th wedding anniversary dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Robison, Saturday evening.

The Robison's family arranged the party held at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Sherman.

A decorated anniversary cake was a feature of the dinner.

The couple opened a variety of personal gifts.

Baptist Festival Unites Families

The first Christmas Family Festival with holiday craft workshops and special evening worship was held at the First Baptist Church in Tecumseh on Dec. 11.

The afternoon of old fashioned Christmas projects and fellowship was attended by 155 people.

Main purpose of the day was to involve as many people as possible, doing things together, sharing their talents and mailing gifts for others, explained Mrs. Kenneth Boyd, the pastor's wife.

She coordinated the project here and has done so in other communities where she and the Rev. Boyd ministered.

Plans for the festival began in September. It required 55 organizers including 28 workshop leaders. The Women's Missionary Society provided decorations for the sanctuary, workshop materials and refreshments.

Workshops began at 4:30 p.m. Subjects were paper tole, fabric dolls, Santa Claus yarn, cookie decorating, pellum decorations, Communion cup ornaments, birch candlesticks, crackling black walnuts, pine cone trees, tree ornaments, wreaths, Christmas card ornaments, taffy pull, ceramic snowmen, wood projects and glass blowing.

Pinatas were provided, one for the children younger than sixth grade and one for teens and adults.

Nine gallons of homemade ice cream were cranked with everyone having a turn. While the workshops were going on, greens were hung and the sanctuary was decorated for the 6 p.m. worship service.

During the worship, Christmas carols were sung by all the youth with Carol McLeod directing. Slides of the Christmas story, filmed on a local farm in 1975 with the third and fourth grade class as the nativity characters, was shown to the congregation.

For the scripture, the Rev. Boyd read the message of the Christ Child's birth to the shepherds and at the appropriate cue, Rip Smith, dressed as a shepherd, proceeded down the aisle with a live lamb.

Vern Manwaring accompanied the Rev. Boyd on guitar while the pastor read the poem "To a Church Mouse", the story of how Franz Gruber composed "Silent Night" for guitar when the church mouse ate through the organ bellows.

As a finale to the evening, the congregation joined hands in a huge circle around the sanctuary and sang "Silent Night" then adjourned for the homemade treats they had made earlier.

Witnesses Hold Circuit Assembly

The Holt Assembly Hall was the site for Jehovah's Witnesses as they convened for their semi-annual circuit assembly this past weekend.

The Bobby Vealey family as among the 1,400 in attendance. He is presiding overseer of the Tecumseh congregation.

Twenty-two persons were baptized. The Assembly Hall has a baptismal pool located in the main auditorium allowing the audience full view of the water immersion.

The main Bible discourse was presented Sunday by John Casino, district supervisor. His subject was Maintain Your Confidence Firm to the End. A large district assembly is planned for Pontiac Stadium in June.

The final countdown is here, just three more days to Christmas!! Time to finish that last minute shopping and baking. Here are some quick suggestions for last minute Christmas treats.

Kathy Hartley called me with this Pecan Toffee which is quick, easy and delicious.

PECAN TOFFEE

¾ cup brown sugar
½ cup margarine
½ cup pecans (more if desired)
½ cup chocolate chips

Butter 9 x 9 inch pan. Cover bottom of pan with chopped pecans. Place butter and brown sugar in saucepan and bring to a rolling boil using medium heat and stirring constantly.

Remove from heat and continue stirring several minutes until it starts to thicken. Spread hot over pecans. Sprinkle chocolate chips over hot mixture and cover with foil to contain heat and melt chocolate chips. When chips are melted, use knife to spread evenly. Chill to harden. Cut in pieces with sharp knife.

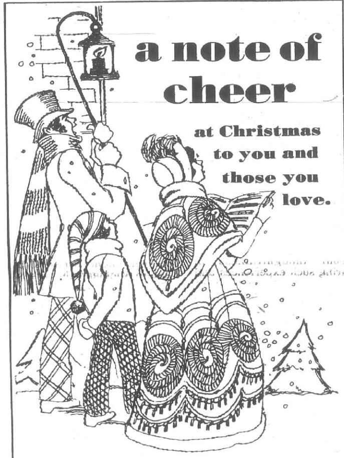
This bright red punch from Mary McCrate is ideal for the holidays and is delicious. It can also be served spiked for the new year.

RASPBERRY PUNCH

4 packages raspberry Koolaid
7 quarts water
1 large can frozen lemonade concentrate
4 cups sugar
1 large can frozen orange juice
4 ounce jar maraschino cherries

Mix all ingredients together. Just before serving add two large bottles (28 ounce each) ginger ale. Ready to serve about 60.



a note of cheer
at Christmas to you and those you love.

This will be a different Christmas for Mom and me — instead of three Duncans there are now just two of us. But Christmas is Christmas. The other evening, as we were enjoying a late night cup of hot chocolate, we came to the conclusion that the truly important meanings of the season don't change.

The following is one of the first articles I wrote for this "Through My Window" series. (If my files are correct it appeared in 1959.) Dad liked it and so with your kind permission –

Christmas time again — Isn't it wonderful? All the fun, all the hustle and bustle, all the excitement. The oh-so-nice-to-receive Christmas cards are pouring in.

Mysterious whisperings and strange boxes are appearing, only to be tucked quickly into closets and drawers. Delightful, delicious, delectable baking smells are wafting from the kitchen.

And on the Christmas tree is placed a special star which, quietly dominating all the sparkle and glitter, reminds us of the true meaning of this blessed season.

Faith of course, is not something to be turned on and off according to the calendar, but once in a while, it is good to pause a bit and take stock. During this wonderous Christmas season it seems fitting that we reexamine and reaffirm our beliefs. So, if I may be forgiven for getting personal, let us continue.

Whenever there are doubts, discouragements or the like, a look outside brings reassurance. Just outside my window the world of Nature is continually testifying to an all powerful Father, a Supreme Being, God.

The beauty of a bird, the perfection of a single feather; the always fascinating parade of clouds across the sky; the miracle of growing things — trees, grass, and flowers.

The fury of a strong wind; the flash and crash of a thunder storm, the soft quietness of a gentle snowfall. The bright warmth of sunshine, the muted stillness of a heavy fog. The glory of a sunrise and the splendor of a sunset. These are a few of the things that make us believe.

Most of my time is spent in bed — a hospital bed the head of which elevates so that some part of each day I can spend sitting up. When in an upright position I look out through lovely big picture windows at well-landscaped yards, always busy bird feeders and a picturesque stretch of twisting and turning Evans Creek.

When laying flat and looking up, the world outside still attracts my attention. Birds, tree tops and the vast expanse of heaven, whether it be blue or gray, is always inspiring.

Yes, no matter where we look there is a constant reminder of Him, whose Son's birthday we are celebrating this week.

Another important phase of the holidays is the sharpened appreciation of just how many blessings we truly have. It seems unnecessary to make a personal list of "I-am-thankful-fors" and besides, such lists are apt to sound glib and Pollyannaish.

However, were I to make a list, it would be a long one and at the top would be family and friends. My life is full and rich thanks to the most marvelous family a person could ever wish for and friends who are considerate, thoughtful and kind.

I am most grateful that with the aid of full length body braces I can sit comfortably in a wheel chair or the car. But I wasn't going to make a list, was I?

And now, just two more things before closing. First may I take a few lines to say thank you. Thank you for all the nice letters, notes, telephone calls and word-of-mouth messages. It is always exciting to hear about a new bird and, of course, the old favorites are continually coming up with something different and these are great fun, too.

Your thoughtfulness in sharing such experiences and the many kind words about this series are greatly appreciated. It has not always been possible to acknowledge all your wonderful messages but here and now, to each and every one, a big, heartfelt, all encompassing thank you!

Lastly, may I wish you all the Merriest of Christmases and Happiest of New Years. May you find lots of presents beneath your Christmas tree and a full measure of peace and joy in your heart.

CHRISMONS — Mrs. Charles Gorton of Macon, is holding one of her Chrismons, or Christ monograms used to decorate the Christmas tree at the Macon United Methodist Church every year since 1965.

Tree Born of an Idea

by Sharon Connors

MACON — The Chrismon tree, which will again stand in the Macon United Methodist Church this Christmas, was born out of an idea Mrs. Charles Gorton had in 1965.

Recuperating from an illness, Mrs. Gorton was teaching a junior high Bible class at the Macon church. In her work with young people she found symbols "meant so much more to them" and "made things easier for them to understand."

She told the group she would like to make some Chrismons (Christs monograms) for the church Christmas tree to make it more meaningful. The young people were enthusiastic. They even sold candy to raise the money for the tree lights.

Over the years she used patterns from the Church of the Ascension in Danville, Va., Mrs. Gorton completed enough Chrismons to fill a 12 foot tree in the church that Christmas.

"Some of them took a lot more time to make than others, depending on the detail" said Mrs. Gorton. "All the work is done with pearls and gold, glass beads strung on wires. Styrofoam is also used."

"Early Christians couldn't write, so they used symbols or monograms" Mrs. Gorton explained. Some symbols used in the Chrismons are, an "X" which represented Christ's name in early times, the cross, the eternal circle, stars, fish - one of the earlies Christ symbols, candles and lamps, a gold palm leaf, birds and animals, and a butterfly. All of the symbols are gold and white.

Last week Mrs. Gorton completed a new Chrismon, a communion cup. "This is the first one I have made without a pattern, although I have changed some of the others a bit," said Mrs. Gorton.

"This was a difficult one and took many hours of work because of the number of wires used." This new one was added to the collection of over 100.

Mrs. Gorton with the help of her husband, Charles and other people, was able to share her collection over the years with groups in several states. Each symbol is held up and an explanation given along with its biblical base.

Mrs. Gorton recalls a statement made after one of the programs. "We've seen and read about all these symbols so many times before but never really knew the meaning of them."

In addition to the regular set of Chrismons Mrs. Gorton made duplicates on a smaller scale for the children's tree at the church.

The Gortons live on Pennington Rd. They have two sons who live close by, Charles and his wife, Janet and two children and William and Gerry also have two children.

Every year when the Chrismon tree is displayed at the Macon Methodist Church, the true meaning of Christmas will be evident thanks to Mrs. Gorton whose Chrismons will always be a part of Christmas in Macon for generations to come.

THS Student Wins Leader's Scholarship

KATIE HEGLIN

Tecumseh high school student, Katie Heglin won the Century III Leader's Scholarship competition at the school. She was presented an award certificate by Clarence Lacny, principal.

The 17-year-old senior is now eligible to compete with other high school seniors throughout Michigan for one of two scholarships and also for a $10,000 national scholarship to be awarded at a conference of winners in Williamsburg, Va.

Katie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Heglin, scored highest among fellow students in the current events examination and essay on America's needs and challenges for the future.

The program is administered by the National Association of Secondary School Principals and funded by Shell Oil Co.

Katie is a member of National Honor Society, varsity club, French club, the debate team, and the varsity volleyball team.

She was vice-president of student assembly and currently is president of Voyage en France and serves as student body school board representative.

Tecumsehite Is EMU Grad

Mary Alice Rohn, 10556 Pennington Rd. was a candidate for a bachelor of science degree at the Dec. 18 commencement services at Eastern Michigan University.

Ceremony was held at Bowen Field House on the EMU campus.

Commencement address was delivered by Douglas A. Fraser, president of the United Auto Workers. He was awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree as was Lawrence R. Husse, a regent-emeritus of Eastern.

Helen Wallbank Milliken, the wife of Gov. William Milliken received an honorary doctor of humane letters. She was cited for "her concern for the improvement in the quality of life for all citizens."

Son-in-Law Buys Business

CLINTON — Tom Young, who has operated Merkel-Young Hardware for 27 years, as of Dec. 15 is selling the business to his son-in-law, Richard Rossow, effective Jan. 1.

Richard was a teacher in the Milwaukee schools, and his wife, Cynthia is a licensed practical nurse. They have three sons, Robert, Richard and David.

Tom plans to stay on for a while to give the new owner a hand as he gets acquainted with the business. It will now be known as Rossow Hardware.

'Festival of Song'

CLINTON — A Christmas Festival of Song was presented by the adult choir in the United Church of Christ, Sunday evening.

The candlelighted sanctuary was garlanded with greens and bows at the ceiling and the aisle was lined with hurricane candleholders.

Directed by Carolyn Dicks, the program featured a variety of little-known carols of other lands.

Among the novel features was the accompaniment of a set of bells owned by Mrs. Hans Schmidt, and imported from Australia. They were once played by the vocal trio Peter, Paul and Mary.

Other accompaniment was provided by flute, trumpets, synthesizer, harpsichord and the church's recently restored pipe organ.

Bells were played by Linda Kinney and the other instruments were played by Debbie Armbruster, Dave Carmen, Dorothy Girbach and Don Lee.

Steve Bowman served as narrator. Nick Holt had charge of the sound equipment, and may have taped recordings available of the service.

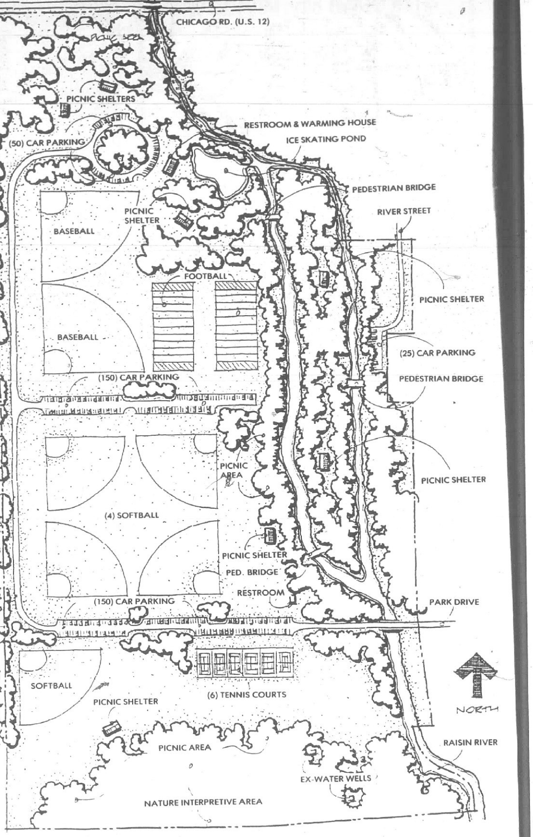
Soloists were Linda Corwin, Charlie Steffens, Betty Heimerdinger, Clayton Strolle, Terry Calhoun, and Janet Day.

Duets were composed of Irene Steffens and Fred Miller; and Irene Steffens and Joan Foster.

Other members of the choir are: Ruth Strolle, Jean Rhoades, Peg Rockwell, Nancy Cadmus, Dorothy Moon, Faye Summer and Ed Day.

The program was preceded by a family potluck supper. After dinner, the drawing was held for bazaar prizes, which were won by: May Brady, Genevieve Reilly, Mary Bowman and Danielle Foster.

Santa passed out candy for the youngsters as the evening ended.



52-Acre Park Plans

CLINTON — Clinton Village Park plans will become a reality in 1978 as work is expected to begin on a 52-acre site along the River Raisin at the western edge of the village.

Recent matching funds grant of $26,000 from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, made possible the purchase of 52 acres from the Hulett property at a cost of $52,500.

An earlier $13,000 matching funds land and water conservation grant was used to purchase a nearby 10-acre island.

A sketch map prepared by the Region II planning commission shows how the park will be developed into picnic areas, shelters, restrooms, baseball and softball diamonds.

Auto entrance will be from Bartlett St. and several parking areas will be provided.

Foot bridges will provide access to the park, as well, and only foot bridges will give access to the island, which will be developed in a five-year program.

This will include a river clean-up project. Only nature trails will be on the island, which was once farm land, but has been abandoned to become a wildlife refuge.

Park planning began in 1975 and much of the credit for it is due to Councilman Richard Peterson's continued interest in it, according to village president Clayton Strolle.

Primary Is Needed

CLINTON — Filing of petitions by four Republican candidates for three positions as trustees of the village, will require that a village primary election be held Feb. 20.

Victoria Poland is the new candidate for trustee, and other trustee candidates are incumbents, Richard Dixon, Edwin Piatt and Richard Peterson.

Other incumbents who filed for their same positions are: president, Clayton Strolle; clerk, Evelyn Harrison; treasurer, Doris Ritter; assessor, Harold Gasner; and Smith-Kimball Community Center trustees, Hollis Farley and Irene Karapas.

Deadline for registration for the primary election is Jan. 23.

TURKEY TIME — The Robert Long children, 6510 Stone Hwy., proudly display the turkeys they raised for Thanksgiving and Christmas. The birds weighed in at around 15 and 18 pounds when they "met their maker". Left to right, the children are, Kara, one year, Erin, six years and Sean, nine.

Which Turkey First?

By Kathy Brown

The biggest decisions this time of year seem to be what size of turkey do we get and who gets the wishbone?

For the Robert Long Family of Tecumseh this season posed the question which turkey do we eat first?

The young family of five raised its own turkeys, one for Thanksgiving and one for Christmas.

It was a first time experience for city raised Christine Long and children, Sean, 9, Erin, 6½ and Kara, one. For Bob Long, however, it was just another farm experience. He was a dairy farmer for 11 years.

Dressed out, the two birds weighed 18 and 15 pounds, respectively. The biggest was served for Thanksgiving.

Joining in the first feast with homegrown bird were Mr. Long's mother, Mrs. Herbert W. Long and his brother anD family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Long and daughter, Suzanne and son, Brian, all of Tecumseh.

Christine reported the bird was juicy and tender, well worth the effort.

The Longs found that the experiment was "kind of a hassel really because turkeys are rather hard to raise. They are not intelligent. You have to put their beaks into food and water dishes. We almost lost them.

"But we gave them warm light, which they require for a longer time, and they perked up and made it," Mrs. Long told. "They were just tiny little things in April."

The children were "super" about taking care of the turkeys over the past seven months. The parents decided raising their own turkeys would be a good experience for the children.

"The kids knew right away that the turkeys were being raised for Thanksgiving. I don't know who would become attached to a turkey," Mrs. Long said. "I don't think there's anything attractive about a turkey. Turkeys are not exactly the most lovable creatures."

She said they don't look like the colorful, appealing birds children learn to draw. They don't really gobble either, just make a noise, told Mrs. Long.

The children got the wishbone.

Welcome Wagon Holds Meeting

The November meeting of Welcome Wagon was held at the Kitchen and Fabric Center.

Esther Lamkin and Roma Fogelsong of the center showed many inexpensive Christmas gift ideas from toys to totes.

They also showed the fabrics available at the center including the latest sweater panels and instant skirts.

Door prize for the evening, a $10 gift certificate, was won by Carol Nixon and the turkey, by Mary Ann Henricks.

Christmas Trust

Alice Betz from Sand Creek is a Christmas annel to T. C. Roekle of Tecumseh. Mrs. Betz loaned Mrs. Roekle, a stranger, $15 to make a purchase because Mrs. Roekle couldn't cash her out-of-town check.

Mrs. Roekle remarked she was surprised and grateful for the woman's trust and Christmas spirit.

The Clinton-Macon Rd. was a disaster through all the thawing and rain we have had. All residents tried to be patient. A call to George Hillary of Lenawee County Road Commission on Monday morning assured us gravel trucks were on the way and conditions would improve.

Let's hope they stick with it and help us out so we can get to our church and holiday outings. Santa has Rudolph for fog but I don't know what he has for mud - let's hope we don't have to find out!

Christmas Activities at Boysville

Dec. 22 the students will have their "family" Christmas dinner before leaving for their homes on Dec. 23. On Christmas Eve the staff and students who are still on campus will carol in the neighborhood. Following midnight Mass, coffee and donuts will be served in the dining hall for all. Visitors are especially welcome. The faculty, staff and their friends will enjoy a dinner dance at Boysville on Dec. 27.

Lowell and Bonnie Bush hosted the Farm Bureau, Lake Ridge group, Christmas party at their home Dec. 12. Fourteen members and two guests participated in the potluck dinner. Following the meeting festivities included games and a gift exchange.

Jack and Edie Ries are happy to have their son, Tim, home for the holiday. Tim is a freshman student at North Texas State College, Denton, Texas.

Marjorie Stevens of Albuquerque, N.M. is a guest at the home of her sister Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Riddell for the holiday. The night of her arrival will be remembered for a long time. Her train arrived in Ann Arbor, two hours late, Dec. 9 during that terrible snow storm. As luck would have it, a Macon neighbor Jim Edwards already in that area because of his work, safely transported her to Macon. Aren't neighbors wonderful?

Thelma Manwaring is a patient at St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor. She will be there several weeks. Her room number is 424.

Macon Historical Society members were welcomed by driveway candles (placed in sacks) at the home of Don and Karen Oswald Dec. 14. Gift exchange items were put on a hand carved sled which was made many years ago by Karen's grandfather, William Pennington. The Christmas tree was unusual with its decorations of old Christmas cards and handmade items. Many Christmas goodies were brought and shared by the members.

The historical society signed a get well card and sent a plant to Deed Eldridge of the Mills-Macon Rd. who is a patient at St. Joseph's hospital Ann Arbor. Next meeting is Jan. 11, 1978 at Pat and Sharon Connors.

Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards had an interesting house guest during November. Mitzi Mauch of Vevey, Switzerland enjoyed a three week visit. She lives in the same town as Charlie Chaplain. Tony Bult of Switzerland, who teaches in Indiana, will be unable to go home and will spend several days in Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ruhl will have their daughter and son-in-law, Lorraine and Rodger Luegge of Cookeville, Tenn. with them for the holiday.

Thomas Riordan Is New Director

Thomas A. Riordan, former co-editor and publisher of The Herald, is now executive director of the Observer-Eccentric Newspapers in Livonia.

New position will include overseeing the operations for 12 newspapers printed at the Observer-Eccentric plant.

He is the former managing editor of the Jackson Citizen-Patriot and is the owner of TARCO, a newspaper management seminar business.

Tom and his wife, Marilyn, will move to the Oakland County area from their home in Jackson.

Serenade Home

Young music students participated in a moving meaningful Christmas remembrance last Thursday. They serenaded residents of Herrick Nursing Home and distributed homemade Christmas cookies.

The students, aged 7-13, brought their own guitars for the one hour program.

Participants were Carrie Watson, Carol Morrison, Mark Carr, Pam and Kim Young, Bill Brown, Letty Worley, Jerry Pape, Nick Westgate and their instructor Julie Judd, a sophomore at Tecumseh high school.

Six Candidates File Petitions

BRITTON — Six candidates filed for five village trustee offices open for election March 13, 1978, in the Village of Britton. Petitions are also in for the other offices.

Four persons filing for the three trustee offices for four-year terms are Janet Furgason and Lowell Evers and incumbents Jerry Dick and Nelie Denny.

The two candidates filing for the two, two-year unexpired offices are incumbents Phyllis Below and Robert Spence.

Incumbents filing for village offices for two-year terms were Kermit Pickell, Jr., president; Dorothy Hindes, clerk; Elizabeth Osterhout, treasurer; and Andrew Crutchfield, assessor.

Anyone interested in being an election inspector should apply for the job at the village clerk's office at 347 E. Chicago Blvd.

Neighbors Brighten Murphy Christmas

BRITTON — If awards were being handed out for "Good Samaritan's", the good neighbors of the Earl Murphy's would surely be high on the list.

These friends surprised Mr. Murphy Tuesday evening when they appeared at his door to serenade him with Christmas carols, then proceeded to bring in a Christmas tree and decorations for an old fashioned tree-trimming party. They also brought along a batch of homemade Christmas cookies.

Mrs. Murphy was not present as she was admitted to Herrick Hospital Monday.

Neighbors were the Ernest Needhams, Manuel Davilas and Dorothy Hindes.

Exchange Students Reflect on World

Elina Kassila, a Finnish exchange student living with the James Rolland Family of Clinton and Kay Mitusch, a West German student living with the Dave Thomas Family of Tecumseh, participated in COSMOS VI at Mt. Pleasant high school, Mt. Pleasant recently.

COSMOS VI is an international weekend sponsored by the state Y.M.C.A. of Michigan, in cooperation with Youth For Understanding, 4-H Clubs of Michigan, People to People, Rotary International and the American Field Service.

Basic purpose is to reflect on similarities and differences between cultures.

The Clinton high school students were two of 180 participating in the program that focused on the individual, the nation and the world in small group sessions led by young people.

Such exercises as values games, creating cosmic cultures, and an egg sale to raise money for World Service work were part of the weekend, as well as an international dinner and folk dancing led by the Central Michigan University Folk Dancers.

Films were shown to encourage discussion groups about world peace, hunger, population, resource use and international development

Feast Initiates Mexican Holiday

by Kathy Brown

Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe on Dec. 12 initiates the pre-Christmas holiday for Mexicans of Catholic heritage.

Here at St. Elizabeth Church in Tecumseh the Hispano community focused on the feast day with the celebration of Mass at 7 p.m. Dec. 10. The traditional cookie, bunelos was served at a social in the parish hall.

The portrait of Our Lady of Guadalupe, usually at the left hand side of the altar, was brought to the center of the church and adorned with a bouquet of roses.

The hymn "Adios Oh Virgin" was sung as a recessional. It is an expression of prayer to Mary, the mother of God and a bidding of farewell until the next liturgy in her honor.

Last year the celebration, organized by the Our Lady of Guadalupe Society, included colorful Hispano dancers.

In Mexico, the day is set aside for the "Queen of Mexico." At dawn the maraches, or strolling musicians, seranade the Virgin with mannitas, or songs for a special person.

The day long celebration includes bouquets of colorful flowers, processions and penance. The rosary, a devotion in honor of Mary, is recited privately and by the community.

Devotion continues with a novena or eight days of prayer and penance. Eight day votive candles are an outward sign of the novena.

Our Lady of Guadalupe is a powerful symbol of hope for the historically oppressed and poverty stricken people of Mexico.

On Dec. 9, 1531, she appeared to a Christian Indian, Juan Diego while he was on his way to early Mass in the mountain city of Tepeyac.

He heard his name called and saw a lady of glowing beauty with a dress that radiated like the sun. Her face expressed compassion and love.

She introduced herself as "the holy virgin Mary, mother of the true God" and said "I am your pious mother." She stated that the people could trust her to hear their lamentations and remedy their pains and sufferings.

She appeared to Diego five times and requested a church be built so that in it "I can show all my love."

She asked Diego to pick roses for her in the mountains in December. When the Indian showed the bishop the miracle of roses, the image of the virgin was indelible on his tunic. It is enshrined in the chapel of the cathedral in her honor in Mexico City with the story of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Bunelos, the cookies served on this feat day, are also served by Hispano people on New Year's Day with anise tea.

Mrs. Manuel Torres, wife of the president of the Our Lady Of Guadalupe Society and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ray Pizana, brought the cookies for sampling by the Herald staff.

They explained the Hispano people have an oral tradition of recipes and cooks learn by observing and doing. Basic ingredients in the cookie are flour and water worked into a stiff dough, rolled, then fried in oil and sprinkled with cinnamon and sugar while hot.

Report on Music Camp

At the December meeting of the Tecumseh Music Makers, the scholarship winners reported on their experiences at a music camp in August.

Jeannie McLeod reported on Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp, and Scott Brooks reported on Central Michigan Camp.

Jeannie played a piano solo, "Away in a Manger," and, Scott played a saxophone solo, "Sonate, No. 3," by Handel.

A program of Christmas music was presented by the following members:

Piano solos were given by Chyrl Peck, playing "Silver Bells" by Livingston and Evans; Sue Bless, "Greensleeves" (traditional); Lynn Boyd, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear."

Clarinet solo was performed by Alison Phillips, "O Come All Ye Faithful" by Reading.

Trumpet solo was given by Andy Neilson, "Angels We Have Heard on High" by Barnes. Saxophone and trumpet duet by Scott Brooks and Andy Neilson was "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" by Mendelssohn.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Frances Packard and Elizabeth Wilson.

Next meeting is Jan. 8, 1978.

Do you want to repair your home yourself? Are you interested in raising your own poultry or livestock or growing your own grain? The Tecumseh Public Library has several new books to aid you!

BUILD IT BETTER YOURSELF, by the editors of Organic Gardening and Farming Magazine, contains instructions, photos, and diagrams for yard, garden and homestead projects. Indoor gardening projects include plant flats, mushroom shelves and greenhouses. Outdoor projects include tools, bins, arbors, trellises, irrigation and birdhouses. Underground storage, smokehouses and dryers are described in food storage projects. Outbuildings, fences, bridges and garden ponds are a few of the "around the homestead" ideas.

Over 500 illustrations show hardware, systems and step-by-step techniques for doing electrical wiring in BASIC HOUSE WIRING, by Monte Burch. Each chapter explains materials and methods for small and large tasks in compliance with electrical codes. Special chapters deal with wiring basic circuits and heavy-duty appliances, service entrances, rural buildings, intercoms and doorbells. In addition to information on troubleshooting and repairs, there are tips galore for making your work easier and faster!

Decorate, repair, renovate or build any type of wall, floor, or ceiling with Jackson Hand. WALLS, FLOORS AND CEILINGS covers materials, supplies and techniques to make the job quicker and easier. The author gives "mini-courses" on painting, wallpapering, paneling and tiling walls, installing strip, parquet and resilient floors and putting up lighted and acoustical ceilings and real-and-not-so-real beams. Even beginners will learn quickly from this well-written, detailed, "how-to" book.

Successful roofing and siding by Robert Reschke, can help homeowners reduce annual maintenance, conserve heating and cooling fuel and improve the home's appearance and value through step-by-step instructions. Over 250 diagrams and photos aid the discussion of different types of applications, materials and products, contractors and financing.

BACKYARD POULTRY RAISING (THE CHICKEN GROWING, EGG LAYING, INCUBATING, CAPONIZING, FINGER LICKING HANDBOOK) by John F. Adams, covers the subject from beginning to end. subject from beginning to end. Buying chicks, building a chicken house, feeding, and protecting from disease and enemies are explained, not only for chickens, but also for ducks, turkeys and geese. Adams' charming, anecdotal, informative style makes this enjoyable reading for the "armchair egghead" and "backyard eggman" alike.

Thinking of raising your own livestock? BACKYARD LIVESTOCK: HOW TO GROW MEAT FOR YOUR FAMILY will help you select, feed, house, breed, and keep poultry, rabbits, sheep, pigs, goats and veal calves healthy. Drawn from his own experience and from interviews with other experts, Steven Thomas also discusses diseases — their prevention and remedies — and useful resources and suppliers. Tanning skins, making an incubator and giving an injection are three special chapters.

Annually, the average American family consumes about five bushels of grain, the amount that can be grown on a 75' by 100' plot. Yet most think grain can only be grown in huge fields. SMALL-SCALE GRAIN RAISING, by Gene Logsdon, tells everything one needs to know about raising grain from preparing the soil to harvesting and storing TIPTON — The December meeting of the Tipton Teamworkers was called to order by the new president Krista Reiv.

Also present were new officers: Alex Krueger, vice-president; Ann Fry, secretary; Steve Karpo, treasurer and Ric Callis, reporter.

"Mall Day", to be held at the Adrian Mall Feb. 11, was discussed. The committee in charge is Jean Kempf, Karman Pawson, Lori Kempf, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Walker and Patti Karpo.

Officers will deliver a Christmas food basket to a family.

The club will carol at the Lenawee County Medical Care Facility in the evening on Dec. 21.

A leathercraft meeting will be Dec. 28 at 2 p.m. at Tim Johnson's house.

Refreshment committee for Jan. 14 meeting is Nancy Abner, chairman, Kathy Templeton and Carol Baker.

Joys, Hazards in Christmas

Christmas and the holiday season are the most joyous for Tecumseh area families. Fire Chief Wallace MacGeorge again reminds residents that the holidays also create additional fire hazards.

"Most poeple don't realize that a Christmas tree is a potential fire bomb. "He suggested a watchful eye while the tree is indoors.

Other suggestions are:

Keep tree away from sources of heat, an open flame, a TV set, radiator, heating unit or duct.

Keep the tree watered and have a stand with a collar several inches in diameter and screws to hold the tree firmly.

Inspect the lights for frayed ends and exposed wires. Use only those approved by an independent testing laboratory.

Keep larger ornaments on the lower half of the tree.

Extinguish all candles and turn off electric ornaments when not in the room.

Annual Trip for Christmas

Seventeen Lenawee County students in the orthopedic handicapped class at Tecumseh High School made their annual Christmas shopping trip Nov. 29. Their teacher is Mrs. John Pobuda. Helping with the shopping trip were students Amy Nichols and Lynette Kopka. Helen Burkert and Pat Rittenhouse were the adult helpers.

The class' Christmas party is Dec. 22 during the noon hour. Alumni from previous class years are expected to attend.

Students Soon Have a Choice?

Students, or their parents, may soon have a choice as to whether student pictures will appear in the high school yearbook and media graduation supplement.

Tecumseh school board members Monday night discussed a new policy now being formulated that would allow students to request that their picture not run in the media or yearbook.

The policy would not cover those pictures taken by the media at school functions.

The policy will be rewritten, however, since several unanswered questions remain. The policy now states that parents must sign for students under 18.

Board member William Macbeth stated that the stipulation "limits the rights of students by age, and that's not right."

In [illegible]cipal Clarence Lacny wondered whether students would have to sign a release for each year or for all their high school career.

The policy was tabled in order that it may be studied further by school officials and their attorneys.

According to Asst. Supt. Gene Cooley, the policy would "save the board from any future liability."

Hope your holiday will be as resplendent as the shining star that crowns your tree!
Merry Christmas to all!

Indians Tied with Jets for Title, 3-0

Tecumseh's cagers notched two more wins beating Carlson 78-60 last Friday and Milan 71-42 on Tuesday of this week.

The victories leave Tecumseh with a 3-0 league record, tied with Airport for first in the league.

The Indians were ahead of Milan by just four points toward the end of the third period when Jim Neill came in and tossed in seven markers. Tecumseh closed out the frame with a comfortable 46-39 lead.

The orange and black battered Milan in the final period scoring 25 points to three for the opposition.

The Indians outrebounded Milan 52-37 with John Ely grabbing 15. Milan suffered 33 turnovers to just 13 for Tecumseh.

The Indians dumped 24 of 71 for 34 percent while Milan made 17 of 46 for 37 percent. Tecumseh converted 23 of 39 from the foul line and Milan, eight of 16.

Bret DesErmia made 18 to lead the Indian scoring, while Jeff Hans had 14 and Ben Maves, 13.

Tecumseh hosts Airport this Thursday for one of the most important—if not the most important—game this year for the Indians.

Tecumseh coach Jim Curth adds that Airport has three big players averaging 6'5" up front.

It only took a quarter for the Indians to show Carlson which was the superior team Friday. Tecumseh dumped 62 percent of its shots from the field in the first frame to take a sudden 27-20 lead at the end of the period.

For the entire game, the orange and black shot 44 percent to 40 percent for Carlson.

The Indians pulled down 58 rebounds to 37 for the opposition.

John Ely led in scoring for Tecumseh with 18 points and 10 rebounds. Ben Maves had 15, Jeff Hans 14 and Bret DesErmia 11, respectively.

SMASH CARLSON — Bret DesErmia puts the ball up against Carlson Friday night. The Indians won it 78-60. Tecumseh is now tied with Airport for the league lead.

Wrestlers Beat MCC and Huron

Tecumseh's wrestling squad maintained a perfect Huron League record beating Monroe Catholic Central 38-28 on Thursday of last week.

The Indians clobbered Monroe Jefferson 52-5 on Tuesday of this week after placing fourth out of eight teams at the Chelsea Invitational Saturday.

Tecumseh coasted to victory against Jefferson but scored just two pins including Chris Stoddard at 112 pounds and John Silberhorn at 165 pounds.

Winning decisions were, Binh Nguyen, Ben Williams, Jack Bagby, Steve Bishop, Mark Barrett, Dan Yoder, and Keith Hill.

Three other Indians won by forfeit.

In the Chelsea Invitational, six Indians placed in the final standings. Tecumseh, as a team, had 79 points. Belleville won it with 209½ points.

The six to place were Binh Nguyen fourth at 98, Steve Bishop second at 126, Dan Yoder second at 138, Keith Hill third at 155, John Silberhorn second at 165 and Dan DeHaan second at 178.

The Indians opened their league season with a 38-28 win over Monroe Catholic Central last Thursday.

Individual winners for Tecumseh included: 105 pounds-Ringman, pin, 3:00; 126-Jack Bagby, 13-12; 132-Bishop, 16-4; 145-Yoder, pin, 1:12; 165-Silberhorn, pin, :58; 178-DeHaan, pin, 2:55; Hvt.-Withrow, pin, 1:34.

The junior varsity coasted to a 51-18 victory over Catholic Central.

The Indian junior varsity participated in the Addison Invitational Saturday with eight wrestlers placing in the final standings.

Those eight were, Don Ringman, second; Chris Stoddard, second; Matt Barrett, first; John Southard, first; Jesse Castorena, second; Mike Fagan, second; Tony Turner, first und Kareem Swidan, second.

Tecumseh is now 2-0 in the Huron League and 3-4 overall. They participate in the rescheduled Huron Invitational Dec. 30.

LOSE IN QUARTERFINALS

Redskin Girls End Season at 23-2 Mark

The Redskin girls basketball team ended its most successful season ever losing the quarterfinal contest to Buchanan 66-64 in overtime on Wednesday last week.

Clinton finished at 23-2.

The Skins started strong leading 9-4 but Buchanan caught up and led 20-17 at the end of the first quarter. The Bucks increased their lead to six, 35-29 at halftime.

CHS fell behind by 10 points during the third period but the girls started coming back. Karen Busch swished a 20-footer at the third period buzzer to tie the score at 47-47.

With 1:58 left to play and Buchanan leading 60-58, JoAnn Grossman and Cathy Gibson scored for Clinton giving them the lead 63-60. Karen Busch added a free throw at 1:38 and the Redskins were ahead by four, 64-60.

It was, however, the last point that Clinton would score. Buchanan scored two free throws with 35 seconds left to tie the game.

Clinton held on to the ball until seven seconds were left calling a time out to set up one last shot. The Skins got off a good shot but it was short and the game went into overtime.

Buchanan outscored Clinton 2-0 in the overtime.

It was a sad ending for the three seniors on the Clinton team, JoAnn Grossman, Karen Busch and Cathy Gibson.

Sue Richter led all scorers with 31 points and 10 rebounds. JoAnn Grossman, playing in her last high school game scored 12 points and led the Redskins in rebounding with 15 while holding Buchanan's 6'1" center to just 14 points.

Cathy Gibson and Karen Busch brought the girls back hitting several key baskets during the second half to spark the Redskins.

The three seniors climaxed an excellent career that saw them play on two LCAA Championship teams, win three straight district titles and one regional championship and earned and earn an overall record of 43-5 over the last two years.

Clinton Cagers Beat Hudson in 4 Overtimes

Clinton's boys basketballers fought Hudson all the way to the wire—and beyond—on Tuesday of this wek.

The Skins defeated the Tigers 72-67 after four overtime periods.

The Redskins controlled the middle quarters of regulation play leading 26-24 at the half and 43-36 after the third period.

But Hudson refused to roll over and play dead putting together an aggresive fourth quarter effort. The Tigers scored 17 markers in the fourth frame to 10 for Clinton to tie things up at 53-all.

Both teams scored two points apiece in the first overtime period.

In the second however, Clinton was behind by four when Clinton's Mark Dettling scored a one and one with 30 seconds left to pull within two.

With 17 seconds left, Hudson went for the basket with Dettling grabbing it in mid-air and firing it in at the buzzer to keep the tie intact.

After another 4-4 overtime frame, Clinton put together a nine-point effort in the fourth overtime to just four for Hudson to win it.

Clinton dumped 24 of 65 for 37 percent to 30 of 72 and 42 percent for the Tigers. The Redskins definitely helped their own cause at the foul line connecting on an amazing 24 of 33 charity shots for 73 percent. Hudson hit on seven of 16 from the line.

Mark Dettling was tops in scoring with 22 while Mike Risner had 18, Mike Karapas 13 and Wally Pike, 11.

Dettling also led in rebounds with 23. Jeff Porterfield and Pike each had seven.

Clinton now posts a 2-1 record in the LCAA, 4-2 overall. They host Blissfield this Friday making up a previously scheduled but postponed contest.

Action for the Redskins resumes on Jan. 6 when they host Onsted.

Tories Suffer 6th Loss

Britton suffered two more losses falling to Ida 76-62 last Friday and to Whitmore Lake 61-46 on Tuesday of this week.

In the Ida game, the Tories fell behind quickly trailing 17-10 at the end of the first quarter. By the half, they trailed 38-28.

Dan Sparrow and Phil Loesch each had 14 points while Greg Fanslau had 10.

Sparrow led in scoring against Whitmore Lake as well.

The Tories are now 0-6 overall.

CHS Grapplers Whip Royals

Clinton's wrestling squad smacked Blissfield last Thursday 57-15.

On Tuesday of this week, the Redskins lost to Dundee 43-27 but beat Jonesville 45-24 in a double dual.

Double winners for Clinton in the double dual included: 105—Chris Wojtowicz; 112—Bill Willis; 132—Rudy Weirich; 191—Wally Heimerdinger.

Those Redskins who notched one match were: 126—Mark Prichard; 132—Andy Hoag; 145—Lee Russ; 178—Bob Santure.

Individual Clinton winners against Blissfield included: 112—Willis, pin at 5:09; 119—Semanske, pin at 3:50; 126—Prichard, 9-0; 145—Russ, pin at 3:30; 165—Thilo, pin at 5:59; 178—Miller, pin at 3:02; 191—Heimerdinger, pin at 1:04.

Clinton hosts Morenci this Thursday.

Tecumseh Depot Rich in History

by Kathy Brown

Once there was a time when America moved by rail. The S. Evans depot bustled with the comings and goings of passenger lines and freight runs all day.

Cinder and ash from the belly of the steam engine rained on the neighborhood. Horse drawn drays cabbed freight uptown.

Young entrepreneurs like Perry Satterthwaite earned an honest buck hawking papers and popcorn to passengers destined for points west on the now defunct Detroit, Toledo and Milwaukee Railroad, one of three in Tecumseh.

A survivor of that era is the S. Evans depot where Tecumseh businessman Perry Satterthwaite operated nay[illegible] fuel and [illegible] years.

It was always a depot according to Satterthwaite. He was born in the home on the corners of S. Evans and W. Kilbuck and as a boy, passed time down at the station.

"It's been around as long as I can remember," said Satterthwaite, 85. However, it was not always located on S. Evans.

When owned by the Lima Northern Railroad, the depot stood near a roundhouse nearby the present Duff Truck Lines on S. Maumee.

The Lima Northern later became the DTI Railroad or "delirium tremor and indigestion," as the old timers knew it.

Back then there were three railroads in Tecumseh, the Detroit, Toledo and Milwaukee, which ran out of money before it reached Allegan, the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton formerly the Lima Northern and the New York Central.

"When Henry Ford bought the DTI, he paid higher but he was stricter. He wouldn't let the men smoke. When they got off for a water stop they had to polish the nickel on the engine. They'd throw me 10 cents to get them a package of Red Band chewing tobacco and let me ride in the cab," said Satterthwaite.

The DTI ran what was called a "plug run", a combined passenger and freight run twice a day. Passengers rode the last car and a smoker-baggage car was second from last. Train ran through Tecumseh, Ridgeway, Britton, Ray, once a prosperous farm community and turned around at Dundee to return to Tecumseh.

"I wanted to be an engineer," said Satterthwaite. "I rode down in the baggage car and came back in the engine."

Satterthwaite earned $1 a week peddling the Jackson Citizen Patriot and popcorn that his mother popped. "That didn't work out so well. I'm afraid I ate most of it," he told.

He came to know all the crew and can still recite their names and the litany of train stops in the four directions.

The depot once housed a waiting room warmed by a pot belly stove, ticket window manned by the telegraph operator and business office of the president of the Lima Northern, prior to DTI ownership. Separately owned was a short lunch restaurant on the west side.

Satterthwaite's uncle worked as a ticket agent-telegraph operator and his grandfather as freight agent for the NYC.

When the depot was abandoned by the New York Central Railroad, Satterthwaite's brother-in-law, Perry Hayden, rented it for storage and to make cake flour. They bought it from the NYC and formed two separate companies, Hayden Flour Mill and Hayden Fuel and Supply.

Tecumseh still has three railroads — the Conrail between Adrian and Clinton, the DTI which runs to Fisher Body and the Chessie, which connects in Tecumseh three blocks west of the depot — but not nearly the activity.

The depot and the memories are Perry Satterthwaite's. They are Tecumseh's history, too.

MEMORIAL SERVICES TODAY

Robert H. Moore Was Prominent Resident

Memorial services will be held this Thursday afternoon at 1:30 at the First Baptist Church for Robert H. Moore, 76, retired Tecumseh businessman who died Friday evening at Herrick Hospital.

He had been in failing health since suffering a heart attack on July 21, and had been in and out of the hospital since. In recent weeks, he seemingly was making a satisfactory recovery.

ROBERT H. MOORE

Mr. Moore was one of the community's most active and vocal supporters for the past 40 years or more. He was a member of many organizations here.

For many, he was "Chief Tecumseh," a role he played in the city's 1974 Sesequicentennial celebration and a role he previously played when Tecumseh observed its 125th year in 1949. He also participated in the city's Centennial celebration in 1924.

Mr. Moore, a life-long resident of Tecumseh, was a member and former trustee of the First Baptist Church. He assisted in planning the new church complex on Milwaukee Rd.

He was a charter member and past president of the Tecumseh Country Club and was an enthusiastic Rotarian. A member and past president of the Rotary Club, he was primarily responsible for the service club's exceptional number of Rotary flags from all over the world.

This flag collection, displayed weekly at Rotary meetings, numbers over 1,400 and is the second largest collection in the world.

Other memberships included Tecumseh Masonic Lodge, No. 69, F&AM; Masonic Moslem Temple, Detroit; and Royal Arch Masons, life member of Chapter No. 42.

He was also a member of the Alumni Association, University of Michigan; Elks, Adrian Lodge No. 429; American Association of Retired Persons; life member, Tecumseh Club; and Lenawee Country Club.

Mr. Moore was elected chairman of the board of the United Savings Bank in 1963 and held that position until 1968. Also in 1962, he was elected to a four-year term on the Tecumseh school board.

His hobbies included coin collecting, golfing, and trips in his boat with friends over many waterways throughout the midwest. These travels were over the Mississippi River, Ohio River, Wabash and many others.

Last year, he and a group of fellow Rotarians traveled down the Mississippi River to New Orleans to attend the Rotary International convention there.

As an outdoorsman, he was a member of the Lost Lake Woods Club, near Lincoln, Mich., and Pine Creek Hunting Lodge in the state of New York.

He served on Tecumseh council, Tecumseh Charter Commission, and aided in writing the city charter. He was a past president of the Chamber of Commerce.

In 1951, he was voted Tecumseh's Citizen of the Year.

He played the drums in the River Raisin Rats band, local music group who played at many social and civic functions. He was a member of the music fraternity, Phi Mu Alpha, at the University of Michigan.

Mr. Moore was born on June 10, 1901, the son of Robert Spencer Moore and Grace Ellen Heck. He was class valedictorian in 1919 at Tecumseh high school. In 1923 he graduated from the University of Michigan and then joined his father in the lumber business.

R.S. Moore & Son Company was founded here about the turn of the century by his father and his father's brother, Harry Moore. It remained in the family until it was sold to the present owners in October 1957. It still retains the family name.

Mr. Moore and his father expanded the business, buying the Britton Lumber Yard, Dundee and Clinton lumber companies and Tecumseh Sash and Door.

At one time, he served as president of the Michigan Retail Lumber Association.

On Aug. 25, 1928, he married the former Pauline Harriet Dillon, who survives as do two daughters, Mrs. James (Grace) Wilson of Brooklyn and Mrs. Shirley Anne Fielder, Tecumseh; one son, Robert D. Moore, Tecumseh, and 11 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for the family were held Saturday afternoon at the Proctor Funeral Home. Dr. Blair O. Bashore officiated, and burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

The Rev. Kenneth, pastor of First Baptist Church, and the Russell Cooper will officiate at today's memorial service.

Circulate Traffic Light Petitions

Petitions for a traffic light on W. Chicago Blvd. at Occidental are being circulated by the United Savings Bank, according to Mary Bowers, bank officer and member of city council.

Patrons at the bank's branch at the intersection have complained about the traffic and congestion in the area and the difficulty of getting onto W. Chicago.

There are approximately 35 businesses in the area that has a 40 mph speed limit. Although there has been no significant change in accident frequency in the past two years, according to city records, the area is highly congested.

Cal Zorn, city manager, has contacted the state highway department at Jackson but expects no action from the department at this time.

The state's traffic count, taken in October, reports approximately 15,000 vehicles through the area daily. This is just under the 15,400 traffic count for downtown Tecumseh on Chicago Blvd.

In comparison, the state's traffic count on M-50 near Matthews Hwy. was under 8,000 daily.

Start Pickups on Jan. 3rd

City will start picking up Christmas trees on Jan. 3, weather permitting, according to Cal Zorn, city manager.

Residents are asked to have the trees off the streets but near the curb.

Auditions on Jan. 3-4 for 'Mice'

Auditions are Jan. 3 and 4 at 7:30 p.m. at the First United Presbyterian Church in Tecumseh for the Tecumseh Players' next production, "Two Blind Mice."

Roles are available for 10 men and four women. A copy of the script is available for [illegible] Public Library but may not be checked out.

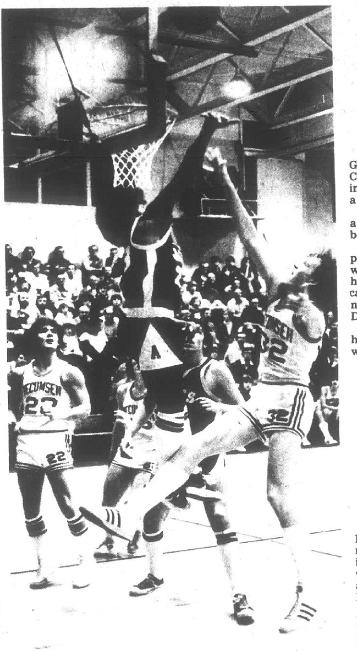
Tom Studnicka of Adrian will direct the show, a situation comedy.

LD Taking Over Pickups for Weaver

M.H. Weaver, city's trash and garbage collector for the past eight years, has been sold to Lenawee Disposal, effective Jan. 1.

Dee Stucker, Blissfield, owner of Lenawee Disposal, says Weaver's rural patrons will be absorbed in LD's routes and will be notified of any changes.

Cal Zorn, city manager, says trash bags now being distributed by Weaver this week to residences here, will have the Weaver name on the bag but will be handled by Lenawee Disposal.



INDIANS PERFECT — Tecumseh kept its undefeated record intact last Thursday when the Indians tripped previously unbeaten Airport, 46-44, in a thriller. Coach Jim Curth's club rallied to edge the Jets and will now take a 7-0 mark into Friday's game with the 4-2 Maples at Adrian. Bret DesErmia here attempts a field goal over a high jumping Airport player while teammate Dick Cangley watches the ball. DesErmia shared scoring honors at 11 points with Jeff Ely. Cangley pitched in eight and helped spark the Tecumseh winning rally.

Plan Spring TM Meeting Jan. 3

Tecumseh Area Town Meeting Organization will meet Jan. 3 at 7 p.m. at the Tecumseh Public Library to plan a town meeting for spring 1978.

William Frownfelder serves as chairman of the group. Anyone in the community interested in helping to plan the spring town meeting may attend.

First town meeting was organized in Oct. 76. Many individuals and businesses contributed time and talents for the success of Town Meeting 1976 and coordinators hope the participation will be as great for the new town meeting.

Many Closing Again Monday

Tecumseh Post Office, city offices, First Federal Savings and Loan and United Savings Bank will join most Tecumseh businesses in closing Jan. 2 due to the legal holiday for New Year's Day.

Tecumseh city council will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the city hall Jan. 3, also due to the holiday.

Arrested, Jailed after Taking Shot at Police

A rural Tecumseh man, Gregory Brighton, 26, of 7128 Centennial Rd., is being held in the Lenawee County jail on a charge of felonious assault.

His troubles stemmed from a family dispute. Bond has been set at $25,000.

State police, Tecumseh police and sheriff's officers were summoned to the family home after Sheryl Brighton called state police from a neighbor's house at 12:30 a.m. Dec. 24.

She told officers that her husband had beaten her and was in the family's home with her three young children. She wanted the youngsters out of the house.

When police arrived and approached the house, Brighton reportedly fired a shot through a window at the officers. Attempts to talk Brighton out of the house failed.

While his attention was diverted, police then entered through the rear of building and arrested him. He offered no resistance.

The children, ages five, four and 16 months, were not harmed.

Youth Injured after Driving Car into Train

A 17-year-old youth, John E. Boldon, 519 N. Evans St., miraculously escaped serious injury early Thursday evening when he drove into the path of a train on N. Evans St., near Moore Lumber Co.

Boldon was headed south on N. Evans and apparently did not see the train crossing the street. He collided with the engine, suffered minor injuries and was taken to Herrick Hospital for treatment.

Engineer for the train, which consisted of the engine and one car, was Walter C. Lerch of Onsted.

Resume of other traffic accidents is:

Dec. 21 — Robert M. Eardley, 17, of 1001 Park St., slid on icy Cairns St. and into Timothy G. Smith, 19, of 602 Island Dr., as Smith started a turn.

Dec. 22 — William F. Bellmore, 36, of 5033 Tecumseh-Macon Rd., lost control of his car when his foot slipped off the brake and onto the accelerator. He struck a mail box on the left side of Macon Rd. and then veered across the road and hit a tree.

Dec. 22 — Robert Sterling 5000 Burt St., told police his car was damaged while parked in the city's northeast downtown parking lot.

Dec. 22 — Randolph Wisner, 16, of 4726 Holloway Rd., backed into a parked car owned by Carol Quigley, 606 W. Pottawatamie St., on W. Pottawatamie.

Dec. 23 — Daisy F. McClain, 48, of 709 Ternes, attempted to park on E. Logan St. and struck a parked car owned by Betty Jeffers, Britton.

Dec. 23 — Ernest F. Gove, 76, of 208 N. Oneida, was cited

Police Charge 2 Men, Woman with Larceny

Two men and one woman were charged with simple larceny early last Thursday morning when they were arrested by Tecumseh police after taking materials from a house under construction at Cree Court.

Released on $50 bond are Stephen P. Kaizer, 29, of 206 E. Pottawatamie St.; Suzanne K. Clark, 27, Adrian, and Bradley S. Hoffman, 27, of 206 S. Democrat.

Neighbors in the area alerted police after observing the theft taking place.

Police found Miss Clark sitting in her pickup and the two men hiding nearby. She told officers that they were trying to find some weight to put into her pickup.

Shingles from the conntruction site were found in the rear of the truck.

Other complaints the past week included a charge of malicious destruction of property against Elizabeth Studnick, Britton.

Public Hearing next Tuesday for Revised Historic Ordinance

Folks again will have an opportunity to air their views on a historic ordinance for Tecumseh.

Since a previous ordinance was rejected by council, a revised one has now been presented to city officials, and a public hearing is scheduled for next Tuesday night at 8:30 at city hall.

Paul Preston, assistant city manager, lists many questions and answers relative to the new ordinance for residents to review.

What is the purpose of the ordinance?

To provide for the preservation of historic sites, structures, districts, and to create a Historic Preservation Commission.

What is the Historic Preservation Commission?

Body of seven members appointed by the City Council. The members must be residents of the City of Tecumseh but do not need to be residents of the historic district.

What are the main differences between the old and new ordinance?

The old ordinance required each property owner in the historical district to have exterior renovation plans approved by the Commission prior to commencement of construction. The new ordinance requires property owners of structures fifty years or older to consult with the Commission prior to renovation but does not require it's approval. The other major difference allows any property owner to voluntarily request the designation of his property as a landmark.

What is a landmark?

Any "improvement" which has a special character or special historical or aesthetic interest or value as part of the development, heritage, or cultural characteristics of the city.

How can someone get their property designated as a landmark?

Any owner of property can petition the Commission for designation. The Commission will then review the request and if approved will submit their recommendation to the City Council for their approval.

Why would someone want their property designated as a landmark?

Because they recognize the special character of their house and want it preserved for future generations.

How can a property owner be sure of it's preservation for future generations?

The owner of a designated landmark may elect to make such designation binding on his/her successors in title. This is accomplished by recording appropriate documents of restrictions at the Register of Deeds office for Lenawee County by the property owner of the designated landmark and each subsequent owner would be subject to the same restrictions as those placed on the owner who initially received the designation. Many subdivisions have such restrictions, such as a limit of height or a minimum square footage for each structure.

What obligations are placed on the owner of a landmark?

If a property owner wishes to make any exterior alterations to the property he must first submit plans to the Commission for their approval. If approval is given a building permit will be issued. If not approved the denial is automatically sent to the City Council for their review.

What if a property owner does not wish to make the designation binding on his/hers successors in title?

A property owner is not required to make such designation binding. If the owner does not elect to do so any subsequent owner does not elect to do so any subsequent owner may petition the Commission for removal of the property from designation and automatically be granted such release.

Will this ordinance create a historical district?

It does create the West Chicago Boulevard-Union Street Historic District. This is the same district that was to be created in the first ordinance.

Why create a district?

This is a recognition on the part of the community that there is an area of town that has special historic value to the city and should be preserved. This has special importance when discussing future land use and zoning for the area. It gives property owners a feeling that this area is unique and should be preserved and hopefully will encourage dialogue between property

HOME WINTERIZATION

Long range weather forecasts call for another colder than normal winter. This will once again result in high heating bills, especially for those homes that are not properly insulated and do not have storm doors and windows. High heating bills affect all of us but place an even tougher burden on low income families and the elderly.

The city of Tecumseh in cooperation with the Region II Community Action program is sponsoring a home winterization program. The purpose of the program is to assist homeowners of low income to properly winterize their homes and ultimately to conserve energy.

The Region II Community Action Agency is the administrator of the program. The agency provides a grant of up to $350 per structure for ceiling insulation, storm windows and doors, furnace repair, repair and patching of holes, windows and foundations.

The $350 is for materials only. The agency also provides the labor needed for the laying of insulation, hanging of windows and doors and all other necessary and eligible repairs. The applicant does not pay for either material or labor.

To qualify for a home winterization grant the applicant must be a owner-occupant with a gross income not exceeding $3,713 for the head of the household, plus $1,200 for each dependent. A family of four would have to have a gross income of less than $7,313 to qualify for the grant.

Any person or family meeting the income requirements and interested in the program should come either to city hall or the Community Action Agency, located at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, to apply. The application is simple to fill out. No one should hesitate to apply for fear of a long complicated form.

An applicant will have to sign an eligibility statement verifying his income. It usually takes six weeks from time of application until the work is completed.

This is a first come, first served program, with a total of 20 grants available, so it is imperative that to apply as quickly as possible. This is a grant. It does not have to be paid back nor will a lien be placed on the property.

INDUSTRIAL PARK

Union Construction Company was awarded the contract for the installation of the utilities in the industrial park with construction to begin by Dec. 15.

One of the questions asked of me is why try to attract industry, why not try to attract retail instead. I think it is important to attract both as both are important to the growth and vitality of the community. In fact, one new retail store has opened downtown within the last 60 days with another one to open shortly.

I received some interesting facts from the Michigan Chamber of Commerce which illustrates the impact new industry has on a community. For every 100 jobs in manufacturing, there is an increase of $1,368,600 in personal income each year; enough income to support 312 people or make a payment of mortgage or rent on 116 homes or apartments, tax monies to educate 51 school children, $568,000 in bank deposits, $611,200 in retail sales per year which is sufficient sales to support four retail establishments and finally there would be an additional 76 jobs in fields other than manufacturing.

Winter Workshop

YMCA Storer Camps, located 10 miles southeast of Jackson will be the site for winter outdoor education workshop sponsored by the Michigan Environmental Education Association and YMCA Storer Camps' outdoor education center. Dates for the weekend titled "What a Site - Outdoor Education in the Schoolyard," Jan. 20-22.

Further information about registration for the outdoor education winter workshop at Storer Camps is available throught coordinator Greg McKee at (419) 243-1172 or (517) 536-8608.

Public Hearing on Ordinance owners within the district, the Historical Preservation Commission and the City Council.

Will all structures in the district be required to submit any renovation plans to the commission?

No, only property owners of structures 50 years or older will be required to meet with the Commission prior to undertaking any exterior repairs. The purpose of the meeting is for the Commission to advise the property owner of materials and styles that will be in keeping with the original design of the structure. The role of the Commission is to be strictly advisory. A property owner is not required to get Commission approval prior to doing the actual repairs.

Can a landmark be demolished?

The demolition or moving of a landmark should be discouraged. Demolition will be allowed when the structure is deemed a hazard to public health or safety; such a structure is a deterrent to a major improvement program which will be of substantial benefit to the community; retention of such structure would cause undue financial hardship to the owner of the property.

Can only certain properties be designated as landmarks?

Any piece of property whether it be commercial or residential can be designated as a landmark.

How long does it take to get the necessary approval for a landmark and approval for renovation plans?

The Commission has 45 days to either approve or disapprove a request for a landmark designation; 60 days for designation of a historical district; 30 days for approval or disapproval of renovation plans for a landmark; and 10 days to meet with property owners of properties within a historical district.

It is quite apparent from all the work that has gone into the historical preservation study and the development of this ordinance that there is concern for the preservation of those homes and districts, for the benefit of the whole community, that have a special historical character.

The new ordinance changes the emphasis from that of requiring compliance to voluntary action on the part of individual property owners. Preservation of individual homes and subsequently neighborhoods depends on each individual property owner. If one property owner does not maintain their property it can have a detrimental effect on the rest of the homes on the block.

Complaints

She has been charged with smearing steak sauce and sugar on a car owned by Robert A. Thomas, also of Britton. Incident occurred in the Cedar Shack parking lot on Christmas Eve.

Friday, Robert E. Coffey, 33, Britton, was cited for driving while under the influence of alcohol on N. Evans St. at Macon Rd. Officers here were alerted by Clinton police that a driver headed for Tecumseh may be intoxicated. Coffey was observed driving onto the shoulder of the road.

Wayne Dunbar, 216 W. Pottawatamie, told police Monday that a cover for his snowmobile was stolen.

Residents Earn EMU Awards

Two Tecumseh residents have been awarded Eastern Michigan University regional high school awards for the 1977-78 academic year.

They are Deborah Nichols, the daughter of James and Annette Nichols of 214 South Ottawa, and Judith Thomas, the daughter of James and Phyllis Thomas of 9589 Clinton-Macon.

The regional high school award is given to selected high school graduates. The purpose of the award is to ensure that as a state university, Eastern reflects the geographical diversity of Michigan.

Deborah is a graduate of Tecumseh high school and plans to major in business at Eastern. Judith, a graduate of Britton-Macon high school, plans to major in art.

MR. and MRS. DAVID McLOUGHLIN

Debra Mitroka and David McLoughlin Wed

Debra Mitroka, daughter of George and Mary Anne Mitroka of Southgate and David Charles McLoughlin, son of Charles and Joyce McLoughlin of 1340 E. Munger Rd. were married Dec. 17 1:30 p.m. at St. Pius X Church, Southgate.

Fr. R. McCabe of St. Pius X Church and the Rev. Allan Gray of the United Methodist Church, Tecumseh officiated.

Timothy Noel was the organist and Norma Wurmlinger was the soloist.

Hurricane candles decorated with pinecones, holly and scotch plaid ribbons were placed on the altar by the ministers as the bridesmaids approached the sanctuary. Poinsettias and Christmas wreaths decorated the church.

For her wedding, the bride wore an ivory, dacron polyester gown with princess styling and fitted bodice of embroidered lace. It featured a high French collar with open front, long sleeves with a tiny cuff and matching applique of the same embroidered lace on the sleeves and skirt of the gown. A ruffled hem with chapel train completed the design.

The bride wore her mother's opal earrings and a tiny gold cross. Her fingertip veil and blusher were edged with matching embroidered lace and secured by a crescent shaped cap, accented with pearls.

She carried a nosegay of dried and silk flowers in ivory tones with red carnations, ivory lace and ribbons.

Mrs. John Gowdie, the bride's cousin of Trenton, was matron of honor wearing a red chiffon gown with matching elbow length cape, ruffled hem and fresh baby's breath in her hair.

She carried a hurricane candle with pinecones, holly and scotch plaid ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Lori McLoughlin, the groom's sister of Tecumseh, Paulette Miller, the groom's cousin of Ann Arbor, Joanna Mullins the bride's cousin and Peggy Evelock, both of Southgate and Trish Scannel of Westland.

Flower girls were Lisa McLoughlin, the groom's sister of Tecumseh and Lori Swenson, the bride's cousin of Trenton.

Gregory Mullins, the bride's cousin of Southgate was the ring bearer.

Rick Swiderick of Cheboygan was the best man.

Groomsmen were Mark McLoughlin, the groom's brother of Tecumseh, Steve Mitroka the bride's brother of Germany and Jim Mitroka, the bride's brother of Southgate. Fred and Marty Stempky, both of Cheboygan.

George and John Mitroka, the bride's brothers of Southgate were ushers.

A reception for 400 guests was held at the PRCU Hall in Wyandotte. The bride's table was flanked by red candles, decorated with red netting and tiny Christmas lights. A marriage cup was reserved for the toast.

Mrs. Eva McLoughlin of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Minster of Park Forrest, Ill., Steve Mitroka of Germany, Lt. George and Nancy Mitroka of West Virginia were special guests.

The new Mrs. McLoughlin is a graduate of Central Michigan University and is employed by Avis Rent-a-Car at Detroit Metro Airport. Mr. McLoughlin is a senior at Eastern Michigan University, education curriculum.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Symac's Restaurant, Southgate.

The newlyweds will reside at K-104, Cornell Court, Ypsilanti.

Tom Rudd Joins MCA Staff

Tom Rudd of Tecumseh has joined the Michigan Council for the Arts (MCA) staff in October to serve as the facilitator for Services to Individual Artists Program.

The facilitator's office was established on the recommendation of the MCA's Support to Individual Artists Panel and aims to assist Michigan artists in securing funding, solving problems and providing referrals.

A working artist, Tom received his bachelor of fine arts from Siena Heights College in Adrian and spends as much time as he can on his sculpture.

His works were shown around the state, including the Michigan Focus Show at Detroit Institute of Arts and the Scarab Club in Detroit, in addition to showings in Chicago, Toronto and New York.

Rudd most recently coordinated the artist-in-residence-program at Jackson Prison and organized the current prison art show on view at the Pontiac Art Center.

He also organized the first prison art shows in Lansing and Grand Rapids.

In addition, he has served as liaison for the Governor's Special Commission for Art in Public Places.

Rudd, his wife, Nanette and four children live in Tecumseh.

Family Day Saturday

Lenawee Family Day is a Saturday packed full of fun and facts for the whole family sponsored by the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service in Lenawee County.

It includes sessions planned with everyone in mind from great-grandpa to the little ones. And there's something for a family of one, too.

Event is Jan. 28 at Adrian High School near Bixby Hospital, Adrian.

Registration forms are available at the Extension Center, 199 N. Broad, Adrian, Mich. 49221. For more information, phone 263-8831 ext. 329.

Reservations are due Jan. 19.

There is only a minimal registration cost, 50 cents per person; family of two or more members, $1; family of three or more members, $1.

It is open to every Lenawee family to enjoy themselves, learn about new things and beat inflation all at once.

RESERVIST HUSBAND SHOOTS — Army Reserve Capt. Walter H. Elkins (prone) of Tecumseh, fires .45-caliber pistol under watchful eye of scorer during recent field training. Elkins and his wife, 1st Lieutenant Sandra S. Elkins, are both members of 300th Military Police Command (U.S. Army Reserve).

(ARMY RESERVE PHOTO)

Soldiering on Weekends

The family that soldiers together stays together.

That might be the motto of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Elkins of 914 Pontiac Trail. The couple are both officers in the 300th Military Police Command U.S. Army Reserve.

Capt. Walter Elkins is commander of the 303rd Military Police Company of Jackson, while 1st Lt. Sandra S. Elkins is assigned to the command's headquarters in Livonia, Mich.

Their two children are four-year-old Ian Patrick and 20-month-old Shannon Elizabeth.

During his normal work week, Captain Elkins is employed at the Ford Motor Co. Ypsilanti.

Lt. Elkins describes her profession as "housewife, mommy and student." She is a pre-nursing student at Eastern Michigan University. She plans to enter the licenses practical nurse program at nearby Washtenaw Community College in January.

Although normally assigned to different locations for their weekend reserve drills, the two sometimes get to train together—as during a recent field training weekend at Custer Reserve Forces Training Site near Battle Creek, at which several 300th units met together for weapons firing, gas mask training, hand-grenade throwing and other annual training events.

The Army brought the couple together originally.

They met at Michigan State University in 1970, when Walter—then a decorated Vietnam veteran assigned to officer recruiting duty—visited the campus on a recruiting trip.

Sandra was in her senior year at MSU and was participating in a college junior officer program which prepared women for direct commissioning as Army officers upon graduation.

They became engaged and, when Sandra graduated that year with a degree in education and political science, it was Walter who administered her oath of office as an Army lieutenant.

Sandra then went to Ft. McClellan, Ala., for officer basic training.

They were married the following December. Then for six months the two were separated by their duties.

Walter, one of 22 Officer Candidate School recruiters in the country, continued to operate out of the Detroit recruiting station, covering the entire state of Michigan.

Sandra was assigned to Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, Ind. For six grueling months, Walter made the long drive from Detroit to Indianapolis and back almost every weekend.

But the Army eventually got them back together, reassigning Sandra to the Detroit recruiting station as WAC (Women's Army Corps) selection officer.

Both left the Army in 1972. After trying unsuccessfully to find a way to serve together in the Michigan National Guard, they joined the 300th MP Command in March of this year.

The two live not far from Sandra's original home. She attended high school in Onsted, Mich., a few miles west of Tecumseh.

Walter grew up near Beckley, W. Va. He was studying education at Concord College in Athens, W. Va., hoping to become a coach, when his schooling was interrupted by a draft notice in his junior year in 1967.

He enlisted and in 1968 he went to Vietnam, where he served a year with the famous 1st Air Cavalry Division.

He won the Bronze Star for valor for reorganizing his unit's position and aiding wounded men under machine-gun fire during an enemy attack. He also holds the Air Medal.

Both Walter and Sandra earned army commendation medals for their recruiting accomplishments.

Holiday Sparkle

All that sparkles may not be champagne, but Michigan champagnes have a special sparkle—awards.

Only three Michigan wineries produce champagnes—Warner, St. Julian and Bronte—but each has won awards.

These three wineries have made champagnes since the 1930's employing two of the most time honored methods used in France—method Champenois "fermented in this bottle" and the Charmat bulk process of fermenting. Details of these systems are explained to visitors touring these wineries.

Champagne is a blended wine which undergoes a secondary fermentation, causing the gas given off to be dissolved in the wine. The bubbles gave this wine a liveliness, but unfortunately the pressures which built up inside the bottle caused many a bottle to explode until Dom Perignon tied the cork down with a string near the end of the 17th century.

Today, the bottles are corked and secured with wires to assure that the contents are kept under pressure.

Champagne is mature and ready to drink when bottled, thus aging will not improve it.

Champagnes should be chilled for 30 minutes in an ice bucket (when refrigerated the wine may get too cold and if the cork is plastic, it will not be pliable, and difficult to open, Sparkling wine which is too warm will foam excessively and lose its sparkle; wines too cold will lost their fragrance, as well.

Opening the champagne bottle is an art. Holding the bottle at a 45 degree angle, and holding the cork firmly, turn the bottle around the cork, pulling down as you turn. This avoids the hazards of corks popping and is a much quicker and simpler way to open. To keep the bubbles rising in a continuous stream, a hollow stemmed flute or tulip shaped continental champagne glass is best and also concentrates the bouquet, thereby increasing the pleasure of drinking the wine. The saucer type glass dissipates the bubbles too rapidly as too much of the surface of the wine is exposed.

Champagne has notoriously been a festive wine - served at all special occasions from weddings to babies to bon voyage. It complements nearly every food and can be enjoyed by itself.

There are varying degrees of sweetness of dryness of the wines — as described on the labels to guide your selection. Brut means very dry; demi-sec, medium dry. If the dryness is not specified, the wine is generally sweeter.

Dryer wines are generally served with food, sweeter ones with dessert or without food. A bottle will pour six-eight glasses of wine, filling the glasses two-thirds full.

Completes Course

Philip T. Marvin, of Tecumseh, switchperson for General Telephone, recently completed the company's 91A Carrier course held at its state headquarters training center in Norton Shores, near Muskegon, according to Dick Zanter, Adrian division manager for the company.

The 91A Carrier course teaches the student to test, align, and repair "carrier" equipment associated with both long distance and local service.

Marvin has held several positions since beginning his career with General Telephone in 1961. He and his wife, Ellen, and their children, Bridget, Philip, Elizabeth, and Patrick, reside at 900 Murray Drive.

A LOOK INSIDE
Herrick Hospital

BY
KATHY BAILEY, R.N.
RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

We pause a moment to glance ahead at 1978.

Here we are about to slip-slide right into another year. Funny how it creeps up on us. No longer need we count-down in days and weeks. Its only a matter of hours.

A time to reflect. We have enjoyed bringing these weekly columns to you. Our sincere thanks to James C. Lincoln, publisher-editor, Kathy Brown, editor-reporter and Frank Weir, photographer for the support, advice and guidance.

We hope that in some way we are helping to build pride for our hospital; pride to those who make it a hospital and give of themselves when they are needed, and pride to the community of which we are a part.

Now we enter 1978. What will it hold? We spoke to William Groover, Administrator of HMH. As we chatted he pointed to the end of the long construction project which will come in 1978, the culmination of several years' planning and waiting.

The major construction is done. What remains is mostly interior finish work on 1 South. We expect to open this new patient wing in January.

Another new experience awaits. In August 1977, Michigan Hospitals reached agreement with Blue Cross, Blue Shield of Michigan on a new reimbursement contract which will begin on January 1. We will be watched by the health-care industry in 49 states.

What is so new and exciting about the contract? It creates a new relationship between Blue Cross and Hospitals; a partnership and sharing of the ups and downs of running a hospital.

An important feature of the contract involves "cost containment." The goal is to reduce hospital costs to the level of the consumer price index over the next few years. Now that may sound like an easy task. It is in some places. But the bigger hospitals have a rough job to hold the line on costs. We are lucky to be the size we are and in this part of the state.

The Herrick Hospital board has practiced cost containment because they are business-minded and concerned for the community. But we will do more in 1978.

We look forward to continued service to you in the New Year. We hope to grow in knowledge and understanding; to do our jobs with a renewed committment to mankind.

Our wishes to you are for good health in '78 and "good will to all."

Clinton's 1977 Year in Review

JANUARY

Parent Effectiveness Training (PET) was started in Clinton by the Rev. James Rupert and his wife Lynn Sengbush.

Clinton council granted a 20 percent reduction for senior citizens on their electrical bills.

Approval was granted for the listing of the Clinton Inn site on the State Register of Historic Sites. Lawrence Bailey of the Historical Society of Clinton invited suggestions for text to put on the marker.

Fire Chief Harlon Ruhl was "roasted" by the Fall Festival committee of the Clinton Area Chamber of Commerce.

Lawrence Bailey formed a volunteer adult orchestra with 19 charter members from the Clinton, Tecumseh, Tipton, and Macon area. Practice is in the Tecumseh Community Center.

Village Starts Major Projects

CLINTON — The village is preparing for a bright future with several major improvement projects under way.

A $3.5 million waste water treatment facility is ready to begin with contracts awarded and completion scheduled for 1979.

Cost is being shared 75 per cent federal grants, five per cent state grant, and 20 per cent local funds.

Location of the wastewater plant is south of Bartlett St. on the old refuse dumping grounds.

Expansion of Tecumseh Rd. to four lanes is being federally funded 100 per cent at a cost of $213,000.

Four lanes will extend from Tyrell St. to Clinton-Macon Rd., then remainder will be widened on the west side only as far as the village limits south.

Arrival is expected just after the first of the year for additional generator for the light plant.

Installation is expected to cost $350,000. Ground work has been completed.

Officials are now studying possible construction of a new water treatment plant and additional above ground water storage.

All these projects will make possible the continued residential and industrial growth of Clinton.

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

Happy New year!! Hope the Christmas holidays were terrific and that the new year brings good health and happiness. Here are some suggestions for New Year's Eve entertaining.

Sauerkraut is a traditional meal served for New Year in some parts of the country. Barb Croft's sauerkraut balls make great hors d'oerves to serve over the holidays.

SAUERKRAUT BALLS

1 large (30 ounce) can sauerkraut

1½ pound Bob Evans bulk sausage

1 cup celery chopped small

1 large onion, diced small

1 stick oleo

2 tablespoons poultry seasonings

dash of salt and pepper (to taste)

pinch of sage

dry bread cubes

Boil sauerkraut, sausage, celery and onion in liquid from sauerkraut until sausage is cooked well. Stir mixture frequently while cooking to break up sausage. When sausage is fully cooked, remove from heat and add stick of oleo and mix again. Add seasonings and salt and pepper to taste. Add dried bread cubes, enough to make a wet dressing. Form into balls and roll into beaten egg and then into dried bread crumbs. Deep fry at 375 degrees for 2-5 minutes until golden brown. Serve hot.

Note: Can be prepared days ahead and frozen successfully. Mix as directed, make into balls and roll in egg and bread crumbs. Place on cookie sheet and quick freeze. Then place in plastic bags. Deep fry as needed. Do not defrost first.

Cheeseballs are served frequently over the holidays. Here is a new one to try.

CHEESEBALL

1 stick margarine

1 jar Old English Cheddar Cheese

2 jars Roka Blue cheese

8 ounce Philadelphia cream cheese

Beat together in small mixing bowl. Put on waxed paper and shape into large ball or two small ones. When ready to serve, roll into chopped nuts and decorate top with maraschino cherries. Can be frozen ahead.

Macon Montage

By Sharon Connors

MACON — A family gathering, a church service, talking to a loved one long distance, a card from an old friend, good food, being at home — all these make a holiday so special and Macon is having just that kind of a Christmas holiday.

The wind and rain on Christmas Eve hampered the setting out of candles (in paper bags) to light the way to the Boysville Chapel but didn't it upset the Midnight Mass with candlelight service indoors. Staff and friends enjoyed coffee and rolls after Mass.

This year the Connorses gathered on Chrismas Eve. Pat's mom, Ahlene Connors, his brother and wife, Mike and Pam Connors and sister, Mary Connors along with Linda McCleery and children and Agatha Camburn had dinner before sharing gifts. A call from son, Mike who was not able to be home and visit from the Boysville carolers all added together to make a wonderful evening. Dec. 26 was spent in Toledo, Ohio with Sharon's family at the home of her sister's family the Wes Falls home.

The Harold Rhora family spent Christmas Eve in Tecumseh with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rhora. Christmas Day a traditional Christmas with a "Williamsburg touch" was enjoyed at the Rhora's Macon home. Family included Mr. and Mrs. E.J. Crawford, Debbie Baker and Mrs. Jean Coonair. Other guests were Dick and Jean Horvath, Chris and Mark, former Maconites. Interestingly Dick is a direct descendant of John Pennington, founder of Macon. The Horvaths are from California.

On Christmas Eve the Richard Beal family, the Ed Clark family and Bernard and Pearl Tucker took dinner to their mom's house, Myrtle Clarks in Macon. Following dinner the group enjoyed the cantata at the Macon Methodist Church.

Christmas Day Luella Rhoades hosted her whole family for a chicken dinner. Those who came were the families of Eldean, Bill, Charles and Jim Rhoades. Daughter and family Ed and Wilma Clark and sons along with Luella added up to about 25 who gathered for the holiday.

Bob and Shirley Kollar and family had Christmas Day dinner for Ed and Gladys Mueller and Tom, Ron and Sue Mueller and Larry and Judy Biskner and Kim. The group enjoyed calling Paul and Rose Kollar in Los Angeles, Calif.

Dick and Iris Gage, Kim and Julie started the holiday with their traditional Christmas Eve supper. Scott Niblack shared the evening with them. It ended with the group attending church in Tecumseh. Christmas Day a turkey dinner was enjoyed with neighbors Agatha Camburn and son, Robert joining them. Monday found Iris's mom and dad, Eric and May Cracknell from Royal Oak coming out for the day along with Eric Glen, the Cracknell's grandson.

Mrs. Arthur Brown gathered her family for Christmas Eve dinner. Daughter Mary and her husband, Jim came from Birmingham, Mich. along with Sarah and David to enjoy the day. The family was happy to have David home from Alma College.

Clarence and Margaret Hall spent Christmas Eve at their son's home, Harold and Helen Hall and Christmas Day at their daughter's home, Clarence and Dorothy Damon.

The Al Yurmanovic family had a family Christmas Eve dinner. Other family members joined them by long distance phone calls. Mom fixed the entire dinner and told the kids and their families just to come. Getting through the mud would be enough. Luckily the mud was no problem! Christmas Day the family went to Al's mother's Mary Yurmanovic in Melvindale for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Morden had all of their children and their spouses and all 13 of their grandchildren along with Ronnie Morden for Christmas dinner. The following day found almost the same group back at mom's to celebrate Bill and Susie Bishop's son, Billy's first year. He was Macon's Christmas baby last year!

Christmas Eve was a happy one for the Nancy Andrews family because daughter, Rebel Andrews, came home from Bixby Hospital where she was a medical patient since the Tuesday before. Christmas Day Nancy and her six children enjoyed the day at home with Nancy's mom and dad, Bill and Becky Clark and daughter, and Richard and Joyce Schoolmaster. Dinner was held.

Physical damage alone couldn't account for Claudia's condition after the unexplained accident. She lay in a coma, her brain feebly functioning on the edge of consciousness. Suddenly, strange things begin happening—a nurse's hand pens frantic appeals for help during periodic seizures, a surgeon dies as he picks up a scalpel to operate. Someone was coming to finish the job the rigged accident had begun. Who? Claudia knows; her brain silently screams, "For God's sake, help me!" Read Elleston Trevor's THE THETA SYNDROME and you'll know, too.

HEAT AND DUST by Ruth P. Jhabvala, won the 1975 Booker Prize, England's most valuable literary award. The contrast between modern India and the India of 1923 is remarkable in its changes and similarities. Tessie's granddaughter travels to India to reconstruct the life of her grandfather's first wife, Olivia. Olivia had scandalized the family by running away from her husband to an Indian prince.

Romp through the high and low life of modern England with the characters of J.B. Priestley's FOUND, LOST, FOUND. Tom Dekker can tolerate life only when he is "afloat on a substantial amount of gin." Kate, victim of a bungled marriage, disappears and challenges Tom to find her. Will love triumph in the end?

LAURELS OF LAKE CONSTANCE draws heavily from Marie Chaix's father's prison diaries. As Paris prepares a liberation celebration in 1944, Albert B. and his family flee, entering a nightmare.

Arnost Lustig, author of NIGHT AND HOPE (Vol. 1 of CHILDREN OF THE HOLOCAUST), escaped from one of the World War II death trains for Jews with a friend. DARKNESS CASTS NO SHADOW is the story of the two boys' weeks of extreme fear, starvation and exhaustion, trying to return to Prague.

Christmas Potluck

The annual Welcome Wagon Christmas potluck was held with each member bringing a dish to pass and 10 copies of her recipe to be sold at five cents each.

Members participated in the Christmas sharing by bringing two food items to be split into two food baskets for two needy families.

A cash gift of $25 was also given to each family and toys and games were donated as gifts.

Extenion Club Meets

Gifts were exchanged at the last meeting of the Northeast Tecumseh Extension Club at the home of Mrs. Ellsworth Robison. A potluck supper was served.

Each member brought several white elephant gifts and played bingo for these.

Next meeting is Jan. 24 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frederick Helm with the lesson, "When the Lights Go Out." After the lesson, the group will work on cultural arts.

Transferred to Tecumseh

Roger A. Gerth, of Adrian, was transferred to Tecumseh as an installation and maintenance supervisor for General Telephone Co.

Gerth is responsible for the installation and maintenance of telephone facilities and station equipment. He is responsible for the training and safe performance of the personnel assigned, and for the control and maintenance of necessary tools and vehicles.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

Britton Briefs

Mrs. Melva Kanous entertained for Christmas dinner Mrs. Marian Myers, Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kanous and family, Tecumseh; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill and boys, Saline; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Linn and family, Britton. Her sister, Mrs. Myers was a weekend guest at the Kanouse home.

Mrs. Beatrice Gilmore was admitted to Herrick Hospital Dec. 23 after suffering a broken wrist and hip received while caroling. She is in room 208.

Earl Murphy was additted to Herrick Memorial Hospital last Friday as a medical patient. He is expected to be released this week. Mrs. Murphy remains in the hospital.

A potluck Christmas dinner was held at the Britton Bethel Baptist Church Dec. 17. Faye Gamboe decorated tables with greenery, ribbons and candles. Following dinner, a slide presentation was enjoyed, reviewing people and events over the past years of the church. The oldest known slide was 1942. Pastor Gerald Booth ended the evening with a selection of Scripture from Ezk. 3:17-21 to challenge the church to win the lost, and care for the saint.

On Dec. 22, 16 carolers crowded into Pastor Booth's van and delivered fruit baskets to eight different shut-in families of the church, singing a selection of Christmas carols at each residence. Following the caroling the group returned to the church for hot chocolate and cookies, but instead had a surprise birthday cake and ice cream for Pastor Booth.

Birthday party for Jesus was held Dec. 25, following the evening service, with homemade ice cream and cake furnished by Pastor and Mrs. Booth. Each person was challenged to apply Rom. 12:1,2 to their lives, and give Jesus Christ themselves. The group sang Happy Birthday, and enjoyed the refreshments.

A Watch Night Service will be held Dec. 31. Fun time, table games competitive games will be held from 7-9 p.m. Food from 9-10 p.m.; From 10-10:30 p.m., film, a re-showing of the slides from the Christmas dinner, plus additions; Fellowship in Song and Scripture to welcome in the New Year will be held 11:30-12:00.

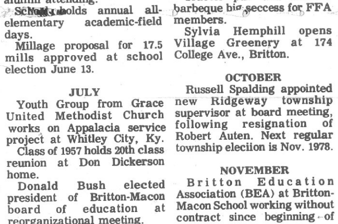
Communion Service

TIPTON — Holy Communion service will be at Tipton Community Church Jan. 1 at the 11 a.m. worship service. The Rev. Raymond E. Scribner's sermon will be "It's About Time."

Tipton community youth fellowship meets Jan. 1 at 7 p.m.; the board of deacons meets Jan. 3, at 7 p.m.; the board of trustees meets Jan. 5 at 8 p.m.



Well, did everyone survive the big day? I hope so. I also hope your Christmas was a nice one, everything you wanted it to be. The holiday season is, of course, not over yet. Another big weekend is waiting in the wings. With so much excitement it is hard to settle down and so perhaps today would be a good time to catch up on a few of the loose odds and ends. Every once in a while the hodge-podge file gets full to overflowing, this is one of those times.

Last summer someone asked how long a cardinal will live. I know at various times I have read such statistics but, of course, that type of information always buries itself when it is wanted.

Not long ago, however, I did run across a small list of maximum ages. The date was taken from zoo or aquarium records and so probably the life span is longer than it would be for creatures living in the wild.

But, can you imagine a toad living for 36 years, a crayfish for 30, a rattlesnake for 17 and an earthworm for 10? A mallard duck was reported to have reached the ripe old age of 24 and an English sparrow 23. A cardinal? This particular article did not mention the red beauty so I shall keep looking.

And have you been wondering, perhaps even losing sleep at night worrying about Michigan's bald eagles? Actually it is not a laughing matter, Marda. The fate of our national bird is not a rosy picture to contemplate. And if with all our modern technology we cannot save these magnificant birds from extinction, it is only a short step to wondering if we can save ourselves.

Nowhere in the country is the eagle doing well and, according to information in the November-December issue of the "Michigan Natural Resources" magazine, our state is no different.

Of 26 active eagle areas in the Lower Peninsula, 16 pairs of birds produced 26 young. One eaglet is known to have died and nine other active nests produced no young.

Speaking of such things reminds me of a short item in the October '77 issue of the "Michigan Audubon Newsletter." It pertained to our own Kirkland's warblers, These little birds were carefully studied over the past few years. The known population is not large and their nesting area is quite restricted.

It is going to be a long uphill fight to keep the Kirkland's warbler from becoming extinct. The nesting success this past summer was not as good as in some years but it was good enough to make those concerned happy.

Another source of information claims that this warbler's population is up about 10 percent in 1977. Four hundred and thirty-eight is not a great number but we can hope it continues to increase.

Nest counting provides much useful information, so does banding and recovery of bands. Interesting information too. These birds have good homing sense — of 14 birds banded in one area, 13 returned to nest.

And oh, by the way, central Michigan has always claimed to be the only spot playing host to nesting Kirkland's warblers; however, it has been reported (although I am not sure whether it was fully verified) that a stray pair or two nested in Ontario.

It is almost predictable that at this time of year there is going to be dire prophesying about the 'climate of the future'. The latest I have read is from a geochemist of the Lamont-Doherity Geological Observatory. He believes the earth's atmospbere will warm up because of the coal, oil, and natural gas we are burning at such an "awesome rate". Carbon dioxide gas is the culprit.

Oxygen in the air combines with the carbon released by burning fuel and creates the gas. In time this gas will warm us up — instead of trying to keep warm, future generations may have trouble keeping cool.

And on that bright note I shall wind up this a last article of '77. Happy New Year to one and all!

Musicale Presented at Bethel Baptist

BRITTON — "His Story", a musicale, was presented at the Christmas morning service at Bethel Baptist Church. The integrated presentation of scripture, song and slides was designed by Almina Hunt and Pastor Gerald Booth to remind the congregational of how and why Jesus came to earth.

Organist was Gladys Goodacre and Byron Gall, pianist.

Special numbers included "No Room" with Hazel Booth, Joyal, Irene and Jean Bishop and "In A Manger Long Ago" with Faye Gamboe, Almina Hunt, Howard and Andrew Bishop.

Joel Sandrick accompanied the congregation with his trumpet and Phyllis Sisty with the marimba. Mrs. Sisty also played for the offertory.

Andrew, Francis and Leo Bishop sang "We Three Kings."

Others in the choir were Marcia and Nancy Bishop, Pastor Booth, Elsie Jeffrey, Karen Purvis and Joel Sandrick.

The musicale was interspersed with scripture readings by Pastor Booth and slides by Tim Booth with familiar carols by the congregation and choir.

"Down From His Glory" was sung by Mrs. Hunt accompanied by Joel on the trumpet.

Howard Bishop sang "The Holy City" as the finale.

Guest Speaker

BRITTON — Patricia Aftanas, teacher and missionary student from Frazier will be guest speaker Jan. 5 at 7:30 p.m. for the United Methodist Women of Grace United Methodist Church.

Pat has been studying with the Oriental Missions Society International of Greenwood, Ind., and is preparing for the missionary field and continue her teaching career at the Seoul Theological Semiary in Korea.

MARY ROHN

Christmas Play Is Presented

BRITTON — "Born In A Barn" under the direction of Hazel Booth, assisted by Pat Preston, was presented Dec. 18 at Bethel Baptist Church.

Characters were portrayed by David Hays, Robin Kelley, Anita Kerfoot, Gregg Sessoms, Joyal Bishop, Pastor Gerald Booth, Faye Gamboe, Arlene Johnston, Julia Grounds, Gary Williams, Bill Hall and Jean Bishop.

Amber Bartenslager, Tim Sandrick and Brian Crawford gave the welcome.

Angie Bartenslager, Crystal Kerfoot and Sharron Booth recited "I Couldn't Be There".

"Sharing In The Stable" was presented by Tim Booth, Denise Hays, Bethany Williams, Sheryl Williams and Sue Andrews.

Rebel Andrews, Robbie Bartenslager and Tim Booth in "Can You Imagine" and Rusty Hays and Robbie in "No Room for Jesus" comprised the remainder of the program.

Others behind the scenes were Bill Hall, sound; Ron Kerfoot, lighting, art work, youth group; props, Bob Hunt and candy, Valerie Bartenslager and group who packed boxes.

Missionary offering of $330 was received to be distributed to each missionary family supported by the church.

A love gift was presented to the pastor from the congregation and boxes of candy were distributed to each one upon leaving.

Baraca Class Holds Party

BRITTON — Annual Christmas party for the Baraca Philathea Class of the Congregational Christian Church was held Dec. 11 at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cadmus.

A cooperative chicken dinner and exchange of gifts was held by the 13 members attending.

Pastor David Hawk told a story of Christmas sharing as part of the evening's program. A time of fellowship followed.

Class agreed to cancel all monthly meetings until April 30 when it will be held with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt.

Gymnasts Begin Jan. 3

With a large contingent of competitors, Tecumseh's gymnastics squad gets the season underway Jan. 3 with a special exhibition for the public. Their first meet will be Jan. 11 hosting Jackson Northwest.

The Indians will put on the exhibition Jan. 3 at Tecumseh High School starting at 7 p.m. The show will further the public's knowledge of judging and gymnastics. There is no charge.

The team boasts a turn-out of 25 girls and coach Mary Wood intends to carry all on the roster.

The orange and black has a nucleus of experienced competitors returning from last year's squad.

Tecumseh is still an independent team, since the Huron League does not offer league competition in gymnastics.

Returning Tecumseh lettermen include senior Cindy Egli; juniors Joanie Rapin, Grace Gould, Dawn Champanois and Debbie Hamilton. All these girls have been with the team since its inception three years ago.

Returning sophomore lettermen are Joanie Spencer and Tracy Isom. Sophomore Becky Schneirla, who did a fine job as a freshman last year, is indefinitely lost to the team having suffered a dislocated elbow in practice. It is hoped that she will see some action towards the end of the season.

Second year girls who are looking good according to Coach Wood are Nancy Phelan, Judy Harris and Debbie Patten. Sophomore Karen Keller, who didn't go out last year, is looking good on the balance beam and in floor exercises while freshmen Theresa Dangler and Ann Smoke are coming on strong in vaulting.

Tumbling has been removed by the state as a gymnastics event. Only those events that exist at the Olympic level are now used by high schoolers.

The line-up for Tecumseh by event looks like this: Vaulting - Smoke, Dangler, Gould, Rapin, Patten; Balance Beam - Gould, Egli, Rapin, Isom, Hamilton; Uneven Bars - Rapin, Spencer, Phelan, Harris; Floor Exercises - Gould, Egli, Hamilton, Champanois, Patten, Keller.

Coach Wood says in conclusion, "We are getting more competitive. The juniors have matured a lot and are ready for a meet. I have heard them comment that they are a lot more relaxed. They are better prepared mentally this year and have a lot more confidence. And that's the key, confidence."

Assisting Wood this year in coaching is Nancy Hebert.

CAPTURE LEAGUE LEAD

Indians Pull Out Last Minute Win

In what has to be one of the more exciting boys basketball games played in Tecumseh, the Indians knocked off previously unbeaten Airport Friday night to take over sole possession of first place in the Huron League.

The Indians came up with a 46-44 winning margin in the game to post an umblemished 4-0 league mark, 7-0 overall.

As the score clearly indicates, the orange and black certainly didn't walk away with the victory, regardless of the home court advantage.

And even Tecumseh's own coach, Jim Curth admitted that his team "only played ball one quarter, the fourth."

The Indians trailed most of the first half but stayed close behind. The Jets led 23-21 at the half.

Airport tried to put Tecumseh away in the third quarter scoring 17 points to 10 for the Indians making the margin 40-31 in favor of the Jets cause.

But Richard Cangley and Ben Maves came up with some key steals in the fourth quarter to spark the Indians on. With 1:56 left in the game, Maves tied it up.

Tecumseh took the lead when Bret DesErmia scored on one of two foul shots with just :25 showing on the scoreboard.

John Ely grabbed the ball under Airport's net and passed to Jeff Hans. Hans was fouled as he made his way downcourt and he converted one of the two charity tosses making the score 46-44 with :05 left.

An Airport played lobbed the ball in play over the head of DesErmia and into the waiting hands of Hans to end the game.

The Indians completed a meager 15 of 55 from the field for 27 percent to 18 of 43 for 42 percent for the Jets. However, Tecumseh converted six of 13 attempts during the final frame.

Tecumseh held Airport to just four points in that important final period.

Adrian suffered 17 turnovers to just seven for the Indians.

Tecumseh also held an advantage at the line dumping 16 of 29 to eight of 15 for the Jets.

John Ely and Bret DesErmia led in scoring for the tribe with 11 each. Ben Maves had nine, Richard Cangley eight and Hans seven.

Cangley had five of Tecumseh's nine steals adding five assists. Maves had six assists.

Coach Jim Curth said, "I didn't think we hit well enough on the boards and we didn't play good offensive ball until the fourth quarter. Cangley and Maves saved us. They got some key steals and got us going in the final period."

The Indians travel to Adrian this Friday.

Richter Named All-State

Clinton junior basketball standout Sue Richter was recently named to the all-state team among Class C schools.

For her three years on the Clinton squad, Sue has scored a total of 1,134 points which is a per game average of 17.2.

She has also grabbed 491 rebounds, 183 assists and 216 steals.

Richter began her basketball career by starting on the seventh and eight grade boys basketball teams in Clinton.

She first started for the varsity girls team in the fall of 1975 and has started and played in every game since then, 66 in a row.

Coach Bob King said of Richter, "She has become a super offensive player, a good defensive player and an excellent rebounder. She is 5'8" and jumps very well for her size. She has a good jump shot which she uses to score most of her points from around 15 feet from the basket."

She has also been named to the all LCAA first team for three straight years, was chosen most valuable player in '76 and '77 and won the Lenawee County scoring championship this year besides being named to the all-state team.

For the three years Richter has played, the Redskins have won two league championships, three district titles, two regional runnerup titles, one regional title for an overall record of 53 victories and 13 losses.

Tory Banquet

Britton held its fall sports banquet last Thursday, honoring those athletes who participated in football and girls basketball.

Britton varsity coach Randy Salisbury presented awards and letters to the varsity football team.

Those receiving special awards included: outstanding offensive lineman—Jon Hintz; outstanding offensive back—Jeff Osterhout; outstanding defensive lineman—David Bruce; outstanding defensive back—Randy Smith.

Hintz, Smith and Osterhout received all-league honors previously while Smith and Osterhout received all-county recognition.

Jeff Osterhout was selected most valuable player and was named—along with Dennis Kimerer—as co-captain for next year.

Mrs. Diane Matuszak, coach of the varsity girls basketball squad presented awards and letters to her team. The Tories won the district title and posted a 14-7 final record.

Special awards included: best field goal percentage—Jody Smith; best free throw percentage—Geneene Bruce; best defensive player—Pam Dusseau; leading rebounder—Kim Cottrell.

Geneene Bruce was chosen most valuable player of the girls varsity basketball team.

Bruce, Cottrell, and Dusseau were selected all-league.

Mrs. Peggy Raeburn presented letters to junior varsity girls basketball while Mark Lewis did the same for JV football.

The banquet was co-sponsored by the athletic department and the Tory Athletic Boosters.

BHS JV's, 6-0

Britton's junior varsity basketball squad is off to an impressive start on the season posting six straight wins with no defeats.

Their sixth victory was a 59-49 decision over Whitmore Lake last week.

Starters for the team, all sophomores, include: center David Bruce leading scorer and rebounder averaging 16.2 points per game and 10 rebounds; guard Troy Bailey - floor leader shooting 75 percent from the line and leading in assists, and steals, averaging seven points per game; guard Randy Dusseau - scored 25 points and 20 points in the last two games, averaging 12.8 points per game; forward Jim Heiden - second in rebounds on the team averaging 6.5 points and six rebounds per game, forward Chris Kimerer - steady player, averaging 4.5 points per game.

Coach Cam VanArsdalen, who took over the junior varsity coaching duties this year, speaks as highly of his bench personnel as his starters.

Dan Harriott is leading the team in field goal percentage with 46 percent; Chris Barth did a good job, according to VanArsdalen in the last game starting for Bruce who was sick and out of the line-up; Mike Benedict and Brad Reau have both done well.

Other members of the team include Tom Lutz, Brad Smith, Jeff Rohrback, Brad Clark, Tom Wielfaert, Scott Fanslau, Mike Sanders and John Newlin.

VanArsdalen states that the key to the team's success thus far, has been a defense that has forced its opponents into 122 turnovers in the last six games. The offense has averaged 55½ points per game while opponents have been held to 45½ points.

The Tories have definitely turned around having posted a 3-15 mark at the end of last season.

Wrestlers Victorious

Clinton's wrestling squad dominated Morenci last Thursday 58-12.

The victory left the Skins with a 2-1 LCAA record 6-3 overall.

The Redskins won 10 of the 13 weight classes against the Bulldogs.

Individual winners for Clinton included: 112-Willis, pin at :49; 119-Randy Weirich, pin at 3:36; 126-Prichard pin, 1:06; 132-Hoag, 12-2; 138-Rudy Weirich, pin, 2:59; 155-VanSickle, pin, 2:54; 178-Miller, pin, :49; 191 Heimerdinger, pin, 1:56.

Skins Bow to Royals

Blissfield snuck by Clinton 59-57 in boys basketball action last Friday.

The Redskins now post a 2-2 record in the LCAA, 4-3 overall while the Royals are 4-0 in the league, 5-1 overall.

Clinton fought back from a 30-24 deficit at the half to trail the Royals by just one, 43-42 at the end of the third frame.

Blissfield scored 16 to Clinton's 15 points in the final frame to maintain the winning margin.

The Skins hit on 22 of 68 for 32.4 percent while the Royals made 24 of 63 for 38.1 percent.

Blissfield held a distinct rebounding advantage grabbing 43 carooms to 28 for Clinton. However, Blissfield suffered 24 turnovers to 12 for Clinton.

Dave Porter and Mike Karapas tied for Clinton scoring honors each with 14 points. Rick Smith had 10.
